17 mines is appropriate to enhance fentanyl prevention, 18 seizure, and interdiction activities.”; and

19 (D) by adding at the end the following:

20 “(t) ADDITIONAL PROSECUTORIAL RESOURCES.—

21 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney General shall 22 make available sufficient investigative and prosecu-
23 tion resources as may be practicable for the pur-
24 poses described in this section, including temporary 25 reassignment under subsection (b)(2) for fiscal years

1       2024 through 2030, during which such an assistant
2       United States attorney shall prioritize the investiga-
3       tion and prosecution of organizations and individuals
4       trafficking in fentanyl and fentanyl-related sub-
5       stances. Such temporary reassignment may be ex-
6       tended by the Attorney General for such time as 7       may be necessary to conclude any ongoing investiga-
8       tion or prosecution in which the assistant United 9       States attorney is engaged.

10       “(2) PROCESS FOR TEMPORARY REASSIGN-
11       MENT.—Not later than 180 days after the date of 12       enactment of this subsection, the Attorney General
13       shall establish a process under which the Director,
14       in consultation with the Executive Boards of each
15       designated high intensity drug trafficking area, may 16       request an assistant United States attorney to be so
17       temporarily reassigned in accordance with this sub-18       section.”.
