3 ING FOR CIVILIAN WORKERS AT CERTAIN
4 NAVAL SHIPYARDS.

5 (a) STUDY.—The Secretary of Defense, in coordina-
6 tion with the Secretary of the Navy and the Director of 7 the Office of Industrial Policy of the Department of De-
8 fense, shall conduct a study to assess the feasibility, costs,
9 and benefits of providing apartment-style or dormitory
10 housing for civilian workers at covered naval shipyards.
11 Such study shall include each of the following:

12 (1) An assessment of the estimated costs of
13 constructing, maintaining, or leasing apartment-style
14 housing units for shipyard workers.

15 (2) An assessment of the potential economic 16 and workforce benefits, including recruitment and 17 retention rates.

18 (3) An assessment of the feasibility of imple-
19 menting housing solutions at various public shipyard
20 locations.

21 (4) An assessment of the operational effects of 22 providing housing, including on worker availability,
23 morale, and commuting burdens.

24 (5) Options for deducting fair-market rent or
25 below-market housing fees directly from employee

1 paychecks, including administrative, legal, and con-
2 tractual implications.

3 (6) Comparisons with similar workforce housing
4 models used by the Department of Defense or other
5 Federal agencies.

6 (7) Case studies of at least two covered naval
7 shipyards that include specific data on the potential
8 effectiveness of workforce housing solutions.

9 (b) REPORT.—Not later than 18 months after the
10 date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall sub-
11 mit to Congress a report on the results of the study con-
12 ducted under subsection (a).

13 (c) COVERED NAVAL SHIPYARDS.—In this section, a
14 covered naval shipyard is any of the following:

15 (1) Norfolk Naval Shipyard, Virginia.

16 (2) Pearl Harbor Naval Shipyard and Inter-
17 mediate Maintenance Facility, Hawaii.

18 (3) Portsmouth Naval Shipyard, Maine.

19 (4) Puget Sound Naval Shipyard and Inter-
20 mediate Maintenance Facility, Washington.
