

119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 910

AN ACT

To require the Secretary of the Treasury to pursue more equitable treatment of Taiwan at the international financial institutions, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Taiwan Non-Discrimi-
3 nation Act of 2025”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds as follows:

6 (1) As enshrined in its Articles of Agreement, 7 the International Monetary Fund (IMF) is devoted 8 to promoting international monetary cooperation, fa-9 cilitating the expansion and balanced growth of 10 international trade, encouraging exchange stability, 11 and avoiding competitive exchange depreciation.

12 (2) Taiwan is the 21st largest economy in the 13 world and the 10th largest goods trading partner of 14 the United States.

15 (3) Although Taiwan is not an IMF member, it 16 is a member of the World Trade Organization, the 17 Asian Development Bank, and the Asia-Pacific Eco-
18 nomic Cooperation forum.

19 (4) According to the January 2020 Report on 20 Macroeconomic and Foreign Exchange Policies of 21 Major Trading Partners of the United States, pub-
22 lished by the Department of the Treasury, Taiwan
23 held $471,900,000,000 in foreign exchange reserves,
24 more than major economies such as India, South
25 Korea, and Brazil.

1 (5) According to section 4(d) of the Taiwan Re-
2 lations Act (Public Law 96–8), enacted on April 10, 3 1979, “Nothing in this Act may be construed as a 4 basis for supporting the exclusion or expulsion of 5 Taiwan from continued membership in any inter-
6 national financial institution or any other inter-7 national organization.”.

8 (6) Taiwan held membership in the IMF for 9
9 years following the recognition of the People’s Re-10 public of China (PRC) by the United Nations, and 11 16 Taiwan staff members at the Fund were allowed 12 to continue their employment after the PRC was 13 seated at the IMF in 1980. As James M. Boughton 14 has noted in his Silent Revolution: The International 15 Monetary Fund 1979–1989, even as the PRC was 16 seated, the United States Executive Director to the 17 IMF, Sam Y. Cross, expressed support on behalf of 18 the United States Government for “some kind of as-19 sociation between Taiwan and the Fund”.

20 (7) On September 27, 1994, in testimony be-21 fore the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations re-22 garding the 1994 Taiwan Policy Review, then-As-23 sistant Secretary of State for East Asian and Pacific 24 Affairs Winston Lord stated: “Recognizing Taiwan’s 25 important role in transnational issues, we will sup-

1 port its membership in organizations where state-
2 hood is not a prerequisite, and we will support op-
3 portunities for Taiwan’s voice to be heard in organi-4 zations where its membership is not possible.”.

5 (8) The Congress has repeatedly reaffirmed
6 support for this policy, including in Public Laws 7 107–10, 107–158, 108–28, 108–235, 113–17, and 8 114–139, and the unanimous House and Senate
9 passage of the Taiwan Allies International Protec-10 tion and Enhancement Initiative (TAIPEI) Act of 11 2019.

12 (9) In its fact sheet, entitled “U.S. Relations 13 with Taiwan”, published on August 31, 2018, the 14 Department of State asserts: “The United States
15 supports Taiwan’s membership in international orga-
16 nizations that do not require statehood as a condi-
17 tion of membership and encourages Taiwan’s mean-
18 ingful participation in international organizations 19 where its membership is not possible.”.

20 (10) According to the Articles of Agreement of 21 the IMF, “membership shall be open to other coun-22 tries”, subject to conditions prescribed by the Board
23 of Governors of the IMF.

24 (11) In the IMF publication “Membership and 25 Nonmembership in the International Monetary

1 Fund: A Study in International Law and Organiza-
2 tion”, Joseph Gold, the then-General Counsel and 3 Director of the Legal Department of the IMF, elabo-4 rated on the differences between the terms “coun-
5 tries” and “states”, noting that “the word ‘country’ 6 may have been adopted because of the absence of 7 agreement on the definition of a ‘state’” and, with 8 respect to the use of “countries” and applications
9 for IMF membership, “the absence of any adjective
10 in the Articles emphasizes the breadth of the discre-
11 tion that the Fund may exercise in admitting coun-12 tries to membership”. According to Mr. Gold, “the 13 desire to give the Fund flexibility in dealing with ap-14 plications may explain not only the absence of any 15 adjective that qualifies ‘countries’ but also the choice 16 of that word itself”.

17 (12) In his IMF study, Mr. Gold further ob-18 serves, “in the practice of the Fund the concepts of 19 independence and sovereignty have been avoided on 20 the whole as a mode of expressing a criterion for 21 membership in the Fund”. He continues, “Although 22 the Fund usually takes into account the recognition 23 or nonrecognition of an entity as a state, there are 24 no rules or even informal understandings on the ex-25 tent to which an applicant must have been recog-

1 nized by members or other international organiza-
2 tions before the Fund will regard it as eligible for 3 membership.”. In fact, when considering an applica-
4 tion for membership where the status of an appli-
5 cant may not be resolved, Mr. Gold writes “there
6 have been occasions on which the Fund has made a 7 finding before decisions had been taken by the 8 United Nations or by most members or by members 9 with a majority of the total voting power.” Mr. Gold 10 concludes, “the Fund makes its own findings on 11 whether an applicant is a ‘country’, and makes them 12 solely for its own purposes.”.

13 (13) Although not a member state of the 14 United Nations, the Republic of Kosovo is a member 15 of both the IMF and the World Bank, having joined 16 both organizations on June 29, 2009.

17 (14) On October 26, 2021, Secretary of State 18 Antony Blinken issued a statement in support of 19 Taiwan’s “robust, meaningful participation” in the 20 United Nations system, which includes the IMF, the 21 World Bank, and other specialized United Nations 22 agencies. Secretary of State Blinken noted, “As the 23 international community faces an unprecedented 24 number of complex and global issues, it is critical for 25 all stakeholders to help address these problems. This

1 includes the 24 million people who live in Taiwan.
2 Taiwan’s meaningful participation in the UN system 3 is not a political issue, but a pragmatic one.”. He 4 continued, “Taiwan’s exclusion undermines the im-
5 portant work of the UN and its related bodies, all 6 of which stand to benefit greatly from its contribu-7 tions.”.

8 (15) In October 2024, Taiwan announced it
9 would seek IMF membership, with the Taipei Eco-10 nomic and Cultural Representative Office in the 11 United States stating, “Taiwan’s membership at the 12 IMF would help boost financial resilience.”.

13 SEC. 3. SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.

14 It is the sense of the Congress that—

15 (1) the size, significance, and connectedness of 16 the Taiwanese economy highlight the importance of 17 greater participation by Taiwan in the International 18 Monetary Fund, given the purposes of the Fund ar-19 ticulated in its Articles of Agreement; and 20 (2) the experience of Taiwan in developing a vi-

21 brant and advanced economy under democratic gov-
22 ernance and the rule of law should inform the work 23 of the international financial institutions, including 24 through increased participation by Taiwan in the in-25 stitutions.

1 SEC. 4. SUPPORT FOR TAIWAN ADMISSION TO THE IMF.

2 (a) IN GENERAL.—The United States Governor of 3 the International Monetary Fund (in this section referred 4 to as the “Fund”) shall use the voice and vote of the 5 United States to vigorously support—

6 (1) the admission of Taiwan as a member of 7 the Fund, to the extent that admission is sought by 8 Taiwan;

9 (2) participation by Taiwan in regular surveil-
10 lance activities of the Fund with respect to the eco-11 nomic and financial policies of Taiwan, consistent 12 with Article IV consultation procedures of the Fund;

13 (3) employment opportunities for Taiwan na-14 tionals, without regard to any consideration that, in 15 the determination of the United States Governor, 16 does not generally restrict the employment of nation-17 als of member countries of the Fund; and 18 (4) the ability of Taiwan to receive appropriate 19 technical assistance and training by the Fund.

20 (b) UNITED STATES POLICY.—It is the policy of the 21 United States not to discourage or otherwise deter Taiwan
22 from seeking admission as a member of the Fund.

23 (c) WAIVER.—The Secretary of the Treasury may 24 waive any requirement of subsection (a) for up to 1 year 25 at a time on reporting to Congress that providing the 26 waiver will substantially promote the objective of securing

1 the meaningful participation of Taiwan at each inter-
2 national financial institution (as defined in section 3 1701(c)(2) of the International Financial Institutions Act
4 (22 U.S.C. 262r(c)(2))).

5 (d) SUNSET.—This section shall have no force or ef-6 fect on the earlier of—

7 (1) the date of approval by the Board of Gov-8 ernors of the Fund for the admission of Taiwan as 9 a member of the Fund; or

10 (2) the date that is 10 years after the date of 11 the enactment of this Act.

12 SEC. 5. TESTIMONY REQUIREMENT.

13 In each of the next 7 years in which the Secretary 14 of the Treasury is required by section 1705(b) of the 15 International Financial Institutions Act to present testi-
16 mony, the Secretary shall include in the testimony a de-
17 scription of the efforts of the United States to support
18 the greatest participation practicable by Taiwan at each 19 international financial institution (as defined in section 20 1701(c)(2) of such Act (22 U.S.C. 262r(c)(2))).

Passed the House of Representatives June 23, 2025.

Attest:

Clerk.
