3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Iran Human Rights,
5 Internet Freedom, and Accountability Act of 2026”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; STATEMENT OF POLICY.

2 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
3 ings:

4 (1) For nearly five decades, the people of Iran
5 have endured brutal repression under the Govern-
6 ment of the Islamic Republic of Iran, a regime that 7 denies basic human rights, silences dissidents, and 8 responds to peaceful protest with violence.

9 (2) The people of Iran have repeatedly and cou-
10 rageously taken to the streets to demand economic 11 opportunity, human rights, dignity, and freedom.

12 (3) During the 2026 protests, the Government
13 of the Islamic Republic of Iran responded with bru-
14 tality by reportedly killing tens of thousands of peo-
15 ple and wounding thousands more, arresting tens of 16 thousands, and restricting internet access and tele-
17 phone lines.

18 (4) The people of Iran are protesting the Ira-
19 nian regime's economic mismanagement, corruption,
20 internal suppression, and unjust executions.

21 (5) Access to free expression, open information,
22 and uncensored communication are fundamental
23 human rights and critical to the survival of the Ira-
24 nian protestors.

25 (6) Thanks in part to United States-funded ef-
26 forts to support human rights and open internet access, the Iranian people are consistently found to be one of the most pro-American populations in the Middle East.

(7) The inspiring 2022 Women, Life, Freedom protests demanded an end to the Islamic Republic and its violence, particularly against Iranian women and ethnic minorities.

(8) The barbaric so-called “morality police” and other arms of state suppression have a lengthy history of repressing the Iranian people’s fundamental freedoms.

(9) The Iranian regime has engaged in systematic efforts to intimidate, harass, detain, and harm political dissidents, activists, and journalists both within Iran and beyond its borders.

(10) The people of Iran deserve the right to dignity, democracy, and self-determination and to be free from the brutality of the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

(b) STATEMENT OF POLICY.—It shall be the policy of the United States—

(1) to recognize the right of the Iranian people to freely determine, through free and fair elections, the future leadership of their country;

1 (2) to facilitate the immediate expansion of un-
 2 restricted internet access and civilian lines of com-
 3 munication across Iran;

4 (3) to support the internationally recognized
 5 human rights of Iranians and United States pro-
 6 grams to assist Iranian civil society, including in
 7 their credible documentation, reporting, and ac-
 8 countability efforts of abuses in Iran;

9 (4) to fully enforce sanctions against regime
 10 violators of internationally recognized human rights
 11 and their family members, including any family
 12 members and associates in the United States that 13 continue to directly or indirectly provide support to 14 the regime; and

15 (5) to work in coordination with its allies to 16 consider appropriate measures to deter further lethal
 17 violence against protesters.
