Since the House of Representatives had adjourned sine die, no swearing-in took place.

FOREWORD

The Congressional Directory is one of the oldest working handbooks in the United States government. While there have been directories of one form or another since the first Congress of the United States in 1789, the Congressional Directory for the first session of the 30th Congress (1847) is considered by scholars and historians to be the first official edition because it is the first to be ordered and paid for by the Congress. With the addition of biographical sketches of legislators in 1867, the Congressional Directory attained its modern format.

The Congressional Directory is published by the United States Senate in partnership with the Government Printing Office, at the direction of the Joint Committee on Printing under the authority of Title 44, Section 721 of the U.S. Code.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Joint Committee on Printing acknowledges with gratitude the commitment and dedication of the employees of the Government Printing Office who compiled and published this directory. Led by Ms. Kathryn McConnell, Project Manager, a team of eight writer-editors and keyboard specialists undertook this mammoth initiative, completing it in just five months. The members of the team included Senior Writer-Editor Lorena Beauchesne, Writer-Editors Joyce Carlton and Selene Dalecky, and Keyboard Specialists Audrey Brown, C.C. Price, Sherian K. Roberts and Dana Zimmerman who suffered a stroke during the project, but through her determination and dedication, recovered and returned to complete her work. Volunteering his time to assist with project research was Peter Byrd, an employee of the Capitol Guide Service.

Along with these individuals, other employees of the Government Printing Office, including Janice Sterling, who designed the cover, and Jerry Fairbanks, Jack Fulmer, Mike Glaser, Bob Keller, Ben Lopez, Rick McElroy, Stephen Naumann and Dave Turney, who maintained graphic systems development, contributed to this publication. Bernie Horn served as the Congressional Printing Management Liaison.

*John W. Warner
Chairman
Joint Committee on Printing*
