A BILL

To amend title 10, United States Code, to restrict the sale and procurement of certain weapons and ammunition by the Department of Defense, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Stop Militarizing Our 5       Streets Act of 2026”.

1 SEC. 2. RESTRICTION ON SALES AND PROCUREMENT BY 2 DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE OF CERTAIN
3 WEAPONS AND AMMUNITION.

4 (a) RESTRICTION.—

5 (1) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 763 of title 10, 6 United States Code, is amended by inserting after 7 section 7544 the following:

8 “§ 7545. Restriction on sales and procurement of cer-
9 tain weapons and ammunition

10 “(a) PROHIBITIONS RELATING TO CERTAIN HIGHLY 11 DANGEROUS MILITARY-GRADE WEAPONS AND AMMUNI-
12 TION.—

13 “(1) SALES IN COMMERCIAL MARKETPLACE.—
14 The Secretary of Defense or a private operator of a 15 government-owned plant may not sell to any dealer, 16 directly or through a private contractor, in the com-
17 mercial marketplace—

18 “(A) any military-grade assault weapon; or 19 “(B) any covered ammunition.

20 “(2) PROCUREMENT.—The Secretary of De-21 fense may not procure any item from a dealer or 22 manufacturer of firearms or ammunition that sells a 23 military-grade assault weapon or covered ammuni-
24 tion in the commercial marketplace.

25 “(b) LIMITATIONS RELATING TO OTHER WEAPONS
26 AND AMMUNITION.—

1           “(1) APPLICABILITY.—The provisions of this 2           subsection shall apply to all firearms and ammuni-3           tion, other than military-grade assault weapons and 4           covered ammunition.

5           “(2) SALES IN COMMERCIAL MARKETPLACE.—
6           The Secretary of Defense or a private operator of a 7           government-owned plant may not sell any firearm or 8           ammunition to any dealer in the commercial market-9           place that fails to meet the requirements described 10          in paragraph (4).

11          “(3) PROCUREMENT.—The Secretary of De-
12          fense may not procure any item from a dealer or pri-13          vate manufacturer of firearms or ammunition that 14          sells firearms or ammunition in the commercial mar-
15          ketplace if the dealer or private manufacturer—

16                 “(A) directly sells firearms or ammunition 17                 to individual purchasers in the commercial mar-18                 ketplace and fails to meet the requirements de-19                 scribed in paragraph (4); or 20                 “(B) sells any firearm or ammunition to 21                 any dealer in the commercial marketplace that 22                 fails to meets the requirements described in 23                 paragraph (4).

1           “(4) REQUIREMENTS.—The requirements de-
2       scribed in this paragraph for any dealer of firearms 3       or ammunition are the following:

4           “(A) The dealer must—

5               “(i) with respect to a dealer of fire-6               arms, have a license under chapter 44 of 7               title 18;

8               “(ii) with respect to a dealer of am-9               munition, have a license under subsection 10              (d)(1); and 11              “(iii) comply with all requirements 12              under Federal law for licensees under 13              chapter 44 of title 18.

14           “(B) In each of the previous 3 calendar
15       years, the Attorney General has traced not 16       more than 24 firearms used in crimes back to 17       the dealer with a time-to-crime of less than 3 18       years.

19           “(C) With respect to a dealer that sells 20       ammunition, during any 30-day period, the 21       dealer may not transfer to the same individual 22       purchaser—

23               “(i) more than 500 rounds of covered 24               ammunition; or

1 “(ii) more than 1000 rounds of other
2 ammunition.

3 “(D) The dealer must agree to a minimum 4 code of conduct that includes the following:

5 “(i) A refusal to transfer a firearm or 6 ammunition until the NICS background
7 check system has verified that the transfer 8 is not prohibited.

9 “(ii) The implementation of a security
10 system, including adequate locks, exterior
11 lighting, surveillance cameras, alarm sys-12 tems, and other anti-theft measures and 13 practices that the Attorney General may 14 through regulations prescribe.

15 “(iii) A refusal to sell firearms in any 16 marketplace, including online or at a gun 17 show, unless the marketplace requires
18 every firearm seller to complete a NICS
19 background check on prospective firearm
20 purchasers.

21 “(iv) A refusal to transfer firearms or 22 ammunition to any person that exhibits 23 signs of alcohol or drug intoxication or 24 cognitive or mental instability (as those 25 terms are defined by the Attorney General,

1 in coordination with the Secretary of 2 Health and Human Services).

3 “(v) A refusal to transfer a firearm or 4 ammunition to any person the dealer
5 knows or has reason to believe poses a 6 danger to that person or others.

7 “(vi) With respect to firearms, the im-
8 plementation and maintenance of a re-9 motely searchable electronic record of—

10 “(I) the make, model, caliber or 11 gauge, and serial number of every 12 firearm in the inventory of the dealer; 13 and

14 “(II) the performance of quar-
15 terly inventory checks.

16 “(E) With respect to ammunition, the 17 dealer must implement and maintain a remotely 18 searchable electronic record of—

19 “(i) importation;

20 “(ii) production;

21 “(iii) shipment;

22 “(iv) receipt;

23 “(v) sale; and 24 “(vi) any other disposition of ammuni-

25 tion at the place of business of the dealer

1           for such period, and in such form, as the 2           Attorney General may by regulations pre-3           scribe.

4           “(F) The dealer must implement a manda-
5           tory training course developed by the Attorney 6           General, in coordination with the Secretary of 7           Health and Human Services, where appro-
8           priate—

9                   “(i) which, with respect to each em-10           ployee of the dealer authorized to engage 11           in the transfer of firearms or ammunition 12           in the course of the business—

13                           “(I) an employee as of the date 14                           of enactment of this section completes 15                           not later than 90 days after the date 16                           of enactment of this section; and 17                           “(II) an employee hired after the 18                           date of enactment of this section com-19                           plete not later than 30 days after the 20                           date on which the employee is hired;

21                           and

22                           “(ii) that trains employees on—

23                                   “(I) how to recognize and iden-24                                   tify—

25   “(aa) straw purchasers; and

1 “(bb) any other fraudulent
2 activity described in chapter 44
3 of title 18, United States Code;

4 “(II) indicators that a person is 5 attempting to purchase a firearm or 6 ammunition illegally;

7 “(III) how to recognize and iden-
8 tify indicators that an individual in-
9 tends to use a firearm for unlawful 10 purposes;

11 “(IV) how to recognize and iden-
12 tify indicators that an individual in-
13 tends to use a firearm for self-harm;

14 “(V) how to prevent theft or bur-
15 glary of firearms and ammunition;

16 “(VI) how to respond in the cir-
17 cumstances described in subclauses (I)
18 through (V) and the applicable report-
19 ing requirements;

20 “(VII) how to verify the age of a 21 purchaser of a firearm or ammuni-
22 tion;

23 “(VIII) with respect to a dealer 24 of ammunition, how to detect whether 25 a single purchaser has reached the ap-

1                   plicable ammunition purchase limit to 2                   prevent a violation of subparagraph 3                   (C); and

4                   “(IX) other reasonable business
5                   practices that the Attorney General
6                   determines will deter firearm traf-7                   ficking or deter the provision of a fire-8                   arm to an individual who indicates an 9                   intent to use a firearm for unlawful 10                  purposes or for self-harm.

11                  “(G) Not later than 30 days after the date
12                  on which the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Fire-13                  arms and Explosives releases to the dealer re-14                  sults of any compliance inspection conducted by 15                  the Bureau, the dealer must report the results 16                  of the inspection to any manufacturer or whole-17                  saler dealer from which the dealer obtains fire-18                  arms or ammunition.

19                  “(H) The dealer does not maintain finan-20                  cial ties valued at more than $1,000,000 annu-21                  ally with an entity that—

22                  “(i) during the 5-year period pre-23                  ceding the date of a sale or procurement 24                  described in paragraph (2) or (3), sepa-

1                   rated from the dealer through a spin-off 2                   transaction; and

3                   “(ii) does not comply with the require-4                   ments of this paragraph.

5                   “(5) INSPECTION RESULTS.—With respect to 6                   an inspection of a dealer described in paragraph 7                   (4)(G), not later than 30 days after the date of the 8                   inspection, the Director of the Bureau of Alcohol, 9                   Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives shall send to the 10                  Department of Defense a copy of the report.

11                  “(6) REGULATIONS.—The Attorney General
12                  may promulgate necessary regulations to implement 13                  the requirements of this subsection.

14                  “(7) INTERDEPARTMENT COORDINATION.—The 15                  Attorney General, in coordination with the Secretary 16                  of Defense, shall monitor compliance with paragraph 17                  (4) by dealers.

18                  “(8) PENALTY.—A dealer that violates para-19                  graph (4) may not participate in a sale or purchase 20                  described in paragraph (2) or (3).

21                  “(9) DATA SHARING.—Notwithstanding any 22                  other law, the Attorney General may share crime 23                  gun trace data with the Department of Defense as 24                  necessary to carry out this section.

25                  “(c) REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—

1           “(1) GOVERNMENT-OWNED PLANT REPORT.—
2       Not less frequently than annually, each government-3       owned plant that produces any ammunition or fire-4       arms that are commercially sold shall submit to 5       Congress a report that includes, for the year covered 6       by the report—

7           “(A) the number of customers of the plant 8       for ammunition or firearms in the commercial 9       marketplace, disaggregated by the State in 10      which the customer is located;

11          “(B) the revenue of the plant from sales of 12      ammunition or firearms in the commercial mar-
13      ketplace;

14          “(C) the amount of ammunition or fire-15      arms sold by the plant in the commercial mar-
16      ketplace;

17          “(D) an operational plan for avoiding any 18      diversion of firearms or ammunition into the il-19      legal market or to customers not authorized for 20      purchase under this section; and 21          “(E) steps taken to implement the plan de-22      scribed in subparagraph (D).

23          “(2) DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE REPORT.—Not 24      less frequently than annually, the Secretary of De-

1 fense shall submit to Congress a report containing 2 the following:

3 “(A) A list of manufacturers and dealers
4 from which the Secretary procures firearms
5 that also sell firearms in the commercial mar-6 ket.

7 “(B) A list of the types of firearms those 8 dealers sell in the commercial market.

9 “(C) The amount of money the Secretary
10 pays to those dealers for firearms each year.

11 “(d) LICENSES FOR DEALING AMMUNITION.—

12 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney General shall 13 make licenses available to dealers of ammunition, 14 who may apply for such licenses for the purpose of 15 subsection (b)(4)(A)(ii) to be eligible to make the 16 sales or purchases described in paragraph (2) or (3) 17 of subsection (b).

18 “(2) REQUIREMENTS.—In making licenses
19 available in accordance with paragraph (1), the At-20 torney General shall apply in a substantially similar 21 manner the requirements under chapter 44 of title 22 18 for licenses of dealers of firearms to dealers of 23 ammunition.

24 “(3) NICS SYSTEM.—

1           “(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180
2           days after the date of enactment of the Stop
3           Militarizing Our Streets Act of 2026, the Attor-
4           ney General shall authorize a dealer of ammuni-
5           tion licensed in accordance with paragraph (1)
6           to access and use the NICS background check 7           system in accordance with laws applicable to 8           the use of the NICS background check system.

9           “(B) AUTHORIZATION.—A dealer of am-10          munition authorized under subparagraph (A) 11          may use the NICS background check system for 12          the purpose of subsection (b)(4)(D) to be eligi-13          ble to make the sales or purchases described in 14          paragraph (2) or (3) of subsection (b).

15          “(C)        AMMUNITION        BACKGROUND 16          CHECKS.—A dealer of ammunition licensed in 17          accordance with paragraph (1) may perform a 18          NICS background check on an individual pur-19          chasing ammunition from the dealer.

20          “(e) REGULATIONS.—The Attorney General shall 21          promulgate a rule with requirements for dealers to comply 22          with the recordkeeping requirement described in sub-23          section (b)(4)(E).

24          “(f) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

1           “(1) AMMUNITION; FIREARM; MANUFAC-2           TURER.—The terms ‘ammunition’, ‘firearm’, and 3           ‘manufacturer’ have the meaning given those terms 4           in section 921(a) of title 18.

5           “(2) COVERED AMMUNITION.—The term ‘cov-
6           ered ammunition’—

7                   “(A) means ammunition that is .22 caliber 8                   or larger; and

9                   “(B) includes .223 Remington ammunition
10                  and 7.62 North Atlantic Treaty Organization
11                  ammunition.

12           “(3) DEALER.—The term ‘dealer’—

13                   “(A) has the meaning given the term in 14                   section 921 of title 18; and 15                   “(B) includes any person engaged in the 16                   business of selling ammunition at wholesale or 17                   retail, including an unlicensed private vendor of 18                   ammunition.

19           “(4) FINANCIAL TIES.—The term ‘financial 20           ties’—

21                   “(A) has the meaning given the term by 22                   the Secretary of Defense in a regulation; and 23                   “(B) includes a revenue sharing agreement 24                   or a transfer of assets through a purchase or 25                   sale transaction.

1           “(5) GAS-OPERATED.—The term ‘gas-operated’, 2       with respect to a firearm, means that the firearm
3       harnesses or traps a portion of the high-pressure gas 4       from a fired cartridge to cycle the action using—

5           “(A) a long stroke piston, in which gas is 6       vented from the barrel to a piston that is me-7       chanically fixed to the bolt group and moves to 8       cycle the action;

9           “(B) a short stroke piston, in which gas is 10      vented from the barrel to a piston that moves 11      separately from the bolt group so that the en-12      ergy is imparted through a gas piston to cycle 13      the action;

14          “(C) a system that traps and vents gas 15      from the barrel or the chamber to directly 16      strike or impinge the bolt, bolt carrier, or slide 17      assembly to unlock and cycle the action;

18          “(D) a hybrid system that combines ele-
19      ments of a system described in subparagraph
20      (C) with a system described in subparagraph
21      (A) or (B) to capture gas vented from the bar-22      rel to cycle the action; or

23          “(E) a blowback-operated system that di-24      rectly uses the expanding gases of the ignited 25      propellant powder acting on the cartridge case

1 to drive the breechblock or breech bolt rear-2 ward.

3 “(6) GOVERNMENT-OWNED PLANT.—The term
4 ‘government-owned plant’ means a facility owned by 5 the Federal Government that produces firearms or 6 ammunition.

7 “(7) GUN SHOW.—The term ‘gun show’ means
8 a gun show or an event described in section 9 478.100(b) of title 27, Code of Federal Regulations, 10 or any successor regulation.

11 “(8) LARGE-CAPACITY AMMUNITION FEEDING
12 DEVICE.—The term ‘large-capacity ammunition
13 feeding device’—

14 “(A) means a magazine, belt, drum, feed 15 strip, or similar device, including any such de-16 vice joined or coupled with another in any man-17 ner, that has an overall capacity of, or that can 18 be readily restored, changed, or converted to ac-19 cept, more than 10 rounds of ammunition; and 20 “(B) does not include an attached tubular

21 device designed to accept, and capable of oper-22 ating only with, .22 caliber rimfire ammunition.

23 “(9) MILITARY-GRADE ASSAULT WEAPON.—The 24 term ‘military-grade assault weapon’ means a fire-25 arm that—

1 “(A) is semi-automatic;

2 “(B) is—

3 “(i) gas-operated or has been modified
4 to operate as a gas-operated firearm;

5 “(ii) recoil-operated or has been modi-
6 fied to operate as a recoil-operated firearm, 7 unless the firearm is a handgun or pistol; 8 or

9 “(iii) designed and functions, or can 10 be readily modified, to materially increase 11 the rate of fire of the firearm; and 12 “(C) has—

13 “(i) a fixed ammunition feeding device
14 with the capacity to accept more than 10 15 rounds of ammunition; or

16 “(ii) the capacity to accept a large-ca-17 pacity ammunition feeding device.

18 “(10) NICS BACKGROUND CHECK.—The term
19 ‘NICS background check’ means a background check 20 through the national instant criminal background 21 check system established under section 103 of the 22 Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act (34 U.S.C.
23 40901).

24 “(11) RECOIL-OPERATED.—The term ‘recoil-op-25 erated’ with respect to a firearm, means that the

1       firearm uses the recoil force to unlock the breech
2       bolt and complete the cycle of extracting, ejecting, 3       and reloading.

4               “(12) SEMI-AUTOMATIC.—The term ‘semi-auto-5       matic’, with respect to a firearm, means any repeat-6       ing firearm, other than a machine gun, that—

7                       “(A) uses a portion of the energy of a fir-8       ing cartridge or shell to extract the fired car-9       tridge case or fired shell casing and chamber 10      the next round; and 11                      “(B) requires a separate pull, release, 12      push, or other method of initiation of the trig-13      ger to fire each cartridge or shell.

14               “(13) SPIN-OFF TRANSACTION.—The term
15      ‘spin-off transaction’ means a transaction that sepa-
16      rates a division or line of business from a parent 17      company of an entity.

18               “(14) STRAW PURCHASE.—The term ‘straw 19      purchase’—

20                      “(A) with respect to a firearm, means a 21      purchase described in section 932(b) of title 18; 22      and

23                      “(B) with respect to ammunition, means a 24      purchase described in 932(b) of title 18, except 25      that, for the purpose of this subparagraph, any

1 reference in that section to ‘firearm’ shall be 2 deemed to be a reference to ‘ammunition’.

3 “(15) TIME-TO-CRIME.—The term ‘time-to-4 crime’ means the period of time between the retail 5 sale of a firearm and the recovery of the firearm by 6 a law enforcement agency as a result of the use or 7 suspected use of the firearm in a crime.”.

8 (2) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sec-
9 tions at the beginning of such chapter is amended 10 by inserting after the item relating to section 7544 11 the following new item:

“7545. Restriction on sales and procurement of certain weapons and ammunition.”.

12 (b) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

13 (1) COOPERATIVE ACTIVITIES WITH NON-ARMY 14 ENTITIES.—Section 7544(c) of title 10, United 15 States Code, is amended by adding at the end the 16 following new paragraph:

17 “(5) The non-Army entity abides by the com-18 mercial sale restrictions set forth in section 7545 of 19 this title.”.

20 (2) POLICY.—Section 7552 of such title is 21 amended, in the matter preceding paragraph (1), by 22 striking “It” and inserting “Subject to the restric-23 tions set forth under section 7545 of this title, it”.

1           (3) ARMAMENT RETOOLING AND MANUFAC-2           TURING SUPPORT INITIATIVE.—Section 7553(b) of 3           such title is amended, in the matter preceding para-
4           graph (1), by striking “The” and inserting “Subject
