

This map of Georgia displays its 159 counties, each labeled with its name. Counties are numbered 1 through 12, likely representing different regions or administrative divisions. Major cities are indicated by black dots and labeled, including Atlanta (Fulton County), Savannah (Chatham County), Augusta (Richmond County), and Columbus (Muscogee County). The map also shows the locations of the Georgia State Capitol in Atlanta and the Georgia State Prison in Milledgeville. A north arrow is positioned in the bottom left corner.
