

119TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 7112

To require the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to carry out efforts to inform veterans of their rights with regards to the receipt of health care, benefits, and services furnished under provisions of law administered by the Secretary, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 15, 2026

Mrs. MILLER-MEEKS introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Veterans' Affairs, and in addition to the Committee on Armed Services, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To require the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to carry out efforts to inform veterans of their rights with regards to the receipt of health care, benefits, and services furnished under provisions of law administered by the Secretary, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Veterans’ Bill of 5 Rights Act of 2026”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds the following:

3 (1) The United States has a solemn obligation,
4 articulated by President Abraham Lincoln in 1865,
5 “to care for him who shall have borne the battle,
6 and for his widow, and his orphan”.

7 (2) Veterans transitioning to civilian life from 8 service in the Armed Forces deserve timely access to 9 health care, benefits, and information, as well as re-
10 spect, dignity, and transparency in all interactions
11 with the Department of Veterans Affairs.

12 (3) The responsibilities of the Secretary of Vet-
13 erans Affairs require that veterans’ rights be clearly 14 codified to ensure accountability and consistent na-
15 tionwide administration of benefits and services.

16 SEC. 3. VETERANS’ BILL OF RIGHTS.

17 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Veterans Affairs
18 shall carry out efforts to inform veterans of their rights 19 with regards to the receipt of health care, benefits, and 20 services furnished under provisions of law administered by 21 the Secretary.

22 (b) ELEMENTS.—In carrying out subsection (a), the 23 Secretary shall ensure that veterans are aware of their 24 rights with respect to the following:

25 (1) ACCESS TO VA OR VA-AUTHORIZED PRO-
26 VIDERS.—Veterans have the right to receive health

1 care from the Department of Veterans Affairs or,
2 when eligible under Federal law, from community
3 providers authorized by the Department.

4 (2) RESPECT AND DIGNITY.—The right to be 5 treated with courtesy, respect, and dignity in all
6 interactions with personnel of the Department.

7 (3) INFORMED CONSENT.—The right to receive
8 clear, complete information about treatment options
9 and to provide informed consent for care furnished
10 under laws administered by the Secretary.

11 (4) AWARENESS OF BENEFITS.—The right to 12 receive comprehensive, understandable information
13 about benefits, programs, and services for which the 14 veteran may be eligible or entitled under laws ad-
15 ministered by the Secretary.

16 (5) ACCESS TO BENEFITS.—The right to apply
17 for benefits furnished under provisions of law admin-
18 istered by the Secretary at any time and to receive 19 clear explanations from the Department regarding 20 eligibility determinations concerning such benefits.

21 (6) HEALTH CARE WITHOUT RETALIATION.—
22 The right to seek care or raise concerns without fear
23 of stigma, retaliation, or adverse action from the De-24 partment.

1 (7) PRIVACY.—The right to the protection of 2 personal information and medical records consistent
3 with provisions of Federal law relating to privacy, 4 protection of personal information, and medical 5 records.

6 (8) RIGHT TO GRIEVANCE REDRESS.—The right
7 to file complaints concerning services furnished by 8 the Department and to receive timely, thorough in-9 vestigation and resolution of those complaints.

10 (9) TRANSPARENT COMMUNICATION.—The 11 right to clear written notification from the Depart-12 ment regarding the status of claims, benefits, and 13 appeals filed with the Department.

14 (10) APPEAL AND FAIR HEARING.—The right
15 to appeal adverse decisions of the Secretary and to 16 receive fair hearings from the Department within a 17 reasonable time.

18 (c) RESPONSIBILITIES.—The Secretary shall—

19 (1) integrate the rights described in subsection
20 (b) into all Department of Veterans Affairs policies,
21 directives, patient-facing materials, and employee
22 training programs;

23 (2) ensure every employee of the Department
24 receives annual training on such rights;

1 (3) prominently display such rights at all De-
2 partment facilities and the website of the Depart-
3 ment;

4 (4) in coordination with the Secretary of De-
5 fense and the Secretary of Labor, include a dedi-
6 cated instruction module on the rights described in 7 subsection (b) as part of the curriculum for the 8 Transition Assistance Program (TAP) under section
9 1144 of title 10, United States Code;

10 (5) not later than 180 days after the date of 11 the enactment of this Act, ensure that the rights de-
12 scribed in subsection (b) are accessible through a
13 prominent, dedicated feature within the official mo-
14 bile application of the Department of Veterans Af-15 fairs and the eBenefits portal (or any successor per-16 sonal benefits portal);

17 (6) require each Department medical facility to 18 designate a patient advocate or ombudsman to con-
19 duct an annual internal audit to assess facility com-
20 pliance with the rights described in subsection (b),
21 including a review of veteran satisfaction surveys 22 and the timeliness of grievance resolutions; and

23 (7) ensure that any written or electronic ac-
24 knowledgment of a claim for benefits or an applica-
25 tion for health care services includes a summary

1 statement of the rights described in subsection (b),
2 emphasizing the veteran's right to transparent com-
3 munication and grievance redress.

4 (d) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—The provisions of 5 this section shall not be construed—

6 (1) to create a cause of action for damages or 7 judicially enforceable rights beyond those already es-
8 tablished under Federal law; or

9 (2) to alter statutory eligibility requirements for 10 care or benefits furnished under laws administered
11 by the Secretary.
