

119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. RES. 348

Declaring August 14, 2025, as “National Save Social Security Day”.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JULY 30, 2025

Mr. CASSIDY submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

RESOLUTION

Declaring August 14, 2025, as “National Save Social Security Day”.

Whereas, on August 14, 1935, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 301 et seq.) into law, establishing a foundational commitment by the United States to provide economic security for its senior citizens;

Whereas August 14, 2025, marks the 90th anniversary of the Social Security program, a program that has served as the cornerstone of retirement security for generations of individuals in the United States, providing vital retirement, disability, and survivor benefits to millions;

Whereas the Social Security program has paid scheduled benefits throughout its 90-year history, delivering on the promise earned by workers in the United States and their families through a lifetime of contributions;

Whereas the Social Security program remains the primary source of income for millions of seniors, individuals with disabilities, and surviving family members, and its continued strength is vital to the economic well-being of the United States;

Whereas the Social Security program faces significant long-term financial challenges that require thoughtful and responsible action to ensure its continued stability and effectiveness;

Whereas preserving and strengthening the Social Security program is a bipartisan responsibility that requires cooperation and leadership from policymakers; and

Whereas increased public awareness, education, and dialogue are essential to ensure that the Social Security program remains strong and solvent for current and future generations: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate—

2 (1) designates August 14, 2025, as “National
3 Save Social Security Day” in recognition of the 90th
4 anniversary of the Social Security program and its
5 enduring importance to the economic well-being of 6 the United States;

7 (2) encourages all people of the United States
8 to reflect on the value of the Social Security pro-
9 gram, to learn about its history and future chal-
10 lenges, and to participate in civic activities that pro-

1 mote the protection and strengthening of the pro-
2 gram;

3 (3) urges Federal, State, and local govern-
4 ments, educational institutions, advocacy groups,
5 and the private sector to engage in outreach, edu-
6 cational initiatives, and community events on this
7 day, fostering dialogue about the future of the Social 8 Security program and the need for timely, bipartisan 9 solutions; and

10 (4) calls upon Members of Congress to work in 11 a bipartisan manner to develop and enact legislation
12 that ensures the long-term solvency of the Social Se-
13 curity program and protects seniors, individuals with 14 disabilities, and families in the United States for 15 generations to come.

○