1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds the following:

3 (1) A growing body of evidence demonstrates
 4 that firearm dealers' sales practices affect the prob-
 5 ability of firearms getting to criminals and that poli-
 6 cies designed to hold firearm sellers accountable can 7 curtail the diversion of firearms to criminals.

8 (2) Federal laws governing firearm dealers—

9 (A) have not been updated in more than 10 30 years;

11 (B) contain safeguards that protect dealers
 12 who engage in illegal practices from adverse en-
 13 forcement action;

1 (C) frustrate law enforcement efforts to 2 curb firearm trafficking and violence; and

3 (D) are, thus, inadequate to meet the reali-
4 ties of the 21st century.

5 (3)(A) The Tiahrt Amendments, for one—

6 (i) severely limit the authority of the Bu-
7 reau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explo-
8 sives (commonly known as the “ATF”) to dis-
9 close crime firearm trace data to the public;

10 (ii) prevent—

11 (I) the collection of valuable informa-12 tion; and

13 (II) the establishment of effective poli-
14 cies to prevent illegal firearms from being 15 used in crimes; and

16 (iii) impede enforcement of the firearm
17 laws by—

18 (I) requiring most background check
19 records to be destroyed within 24 hours;
20 and

21 (II) barring the Government from re-
22 quiring owners of firearm shops to conduct
23 annual inventory audits.

24 (B) Repealing the Tiahrt Amendments would 25 support law enforcement efforts and give the public

1 vital information needed to craft the most effective
2 policies against illegal firearms.

3 (4) Additionally, Federal law imposes no re-
4 quirements that firearm dealers physically secure
5 their highly valuable and lethal inventory. The num-
6 ber of firearm thefts from licensed firearm dealers
7 has increased more than the number from any other
8 source. Between 2013 and 2017, the number of fire-9 arms stolen in firearm-dealer burglaries more than 10 doubled and the number of firearms stolen in fire-
11 arm-dealer robberies tripled.

12 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

13 Section 921(a) of title 18, United States Code, is 14 amended by adding at the end the following:

15 “(38) The term ‘facilitator’ means any person en-
16 gaged in the business of hosting a commercial marketplace
17 in which offers for firearm sales, purchases, or other 18 transfers are allowed to be made, except that such a per-
19 son shall not be considered to be a facilitator with respect
20 to any transaction that is made through the use of a 21 website or mobile application owned or operated by the 22 person if—

23 “(A) the transaction violates the terms of serv-
24 ice of the website or mobile application; and

1 “(B) the person has made a good faith effort
2 to enforce the terms of service by, at a minimum,
3 auditing firearms transactions on a quarterly basis
4 to ensure compliance with this chapter.

5 “(39) The term ‘occasional’ means, with respect to 6 transactions, fewer than 5 transactions in a 12-month pe-
7 riod.

8 “(40) The term ‘personal collection’ includes any fire-
9 arm obtained only for the personal use of an individual
10 and not for the purpose of selling or trading, except that 11 a firearm obtained through inheritance shall not be consid-
12 ered part of a personal collection until the firearm has 13 been possessed for 1 year.

14 “(41) The term ‘business inventory firearm’ means,
15 with respect to a person, a firearm required by law to be 16 recorded in the acquisition and disposition logs of any fire-
17 arms business of the person.

18 “(42)(A) The term ‘frame’ means the part of a hand-
19 gun, or a variant thereof, that provides housing or a struc-
20 ture for the primary energized component designed to hold 21 back the hammer, striker, bolt, or similar component prior 22 to initiation of the firing sequence (such as a sear or the 23 equivalent), even if pins or other attachments are required
24 to connect such component to the housing or structure.

1 “(B) The term ‘receiver’ means the part of a rifle,
2 shotgun, or projectile weapon other than a handgun, or 3 a variant thereof, that provides housing or a structure for 4 the primary component designed to block or seal the 5 breech prior to initiation of the firing sequence (such as 6 a bolt, breechblock, or the equivalent), even if pins or other 7 attachments are required to connect such component to 8 the housing or structure.

9 “(C) For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘vari-
10 ant’ means a weapon utilizing a similar frame or receiver
11 design irrespective of new or different model designations
12 or configurations, characteristics, features, components,
13 accessories, or attachments. For example, an AK-type fire-
14 arm with a short stock and a pistol grip is a pistol variant
15 of an AK-type rifle, an AR-type firearm with a short stock
16 and a pistol grip is a pistol variant of an AR-type rifle, 17 and a revolving cylinder shotgun is a shotgun variant of 18 a revolver.

19 “(43) The term ‘semiautomatic shotgun’ means any 20 repeating shotgun that—

21 “(A) utilizes a portion of the energy of a firing
22 shell to extract the fired shell casing and chamber 23 the next round; and

24 “(B) requires a separate pull of the trigger to 25 fire each shell.”.
