RESOLUTION

Supporting the designation of January 31, 2025, as “Earned Income Tax Credit Awareness Day”.

Whereas the earned income tax credit is a refundable Federal tax credit available to low- and moderate-income working families and individuals;

Whereas the earned income tax credit strengthens the rewards of work;

Whereas the earned income tax credit has lifted approximately 8,000,000 people out of poverty per year from 2017 to 2021;

Whereas the earned income tax credit provides substantial economic benefit to local economies; and

Whereas an estimated 20 percent of eligible workers do not claim the earned income tax credit: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) supports the designation of “Earned Income
3 Tax Credit Awareness Day”; and

4 (2) calls on Federal, State, and local agencies,
5 community organizations, nonprofit organizations,
6 employers, and other partners to help increase
7 awareness about certain tax credits to ensure that
8 all eligible workers have access to the full range of 9 tax credit benefits available to them, including—

10 (A) the earned income tax credit;

11 (B) other refundable tax credits not de-
12 scribed in subparagraph (A); and
