

119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. RES. 301

Condemning the attacks on Minnesota lawmakers in Brooklyn Park and Champlin, Minnesota and calling for unity and the rejection of political violence in Minnesota and across the United States.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 24, 2025

Ms. KLOBUCHAR (for herself, Ms. SMITH, Mr. THUNE, Mr. SCHUMER, Mr. GRASSLEY, Ms. BALDWIN, and Mr. DURBIN) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

JUNE 26 (legislative day, JUNE 24), 2025

Committee discharged; considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

Condemning the attacks on Minnesota lawmakers in Brooklyn Park and Champlin, Minnesota and calling for unity and the rejection of political violence in Minnesota and across the United States.

Whereas, on June 14, 2025, a gunman entered the home of Minnesota State Senator John Hoffman and shot and critically injured him and his wife, Yvette Hoffman;

Whereas the gunman then entered the home of Minnesota State House Speaker Emerita Melissa Hortman and assassinated her and her husband, Mark Hortman;

Whereas the gunman had documents that listed dozens of lawmakers targeted for assassination;

Whereas the law enforcement officers of Brooklyn Park and Champlin saved additional lives by intervening with their bravery and rapid response to the attack;

Whereas Speaker Emerita Hortman was a formidable public servant who served her community and the people of Minnesota with deep devotion, compassion, and strength;

Whereas acts of political violence have no place in the United States and represent a grave threat;

Whereas swift condemnation of political violence by elected officials is necessary to preserve and protect the democracy of the United States;

Whereas, when these violent acts expose division, the people of the United States must persevere in the pursuit of democratic principles, resolving their differences through debate and civil discourse; and

Whereas political violence not only attacks the life and liberty of the representatives of the people of the United States, it also attacks the right of the people to be represented: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate, in this moment of tragic
2 loss—

3 (1) strongly condemns and denounces the at-
4 tacks on Minnesota State legislators in Brooklyn
5 Park and Champlin, Minnesota on June 14, 2025;

6 (2) honors the life of Speaker Emerita Melissa
7 Hortman for her devotion to public service and her

1 tireless efforts to serve the people of Minnesota and
2 the life of her husband, Mark Hortman;

3 (3) honors Senator John Hoffman and his wife,
4 Yvette Hoffman, who were shot and critically in-
5 jured, and wishes for their full and speedy recovery;

6 (4) honors the courageous law enforcement offi-
7 cers who saved additional lives with their rapid re-
8 sponse to the attack and successfully apprehended
9 and charged the suspected perpetrator on June 15,
10 2025;

11 (5) calls on all community leaders and elected
12 officials to publicly and unequivocally denounce acts
13 of political violence; and

14 (6) calls on all people of the United States to
15 unite in this moment of pain and tragedy and reaf-
16 firm the commitment of the people of the United
17 States to a safe, civil, and peaceful democracy in 18 which violent rhetoric and acts are not tolerated.

○