claim exceeds $100,000, exclusive of interest and other late payment charges, then the authority to suspend or terminate collection action rests solely with the Department of Justice. If VA determines that suspension or termination is appropriate for such a debt, after evaluation in accordance with the standards set forth in §§1.941 and 1.942, then the matter shall be referred to the Department of Justice, using the Claims Collection Litigation Report (see §1.951). The referral shall contain a written recommendation, which specifies the reasons why suspension or termination is advantageous to the government. If VA determines that its claim is plainly erroneous or clearly without legal merit, it may terminate collection regardless of the amount involved, without the concurrence of the Department of Justice. If VA decides not to suspend or terminate collection action on the claim, Justice Department approval is not required.

§ 1.941 Suspension of collection activity.

(a) Collection action may be suspended temporarily on a claim when the debtor cannot be located after diligent effort and there is reason to believe that future collection action may be sufficiently productive to justify periodic review and action on the claim. The following sources shall be used to locate missing debtors: Telephone directories, city directories, postmasters, drivers license records, automobile title and registration records, State and local government agencies, the Internal Revenue Service (§1.924), other Federal agencies, employers, relatives, credit agency locate reports, and credit bureaus. Suspension as to a particular debtor should not prohibit the early liquidation of any security held for the debt. Every reasonable effort should be made to locate missing debtors sufficiently in advance of the bar of any applicable statute of limitations, in order to permit the timely filing of a suit, if such action is warranted. If the missing debtor has signed a confess-judgment note and is in default, referral of the note for the entry of judgment should not be delayed because of his/her missing status.

(b) Collection action may also be suspended temporarily on a claim when the debtor owns no substantial equity in real or personal property and is unable to make payments on the debt owed to VA or effect a compromise at the time, but his/her future prospects justify retention of the claim for periodic review and action, and:

(1) The applicable statute of limitations has been tolled or started running again, or

(2) Future collection can be affected by offset, notwithstanding the statute of limitations, with due regard to the 10 year limitation prescribed by 31 U.S.C. 3716(c)(1), or

(3) The debtor agrees to pay interest on the amount of the debt on which collection action has been suspended temporarily, and such temporary suspension is likely to enhance the debtor's ability to pay the debt in full, with interest, at a later time.

(c) Collection action may also be suspended, in accordance with §§1.911, 1.912, and 1.912a, pending agency action on requests for administrative review or waiver.

§ 1.942 Termination of collection activity.

Termination of collection activity involves a final determination. Collection activity may be terminated on cases previously suspended. The Department of Veterans Affairs may terminate collection activity and consider closing the agency file on a claim which meets any one of the following standards:

(a) Inability to collect any substantial amount. Collection action may be terminated on a claim when it becomes clear that VA cannot collect or enforce collection of any significant amount from the debtor, having due regard for the judicial remedies available to the agency, the debtor's future financial prospects, and the exemptions available to the debtor under State and Federal law. In determining the debtor's inability to pay, the following factors, among others, shall be considered: Age
