S. RES. 483

To provide for related procedures concerning the articles of impeachment against Donald John Trump, President of the United States.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 21, 2020

Mr. McCONNELL submitted the following resolution

JANUARY 22 (legislative day, JANUARY 21), 2020

Considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

To provide for related procedures concerning the articles of impeachment against Donald John Trump, President of the United States.

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives shall file
2 its record with the Secretary of the Senate, which will con-
3 sist of those publicly available materials that have been 4 submitted to or produced by the House Judiciary Com-
5 mittee, including transcripts of public hearings or mark-
6 ups and any materials printed by the House of Represent-7 atives or the House Judiciary Committee pursuant to 8 House Resolution 660. Materials in this record will be ad-
9 mitted into evidence subject to any hearsay, evidentiary,

★(Star Print)

1 or other objections that the President may make after 2 opening presentations are concluded. All materials filed
3 pursuant to this paragraph shall be printed and made
4 available to all parties.

5 The President and the House of Representatives shall 6 have until 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, January 22, 2020,
7 to file any motions permitted under the rules of impeach-
8 ment with the exception of motions to subpoena witnesses
9 or documents or any other evidentiary motions. Responses
10 to any such motions shall be filed no later than 11:00 a.m.
11 on Wednesday, January 22, 2020. All materials filed pur-
12 suant to this paragraph shall be filed with the Secretary
13 and be printed and made available to all parties.

14 Arguments on such motions shall begin at 1:00 p.m.
15 on Wednesday, January 22, 2020, and each side may de-
16 termine the number of persons to make its presentation,
17 following which the Senate shall deliberate, if so ordered
18 under the impeachment rules, and vote on any such mo-
19 tions.

20 Following the disposition of such motions, or if no
21 motions are made, then the House of Representatives shall 22 make its presentation in support of the articles of im-
23 peachment for a period of time not to exceed 24 hours,
24 over up to 3 session days. Following the House of Rep-25 resentatives' presentation, the President shall make his

1 presentation for a period not to exceed 24 hours, over up
2 to 3 session days. Each side may determine the number
3 of persons to make its presentation.

4 Upon the conclusion of the President's presentation,
5 Senators may question the parties for a period of time
6 not to exceed 16 hours.

7 Upon the conclusion of questioning by the Senate,
8 there shall be 4 hours of argument by the parties, equally 9 divided, followed by deliberation by the Senate, if so or-10 dered under the impeachment rules, on the question of 11 whether it shall be in order to consider and debate under 12 the impeachment rules any motion to subpoena witnesses
13 or documents. The Senate, without any intervening action, 14 motion, or amendment, shall then decide by the yeas and 15 nays whether it shall be in order to consider and debate
16 under the impeachment rules any motion to subpoena wit-
17 nesses or documents.

18 Following the disposition of that question, other mo-19 tions provided under the impeachment rules shall be in 20 order.

21 If the Senate agrees to allow either the House of Rep-22 resentatives or the President to subpoena witnesses, the 23 witnesses shall first be deposed and the Senate shall decide 24 after deposition which witnesses shall testify, pursuant to 25 the impeachment rules. No testimony shall be admissible

10

1 in the Senate unless the parties have had an opportunity
2 to depose such witnesses.

3 At the conclusion of the deliberations by the Senate,

4 the Senate shall vote on each article of impeachment.

Congress of the United States
Washington, DC 20515

January 25, 2020

The Honorable Julie E. Adams
Secretary of the Senate
S – 312, The Capitol

Ms. Adams:

Pursuant to the provisions of Senate Resolution 483 of the 116th Congress, the House of Representatives hereby files House Document 116-95 to be admitted into evidence subject to the terms of Resolution 483 for the House record in the impeachment trial of Donald John Trump, President of the United States.

We have transmitted these materials to GPO for printing. It has begun the printing process and produced seven of the anticipated eighteen volumes. We are delivering those herewith, with the other volumes to follow shortly, upon the completion of the printing process by GPO. In order to facilitate review of the record by the parties, we are simultaneously delivering copies of all the materials that we have delivered to GPO – a total of 28,578 pages constituting all eighteen volumes – to the Senate Majority and Minority Leaders as well as White House Counsel.

Consistent with the provisions of Senate Resolution 483, House Document 116-95 consists of publicly available materials that have been submitted to or produced by the House Judiciary Committee, including transcripts of public hearings or markups and any materials printed by the House of Representatives or the House Judiciary Committee pursuant to House Resolution 660. All of this material is also available on the dedicated House Judiciary Committee impeachment record website.¹

In addition, pursuant to the provisions of Senate Resolution 243 of the 100th Congress, a single, one-page classified document identified by the House for filing with the Secretary of the Senate, was received by the Office of Senate Security on January 22, 2020 together with an unclassified cover letter. The single, one-page classified document shall not be made part of the public record and shall not be printed. However, it shall be admitted into evidence subject to the terms of Resolution 483, made available pursuant to the Standing Order for the 100th Congress, and at all times shall be handled, stored, and accessed in strict accordance with all applicable security procedures.

Sincerely,

United States House of Representatives Managers
