

119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 2611

To safeguard the integrity of the Department of State’s annual Country Reports on Human Rights Practices, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JULY 31, 2025

Mrs. SHAHEEN (for herself, Mr. COONS, Mr. VAN HOLLEN, Mr. BOOKER, Mr. MERKLEY, Mr. KAINE, Mr. SCHATZ, and Mr. WELCH) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To safeguard the integrity of the Department of State’s annual Country Reports on Human Rights Practices, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Safeguarding the In-5 tegrity of the Human Rights Reports Act of 2025”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) Around the world, a rise in democratic 9 backsliding, authoritarian practices, and armed con-

1 flict threaten the observance of internationally recog-
2 nized human rights, disproportionately impacting
3 girls, women, youth, ethnic minorities, indigenous 4 communities, LGBTQI+ persons, individuals with 5 disabilities, and other marginalized groups.

6 (2) Progress in advancing human rights must 7 be grounded in facts. The Department of State’s an-8 nual Country Reports on Human Rights Practices
9 (“Human Rights Reports”) provides a record of the 10 state of human rights in the world. These reports
11 are an essential tool for activists who courageously 12 struggle to protect rights in communities around the 13 world, for journalists and scholars who document
14 rights violations, and for governments, including our 15 own, as they work to craft strategies to better pro-
16 tect victims of human rights violations, encourage 17 greater observance of human rights, and protect 18 United States taxpayer funding from flowing to vio-
19 lators.

20 (3) Any effort to reduce the scope or tailor the 21 content of the Human Rights Report based on polit-
22 ical considerations undermines its legitimacy and the 23 credibility of the United States as an honest pro-
24 moter of human rights. Such actions also embolden
25 authoritarians and perpetrators of human rights vio-

1 lations, threatening grave risks to the brave women
2 and men working tirelessly to advance these rights.

3 (4) Maintaining the veracity and integrity of 4 the Human Rights Report through mandatory and 5 comprehensive reporting on the full scope of inter-
6 nationally recognized human rights is critical to sus-
7 tain the value and international legitimacy of the re-
8 ports and to hold human rights violators account-9 able.

10 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

11 It shall be the policy of the United States—

12 (1) to reaffirm the commitment of the United 13 States to promote the observance of internationally
14 recognized human rights by all countries as a prin-
15 cipal goal of our foreign policy;

16 (2) to regularly engage with human rights de-17 fenders, journalists, democracy advocates, victims of 18 human rights violations, and other stakeholders to 19 gather information and accounts for inclusion in the 20 Human Rights Reports; and

21 (3) to publish credible, fact-based Human 22 Rights Reports on an annual basis that cover the 23 full scope of internationally recognized human 24 rights, as required by law, and to ensure that

1 Human Rights Reports are devoid of political favor-
2 itism or targeting.

3 SEC. 4. COUNTRY REPORTS ON HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES.
