Committee on Foreign Relations

RESOLUTION

Dissenting from the United States delegation's February 24, 2025, vote at the United Nations General Assembly.

Whereas United States cooperation with our allies advances
the national security interest of the United States;

United States with the Russian Federation, Belarus, the Democratic People's Republic of North Korea, and other autocracies;

Whereas this was the first instance since 2014 in which the United States voted with Russia at the United Nations on a Ukraine-related resolution, representing a departure from a decade of bipartisan, United States policy on Ukraine and eight decades of alignment with like-minded democratic states at the United Nations; and 12 United Nations Charter are to “maintain peace and 13 security” and suppress “acts of aggression or other 14 breaches of peace”;

16 Ukraine and European allies on future efforts at the 17 United Nations related to Ukraine; and
