

119TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 8107

To require the establishment of a list identifying program areas and administrative practices presenting the greatest risk to the integrity of Federal funds administered by States and local governments.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 26, 2026

Mr. KHANNA (for himself and Mr. BURCHETT) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform

A BILL

To require the establishment of a list identifying program areas and administrative practices presenting the greatest risk to the integrity of Federal funds administered by States and local governments.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Government Audit and
5 Accountability of Federally Funded State-Administered
6 Programs Act”.

1 SEC. 2. HIGH RISK LIST FOR FEDERALLY-FUNDED STATE-
2 ADMINISTERED PROGRAMS.

3 (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 2 years after the
4 date of the enactment of this Act, and periodically there-
5 after, the Comptroller General of the United States shall
6 submit to Congress a High Risk List identifying program
7 areas and administrative practices presenting the greatest
8 risk to the integrity of Federal funds administered by 9 States and local governments, including Federal pass
10 through programs subject to audit under chapter 75 of 11 title 31, United States Code.

12 (b) CONTENTS.—The High Risk List required under 13 subsection (a) shall—

14 (1) identify high-risk program areas and admin-
15 istrative practices presenting systematic vulnerability
16 the administration of Federal funds by State and 17 local governments;

18 (2) assess best practices that have strengthened
19 the integrity of Federal funds administered by State
20 and local governments and reduced waste, fraud,
21 and abuse in federally funded programs;

22 (3) identify Federal tools, resources, and tech-
23 nical assistance available to address the vulnerability
24 patterns under paragraph (1); and

(4) include recommendations to Congress for addressing the high risk program areas and administrative practices identified under paragraph (1).

(c) SOURCES.—

(1) In carrying out the preparation of the High Risk List under subsection (a), the Comptroller General shall primarily rely on existing publicly available oversight, audit and investigative materials, to conduct an analysis of federally funded State-administered programs, which may include—

(A) findings of Federal and State auditors, inspectors general, and attorneys general with respect to the administration of Federal funds by State and local governments;

(B) single audit reports required under section 7502 of title 31, United States Code; and

(C) and other publicly available Federal oversight and program integrity data.

(2) In preparing the High Risk List, the Comptroller General shall apply professional auditing and evaluation standards in analyzing such materials. The Comptroller General may supplement such materials with independent analysis of publicly available Federal program data where existing oversight mate-

1 rials are insufficient to identify high-risk program
2 areas or administrative practices, provided that
3 nothing in this section shall be construed to author-
4 ize the Comptroller General to compel the produc-
5 tion of information from States or local governments
6 or to conduct independent audits of State or local 7 programs.

8 (d) FORM AND METHODOLOGY.—The Comptroller
9 General shall determine the appropriate form and method-
10 ology for preparing and presenting the High Risk List re-
11 quired under this section, consistent with Government Au-
12 diting Standards and the requirements of subsection (c).
