A BILL

To designate the area between the intersections of 18th Street Northwest and Church Street Northwest, and 18th Street Northwest and P Street Northwest, in the District of Columbia as “Jimmy Lai Way”, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 SECTION 1. CONDEMNING THE ARBITRARY DETENTION OF 4 JIMMY LAI IN HONG KONG.

5 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

1           (1) Jimmy Lai Chee-ying, a Hong Kong democ-
2       racy advocate, media entrepreneur, and a British 3       citizen, has been in prison since December 2020 on 4       multiple fabricated charges, and is serving a sen-
5       tence of almost 6 years in prison under politically
6       motivated fraud charges, concurrently serving two 7       other sentences, one for joining a vigil to mark the 8       1989 Tiananmen Square Massacre, and another for 9       participating in peaceful protests in 2019.

10          (2) Jimmy Lai is held in solitary confinement
11       for 23 hours and 10 minutes each day, with only 50 12       minutes for restricted exercise and limited human 13       contact or access to daylight. He suffers from diabe-14       tes and has experienced significant weight loss and 15       increasing frailty since being imprisoned. He was de-16       nied access to independent medical care.

17          (3) The Apple Daily newspaper which Jimmy
18       Lai founded and published was forced by the au-19       thorities in Hong Kong to close in June 2021, and 20       the parent company Next Media was delisted from 21       the Hong Kong Stock Exchange under government 22       coercion in January 2023, severely restricting the 23       free flow of news and information that undergirded
24       Hong Kong role as a major financial center.

1           (4) On August 10, 2020, Lai was charged with 2           “collusion with a foreign country or with external
3           elements to endanger national security” under Arti-
4           cle 29 of the National Security Law, charges levied
5           in part because of meetings taken with United 6           States officials, including those during the first Ad-
7           ministration of President Donald J. Trump (2016– 8           2020) and supporting publicly the policies pursued
9           at that time by the Administration.

10          (5) Jimmy Lai’s meetings with former United 11          States Government officials and public figures, in-12          cluding the Vice President, Secretary of State,
13          Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Con-14          sul-General in Hong Kong have been cited by the 15          prosecution in the court proceedings.

16          (6) Lai trial under the National Security Law
17          began in December 2023 and is ongoing.

18          (7) A group of United Nations experts, being 19          alarmed by multiple and serious violations of Lai’s 20          rights, including the right to a fair trial and access 21          to a lawyer of his own choosing, called for his imme-
22          diate release.

23          (8) The minimum sentence required under the 24          National Security Law is 10 years imprisonment,

1       and therefore it is possible that Lai could spend the 2       rest of his life behind bars.

3           (9) In 1997, the United Kingdom transferred 4       sovereignty over Hong Kong to the People's Repub-
5       lic of China (PRC) with guaranteed that funda-
6       mental rights are protected under both the Sino-
7       British Joint Declaration and the Basic Law, which 8       enumerate specific rights and freedoms including 9       those of speech, of the press, and of assembly.

10          (10) The Government of the People's Republic
11       of China has repeatedly undermined Hong Kong's
12       autonomy since, in particular since the Umbrella
13       Movement protests in 2014, the mass prodemocracy
14       protests in 2019, and the imposition of the draco-
15       nian National Security Law in 2020.

16          (11) Since its enactment in June 2020, the Na-
17       tional Security Law, unilaterally passed by the Na-18       tional People's Congress Standing Committee and 19       enforced by officials in Hong Kong as a pretext to 20       repress legitimate and peaceful speech, assembly,
21       and expression of political opinions.

22          (12) Jimmy Lai stands for the values of democ-
23       racy, human rights, respect for the rule of law, reli-
24       gious freedom, freedom of expression, and media 25       freedom, and is prosecuted and persecuted by the

1 PRC's proxies in Hong Kong solely because of his 2 opinions and activities in pursuit of these values.

3 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—Congress—

4 (1) condemns the unjust imprisonment, mis-
5 treatment, and the show trial of United Kingdom
6 citizen Jimmy Lai in Hong Kong;

7 (2) calls upon the Hong Kong authorities to re-
8 lease Jimmy Lai immediately and unconditionally
9 and cease prosecuting him and others charged under 10 the National Security Law;

11 (3) reaffirms the importance of the freedom of 12 speech and the right of publishers, journalists, and 13 media workers in Hong Kong and around the world
14 to operate free from intimidation, harassment, re-
15 pression, censorship, and fear;

16 (4) recognizes that the severe restrictions on 17 the free flow of news and information from Hong 18 Kong impacts the ability of individuals, corporations, 19 and diplomats to make decisions about travel, invest-
20 ments, and political conditions in Hong Kong;

21 (5) urges the Secretary of State and other rel-
22 evant Department of State officials to advocate for 23 the release of Jimmy Lai by raising his case with of-24 ficials of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Re-
25 gion and People's Republic of China;

1           (6) urges the Secretary of State to employ the 2           financial sanctions found in the Hong Kong Human 3           Rights and Democracy Act and the Hong Kong Au-4           tonomy Act for Hong Kong officials complicit in the 5           arrest and prosecution of Jimmy Lai and other po-
6           litical prisoners in Hong Kong;

7           (7) urges the United Nations High Commis-
8           sioner for Human Rights to hold a special session 9           and appoint an impartial and independent United 10          Nations mechanism to evaluate, monitor, and report
11          on a range of human rights violations in the Peo-12          ple’s Republic of China, including the impact of the 13          National Security Law on human rights in Hong 14          Kong, as requested by over United Nations Special 15          Experts in 2020; and

16          (8) urges the Government of the United King-17          dom and all governments that view extension of 18          human rights, the rule of law, and an end to censor-19          ship as critical aspect of their national and economic 20          security to call for all charges against Jimmy Lai to 21          be dropped, the trial to end, and for the immediate 22          and unconditional release of Jimmy Lai.

23 SEC. 2. DESIGNATION OF “JIMMY LAI WAY” IN THE DIS-
24 TRICT OF COLUMBIA.

25          (a) DESIGNATION OF STREET NAME.—

1           (1) IN GENERAL.—The area between the inter-
2           sections of 18th Street Northwest and Church Street
3           Northwest, and 18th Street Northwest and P Street
4           Northwest in the District of Columbia shall be 5           known and designated as “Jimmy Lai Way”.

6           (2) REFERENCE.—Any reference in a law, map, 7           regulation, document, paper, or other record of the 8           United States to the area referred to in paragraph 9           (1) shall be deemed to include “Jimmy Lai Way”.

10          (b) DESIGNATION OF ADDRESS.—

11           (1) DESIGNATION.—The address of 1520 18th 12           Street Northwest in the District of Columbia shall 13           be redesignated as 1 Jimmy Lai Way Northwest.
