Explanation

The Code of Federal Regulations is a codification of the general and permanent rules published in the Federal Register by the Executive departments and agencies of the Federal Government. The Code is divided into 50 titles which represent broad areas subject to Federal regulation. Each title is divided into chapters which usually bear the name of the issuing agency. Each chapter is further subdivided into parts covering specific regulatory areas.

Each volume of the Code is revised at least once each calendar year and issued on a quarterly basis approximately as follows:

Title 1 through Title 16.....	as of January 1
Title 17 through Title 27.....	as of April 1
Title 28 through Title 41.....	as of July 1
Title 42 through Title 50.....	as of October 1

The appropriate revision date is printed on the cover of each volume.

LEGAL STATUS

The contents of the Federal Register are required to be judicially noticed (44 U.S.C. 1507). The Code of Federal Regulations is prima facie evidence of the text of the original documents (44 U.S.C. 1510).

HOW TO USE THE CODE OF FEDERAL REGULATIONS

The Code of Federal Regulations is kept up to date by the individual issues of the Federal Register. These two publications must be used together to determine the latest version of any given rule.

To determine whether a Code volume has been amended since its revision date (in this case, April 1, 2003), consult the "List of CFR Sections Affected (LSA)," which is issued monthly, and the "Cumulative List of Parts Affected," which appears in the Reader Aids section of the daily Federal Register. These two lists will identify the Federal Register page number of the latest amendment of any given rule.

EFFECTIVE AND EXPIRATION DATES

Each volume of the Code contains amendments published in the Federal Register since the last revision of that volume of the Code. Source citations for the regulations are referred to by volume number and page number of the Federal Register and date of publication. Publication dates and effective dates are usually not the same and care must be exercised by the user in determining the actual effective date. In instances where the effective date is beyond the cut-off date for the Code a note has been inserted to reflect the future effective date. In those instances where a regulation published in the Federal Register states a date certain for expiration, an appropriate note will be inserted following the text.

OMB CONTROL NUMBERS

The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 (Pub. L. 96-511) requires Federal agencies to display an OMB control number with their information collection request.

Many agencies have begun publishing numerous OMB control numbers as amendments to existing regulations in the CFR. These OMB numbers are placed as close as possible to the applicable recordkeeping or reporting requirements.

OBSOLETE PROVISIONS

Provisions that become obsolete before the revision date stated on the cover of each volume are not carried. Code users may find the text of provisions in effect on a given date in the past by using the appropriate numerical list of sections affected. For the period before January 1, 2001, consult either the List of CFR Sections Affected, 1949–1963, 1964–1972, 1973–1985, or 1986–2000, published in 11 separate volumes. For the period beginning January 1, 2001, a “List of CFR Sections Affected” is published at the end of each CFR volume.

CFR INDEXES AND TABULAR GUIDES

A subject index to the Code of Federal Regulations is contained in a separate volume, revised annually as of January 1, entitled CFR INDEX AND FINDING AIDS. This volume contains the Parallel Table of Statutory Authorities and Agency Rules (Table I). A list of CFR titles, chapters, and parts and an alphabetical list of agencies publishing in the CFR are also included in this volume.

An index to the text of “Title 3—The President” is carried within that volume.

The Federal Register Index is issued monthly in cumulative form. This index is based on a consolidation of the “Contents” entries in the daily Federal Register.

A List of CFR Sections Affected (LSA) is published monthly, keyed to the revision dates of the 50 CFR titles.

REPUBLICATION OF MATERIAL

There are no restrictions on the republication of material appearing in the Code of Federal Regulations.

INQUIRIES

For a legal interpretation or explanation of any regulation in this volume, contact the issuing agency. The issuing agency’s name appears at the top of odd-numbered pages.

§ 501.1 Definitions.

(a) Act means the Federal Employees' Compensation Act and any statutory extension or application thereof.

(b) Board means the Employees' Compensation Appeals Board.

(c) Office means the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs and in the case of employees of the Canal Zone Government and of the Panama Canal Company, the Governor of the Canal Zone.

(d) Director means the Director of the Office and in the case of employees of the Canal Zone Government and of the Panama Canal Company, the Governor of the Canal Zone.

(e) Party means any person admitted and named as a party on the docket of the Board, including any intervenors.

(f) Counsel includes any person who is a member in good standing of the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States or the highest court of any State, territory, or the District of Columbia.

[27 FR 12186, Dec. 8, 1962, as amended at 29 FR 13519, Oct. 1, 1964]

§ 501.2 Scope and applicability of rules; composition and jurisdiction of the Board.

(a) The regulations in this part provide the rules of practice of the Board in hearing and deciding appeals from final decisions of the Office.

(b) The Board consists of three members appointed by the Secretary of Labor, one of whom is designated as Chairman of the Board and administrative officer.

(c) The Board has jurisdiction to consider and decide appeals from the final decision of the Office in any case arising under the Act. The Board may review all relevant questions of law, fact, and discretion in such cases. There shall be no appeal with respect to any interlocutory matter disposed of by the Office during the pendency of a case. The review of a case shall be limited to the evidence in the case record which was before the Office at the time of its final decision.

§ 501.3 Application for review.

(a) Who may file. Any person adversely affected by a final decision of the Director, or his duly authorized representative, may file an application for review of such decision by the Board.

(b) Place of filing. Any application for review shall be filed with the Clerk of the Board, Employees' Compensation Appeals Board, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, DC 20210.

(c) Form of application; contents. An application for review should be filed with the Board upon Form AB-1 (Application for Review). Any application made without the use of the form shall contain the following information: The full name and address of the applicant, the name of the injured or deceased employee, the employing establishment, the case file number assigned to the case by the Office, a description of the particular injury involved, the date of the injury, the place of injury, and the date of the decision being appealed. If the applicant is being represented by another person in the proceeding, the name and address of such representative should be stated. Each application shall include a succinct statement indicating the contentions of the applicant and describing with particularity any findings of fact, conclusions of law, or exercise of (or failure to exercise) discretion complained of. Any application containing incomplete information shall be returned to the applicant with a description of the additional information needed and a reasonable opportunity for furnishing any such information shall be allowed.

(d) Time for filing. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (d)(2) of this section, any application for review by a person residing within the United States or Canada must be filed within 90 days from the date of issuance of the final decision of the Director, and any application for review by a person residing outside the United States or Canada must be filed within 180 days from the date of issuance.

(2) For good cause shown, the Board may in its discretion waive a failure to file an application within the time limitations provided in paragraph (d)(1) of this section, but for no longer than one year from the date of issuance of the final decision of the Director.

(3) Date of filing—(i) Date or receipt. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a notice of appeal is considered to have been filed only as of the date it is received in the office of the clerk of the Board.

(ii) Date of mailing. If the notice is sent by mail and the fixing of the date of delivery as the date of filing would render the appeal untimely, it will be considered to have been filed as of the date of mailing. The date appearing on the postmark (when available and legible) shall be prima facie evidence of the date of mailing. If there is no postmark or it is not legible, other evidence, such as, but not limited to, certified mail receipts, certificate of service and affidavits, may be used to establish the date of mailing.

(e) Briefs and supporting statements. Any application for review may be accompanied by a brief or supporting statement.

§ 501.4 Transmittal of record.

(a) The Board shall serve upon the Director a copy of each application for review and any brief or supporting statement accompanying it. Within 60 days from the date of such service, the Director, through his legal representative, the Solicitor of Labor, shall transmit to the Board the record of the proceeding to which the application refers and a statement in support of his decision, or other pleading, as appropriate, signed on his behalf by his legal representative.

20 CFR Ch. IV (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) On application of the Director, the Board may in its discretion extend the 60-day time for submittal to the Board of the record of proceedings and accompanying statement or pleading.

§ 501.5 Oral argument.

(a) Notice. Whenever any party requests an opportunity to present oral argument the Board shall schedule the case for argument. Each party shall be notified at least 10 days before the date of argument. The notice shall state the issues to be heard, as determined by the Board.

(b) Time allowed. Generally not more than 1 hour shall be allowed for oral argument by any party although in appropriate cases the Board may in its discretion extend or shorten the time allowed.

(c) Failure to respond to notice. Failure to respond to a notice of oral argument shall not prejudice the rights of any party to the proceeding. The Board in its discretion may set the case for further argument upon notice or it may proceed to dispose of the appeal pursuant to § 501.6.

§ 501.6 Decisions.

(a) The decision of the Board shall contain a written opinion setting forth the reasons for the action taken and an appropriate order. The decision may consist of affirmance, reversal, remand for further development of the evidence, or other appropriate action. A copy of the decision shall be sent by the Board to all parties in interest. The case record shall be returned to the Director with a copy of the decision.

(b) A decision of not less than two members shall be the decision of the Board.

(c) The decision of the Board shall be final as to the subject matter appealed and such decision shall not be subject to review, except by the Board.

Employees' Compensation Appeals Board, Labor

§ 501.10

(d) The decision of the Board shall be final upon the expiration of 30 days from the date of the filing of the order, unless the Board shall in its order fix a different period of time or reconsideration by the Board is granted.

§ 501.7 Petition for reconsideration.

(a) Procedure for filing. A petition for reconsideration of a decision of the Board may be filed with the Board within 30 days from the date of the order, or, if another period is specified in the order, then prior to the time when the order becomes final. The petition shall state the grounds relied upon, including any matters claimed to have been erroneously decided and shall specify the alleged errors. The petition may be in letter form.

(b) Answer; procedure for disposition of petitions. Upon the filing of a petition for reconsideration, each of the other parties to the proceeding may file an answer thereto within such time as may be fixed by the Board. If reconsideration should be granted, reargument upon reasonable notice may be allowed in the discretion of the Board. After reconsideration of a case the Board shall either grant or deny the petition.

§ 501.8 Docket of proceedings; inspection of docket and records.

(a) Maintenance of docket. A docket of all proceedings shall be maintained by the Board. Each proceeding shall be assigned a number in chronological order upon the date on which an application for review is received. Each proceeding shall be generally considered in the order in which it is docketed, although for good cause shown the Board may advance the order in which a particular case is to be considered. Correspondence or further applications in connection with any pending case shall refer to the docket number of that case.

(b) Inspection of docket and records. The docket of the Board shall be open to public inspection. The Board shall publish its decisions in such form as to be readily available for inspection, and shall allow the public inspection thereof at the permanent location of the Board. Inspection of the papers and documents included in the case record of any proceeding before the Board shall be permitted or denied in accordance with the standards provided in § 1.22 of this title. The Chairman of the Board shall exercise the functions prescribed in 29 CFR 70.74a.

§ 501.9 Regulation of proceedings.

The proceedings shall be conducted under the supervision of the Chairman or Acting Chairman, who shall regulate such matters as the granting of continuances, acceptance of briefs and other procedural matters.

§ 501.10 Number of copies of pleadings and related documents; service; computation of time.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, any application, pleading, petition, brief or other memorandum shall be filed in duplicate (original and 1 copy) with the Board; the Board shall serve the copy upon the other party.

(b) Instead of filing the duplicate of any such document with the Board, the party submitting it may serve the duplicate or copy directly upon the Director and make a notation to that effect upon the copy filed with the Board.

(c) Any notice or order required under this part to be given or served shall be by certified or registered mail or by personal service.

(d) Computation of Time. (1) In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules or by direction of the Board, the first day counted shall be the day after the event from which the time period begins to run, and the last day for filing shall be included in the computation. If the last day for filing falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday, the first working day thereafter shall be the last day for timely filing. For purposes of computing the time for filing a notice of appeal or a petition for reconsideration, the event which commences the running of the time period shall be construed as occurring on the date the relevant decision is issued, and not the date the decision is actually received.

(2) Whenever a paper is served on the Board by mail, paragraph (d)(1) of this section will be deemed complied with if the envelope containing the paper is postmarked within the time period allowed, computed as in paragraph (d)(1) of this section. If there is no postmark, or it is not legible, other evidence, such as, but not limited to, certified mail receipts, certificate of service and affidavits, may be used to establish the date of mailing.

20 CFR Ch. IV (4-1-03 Edition)

(3) A waiver or an extension of the time limitations for filing a paper, other than a notice of appeal or a petition for reconsideration, may be requested by motion.

§501.11 Appearances.

(a) Representation. In any proceeding before the Board, a party may appear in person, or by counsel or any other duly authorized person, including any accredited representative of an employee organization. No person shall be recognized as representing an appellant or intervenor unless there shall be filed with the Board a statement in writing, signed by the party to be represented, authorizing such representation. Such representative when accepted shall continue to be recognized unless he should abandon such capacity, withdraw, or the appellant or intervenor directs otherwise.

(b) Former members of the Board; other employees of the Department of Labor. A former member of the Board shall not be allowed to participate as counsel or other representative before the Board in any proceeding until two years from the termination of his status as a Board member. The practice of other former employees of the Department of Labor are governed by 29 CFR 2.2 and 2.3.

(c) Debarment of counsel or other representative. Whenever in any proceeding the Board finds that a person acting as counsel or other representative for any party to the proceeding is guilty of unethical or unprofessional conduct, the Board may order that such person be excluded from further acting as counsel or other representative in such proceeding. An appeal may be taken to the Secretary of Labor from such an order, but the proceeding shall not be delayed or suspended pending disposition of the appeal, although the Board may suspend the proceeding for a reasonable time for the purpose of enabling the party to obtain different counsel or other representative. Whenever the Board has issued an order precluding a person from further acting as counsel or other representative in a proceeding, the Board shall within a reasonable time thereafter submit to the Secretary of Labor a report of the facts and circumstances surrounding the issuance of the order, and shall recommend what action the Secretary of Labor should take in regard to the appearance of such person as counsel or other representative in other proceedings before the Board. Before any action is taken debarring such person as counsel or representative from other proceedings, he shall be furnished notice and opportunity to be heard on the matter.

(d) Fees. No claim for legal or other service rendered in respect to a proceeding before the Board to or on account of any person, shall be valid unless approved by the Board or by a member thereof. No contract for a stipulated fee or for a fee upon a contingent basis shall be recognized by the Board, and no fee for service shall be approved except upon an application to the Board supported by a sufficient statement of the extent and character of the necessary work done before the Board on behalf of the interested party. Except where such representation is gratuitous, the fee approved by the Board, or by a member thereof, shall be reasonably commensurate with the actual necessary work performed by such representative, taking into account the capacity in which the representative has appeared, the amount of the compensation involved, and the circumstances of the appellant.

§ 501.12 Intervention.

The Board may permit any person whose rights may be affected by any proceeding before the Board to intervene therein whenever such person shows in a written petition to intervene that such rights are so affected.

The petition should state with precision and particularity (a) the rights affected; and (b) the nature of any argument he intends to make.

§ 501.13 Place of proceedings.

The Board shall sit in Washington, DC.

Subpart A—Approval, Certification and Findings With Respect to State Laws and Plans of Operation for Normal and Additional Tax Credit and Grant Purposes

§ 601.1 General.

(a) State unemployment compensation laws are approved and certified as provided in section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; findings are made regarding reduced rates permitted by a State law (section 3303(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) and such laws are certified as provided in section 3303(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; findings are made regarding the inclusion of specified provisions (section 303(a) of the Social Security Act) in State laws approved under section 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; findings are made whether the States have accepted the provisions of the Wagner-Peyser Act and whether their plans of operation for public employment offices comply with the provisions of said Act.

(b) Normal and additional tax credit is given to taxpayers against taxes imposed by section 3301 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(c) Grants of funds are made to States for administration of their employment security laws if their unemployment compensation laws and their plans of operation for public employment offices meet required conditions of Federal law. (Section 303(a) of the Social Security Act; section 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; sections 6, 7, and 8 of the Wagner-Peyser Act.)

(d) As used throughout this Part, the terms "Secretary" or "Secretary of Labor" shall refer to the Secretary of Labor, U.S. Department of Labor, or his or her designee.

[15 FR 5886, Aug. 31, 1950; 23 FR 1267, Mar. 1, 1958, as amended at 61 FR 19983, May 3, 1996]

§ 601.2 Approval of State unemployment compensation laws.

States may at their option submit their unemployment compensation laws for approval (section 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954).

(a) Submission. The States submit to the Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration (RAETA) two copies of the State unemployment compensation law properly certified by an authorized State official to be true and complete, together with a written request for approval.

(b) Review of State law. The RAETA reviews the State law and forwards one copy to the central office of the Employment and Training Administration with his comments. The central office reviews the RAETA's comments and analyzes the State law from the standpoint of the requirements of section 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(c) Approval. The Secretary of Labor determines whether the State law contains the provisions required by section 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. If the State law is approved, the Secretary notifies the Governor of the State within 30 days of the submission of such law.

(d) Certification. On December 31 of each taxable year the Secretary of Labor certifies, for the purposes of normal tax credit (section 3302(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954), to the Secretary of the Treasury each State the law of which he has previously approved. (See also § 601.5.)

§ 601.3 Findings with respect to State laws and plans of operation.

For purposes of grants, findings are made regarding the inclusion in State unemployment compensation laws, approved under section 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, of provisions required by section 303(a) of the Social Security Act (see § 601.2); findings are also made whether a State has accepted the provisions of the Wagner-Peyser Act and whether its plan of operation for public employment offices complies with the provisions of said act. For purposes of additional tax credit, findings are made regarding reduced rates of contributions permitted by the State law (section 3303(a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954).

So that the Secretary of Labor may be enabled to determine the status of State laws and plans of operation, all relevant State materials, such as statutes, executive and administrative orders, legal opinions, rules, regulations, interpretations, court decisions, etc., are required to be submitted currently.

(a) Submission. The States submit currently to the RAETA two copies of relevant State material, properly certified by an authorized State official to be true and complete.

(b) Review. The RAETA reviews the State material and forwards one copy to the central office with his comments. The central office reviews the material from the standpoint of its conformity with section 303(a) of the Social Security Act, section 3303(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or the Wagner-Peyser Act, as the case may be.

(c) Findings. The Secretary makes findings as provided in the cited sections of the Federal law. In the event that the Secretary is unable to make the findings required for certification for payment or for certification of the law for purposes of additional tax credit, further discussions with State officials are undertaken.

§ 601.4 Certification for tax credit.

(a) Within 30 days after submittal of a State unemployment compensation law for such purpose, the Secretary certifies to the State agency, in accordance with the provisions of section 3303(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, his findings regarding reduced rates of contributions allowable under such law. On December 31 of each taxable year the Secretary certifies to the Secretary of the Treasury the law of each State, certified with respect to such year under section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (see § 601.2), which he finds allows reduced rates with respect to such taxable year only in accordance with the provisions of section 3303(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(b) With regard to certification for payment, see § 601.6.

§ 601.5 Withholding payments and certifications.

(a) When withheld. Payment of funds to States or yearend certification of State laws, or both, are withheld when the Secretary finds, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing:

(1) That any provision required by section 303(a) of the Social Security Act is no longer included in the State unemployment compensation law; or

(2) That the State unemployment compensation law has been so changed as no longer to meet the conditions required by section 3303(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (section 3303(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code); or

(3) That the State unemployment compensation law has been so amended as no longer to contain the provisions specified in section 3304(a) or has failed to comply substantially with any such provision and such finding has become effective (section 3304(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954); or

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 601.5

(4) That in the administration of the State unemployment compensation law there has been a failure to comply substantially with required provisions of such law (section 303(b)(2) of the Social Security Act and section 3303(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954); or

(5) That in the administration of the State unemployment compensation law there has been a denial, in a substantial number of cases, of benefits due under such law, except that there may be no such finding until the question of entitlement has been decided by the highest judicial authority given jurisdiction under such State law (section 303(b)(1) of the Social Security Act); or

(6) That a State fails to make its unemployment compensation records available to the Railroad Retirement Board or fails to cooperate with Federal agencies charged with the administration of unemployment compensation laws (section 303(c) of the Social Security Act); or

(7) That a State no longer has a plan of operation for public employment offices complying with the provisions of the Wagner-Peyser Act; or

(8) That a State agency has not properly expended, in accordance with an approved plan of operation, the Federal monies paid it for administration of its public employment service.

(b) Informal discussion. Such hearings are generally not called, however, until after every reasonable effort has been made by regional and central office representatives to resolve the question involved by conference and discussion with State officials. Formal notification of the date and place of a hearing does not foreclose further negotiations with State officials.

(c) Notice of noncertification. If, at any time during the taxable year, the Secretary of Labor has reason to believe that a State whose unemployment compensation law he has previously approved may not be certified, he promptly notifies the Governor of the State to that effect (section 3304(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954).

(d) Notice of hearing. Notice of hearing is sent by the Secretary of Labor to the State employment security agency. The notice sets forth the purpose of the hearing, the time, date, and place at which the hearing will be held, and the rules of procedure which will be followed. At a hearing the State is given an opportunity to present arguments and all relevant evidence, written or oral. The Secretary makes the necessary determination or findings, on the basis of the record of such hearings. A notice of the Secretary's determination or finding is sent to the State employment security agency.

(e) Civil Rights Act issues. To the extent that any proposed withholding of funds involves circumstances within the scope of title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the regulations promulgated thereunder, the procedure set forth in 29 CFR part 31 shall be applicable.

(f) Tax credit reductions. (1) Section 3302(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 prescribes the conditions under which the total credits otherwise allowable under section 3302 for a taxable year in the case of a taxpayer subject to the unemployment compensation law of a State shall be reduced on account of an outstanding balance of advances made to the State pursuant to title XII of the Social Security Act. As amended by section 110(a) of the Emergency Compensation and Special Unemployment Assistance Extension Act of 1975 (Pub. L. 94-45, approved June 30, 1975; 89 Stat. 236, 239), and as further amended by title II of the Emergency Unemployment Compensation Extension Act of 1977 (Pub. L. 95-19, approved April 12, 1977; 91 Stat. 39, 43), the incremental reductions in total credits will not apply to a State with respect to the taxable years beginning on January 1, 1975, January 1, 1976, January 1, 1977, January 1, 1978, and January 1, 1979, if the Secretary of Labor finds as to each such year that the State has studied and taken appropriate action with respect to the financing of its unemployment compensation program so as substantially to accomplish the purpose of restoring the fiscal soundness of the State's unemployment account in the Unemployment Trust Fund and permitting the repayment within a reasonable time of any advances made to the State's account pursuant to title XII of the Social Security Act.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(2) The Secretary of Labor's finding with respect to a State as to any of the taxable years 1975, 1976, 1977, 1978, and 1979 will be based on his determination as to whether the State has taken appropriate action resulting in:

(i) Amendment of its unemployment compensation law, effective in or prior to the taxable year with respect to which the finding is made, or effective at the beginning of the succeeding taxable year, increasing the State's unemployment tax rate, increasing the State's unemployment tax base, or changing the State's experience rating formula, or a combination of such changes, so as to be estimated by the Secretary to achieve for the taxable year with respect to which the finding is made or for the period following the effective date of the amendment:

(A) An average employer tax rate, computed as a percentage of the total wages in employment covered by the State's unemployment compensation law, which exceeds the State's average annual benefit cost rate, computed as a percentage of the total wages in employment covered by the State's unemployment compensation law, for the ten calendar years immediately preceding the year with respect to which the finding is made; and

(B) An effective minimum employer tax rate which is not less than 1.0 percent of the wages of any employer which are subject to tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act for the same year; and

(C) An effective maximum employer tax rate which exceeds 2.7 percent of the wages of any employer which are subject to tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act for the same year, or provision for no reduced rate of contributions for any employer subject to the State unemployment compensation law; or

(ii)(A) Amendment of its unemployment compensation law increasing the State's unemployment tax rate, increasing the State's unemployment tax base, or changing the State's experience rating formula, or a combination of such changes, so as to be estimated by the Secretary of Labor to result in increasing contributions to the State's unemployment fund, for the taxable year with respect to which the finding is made, and the allocation from such increased contributions of a sum sufficient to make the repayment in the amount and within the time limit prescribed in paragraph (f)(2)(ii)(B) of this section; and

(B) Repayment to the Treasury of the United States, for credit to the Federal unemployment account in the Unemployment Trust Fund, prior to November 10 of the taxable year with respect to which the finding is made, of an amount equal to the amount of the additional tax which would be payable by all taxpayers subject to the unemployment compensation law of the State for that taxable year if (1) for any year prior to 1978, the reduction in total credits prescribed by section 3302(c)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for that taxable year was applied without regard to the amendment added by section 110(a) of the Emergency Compensation and Special Unemployment Assistance Extension Act of 1975, and (2) for any year after 1977, the reduction in total credits prescribed by the applicable provisions of section 3302(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for that taxable year was applied without regard to the amendment added by section 110(a) of the Emergency Compensation and Special Unemployment Assistance Extension Act of 1975; and

(C) Determination by the Secretary that unemployment reserves and income from contributions in the State unemployment fund will be adequate to meet benefit payment obligations without title XII advances during the 6-month period beginning November 1 of the year in which such determination is made.

(3)(i) An application for deferral under this paragraph (f) must be requested and filed with the Secretary of Labor by the Governor of a State no later than July 1 of the taxable year for which such deferral is requested. Such application shall be in such form, and shall be accompanied by such documentation, as the Secretary of Labor shall prescribe.

(ii) A finding by the Secretary of Labor with respect to a State shall be made as of November 10 of the taxable year with respect to which the finding is made, and such finding shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER together with the reasons for the finding.

Subpart B—Grants, Advances and Audits

§ 601.6 Grants for administration of unemployment insurance and employment service.

Grants of funds for administration of State unemployment insurance and public employment service programs are made to States under section 302(a) of the Social Security Act, the Wagner-Peyser Act, and the Appropriation Acts.

(a) Requests for funds. The forms and instructions used by State agencies in requesting funds are available upon request from the Employment and Training Administration, Department of Labor, Washington, DC 20210, and at the regional offices. The forms and instructions call for detailed information for each budgetary period concerning the specific amounts requested for personal services and other current expenses of State agencies, supported by workload and unit-cost estimates. Supplementary budget requests are processed in the same manner as regular requests. The Administration's representatives in the regional offices furnish assistance to the State agencies in preparing requests for funds.

(b) Processing of requests. State agencies send their requests for funds to the RAETA who reviews the requests and forwards them to the ETA National Office with his recommendation as to the amounts necessary for proper and efficient administration of the State unemployment compensation law and employment service program.

The ETA National Office appraises the requests and the recommendations of the regional representatives from a nationwide point of view, examining each State's request in the light of the experience of other States to insure equitable treatment among the States in the allocation of funds made available by Congress for the administration of State unemployment compensation laws and public employment service programs.

(c) Action by ETA National Office. If the ETA National Office approves the State's budget request, the State agency is notified; and, provided the conditions precedent to grants continue during the budgetary period, certifications for payment, under the approved budget, stating the amounts, are made by the ETA National Office to the Secretary of the Treasury quarterly. Upon denial of a request, in whole or in part, the State agency is notified and the RAETA is instructed to negotiate with the State with a view to removing the basis for denial.

§ 601.7 [Reserved]

§ 601.8 Agreement with Postmaster General.

The Secretary of Labor and the Postmaster General have been directed by the Congress (title II of the Labor-Federal Security Agency Appropriation Act, 1950) to prescribe a mutually satisfactory procedure whereby official State employment security postal matter will be handled without the prepayment of postage. In lieu of such prepayments, the Secretary periodically certifies to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment to the U.S. Postal Service the amount necessary to cover the cost of State agency mailings. The amount of payment is based on a formula agreed upon by the Secretary of Labor and the U.S. Postal Service.

§ 601.9 Audits.

The Department of Labor's audit regulations at 41 CFR 29-70.207-2(h) and (i), 41 CFR 29-70.207-3, and 41 CFR 29-70.207-4 shall apply with respect to employment service and unemployment insurance programs.

CLAIM DETERMINATIONS—SEPARATION IN-FORMATION

AUTHORITY: 42 U.S.C. 1302.

SOURCE: 52 FR 33528, Sept. 3, 1987, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart A—General Provisions

§ 602.1 Purpose.

The purpose of this part is to prescribe a Quality Control (QC) program for the Federal-State unemployment insurance (UI) system, which is applicable to the State UI programs and the Federal unemployment benefit and allowance programs administered by the State Employment Security Agencies (SESA) under agreements between the States and the Secretary of Labor (Secretary). QC will be a major tool to assess the timeliness and accuracy of State administration of the UI program. It is designed to identify errors in claims processes and revenue collections (including payments in lieu of contributions and Extended Unemployment Compensation Account collections), analyze causes, and support the initiation of corrective action.

§ 602.2 Scope.

This part applies to all State laws approved by the Secretary under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 26 U.S.C. section 3304), to the administration of the State laws, and to any Federal unemployment benefit and allowance program administered by the SESAs under agreements between the States and the Secretary. QC is a requirement for all States, initially being applicable to the largest permanently authorized programs (regular UI including Combined-Wage-Claims) and federally-funded programs (Unemployment Compensation for Ex-Servicemen and Unemployment Compensation for Federal Employees). Other elements of the QC program (e.g., interstate, extended benefit programs, benefit denials, and revenue collections) will be phased in under a schedule determined by the Department in consultation with State agencies.

Subpart B—Federal Requirements

§ 602.10 Federal law requirements.

(a) Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act (SSA), 42 U.S.C. 503(a)(1), requires that a State law include provision for:

Such methods of administration . . . as are found by the Secretary of Labor to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due.

(b) Section 303(a)(6), SSA, 42 U.S.C. 505(a)(6), requires that a State law include provision for:

The making of such reports, in such form and containing such information, as the Secretary of Labor may from time to time require, and compliance with such provisions as the Secretary of Labor may from time to time find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports.

(c) Section 303(b), SSA, 42 U.S.C. 503(b), provides in part that:

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 602.21

Whenever the Secretary of Labor, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the State agency charged with the administration of the State law, finds that in the administration of the law there is—

(2) a failure to comply substantially with any provision specified in subsection (a); the Secretary of Labor shall notify such State agency that further payments will not be made to the State until the Secretary of Labor is satisfied that there is no longer any such denial or failure to comply. Until he is so satisfied, he shall make no further certification to the Secretary of the Treasury with respect to such State . . . .

(d) Certification of payment of granted funds to a State is withheld only when the Secretary finds, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the State agency—

(1) That any provision required by section 303(a) of the Social Security Act is no longer included in the State unemployment compensation law, or

(2) That in the administration of the State unemployment compensation law there has been a failure to comply substantially with any required provision of such law.

§ 602.11 Secretary’s interpretation.

(a) The Secretary interprets section 303(a)(1), SSA, to require that a State law provide for such methods of administration as will reasonably ensure the prompt and full payment of unemployment benefits to eligible claimants, and collection and handling of income for the State unemployment fund (particularly taxes and reimbursements), with the greatest accuracy feasible.

(b) The Secretary interprets sections 303(a)(1) and 303(a)(6), SSA, to authorize the Department of Labor to prescribe standard definitions, methods and procedures, and reporting requirements for the QC program and to ensure accuracy and verification of QC findings.

(c) The Secretary interprets section 303(b)(2), SSA to require that, in the administration of a State law, there shall be substantial compliance with the provisions required by sections 303(a) (1) and (6). Further, conformity of the State law with those requirements is required by section 303(a) and § 601.5(a) of this chapter.

(d) To satisfy the requirements of sections 303(a) (1) and (6), a State law must contain a provision requiring, or which is construed to require, the establishment and maintenance of a QC program in accordance with the requirements of this part. The establishment and maintenance of such a QC program in accordance with this part shall not require any change in State law concerning authority to undertake redeterminations of claims or liabilities or the finality of any determination, redetermination or decision.

§ 602.20 Organization.

Each State shall establish a QC unit independent of, and not accountable to, any unit performing functions subject to evaluation by the QC unit. The organizational location of this unit shall be positioned to maximize its objectivity, to facilitate its access to information necessary to carry out its responsibilities, and to minimize organizational conflict of interest.

§ 602.21 Standard methods and procedures.

Each State shall:

(a) Perform the requirements of this section in accordance with instructions issued by the Department, pursuant to § 602.30(a) of this part, to ensure standardization of methods and procedures in a manner consistent with this part;

(b) Select representative samples for QC study of at least a minimum size specified by the Department to ensure statistical validity (for benefit payments, a minimum of 400 cases of weeks paid per State per year);

(c) Complete prompt and in-depth case investigations to determine the degree of accuracy and timeliness in the administration of the State UI law and Federal programs with respect to benefit determinations, benefit payments, and revenue collections; and conduct other measurements and studies necessary or appropriate for carrying out the purposes of this part; and in conducting investigations each State shall:

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(1) Inform claimants in writing that the information obtained from a QC investigation may affect their eligibility for benefits and inform employers in writing that the information obtained from a QC investigation of revenue may affect their tax liability,

(2) Use a questionnaire, prescribed by the Department, which is designed to obtain such data as the Department deems necessary for the operation of the QC program; require completion of the questionnaire by claimants in accordance with the eligibility and reporting authority under State law,

(3) Collect data identified by the Department as necessary for the operation of the QC program; however, the collection of demographic data will be limited to those data which relate to an individual's eligibility for UI benefits and necessary to conduct proportions tests to validate the selection of representative samples (the demographic data elements necessary to conduct proportions tests are claimants' date of birth, sex, and ethnic classification); and

(4) Conclude all findings of inaccuracy as detected through QC investigations with appropriate official actions, in accordance with the applicable State and Federal laws; make any determinations with respect to individual benefit claims in accordance with the Secretary's "Standard for Claim Determinations—Separation Information" in the Employment Security Manual, part V, sections 6010-6015 (appendix A of this part);

(d) Classify benefit case findings resulting from QC investigations as:

(1) Proper payments, underpayments, or overpayments in benefit payment cases, or

(2) Proper denials or underpayments in benefit denial cases;

(e) Make and maintain records pertaining to the QC program, and make all such records available in a timely manner for inspection, examination, and audit by such Federal officials as the Secretary may designate or as may be required or authorized by law;

(f) Furnish information and reports to the Department, including weekly transmissions of case data entered into the automated QC system and annual reports, without, in any manner, identifying individuals to whom such data pertain; and

(g) Release the results of the QC program at the same time each year, providing calendar year results using a standardized format to present the data as prescribed by the Department; States will have the opportunity to release this information prior to any release by the Department.

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget under Control Number 1205-0245)

§ 602.22 Exceptions.

If the Department determines that the QC program, or any constituent part of the QC program, is not necessary for the proper and efficient administration of a State law or in the Department's view is not cost effective, the Department shall use established procedures to advise the State that it is partially or totally excepted from the specified requirements of this part. Any determination under this section shall be made only after consultations with the State agency.

Subpart D—Federal Responsibilities

§ 602.30 Management.

(a) The Department shall establish required methods and procedures (as specified in §602.21 of this part); and provide technical assistance as needed on the QC process.

(b) The Department shall consider and explore alternatives to the prescribed sampling, study, recordkeeping, and reporting methodologies. This shall include, but not be limited to, testing the obtaining of information needed for QC by telephone and mail rather than in face-to-face interviews.

(c) The Department shall maintain a computerized data base of QC case data which is transmitted to the Department under §602.21, which will be combined with other data for statistical and other analysis such as assessing the impact of economic cycles, funding levels, and workload levels on program accuracy and timeliness.

The Department shall review QC operational procedures and samples, and validate QC methodology to ensure uniformity in the administration of the QC program and to ensure compliance with the requirements of this part. The Department shall, for purposes of determining eligibility for grants described in §602.40, annually review the adequacy of the administration of a State's QC program.

§ 602.40 Funding.

(a) The Department shall use established procedures to notify States of the availability of funds for the operation of QC programs in accordance with this part.

(b) The Department may allocate additional resources, if available, to States for analysis of data generated by the QC program, to increase the number of claims sampled in areas where more information is needed, for pilot studies for the purpose of expanding the QC program, and for corrective action.

§ 602.41 Proper expenditure of Quality Control granted funds.

The Secretary may, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the State agency, take exception to and require repayment of an expenditure for the operation of a QC program if it is found by the Secretary that such expenditure is not necessary for the proper and efficient administration of the QC program in the State. See sections 303(a)(8), 303(a)(9) and 303(b)(2), SSA, and 20 CFR 601.5. For purposes of this section, an expenditure will be found not necessary for proper and efficient administration if such expenditure fails to comply with the requirements of subpart C of this part.

§ 602.42 Effect of failure to implement Quality Control program.

Any State which the Secretary finds, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing, has not implemented or maintained a QC program in accordance with this part will not be eligible for any grants under title III of the Social Security Act until such time as the Secretary is satisfied that there is no longer any failure to conform or to comply substantially with any provision specified in this part. See sections 303(a)(1), 303(a)(6), and 303(b)(2), SSA, and 20 CFR 601.5.

§ 602.43 No incentives or sanctions based on specific error rates.

Neither sanctions nor funding incentives shall be used by the Department to influence the achievement of specified error rates in State UI programs.

Employment Security Manual (Part V, Sections 6010-6015)

6010 Federal Law Requirements. Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for:

“Such methods of administration . . . as are found by the Secretary to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due.”

Section 303(a)(3) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for:

“Opportunity for a fair hearing before an impartial tribunal, for all individuals whose claims for unemployment compensation are denied.”

Section 3304(a)(4) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(5) of the Social Security Act require that a State law include provision for:

Section 3306(h) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act defines “compensation” as “cash benefits payable to individuals with respect to their unemployment.”

6011 Secretary's Interpretation of Federal Law Requirements. The Secretary interprets the above sections to require that a State law include provisions which will insure that:

A. Individuals who may be entitled to unemployment compensation are furnished such information as will reasonably afford them an opportunity to know, establish, and protect their rights under the unemployment compensation law of such State, and

B. The State agency obtains and records in time for the prompt determination and review of benefit claims such information as will reasonably insure the payment of benefits to individuals to whom benefits are due.

6012 Criteria for Review of State Law Conformity with Federal Requirements:

In determining the conformity of a State law with the above requirements of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and the Social Security Act as interpreted by the Secretary, the following criteria will be applied:

A. Is it required that individuals who may be entitled to unemployment compensation be furnished such information of their potential rights to benefits, including the manner and places of filing claims, the reasons for determinations, and their rights of appeal, as will insure them a reasonable opportunity to know, establish, and protect their rights under the law of the State?

B. Is the State agency required to obtain, in time for prompt determination of rights to benefits such information as will reasonably insure the payment of benefits to individuals to whom benefits are due?

C. Is the State agency required to keep records of the facts considered in reaching determinations of rights to benefits?

6013 Claim Determinations Requirements Designed To Meet Department of Labor Criteria:

A. Investigation of claims. The State agency is required to obtain promptly and prior to a determination of an individual's right to benefits, such facts pertaining thereto as will be sufficient reasonably to insure the payment of benefits when due.

This requirement embraces five separate elements:

1. It is the responsibility of the agency to take the initiative in the discovery of information. This responsibility may not be passed on to the claimant or the employer. In addition to the agency's own records, this information may be obtained from the worker, the employer, or other sources. If the information obtained in the first instance discloses no essential disagreement and provides a sufficient basis for a fair determination, no further investigation is necessary. If the information obtained from other sources differs essentially from that furnished by the claimant, the agency, in order to meet its responsibility, is required to inform the claimant of such information from other sources and to afford the claimant an opportunity to furnish any further facts he may have.

2. Evidentiary facts must be obtained as distinguished from ultimate facts or conclusions. That a worker was discharged for misconduct is an ultimate fact or conclusion; that he destroyed a machine upon which he was working is a primary or evidentiary fact, and the sort of fact that the requirement refers to.

3. The information obtained must be sufficient reasonably to insure the payment of benefits when due. In general, the investigation made by the agency must be complete enough to provide information upon which the agency may act with reasonable assurance that its decision is consistent with the unemployment compensation law. On the other hand, the investigation should not be so exhaustive and time-consuming as unduly to delay the payment of benefits and to result in excessive costs.

4. Information must be obtained promptly so that the payment of benefits is not unduly delayed.

5. If the State agency requires any particular evidence from the worker, it must give him a reasonable opportunity to obtain such evidence.

B. Recording of facts. The agency must keep a written record of the facts considered in reaching its determinations.

C. Determination notices.

1. The agency must give each claimant a written notice of:

a. Any monetary determination with respect to his benefit year;

b. Any determination with respect to purging a disqualification if, under the State law, a condition or qualification must be satisfied with respect to each week of disqualification; but in lieu of giving written notice of each determination for each week in which it is determined that the claimant has met the requirements for purging, the agency may inform the claimant that he has purged the disqualification for a week by notation of his applicant identification card or otherwise in writing.

c. Any other determination which adversely affects<sup>1</sup> his rights to benefits, except that written notice of determination need not be given with respect to:

(1) A week in a benefit year for which the claimant's weekly benefit amount is reduced in whole or in part by earnings if, the first time in the benefit year that there is such a reduction, he is required to be furnished a booklet or leaflet containing the information set forth below in paragraph 2f(1). However, a written notice of determination is required if: (a) there is a dispute concerning the reduction with respect to any week (e.g.,

<sup>1</sup>A determination "adversely affects" claimant's right to benefits if it (1) results in a denial to him of benefits (including a cancellation of benefits or wage credits or any reduction in whole or in part below the weekly or maximum amount established by his monetary determination) for any week or other period; or (2) denies credit for a waiting week; or (3) applies any disqualification or penalty; or (4) determines that he has not satisfied a condition of eligibility, requalification for benefits, or purging a disqualification; or (5) determines that an overpayment has been made or orders repayment or recoupment of any sum paid to him; or (6) applies a previously determined overpayment, penalty, or order for repayment or recoupment; or (7) in any other way denies claimant a right to benefits under the State law.

as to the amount computed as the appropriate reduction, etc.); or (b) there is a change in the State law (or in the application thereof) affecting the reduction; or

(2) Any week in a benefit year subsequent to the first week in such benefit year in which benefits were denied, or reduced in whole or in part for reasons other than earnings, if denial or reduction for such subsequent week is based on the same reason and the same facts as for the first week, and if written notice of determination is required to be given to the claimant with respect to such first week, and with such notice of determination, he is required to be given a booklet or pamphlet containing the information set forth below in paragraphs 2f(2) and 2h. However, a written notice of determination is required if: (a) there is a dispute concerning the denial or reduction of benefits with respect to such week; or (b) there is a change in the State law (or in the application thereof) affecting the denial or reduction; or (c) there is a change in the amount of the reduction except as to the balance covered by the last reduction in a series of reductions.

NOTE: This procedure may be applied to determinations made with respect to any subsequent weeks for the same reason and on the basis of the same facts: (a) that claimant is unable to work, unavailable for work, or is disqualified under the labor dispute provision; and (b) reducing claimant's weekly benefit amount because of income other than earnings or offset by reason of overpayment.

2. The agency must include in written notices of determinations furnished to claimants sufficient information to enable them to understand the determinations, the reasons therefor, and their rights to protest, request reconsideration, or appeal.

The written notice of monetary determination must contain the information specified in the following items (except h) unless an item is specifically not applicable. A written notice of any other determination must contain the information specified in as many of the following items as are necessary to enable the claimant to understand the determination and to inform him of his appeal rights. Information specifically applicable to the individual claimant must be contained in the written notice of determination. Information of general application such as (but not limited to) the explanation of benefits for partial unemployment, information as to deductions, seasonality factors, and information as to the manner and place of taking an appeal, extension of the appeal period, and where to obtain information and assistance may be contained in a booklet or leaflet which is given the claimant with his monetary determination.

a. Base period wages. The statement concerning base-period wages must be in sufficient detail to show the basis of computation of eligibility and weekly and maximum benefit amounts. (If maximum benefits are allowed, it may not be necessary to show details of earnings.)

b. Employer name. The name of the employer who reported the wages is necessary so that the worker may check the wage transcript and know whether it is correct. If the worker is given only the employer number, he may not be able to check the accuracy of the wage transcript.

c. Explanation of benefit formula—weekly and maximum benefit amounts. Sufficient information must be given the worker so that he will understand how his weekly benefit amount, including allowances for dependents, and his maximum benefit amount were figured. If benefits are computed by means of a table contained in the law, the table must be furnished with the notice of determination whether benefits are granted or denied.

The written notice of determination must show clearly the weekly benefit amount and the maximum potential benefits to which the claimant is entitled.

The notice to a claimant found ineligible by reason of insufficient earnings in the base period must inform him clearly of the reason for ineligibility. An explanation of the benefit formula contained in a booklet or pamphlet should be given to each claimant at or prior to the time he receives written notice of a monetary determination.

d. Benefit year. An explanation of what is meant by the benefit year and identification of the claimant's benefit year must be included in the notice of determination.

e. Information as to benefits for partial unemployment. There must be included either in the written notice of determination or in a booklet or pamphlet accompanying the notice an explanation of the claimant's rights to partial benefits for any week with respect to which he is working less than his normal customary full-time workweek because of lack of work and for which he earns less than his weekly benefit amount or weekly benefit amount plus earnings, whichever is provided by the State law. If the explanation is contained in the notice of determination, reference to the item in the notice in which his weekly benefit amount is entered should be made.

f. Deductions from weekly benefits.

(1) Earnings. Although written notice of determinations deducting earnings from a claimant's weekly benefit amount is generally not required (see paragraph 1 c (1) above), where written notice of determination is required (or given) it shall set forth the amount of earnings, the method of computing the deduction in sufficient detail to enable the claimant to verify the accuracy of the deduction, and his right to protest, request redetermination, and appeal. Where a written notice of determination is given to the claimant because there has been a change in the State law or in the application of the law, an explanation of the change shall be included.

Where claimant is not required to receive a written notice of determination, he must be given a booklet or pamphlet the first time in his benefit year that there is a deduction for earnings which shall include the following information:

(a) The method of computing deductions for earnings in sufficient detail to enable the claimant to verify the accuracy of the deduction;

(b) That he will not automatically be given a written notice of determination for a week with respect to which there is a deduction for earnings (unless there is a dispute concerning the reduction with respect to a week or there has been a change in the State law or in the application of the law affecting the deduction) but that he may obtain such a written notice upon request; and

(c) A clear statement of his right to protest, request a redetermination, and appeal from any determination deducting earnings from his weekly benefit amount even though he does not automatically receive a written notice of determination; and if the State law requires written notice of determination in order to effectuate a protest, redetermination, or appeal, he must be so advised and advised also that he must request a written notice of determination before he takes any such action.

(a) A written notice of determination is required with respect to the first week in claimant's benefit year in which there is a reduction from his benefits for a reason other than earnings. This notice must describe the deduction made from claimant's weekly benefit amount, the reason for the deduction, the method of computing it in sufficient detail to enable him to verify the accuracy of such deduction, and his right to protest, request redetermination, or appeal.

(b) A written notice of determination is not required for subsequent weeks that a deduction is made for the same reason and on the basis of the same facts, if the notice of determination pursuant to (2)(a), or a booklet or pamphlet given him with such notice explains (i) the several kinds of deductions which may be made under the State law (e.g., retirement pensions, vacation pay, and overpayments); (ii) the method of computing each kind of deduction in sufficient detail that claimant will be able to verify the accuracy of deductions made from his weekly benefit payments; (iii) any limitation on the amount of any deduction or the time in which any deduction may be made; (iv) that he will not automatically be given a written notice of determination for subsequent weeks with respect to which there is a deduction for the same reason and on the basis of the same facts, but that he may obtain a written notice of determination upon request; (v) his right to protest, request redetermination, or appeal with respect to subsequent weeks for which there is a reduction from his benefits for the same reason, and on the basis of the same facts even though he does not automatically receive a written notice of determination; and (vi) that if the State law requires written notice of determination in order to effectuate a protest, redetermination, or appeal, he must be so advised and advised also that he must request a written notice of determination before he takes any such action.

g. Seasonality factors. If the individual's determination is affected by seasonality factors under the State law, an adequate explanation must be made. General explanation of seasonality factors which may affect determinations for subsequent weeks may be included in a booklet or pamphlet given claimant with his notice of monetary determination.

h. Disqualification or ineligibility. If a disqualification is imposed, or if the claimant is declared ineligible for one or more weeks, he must be given not only a statement of the period of disqualification or ineligibility and the amount of wage-credit reductions, if any, but also an explanation of the reason for the ineligibility or disqualification. This explanation must be sufficiently detailed so that he will understand why he is ineligible or why he has been disqualified, and what he must do in order to requalify for benefits or purge the disqualification. The statement must be individualized to indicate the facts upon which the determination was based, e.g., state, "It is found that you left your work with Blank Company because you were tired of working; the separation was voluntary, and the reason does not constitute good cause," rather than merely the phrase "voluntary quit." Checking a box as to the reason for the disqualification is not a sufficiently detailed explanation. However, this statement of the reason for the disqualification need not be a restatement of all facts considered in arriving at the determination.

i. Appeal rights. The claimant must be given information with respect to his appeal rights.

(1) The following information shall be included in the notice of determination:

(a) A statement that he may appeal or, if the State law requires or permits a protest or redetermination before an appeal, that he may protest or request a redetermination.

(b) The period within which an appeal, protest, or request for redetermination must be filed. The number of days provided by statute must be shown as well as either the beginning date or ending date of the period. (It is recommended that the ending date of the appeal period be shown, as this is the more understandable of the alternatives.)

(2) The following information must be included either in the notice of determination or in separate informational material referred to in the notice:

(a) The manner in which the appeal, protest, or request for redetermination must be filed, e.g., by signed letter, written statement, or on a prescribed form, and the place or places to which the appeal, protest, or request for redetermination may be mailed or hand-delivered.

(b) An explanation of any circumstances (such as nonworkdays, good cause, etc.) which will extend the period for the appeal, protest, or request for redetermination beyond the date stated or identified in the notice of determination.

(c) That any further information claimant may need or desire can be obtained together with assistance in filing his appeal, protest, or request for redetermination from the local office.

If the information is given in separate material, the notice of determination would adequately refer to such material if it said, for example, "For other information about your (appeal), (protest), (redetermination) rights, see pages ___ to ___ of the _____ (name of pamphlet or booklet) heretofore furnished to you."

6014 Separation Information Requirements Designed To Meet Department of Labor Criteria:

A. Information to agency. Where workers are separated, employers are required to furnish the agency promptly, either upon agency request or upon such separation, a notice describing the reasons for and the circumstances of the separation and any additional information which might affect a claimant's right to benefits. Where workers are working less than full time, employers are required to furnish the agency promptly, upon agency request, information concerning a claimant's hours of work and his wages during the claim periods involved, and other facts which might affect a claimant's eligibility for benefits during such periods.

When workers are separated and the notices are obtained on a request basis, or when workers are working less than full time and the agency requests information, it is essential to the prompt processing of claims that the request be sent out promptly after the claim is filed and the employer be given a specific period within which to return the notice, preferably within 2 working days.

When workers are separated and notices are obtained upon separation, it is essential that the employer be required to send the notice to the agency with sufficient promptness to insure that, if a claim is filed, it may be processed promptly. Normally, it is desirable that such a notice be sent to the central office of the agency, since the employer may not know in which local office the workers will file his claim. The usual procedure is for the employer to give the worker a copy of the notice sent by the employer to the agency.

B. Information to worker.

1. Information required to be given. Employers are required to give their employees information and instructions concerning the employees' potential rights to benefits and concerning registration for work and filing claims for benefits.

The information furnished to employees under such a requirement need not be elaborate; it need only be adequate to insure that the worker who is separated or who is working less than full time knows he is potentially eligible for benefits and is informed as to what he is to do or where he is to go to file his claim and register for work. When he files his claim, he can obtain more detailed information.

In States that do not require employers to furnish periodically to the State agency detailed reports of the wages paid to their employees, each employer is required to furnish to his employees information as to (a) the name under which he is registered by the State agency, (b) the address where he maintains his payroll records, and (c) the workers' need for this information if and when they file claims for benefits.

2. Methods for giving information. The information and instructions required above may be given in any of the following ways:

a. Posters prominently displayed in the employer's establishment. The State agency should supply employers with a sufficient number of posters for distribution throughout their places of business and should see that the posters are conspicuously displayed at all times.

b. Leaflets. Leaflets distributed either periodically or at the time of separation or reduction of hours. The State agency should supply employers with a sufficient number of leaflets.

c. Individual notices. Individual notices given to each employee at the time of separation or reduction in hours.

It is recommended that the State agency's publicity program be used to supplement the employer-information requirements. Such a program should stress the availability and location of claim-filing offices and the importance of visiting those offices whenever the worker is unemployed, wishes to apply for benefits, and to seek a job.

6015 Evaluation of Alternative State Provisions with Respect to Claim Determinations and Separation Information. If the State law provisions do not conform to the suggested requirements set forth in sections 6013 and 6014, but the State law contains alternative provisions, the Bureau of Employment Security, in collaboration with the State agency, will study the actual or anticipated effects of the alternative provisions. If the Administrator of the Bureau concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy the criteria in section 6012, he will so notify the State agency. If the Administrator of the Bureau does not so conclude, he will submit the matter to the Secretary. If the Secretary concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy the criteria in section 6012, the State agency will be so notified. If the Secretary concludes that there is a question as to whether the alternative provisions satisfy the criteria, the State agency will be advised that unless the State law provisions are appropriately revised, a notice of hearing will be issued as required by the Code of Federal Regulations, title 20, section 601.5.

§ 603.1 Purpose.

(a) Section 2651 of Public Law 98-369 (the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984) amended title XI of the Social Security Act to include a requirement that States have an income and eligibility verification system in effect which would be used in verifying eligibility for, and the amount of, benefits available under several Federally assisted programs including the Federal-State unemployment compensation program.

The Act requires that employers in each State make quarterly wage reports to a State agency, which may be the State unemployment compensation agency, and that wage information and benefit information obtained from other agencies be used in verifying eligibility for benefits. The requirement of quarterly wage reporting may be waived if the Secretary of Labor (in consultation with the Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Secretary of Agriculture) determines the State has in effect an alternative system which is as effective and timely as quarterly wage reporting for the purposes of providing employment related income and eligibility data.

(b) Section 2651(d) of Public Law 98-396 added a new section 303(f) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 503(f)), to provide that the agency charged with the administration of the State unemployment compensation law shall provide that information shall be requested and exchanged for purposes of income and eligibility verification in accordance with a State system which meets the requirements of section 1137 of the Social Security Act, as added by Public Law 98-369. The regulations in this part are issued to implement this requirement.

Subpart A—Income and Eligibility Verification System

§ 603.2 Definitions.

For the purposes of this part:

(a) State unemployment compensation agency means the agency charged with the administration of the unemployment compensation law approved by the Secretary of Labor under section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 3304).

(b) Wage information means information about wages as defined in the State's unemployment compensation law and includes the Social Security Number (or numbers, if more than one) and quarterly wages of an employee, and the name, address, State, and (when known) Federal employer identification number of an employer reporting wages under a State unemployment compensation law, except that in a State in which wages are not required to be reported under the unemployment compensation law, "wage information" means:

(1) That wage information which is reported under provisions of State law which fulfill the requirements of section 1137 of the Social Security Act; or

(2) That information which is obtained through an alternative system which fulfills the requirements of section 1137 of the Social Security Act.

(c) Claim information means information regarding:

(1) Whether an individual is receiving, has received or has applied for unemployment compensation;

(2) The amount of compensation the individual is receiving or is entitled to receive;

(3) The individual's current (or most recent) home address; and

(4) Whether the individual has refused an offer of work and, if so, a description of the job offered including the terms, conditions, and rate of pay.

(5) Any other information contained in the records of the State unemployment compensation agency which is needed by the requesting agency to verify eligibility for, and the amount of, benefits.

(d) Requesting agency means:

(1) Any State or local agency charged with the responsibility of enforcing the provisions of the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program under a State plan approved under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act;

(2) Any State or local agency charged with the responsibility of enforcing the provisions of the Medicaid program under a State plan approved under title XIX of the Social Security Act;

(3) Any State or local agency charged with the responsibility of enforcing the provisions of the Food Stamp program under the Food Stamp Act of 1977;

(4) Any State or local agency charged with the responsibility of enforcing a program under a plan approved under title I, X, XIV, or XVI of the Social Security Act;

(5) Any State or local child support enforcement agency charged with the responsibility of enforcing child support obligations under a plan approved under part D of title IV of the Social Security Act; and

(6) The Secretary of Health and Human Services in establishing or verifying eligibility or benefit amounts under titles II and XVI of the Social Security Act (section 1137(a)).

§ 603.3 Eligibility condition for claimants.

(a) The State unemployment compensation agency shall require, as a condition of eligibility for unemployment benefits, that each claimant for benefits furnish to the agency his/her social security number (or numbers if he/she has more than one such number), and the agency shall utilize such numbers in the administration of the unemployment compensation program so as to associate the agency's records pertaining to each claimant with the claimant's social security number(s).

(b) If the State agency determines that a claimant has refused or failed to provide a Social Security Number, then that individual shall be ineligible to participate in the unemployment compensation program.

(c) Any claimant held ineligible for not supplying a social security number may become eligible upon providing the State agency with such number retroactive to the extent permitted under State law. (Section 1137(a)(1)).

§ 603.4 Notification to claimants.

Claimants shall be notified at the time of filing an initial claim for benefits through a written statement on or provided with the initial claim form and periodically thereafter that information available through the income and eligibility verification system will be requested and utilized by requesting agencies as defined in § 603.2(d) (section 1137(a)(6)). Provisions of a printed notice on or attached to any subsequent additional claims will satisfy the requirement for periodic notice thereafter.

§ 603.5 Disclosure of information.

The State unemployment compensation agency will disclose to authorized requesting agencies, as defined in § 603.2(d), which have entered into an agreement in accordance with this part, wage and claim information as defined herein contained in the records of such State agency as is deemed by the requesting agency to be needed in verifying eligibility for, and the amount of, benefits. Standardized formats established by the Secretary of Health and Human Services (in consultation with the Secretary of Agriculture) will be adhered to by the State unemployment compensation agency. (Section 1137(a)(4)).

§ 603.6 Agreement between State unemployment compensation agency and requesting agency.

(a) The State unemployment compensation agency will enter into specific written agreements with any requesting agency as defined in this part.

(b) The agreements will include, but need not be limited, to the following:

(1) The purposes for which requests will be made and the specific information needed;

(2) Identification of all agency officials, by position, with authority to request information;

(3) Methods and timing of the requests for information, including the format to be used, and the period of time needed to furnish the requested information;

(4) Basis for establishing the reporting periods for which information will be provided;

(5) Provisions for determining appropriate reimbursement from the requesting agency for the costs incurred in providing data, including any new developmental costs associated with furnishing data to the requesting agency and calculated in accordance with the provisions of OMB Circular A-87;

(6) Safeguards to ensure that information obtained from the State unemployment compensation agency will be protected against unauthorized access or disclosure. At a minimum, such procedures will comply with the requirements of § 603.7.

(c) The requirements in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall also apply to requesting agencies receiving information from a State unemployment compensation agency in another State and shall be administered by the State unemployment compensation agency disclosing the information (section 1137(a)(4) and (a)(7)).

§ 603.7 Protection of confidentiality.

(a) State unemployment compensation agencies shall require requesting agencies receiving information under this part to comply with the following measures to protect the confidentiality of the information against unauthorized access or disclosure:

(1) The information shall be used only to the extent necessary to assist in the valid administrative needs of the program receiving such information and shall be disclosed only for these purposes as defined in this agreement;

(2) The requesting agency shall not use the information for any purposes not specifically authorized under an agreement that meets the requirements of § 603.6;

(3) The information shall be stored in a place physically secure from access by unauthorized persons;

(4) Information in electronic format, such as magnetic tapes or discs, shall be stored and processed in such a way that unauthorized persons cannot retrieve the information by means of computer, remote terminal or other means;

(5) Precautions shall be taken to ensure that only authorized personnel are given access to on-line files;

(6)(i) The requesting agency shall instruct all personnel with access to the information regarding the confidential nature of the information, the requirements of this part, and the sanctions specified in State unemployment compensation laws against unauthorized disclosure of information covered by this part, and any other relevant State statutes, and

(ii) The head of each State agency shall sign an acknowledgment on behalf of the entire agency attesting to the agency's policies and procedures regarding confidentiality.

(b) Any requesting agency is authorized to redisclose the information only as follows:

(1) Any wage or claim information may be given to the individual who is the subject of the information;

(2) Information about an individual may be given to an attorney or other duly authorized agent representing the individual if the individual has given written consent and the information is needed in connection with a claim for benefits against the requesting agency; and

(3) Any wage or claim information may be given to another requesting agency as defined in this part or to any criminal or civil prosecuting authorities acting for or on behalf of the requesting agency if provision for such redisclosure is contained in the agreement between the requesting agency and the State unemployment compensation agency.

(c) The requesting agency shall permit the State unemployment compensation agency to make onsite inspections to ensure that the requirements of State unemployment compensation laws and Federal statutes and regulations are being met (section 1137(a)(5)(B)).

§ 603.8 Obtaining information from other agencies and crossmatching with wage information.

(a) The State unemployment compensation agency shall obtain such information from the Social Security administration and any requesting agency as may be needed in verifying eligibility for, and the amount of, benefits.

(b) To the extent that such information shall be determined likely to be productive in identifying ineligibility for benefits and preventing incorrect payments, the State unemployment compensation agency shall crossmatch quarterly wage information with unemployment benefit payment information (section 1137(a)(2)).

(c) To the extent necessary, the United States Department of Labor may amplify on the requirements for state compliance with this section in instructions issued and published for comment in the FEDERAL REGISTER under the provisions of section 1137(a)(2) of the Social Security Act.

§ 603.9 Effective date of rule.

The effective date of this subpart A rule is May 29, 1986, after consultation with the Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Secretary of Agriculture, may by waiver grant a delay in this effective date if the State submits within 90 days of publication of this rule in final form a plan describing a good faith effort to comply with the requirements of section 1137 (a) and

(b) of the Social Security Act through but not beyond September 30, 1986.

Subpart B—Quarterly Wage Reporting

§ 603.20 Effective date of rule.

The requirement that employers in a State report quarterly wage information to a State agency (which may be the State unemployment compensation agency), is effective September 30, 1988 (section 1137(a)(3)).

§ 603.21 Alternative system.

The Secretary of Labor (in consultation with the Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Secretary of Agriculture) may waive the provision that employers in a State are required to make quarterly wage reports to a State agency if the Secretary determines that the State has in effect an alternative system which is as effective and timely for purposes of providing employment related income and eligibility data for the purposes described in section 1137 of the Social Security Act. Criteria for such waiver and the date for submitting requests for such waiver will be issued, if necessary, by the United States Department of Labor and published for comment in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Subpart A—General Provisions

§ 604.1 What is the purpose of this regulation?

The regulation in this part allows the States to develop and experiment with innovative methods for paying unemployment compensation to parents on approved leave or who otherwise leave employment to be with their newborns or newly-adopted children. States' experiences with Birth and Adoption unemployment compensation will enable the Department of Labor to test whether its interpretation of the Federal "able and available" requirements promotes a continued connection to the workforce in parents who receive such payments.

§ 604.2 What is the scope of this regulation?

The regulation in this part applies to and permits all State unemployment compensation programs to provide benefits to parents on approved leave or who otherwise leave employment to be with their newborns or newly-adopted children. A State's participation is voluntary.

§ 604.3 What definitions apply to this regulation?

The following definitions apply to the regulation in this part:

(a) Approved leave means a specific period of time, agreed to by both the employee and employer or as required by law or employment contract (including collective bargaining agreements), during which an employee is temporarily separated from employment and after which the employee will return to work for that employer.

(b) Birth and Adoption unemployment compensation means unemployment compensation paid only to parents on approved leave or who otherwise leave employment to be with their newborns or newly-adopted children.

(c) Department means the United States Department of Labor.

(d) Newborns means children up to one year old.

(e) Newly-adopted children means children, age 18 years old or less, who have been placed within the previous 12 calendar months with an adoptive parent(s).

(f) Parents means mothers and fathers (biological, legal, or who have custody of a child pending their adoption of that child).

(g) Placement means the time a parent becomes responsible for a child pending adoption.

(h) State(s) means one of the States of the United States of America, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the United States Virgin Islands.

Subpart B—Federal Unemployment Compensation Program Requirements

§ 604.10 Beyond the interpretation of the able and available requirement for Birth and Adoption unemployment compensation, does this regulation change the Federal requirements for the unemployment compensation program?

No, the regulation in this part does not change the Federal unemployment compensation requirements. Under its authority to interpret Federal unemployment compensation law, the Department interprets the Federal able and available requirements to include experimental Birth and Adoption unemployment compensation. The regulation in this part applies only to parents who take approved leave or otherwise leave employment to be with their newborns or newly-adopted children.

Subpart C—Coverage and Eligibility

§ 604.20 Who is covered by Birth and Adoption unemployment compensation?

If a State chooses to provide Birth and Adoption unemployment compensation, all individuals covered by the State's unemployment compensation law must also be covered for Birth and Adoption unemployment compensation. Just as with current unemployment compensation programs, individuals may not be denied experimental Birth and Adoption unemployment compensation based on facts or causes unrelated to the individual's unemployment, such as industry, employer size or the unemployment status of a family member. The introduction of such facts or causes would be inconsistent with Federal unemployment compensation law.

§ 604.21 When does eligibility for Birth and Adoption unemployment compensation commence?

Parents may be eligible for Birth and Adoption unemployment compensation during the one-year period commencing with the week in which their child is born or placed with them for adoption. Weeks preceding the week of the birth or placement and weeks following the end of the one-year period are not compensable.

Subpart A—General

§ 606.1 Purpose and scope.

(a) In general. The regulations in this part 606 are issued to implement the tax credit provisions of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, and the loan provisions of title XII of the Social Security Act. The regulations on tax credits cover all of the subjects of 3302 of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA), except subsections (c)(3) and (e). The regulations on loans cover all of the subjects in title XII of the Social Security Act.

(b) Scope. This part 606 covers general matters relating to this part in this subpart A, and in the following subparts includes specific subjects described in general terms as follows:

(1) Subpart B describes the tax credit reductions under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, which relate to outstanding balances of advances made under title XII of the Social Security Act.

(2) Subpart C describes the various forms of relief from tax credit reductions, and the criteria and standards for grant of such relief in the form of—

- (i) A cap on tax credit reduction,
- (ii) Avoidance of tax credit reduction, and
- (iii) Waiver of and substitution for additional tax credit reduction.

§ 606.2

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(3) Subpart D describes the interest rates on advances made under title XII of the Social Security Act, dues dates for payment of interest, and other related matters.

(4) Subpart E describes the various forms of relief from payment of interest, and the criteria and standards for grant of such relief in the form of—

(i) May/September delay of interest payments,

(ii) High unemployment deferral of interest payments,

(iii) High unemployment delay of interest payments, and

(iv) Maintenance of solvency effort required to retain a deferral previously granted.

§ 606.2 Total credits allowable.

The total credits allowed to an employer subject to the tax imposed by section 3301 of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act shall not exceed 5.4 percent with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1984.

§ 606.3 Definitions.

For the purposes of the Acts cited and this part—

(a) Act means as appropriate the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (26 U.S.C. 3301-3311), or title XII of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1321-1324).

(b) Advance means a transfer of funds to a State unemployment fund, for the purpose of paying unemployment compensation, from the Federal unemployment account in the Unemployment Trust Fund, pursuant to section 1202 of the Social Security Act.

(c) Benefit-cost ratio for cap purposes for a calendar year is the percentage obtained by dividing—

(1) The total dollar sum of—

(i) All compensation actually paid under the State law during such calendar year, including in such total sum all regular, additional, and extended compensation, as defined in section 205 of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970, and excluding from such total sum—

(A) Any such compensation paid for which the State is entitled to reimbursement or was reimbursed under the provisions of any Federal Law, and

(B) Any such compensation paid which is attributable to services performed for a reimbursing employer, and which is not included in the total dollar amount reported under paragraph (c)(1)(i)(A) of this section, and

(ii) Any interest paid during such calendar year on any advance, by

(2) The total wages (as defined in § 606-3(1)) with respect to such calendar year. If any percentage determined by this computation for a calendar year is not a multiple of 0.1 percent, such percentage shall be reduced to the nearest multiple of 0.1 percent.

(d) Contributions means payments required by a State law to be made into an unemployment fund by any person on account of having individuals in his employ, to the extent that such payments are made by him without being deducted or deductible from the remuneration of individuals in his employ.

(e) Federal unemployment tax means the excise tax imposed under section 3301 of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act on employers with respect to having individuals in their employ.

(f) Fiscal year means the Federal fiscal year which begins on October 1 of a year and ends on September 30, of the next succeeding year.

(g) FUTA refers to the Federal Unemployment Tax Act.

(h) State unemployment fund or unemployment fund means a special fund established under a State law for the payment of unemployment compensation to unemployed individuals, and which is an “unemployment fund” as defined in section 3306(f) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act.

(i) Taxable year means the calendar year.

(j) Unemployment tax rate means, for any taxable year and with respect to any State, the percentage obtained by dividing the total amount of contributions paid into the State unemployment fund with respect to such taxable year by total wages as defined in § 606.3(1).

(k) Wages, taxable means the total sum of remuneration which is subject to contributions under a State law.

(l) Wages, total means the total sum of all remuneration covered by a State law, disregarding any dollar limitation on the amount of remuneration which is subject to contributions under the State law.

§ 606.4 Redelegation of authority.

(a) Redelegation to UIS Director. The Director, Unemployment Insurance Service (hereinafter "UIS Director"), is redelegated authority to make the determinations required under this part. This redelegation is contained in Employment and Training Order No. 1-84, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 14, 1983 (48 FR 51870).

(b) Delegation by Governor. The Governor of a State, as used in this part, refers to the highest executive official of a State. Wherever in this part an action is required by or of the Governor of a State, such action may be taken by the Governor or may be taken by a delegatee of the Governor if the Department is furnished appropriate proof of an authoritative delegation of authority.

§ 606.5 Verification of estimates and review of determinations.

The Department of Labor (hereinafter "Department") shall verify all information and data provided by a State under this part, and the State shall comply with such provisions as the Department considers necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such information and data. The State agency of a State affected by a determination made by the UIS director under this part may seek review of such determination by a higher level official of the Employment and Training Administration.

§ 606.6 Information, reports, and studies.

A State shall furnish to the Secretary of Labor such information and reports and conduct such studies as the Secretary determines are necessary or appropriate for carrying out the purposes of this part, including any additional information or data the UIS Director may require for the purposes of making determinations under subparts C and E of this part. This collection has been approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1205-0205.

Subpart B—Tax Credit Reduction
[Reserved]Subpart C—Relief from Tax Credit Reduction§ 606.20 Cap on tax credit reduction.

(a) Applicability. Subsection (f) of section 3302 of FUTA authorizes a limitation (cap) on the reduction of tax credits by reason of an outstanding balance of advances, if the UIS Director determines with respect to a State, on or before November 10 of a taxable year, that—

(1) No action was taken by the State during the 12-month period ending on September 30 of such taxable year which has resulted, or will result, in a reduction in the State's unemployment tax effort, as defined in § 606.21(a);

(2) No action was taken by the State during the 12-month period ending on September 30 of such taxable year which has resulted, or will result, in a net decrease in the solvency of the State unemployment compensation system, as defined in § 606.21(b);

(3) The State unemployment tax rate (as defined in § 606.3(j)) for the taxable year equals or exceeds the average benefit-cost ratio (as defined in § 606.3(c)) for the calendar years in the five-calendar year period ending with the calendar year immediately preceding the taxable year for which the cap is requested, under the rules specified in § 606.21 (c) and (d); and

(4) The outstanding balance of advances to the State on September 30 of the taxable year was not greater than the outstanding balance of advances to the State on September 30 of the third preceding taxable year.

(b) Maximum tax credit reduction. If a State qualifies for a cap, the maximum tax credit reduction for the taxable year shall not exceed 0.6 percent, or, if higher, the tax credit reduction that was in effect for the taxable year preceding the taxable year for which the cap is requested.

(c) Year not taken into account. If a State qualifies for a cap for any year, the year and January 1 of the year to which the cap applies will not be taken into account for purposes of determining reduction of tax credit for subsequent taxable years.

(d) Partial caps. Partial caps obtained under subsection (f)(8) are no longer available. Nevertheless, for the purposes of applying section 3302(c)(2) to subsequent taxable years, partial cap credits earned will be taken into account for purposes of determining reduction of tax credits. Also, the taxable year to which the partial cap applied (and January 1 thereof) will be taken into account for purposes of determining reduction of tax credits for subsequent taxable years.

§ 606.21 Criteria for cap.

(a) Reduction in unemployment tax effort. (1) For purposes of paragraph (a)(1) of § 606.20, a reduction in a State's unemployment tax effort will have occurred with respect to a taxable year if any action is or was taken (legislative, judicial, or administrative,) that is effective during the 12-month period ending on September 30 of such taxable year, which has resulted in or will result in a reduction of the amount of contributions paid or payable or the amounts that were or would have been paid or payable but for such action.

(2) Actions that will result in a reduction in tax effort include, but are not limited to, a reduction in the taxable wage base, the tax rate schedule, tax rates, or taxes payable (including surtaxes) that would not have gone into effect but for the legislative, judicial, or administrative action taken. Notwithstanding the foregoing criterion, a reduction in unemployment tax effort resulting from any provision of the State law enacted prior to August 13, 1981, will not be taken into account as a reduction in the State's unemployment tax effort for the purposes of this section.

(b) Net decrease in solvency. For purposes of paragraph (a)(2) of § 606.20, a net decrease in the solvency of the State's unemployment compensation system will have occurred with respect to a taxable year if any action is or was taken (legislative, judicial, or administrative), that is effective during the 12-month period ending on September 30 of such taxable year, which has resulted in or will result in an increase in benefits without at least an equal increase in taxes, or a decrease in taxes without at least an equal decrease in benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing criterion, a decrease in sol-veny resulting from any provision of the State law enacted prior to August 13, 1981, will not be taken into account as a reduction in solvency of the State's unemployment compensation system for the purposes of this section.

(c) State unemployment tax rate. For purposes of paragraph (a)(3) of § 606.20, the State unemployment tax rate is defined in § 606.3(j). If such percentage is not a multiple of 0.1 percent, the percentage shall remain unrounded.

(d) State five-year average benefit cost ratio. For purposes of paragraph (a)(3) of § 606.20, the average benefit cost ratio for the five preceding calendar years is the percentage determined by dividing the sum of the benefit cost ratios for the five years by five. If such percentage is not a multiple of 0.1 percent, the percentage shall remain unrounded.

§ 606.22 Application for cap.

(a) Application. (1) The Governor of the State shall make application, addressed to the Secretary of Labor, no later than July 1 of a taxable year with respect to which a State requests a cap on tax credit reduction. The Governor is required to notify the Department on or before October 15 of such taxable year of any action occurring after the date of the initial application and effective prior to October 1 of such year that would impact upon the State's application.

(2) The UIS Director will make a determination on the application on or before November 10 of such taxable year, will notify the applicant and the Secretary of the Treasury of such determination, and will cause notice of such determination to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(b) Anticipated impact statement. In support of the application by the Governor, there shall be submitted with the application (on or before October 15), for the purposes of the criteria described in §§ 606.20(a) (1) and (2) and 606.21 (a) and (b), a description of all statutory provisions enacted or amended, regulations adopted or revised, administrative policies and procedures adopted or revised, and judicial decisions given effect, which are effective during the 12-month period ending on September 30 of the taxable year for which a cap on tax credit reduction is requested, and an anticipated impact statement (AIS) for each such program action in the following respect—

(1) The estimated dollar effect on each program action upon expenditures for compensation from the State unemployment fund and for the amounts of contributions paid or payable in such 12-month period, including the effect of interaction among program actions, and with respect to program actions for which dollar impact cannot be estimated or is minor or negligible, indicate whether the impact is positive or negative;

(2) If a program action has no such dollar effect, an explanation of why there is or will be no such effect;

(3) A description of assumptions and methodology used and the basis for the financial estimate of the impact of each program action described in paragraphs (b)(1) and (b)(2) of this section; and

(4) A comparison of the program actions described in paragraphs (b)(1) and (b)(2) of this section with the program actions prior to the Federal fiscal year (as defined in §606.3(f)) which ends on such September 30.

(c) Unemployment tax rate. With respect to the unemployment tax rate criterion described in §§606.20(a)(3) and 606.21(c), the application shall include an estimate for the taxable year with respect to which a cap on tax credit reduction is requested and actual data for the prior two years as follows:

(1) The amount of taxable wages as defined in §606.3(k);

(2) The amount of total wages as defined in §606.3(l); and

(3) The estimated distribution of taxable wages, as defined in §606.3(k), by tax rate under the State law.

(d) Benefit cost ratio. With respect to the benefit cost ratio criterion described in §§606.20(a)(3) and 606.21(d), the application shall include for each of the five calendar years prior to the taxable year for which a cap on tax credit reduction is requested, the following data:

(1) The total dollar sum of compensation actually paid under the State law during the calendar year, including in such total sum all regular, additional, and extended compensation as defined in section 205 of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970, but excluding from such total sum—

(i) The total dollar amount of such compensation paid for which the State is entitled to reimbursement or was reimbursed under the provisions of any Federal law;

(ii) The total dollar amount of such compensation paid which is attributable to services performed for a reimbursing employer, and which is not included in the total amount reported under paragraph (d)(1)(i) of this section;

(2) The total dollar amount of interest paid during the calendar year on any advance; and

(3) The total dollar amount of wages (as defined in §606.3(1)) with respect to such calendar year.

(e) Documentation required. Copies of the sources of or authority for each program action described in paragraph (b) of this section shall be submitted with each application for a cap on tax credit reduction. In addition, a notation shall be made on each AIS of where all figures referred to are contained in reports required by the Department or in other data sources.

(f) State contact person. The Department may request additional information or clarification of information submitted bearing upon an application for a cap on tax credit reduction. To expedite requests for such information, the name and telephone number of an appropriate State official shall be included in the application by the Governor.

§ 606.23 Avoidance of tax credit reduction.

(a) Applicability. Subsection (g) of section 3302 of FUTA authorizes a State to avoid a tax credit reduction for a taxable year by meeting the three requirements of subsection (g). These requirements are met if the UIS Director determines that:

(1) Advances were repaid by the State during the one-year period ending on November 9 of the taxable year in an amount not less than the sum of—

(i) The potential additional taxes (as estimated by the UIS Director) that would be payable by the State's employers if paragraph (2) of section 3302(c) of FUTA were applied for such taxable year (as estimated with regard to the cap on tax credit reduction for which the State qualifies under §§ 606.20 to 606.22 with respect to such taxable year), and

§ 606.24

(ii) Any advances made to such State during such one-year period under title XII of the Social Security Act;

(2) There will be adequate funds in the State unemployment fund (as estimated by the UIS Director) sufficient to pay all benefits when due and payable under the State law during the three-month period beginning on November 1 of such taxable year without receiving any advance under title XII of the Social Security Act; and

(3) There is a net increase (as estimated by the UIS Director) in the solvency of the State unemployment compensation system for the taxable year and such net increase equals or exceeds the potential additional taxes for such taxable year as estimated under paragraph (a)(1)(i) of this section.

(b) Net increase in solvency. (1) The net increase in solvency for a taxable year, as determined for the purposes of paragraph (a)(3) of this section, must be attributable to legislative changes made in the State law after the later of—

(i) September 3, 1982, or

(ii) The date on which the first advance is taken into account in determining the amount of the potential additional taxes.

(2) The UIS Director shall determine the net increase in solvency by first estimating the difference between revenue receipts and benefit outlays under the law in effect for the year for which avoidance is requested, as if the relevant changes in State law referred to in paragraph (b)(1) of this section were not in effect for such year. The UIS Director shall then estimate the difference between revenue receipts and benefit outlays under the law in effect for the year for which the avoidance is requested, taking into account the relevant changes in State law referred to in paragraph (b)(1) of this section. The amount (if any) by which the second estimated difference exceeds the first estimated difference shall constitute the net increase in solvency for the purposes of this section.

(c) Year taken into account. If a State qualifies for avoidance for any year, that year and January 1 of that year to which the avoidance applies will be taken into account for purposes of determining reduction of tax credits for subsequent taxable years.

§ 606.24 Application for avoidance.

(a) Application. (1) The Governor of the State shall make application, addressed to the Secretary of Labor, no later than July 1 of a taxable year with respect to which a State requests avoidance of tax credit reduction. The Governor is required to notify the Department on or before October 15 of such taxable year of any action impacting upon the State's application occurring subsequent to the date of the initial application and on or before November 10.

(2) The UIS Director will make a determination on the application as of November 10 of such taxable year, will notify the applicant and the Secretary of the Treasury of such determination, and will cause notice of such determination to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(b) Information. (1) The application shall include a statement of the amount of advances repaid and to be repaid during the one-year period ending on November 9 of the taxable year for which avoidance is requested. If the amount repaid as of the date of the application is less than the amount required to satisfy the provisions of § 606.23(a)(1), the Governor shall provide a report later of the additional repayments that have been made in the remainder of the one-year period ending on November 9 of the taxable year, for the purposes of meeting the provisions of § 606.23(a)(1).

(2) The application also shall include estimates of revenue receipts, benefit outlays, and end-of-month fund balance for each month in the period beginning with September of the taxable year for which avoidance is requested through the subsequent January. Actual data for the comparable period of the preceding year also shall be included in the application in order to determine the reasonableness of such estimates.

(3) The application also shall include a description of State law changes, effective for the taxable year for which the avoidance is requested, which resulted in a net increase in the solvency of the State unemployment compensation system, and documentation which supports the State's estimate of the net increase in solvency for such taxable year.

§ 606.25 Waiver of and substitution for additional tax credit reduction.

A provision of subsection (c)(2) of section 3302 of FUTA provides that, for a State that qualifies, the additional tax credit reduction applicable under subparagraph (C), beginning in the fifth consecutive year of a balance of outstanding advances, shall be waived and the additional tax credit reduction applicable under subparagraph (B) shall be substituted. The waiver and substitution are granted if the UIS Director determines that the State has taken no action, effective during the 12-month period ending on September 30 of the year for which the waiver and substitution are requested, which has resulted or will result in a net decrease in the solvency of the State unemployment compensation system as determined for the purposes of §§ 606.20(a)(2) and 606.21(b).

§ 606.26 Application for waiver and substitution.

(a) Application. The Governor of the State shall make application addressed to the Secretary of Labor, no later than July 1 of a taxable year with respect to which a State requests waiver and substitution. Any such application shall contain the supportive data and information required by § 606.22(b) for the purposes of §§ 606.20(a)(2) and 606.21(b). The Governor is required to notify the Department on or before October 15 of such taxable year of action occurring after the date of the initial application and effective prior to October 1 of such year that would impact upon the State's application.

(b) Notification of determination. The UIS Director will make a determination on the application as of November 10 of the taxable year, will notify the applicant and the Secretary of the Treasury of the resulting tax credit reduction to be applied, and will cause notice of such determination to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Subpart D—Interest on Advances

§ 606.30 Interest rates on advances.

Advances made to States pursuant to title XII of the Social Security Act on or after April 1, 1982, shall be subject to interest payable on the due dates specified in § 606.31.<sup>1</sup> The interest rate for each calendar year will be 10 percent or, if less, the rate determined by the Secretary of the Treasury and announced to the States by the Department.

§ 606.32 Types of advances subject to interest.

(a) Payment of interest. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section each State shall pay interest on any advance made to such State under title XII of the Social Security Act.

(b) Cash flow loans. Advances repaid in full prior to October 1 of the calendar year in which made are deemed cash flow loans and shall be free of interest; provided, that the State does not receive an additional advance after September 30 of the same calendar year. If such additional advance is received by the State, interest on the completely repaid earlier advance(s) shall be due and payable not later than the day following the date of the first such additional advance. The administrator of the State agency shall notify the Secretary of Labor no later than September 10 of those loans deemed to be cash flow loans and not subject to interest. This notification shall include the date and amount of each loan made in January through September and a copy of documentation sent to the Secretary of the Treasury requesting loan repayment transfer(s) from the State's account in the Unemployment Trust Fund to the Federal unemployment account in such Fund.

§ 606.33 No payment of interest from unemployment fund. [Reserved] aged a percentage equalling or exceeding 7.5 percent.

§ 606.34 Reports of interest payable. [Reserved]

(c) Schedule of deferred payments. The State must pay prior to October 1 one-fourth of the interest due, and must pay a minimum of one-third of the deferred amount prior to October 1 in each of the three years following the year in which deferral was granted; at the State's option payment of deferred interest may be accelerated.

§ 606.35 Order of application for repayments. [Reserved]

Subpart E—Relief from Interest Payment

(d) Related criteria. Timely payment of one-fourth of the interest due prior to October 1 is a precondition to obtaining deferral of payment of 75 percent of the interest due. No interest shall accrue on such deferred interest.

§ 606.40 May/September delay.

Subsection (b)(3)(B) of section 1202 of the Social Security Act permits a State to delay payment of interest accrued on advances made during the last five months of the Federal fiscal year (May, June, July, August, and September) to no later than December 31 of the next succeeding calendar year. If the payment is delayed, interest on the delayed payment will accrue from the normal due date (i.e., September 30) and in the same manner as if the interest due on the advance(s) was an advance made on such due date. The Governor of a State which has decided to delay such interest payment shall notify the Secretary of Labor no later than September 1 of the year with respect to which the delay is applicable.

(e) Application for deferral and determination. (1) The Governor of a State which has decided to request such deferral of interest payment shall apply to the Secretary of Labor no later than July 1 of the taxable year for which the deferral is requested.

(2) The UIS Director will determine whether deferral is or is not granted on the basis of the Department's records of reports of the rates of insured unemployment and information obtained from the Department of the Treasury as to the timely and full payment of one-fourth of the interest due.

(a) Applicability. Subsection (b)(3)(C) of section 1202 of the Social Security Act permits a State to defer payment of, and extend the payment for, 75 percent of interest charges otherwise due prior to October 1 of a year if the UIS Director determines that high unemployment conditions existed in the State.

§ 606.42 High unemployment delay.

(a) Applicability. Paragraph (9) of section 1202 (b) of the Social Security Act permits a State to delay for a period not exceeding nine months the interest payment due prior to October 1 if, for the most recent 12-month period prior to such October 1 for which data are available, the State had an average total unemployment rate of 13.5 percent or greater.

(b) High unemployment defined. For purposes of this section, high unemployment conditions existed in the State if the State's rate of insured unemployment (as determined for purposes of 20 CFR 615.12) under the State law with respect to the period consisting of the first six months of the preceding calendar year equalled or exceeded 7.5 percent; this means that in weeks 1 (that week which includes January 1 of the year) through 26 of such preceding calendar year, the rate of insured unemployment reported by the State and accepted by the Department under 20 CFR part 615 must have aver-

(b) Delayed due date. An interest payment delayed under paragraph (9) must be paid in full not later than the last official Federal business day prior to the following July 1; at the State's option payment of delayed interest may be accelerated. No interest shall accrue on such delayed payment.

(c) Application for delay in payment and determination. (1) The Governor of a State which has decided to request delay in payment of interest under paragraph (9) shall apply to the Secretary of Labor no later than July 1 of the taxable year for which the delay is requested.

(2) The UIS Director will determine whether delay is or is not granted on the basis of seasonally unadjusted civilian total unemployment rate data published by the Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

§ 606.43 Maintenance of solvency effort.

(a) Applicability. Legislative-action interest deferrals obtained under subsection (b)(8) (A) through (C) of section 1202 of the Social Security Act are no longer available. Nevertheless, States must maintain their solvency effort with respect to any such deferrals approved in 1983, 1984, and 1985 in order for the deferral to continue to apply in each subsequent year of deferral.

(b) Determination regarding maintenance of solvency effort. (1) The UIS Director shall determine if there is a net reduction in solvency effort by first estimating revenue receipts and benefit outlays under the law in effect in the 12-month period ending on September 30 of the year for which continuation of deferral is requested as if it were effective in the base year (12-month period for which the first deferral was granted).

(2) The UIS Director shall then compare revenue receipts and benefit outlays for the base year (previously estimated at the time of the original deferral) with revenue receipts and benefit outlays estimated in paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

(3) If the sum of—

(i) The percentage increase in revenue receipts from the base year to the year for which the continuation of deferral is requested (as estimated in paragraph (b)(1) of this section), and

(ii) The percentage decrease in benefit outlays from the base year to the year for which the continuation of deferral is requested (as estimated in paragraph (b)(1) of this section), is equal to or greater than the sum of such percentages achieved for the 12-month period ending on September 30 of the year for which the latest deferral was obtained, the State will have maintained its solvency effort, but if less, then a reduction in solvency effort will have occurred.

(4) Notwithstanding the results of the calculation in paragraph (b)(3) of this section, if there is no increase in revenue receipts or no decrease in benefit outlays between the base year and the year for which continuation of deferral is requested, then a reduction in solvency effort will have occurred.

(c) Effect of determination. (1) If the UIS Director determines that a State has maintained its solvency effort, continuation of deferral will be granted, and the State will be required to timely pay the deferred interest payable prior to October 1 of the year with respect to which such determination is made.

(2) If the UIS Director determines that a State failed to maintain its solvency effort, all deferred interest shall be due and payable prior to October 1 of the year with respect to which such determination is made.

(d) Application and information. (1) The Governor of a State which has decided to request continuation of a previously approved deferral of interest payments shall apply to the Secretary of Labor no later than July 1 of the year for which continuation is requested. The Governor is required to notify the Department on or before September 1 of such taxable year of any action impacting upon the State's application which has occurred or will occur subsequent to the date of the initial application and on or before September 30.

(2) In support of the application by the Governor, there shall be submitted for the purposes of the estimates required in paragraph (b) of this section documentation as specified in § 606.22 (b)(1) through (4), (c) and (f) and bearing upon the application for continuation of deferral, in terms of the relevant comparison between revenue receipts and benefit outlays.

The UIS Director will make determinations under §§ 606.41, 606.42, and 606.43 on or before September 10 of the taxable year, will promptly notify the applicants and the Secretary of the Treasury of such determinations, and will cause notice of such determinations to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The UIS Director also will inform the Secretary of the Treasury and cause notice to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of information with respect to delayed payment of interest as provided in § 606.40.

Subpart A—General Provisions

§ 609.1 Purpose and application.

(a) Purpose. Subchapter I of chapter 85, title 5 of the United States Code, as amended by Pub. L. 94-566, 90 Stat.

2667, 5 U.S.C. 8501-8508, provides for a permanent program of unemployment compensation for unemployed Federal civilian employees. The unemployment compensation provided for in subchapter I is hereinafter referred to as unemployment compensation for Federal employees, or UCFE. The regulations in this part are issued to implement the UCFE Program.

(b) First rule of construction. The Act and the implementing regulations in this part shall be construed liberally so as to carry out the purposes of the Act.

(c) Second rule of construction. The Act and the implementing regulations in this part shall be construed so as to assure insofar as possible the uniform interpretation and application of the Act throughout the United States.

(d) Effectuating purpose and rules of construction. (1) In order to effectuate the provisions of this section, each State agency shall forward to the United States Department of Labor (hereafter Department), not later than 10 days after issuance, a copy of each judicial or administrative decision ruling on an individual's entitlement to payment of UCFE or to credit for a waiting period. On request of the Department, a State agency shall forward to the Department a copy of any determination or redetermination ruling on an individual's entitlement to UCFE or waiting period credit.

(2) If the Department believes that a determination, redetermination, or decision is inconsistent with the Department's interpretation of the Act or this part, the Department may at any time notify the State agency of the Department's view. Thereafter the State agency shall issue a redetermination or appeal if possible, and shall not follow such determination, redetermination, or decision as a precedent; and, in any subsequent proceedings which involve such determination, redetermination, or decision, or wherein such determination, redetermination, or decision is cited as precedent or otherwise relied upon, the State agency shall inform the claims deputy or hearing officer or court of the Department's view and shall make all reasonable efforts, including appeal or other proceedings in an appropriate forum, to obtain modification, limitation, or overruling of the determination, redetermination, or decision.

(3) If the Department believes that a determination, redetermination, or decision is patently and flagrantly violative of the Act or this part, the Department may at any time notify the State agency of the Department's view. If the determination, redetermination, or decision in question denies UCFE to a claimant, the steps outlined in paragraph (d)(2) of this section shall be followed by the State agency. If the determination, redetermination, or decision in question awards UCFE to a claimant, the benefits are "due" within the meaning of section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 503(a)(1), and therefore must be paid promptly to the claimant. However, the State agency shall take the steps outlined in paragraph (d)(2) of this section, and payments to the claimant may be temporarily delayed if redetermination or appeal action is taken not more than one business day following the day on which the first payment otherwise would be issued to the claimant; and the redetermination action is taken or appeal is filed to obtain a reversal of the award of UCFE and a ruling consistent with the Department's view; and the redetermination action or appeal seeks an expedited redetermination or appeal within not more than two weeks after the redetermination action is taken or the appeal is filed. If redetermination action is not taken or appeal is not filed within the above time limit, or a redetermination or decision is not obtained within the two-week limit, or any redetermination or decision or order is issued which affirms the determination, redetermination, or decision awarding UCFE or allows it to stand in whole or in part, the benefits awarded must be paid promptly to the claimant.

(4)(i) If any determination, redetermination, or decision, referred to in paragraph (d)(2) or paragraph (d)(3) of this section, is treated as a precedent for any future UCFE claim or claim under the UCX Program (part 614 of this chapter), the Secretary will decide whether the Agreement with the State entered into under the Act shall be terminated.

(ii) In the case of any determination, redetermination, or decision that is not legally warranted under the Act or this part, including any determination, redetermination, or decision referred to in paragraph (d)(3) of this section, the Secretary will decide whether the State shall be required to restore the funds of the United States for any sums paid under such a determination, redetermination, or decision, and whether, in the absence of such restoration, the Agreement with the State shall be terminated and whether other action shall be taken to recover such sums for the United States.

(5) A State agency may request reconsideration of a notice issued pursuant to paragraph (d)(2) of paragraph (d)(3) of this section, and shall be given an opportunity to present views and arguments if desired.

(6) Concurrence of the Department in a determination, redetermination, or decision shall not be presumed from the absence of a notice issued pursuant to this section.

§ 609.2 Definitions of terms.

For the purposes of the Act and this part:

(a) Act means subchapter I of chapter 85, title 5, United States Code, 5 U.S.C. 8501-8508.

(b) Agreement means the agreement entered into pursuant to the Act between a State and the Secretary under which the State agency of the State agrees to make payments of unemployment compensation in accordance with the Act and the regulations and procedures thereunder prescribed by the Department.

(c) Based period means the base period as defined by the applicable State law for the benefit year.

(d) Benefit year means the benefit year as defined by the applicable State law, and if not so defined the term means the period prescribed in the agreement with the State or, in the absence of an Agreement, the period prescribed by the Department.

(e) Federal agency means any department, agency, or governmental body of the United States, including any instrumentality wholly or partially owned by the United States, in any branch of the Government of the United States, which employs any individual in Federal civilian service.

(f) Federal civilian service means service performed in the employ of any Federal agency, except service performed—

(1) By an elective official in the executive or legislative branches of the Government of the United States;

(2) As a member of the Armed Forces or the Commissioned Corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration;

(3) By Foreign Service personnel for whom special separation allowances are provided under chapter 14 of title 22 of the United States Code;

(4) Outside the 50 States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the District of Columbia, by an individual who is not a citizen of the United States;

(5) By an individual excluded by regulations of the Office of Personnel Management from civil service retirement coverage provided by subchapter III of chapter 83 of title 5 of the United States Code because the individual is paid on a contract or fee basis;

(6) By an individual receiving nominal pay and allowances of $12 or less a year;

(7) In a hospital, home, or other institution of the United States by a patient or inmate thereof;

(8) By a student-employee as defined by 5 U.S.C. 5351; that is: (i) A student nurse, medical or dental intern, resident-in-training, student dietitian, student physical therapist, or student occupational therapist, assigned or attached to a hospital, clinic, or medical or dental laboratory operated by an agency as defined in section 5351; or

(ii) Any other student-employee, assigned or attached primarily for training purposes to such a hospital, clinic, or medical or dental laboratory operated by such an agency, who is designated by the head of the agency with the approval of the Office of Personnel Management;

(9) By an individual serving on a temporary basis in case of fire, storm, earthquake, flood, or other similar emergency;

(10) By an individual employed under a Federal relief program to relieve the individual from unemployment;

(11) As a member of a State, county, or community committee under the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service or of any other board, council, committee, or other similar body, unless such body is composed exclusively of individuals otherwise in the full-time employ of the United States;

(12) By an officer or member of the crew on or in connection with an American vessel which is: (i) Owned by or bareboat chartered to the United States, and

(ii) The business of which is conducted by a general agent of the Secretary of Commerce; and

(iii) If contributions on account of such service are required under section 3305(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 3305(g)) to be made to an unemployment fund under a State law;

(13) By an individual excluded by any other Federal law from coverage under the UCFE Program; or

(14) By an individual whose service is covered by the UCX Program to which part 614 of this chapter applies.

(g) Federal employee means an individual who has performed Federal civilian service.

(h) Federal findings means the facts reported by a Federal agency pertaining to an individual as to: (1) Whether or not the individual has performed Federal civilian service for such an agency;

(2) The period or periods of such Federal civilian service;

(3) The individual's Federal wages; and

(4) The reasons for termination of the individual's Federal civilian service.

(i) Federal wages means all pay and allowances, in cash and in kind, for Federal civilian service.

(j) First claim means an initial claim for unemployment compensation under the UCFE Program, the UCX Program (part 614 of this chapter), a State law, or some combination thereof, whereby a benefit year is established under an applicable State law.

(k) Official station means the State (or country, if outside the United States) designated on a Federal employee's notification of personnel action terminating the individual's Federal civilian service (Standard Form 50 or its equivalent) as the individual's "duty station." If the form of notification does not specify the Federal employee's "duty station", the individual's official station shall be the State or country designated under "name and location of employing office" on such form or designated as the individual's place of employment on an equivalent form.

(1) Secretary means the Secretary of Labor of the United States.

(m) State means the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

(n) State agency means the agency of the State which administers the applicable State law and is administering the UCFE Program in the State pursuant to an Agreement with the Secretary.

(o)(1) State law means the unemployment compensation law of a State approved by the Secretary under section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 26 U.S.C. 3304, if the State is certified under section 3304(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 26 U.S.C. 3304(c).

(2) Applicable State law means the State law made applicable to a UCFE claimant by § 609.8.

(p)(1) Unemployment compensation means cash benefits (including dependents' allowances) payable to individuals with respect to their unemployment, and includes regular, additional, emergency, and extended compensation.

(2) Regular compensation means unemployment compensation payable to an individual under any State law, but not including additional compensation or extended compensation.

(3) Additional compensation means unemployment compensation totally financed by a State and payable under a State law by reason of conditions of high unemployment or by reason of other special factors.

(4) Emergency compensation means supplementary unemployment compensation payable under a temporary Federal law after exhaustion of regular and extended compensation.

(5) Extended compensation means unemployment compensation payable to an individual for weeks of unemployment in an extended benefit period, under those provisions of a State law which satisfy the requirements of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970, as amended, 26 U.S.C. 3304 note, and part 615 of this chapter, with respect to the payment of extended compensation.

(q) Week means, for purposes of eligibility for and payment of UCFE, a week as defined in the applicable State law.

(r) Week of unemployment means a week of total, part-total, or partial unemployment as defined in the applicable State law, which shall be applied in the same manner and to the same extent to all employment and earnings, and in the same manner and to the same extent for the purposes of the UCFE Program, as if the individual filing for UCFE were filing a claim for State unemployment compensation.

Subpart B—Administration of UCFE Program

§ 609.3 Eligibility requirements for UCFE.

An individual shall be eligible to receive a payment of UCFE or to waiting period credit with respect to a week of unemployment if:

(a) The individual has Federal civilian service and Federal wages in the base period under the applicable State law;

(b) The individual meets the qualifying employment and wage requirements of the applicable State law, either on the basis of Federal civilian service and Federal wages alone or in combination with service and wages covered under a State law or under the UCX Program (part 614 of this chapter);

(c) The individual has filed an initial claim for UCFE and, as appropriate, has filed a timely claim for waiting period credit or a payment of UCFE with respect to that week of unemployment; and

(d) The individual is totally, part-totally, or partially unemployed, and is able to work, available for work, and seeking work within the meaning of or as required by the applicable State law, and is not subject to disqualification under this part or the applicable State law, with respect to that week of unemployment.

§ 609.4 Weekly and maximum benefit amounts.

(a) Total unemployment. The weekly amount of UCFE payable to an eligible individual for a week of total unemployment shall be the amount that would be payable to the individual as unemployment compensation for a week of total unemployment as determined under the applicable State law.

(b) Partial and part-total unemployment. The weekly amount of UCFE payable for a week of partial or part-total unemployment shall be the amount that would be payable to the individual as unemployment compensation for a week of partial or part-total unemployment as determined under the applicable State law.

(c) Maximum amount. The maximum amount of UCFE which shall be payable to an eligible individual during and subsequent to the individual's benefit year shall be the maximum amount of all unemployment compensation that would be payable to the individual as determined under the applicable State law.

(d) Computation rules. (1) The weekly and maximum amounts of UCFE payable to an individual under the UCFE Program shall be determined under the applicable State law to be in the same amount, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions as the State unemployment compensation which would be payable to the individual under the applicable State law if the individual's Federal civilian service and Federal wages assigned or transferred under this part to the State had been included as employment and wages covered by that State law.

(2) All Federal civilian service and Federal wages for all Federal agencies shall be considered employment with a single employer for purposes of the UCFE Program.

§ 609.5 Claims for UCFE.

(a) First claims. A first claim for UCFE shall be filed by an individual in any State agency of any State (or Canada) according to the applicable State law, and on a form prescribed by the Department which shall be furnished to the individual by the State agency where the claim is filed.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) Weekly claims. Claims for waiting week credit and payments of UCFE for weeks of unemployment shall be filed in any State agency (or Canada) at the times and in the manner as claims for State unemployment compensation are filed under the applicable State law, and on forms prescribed by the Department which shall be furnished to the individual by the State agency where the claim is filed.

(c) Secretary's standard. The procedure for reporting and filing claims for UCFE and waiting period credit shall be consistent with this part 609 and the Secretary's "Standard for Claim Filing, Claimant Reporting, Job Finding and Employment Services" (Employment Security Manual, part V, sections 5000 et seq.).

§ 609.6 Determinations of entitlement; notices to individual.

(a) Determination of first claim. The State agency whose State law applies to an individual under § 609.8 shall, promptly upon the filing of a first claim for UCFE, determine whether the individual is eligible and whether a disqualification applies, and, if the individual is found to be eligible, the individual's benefit year and the weekly and maximum amounts of UCFE payable to the individual.

(b) Determinations of weekly claims. The State agency promptly shall, upon the filing of a claim for payment of UCFE or waiting period credit with respect to a week, determine whether the individual is entitled to a payment of UCFE or waiting period credit with respect to such week, and, if entitled, the amount of UCFE or waiting period credit to which the individual is entitled.

(c) Redetermination. The provisions of the applicable State law concerning the right to request, or authority to undertake, reconsideration of a determination pertaining to State unemployment compensation under the applicable State law shall apply to determinations pertaining to UCFE.

(d) Notices to individual. The State agency promptly shall give notice in writing to the individual of any determination or redetermination of a first claim, and, except as may be authorized under paragraph (g) of this section, of any determination or redetermination of any weekly claim which denies UCFE or waiting period credit or reduces the weekly amount or maximum amount initially determined to be payable. Each notice of determination or redetermination shall include such information regarding the determination or redetermination and notice of right to reconsideration or appeal, or both, as is furnished with written notices of determinations and redeterminations with respect to claims for State unemployment compensation; and where information furnished by a Federal agency was considered in making the determination, or redetermination, the notice thereof shall include an explanation of the right of the individual to seek additional information pursuant to § 609.23 and/or a reconsideration of Federal findings pursuant to § 609.24.

(e) Obtaining information for claim determinations. (1) Information required for the determination of claims for UCFE shall be obtained by the State agency from claimants, employers, and others, in the same manner as information is obtained for claim purposes under the applicable State law, but information (including additional and reconsidered Federal findings) shall be obtained from the Federal agency that employed the UCFE claimant as prescribed in §§ 609.21 through 609.25. On request by a UCFE claimant, the State agency shall seek additional information pursuant to § 609.23 and reconsideration of Federal findings pursuant to § 609.24.

(2) If Federal findings have not been received from a Federal agency within 12 days after the request for information was submitted to the Federal agency, the State agency shall determine the individual's entitlement to UCFE on the basis of an affidavit completed by the individual on a form prescribed by the Department. In addition, the individual shall submit for examination by the State agency any documents issued by the Federal agency (for example, Standard Form 50 or W-2) verifying that the individual performed services for and received wages from such Federal agency.

(3) If Federal findings received by a State agency after a determination has been made under this section contain information which would result in a change in the individual's eligibility for or entitlement to UCFE, the State agency promptly shall make a redetermination and notify the individual, as provided in this section. All payments of UCFE made prior to or after such redetermination shall be adjusted in accordance therewith.

(f) Promptness. Full payment of UCFE when due shall be consistent with this part 609 and shall be made with the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible, but the provisions of part 640 of this chapter (relating to promptness of benefit payments) shall not be applicable to the UCFE Program.

(g) Secretary's standard. The procedures for making determinations and redeterminations, and furnishing written notices of determinations, redeterminations, and rights of appeal to individuals applying for UCFE, shall be consistent with this part 609 and with the Secretary's "Standard for Claim Determinations—Separation Information" (Employment Security Manual, part V, sections 6010 et seq.).

§ 609.7 Appeal and review.

(a) Applicable State law. The provisions of the applicable State law concerning the right of appeal and fair hearing from a determination or redetermination of entitlement to State unemployment compensation shall apply to determinations and redeterminations of eligibility for or entitlement to UCFE and waiting period credit. Any such determination or redetermination shall be subject to appeal and review only in the manner and to the extent provided in the applicable State law with respect to determinations and redeterminations of entitlement to State unemployment compensation.

(b) Rights of appeal and fair hearing. The provisions on right to appeal and opportunity for a fair hearing with respect to claims for UCFE shall be consistent with this part and with sections 303(a)(1) and 303(a)(3) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 503(a)(1) and 503(a)(3).

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(c) Promptness on appeals. (1) Decisions on appeals under the UCFE Program shall accord with the Secretary's "Standard for Appeals Promptness—Unemployment Compensation" in part 650 of this chapter, and with § 609.1(d).

(2) Any provision of an applicable State law for advancement or priority of unemployment compensation cases on judicial calendars, or otherwise intended to provide for the prompt payment of unemployment compensation when due, shall apply to proceedings involving claims for UCFE.

(d) Appeal and review by Federal agency. If a Federal agency believes that a State agency's determination or redetermination of an individual's eligibility for or entitlement to UCFE is incorrect, the Federal agency may seek appeal and review of such determination or redetermination in the same manner as an interested employer may seek appeal and review under the applicable State law.

§ 609.8 The applicable State for an individual.

(a) The applicable State. The applicable State for an individual shall be the State to which the individual's Federal civilian service and Federal wages are assigned or transferred under this section. The applicable State law for the individual shall be the State law of such State.

(b) Assignment of service and wages. (1) An individual's Federal civilian service and Federal wages shall be assigned to the State in which the individual had his or her last official station prior to filing a first claim unless:

(i) At the time a first claim is filed the individual resides in another State in which, after separation from Federal civilian service, the individual performed service covered under the State law, in which case all of the individual's Federal civilian service and wages shall be assigned to the latter State; or

(ii) Prior to filing a first claim an individual's last official station was outside the States, in which case all of the individual's Federal civilian service and Federal wages shall be assigned to the State in which the individual resides at the time the individual files a first claim, provided the individual is personally present in a State when the individual files the first claim.

(2) Federal civilian service and wages assigned to a State in error shall be re-assigned for use by the proper State agency. An appropriate record of a re-assignment shall be made by the State agency which makes the reassignment.

(3) Federal civilian service and Federal wages assigned to a State shall be transferred to another State where such transfer is necessary for the purposes of a combined-wage claim filed by an individual.

(c) Assignment deemed complete. All of an individual's Federal civilian service and Federal wages shall be deemed to have been assigned to a State upon the filing of a first claim. Federal civilian service and Federal wages shall be assigned to a State only in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

(d) Use of assigned service and wages. All assigned Federal civilian service and Federal wages shall be used only by the State to which assigned or transferred in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 609.9 Provisions of State law applicable to UCFE claims.

(a) Particular provisions applicable. Except where the result would be inconsistent with the provisions of the Act or this part or the procedures thereunder prescribed by the Department, the terms and conditions of the applicable State law which apply to claims for, and the payment of, State unemployment compensation shall apply to claims for, and the payment of, UCFE and claims for waiting period credit. The provisions of the applicable State law which shall apply include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Claim filing and reporting;
- (2) Information to individuals, as appropriate;
- (3) Notices to individuals and Federal agencies, as appropriate, including notice to each individual of each determination and redetermination of eligibility for or entitlement to UCFE;
- (4) Determinations and redeterminations;
- (5) Ability to work, availability for work, and search for work; and
- (6) Disqualifications.

(b) IBPP. The Interstate Benefit Payment Plan shall apply, where appropriate, to individuals filing claims for UCFE.

(c) Wage combining. The State's provisions complying with the Interstate Arrangement for Combining Employment and Wages (part 616 of this chapter) shall apply, where appropriate, to individuals filing claims for UCFE.

(d) Procedural requirements. The provisions of the applicable State law which apply hereunder to claims for and the payment of UCFE shall be applied consistently with the requirements of title III of the Social Security Act and the Federal Unemployment Tax Act which are pertinent in the case of State unemployment compensation, including but not limited to those standards and requirements specifically referred to in the provisions of this part, except as provided in paragraph (f) of § 609.6.

§ 609.10 Restrictions on entitlement.

(a) Disqualification. If the week of unemployment for which an individual claims UCFE is a week to which a disqualification for State unemployment compensation applies under the applicable State law, or would apply but for the fact that the individual has no right to such compensation, the individual shall not be entitled to a payment of UCFE for that week.

(b) Allocation of terminal annual leave payments. Lump-sum terminal annual leave payments shall not be allocated by a Federal agency and shall be allocated by a State agency in the same manner as similar payments to individuals employed by private employers are allocated under the applicable State law. In a State in which a private employer has an option as to the period to which such payments shall be allocated, such payments shall be allocated to the date of separation from employment.

§ 609.11 Overpayments; penalties for fraud.

(a) False statements and representations. Section 8507(a) of the Act provides that if a State agency, the Department, or a court of competent jurisdiction finds that an individual—

(1) Knowingly has made, or caused to be made by another, a false statement or representation of a material fact, or knowingly has failed, or caused another to fail, to disclose a material fact; and

(2) As a result of that action has received an amount as UCFE to which the individual was not entitled; the individual shall repay the amount to the State agency or the Department. Instead of requiring repayments, the State agency or the Department may recover the amount by deductions from UCFE payable to the individual during the 2-year period after the date of the finding. A finding by a State agency or the Department may be made only after an opportunity for a fair hearing, subject to such further review as may be appropriate under § 609.7.

(b) Prosecution for fraud. Section 1919 of title 18, United States Code, provides that whoever makes a false statement or representation of a material fact knowing it to be false, or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact, to obtain or increase for himself or for any other individual any payment authorized to be paid under chapter 85 of title 5, United States Code, or under an agreement thereunder, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

(c) Absence of fraud. If a State agency or court of competent jurisdiction finds that an individual has received a payment of UCFE to which the individual was not entitled under the Act and this part, which was not due to a false statement or representation as provided in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, the individual shall be liable to repay to the applicable State the total sum of the payment to which the individual was not entitled, and the State agency shall take all reasonable measures authorized under any State law or Federal law to recover for the account of the United States the total sum of the payment to which the individual was not entitled.

(d) Recovery by offset. (1) The State agency shall recover, insofar as is possible, the amount of any overpayment which is not repaid by the individual, by deductions from any UCFE payable to the individual under the Act and this part, or from any unemployment compensation payable to the individual under any Federal unemployment compensation law administered by the State agency, or from any assistance or allowance payable to the individual with respect to unemployment under any other Federal law administered by the State agency.

(2) A State agency shall also recover, insofar as is possible, the amount of any overpayment of UCFE made to the individual by another State, by deductions from any UCFE payable by the State agency to the individual under the Act and this part, or from any unemployment compensation payable to the individual under any Federal unemployment compensation law administered by the State agency, or from any assistance or allowance payable to the individual with respect to unemployment under any other Federal law administered by the State agency.

(3) Recoupment of fraudulent overpayments referred to in paragraph (a) of this section shall be limited to the 2-year period stated in that paragraph. Recoupment of fraudulent overpayments referred to in paragraph (b) of this section, and nonfraudulent overpayments referred to in paragraph (c) of this section shall be subject to any time limitation on recoupment provided for in the State law that applies to the case.

(e) Debts due the United States. UCFE payable to an individual shall be applied by the State agency for the recovery by offset of any debt due to the United States from the individual, but shall not be applied or used by the State agency in any manner for the payment of any debt of the individual to any State or any other entity or person except pursuant to a court order for child support or alimony in accordance with the law of the State and section 459 of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 659.

(f) Application of State law. (1) Except as indicated in paragraph (a) of this section, any provision of State law that may be applied for the recovery of overpayments or prosecution for fraud, and any provision of State law authorizing waiver of recovery of overpayments of unemployment compensation, shall be applicable to UCFE.

(2) In the case of any finding of false statement or representation under the Act and paragraph (a) of this section, or prosecution for fraud under 18 U.S.C. 1919 or pursuant to paragraph (f)(1) of this section, the individual shall be disqualified or penalized in accordance with the provisions of the applicable State law relating to fraud in connection with a claim for State unemployment compensation.

(g) Final decision. Recovery of any overpayment of UCFE shall not be enforced by the State agency until the determination or redetermination establishing the overpayment has become final, or if appeal is taken from the determination or redetermination, until the decision after opportunity for a fair hearing has become final.

(h) Procedural requirements. (1) The provisions of paragraphs (c), (d), and (g) of § 609.6 shall apply to determinations and redeterminations made pursuant to this section.

(2) The provisions of § 609.7 shall apply to determinations and redeterminations made pursuant to this section.

(i) Fraud detection and prevention. Provisions in the procedures of each State with respect to detection and prevention of fraudulent overpayments of UCFE shall be, as a minimum, commensurate with the procedures adopted by the State with respect to State unemployment compensation and consistent with the Secretary's "Standard for Fraud and Overpayment Detection" (Employment Security Manual, part V, section 7510 et seq.).

(j) Recovered overpayments. An amount repaid or recouped under this section shall be—

(1) Deposited in the fund from which payment was made, if the repayment was to a State agency; or

(2) Returned to the Treasury of the United States and credited to the current applicable appropriation, fund, or account from which payment was made, if the repayment was to the Department.

§ 609.12 Inviolate rights to UCFE.

Except as specifically provided in this part, the rights of individuals to UCFE shall be protected in the same manner and to the same extent as the rights of persons to State unemployment compensation are protected under the applicable State law. Such measures shall include protection of applicants for UCFE from waiver, release, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, levy, execution, attachment, and garnishment of their rights to UCFE, except as provided in § 609.11. In the same manner and to the same extent, individuals shall be protected from discrimination and obstruction in regard to seeking, applying for, and receiving any right to UCFE.

§ 609.16

§ 609.13 Recordkeeping; disclosure of information.

(a) Recordkeeping. Each State agency will make and maintain records pertaining to the administration of the UCFE Program as the Department requires, and will make all such records available for inspection, examination, and audit by such Federal officials or employees as the Department may designate or as may be required by law.

(b) Disclosure of Information. Information in records maintained by a State agency in administering the UCFE Program shall be kept confidential, and information in such records may be disclosed only in the same manner and to the same extent as information with respect to State unemployment compensation and the entitlement of individuals thereto may be disclosed under the applicable State law. This provision on the confidentiality of information maintained in the administration of the UCFE Program shall not apply, however, to the Department or for the purposes of §§ 609.11 or 609.13, or in the case of information, reports and studies required pursuant to §§ 609.17 or 609.25, or where the result would be inconsistent with the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552), the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), or regulations of the Department promulgated thereunder.

§ 609.14 Payments to States.

(a) State entitlement. Each State is entitled to be paid by the United States with respect to each individual whose base period wages included Federal wages, an amount bearing the same ratio to the total amount of compensation paid to such individual as the amount of the individual's Federal wages in the individual's base period bears to the total amount of the individual's base period wages.

(b) Payment. Each State shall be paid, either in advance or by way of reimbursement, as may be determined by the Department, the sum that the Department estimates the State is entitled to receive under the Act and this part for each calendar month. The sum shall be reduced or increased by the amount which the Department finds that its estimate for an earlier calendar month was greater or less than the sum which should have been paid to the State. An estimate may be made on the basis of a statistical, sampling, or other method agreed on by the Department and the State agency.

(c) Certification by the Department. The Department, from time to time, shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury the sum payable to each State under this section. The Secretary of the Treasury, before audit or settlement by the General Accounting Office, shall pay the State in accordance with the certification from the funds for carrying out the purposes of the Act and this part.

(d) Use of money. Money paid a State under the Act and this part may be used solely for the purposes for which it is paid. Money so paid which is not used solely for these purposes shall be returned, at the time specified by the Agreement, to the Treasury of the United States and credited to the current applicable appropriation, fund, or account from which payments to states under the Act and this part may be made.

§ 609.15 Public access to Agreements.

The State agency of a State will make available to any individual or organization a true copy of the Agreement with the State for inspection and copying. Copies of an Agreement may be furnished on request to any individual or organization upon payment of the same charges, if any, as apply to the furnishing of copies of other records of the State agency.

§ 609.16 Administration in absence of an Agreement.

(a) Administering Program. The Department shall administer the UCFE

Program through personnel of the Department or through other arrangements under procedures prescribed by the Department, in the case of any State which does not have an Agreement with the Secretary as provided for in 5 U.S.C. 8502. The procedures prescribed by the Department under this section shall be consistent with the Act and this part.

(b) Applicable State law. On the filing by an individual of a claim for UCFE in accordance with arrangements under this section, UCFE shall be paid to the individual, if eligible, in the same amount, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions as would be paid to the individual under the applicable State law if the individual's Federal civilian service and Federal wages had been included as employment and wages under the State law. Any such claim shall include the individual's Federal civilian service and Federal wages, combined with any service and wages covered by State law. However, if the individual, without regard to his or her Federal civilian service and Federal wages, has employment or wages sufficient to qualify for compensation during the benefit year under that State law, then payments of UCFE under this section may be made only on the basis of the individual's Federal civilian service and Federal wages.

(c) Fair hearing. An individual whose claim for UCFE is denied under this section is entitled to a fair hearing under rules of procedure prescribed by the Department. A final determination by the Department with respect to entitlement to UCFE under this section is subject to review by the courts in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided by section 205(g) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 405(g).

§ 609.17 Information, reports, and studies.

State agencies shall furnish to the Department such information and reports and conduct such studies as the Department determines are necessary or appropriate for carrying out the purposes of the UCFE Program.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

Subpart C—Responsibilities of Federal Agencies

§ 609.20 Information to Federal civilian employees.

Each Federal agency shall:

(a) Furnish information to its employees as to their rights and responsibilities under the UCFE Program and 18 U.S.C. 1919; and

(b) Furnish a completed copy of a form approved by the Department, "Notice to Federal Employee About Unemployment Compensation," in accordance with instructions thereon, to each employee at the time of separation from Federal civilian service, when transferred from one payroll office to another, or when the office responsible for distribution of the form is advised that an individual is in nonpay status for seven consecutive days or more.

§ 609.21 Findings of Federal agency.

(a) Answering request. Within four workdays after receipt from a State agency of a request for Federal findings on a form furnished by the State agency, and prescribed by the Department, a Federal agency shall make such Federal findings, complete all copies of the form, and transmit the completed copies to the State agency. If documents necessary for completion of the form have been assigned to an agency records center or the Federal Records Center in St. Louis, the Federal agency shall obtain the necessary information from the records center. Any records center shall give priority to such a request.

(b) Failure to meet time limit. If a completed form containing the Federal agency's findings cannot be returned within four workdays of receipt, the Federal agency immediately shall inform the State agency, and shall include an estimated date by which the completed form will be returned.

(c) Administrative control. Each Federal agency shall maintain a control of all requests for Federal findings received by it, and the Federal agency's response to each request. The records shall be maintained so as to enable the Federal agency to ascertain at any time the number of such forms that have not been returned to State agencies, and the dates of the Federal agency's receipt of such unreturned forms.

§ 609.22 Correcting Federal findings.

If a Federal agency ascertains at any time within one year after it has returned a completed form reporting its findings, that any of its findings were erroneous, it shall promptly correct its error and forward its corrected findings to the State agency.

§ 609.23 Furnishing additional information.

On receipt of a request for additional information from a State agency, a Federal agency shall consider the information it supplied initially in connection with such request and shall review its findings. The Federal agency promptly shall forward to the State agency such additional findings as will respond to the request. The Federal agency shall, if possible, respond within four workdays after the receipt of a request under this section.

On receipt of a request for reconsideration of Federal findings from a State agency, the Federal agency shall consider the initial information supplied in connection with such request and shall review its findings. The Federal agency shall correct any errors or omissions in its findings and shall affirm, modify, or reverse any or all of its findings in writing. The Federal agency promptly shall forward its reconsidered findings to the requesting authority. The Federal agency shall, if possible, respond within four workdays after the receipt of a request under this section.

(a) Additional Information. In addition to the information required by §§ 609.21, 609.22, 609.23, and 609.24, a Federal agency shall furnish to a State agency or the Department, within the time requested, any information which it is not otherwise prohibited from releasing by law, which the Department determines is necessary for the administration of the UCFE Program.

(b) Reports. Federal agencies shall furnish to the Department or State agencies such reports containing such information as the Department determines are necessary or appropriate for carrying out the purposes of the UCFE Program.

§ 609.26 Liaison with Department.

To facilitate the Department's administration of the UCFE Program, each Federal agency shall designate one or more of its officials to be the liaison with the Department. Each Federal agency will inform the Department of its designation(s) and of any change in a designation.

§ 614.1 Purpose and application.

(a) Purpose. Subchapter II of chapter 85, title 5 of the United States Code (5 U.S.C. 8521-8525) provides for a permanent program of unemployment compensation for unemployed individuals separated from the Armed Forces. The unemployment compensation provided for in subchapter II is hereinafter referred to as Unemployment Compensation for Ex-servicemembers, or UCX. The regulations in this part are issued to implement the UCX Program.

(b) First rule of construction. The Act and the implementing regulations in this part shall be construed liberally so as to carry out the purposes of the Act.

(c) Second rule of construction. The Act and the implementing regulations in this part shall be construed so as to assure insofar as possible the uniform interpretation and application of the Act throughout the United States.

(d) Effectuating purpose and rules of construction. (1) In order to effectuate the provisions of this section, each State agency shall forward to the United States Department of Labor (hereafter Department), not later than 10 days after issuance, a copy of each judicial or administrative decision ruling on an individual's entitlement to payment of UCX or to credit for a waiting period. On request of the Department, a State agency shall forward to the Department a copy of any determination or redetermination ruling on an individual's entitlement to UCX or waiting period credit.

(2)(i) If the Department believes that a determination, redetermination, or decision is inconsistent with the Department's interpretation of the Act or this part, the Department may at any time notify the State agency of the Department's view. Thereafter, the State agency shall issue a redetermination or appeal if possible, and shall not follow such determination, redetermination, or decision as a precedent; and, in any subsequent proceedings which involve such determination, redetermination, or decision, or wherein such determination, redetermination, or decision is cited as precedent or otherwise relied upon, the State agency shall inform the claims deputy or hearing officer or court of the Department's view and shall make all reasonable efforts, including appeal or other proceedings in an appropriate forum, to obtain modification, limitation, or overruling of the determination, redetermination, or decision.

(ii) If the Department believes that a State agency has failed to use, or use in a timely manner, the crossmatch mechanism at the claims control center designated by the Department, the Department may at any time notify the State of the Department's view. Thereafter, the State agency shall take action to ensure that operable procedures for the effective utilization of the claims control center are in place and adhered to. In any case of any determination, redetermination, or decision that is not legally warranted under the Act or this part had the State used, or used in a timely manner, the crossmatch mechanism at the claims control center designated by the Department, State agency shall take the steps outlined in paragraph (d)(2)(i) of this section.

(3) If the Department believes that a determination, redetermination, or decision is patently and flagrantly violative of the Act or this part, the Department may at any time notify the State agency of the Department's view. If the determination, redetermination, or decision in question denies UCX to a claimant, the steps outlined in paragraph (2) above shall be followed by the State agency. If the determination, redetermination, or decision in question awards UCX to a claimant, the benefits are "due" within the meaning of section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 503(a)(1), and therefore must be paid promptly to the claimant. However, the State agency shall take the steps outlined in paragraph (d)(2) of this section, and payments to the claimant may be temporarily delayed if redetermination or appeal action is taken not more than one business day following the day on which the first payment otherwise would be issued to the claimant; and the redetermination action is taken or appeal is filed to obtain a reversal of the award of UCX and a ruling consistent with the Department's view; and the redetermination action or appeal seeks an expedited redetermination or appeal within not more than two weeks after the redetermination action is taken or the appeal is filed. If redetermination action is not taken or appeal is not filed within the above time limit, or a redetermination or decision is not obtained within the two-week limit, or any redetermination or decision or order is issued which affirms the determination, redetermination, or decision awarding UCX or allows it to stand in whole or in part, the benefits awarded must be paid promptly to the claimant.

(4)(i) If any determination, redetermination, or decision, referred to in paragraph (d)(2) or paragraph (d)(3) of this section, is treated as a precedent for any future UCX claim or claim under the UCFE Program (part 609 of this chapter), the Secretary will decide whether the Agreement with the State entered into under the Act shall be terminated.

(ii) In the case of any determination, redetermination, or decision that is not legally warranted under the Act or this part, including any determination, redetermination, or decision referred to in paragraph (d)(2) or in paragraph (d)(3) of this section, the Secretary will decide whether the State shall be required to restore the funds of the United States for any sums paid under such a determination, redetermination, or decision, and whether, in absence of such restoration, the Agreement with the State shall be terminated and whether other action shall be taken to recover such sums for the United States.

(5) A State agency may request reconsideration of a notice issued pursuant to paragraph (d)(2) or paragraph (d)(3) of this section, and shall be given an opportunity to present views and arguments if desired.

(6) Concurrence of the Department in a determination, redetermination, or decision shall not be presumed from the absence of a notice issued pursuant to this section.

§ 614.2 Definitions of terms.

For purposes of the Act and this part:

(a) Act means subchapter II of chapter 85 of title 5 of the United States Code, 5 U.S.C. 8521-8525.

(b) Agreement means the Agreement entered into pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 8502 between a State and the Secretary under which the State agency of the State agrees to make payments of unemployment compensation in accordance with the Act and the regulations and procedures thereunder prescribed by the Department.

(c) Base period means the base period as defined by the applicable State law for the benefit year.

(d) Benefit year means the benefit year as defined by the applicable State law, and if not so defined the term means the period prescribed in the Agreement with the State or, in the absence of an Agreement, the period prescribed by the Department.

(e) Ex-servicemember means an individual who has performed Federal military service.

(f) Federal military agency means any of the Armed Forces of the United States, including the Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (Department of Commerce).

(g) Federal military service means active service (not including active duty in a reserve status unless for a continuous period of 90 days or more) in the Armed Forces or the Commissioned Corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration if with respect to that service—

(1) The individual was discharged or released under honorable conditions (and, if an officer, did not resign for the good of the service); and

§ 614.2

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(2)(i) The individual was discharged or released after completing his/her first full term of active service which the individual initially agreed to serve, or

(ii) The individual was discharged or released before completing such term of active service—

(A) For the convenience of the Government under an early release program,

(B) Because of medical disqualification, pregnancy, parenthood, or any service-incurred injury or disability,

(C) Because of hardship, or

(D) Because of personality disorders or inaptitude but only if the service was continuous for 365 days or more.

(h) Federal military wages means all pay and allowances in cash and in kind for Federal military service, computed on the basis of the pay and allowances for the pay grade of the individual at the time of his or her latest discharge or release from Federal/military service, as determined in accordance with the Schedule of Remuneration applicable at the time the individual files his or her first claim for compensation for a benefit year.

(i) First claim means an initial claim for unemployment compensation under the UCX Program, the UCFE Program (part 609 of this chapter), or a State law, or some combination thereof, first filed by an individual after the individual's latest discharge or release from Federal military service, whereby a benefit year is established under an applicable State law.

(j) Military document means an official document or documents issued to an individual by a Federal military agency relating to the individual's Federal military service and discharge or release from such service.

(k) Period of active service means a period of continuous active duty (including active duty for training purposes) in a Federal military agency or agencies, beginning with the date of entry upon active duty and ending on the effective date of the first discharge or release thereafter which is not qualified or conditional.

(l) Schedule of Remuneration means the schedule issued by the Department from time to time under 5 U.S.C. 8521(a)(2) and this part, which specifies for purposes of the UCX Program, the pay and allowances for each pay grade of servicemember.

(m) Secretary means the Secretary of Labor of the United States.

(n) State means the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

(o) State agency means the agency of the State which administers the applicable State unemployment compensation law and is administering the UCX Program in the State pursuant to an Agreement with the Secretary.

(p)(1) State law means the unemployment compensation law of a State approved by the Secretary under section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. 3304, if the State is certified under section 3304(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. 3304(c).

(2) Applicable State law means the State law made applicable to a UCX claimant by § 614.8.

(q)(1) Unemployment compensation means cash benefits (including dependents' allowances) payable to individuals with respect to their unemployment, and includes regular, additional, emergency, and extended compensation.

(2) Regular compensation means unemployment compensation payable to an individual under any State law, but not including additional compensation or extended compensation.

(3) Additional compensation means unemployment compensation totally financed by a State and payable under a State law by reason of conditions of high unemployment or by reason of other special factors.

(4) Emergency compensation means supplementary unemployment compensation payable under a temporary Federal law after exhaustion of regular and extended compensation.

(5) Extended compensation means unemployment compensation payable to an individual for weeks of unemployment in an extended benefit period, under those provisions of a State law which satisfy the requirements of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970, as amended, 26 U.S.C. 3304 note, and part 615 of this chapter, with respect to the payment of extended compensation.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 614.5

(r) Unemployment Compensation for Ex-Servicemember means the unemployment compensation payable under the Act to claimants eligible for the payments, and is referred to as UCX.

(s) Week means, for purposes of eligibility for and payment of UCX, a week as defined in the applicable State law.

(t) Week of unemployment means a week of total, part-total, or partial unemployment as defined in the applicable State law, which shall be applied in the same manner and to the same extent to all employment and earnings, and in the same manner and to the same extent for the purposes of the UCX Program, as if the individual filing for UCX were filing a claim for State unemployment compensation.

[47 FR 54697, Dec. 3, 1982, as amended at 53 FR 40554, Oct. 17, 1988; 53 FR 43799, Oct. 26, 1988; 57 FR 59799, Dec. 15, 1992]

Subpart B—Administration of UCX Program

§ 614.3 Eligibility requirements for UCX.

An individual shall be eligible to receive a payment of UCX or waiting period credit with respect to a week of unemployment if:

(a) The individual has Federal military service and Federal military wages in the base period under the applicable State law;

(b) The individual meets the qualifying employment and wage requirements of the applicable State law, either on the basis of Federal military service and Federal military wages alone or in combination with service and wages covered under a State law or under the UCFE Program (part 609 of this chapter);

(c) The individual has filed an initial claim for UCX and, as appropriate, has filed a timely claim for waiting period credit or payment of UCX with respect to that week of unemployment; and

(d) The individual is totally, part-totally, or partially unemployed, and is able to work, available for work, and seeking work within the meaning of or as required by the applicable State law, and is not subject to disqualification under this part or the applicable State law, with respect to that week of unemployment.

§ 614.4 Weekly and maximum benefit amounts.

(a) Total unemployment. The weekly amount of UCX payable to an eligible individual for a week of total unemployment shall be the amount that would be payable to the individual as unemployment compensation for a week of total unemployment as determined under the applicable State law.

(b) Partial and part-total unemployment. The weekly amount of UCX payable for a week of partial or part-total unemployment shall be the amount that would be payable to the individual as unemployment compensation for a week of partial or part-total unemployment as determined under the applicable State law.

(c) Maximum amount. The maximum amount of UCX which shall be payable to an eligible individual during and subsequent to the individual's benefit year shall be the maximum amount of all unemployment compensation that would be payable to the individual as determined under the applicable State law.

(d) Computation rules. The weekly and maximum amounts of UCX payable to an individual under the UCX Program shall be determined under the applicable State law to be in the same amount, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions as the State unemployment compensation which would be payable to the individual under the applicable State law if the individual's Federal military service and Federal military wages assigned or transferred under this part to the State had been included as employment and wages covered by that State law, subject to the use of the applicable Schedule of Remuneration.

§ 614.5 Claims for UCX.

(a) First claims. A first claim for UCX shall be filed by an individual in any State agency of any State according to the applicable State law, and on a form prescribed by the Department which shall be furnished to the individual by the State agency where the claim is filed.

§614.6

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) Weekly claims. Claims for waiting week credit and payments of UCX for weeks of unemployment shall be filed in any State agency (or Canada) at the times and in the manner as claims for State unemployment compensation are filed under the applicable State law, and on forms prescribed by the Department which shall be furnished to the individual by the State agency where the claim is filed.

(c) Secretary's standard. The procedures for reporting and filing claims for UCX and waiting period credit shall be consistent with this part 614 and the Secretary's "Standard for Claim Filing, Claimant Reporting, Job Finding and Employment Services" in the Employment Security Manual, part V, sections 5000-5004 (appendix A of this part).

§614.6 Determinations of entitlement; notices to individual and Federal military agency.

(a) Determinations of first claim. Except for findings of a Federal military agency and the applicable Schedule of Remuneration which are final and conclusive under §614.23, the State agency whose State law applies to an individual under §614.8 shall, promptly upon the filing of a first claim for UCX, determine whether the individual is otherwise eligible, and, if the individual is found to be eligible, the individual's benefit year and the weekly and maximum amounts of UCX payable to the individual.

(b) Determinations of weekly claims. The State agency promptly shall, upon the filing of a claim for a payment of UCX or waiting period credit with respect to a week, determine whether the individual is entitled to a payment of UCX or waiting period credit respect to such week, and, if entitled, the amount of UCX or waiting period credit to which the individual is entitled.

(c) Redetermination. The provisions of the applicable State law concerning the right to request, or authority to undertake, reconsideration of a determination pertaining to State unemployment compensation under the applicable State law shall apply to determinations pertaining to UCX.

(d) Notices to individual and Federal military agency. (1) The State agency promptly shall give notice in writing to the individual of any determination or redetermination of a first claim, and, except as may be authorized under paragraph (g) of this section, of any determination or redetermination of any weekly claim which denies UCX or waiting period credit or reduces the weekly amount or maximum amount initially determined to be payable. Each notice of determination or redetermination shall include such information regarding the determination or redetermination and notice of right to reconsideration or appeal, or both, as is furnished with written notices of determinations and redeterminations with respect to claims for State unemployment compensation. Such notice shall include the findings of any Federal military agency utilized in making the determination or redetermination, and shall inform the individual of the finality of Federal findings and the individual's right to request correction of such findings as is provided in §614.22.

(2) A notice of claim filing and subsequent notices of monetary and non-monetary determinations on a UCX claim shall be sent to each Federal military agency for which the individual performed Federal military service during the appropriate base period, together with notice of appeal rights of the Federal military agency to the same extent that chargeable employers are given such notices under State law and practice unless an alternate mechanism is established by the Department of Labor in lieu of such notices.

(e) Obtaining information for claim determinations. (1) Information required for the determination of claims for UCX shall be obtained by the State agency from claimants, employers, and others, in the same manner as information is obtained for claim purposes under the applicable State law, but Federal military findings shall be obtained from military documents, the applicable Schedule of Remuneration, and from Federal military agencies as prescribed in §§614.21 through 614.24.

(f) Promptness. Full payment of UCX when due shall be consistent with this part and shall be made with the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible, but the provisions of part 640 of this chapter (relating to promptness of benefit payments) shall not be applicable to the UCX Program.

(g) Secretary's standard. The procedures for making determinations and redeterminations, and furnishing written notices of determinations, redeterminations, and rights of appeal to individuals applying for UCX and to appropriate Federal military agencies shall be consistent with this part 614 and the Secretary's "Standard for Claim Determinations-Separation Information" in the Employment Security Manual, part V, sections 6010-6015 (Appendix B of this part).

§ 614.7 Appeal and review.

(a) Applicable State Law. The provisions of the applicable State law concerning the right of appeal and fair hearing from a determination or redetermination of entitlement to State unemployment compensation (exclusive of findings which are final and conclusive under §614.25) shall apply to determinations and redeterminations of eligibility for or entitlement to UCX and waiting period credit. Any such determination or redetermination shall be subject to appeal and review only in the manner and to the extent provided in the applicable State law with respect to determinations and redeterminations of entitlement to State unemployment compensation.

(Section 614.24 governs appeals of findings of the Veterans Administration)

(b) Rights of appeal and fair hearing. The provisions on right of appeal and opportunity for a fair hearing with respect to claims for UCX shall be consistent with this part and with sections 303(a)(1) and 303(a)(3) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 503(a)(1) and 503(a)(3).

(c) Promptness on appeals. (1) Decisions on appeals under the UCX Program shall accord with the Secretary's "Standard for Appeals Promptness—Unemployment Compensation" in part 650 of this chapter, and with §614.1(d).

(2) Any provision of an applicable State law for advancement or priority of unemployment compensation cases on judicial calendars, or otherwise intended to provide for the prompt payment of unemployment compensation when due, shall apply to proceedings involving claims for UCX.

(d) Appeal and review by Federal military agency. If a Federal military agency believes that a State agency's determination or redetermination of an individual's eligibility for or entitlement to UCX is incorrect, the Federal military agency may seek appeal and review of such determination or redetermination in the same manner as an interested employer may seek appeal and review under the applicable State law.

§ 614.8 The applicable State for an individual.

(a) The applicable State. The applicable State for an individual shall be the State to which the individual's Federal military service and Federal military wages are assigned or transferred under this section. The applicable State law for the individual shall be the State law of such State.

(b) Assignment of service and wages. (1) When an individual files a first claim, all of the individual's Federal military service and Federal military wages shall be deemed to be assigned to the State in which such claim is filed, which shall be the "Paying State" in the case of a combined-wage claim. (§616.6(e) of this chapter.)

(2) Federal military service and Federal military wages assigned to a State in error shall be reassigned for use by the proper State agency. An appropriate record of the reassignment shall be made by the State agency which makes the reassignment.

(c) Assignment deemed complete. All of an individual's Federal military service and Federal military wages shall be deemed to have been assigned to a State upon the filing of a first claim. Federal military service and Federal military wages shall be assigned to a State only in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 614.9

(d) Use of assigned service and wages. All assigned Federal military service and Federal military wages shall be used only by the State to which assigned in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, except that any Federal military service and Federal military wages which are not within the base period of the State to which they were assigned shall be subject to transfer in accordance with part 616 of this chapter for the purposes of any subsequent Combined-Wage Claim filed by the individual.

§ 614.9 Provisions of State law applicable to UCX claims.

(a) Particular provisions applicable. Except where the result would be inconsistent with the provisions of the Act or this part or the procedures thereunder prescribed by the Department, the terms and conditions of the applicable State law which apply to claims for, and the payment of, State unemployment compensation shall apply to claims for, and the payment of, UCX and claims for waiting period credit. The provisions of the applicable State law which shall apply include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Claim filing and reporting;
- (2) Information to individuals, as appropriate;
- (3) Notices to individuals, as appropriate, including notice to each individual of each determination and re-determination of eligibility for or entitlement to UCX;
- (4) Determinations and redeterminations;
- (5) Ability to work, availability for work, and search for work; and
- (6) Disqualifications, except in regard to separation from any Federal military agency.

(b) IBPP. The Interstate Benefit Payment Plan shall apply, where appropriate, to individuals filing claims for UCX.

(c) Wage combining. The State's provisions complying with the Interstate Arrangement for Combining Employment and Wages (part 616 of this chapter) shall apply, where appropriate, to individuals filing claims for UCX.

(d) Procedural requirements. The provisions of the applicable State law which apply hereunder to claims for and the payment of UCX shall be applied consistently with the requirements of title III of the Social Security Act and the Federal Unemployment Tax Act which are pertinent in the case of State unemployment compensation, including but not limited to those standards and requirements specifically referred to in the provisions of this part, except as provided in paragraph (f) of § 614.6.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 614.10 Restrictions on entitlement.

(a) Disqualification. If the week of unemployment for which an individual claims UCX is a week to which a disqualification for State unemployment compensation applies under the applicable State law, the individual shall not be entitled to a payment of UCX for that week. As provided in § 614.9(a), no disqualification shall apply in regard to separation from any Federal military agency.

(b) Effect of "days lost". The continuity of a period of an individual's Federal military service shall not be deemed to be interrupted by reason of any "days lost" in such period, but "days lost" shall not be counted for purposes of determining:

- (1) Whether an individual has performed Federal military service;
- (2) Whether an individual meets the wage and employment requirements of a State law; or
- (3) The amount of an individual's Federal military wages.

(c) Allocation of military accrued leave. A State agency shall allocate the number of days of unused military leave specified in an ex-servicemember's military document, for which a lump-sum payment has been made, in the same manner as similar payments by private employers to their employees are allocated under the applicable State law, except that the applicable Schedule of Remuneration instead of the lump-sum payment shall be used to determine the amount of the claimant's Federal military wages. In a State in which a private employer has an option as to the period to which such payments shall be allocated, such payments shall be allocated to the date of the individual's latest discharge or release from Federal military service. An allocation under this paragraph shall be disregarded in determining whether an individual has had a period of active service constituting Federal military service.

§ 614.11

(d) Education and training allowances. An individual is not entitled to UCX under the Act or this part for a period with respect to which the individual receives:

(1) A subsistence allowance for vocational rehabilitation training under chapter 31 of title 38 of the United States Code, 38 U.S.C. 1501 et seq., or under part VIII of Veterans Regulation Numbered 1(a); or

(2) An educational assistance allowance or special training allowance under chapter 35 of title 38 of the United States Code, 38 U.S.C. 1700 et seq.

§ 614.11 Overpayments; penalties for fraud.

(a) False statements and representations. Section 8507(a) of the Act provides that if a State agency, the Department, or a court of competent jurisdiction finds that an individual—

(1) Knowingly has made, or caused to be made by another, a false statement or representation of a material fact, or knowingly has failed, or caused another to fail, to disclose a material fact; and

(2) As a result of that action has received an amount as UCX to which the individual was not entitled; the individual shall repay the amount to the State agency or the Department. Instead of requiring repayment, the State agency or the Department may recover the amount by deductions from UCX payable to the individual during the 2-year period after the date of the finding. A finding by a State agency or the Department may be made only after an opportunity for a fair hearing, subject to such further review as may be appropriate under § 614.7.

(b) Prosecution for fraud. Section 1919 of title 18, United States Code, provides that whoever makes a false statement or representation of a material fact knowing it to be false, or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact, to obtain or increase for himself or for any other individual any payment authorized to be paid under chapter 85 of title 5, United States Code, or under an agreement thereunder, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

(c) Absence of fraud. If a State agency or court of competent jurisdiction finds that an individual has received a payment of UCX to which the individual was not entitled under the Act and this part, which was not due to a false statement or representation as provided in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, the individual shall be liable to repay to the applicable State the total sum of the payment to which the individual was not entitled, and the State agency shall take all reasonable measures authorized under any State law or Federal law to recover for the account of the United States the total sum of the payment to which the individual was not entitled.

(d) Recovery by offset. (1) The State agency shall recover, insofar as is possible, the amount of any overpayment which is not repaid by the individual, by deductions from any UCX payable to the individual under the Act and this part, or from any unemployment compensation payable to the individual under any Federal unemployment compensation law administered by the State agency, or from any assistance or allowance payable to the individual with respect to unemployment under any other Federal law administered by the State agency.

(2) A State agency shall also recover, insofar as is possible, the amount of any overpayment of UCX made to the individual by another State by deductions from any UCX payable by the State agency to the individual under the Act and this part, or from any unemployment compensation payable to the individual under any Federal unemployment compensation law administered by the State agency, or from any assistance or allowance payable to the individual with respect to unemployment under any other Federal law administered by the State agency.

(3) Recoupment of fraudulent overpayments referred to in paragraph (a) of this section shall be limited to the 2-year period stated in that paragraph. Recoupment of fraudulent overpayments referred to in paragraph (b) of this section, and nonfraudulent overpayments referred to in paragraph (c) of this section shall be subject to any time limitation on recoupment provided for in the State law that applies to the case.

(e) Debts due the United States. UCX payable to an individual shall be applied by the State agency for the recovery by offset of any debt due to the United States from the individual, but shall not be applied or used by the State agency in any manner for the payment of any debt of the individual to any State or any other entity or person except pursuant to a court order for child support or alimony in accordance with the law of the State and section 459 of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 659.

(f) Application of State law. (1) Except as indicated in paragraph (a) of this section, any provision of State law that may be applied for the recovery of overpayments or prosecution for fraud, and any provision of State law authorizing waiver of recovery of overpayments of unemployment compensation, shall be applicable to UCX.

(2) In the case of any finding of false statement of representation under the Act and paragraph (a) of this section, or prosecution for fraud under 18 U.S.C. 1919 or pursuant to paragraph (f)(1) of this section, the individual shall be disqualified or penalized in accordance with the provision of the applicable State law relating to fraud in connection with a claim for State unemployment compensation.

(g) Final decision. Recovery of any overpayment of UCX shall not be enforced by the State agency until the determination or redetermination establishing the overpayment has become final, or if appeal is taken from the determination or redetermination, until the decision after opportunity for a fair hearing has become final.

(h) Procedural requirements. (1) The provisions of paragraphs (c), (d), and (g) of §614.6 shall apply to determinations and redeterminations made pursuant to this section.

(2) The provisions of §614.7 shall apply to determinations and redeterminations made pursuant to this section.

(i) Fraud detection and prevention. Provisions in the procedures of each State with respect to detection and prevention of fraudulent overpayments of UCX shall be, as a minimum, commensurate with the procedures adopted by the State with respect to State unemployment compensation and consistent with this part 614 and the Secretary's "Standard for Fraud and Overpayment Detection" in the Employment Security Manual, part V, sections 7510-7515 (Appendix C of this part), and provide for timely use of any crossmatch mechanism established by the Department.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(j) Recovered overpayments. An amount repaid or recouped under this section shall be—

(1) Deposited in the fund from which payment was made, if the repayment was to a State agency; or

(2) Returned to the Treasury of the United States and credited to the current applicable appropriation, fund, or account from which payment was made, if the repayment was to the Department.

§614.12 Schedules of remuneration.

(a) Authority. Section 8521(a)(2) of chapter 85, title 5 of the United States Code, 5 U.S.C. 8521(a)(2), requires the Secretary of Labor to issue from time to time, after consultation with the Secretary of Defense, a Schedule of Remuneration specifying the pay and allowances for each pay grade of members of the Armed Forces.

(b) Elements of schedule. A schedule reflects representative amounts for appropriate elements of the pay and allowances, whether in cash or kind, for each pay grade of members of the Armed Forces, with a statement of the effective date of the schedule. Benefit amounts for the UCX Program are computed on the basis of the Federal military wages for the pay grade of the individual at the time of the individual's latest discharge or release from Federal military service, as specified in the schedule applicable at the time the individual files his or her first claim for compensation for the benefit year.

(c) Effective date. Any new Schedule of Remuneration shall take effect beginning with the first week of the calendar quarter following the calendar quarter in which such schedule is issued, and shall remain applicable until a subsequent schedule becomes effective. Prior schedules shall continue to remain applicable for the periods they were in effect.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 614.15

(d) Publication. Any new Schedule of Remuneration shall be issued by the Secretary of Labor to the State agencies and the Federal military agencies. Promptly after the issuance of a new Schedule of Remuneration it shall be published as a notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 614.13 Inviolate rights to UCX.

Except as specifically provided in this part, the rights of individuals to UCX shall be protected in the same manner and to the same extent as the rights of persons to State unemployment compensation are protected under the applicable State law. Such measures shall include protection of applicants for UCX from waiver, release, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, levy, execution, attachment, and garnishment of their rights to UCX, except as provided in § 614.11. In the same manner and to the same extent, individuals shall be protected from discrimination and obstruction in regard to seeking, applying for, and receiving any right to UCX.

§ 614.14 Recordkeeping; disclosure of information.

(a) Recordkeeping. Each State agency will make and maintain records pertaining to the administration of the UCX Program as the Department requires, and will make all such records available for inspection, examination, and audit by such Federal officials or employees as the Department may designate or as may be required by law.

(b) Disclosure of information. Information in records maintained by a State agency in administering the UCX Program shall be kept confidential, and information in such records may be disclosed only in the same manner and to the same extent as information with respect to State unemployment compensation and the entitlement of individuals thereto may be disclosed under the applicable State law. This provision on the confidentiality of information maintained in the administration of the UCX Program shall not apply, however, to the Department or for the purposes of §§ 614.11 or 614.14, or in the case of information, reports and studies required pursuant to §§ 614.18 or 614.26, or where the result would be inconsistent with the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, or regulations of the Department promulgated thereunder.

§ 614.15 Payments to States.

(a) State entitlement. Each State is entitled to be paid by the United States with respect to each individual whose base period wages included Federal military wages, an amount bearing the same ratio to the total amount of compensation paid to such individual as the amount of the individual's Federal military wages in the individual's base period bears to the total amount of the individual's base period wages.

(b) Payment. Each State shall be paid, either in advance or by way of reimbursement, as may be determined by the Department, the sum that the Department estimates the State is entitled to receive under the Act and this part for each calendar month. The sum shall be reduced or increased by the amount which the Department finds that its estimate for an earlier calendar month was greater or less than the sum which should have been paid to the State. An estimate may be made on the basis of a statistical, sampling, or other method agreed on by the Department and the State agency.

(c) Certification by the Department. The Department, from time to time, shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury the sum payable to each State under this section. The Secretary of the Treasury, before audit or settlement by the General Accounting Office, shall pay the State in accordance with the certification from the funds for carrying out the purposes of the Act and this part.

(d) Use of money. Money paid a State under the Act and this part may be used solely for the purposes for which it is paid. Money so paid which is not used solely for these purposes shall be returned, at the time specified by the Agreement, to the Treasury of the United States and credited to the current applicable appropriation, fund, or account from which payments to

§ 614.16

States under the Act and this part may be made.

§ 614.16 Public access to Agreements.

The State agency of a State will make available to any individual or organization a true copy of the Agreement with the State for inspection and copying. Copies of an Agreement may be furnished on request to any individual or organization upon payment of the same charges, if any, as apply to the furnishing of copies of other records of the State agency.

§ 614.17 Administration in absence of an Agreement.

(a) Administering program. The Department shall administer the UCX Program through personnel of the Department or through other arrangements under procedures prescribed by the Department, in the case of any State which does not have an Agreement with the Secretary as provided for in 5 U.S.C. 8502. The procedures prescribed by the Department under this section shall be consistent with the Act and this part.

(b) Applicable State law. On the filing by an individual of a claim for UCX in accordance with arrangements under this section, UCX shall be paid to the individual, if eligible, in the same amount, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions as would be paid to the individual under the applicable State law if the individual's Federal military service and Federal military wages had been included as employment and wages under the State law. Any such claims shall include the individual's Federal military service and Federal military wages, combined with any service and wages covered by State law. However, if the individual, without regard to his or her Federal military service and Federal military wages, has employment or wages sufficient to qualify for compensation during the benefit year under that State law, then payments of UCX under this section may be made only on the basis of the individual's Federal military service and Federal military wages.

(c) Fair hearing. An individual whose claim for UCX is denied under this section is entitled to a fair hearing under rules of procedures prescribed by the

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

Department. A final determination by the Department with respect to entitlement to UCX under this section is subject to review by the courts in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided by section 205(g) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 405(g).

§ 614.18 Information, reports, and studies.

State agencies shall furnish to the Department such information and reports and conduct such studies as the Department determines are necessary or appropriate for carrying out the purposes of the UCX Program.

Subpart C—Responsibilities of Federal Military Agencies and State Agencies

§ 614.20 Information to ex-servicemembers.

At the time of discharge or release from Federal military service, each Federal military agency shall furnish to each ex-servicemember information explaining rights and responsibilities under the UCX Program and 18 U.S.C. 1919, and military documents necessary for filing claims for UCX.

§ 614.21 Findings of Federal military agency.

(a) Findings in military documents. Information contained in a military document furnished to an ex-servicemember shall constitute findings to which § 614.23 applies as to:

(1) Whether the individual has performed active service in the Armed Forces or the Commissioned Corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration;

(2) The beginning and ending dates of the period of active service and "days lost" during such period;

(3) The type of discharge or release terminating the period of active service;

(4) The individuals' pay grade at the time of discharge or release from active service; and

(5) The narrative reason or other reason for separation from active service.

(b) Discharges not under honorable conditions. A military document which shows that an individual's discharge or release was under other than honorable conditions shall also be a finding to which § 614.23 applies.

§ 614.22 Correcting Federal findings.

(a) Request for correction. (1) If an individual believes that a finding specified in § 614.21 is incorrect or that information as to any finding has been omitted from a military document, the individual may request the issuing Federal military agency to correct the military document. A request for correction may be made through the State agency, which shall forward such request and any supporting information submitted by the individual to the Federal military agency.

(2) The Federal military agency shall promptly forward to the individual or State agency making the request the corrected military document. Information contained in a corrected military document issued pursuant to such a request shall constitute the findings of the Federal military agency under § 614.21.

(3) If a determination or redetermination based on a finding as to which correction is sought has been issued by a State agency before a request for correction under this paragraph is made, the individual who requested such correction shall file a request for redetermination or appeal from such determination or redetermination with the State agency, and shall inform the State agency of the request for correction.

(4) An individual who files a request for correction of findings under this paragraph shall promptly notify the State agency of the action of the Federal military agency on such request.

(b) State agency procedure when request made. (1) If a determination of entitlement has not been made when an individual notifies a State agency of a request for correction under paragraph (a) of this section, the State agency may postpone such determination until the individual has notified the State agency of the action of the Federal military agency on the request.

(2) If a determination of entitlement has been made when an individual notifies a State agency that a request for correction of Federal findings has been made, or if an individual notifies a

State agency prior to a determination of entitlement that a request has been made but such determination is not postponed by the State agency, the individual may file a request for redetermination or appeal in accordance with the applicable State law.

(3) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, no redetermination shall be made or hearing scheduled on an appeal until the individual has notified the State agency of the action of the Federal military agency on a request for correction under paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) State agency procedure when request answered. On receipt of notice of the action of a Federal military agency on a request for correction of its findings, a State agency shall:

(1) Make a timely determination or redetermination of the individual's entitlement, or

(2) Promptly schedule a hearing on the individual's appeal.

If such notice is not received by a State agency within one year of the date on which an individual first filed a claim, or such notice is not given promptly by an individual, a State agency without further postponement may make such determination or redetermination or schedule such hearing.

(d) Findings corrected without request. Information as to any finding specified in § 614.21 contained in a corrected military document issued by a Federal military agency on its own motion shall constitute the findings of such agency under § 614.21, if notice thereof is received by a State agency before the period for redetermination or appeal has expired under the State law. On timely receipt of such notice a State agency shall take appropriate action under the applicable State law to give effect to the corrected findings.

§ 614.23 Finality of findings.

The findings of a Federal military agency referred to in §§ 614.21 and 614.22, and the Schedules of Remuneration issued by the Department pursuant to the Act and § 614.12, shall be final and conclusive for all purposes of the UCX Program, including appeal and review pursuant to § 614.7 or § 614.17.

§ 614.24 Furnishing other information.

(a) Additional information. In addition to the information required by §§ 614.21 and 614.22, a Federal military agency shall furnish to a State agency or the Department, within the time requested, any information which it is not otherwise prohibited from releasing by law, which the Department determines is necessary for the administration of the UCX Program.

(b) Reports. Federal military agencies shall furnish to the Department or State agencies such reports containing such information as the Department determines are necessary or appropriate for carrying out the purposes of the UCX Program.

To facilitate the Department's administration of the UCX program, each Federal military agency shall designate one or more of its officials to be the liaison with the Department. Each Federal military agency will inform the Department of its designation(s) and of any change in a designation.

APPENDIX A TO PART 614—STANDARD FOR CLAIM FILING, CLAIMANT REPORTING, JOB FINDING, AND EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

EMPLOYMENT SECURITY MANUAL (PART V, SECTIONS 5000-5004)***

5000-5099 CLAIMS FILING

5000 Standards for Claim Filing, Claimant Reporting, Job Finding, and Employment Services

A. Federal law requirements. Section 3304(a)(1) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(2) of the Social Security Act require that a State law provide for:

“Payment of unemployment compensation solely through public employment offices or such other agencies as the Secretary may approve.”

Section 3304(a)(4) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(5) of the Social Security Act require that a State law provide for:

“Expenditure of all money withdrawn from an unemployment fund of such State, in the payment of unemployment compensation. * * *”

Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act requires that the State law provide for:

“Such methods of administration * * * as are found by the Secretary to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due.”

B. Secretary's interpretation of Federal law requirements.

1. The Secretary interprets section 3304(a)(1) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(2) of the Social Security Act to require that a State law provide for payment of unemployment compensation solely through public employment offices or claims offices administered by the State employment security agency if such agency provides for such coordination in the operations of its public employment offices and claims offices as will insure: (a) The payment of benefits only to individuals who are unemployed and who are able to work and available for work, and (b) that individuals claiming unemployment compensation (claimants) are afforded such placement and other employment services as are necessary and appropriate to return them to suitable work as soon as possible.

2. The Secretary interprets all the above sections to require that a State law provide for:

a. Such contact by claimants with public employment offices or claims offices or both, (1) as will reasonably insure the payment of unemployment compensation only to individuals who are unemployed and who are able to work and available for work, and (2) that claimants are afforded such placement and other employment services as are necessary and appropriate to facilitate their return to suitable work as soon as possible; and

b. Methods of administration which do not unreasonably limit the opportunity of individuals to establish their right to unemployment compensation due under such State law.

5001 Claim Filing and Claimant Reporting Requirements Designed to Satisfy Secretary's Interpretation

A. Claim filing—total or part-total unemployment.

1. Individuals claiming unemployment compensation for total or part-total unemployment are required to file a claim weekly or biweekly, in person or by mail, at a public employment office or a claims office (these terms include offices at itinerant points) as set forth below.

2. Except as provided in paragraph 3, a claimant is required to file in person:

a. His new claim with respect to a benefit year, or his continued claim for a waiting week or for his first compensable week of unemployment in such year; and

b. Any other claim, when requested to do so by the claims personnel at the office at which he files his claim(s) because questions about his right to benefits are raised by circumstances such as the following:

(1) The conditions or circumstances of his separation from employment;

(2) The claimant's answers to questions on mail claim(s) indicate that he may be unable to work or that there may be undue restrictions on his availability for work or that his search for work may be inadequate or that he may be disqualified;

(3) The claimant's answers to questions on mail claims create uncertainty about his credibility or indicate a lack of understanding of the applicable requirement; or

(4) The claimant's record shows that he has previously filed a fraudulent claim.

In such circumstances, the claimant is required to continue to file claims in person each week (or biweekly) until the State agency determines that filing claims in person is no longer required for the resolution of such questions.

3. A claimant must be permitted to file a claim by mail in any of the following circumstances:

a. He is located in an area requiring the expenditure of an unreasonable amount of time or money in traveling to the nearest facility established by the State agency for filing claims in person;

b. Conditions make it impracticable for the agency to take claims in person;

c. He has returned to full-time work on or before the scheduled date for his filing a claim, unless the agency makes provision for in-person filing at a time and place that does not interfere with his employment;

d. The agency finds that he has good cause for failing to file a claim in person.

4. A claimant who has been receiving benefits for partial unemployment may continue to file claims as if he were a partially unemployed worker for the first four consecutive weeks of total or part-total unemployment immediately following his period of partial unemployment so long as he remains attached to his regular employer.

B. Claim filing—partial unemployment. Each individual claiming unemployment compensation for a week (or other claim period) during which, because of lack of work, he is working less than his normal customary full-time hours for his regular employer and is earning less than the earnings limit provided in the State law, shall not be required to file a claim for such week or other claim period earlier than 2 weeks from the date that wages are paid for such claim period or, if a low earnings report is required by the State law, from the date the employer furnished such report to the individual. State agencies may permit claims for partial unemployment to be filed either in person or by mail, except that in the circumstances set forth in section A 3, filing by mail must be permitted, and in the circumstances set forth in section A 2 b, filing in person may be required.

5002 Requirement for Job Finding, Placement, and other Employment Services Designed to Satisfy Secretary's Interpretation

A. Claims personnel are required to assure that each claimant is doing what a reasonable individual in his circumstances would do to obtain suitable work.

B. In the discretion of the State agency:

1. The claims personnel are required to give each claimant such necessary and appropriate assistance as they reasonably can in finding suitable work and at their discretion determine when more complete placement and employment services are necessary and appropriate for a claimant; and if they determine more complete services are necessary and appropriate, the claims personnel are to refer him to employment service personnel in the public employment office in which he has been filing claim(s), or, if he has been filing in a claims office, in the public employment office most accessible to him; or

2. All placement and employment services are required to be afforded to each claimant by employment service personnel in the public employment office most accessible to him, in which case the claims personnel in the office in which the claimant files his claim are to refer him to the employment service personnel when placement or other employment services are necessary and appropriate for him.

C. The personnel to whom the State agency assigns the responsibilities outlined in paragraph B above are required to give claimants such job-finding assistance, placement, and other employment services as are necessary and appropriate to facilitate their return to suitable work as soon as possible.

In some circumstances, no such services or only limited services may be required. For example, if a claimant is on a short-term temporary layoff with a fixed return date, the only service necessary and appropriate to be given to him during the period of the layoff is a referral to suitable temporary work if such work is being performed in the labor market area.

Similarly, claimants whose unemployment is caused by a labor dispute presumably will return to work with their employer as soon as the labor dispute is settled. They generally do not need services, nor do individuals in occupations where placement customarily is made by other nonfee charging placement facilities such as unions and professional associations.

Claimants who fall within the classes which ordinarily would require limited services or no services shall, if they request placement and employment services, be afforded such services as are necessary and appropriate for them to obtain suitable work or to achieve their reasonable employment goals.

On the other hand, a claimant who is permanently separated from his job is likely to require some services. He may need only some direction in how to get a job; he may need placement services if he is in an occupation for which there is some demand in the labor market area; if his occupation is outdated, he may require counseling and referral to a suitable training course. The extent and character of the services to be given any particular claimant may change with the length of his unemployment and depend not only on his own circumstances and conditions, but also on the condition of the labor market in the area.

D. Claimants are required to report to employment service personnel, as directed, but such personnel and the claims personnel are required to so arrange and coordinate the contacts required of a claimant as not to place an unreasonable burden on him or unreasonably limit his opportunity to establish his rights to compensation. As a general rule, a claimant is not required to contact in person claims personnel or employment service personnel more frequently than once a week, unless he is directed to report more frequently for a specific service such as referral to a job or a training course or counseling which cannot be completed in one visit.

E. Employment service personnel are required to report promptly to claims personnel in the office in which the claimant files his claim(s): (1) His failure to apply for or accept work to which he was referred by such personnel or when known, by any other nonfee-charging placement facility such as a union or a professional association; and (2) any information which becomes available to it that may have a bearing on the claimant's ability to work or availability for work, or on the suitability of work to which he was referred or which was offered to him.

5004 Evaluation of Alternative State Provisions. If the State law provisions do not conform to the "suggested State law requirements" set forth in sections 5001 and 5002, but the State law contains alternative provisions, the Manpower Administrator, in collaboration with the State agency, will study the actual or anticipated effect of the alternative provisions. If the Manpower Administrator concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy the requirements of the Federal law as construed by the Secretary (see section 5000 B) he will so notify the State agency. If he does not so conclude, he will submit the matter to the Secretary. If the Secretary concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy such requirements, the State agency will be so notified. If the Secretary concludes that there is a question as to whether the alternative provisions satisfy such requirements, the State agency will be advised that unless the State law provisions are appropriately revised, a notice of hearing will be issued as required by the Code of Federal Regulations, title 20, section 601.3.

APPENDIX B TO PART 614—STANDARD FOR CLAIM DETERMINATION—SEPARATION INFORMATION

EMPLOYMENT SECURITY MANUAL (PART V, SECTIONS 6010-6015)

6010-6019 *Standard for Claim Determinations—Separation Information**

6010 Federal Law Requirements. Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for:

"Such methods of administration . . . as are found by the Secretary to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due."

Section 303(a)(3) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for:

"Opportunity for a fair hearing before an impartial tribunal, for all individuals whose claims for unemployment compensation are denied."

Section 3304(a)(4) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(5) of the Social Security Act require that a State law include provision for:

"Expenditure of all money withdrawn from an unemployment fund of such State, in the payment of unemployment compensation * * *."

Section 3306(h) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act defines "compensation" as "cash benefits payable to individuals with respect to their unemployment."

6011 Secretary's Interpretation of Federal Law Requirements. The Secretary interprets the above sections to require that a State law include provisions which will insure that:

A. Individuals who may be entitled to unemployment compensation are furnished such information as will reasonably afford them an opportunity to know, establish, and protect their rights under the unemployment compensation law of such State, and

B. The State agency obtains and records in time for the prompt determination and review of benefit claims such information as will reasonably insure the payment of benefits to individuals to whom benefits are due.

6012 Criteria for Review of State Law Conformity with Federal Requirements

In determining the conformity of a State law with the above requirements of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and the Social Security Act as interpreted by the Secretary, the following criteria will be applied:

A. Is it required that individuals who may be entitled to unemployment compensation be furnished such information of their potential rights to benefits, including the manner and places of filing claims, the reasons for determinations, and their rights of appeal, as will insure them a reasonable opportunity to know, establish, and protect their rights under the law of the State?

B. Is the State agency required to obtain, in time for prompt determination of rights to benefits such information as will reasonably insure the payment of benefits to individuals to whom benefits are due?

C. Is the State agency required to keep records of the facts considered in reaching determinations of rights to benefits?

6013 Claim Determinations Requirements Designed To Meet Department of Labor Criteria

A. Investigation of claims. The State agency is required to obtain promptly and prior to a determination of an individual's right to benefits, such facts pertaining thereto as will be sufficient reasonably to insure the payment of benefits when due.

This requirement embraces five separate elements:

1. It is the responsibility of the agency to take the initiative in the discovery of information. This responsibility may not be passed on the claimant or the employer. In addition to the agency's own records, this information may be obtained from the worker, the employer, or other sources. If the information obtained in the first instance discloses no essential disagreement and provides a sufficient basis for a fair determination, no further investigation is necessary. If the information obtained from other sources differs essentially from that furnished by the claimant, the agency, in order to meet its responsibility, is required to inform the claimant of such information from other sources and to afford the claimant an opportunity to furnish any further facts he may have.

2. Evidentiary facts must be obtained as distinguished from ultimate facts or conclusions. That a worker was discharged for misconduct is an ultimate fact or conclusion; that he destroyed a machine upon which he was working is a primary or evidentiary fact, and the sort of fact that the requirement refers to.

3. The information obtained must be sufficient reasonably to insure the payment of benefits when due. In general, the investigation made by the agency must be complete enough to provide information upon which the agency may act with reasonable assurance that its decision is consistent with the unemployment compensation law. On the other hand, the investigation should not be so exhaustive and time-consuming as unduly to delay the payment of benefits and to result in excessive costs.

4. Information must be obtained promptly so that the payment of benefits is not unduly delayed.

5. If the State agency requires any particular evidence from the worker, it must give him a reasonable opportunity to obtain such evidence.

B. Recording of facts. The agency must keep a written record of the facts considered in reaching its determinations.

C. Determination notices

1. The agency must give each claimant a written notice of:

a. Any monetary determination with respect to his benefit year;

b. Any determination with respect to purging a disqualification if, under the State law, a condition or qualification must be satisfied with respect to each week of disqualification; but in lieu of giving written notice of each determination for each week in which it is determined that the claimant has met the requirements for purging the agency may inform the claimant that he has purged the disqualification for a week by notation on his applicant identification card or otherwise in writing.

c. Any other determination which adversely affects<sup>1</sup> his rights to benefits, except that written notice of determination need not be given with respect to:

(1) A week in a benefit year for which the claimant's weekly benefit amount is reduced in whole or in part by earnings if, the first time in the benefit year that there is such a reduction, he is required to be furnished a

booklet or leaflet containing the information set forth below in paragraph 2f(1). However, a written notice of determination is required if: (a) There is a dispute concerning the reduction with respect to any week (e.g., as to the amount computed as the appropriate reduction, etc.); or (b) there is a change in the State law (or in the application thereof) affecting the reduction; or

(2) Any week in a benefit year subsequent to the first week in such benefit year in which benefits were denied, or reduced in whole or in part for reasons other than earnings, if denial or reduction for such subsequent week is based on the same reason and the same facts as for the first week, and if written notice of determination is required to be given to the claimant with respect to such first week, and with such notice of determination, he is required to be given a booklet or pamphlet containing the information set forth below in paragraphs 2f(2) and 2h. However, a written notice of determination is required if: (a) There is a dispute concerning the denial or reduction of benefits with respect to such week; or (b) there is a change in the State law (or in the application thereof) affecting the denial or reduction; or (c) there is a change in the amount of the reduction except as to the balance covered by the last reduction in a series of reductions.

NOTE: This procedure may be applied to determinations made with respect to any subsequent weeks for the same reason and on the basis of the same facts: (a) That claimant is unable to work, unavailable for work, or is disqualified under the labor dispute provision; and (b) reducing claimant's weekly benefit amount because of income other than earnings or offset by reason of overpayment.

2. The agency must include in written notices of determinations furnished to claimants sufficient information to enable them to understand the determinations, the reasons therefor, and their rights to protest, request reconsideration, or appeal.

The written notice of monetary determination must contain the information specified in the following items (except h) unless an item is specifically not applicable. A written notice of any other determination must contain the information specified in as many of the following items as are necessary to enable the claimant to understand the determination and to inform him of his appeal rights. Information specifically applicable to the individual claimant must be contained in the written notice of determination. Information of general application such as (but not limited to) the explanation of benefits for partial unemployment, information as to deductions, seasonality factors, and information as to the manner and place of taking an appeal, extension of the appeal period, and where to obtain information and assistance may be contained in a booklet or leaflet which is given the claimant with his monetary determination.

a. Base period wages. The statement concerning base-period wages must be in sufficient detail to show the basis of computation of eligibility and weekly and maximum benefit amounts. (If maximum benefits are allowed, it may not be necessary to show details of earnings.)

b. Employer name. The name of the employer who reported the wages is necessary so that the worker may check the wage transcript and know whether it is correct. If the worker is given only the employer number, he may not be able to check the accuracy of the wage transcript.

c. Explanation of benefit formula—weekly and maximum benefit amounts. Sufficient information must be given the worker so that he will understand how his weekly benefit amount, including allowances for dependents, and his maximum benefit amount were figured. If benefits are computed by means of a table contained in the law, the table must be furnished with the notice of determination whether benefits are granted or denied.

The written notice of determination must show clearly the weekly benefit amount and the maximum potential benefits to which the claimant is entitled.

The notice to a claimant found ineligible by reason of insufficient earnings in the base period must inform him clearly of the reason for ineligibility. An explanation of the benefit formula contained in a booklet or pamphlet should be given to each claimant at or prior to the time he receives written notice of a monetary determination.

d. Benefit year. An explanation of what is meant by the benefit year and identification of the claimant's benefit year must be included in the notice of determination.

e. Information as to benefits for partial unemployment. There must be included either in the written notice of determination or in a booklet or pamphlet accompanying the notice an explanation of the claimant's rights to partial benefits for any week with respect to which he is working less than his normal customary full-time workweek because of lack of work and for which he earns less than his weekly benefit amount or weekly amount plus earnings, whichever is provided by the State law. If the explanation is contained in the notice of determination, reference to the item in the notice in which his weekly benefit amount is entered should be made.

f. Deductions from weekly benefits.

(1) Earnings. Although written notice of determinations deducting earnings from a claimant's weekly benefit amount is generally not required (see paragraph 1c (1) above), where written notice of determination is required (or given) it shall set forth the amount of earnings, the method of computing the deduction in sufficient detail to enable the claimant to verify the accuracy of the deduction, and his right to protest, request redetermination, and appeal. Where a written notice of determination is given to the claimant because there has been a change in the State law or in the application of the law, an explanation of the change shall be included.

Where claimant is not required to receive a written notice of determination, he must be given a booklet or pamphlet the first time in his benefit year that there is a deduction for earnings which shall include the following information:

(a) The method of computing deductions for earnings in sufficient detail to enable the claimant to verify the accuracy of the deduction;

(b) That he will not automatically be given a written notice of determination for a week with respect to which there is a deduction for earnings (unless there is a dispute concerning the reduction with respect to a week or there has been a change in the State law or in the application of the law affecting the deduction) but that he may obtain such a written notice upon request; and

(c) A clear statement of his right to protest, request a redetermination, and appeal from any determination deducting earnings from his weekly benefit amount even though he does not automatically receive a written notice of determination; and if the State law requires written notice of determination in order to effectuate a protest, redetermination, or appeal, he must be so advised and advised also that he must request a written notice of determination before he takes any such action.

(2) Other deductions.

(a) A written notice of determination is required with respect to the first week in claimant's benefit year in which there is a reduction from his benefits for a reason other than earnings. This notice must describe the deduction made from claimant's weekly benefit amount, the reason for the deduction, the method of computing it in sufficient detail to enable him to verify the accuracy of such deduction, and his right to protest, request redetermination, or appeal.

(b) A written notice of determination is not required for subsequent weeks that a deduction is made for the same reason and on the basis of the same facts, if the notice of determination pursuant to (2)(a), or a booklet or pamphlet given him with such notice explains: (i) The several kinds of deductions which may be made under the State law (e.g., retirement pensions, vacation pay, and overpayments); (ii) the method of computing each kind of deduction in sufficient detail that claimant will be able to verify the accuracy of deductions made from his weekly benefit payments; (iii) any limitation on the amount of any deduction or the time in which any deduction may be made; (iv) that he will not automatically be given a written notice of determination for subsequent weeks with respect to which there is a deduction for the same reason and on the basis of the same facts, but that he may obtain a written notice of determination upon request; (v) his right to protest, request redetermination, or appeal with respect to subsequent weeks for which there is a reduction from his benefits for the same reason, and on the basis of the same facts even though he does not automatically receive a written notice of determination; and (vi) that if the State law requires written notice of determination in order to effectuate a protest, redetermination, or appeal, he must be so advised and advised also that he must request a written notice of determination before he takes any such action.

g. Seasonality factors. If the individual's determination is affected by seasonality factors under the State law, an adequate explanation must be made. General explanations of seasonality factors which may affect determinations for subsequent weeks may be included in a booklet or pamphlet given with his notice of monetary determination.

h. Disqualification or ineligibility. If a disqualification is imposed, or if the claimant is declared ineligible for one or more weeks, he must be given not only a statement of the period of disqualification or ineligibility and the amount of wage-credit reductions, if any, but also an explanation of the reason for the ineligibility or disqualification. This explanation must be sufficiently detailed so that he will understand why he is ineligible or why he has been disqualified, and what he must do in order to requalify for benefits or purge the disqualification. The statement must be individualized to indicate the facts upon which the determination was based, e.g., state, "It is found that you left your work with Blank Company because you were tired of working; the separation was voluntary, and the reason does not constitute good cause," rather than merely the phrase "voluntary quit." Checking a box as to the reason for the disqualification is not a sufficiently detailed explanation. However, this statement of the reason for the disqualification need not be a restatement of all facts considered in arriving at the determination.

i. Appeal rights. The claimant must be given information with respect to his appeal rights.

(1) The following information shall be included in the notice of determination:

(a) A statement that he may appeal or, if the State law requires or permits a protest or redetermination before an appeal, that he may protest or request a redetermination.

(b) The period within which an appeal, protest, or request for redetermination must be filed. The number of days provided by statute must be shown as well as either the beginning date or ending date of the period. (It is recommended that the ending date of the appeal period be shown, as this is the more understandable of the alternatives.)

(2) The following information must be included either in the notice of determination or in separate informational material referred to in the notice:

(a) The manner in which the appeal, protest, or request for redetermination must be filed, e.g., by signed letter, written statement, or on a prescribed form, and the place or places to which the appeal, protest, or request for redetermination may be mailed or hand-delivered.

(b) An explanation of any circumstances (such as nonworkdays, good cause, etc.) which will extend the period for the appeal, protest, or request for redetermination beyond the date stated or identified in the notice of determination.

(c) That any further information claimant may need or desire can be obtained together with assistance in filing his appeal, protest, or request for redetermination from the local office.

If the information is given in separate material, the notice of determination would adequately refer to such material if it said, for example, "For other information about your (appeal), (protest), (redetermination) rights, see pages — to — of the — (name of pamphlet or booklet) heretofore furnished to you."

6014 Separation Information Requirements Designed To Meet Department of Labor Criteria

A. Information to agency. Where workers are separated, employers are required to furnish the agency promptly, either upon agency request or upon such separation, a notice describing the reasons for and the circumstances of the separation and any additional information which might affect a claimant's right to benefits. Where workers are working less than full time, employers are required to furnish the agency promptly, upon agency request, information concerning a claimant's hours of work and his wages during the claim periods involved, and other facts which might affect a claimant's eligibility for benefits during such periods.

When workers are separated and the notices are obtained on a request basis, or when workers are working less than full time and the agency requests information, it is essential to the prompt processing of claims that the request be sent out promptly after the claim is filed and the employer be given a specific period within which to return the notice, preferably within 2 working days.

When workers are separated and notices are obtained upon separation, it is essential that the employer be required to send the notice to the agency with sufficient promptness to insure that, if a claim is filed, it may be processed promptly. Normally, it is desirable that such a notice be sent to the central office of the agency, since the employer may not know in which local office the worker will file his claim. The usual procedure is for the employer to give the worker a copy of the notice sent by the employer to the agency.

B. Information to worker.

1. Information required to be given. Employees are required to give their employers information and instructions concerning the employees' potential rights to benefits and concerning registration for work and filing claims for benefits.

The information furnished to employees under such a requirement need not be elaborate; it need only be adequate to insure that the worker who is separated or who is working less than full time knows he is potentially eligible for benefits and is informed as to what he is to do or where he is to go to file his claim and register for work. When he files his claim, he can obtain more detailed information.

In States that do not require employers to furnish periodically to the State agency detailed reports of the wages paid to their employees, each employer is required to furnish to his employees information as to: (a) The name under which he is registered by the State agency, (b) the address where he maintains his payroll records, and (c) the workers' need for this information if and when they file claims for benefits.

2. Methods for giving information. The information and instructions required above may be given in any of the following ways:

a. Posters prominently displayed in the employer's establishment. The State agency should supply employers with a sufficient number of posters for distribution throughout their places of business and should see that the posters are conspicuously displayed at all times.

b. Leaflets. Leaflets distributed either periodically or at the time of separation or reduction of hours. The State agency should supply employers with a sufficient number of leaflets.

c. Individual notices. Individual notices given to each employee at the time of separation or reduction in hours.

It is recommended that the State agency's publicity program be used to supplement the employer-information requirements. Such a program should stress the availability and location of claim-filing offices and the importance of visiting those offices whenever the worker is unemployed, wishes to apply for benefits, and to seek a job.

6015 Evaluation of Alternative State Provisions with Respect to Claim Determinations and Separation Information. If the State law provisions do not conform to the suggested requirements set forth in sections 6013 and 6014, but the State law contains alternative provisions, the Bureau of Employment Security, in collaboration with the State agency, will study the actual or anticipated effects of the alternative provisions. If the Administrator of the Bureau concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy the criteria in section 6012, he will so notify the State agency. If the Administrator of the Bureau does not so conclude, he will submit the matter to the Secretary. If the Secretary concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy the criteria in section 6012, the State agency will be so notified. If the Secretary concludes that there is a question as to whether the alternative provisions satisfy the criteria, the State agency will be advised that unless the State law provisions are appropriately revised, a notice of hearing will be issued as required by the Code of Federal Regulations, title 20, §601.5.

APPENDIX C TO PART 614—STANDARD FOR FRAUD AND OVERPAYMENT DETECTION

7510-7519 Standard for Fraud and Overpayment Detection

7510 Federal Law Requirements. Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for:

“Such methods of administration * * * as are found by the Secretary to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due.”

Section 1603(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code and section 3030(a)(5) of the Social Security Act require that a State law include provision for:

Section 1607(h) of the Internal Revenue Code defines “compensation” as “cash benefits payable to individuals with respect to their unemployment.”

7511 The Secretary's Interpretation of Federal Law Requirements. The Secretary of Labor interprets the above sections to require that a State law include provision for such methods of administration as are, within reason, calculated (1) to detect benefits paid through error by the agency or through willful misrepresentation or error by the claimant or others, and (2) to deter claimants from obtaining benefits through willful misrepresentation.

7513 Criteria for Review of State Conformity With Federal Requirements. In determining State conformity with the above requirements of the Internal Revenue Code and the Social Security Act, as interpreted by the Secretary of Labor, the following criteria will be applied:

A. Are investigations required to be made after the payment of benefits, (or, in the case of interstate claims, are investigations made by the agent State after the processing of claims) as to claimants' entitlement to benefits paid to them in a sufficient proportion of cases to test the effectiveness of the agency's procedures for the prevention of payments which are not due? To carry out investigations, has the agency assigned to some individual or unit, as a basic function, the responsibility of making or functionally directing such investigations?

Explanation: It is not feasible to prescribe the extent to which the above activities are required; however, they should always be carried on to such an extent that they will show whether or not error or willful misrepresentation is increasing or decreasing, and will reveal problem areas. The extent and nature of the above activities should be varied according to the seriousness of the problem in the State. The responsible individual or unit should:

1. Check paid claims for overpayment and investigate for willful misrepresentation or, alternatively, advise and assist the operating units in the performance of such functions, or both;

2. Perform consultative services with respect to methods and procedures for the prevention and detection of fraud; and

3. Perform other services which are closely related to the above.

Although a State agency is expected to make a full-time assignment of responsibility to a unit or individual to carry on the functions described above, a small State agency might make these functions a part-time responsibility of one individual. In connection with the detection of overpayments, such a unit or individual might, for example:

(a) Investigate information on suspected benefit fraud received from any agency personnel, and from sources outside the agency, including anonymous complaints;

(b) Investigate information secured from comparisons of benefit payments with employment records to detect cases of concurrent working (whether in covered or non-covered work) and claiming of benefits (including benefit payments in which the agency acted as agent for another State).

The benefit fraud referred to herein may involve employers, agency employees, and witnesses, as well as claimants.

Comparisons of benefit payments with employment records are commonly made either by post-audit or by industry surveys. The so-called “post-audit” is a matching of central office wage-record files against benefit payments for the same period. “Industry surveys” or “mass audits” are done in some States by going directly to employers for pay-roll information to be checked against concurrent benefit lists. A plan

A. of investigation based on a sample post-audit will be considered as partial fulfillment of the investigation program; it would need to be supplemented by other methods capable of detecting overpayments to persons who have moved into noncovered occupations or are claiming interstate benefits.

B. *Are adequate records maintained by which the results of investigations may be evaluated?**

Explanation. To meet this criterion, the State agency will be expected to maintain records of all its activities in the detection of overpayments, showing whether attributable to error or willful misrepresentation, measuring the results obtained through various methods, and noting the remedial action taken in each case. The adequacy and effectiveness of various methods of checking for willful misrepresentation can be evaluated only if records are kept of the results obtained. Internal reports on fraudulent and erroneous overpayments are needed by State agencies for self-evaluation. Detailed records should be maintained in order that the State agency may determine, for example, which of several methods of checking currently used are the most productive. Such records also will provide the basis for drawing a clear distinction between fraud and error.

C. *Does the agency take adequate action with respect to publicity concerning willful misrepresentation and its legal consequences to deter fraud by claimants?**

Explanation. To meet this criterion, the State agency must issue adequate material on claimant eligibility requirements and must take necessary action to obtain publicity on the legal consequences of willful misrepresentation or willful nondisclosure of facts.

Public announcements on convictions and resulting penalties for fraud are generally considered necessary as a deterrent to other persons, and to inform the public that the agency is carrying on an effective program to prevent fraud. This alone is not considered adequate publicity. It is important that information be circulated which will explain clearly and understandably the claimant's rights, and the obligations which he must fulfill to be eligible for benefits. Leaflets for distribution and posters placed in local offices are appropriate media for such information.

7515 Evaluation of Alternative State Provisions with Respect to Erroneous and Illegal Payments. If the methods of administration provided for by the State law do not conform to the suggested methods of meeting the requirements set forth in section 7511, but a State law does provide for alternative methods of administration designed to accomplish the same results, the Bureau of Employment Security, in collaboration with the State agency, will study the actual or anticipated effect of the alternative methods of administration. If the Bureau concludes that the alternative methods satisfy the criteria in section 7513, it will so notify the State agency. If the Bureau does not so conclude, it will submit to the Secretary the results of the study for his determination of whether the State's alternative methods of administration meet the criteria.*

§ 615.1 Purpose.

The regulations in this part are issued to implement the "Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970" as it has been amended, which requires, as a condition of tax offset under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (26 U.S.C. 3301 et seq.), that a State unemployment compensation law provide for the payment of extended unemployment compensation during periods of high unemployment to eligible individuals as prescribed in the Act. The benefits provided under State law, in accordance with the Act and this part, are hereafter referred to as Extended Benefits, and the program is referred to as the Extended Benefit Program.

§ 615.2 Definitions.

For the purposes of the Act and this part—

(a) Act means the “Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970” (title II of Pub. L. 91-373; 84 Stat. 695, 708), approved August 10, 1970, as amended from time to time, including the 1980 amendments in section 416 of Pub. L. 96-364 (94 Stat. 1208, 1310), approved September 26, 1980, and in sections 1022 and 1024 of Pub. L. 96-499 (94 Stat. 2599, 2656, 2658) approved December 5, 1980, and the 1981 amendments in sections 2401 through 2404 and section 2505(b) of Pub. L. 97-35 (95 Stat. 357, 874-875, 884) approved August 13, 1981, and the 1982 amendment in section 191 of Pub. L. 97-248 (96 Stat. 324, 407) approved September 3, 1982, and the 1983 amendment in section 522 of Pub. L. 98-21 (97 Stat. 65, 148) approved April 20, 1983.

(b) Base period means, with respect to an individual, the base period as determined under the applicable State law for the individual’s applicable benefit year.

(c)(1) Benefit year means, with respect to an individual, the benefit year as defined in the applicable State law.

(2) Applicable benefit year means, with respect to an individual, the current benefit year if, at the time an initial claim for Extended Benefits is filed, the individual has an unexpired benefit year only in the State in which such claim is filed, or, in any other case, the individual’s most recent benefit year. For this purpose, the most recent benefit year for an individual who has unexpired benefit years in more than one State when an initial claim for Extended Benefits is filed, is the benefit year with the latest ending date or, if such benefit years have the same ending date, the benefit year in which the latest continued claim for regular compensation was filed. The individual’s most recent benefit year which expires in an Extended Benefit Period is the applicable benefit year if the individual cannot establish a second benefit year or is precluded from receiving regular compensation in a second benefit year solely by reason of a State law provision which meets the requirement of section 3304(a)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 3304(a)(7)).

(d) Compensation and unemployment compensation means cash benefits (including dependents’ allowances) payable to individuals with respect to their unemployment, and includes regular compensation, additional compensation and extended compensation as defined in this section.

(e) Regular compensation means compensation payable to an individual under a State law, and, when so payable, includes compensation payable pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85, but does not include extended compensation or additional compensation.

(f) Additional compensation means compensation totally financed by a State and payable under a State law by reason of conditions of high unemployment or by reason of other special factors and, when so payable, includes compensation payable pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85.

(g) Extended compensation means the extended unemployment compensation payable to an individual for weeks of unemployment which begin in an Extended Benefit Period, under those provisions of a State law which satisfy the requirements of the Act and this part with respect to the payment of extended unemployment compensation, and, when so payable, includes compensation payable pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85, but does not include regular compensation or additional compensation. Extended compensation is referred to in this part as Extended Benefits.

(h) Eligibility period means, with respect to an individual, the period consisting of—

(1) The weeks in the individual’s applicable benefit year which begin in an Extended Benefit Period, or with respect to a single benefit year, the weeks in the benefit year which begin in more than one Extended Benefit Period, and

(2) If the applicable benefit year ends within an Extended Benefit Period, any weeks thereafter which begin in such Extended Benefit Period, but an individual may not have more than one eligibility period with respect to any one exhaustion of regular benefits, or carry over from one eligibility period to another any entitlement to Extended Benefits.

§615.2

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(i) Sharable compensation means:

(1) Extended Benefits paid to an eligible individual under those provisions of a State law which are consistent with the Act and this part, and that does not exceed the smallest of the following:

(i) 50 percent of the total amount of regular compensation payable to the individual during the applicable benefit year; or

(ii) 13 times the individual's weekly amount of Extended Benefits payable for a week of total unemployment, as determined pursuant to §615.6(a); or

(iii) 39 times the individual's weekly benefit amount, referred to in (ii), reduced by the regular compensation paid (or deemed paid) to the individual during the applicable benefit year; and

(2) Regular compensation paid to an eligible individual with respect to weeks of unemployment in the individual's eligibility period, but only to the extent that the sum of such compensation, plus the regular compensation paid (or deemed paid) to the individual with respect to prior weeks of unemployment in the applicable benefit year, exceeds 26 times and does not exceed 39 times the average weekly benefit amount (including allowances for dependents) for weeks of total unemployment payable to the individual under the State law in such benefit year: Provided, that such regular compensation is paid under provisions of a State law which are consistent with the Act and this part.

(3) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph, sharable compensation shall not include any regular or extended compensation with respect to which a State is not entitled to a payment under section 202(a)(6) or 204 of the Act or §615.14 of this part.

(j)(1) Secretary means the Secretary of Labor of the United States.

(2) Department means the United States Department of Labor, and shall include the Employment and Training Administration, the agency of the United States Department of Labor headed by the Assistant Secretary of Labor for Employment and Training to whom has been delegated the Secretary's authority under the Act in Secretary's Order No. 4-75 (40 FR 18515) and Secretary's Order No. 14-75.

(k)(1) State means the States of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the U. S. Virgin Islands.

(2) Applicable State means, with respect to an individual, the State with respect to which the individual is an "exhaustee" as defined in §615.5, and in the case of a combined wage claim for regular compensation, the term means the "paying State" as defined in §616.6(e) of this chapter.

(3) State agency means the State Employment Security Agency of a State which administers the State law.

(1)(1) State law means the unemployment compensation law of a State, approved by the Secretary under section 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 3304(a)).

(2) Applicable State law means the law of the State which is the applicable State for an individual.

(m)(1) Week means, for purposes of eligibility for and payment of Extended Benefits, a week as defined in the applicable State law.

(2) Week means, for purposes of computation of Extended Benefit "on" and "off" and "no change" indicators and insured unemployment rates and the beginning and ending of Extended Benefit Periods, a calendar week.

(n)(1) Week of unemployment means a week of total, part-total, or partial unemployment as defined in the applicable State law, which shall be applied in the same manner and to the same extent to the Extended Benefit Program as if the individual filing a claim for Extended Benefits were filing a claim for regular compensation, except as provided in paragraph (n)(2) of this section.

(2) Week of unemployment in section 202(a)(3)(A) of the Act means a week of unemployment, as defined in paragraph (n)(1) of this section, for which the individual claims Extended Benefits or sharable regular benefits.

(o) For the purposes of section 202(a)(3) of the Act—

(1) Employed, for the purposes of section 202(a)(3)(B)(ii) of the Act, and employment, for the purposes of section

202(a)(4) of the Act, means service performed in an employer-employee relationship as defined in the State law; and that law also shall govern whether that service must be covered by it, must consist of consecutive weeks, and must consist of more weeks of work than are required under section 202(a)(3)(B) of the Act;

(2) Individual's capabilities, for the purposes of section 202(a)(3)(C), means work which the individual has the physical and mental capacity to perform and which meets the minimum requirements of section 202(a)(3)(D);

(3) Reasonably short period, for the purposes of section 202(a)(3)(C), means the number of weeks provided by the applicable State law;

(4) Average weekly benefit amount, for the purposes of section 202(a)(3)(D)(i), means the weekly benefit amount (including dependents' allowances payable for a week of total unemployment and before any reduction because of earnings, pensions or other requirements) applicable to the week in which the individual failed to take an action which results in a disqualification as required by section 202(a)(3)(B) of the Act;

(5) Gross average weekly remuneration, for the purposes of section 202(a)(3)(D)(i), means the remuneration offered for a week of work before any deductions for taxes or other purposes and, in case the offered pay may vary from week to week, it shall be determined on the basis of recent experience of workers performing work similar to the offered work for the employer who offered the work;

(6) And, as used in section 202(a)(3)(D)(ii), shall be interpreted to mean "or";

(7) Provisions of the applicable State law, as used in section 202(a)(3)(D)(iii), include statutory provisions and decisions based on statutory provisions, such as not requiring an individual to take a job which requires traveling an unreasonable distance to work, or which involves an unreasonable risk to the individual's health, safety or morals; and such provisions shall also include labor standards and training provisions required under sections 3304(a)(5) and 3304(a)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and section 236(e) of the Trade Act of 1974;

(8) A systematic and sustained effort, for the purposes of section 202(a)(3)(E), means—

(i) A high level of job search activity throughout the given week, compatible with the number of employers and employment opportunities in the labor market reasonably applicable to the individual,

(ii) A plan of search for work involving independent efforts on the part of each individual which results in contacts with persons who have the authority to hire or which follows whatever hiring procedure is required by a prospective employer in addition to any search offered by organized public and private agencies such as the State employment service or union or private placement offices or hiring halls,

(iii) Actions by the individual comparable to those actions by which jobs are being found by people in the community and labor market, but not restricted to a single manner of search for work such as registering with and reporting to the State employment service and union or private placement offices or hiring halls, in the same manner that such work is found by people in the community,

(iv) A search not limited to classes of work or rates of pay to which the individual is accustomed or which represent the individual's higher skills, and which includes all types of work within the individual's physical and mental capabilities, except that the individual, while classified by the State agency as provided in § 615.8(d) as having "good" job prospects, shall search for work that is suitable work under State law provisions which apply to claimants for regular compensation (which is not sharable),

(v) A search by every claimant, without exception for individuals or classes of individuals other than those in approved training, as required under section 3304(a)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or section 236(e) of the Trade Act of 1974,

(vi) A search suspended only when severe weather conditions or other calamity forces suspension of such activities by most members of the community, except that

(vii) The individual, while classified by the State agency as provided in

§615.3

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§615.8(d) as having “good” job prospects, if such individual normally obtains customary work through a hiring hall, shall search for work that is suitable work under State law provisions which apply to claimants for regular compensation (which is not sharable);

(9) Tangible evidence of an active search for work, for the purposes of section 202(a)(3)(E), means a written record which can be verified, and which includes the actions taken, methods of applying for work, types of work sought, dates and places where work was sought, the name of the employer or person who was contacted and the outcome of the contact;

(10) Date of a disqualification, as used in section 202(a)(4), means the date the disqualification begins, as determined under the applicable State law;

(11) Jury duty, for purposes of section 202(a)(3)(A)(ii), means the performance of service as a juror, during all periods of time an individual is engaged in such service, in any court of a State or the United States pursuant to the law of the State or the United States and the rules of the court in which the individual is engaged in the performance of such service; and

(12) Hospitalized for treatment of an emergency or life-threatening condition, as used in section 202(a)(3)(A)(ii), has the following meaning: “Hospitalized for treatment” means an individual was admitted to a hospital as an inpatient for medical treatment. Treatment is for an “emergency or life threatening condition” if determined to be such by the hospital officials or attending physician that provide the treatment for a medical condition existing upon or arising after hospitalization. For purposes of this definition, the term “medical treatment” refers to the application of any remedies which have the objective of effecting a cure of the emergency or life-threatening condition. Once an “emergency condition” or a “life-threatening condition” has been determined to exist by the hospital officials or attending physician, the status of the individual as so determined shall remain unchanged until release from the hospital.

(p)(1) Claim filed in any State under the interstate benefit payment plan, as used in section 202(c), means any interstate claim for a week of unemployment filed pursuant to the Interstate Benefit Payment Plan, but does not include—

(i) A claim filed in Canada,

(ii) A visiting claim filed by an individual who has received permission from his/her regular reporting office to report temporarily to a local office in another State and who has been furnished intrastate claim forms on which to file claims, or

(iii) A transient claim filed by an individual who is moving from place to place searching for work, or an intrastate claim for Extended Benefits filed by an individual who does not reside in a State that is in an Extended Benefit Period,

(2) The first 2 weeks, as used in section 202(c), means the first two weeks for which the individual files compensable claims for Extended Benefits under the Interstate Benefit Payment Plan in an agent State in which an Extended Benefit Period is not in effect during such weeks, and

(q) Benefit structure as used in section 204(a)(2)(D), for the requirement to round down to the “nearest lower full dollar amount” for Federal reimbursement of sharable regular and sharable extended compensation means all of the following:

(1) Amounts of regular weekly benefit payments,

(2) Amounts of additional and extended weekly benefit payments,

(3) The State maximum or minimum weekly benefit,

(4) Partial and part-total benefit payments,

(5) Amounts payable after deduction for pensions, and

(6) Amounts payable after any other deduction required by State law.

§615.3 Effective period of the program.

An Extended Benefit Program conforming with the Act and this part shall be a requirement for a State law effective on and after January 1, 1972, pursuant to section 3304(a)(11) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, (26 U.S.C. 3304(a)(11)). Continuation of the program by a State in conformity and substantial compliance with the Act and this part, throughout any 12-month period ending on October 31 of a year subsequent to 1972, shall be a condition of the certification of the State with respect to such 12-month period under section 3304(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 3304(c)). Conformity with the Act and this part in the payment of regular compensation and Extended Benefits to any individual shall be a continuing requirement, applicable to every week as a condition of a State's entitlement to payment for any compensation as provided in the Act and this part.

§ 615.4 Eligibility requirements for Extended Benefits.

(a) General. An individual is entitled to Extended Benefits for a week of unemployment which begins in the individual's eligibility period if, with respect to such week, the individual is an exhaustee as defined in § 615.5, files a timely claim for Extended Benefits, and satisfies the pertinent requirements of the applicable State law which are consistent with the Act and this part.

(b) Qualifying for Extended Benefits. The State law shall specify whether an individual qualifies for Extended Benefits by earnings and employment in the base period for the individual's applicable benefit year as required by section 202(a)(5) of the Act, (and if it does not also apply this requirement to the payment of sharable regular benefits, the State will not be entitled to a payment under § 615.14), as follows:

(1) One and one-half times the high quarter wages; or

(2) Forty times the most recent weekly benefit amount, and if this alternative is adopted, it shall use the weekly benefit amount (including dependents' allowances) payable for a week of total unemployment (before any reduction because of earnings, pensions or other requirements) which applied to the most recent week of regular benefits; or

(3) Twenty weeks of full-time insured employment, and if this alternative is adopted, the term "full-time" shall have the meaning provided by the State law.

§ 615.5 Definition of "exhaustee."

(a)(1) "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any week of unemployment in the individual's eligibility period:

(i) Has received, prior to such week, all of the regular compensation that was payable under the applicable State law or any other State law (including regular compensation payable to Federal civilian employees and Ex-Servicemembers under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) for the applicable benefit year that includes such week; or

(ii) Has received, prior to such week, all of the regular compensation that was available under the applicable State law or any other State law (including regular compensation available to Federal civilian employees and Ex-Servicemembers under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) in the benefit year that includes such week, after the cancellation of some or all of the individual's wage credits or the total or partial reduction of the individual's right to regular compensation; or

(iii) The applicable benefit year having expired prior to such week and the individual is precluded from establishing a second (new) benefit year, or the individual established a second benefit year but is suspended indefinitely from receiving regular compensation, solely by reason of a State law provision which meets the requirement of section 3304(a)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 3304(a)(7)): Provided, that, an individual shall not be entitled to Extended Benefits based on regular compensation in a second benefit year during which the individual is precluded from receiving regular compensation solely by reason of a State law provision which meets the requirement of section 3304(a)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 3304(a)(7)); or

(iv) The applicable benefit year having expired prior to such week, the individual has insufficient wages or employment, or both, on the basis of which a new benefit year could be established in any State that would include such week; and

(v) Has no right to unemployment compensation for such week under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act or such other Federal laws as are specified by the Department pursuant to this paragraph; and

§615.6

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(vi) Has not received and is not seeking for such week unemployment compensation under the unemployment compensation law of Canada, unless the Canadian agency finally determines that the individual is not entitled to unemployment compensation under the Canadian law for such week.

(2) An individual who becomes an exhaustee as defined above shall cease to be an exhaustee commencing with the first week that the individual becomes eligible for regular compensation under any State law or 5 U.S.C. chapter 85, or has any right to unemployment compensation as provided in paragraph (a)(1)(v) of this section, or has received or is seeking unemployment compensation as provided in paragraph (a)(1)(vi) of this section. The individual's Extended Benefit Account shall be terminated upon the occurrence of any such week, and the individual shall have no further right to any balance in that Extended Benefit Account.

(b) Special Rules. For the purposes of paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) of this section, an individual shall be deemed to have received in the applicable benefit year all of the regular compensation payable according to the monetary determination, or available to the individual, as the case may be, even though—

(1) As a result of a pending appeal with respect to wages or employment or both that were not included in the original monetary determination with respect to such benefit year, the individual may subsequently be determined to be entitled to more or less regular compensation, or

(2) By reason of a provision in the State law that establishes the weeks of the year in which regular compensation may be paid to the individual on the basis of wages in seasonal employment—

(i) The individual may be entitled to regular compensation with respect to future weeks of unemployment in the next season or off season, as the case may be, but such compensation is not payable with respect to the week of unemployment for which Extended Benefits are claimed, and

(ii) The individual is otherwise an exhaustee within the meaning of this section with respect to rights to regular compensation during the season or off season in which that week of unemployment occurs, or

(3) Having established a benefit year, no regular compensation is payable during such year because wage credits were cancelled or the right to regular compensation was totally reduced as the result of the application of a disqualification.

(c) Adjustment of week. If it is subsequently determined as the result of a redetermination or appeal that an individual is an exhaustee as of a different week than was previously determined, the individual's rights to Extended Benefits shall be adjusted so as to accord with such redetermination or decision.

§615.6 Extended Benefits; weekly amount.

(a) Total unemployment. (1) The weekly amount of Extended Benefits payable to an individual for a week of total unemployment in the individual's eligibility period shall be the amount of regular compensation payable to the individual for a week of total unemployment during the applicable benefit year. If the individual had more than one weekly amount of regular compensation for total unemployment during such benefit year, the weekly amount of extended compensation for total unemployment shall be one of the following which applies as specified in the applicable State law:

(i) The average of such weekly amounts of regular compensation,

(ii) The last weekly benefit amount of regular compensation in such benefit year, or

(iii) An amount that is reasonably representative of the weekly amounts of regular compensation payable during such benefit year.

(2) If the method in paragraph (a)(1)(iii) of this section is adopted by a State, the State law shall specify how such amount is to be computed. If the method in paragraph (a)(1)(i) of this section is adopted by a State, and the amount computed is not an even dollar amount, the amount shall be raised or lowered to an even dollar amount as provided by the applicable State law for regular compensation.

(b) Partial and part-total unemployment. The weekly amount of Extended Benefits payable for a week of partial or part-total unemployment shall be determined under the provisions of the applicable State law which apply to regular compensation, computed on the basis of the weekly amount of Extended Benefits payable for a week of total unemployment as determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 615.7 Extended Benefits; maximum amount.

(a) Individual account. An Extended Benefit Account shall be established for each individual determined to be eligible for Extended Benefits, in the sum of the maximum amount potentially payable to the individual as computed in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Computation of amount in individual account. (1) The amount established in the Extended Benefit Account of an individual, as the maximum amount potentially payable to the individual during the individual's eligibility period, shall be equal to the lesser of—

(i) 50 percent of the total amount of regular compensation (including dependents' allowances) payable to the individual during the individual's applicable benefit year; or

(ii) 13 times the individual's weekly amount of Extended Benefits payable for a week of total unemployment, as determined pursuant to § 615.6(a); or

(iii) 39 times the individual's weekly benefit amount referred to in (ii), reduced by the regular compensation paid (or deemed paid) to the individual during the individual's applicable benefit year.

(2) If the State law so provides, the amount in the individual's Extended Benefit Account shall be reduced by the aggregate amount of additional compensation paid (or deemed paid) to the individual under such law for prior weeks of unemployment in such benefit year which did not begin in an Extended Benefit Period.

(c) Changes in accounts. (1) If an individual is entitled to more or less Extended Benefits as a result of a redetermination or an appeal which awarded more or less regular compensation or Extended Benefits, an appropriate change shall be made in the individual's Extended Benefit Account pursuant to an amended determination of the individual's entitlement to Extended Benefits.

(2) If an individual who has received Extended Benefits for a week of unemployment is determined to be entitled to more regular compensation with respect to such week as the result of a redetermination or an appeal, the Extended Benefits paid shall be treated as if they were regular compensation up to the greater amount to which the individual has been determined to be entitled, and the State agency shall make appropriate adjustments between the regular and extended accounts. If the individual is entitled to more Extended Benefits as a result of being entitled to more regular compensation, an amended determination shall be made of the individual's entitlement to Extended Benefits. If the greater amount of regular compensation results in an increased duration of regular compensation, the individual's status as an exhaustee shall be redetermined as of the new date of exhaustion of regular compensation.

(3) If an individual who has received Extended Benefits for a week of unemployment is determined to be entitled to less regular compensation as the result of a redetermination or an appeal, and as a consequence is entitled to less Extended Benefits, any Extended Benefits paid in excess of the amount to which the individual is determined to be entitled after the redetermination or decision on appeal shall be considered an overpayment which the individual shall have to repay on the same basis and in the same manner that excess payments of regular compensation are required to be repaid under the applicable State law. If such decision reduces the duration of regular compensation payable to the individual, the claim for Extended Benefits shall be backdated to the earliest date, subsequent to the date when the redetermined regular compensation was exhausted and within the individual's eligibility period, that the individual was eligible to file a claim for Extended Benefits. Any such changes shall be made pursuant to an amended determination of the individual's entitlement to Extended Benefits.

§615.8

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(d) Reduction because of trade readjustment allowances. Section 233(d) of the Trade Act of 1974 (and section 204(a)(2)(C) of the Act), requiring a reduction of Extended Benefits because of the receipt of trade readjustment allowances, shall be applied as follows:

(1) The reduction of Extended Benefits shall apply only to an individual who has not exhausted his/her Extended Benefits at the end of the benefit year;

(2) The amount to be deducted is the product of the weekly benefit amount for Extended Benefits multiplied by the number of weeks for which trade readjustment allowances were paid (regardless of the amount paid for any such week) up to the close of the last week that begins in the benefit year; and

(3) The amount to be deducted shall be deducted from the balance of Extended Benefits not used as of the close of the last week which begins in the benefit year.

§615.8 Provisions of State law applicable to claims.

(a) Particular provisions applicable. Except where the result would be inconsistent with the provisions of the Act or this part, the terms and conditions of the applicable State law which apply to claims for, and the payment of, regular compensation shall apply to claims for, and the payment of, Extended Benefits. The provisions of the applicable State law which shall apply to claims for, and the payment of, Extended Benefits include, but are not limited to:

(1) Claim filing and reporting;

(2) Information to individuals, as appropriate;

(3) Notices to individuals and employers, as appropriate;

(4) Determinations, redeterminations, and appeal and review;

(5) Ability to work and availability for work, except as provided otherwise in this section;

(6) Disqualifications, including disqualifying income provisions, except as provided by paragraph (c) of this section;

(7) Overpayments, and the recovery thereof;

(8) Administrative and criminal penalties;

(9) The Interstate Benefit Payment Plan;

(10) The Interstate Arrangement for Combining Employment and Wages, in accordance with part 616 of this chapter.

(b) Provisions not to be applicable. The State law and regulations shall specify those of its terms and conditions which shall not be applicable to claims for, or payment of, Extended Benefits. Among such terms and conditions shall be at least those relating to—

(1) Any waiting period;

(2) Monetary or other qualifying requirements, except as provided in §615.4(b); and

(3) Computation of weekly and total regular compensation.

(c) Terminating disqualifications. A disqualification in a State law, as to any individual who voluntarily left work, was suspended or discharged for misconduct, gross misconduct or the commission or conviction of a crime, or refused an offer of or a referral to work, as provided in sections 202(a) (4) and (6) of the Act—

(1) As applied to regular benefits which are not sharable, is not subject to any limitation in sections 202(a) (4) and (6);

(2) As applied to eligibility for Extended Benefits, shall require that the individual be employed again subsequent to the date of the disqualification before it may be terminated, even though it may have been terminated on other grounds for regular benefits which are not sharable; and if the State law does not also apply this provision to the payment of what would otherwise be sharable regular benefits, the State will not be entitled to a payment under the Act and §615.14 in regard to such regular compensation; and

(3) Will not apply in regard to eligibility for Extended Benefits in a subsequent eligibility period.

(d) Classification and determination of job prospects. (1) As to each individual who files an initial claim for Extended

Benefits (or sharable regular compensation), the State agency shall classify the individual's prospects for obtaining work in his/her customary occupation within a reasonably short period, as "good" or "not good," and shall promptly (not later than the end of the week in which the initial claim is filed) notify the individual in writing of such classification and of the requirements applicable to the individual under the provisions of the applicable State law corresponding to section 202(a)(3) of the Act and this part. Such requirements shall be applicable beginning with the week following the week in which the individual is furnished such written notice.

(2) If an individual is thus classified as having good prospects, but those prospects are not realized by the close of the period the State law specifies as a reasonably short period, the individual's prospects will be automatically reclassified as "not good" or classified as "good" or "not good" depending on the individual's job prospects as of that date.

(3) Whenever, as part of a determination of an individual's eligibility for benefits, an issue arises concerning the individual's failure to apply for or accept an offer of work (sections 202(a)(3)(A)(i) and (F) of the Act and paragraphs (e) and (f) of this section), or to actively engage in seeking work (sections 202(a)(3)(A)(ii) and (E) of the Act and paragraph (g) of this section), a written appealable determination shall be made which includes a finding as to the individual's job prospects at the time the issue arose. The reasons for allowing or denying benefits in the written notice of determination shall explain how the individual's job prospects relate to the decision to allow or deny benefits.

(4) If an individual's job prospects are determined in accordance with the preceding paragraph (3) to be "good," the suitability of work will be determined under the standard State law provisions applicable to claimants for regular compensation which is not sharable; and if determined to be "not good," the suitability of work will be determined under the definition of suitable work in the State law provisions corresponding to sections

202(a)(3) (C) and (D) of the Act and this part. Any determination or classification of an individual's job prospects is mutually exclusive, and only one suitable work definition shall be applied to a claimant as to any failure to accept or apply for work or seek work with respect to any week.

(e) Requirement of referral to work. (1) The State law shall provide, as required by section 202(a)(3)(F) of the Act and this part, that the State agency shall refer every claimant for Extended Benefits to work which is "suitable work" as provided in paragraph (d)(4) of this section, beginning with the week following the week in which the individual is furnished a written notice of classification of job prospects as required by paragraphs (d)(1) and (h) of this section.

(2) To make such referrals, the State agency shall assure that each Extended Benefit claimant is registered for work and continues to be considered for referral to job openings as long as he/she continues to claim benefits.

(3) In referring claimants to available job openings, the State agency shall apply to Extended Benefit claimants the same priorities, policies, and judgments as it does to other applicants, except that it shall not restrict referrals only to work at higher skill levels, prior rates of pay, customary work, or preferences as to work or pay for individuals whose prospects of obtaining work in their customary occupations have been classified as or determined to be "not good."

(4) For referral purposes, any work which does not exceed the individual's capabilities shall be considered suitable work for an Extended Benefit claimant whose job prospects have been classified as or determined to be "not good", except as modified by this paragraph (e).

(5) For Extended Benefit claimants whose prospects of obtaining work in their customary occupations have been classified as or determined to be "not good", work shall not be suitable, and referral to a job shall not be made, if—

(i) The gross average weekly remuneration for the work for any week does not exceed the sum of the individual's weekly benefit amount plus any supplemental unemployment benefits

§615.8

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(SUB) (as defined in section 501(c)(17)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) payable to the individual,

(ii) The work is not offered in writing or is not listed with the State employment service,

(iii) The work pays less than the higher of the minimum wage set in section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, without regard to any exemption, or any applicable State or local minimum wage, or

(iv) Failure to accept or apply for the work would not result in a denial of compensation under the provisions of the applicable State law as defined in §615.2(o)(7).

(6) In addition, if the State agency classifies or determines that an individual's prospects for obtaining work in his/her customary occupation within a reasonably short period are "good," referral shall not be made to a job if such referral would not be made under the State law provisions applicable to claimants for regular benefits which are not sharable, and such referrals shall be limited to work which the individual is required to make a "systematic and sustained effort" to search for as defined in §615.2(o)(8).

(7) For the purposes of the foregoing paragraphs of this paragraph (e), State law applies regarding whether members of labor organizations shall be referred to nonunion work in their customary occupations.

(8) If the State law does not also apply this paragraph (e) to individuals who claim what would otherwise be sharable regular compensation, the State will not be entitled to payment under the Act and §615.14 in regard to such regular compensation.

(f) Refusal of work. (1) The State law shall provide, as required by section 202(a)(3)(A)(i) of the Act and this part, that if an individual who claims Extended Benefits fails to accept an offer of work or fails to apply for work to which he/she was referred by the State agency—

(i) If the individual's prospects for obtaining work in his/her customary occupation within a reasonably short period are determined to be "good," the State agency shall determine whether the work is suitable under the standard State law provisions which

apply to claimants for regular compensation which is not sharable, and if determined to be suitable the individual shall be ineligible for Extended Benefits for the week in which the individual fails to apply for or accept an offer of suitable work and thereafter until the individual is employed in at least four weeks with wages from such employment totalling not less than four times the individual's weekly benefit amount, as provided by the applicable State law; or

(ii) If the individual's prospects for obtaining work in his/her customary occupation are determined to be "not good," the State agency shall determine whether the work is suitable under the applicable State law provisions corresponding to sections 202(a)(3) (C) and (D) of the Act and paragraphs (e)(5) and (f)(2) of this section, and if determined to be suitable the individual shall be ineligible for Extended Benefits for the week in which the individual fails to apply for or accept an offer of suitable work and thereafter until the individual is employed in at least four weeks with wages from such employment totalling not less than four times the individual's weekly benefit amount, as provided by the applicable State law.

(2) For an individual whose prospects of obtaining work in his/her customary occupation within the period specified by State law are classified or determined to be "not good," the term "suitable work" shall mean any work which is within the individual's capabilities, except that work shall not be suitable if—

(i) The gross average weekly remuneration for the work for any week does not exceed the sum of the individual's weekly benefit amount plus any supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) (as defined in section 501(c)(17)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) payable to the individual,

(ii) The work is not offered in writing or is not listed with the State employment service, or

(iii) The work pays less than the higher of the minimum wage set in section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, without regard to any exemption, or any applicable State or local minimum wage,

(iv) Failure to accept or apply for the work would not result in a denial of compensation under the provisions of the applicable State law as defined in § 615.2(o)(7).

(3) For the purposes of the foregoing paragraphs of this paragraph (f), State law applies regarding whether members of labor organizations shall be referred to nonunion work in their customary occupations.

(4) If the State law does not also apply this paragraph (f) to individuals who claim what would otherwise be sharable regular compensation, the State will not be entitled to payment under the Act and § 615.14 in regard to such regular compensation.

(g) Actively seeking work. (1) The State law shall provide, as required by sections 202(a)(3) (A)(ii) and (E) of the Act and this part, that an individual who claims Extended Benefits shall be required to make a systematic and sustained effort (as defined in § 615.2(o)(8)) to search for work which is "suitable work" as provided in paragraph (d)(4) of this section, throughout each week beginning with the week following the week in which the individual is furnished a written notice of classification of job prospects as required by paragraphs (d)(1) and (h) of this section, and to furnish to the State agency with each claim tangible evidence of such efforts.

(2) If the individual fails to thus search for work, or to furnish tangible evidence of such efforts, he/she shall be ineligible for Extended Benefits for the week in which the failure occurred and thereafter until the individual is employed in at least four weeks with wages from such employment totalling not less than four times the individual's weekly benefit amount, as provided by the applicable State law.

(3)(i) A State law may provide that eligibility for Extended Benefits be determined under the applicable provisions of State law for regular compensation which is not sharable, without regard to the active search provisions otherwise applicable in paragraph (g)(1) of this section, for any individual who fails to engage in a systematic and sustained search for work throughout any week because such individual is—

(A) Serving on jury duty, or

(B) Hospitalized for treatment of an emergency or life-threatening condition.

(ii) The conditions in (i) (A) and (B) must be applied to individuals filing claims for Extended Benefits in the same manner as applied to individuals filing claims for regular compensation which is not sharable compensation.

(4) For the purposes of the foregoing paragraphs of this paragraph (g), State law applies regarding whether members of labor organizations shall be required to seek nonunion work in their customary occupations.

(5) If the State law does not also apply this paragraph (g) to individuals who claim what would otherwise be sharable regular compensation, the State will not be entitled to payment under the Act and § 615.14 in regard to such regular compensation.

(h) Information to claimants. The State agency shall assure that each Extended Benefit claimant (and claimant for sharable regular compensation) is informed in writing—

(1) Of the State agency's classification of his/her prospects for finding work in his/her customary occupation within the time set out in paragraph (d) as "good" or "not good,"

(2) What kind of jobs he/she may be referred to, depending on the classification of his/her job prospects,

(3) What kind of jobs he/she must be actively engaged in seeking each week depending on the classification of his/her job prospects, and what tangible evidence of such search must be furnished to the State agency with each claim for benefits, and

(4) The resulting disqualification if he/she fails to apply for work to which referred, or fails to accept work offered, or fails to actively engage in seeking work or to furnish tangible evidence of such search for each week for which Extended Benefits or sharable regular benefits are claimed, beginning with the week following the week in which such information is furnished in writing to the individual.

§ 615.9 Restrictions on entitlement.

(a) Disqualifications. If the week of unemployment for which an individual claims Extended Benefits is a week to which a disqualification for regular compensation applies, including a reduction because of the receipt of disqualifying income, or would apply but for the fact that the individual has exhausted all rights to such compensation, the individual shall be disqualified in the same degree from receipt of Extended Benefits for that week.

§615.10

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) Additional compensation. No individual shall be paid additional compensation and Extended Benefits with respect to the same week. If both are payable by a State with respect to the same week, the State law may provide for the payment of Extended Benefits instead of additional compensation with respect to the week. If Extended Benefits are payable to an individual by one State and additional compensation is payable to the individual for the same week by another State, the individual may elect which of the two types of compensation to claim.

(c) Interstate claims. An individual who files claims for Extended Benefits under the Interstate Benefit Payment Plan, in a State which is not in an Extended Benefit Period for the week(s) for which Extended Benefits are claimed, shall not be paid more than the first two weeks for which he/she files such claims.

(d) Other restrictions. The restrictions on entitlement specified in this section are in addition to other restrictions in the Act and this part on eligibility for and entitlement to Extended Benefits.

§615.10 Special provisions for employers.

(a) Charging contributing employers. (1) Section 3303(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 3303(a)(1)) does not require that Extended Benefits paid to an individual be charged to the experience rating accounts of employers.

(2) A State law may, however, consistently with section 3303(a)(1), require the charging of Extended Benefits paid to an individual; and if it does, it may provide for charging all or any portion of such compensation paid.

(3) Sharable regular compensation must be charged as all other regular compensation is charged under the State law.

(b) Payments by reimbursing employers. If an employer is reimbursing the State unemployment fund in lieu of paying contributions pursuant to the requirements of State law conforming with sections 3304(a)(6)(B) and 3309(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 3304(a)(6)(B) and 3309(a)(2)), the State law shall require the employer to reimburse the State unemployment fund for not less than 50 percent of any sharable compensation that is attributable under the State law to service with such employer; and as to any compensation which is not sharable compensation under §615.14, the State law shall require the employer to reimburse the State unemployment fund for 100 percent, instead of 50 percent, of any such compensation paid.

§615.11 Extended Benefit Periods.

(a) Beginning date. Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, an Extended Benefit Period shall begin in a State on the first day of the third calendar week after a week for which there is a State “on” indicator in that State.

(b) Ending date. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, an Extended Benefit Period in a State shall end on the last day of the third week after the first week for which there is a State “off” indicator in that State.

(c) Duration. An Extended Benefit Period which becomes effective in any State shall continue in effect for not less than 13 consecutive weeks.

(d) Limitation. No Extended Benefit Period may begin in any State by reason of a State “on” indicator before the 14th week after the ending of a Prior Extended Benefit Period with respect to such State.

§615.12 Determination of “on” and “off” indicators.

(a) Standard State indicators. (1) There is a State “on” indicator in a State for a week if the head of the State agency determines, in accordance with this section, that, for the period consisting of that week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under the State law—

(i) Equalled or exceeded 120 percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding 13-week periods ending in each of the preceding two calendar years, and

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 615.12

(ii) Equalled or exceeded 5.0 percent.

(2) There is a State "off" indicator in a State for a week if the head of the State agency determines, in accordance with this section, that, for the period consisting of that week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under the State law—

(i) Was less than 120 percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding 13 week periods ending in each of the preceding two calendar years, or

(ii) Was less than 5.0 percent.

(3) The standard State indicators in this paragraph (a) shall apply to weeks beginning after September 25, 1982.

(b) Optional State indicators. (1)(i) A State may, in addition to the State indicators in paragraph (a) of this section, provide by its law that there shall be a State "on" indicator in the State for a week if the head of the State agency determines, in accordance with this section, that, for the period consisting of that week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under the State law equalled or exceeded 6.0 percent even though it did not meet the 120 percent factor required under paragraph (a).

(ii) A State which adopts the optional State indicator must also provide that, when it is in an Extended Benefit Period, there will not be an "off" indicator until (A) the State rate of insured unemployment is less than 6.0 percent, and (B) either its rate of insured unemployment is less than 5.0 percent or is less than 120 percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding 13-week periods ending in each of the preceding two calendar years.

(2) The optional State indicators in this paragraph (b) shall apply to weeks beginning after September 25, 1982.

(c) Computation of rate of insured unemployment—(1) Equation. Each week the State agency head shall calculate the rate of insured unemployment under the State law (not seasonally adjusted) for purposes of determining the State "on" and "off" and "no change" indicators. In making such calculations the State agency head shall use a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the weekly average number of weeks claimed in claims filed (not seasonally adjusted) in the State in the 13-week period ending with the week for which the determination is made, and the denominator of which shall be the average monthly employment covered by the State law for the first four of the last six calendar quarters ending before the close of the 13-week period. The quotient obtained is to be computed to four decimal places, and is not otherwise rounded, and is to be expressed as a percentage by multiplying the resultant decimal fraction by 100.

(2) Counting weeks claimed. To determine the average number of weeks claimed in claims filed to serve as the numerator under paragraph (c)(1), the State agency shall include claims for all weeks for regular compensation, including claims taken as agent State under the Interstate Benefit Payment Plan. It shall exclude claims—

(i) For Extended Benefits under any State law,

(ii) For additional compensation under any State law, and

(iii) Under any Federal law except joint claims which combine regular compensation and compensation payable under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85.

(3) Method of computing the State 120 percent factor. The rate of insured unemployment for a current 13-week period shall be divided by the average of the rates of insured unemployment for the corresponding 13-week periods in each of the two preceding calendar years to determine whether the rate is equal to 120 percent of the average rate for the two years. The quotient obtained shall be computed to four decimal places and not otherwise rounded, and shall be expressed as a percentage by multiplying the resultant decimal fraction by 100. The average of the rates for the corresponding 13-week periods in each of the two preceding calendar years shall be one-half the sum of such rates computed to four decimal places and not otherwise rounded. To determine which are the corresponding weeks in the preceding years—

(i) The weeks shall be numbered starting with week number 1 as the first week ending in each calendar year.

§615.13

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(ii) The 13-week period ending with any numbered week in the current year shall correspond to the period ending with that same numbered week in each preceding year.

(iii) When that period in the current year ends with week number 53, the corresponding period in preceding years shall end with week number 52 if there is no week number 53.

(1) Because figures used for determinations under this section may contain errors and because it is not practical to apply any correction in a State “on” or “off” or “no change” indicator retroactively either to recover amounts paid or to adjudicate claims for past periods in which claimants failed to make the required active search for work, any determination by the head of a State agency of an “on” or “off” or “no change” indicator shall not be corrected more than three weeks after the close of the week to which it applies. If any figure used in the computation of a rate of insured unemployment is later found to be wrong, the correct figure shall be used to redetermine the rate of insured unemployment and of the 120 percent factor for that week and all subsequent weeks, but no determination of previous “on” or “off” or “no change” indicator shall be affected unless the redetermination is made within the time the indicator may be corrected under the first sentence of this paragraph (d)(1). Any change hereunder shall be subject to the concurrence of the Department as provided in paragraph (e) of this section.

(2) Any determination of the rate of insured unemployment and its effect on an “on” or “off” or “no change” indicator may be challenged by appeal or by other proceedings, as shall be provided by State law, but the implementation of any change in the indicator from one week to another shall not be stayed or postponed. In a hearing on any such challenge the issue may be limited to the accuracy of the determination of the rate of insured unemployment. If an error in that rate affecting the “on” or “off” or “no change” indicator is discovered in such a hearing or other proceeding, its retroactive effect shall be limited as provided in paragraph (d)(1).

(e) Notice to Secretary. Within 10 calendar days after the end of any week with respect to which the head of a State agency has determined that there is an “on,” or “off,” or “no change” indicator in the State, the head of the State agency shall notify the Department of the determination. The notice shall state clearly the State agency head’s determination of the specific week for which there is a State “on” or “off” or “no change” indicator. The notice shall include also the State agency head’s findings supporting the determination, with a certification that the findings are made in accordance with the requirements of this §615.15. Determinations and findings made as provided in this section shall be accepted by the Department, but the head of the State agency shall comply with such provisions as the Department may find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of notices given under this paragraph. A notice shall not become final for purposes of the Act and this part until such notice is accepted by the Department.

§615.13 Announcement of the beginning and ending of Extended Benefit Periods.

(a) State indicators. Upon receipt of the notice required by §615.12(e) which is acceptable to the Department, the Department shall publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice of the State agency head’s determination that there is an “on” or an “off” indicator in the State, as the case may be, the name of the State and the beginning or ending of the Extended Benefit Period, whichever is appropriate. The Department shall also notify appropriate news media, the heads of all other State agencies, and the Regional Administrators of the Employment and Training Administration of the State agency head’s determination of such State “on” or “off” indicator and of its effect.

(b) Publicity by State. Whenever a State agency head determines that there is an “on” indicator in the State by reason of which an Extended Benefit Period will begin in the State, or an “off” indicator by reason of which an Extended Benefit Period in the State will end, the head of the State agency shall promptly announce the determination through appropriate news media in the State and notify the Department in accordance with §615.12(e). Such announcement shall include the beginning or ending date of the Extended Benefit Period, whichever is appropriate. In the case of an Extended Benefit Period that is about to begin, the announcement shall describe clearly the unemployed individuals who may be eligible for Extended Benefits during the period, and in the case of an Extended Benefit Period that is about to end, the announcement shall also describe clearly the individuals whose entitlement to Extended Benefits will be terminated.

(c) Notices to individuals. (1) Whenever there has been a determination that an Extended Benefit Period will begin in a State, the State agency shall provide prompt written notice of potential entitlement to Extended Benefits to each individual who has established a benefit year in the State that will not end prior to the beginning of the Extended Benefit Period, and who exhausted all rights under the State law to regular compensation before the beginning of the Extended Benefit Period.

(2) The State agency shall provide such notice promptly to each individual who begins to claim sharable regular benefits or who exhausts all rights under the State law to regular compensation during an Extended Benefit Period, including exhaustion by reason of the expiration of the individual's benefit year.

(3) The notices required by paragraphs (c) (1) and (2) of this section shall describe those actions required of claimants for sharable regular compensation and Extended Benefits and those disqualifications which apply to such benefits which are different from those applicable to other claimants for regular compensation which is not sharable.

(4) Whenever there has been a determination that an Extended Benefit Period will end in a State, the State agency shall provide prompt written notice to each individual who is currently filing claims for Extended Benefits of the forthcoming end of the Extended Benefit Period and its effect on the individual's right to Extended Benefits.

§ 615.14 Payments to States.

(a) Sharable compensation. (1) The Department shall promptly upon receipt of a State's report of its expenditures for a calendar month reimburse the State in the amount of the sharable compensation the State is entitled to receive under the Act and this part.

(2) The Department may instead advance to a State for any period not greater than one day the amount the Department estimates the State will be entitled to be paid under the Act and this part for that period.

(3) Any payment to a State under this section shall be based upon the Department's determination of the amount the State is entitled to be paid under the Act and this part, and such amount shall be reduced or increased, as the case may be, by any amount by which the Department finds that a previous payment was greater or less than the amount that should have been paid to the State.

(4) Any payment to a State pursuant to this paragraph (a) shall be made by a transfer from the extended unemployment compensation account in the Unemployment Trust Fund to the account of the State in such Fund, in accordance with section 204(e) of the Act.

(b) Payments not to be made to States. Because a State law must contain provisions fully consistent with sections 202 and 203 of the Act, the Department shall make no payment under paragraph (a) of this section, whether or not the State is certified under section 3304(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986—

(1) In respect of any regular or extended compensation paid to any individual for any week if the State does not apply—

(i) The provisions of the State law required by section 202(a)(3) and this part, relating to failure to accept work offered or to apply for work or to actively engage in seeking work, as to weeks beginning after October 31, 1981, except for any State which the State legislature did not meet in 1981 as to weeks beginning after October 1, 1982 or the provisions of State law required by section 202(a)(4) and this part, relating to terminating a disqualification, as to weeks beginning after March 31, 1981;

(ii) The provisions of the State law required by section 202(a)(5) and this part, relating to qualifying employment, as to weeks beginning after September 25, 1982; or

(2) In respect of any regular or extended compensation paid to any individual for any week which was not payable by reason of the provision of the State law required by section 202(c) and this part, as to weeks which begin after May 31, 1981, or May 31, 1982, as determined by the Department with regard to each State.

(c) Payments not to be reimbursed. The Department shall make no payment under paragraph (a) of this section, whether or not the State is certified under section 3304(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, in respect of any regular or extended compensation paid under a State law—

(1) As provided in section 204(a)(1) of the Act and this part, if the payment made was not sharable extended compensation or sharable regular compensation;

(2) As provided in section 204(a)(2)(A) of the Act, if the State is entitled to reimbursement for the payment under the provisions of any Federal law other than the Act;

(3) As provided in section 204(a)(2)(B) of the Act, if for the first week in an individual's eligibility period with respect to which Extended Benefits or sharable regular benefits are paid to the individual, that first week begins after December 5, 1980, and the State law provides for the payment (at any time or under any circumstances) of regular compensation to any individual for the first week of unemployment in any such individual's benefit year; except that—

(i) In the case of a State with respect to which the Department finds that legislation is required in order to end the payment (at any time or under any circumstances) of regular compensation for any such first week of unemployment, this paragraph (c)(3) shall not apply to the first week in an individual's eligibility period which began before the end of the first regularly scheduled session of the State legislature that ends after January 4, 1981, as determined by the Department; and

(ii) In the case of a State law which is changed so that regular compensation is not paid at any time or under any circumstances with respect to the first week of unemployment in any individual's benefit year, this paragraph (c)(3) shall not apply to any week which begins after the effective date of such change in the State law; and

(iii) In the case of a State law which is changed so that regular compensation is paid at any time or under any circumstances with respect to the first week of unemployment in any individual's benefit year, this paragraph (c)(3) shall apply to all weeks which begin after the effective date of such change in the State law;

(4) As provided in section 204(a)(2)(C) of the Act and this part, for any week with respect to which Extended Benefits are not payable because of the payment of trade readjustment allowances, as provided in section 233(d) of the Trade Act of 1974, and §615.7(d). This paragraph (c)(4) applies to any week which begins after October 31, 1982, or 1983, as determined by the Department in regard to each State;

(5) As provided in section 204(a)(2)(D) of the Act and this part, if the State does not provide for a benefit structure under which benefits are rounded down to the next lower dollar amount, for the 50 percent Federal share of the amount by which sharable regular or Extended Benefits paid to any individual exceeds the nearest lower full dollar amount. This paragraph (c)(5) shall apply to any sharable regular compensation or Extended Benefits paid to individuals whose eligibility periods begin on or after October 1, 1983, unless a later date, as determined by the Department, applies in a particular State under the grace period of section 191(b)(2) of Pub. L. 97-248;

(6) As provided in section 204(a)(3) of the Act, to the extent that such compensation is based upon employment and wages in service performed for governmental entities or instrumentalities to which section 3306(c)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 3306(c)(7)) applies, in the proportion that wages for such service in the base period bear to the total base period wages;

(7) If the payment made was not sharable extended compensation or sharable regular compensation because the payment was not consistent with the requirements of—

(i) Section 202(a)(3) of the Act, and § 615.8 (e), (f), or (g);

(ii) Section 202(a)(4) of the Act, and § 615.8(c); or

(iii) Section 202(a)(5) of the Act, and § 615.4(b);

(8) If the payment made was not sharable extended compensation or sharable regular compensation because there was not in effect in the State an Extended Benefit Period in accord with the Act and this part; or

(9) For any week with respect to which the claimant was either ineligible for or not entitled to the payment.

(d) Effectuating authorization for reimbursement. (1) If the Department believes that reimbursement should not be authorized with respect to any payments made by a State that are claimed to be sharable compensation paid by the State, because the State law does not contain provisions required by the Act and this part, or because such law is not interpreted or applied in rules, regulations, determinations or decisions in a manner that is consistent with those requirements, the Department may at any time notify the State agency in writing of the Department's view. The State agency shall be given an opportunity to present its views and arguments if desired.

(2) The Department shall thereupon decide whether the State law fails to include the required provisions or is not interpreted and applied so as to satisfy the requirements of the Act and this part. If the Department finds that such requirements are not met, the Department shall notify the State agency of its decision and the effect thereof on the State's entitlement to reimbursement under this section and the provisions of section 204 of the Act.

(3) Thereafter, the Department shall not authorize any payment under paragraph (a) of this section in respect of any sharable regular or extended compensation if the State law does not contain all of the provisions required by sections 202 and 203 of the Act and this part, or if the State law, rules, regulations, determinations or decisions are not consistent with such requirements, or which would not have been payable if the State law contained the provisions required by the Act and this part or if the State law, rules, regulations, determinations or decisions had been consistent with such requirements. Loss of reimbursement for such compensation shall begin with the date the State law was required to contain such provisions, and shall continue until such time as the Department finds that such law, rules and regulations have been revised or the interpretations followed pursuant to such determinations and decisions have been overruled and payments are made or denied so as to accord with the Federal law requirements of the Act and this part, but no reimbursement shall be authorized with respect to any payment that did not fully accord with the Act and this part.

(4) A State agency may request reconsideration of a decision issued pursuant to paragraph (d)(2) above, within 10 calendar days of the date of such decision, and shall be given an opportunity to present views and arguments if desired.

(5) Concurrence of the Department in any State law provision, rule, regulation, determination or decision shall not be presumed from the absence of notice issued pursuant to this section or from a certification of the State issued pursuant to section 3304(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

(6) Upon finding that a State has made payments for which it claims reimbursement that are not consistent with the Act or this part, such claim shall be denied; and if the State has already been paid such claim in advance or by reimbursement, it shall be required to repay the full amount to the Department. Such repayment may be made by transfer of funds from the State's account in the Unemployment Trust Fund to the Extended Unemployment Compensation Account in the Fund, or by offset against any current advances or reimbursements to which the State is otherwise entitled, or the amount repayable may be recovered for the Extended Unemployment Compensation Account by other means and from any other sources that may be available to the United States or the Department.

(e) Compensation under Federal unemployment compensation programs. The Department shall promptly reimburse each State which has paid sharable compensation based on service covered by the UCFE and UCX Programs (parts 609 and 614 of this chapter, respectively) pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85, an amount which represents the full amount of such sharable compensation paid under the State law, or may make advances to the State. Such amounts shall be paid from the Federal Employees Compensation Account established for those programs, rather than from the Extended Unemployment Compensation Account.

(f) Combined-wage claims. If an individual was paid benefits under the Interstate Arrangement for Combining Employment and Wages (part 616 of this chapter) any payment required by paragraph (a) of this section shall be made to the States which contributed the wage credits.

(g) Interstate claims. Where sharable compensation is paid to an individual under the provisions of the Interstate Benefit Payment Plan, any payment required by paragraph (a) of this section shall be made only to the liable State.

§615.15 Records and reports.

(a) General. State agencies shall furnish to the Secretary such information and reports and make such studies as the Secretary decides are necessary or appropriate for carrying out the purposes of the Act and this part.

(b) Recordkeeping. Each State agency will make and maintain records pertaining to the administration of the Extended Benefit Program as the Department requires, and will make all such records available for inspection, examination and audit by such Federal officials or employees as the Secretary or the Department may designate or as may be required by law.

(c) Weekly report of Extended Benefit data. Each State shall file with the Department within 10 calendar days after the end of each calendar week a weekly report entitled ETA 539, Extended Benefit Data. The report shall include:

(1) The data reported on the form ETA 539 for the week ending (date). Week-ending dates shall always be the Saturday ending date of the calendar week beginning at 12:01 a.m. Sunday and ending 12:00 p.m. Saturday.

(2)(i) The number of continued weeks claimed for regular compensation in claims filed during the week ending (date). The report shall include intrastate continued weeks claimed and interstate continued weeks claimed (taken as agent State) but shall exclude interstate continued weeks claimed (received as liable State) and continued weeks claimed for regular compensation filed solely under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85; and

(ii) The report of the number of continued weeks claimed filed in the State for regular compensation shall not be adjusted for seasonality.

(3) The average weekly number of weeks claimed in claims filed in the most recent calendar week and the immediately preceding 12 calendar weeks.

(4) The rate of insured unemployment for the current 13-week period.

(5) The average of the rates of insured unemployment in corresponding 13-week periods in the preceding two years.

(6) The current rate of insured unemployment as a percentage of the average of the rates in the corresponding 13-week periods in the preceding two years.

(7) The 12 month average monthly employment covered by the State law for the first 4 of the last 6 complete calendar quarters ending prior to the end of the last week of the current 13-week period to which the insured unemployment data relate. Such covered employment shall exclude Federal civilian and military employment covered by 5 U.S.C. chapter 85.

(8) The date that a State Extended Benefit Period begins or ends, or a report that there is no change in the existing Extended Benefit Period status.

(d) Methodology. The State agency head shall submit to the Department, for approval, the method used to identify and select the weeks claimed which are used in the determination of AUTHORITY: Sec. 3304(a)(9)(B), 84 Stat. 702; 26 U.S.C. 3304(a)(9)(B); Secretary's Order No. 20-71, August 13, 1971.

§ 616.1 Purpose of arrangement.

This arrangement is approved by the Secretary under the provisions of section 3304(a)(9)(B) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act to establish a system whereby an unemployed worker with covered employment or wages in more than one State may combine all such employment and wages in one State, in order to qualify for benefits or to receive more benefits.

§ 616.2 Consultation with the State agencies.

As required by section 3304(a)(9)(B), this arrangement has been developed in consultation with the State unemployment compensation agencies. For purposes of such consultation in its formulation and any future amendment the Secretary recognizes, as agents of the State agencies, the duly designated representatives of the Interstate Conference of Employment Security Agencies.

§ 616.3 Interstate cooperation.

Each State agency will cooperate with every other State agency by implementing such rules, regulations, and procedures as may be prescribed for the operation of this arrangement. Each State agency shall identify the paying and the transferring State with respect to Combined-Wage Claims filed in its State.

§ 616.4 Rules, regulations, procedures, forms—resolution of disagreements.

All State agencies shall operate in accordance with such rules, regulations, and procedures, and shall use such forms, as shall be prescribed by the Secretary in consultation with the State unemployment compensation agencies. All rules, regulations, and standards prescribed by the Secretary with respect to intrastate claims will apply to claims filed under this arrangement unless they are clearly inconsistent with the arrangement. The Secretary shall resolve any disagreement between State agencies concerning the operation of the arrangement, with the advice of the duly designated representatives of the State agencies.

§ 616.5 Effective date.

This arrangement shall apply to all new claims (to establish a benefit year) filed under it after December 31, 1971.

§ 616.6 Definitions.

These definitions apply for the purpose of this arrangement and the procedures issued to effectuate it.

(a) State. “State” includes the States of the United States of America, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and includes the Virgin Islands effective on the day after the day on which the Secretary approves under section 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 3304(a)), an unemployment compensation law submitted to the Secretary by the Virgin Islands for approval.

(b) State agency. The agency which administers the unemployment compensation law of a State.

(c) Combined-Wage Claim. A claim filed under this arrangement.

§616.7

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(d) Combined-Wage Claimant. A claimant who has covered wages under the unemployment compensation law of more than one State and who has filed a claim under this arrangement.

(e) Paying State. (1) The State in which a Combined-Wage Claimant files a Combined-Wage Claim, if the claimant qualifies for unemployment benefits in that State on the basis of combined employment and wages.

(2) If the State in which a Combined-Wage Claimant files a Combined-Wage Claim is not the Paying State under the criterion set forth in paragraph (e)(1) of this section, or if the Combined-Wage Claim is filed in Canada or the Virgin Islands, then the Paying State shall be that State where the Combined-Wage Claimant was last employed in covered employment among the States in which the claimant qualifies for unemployment benefits on the basis of combined employment and wages: Provided, That, this paragraph (e)(2) shall read as if the Virgin Islands was not referred to therein, effective on the day after the day on which the Secretary approves under section 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 3304(a)), an unemployment compensation law submitted to the Secretary by the Virgin Islands for approval.

(f) Transferring State. A State in which a Combined-Wage Claimant had covered employment and wages in the base period of a paying State, and which transfers such employment and wages to the paying State for its use in determining the benefit rights of such claimant under its law.

(g) Employment and wages. “Employment” refers to all services which are covered under the unemployment compensation law of a State, whether expressed in terms of weeks of work or otherwise. “Wages” refers to all remuneration for such employment.

(h) Secretary. The Secretary of Labor of the United States.

(i) Base period and benefit year. The base period and benefit year applicable under the unemployment compensation law of the paying State.

[36 FR 24992, Dec. 28, 1971, as amended at 39 FR 45215, Dec. 31, 1974; 43 FR 2625, Jan. 17, 1978]

§616.7 Election to file a Combined-Wage Claim.

(a) Any unemployed individual who has had employment covered under the unemployment compensation law of two or more States, whether or not he is monetarily qualified under one or more of them, may elect to file a Combined-Wage Claim. He may not so elect, however, if he has established a benefit year under any State or Federal unemployment compensation law and:

(1) The benefit year has not ended, and

(2) He still has unused benefit rights based on such benefit year.<sup>1</sup>

(b) For the purposes of this arrangement, a claimant will not be considered to have unused benefit rights based on a benefit year which he has established under a State or Federal unemployment compensation law if:

(1) He has exhausted his rights to all benefits based on such benefit year; or

(2) His rights to such benefits have been postponed for an indefinite period or for the entire period in which benefits would otherwise be payable; or

(3) Benefits are affected by the application of a seasonal restriction.

(c) If an individual elects to file a Combined-Wage Claim, all employment and wages in all States in which he worked during the base period of the paying State must be included in such combining, except employment and wages which are not transferrable under the provisions of §616.9(b).

(d) A Combined-Wage Claimant may withdraw his Combined-Wage Claim within the period prescribed by the law of the paying State for filing an appeal, protest, or request for redetermination

<sup>1</sup>The Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970, title II, Public Law 91-373, section 202(a)(1), limits the payment of extended benefits with respect to any week to individuals who have no rights to regular compensation with respect to such week under any State unemployment compensation law or to compensation under any other Federal law and in certain other instances. This provision precludes any individual from receiving any Federal-State extended benefits with respect to any week for which he is eligible to receive regular benefits based on a Combined Wage Claim. (See section 5752, part V of the Employment Security Manual.)

(as the case may be) from the monetary determination of the Combined-Wage Claim, provided he either:

(1) Repays in full any benefits paid to him thereunder, or

(2) Authorizes the State(s) against which he files a substitute claim(s) for benefits to withhold and forward to the paying State a sum sufficient to repay such benefits.

(e) If the Combined-Wage Claimant files his claim in a State other than the paying State, he shall do so pursuant to the Interstate Benefit Payment Plan.

§616.8 Responsibilities of the paying State.

(a) Transfer of employment and wages—payment of benefits. The paying State shall request the transfer of a Combined-Wage Claimant's employment and wages in all States during its base period, and shall determine his entitlement to benefits (including additional benefits, extended benefits and dependents' allowances when applicable) under the provisions of its law based on employment and wages in the paying State, if any, and all such employment and wages transferred to it hereunder. The paying State shall apply all the provisions of its law to each determination made hereunder, even if the Combined-Wage Claimant has no earnings in covered employment in that State, except that the paying State may not determine an issue which has previously been adjudicated by a transferring State. Such exception shall not apply, however, if the transferring State's determination of the issue resulted in making the Combined-Wage Claim possible under §616.7(b)(2). If the paying State fails to establish a benefit year for the Combined-Wage Claimant, or if he withdraws his claim as provided herein, it shall return to each transferring State all employment and wages thus unused.

(b) Notices of determination. The paying State shall give to the claimant a notice of each of its determinations on his Combined-Wage Claim that he is required to receive under the Secretary's Claim Determinations Standard and the contents of such notice shall meet such Standard. When the claimant is filing his Combined-Wage Claims in a State other than the paying State, the paying State shall send a copy of each such notice to the local office in which the claimant filed such claims.

(c) Redeterminations. (1) Redeterminations may be made by the paying State in accordance with its law based on additional or corrected information received from any source, including a transferring State, except that such information shall not be used as a basis for changing the paying State if benefits have been paid under the Combined-Wage Claim.

(2) When a determination is made, as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, which suspends the use of wages earned in employment with an educational institution during a prescribed period between successive academic years or terms or other periods as prescribed in the law of the paying State in accordance with section 3304(a)(6)(A)(i)-(iv) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the paying State shall furnish each transferring State involved in the combined-Wage Claim an adjusted determination used to recompute each State's proportionate share of any charges that may accumulate for benefits paid during the period of suspended use of school wages. Wages which are suspended shall be retained by the paying State for possible future reinstatement to the Combined-Wage Claim and shall not be returned to the transferring State.

(d) Appeals. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (d)(3) of this section, where the claimant files his Combined-Wage Claim in the paying State, any protest, request for redetermination or appeal shall be in accordance with the law of such State.

(2) Where the claimant files his Combined-Wage Claim in a State other than the paying State, or under the circumstances described in paragraph (d)(3) of this section, any protest, request for redetermination or appeal shall be in accordance with the Interstate Benefit Payment Plan.

(3) To the extent that any protest, request for redetermination or appeal involves a dispute as to the coverage of the employing unit or services in a transferring State, or otherwise involves the amount of employment and wages subject to transfer, the protest, request for redetermination or appeal shall be decided by the transferring State in accordance with its law.

(e) Recovery of prior overpayments. If there is an overpayment outstanding in a transferring State and such transferring State so requests, the overpayment shall be deducted from any benefits the paying State would otherwise pay to the claimant on his Combined-Wage Claim except to the extent prohibited by the law of the paying State. The paying State shall transmit the amount deducted to the transferring State or credit the deduction against the transferring State's required reimbursement under this arrangement. This paragraph shall apply to overpayments only if the transferring State certifies to the paying State that the determination of overpayment was made within 3 years before the Combined-Wage Claim was filed and that repayment by the claimant is legally required and enforceable against him under the law of the transferring State.

(f) Statement of benefit charges. (1) At the close of each calendar quarter, the paying State shall send each transferring State a statement of benefits charged during such quarter to such State as to each Combined-Wage Claimant.

(2) Except as provided in paragraphs (c)(2), (f)(3), and (f)(5) of this section, each such charge shall bear the same ratio to the total benefits paid to the Combined-Wage Claimant by the paying State as the claimant's wages transferred by the transferring State bear to the total wages used in such determination. Each such ratio shall be computed as a percentage, to three or more decimal places.

(3) Charges to the transferring State shall not include the costs of any benefits paid which are funded or reimbursed from the Federal Unemployment Benefits and Allowances account in the U.S. Department of Labor appropriation, including:

(i) Benefits paid pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 8501-8525; and

(ii) Benefits which are reimbursable under part B of title II of the Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act of 1974 (Pub. L. 93-567).

(4) With respect to benefits paid after December 31, 1978, except as provided in paragraphs (f)(3) and (f)(5) of this section, all transferring States will be charged by the paying State for Extended Benefits in the same manner as for regular benefits.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(5) With respect to new claims establishing a benefit year effective on and after July 1, 1977, the United States shall be charged directly by the paying State, in the same manner as is provided in paragraphs (f)(1) and (f)(2) of this section, in regard to Federal civilian service and wages and Federal military service and wages assigned or transferred to the paying State and included in Combined-Wage Claims in accordance with this part and parts 609 and 614 of this chapter. With respect to new claims effective before July 1, 1977, prior law shall apply.

[36 FR 24992, Dec. 28, 1971, as amended at 43 FR 2625, Jan. 17, 1978; 45 FR 47109, July 11, 1980]

§616.9 Responsibilities of transferring States.

(a) Transfer of employment and wages. Each transferring State shall promptly transfer to the Paying State the employment and wages the Combined-Wage Claimant had in covered employment during the base period of the paying State. Any employment and wages so transferred shall be transferred without restriction as to their use for determination and benefit payments under the provisions of the paying State's law.

(b) Employment and wages not transferable. Employment and wages transferred to the paying State by a transferring State shall not include:

(1) Any employment and wages which have been transferred to any other paying State and not returned unused, or which have been used in the transferring State as the basis of a monetary determination which established a benefit year.

(2) Any employment and wages which have been canceled or are otherwise unavailable to the claimant as a result of a determination by the transferring State made prior to its receipt of the request for transfer, if such determination has become final or is in the process of appeal but is still pending. If the appeal is finally decided in favor of the Combined-Wage Claimant, any employment and wages involved in the appeal shall forthwith be transferred to the paying State and any necessary re-determination shall be made by such paying State.

(c) Reimbursement of paying State. Each transferring State shall, as soon as practicable after receipt of a quarterly statement of charges described herein, reimburse the paying State accordingly.

§ 616.10 Reuse of employment and wages.

Employment and wages which have been used under this arrangement for a determination of benefits which establishes a benefit year shall not thereafter be used by any State as the basis for another monetary determination of benefits.

§ 616.11 Amendment of arrangement.

Periodically the Secretary shall review the operation of this arrangement, and shall propose such amendments to the arrangement as he believes are necessary or appropriate. Any State unemployment compensation agency or the ICESA may propose amendments to the arrangement. Any proposal shall constitute an amendment to the arrangement upon approval by the Secretary in consultation with the State unemployment compensation agencies. Any such amendment shall specify when the change shall take effect, and to which claims it shall apply.

Subpart A—General*§ 617.1 Scope.

The regulations in this part 617 pertain to:

- (a) Adjustment assistance, such as counseling, testing, training, placement, and other supportive services for workers adversely affected under the terms of chapter 2 of title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (hereafter referred to as the Act);
 (b) Trade readjustment allowances (hereafter referred to as TRA) and other allowances such as allowances while in training, job search and relocation allowances; and
 (c) Administrative requirements applicable to State agencies to which such individuals may apply.

§ 617.2 Purpose.

The Act created a program of trade adjustment assistance (hereafter referred to as TAA) to assist individuals, who became unemployed as a result of increased imports, return to suitable employment. The TAA program provides for reemployment services and allowances for eligible individuals. The regulations in this part 617 are issued to implement the Act.

§ 617.3 Definitions.

For the purposes of the Act and this part 617:

(a) Act means chapter 2 of title II of the Trade Act of 1974, Pub. L. 93-618, 88 Stat. 1978, 2019-2030 (19 U.S.C. 2271-2322), as amended.

(b) Adversely affected employment means employment in a firm or appropriate subdivision of a firm, including workers in any agricultural firm or subdivision of an agricultural firm, if workers of such firm or appropriate subdivision are certified under the Act as eligible to apply for TAA.

(c) Adversely affected worker means an individual who, because of lack of work in adversely affected employment:

- (1) Has been totally or partially separated from such employment; or
- (2) Has been totally separated from employment with the firm in a subdivision of which such adversely affected employment exists.

(d) Appropriate week means the week in which the individual's first separation occurred.

(e) Average weekly hours means a figure obtained by dividing:

- (1) Total hours worked (excluding overtime) by a partially separated individual in adversely affected employment in the 52 weeks (excluding weeks in such period during which the individual was sick or on vacation) preceding the individual's first qualifying separation, by
- (2) The number of weeks in such 52 weeks (excluding weeks in such period during which the individual was sick or on vacation) in which the individual actually worked in such employment.

(f) Average weekly wage means one-thirteenth of the total wages paid to an individual in the individual's high quarter. The high quarter for an individual is the quarter in which the total wages paid to the individual were highest among the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters preceding the individual's appropriate week.

(g) Average weekly wage in adversely affected employment means a figure obtained by dividing:

(1) Total wages earned by a partially separated individual in adversely affected employment in the 52 weeks (excluding the weeks in that period the individual was sick or on vacation) preceding the individual's first qualifying separation, by

(2) The number of weeks in such 52 weeks (excluding the weeks in that period the individual was sick or on vacation) the individual actually worked in such employment.

(h) Benefit period means, with respect to an individual:

(1) The benefit year and any ensuing period, as determined under the applicable State law, during which the individual is eligible for regular compensation, additional compensation, extended compensation, or federal supplemental compensation, as these terms are defined by paragraph (oo) of this section; or

(2) The equivalent to such a benefit year or ensuing period provided for under the Federal unemployment insurance law.

(i) Bona fide application for training means an individual's signed and dated application for training filed with the State agency administering the TAA training program, on a form necessarily containing the individual's name, petition number, local office number, and specific occupational training. This form shall be signed and dated by a State agency representative upon receipt.

(j)(1) Certification means a certification of eligibility to apply for TAA issued under section 223 of the Act with respect to a specified group of workers of a firm or appropriate subdivision of a firm.

(2) Certification period means the period of time during which total and partial separations from adversely affected employment within a firm or appropriate subdivision of a firm are covered by the certification.

(k) Commuting area means the area in which an individual would be expected to travel to and from work on a daily basis as determined under the applicable State law.

(1) Date of separation means:

(1) With respect to a total separation—

(i) For an individual in employment status, the last day worked; and

(ii) For an individual on employer-authorized leave, the last day the individual would have worked had the individual been working; and

(2) With respect to a partial separation, the last day of the week in which the partial separation occurred.

(m) Eligibility period means the period of consecutive calendar weeks during which basic or additional TRA is payable to an otherwise eligible individual, and for an individual such eligibility period is—

(1) Basic TRA. (i) With respect to a first qualifying separation (as defined in paragraph (t)(3)(i)(A) of this section) that occurs on a day that precedes August 23, 1988, the 104-week period beginning with the first week following the week with respect to which the individual first exhausts all rights to regular compensation (as defined in paragraph (oo)(1) of this section) in such individual's first benefit period (as described in §617.11(a)(1)(iv)) or §617.11(a)(2)(iv), whichever is applicable), and

(ii) With respect to a total qualifying separation (as defined in paragraph (t)(3)(i)(B) of this section) that occurs on or after August 23, 1988—or before August 23, 1988, if the individual also had a prior first qualifying separation under the same certification—the 104-week period beginning with the first week following the week in which such total qualifying separation occurred;

Provided, that, an individual who has a second or subsequent total qualifying separation within the certification period of the same certification shall be determined to have a new 104-week eligibility period based upon the most recent such total qualifying separation; but the rule of this proviso shall not be applicable in the case of an individual who had a total qualifying separation before August 23, 1988, and also had a prior first qualifying separation (as referred to in paragraph (m)(1)(i) of this section) within the certification period of the same certification, if the individual's 104-week eligibility period based upon the total qualifying separation (as referred to in paragraph

§617.3

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(m)(1)(i) of this section) would end on a date earlier than the ending date of the individual's eligibility period which is based upon the prior first qualifying separation; and

(2) Additional TRA. With respect to additional weeks of TRA, and any individual determined under this part 617 to be entitled to additional TRA, the consecutive calendar weeks that occur in the 26-week period that—

(i) Immediately follows the last week of entitlement to basic TRA otherwise payable to the individual, or

(ii) Begins with the first week of training approved under this part 617, if such training begins after the last week described in paragraph (m)(2)(i) of this section, or

(iii) Begins with the first week in which such training is approved under this part 617, if such training is so approved after the training has commenced; but approval of training under this part 617 after the training has commenced shall not imply or justify approval of a payment of basic or additional TRA with respect to any week which ended before the week in which such training was approved, nor approval of payment of any costs of training or any costs or expenses associated with such training (such as travel or subsistence) which were incurred prior to the date of the approval of such training under this part 617.

(n) Employer means any individual or type of organization, including the Federal government, a State government, a political subdivision, or an instrumentality of one or more governmental entities, with one or more individuals performing service in employment for it within the United States.

(o) Employment means any service performed for an employer by an officer of a corporation or an individual for wages.

(p) Exhaustion of UI means exhaustion of all rights to UI in a benefit period by reason of:

(1) Having received all UI to which an individual was entitled under the applicable State law or Federal unemployment compensation law with respect to such benefit period; or

(2) The expiration of such benefit period.

(q) Family means the following members of an individual's household whose principal place of abode is with the individual in a home the individual maintains or would maintain but for unemployment:

(1) A spouse;

(2) An unmarried child, including a stepchild, adopted child, or foster child, under age 21 or of any age if incapable of self-support because of mental or physical incapacity; and

(3) Any other person whom the individual would be entitled to claim as a dependent for income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(r) First benefit period means the benefit period established after the individual's first qualifying separation or in which such separation occurs.

(s) First exhaustion of UI means the first time in an individual's first benefit period that the individual exhausts all rights to UI; first exhaustion shall be deemed to be complete at the end of the week the exhaustion occurs.

(t)(1) First separation means, for an individual to qualify as an adversely affected worker for the purposes of TAA program benefits (without regard to whether the individual also qualifies for TRA), the individual's first total or partial separation within the certification period of a certification, irrespective of whether such first separation also is a qualifying separation as defined in paragraph (t)(2) of this section;

(2) Qualifying separation means, for an individual to qualify as an adversely affected worker and for basic TRA—

(i) Prior to August 23, 1988, the individual's first (total or partial) separation within the certification period of a certification, with respect to which the individual meets all of the requirements of §617.11(a)(1) (i) through (iv), and which qualifies as a first qualifying separation as defined in paragraph (t)(3)(i)(A) of this section, and

(ii) At any time before, on, or after August 23, 1988, any total separation of the individual within the certification period of a certification (other than a first qualifying separation as defined in paragraph (t)(3)(i)(A) of this section), with respect to which the individual meets all of the requirements in

§ 617.3

§ 617.11(a)(2) (i) through (iv), and which qualifies as a total qualifying separation as defined in paragraph (B) of (t)(3)(i)(B) of this section;

(3) “First qualifying separation” means—

(i) For the purposes of determining an individual’s eligibility period for basic TRA—

(A) With respect to a separation that occurs before August 23, 1988, the individual’s first (total or partial) separation within the certification period of a certification, with respect to which the individual meets all of the requirements of § 617.11(a)(1) (i) through (iv), and

(B) With respect to a separation that occurs before, on, or after August 23, 1988 (other than a first qualifying separation as defined in paragraph (t)(3)(i)(A) of this section), the first total separation of the individual within the certification period of a certification, with respect to which the individual meets all of the requirements in § 617.11(a)(2) (i) through (iv); and

(ii) For the purposes of determining the weekly and maximum amounts of basic TRA payable to an individual, with respect to a separation that occurs before, on, or after August 23, 1988, the individual’s first (total or partial) separation within the certification period of a certification if, with respect to such separation, the individual meets the requirements of § 617.11(a)(1) (i), (ii) and (iv) or § 617.11(a)(2) (i), (ii) and (iv).

(u) Head of family means an individual who maintains a home for a family. An individual maintains a home if over half the cost of maintenance is furnished by the individual or would be furnished but for unemployment.

(v) Impact date means the date stated in a certification issued under the Act on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin in a firm or a subdivision of a firm.

(w) Job search program means a job search workshop or job finding club.

(x) Job search workshop means a short (1 to 3 days) seminar designed to provide participants with knowledge that will enable the participants to find jobs. Subjects should include, but not be limited to, labor market information, resume writing, interviewing techniques, and techniques for finding job openings.

(y) Job finding club means a job search workshop which includes a period of 1 to 2 weeks of structured, supervised activity in which participants attempt to obtain jobs.

(z) Layoff means a suspension of or separation from employment by a firm for lack of work, initiated by the employer, and expected to be for a definite or indefinite period of not less than seven consecutive days.

(aa) Liabile State and Agent State are defined as follows:

(1) Liabile State means, with respect to any individual, the State whose State law is the applicable State law as determined under § 617.16 for all purposes of this Part 617.

(2) Agent State means, with respect to any individual, any State other than the State which is the liable State for such individual.

(bb) On-the-job training means training provided by an employer to an individual who is employed by the employer.

(cc) Partial separation means that during a week ending on or after the impact date specified in the certification under which an adversely affected worker is covered, the individual had:

(1) Hours of work reduced to 80 percent or less of the individual’s average weekly hours in adversely affected employment; and

(2) Wages reduced to 80 percent or less of the individual’s average weekly wage in such adversely affected employment.

(dd) Regional Administrator means the appropriate Regional Administrator of the Employment and Training Administration, United States Department of Labor (hereafter Department).

(ee) Remuneration means remuneration as defined in the applicable State law.

(ff) Secretary means the Secretary of Labor, U.S. Department of Labor, or his or her designee.

(gg) Separate maintenance means maintaining another (second) residence, in addition to the individual’s regular place of residence, while attending a training facility outside the individual's commuting area.

(hh) State means the States of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes such Commonwealth.

(ii) State agency means the State Employment Security Agency; the employment service of the State; any State agency carrying out title III of the Job Training Partnership Act; or any other State or local agency administering job training or related programs with which the Secretary has an agreement to carry out any of the provisions of the Act.

(jj) State law means the unemployment compensation law of a State approved by the Secretary under section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 3304).

(kk) Suitable work means, with respect to an individual:

(1) Suitable work as defined in the applicable State law for claimants for regular compensation (as defined in paragraph (oo)(1) of this section); or

(2) Suitable work as defined in applicable State law provisions consistent with section 202(a)(3) of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970;

whichever is applicable, but does not in any case include self-employment or employment as an independent contractor.

(ll) Total separation means a layoff or severance of an individual from employment with a firm in which, or in a subdivision of which, adversely affected employment exists.

(mm) Trade adjustment assistance (TAA) means the services and allowances provided for achieving reemployment of adversely affected workers, including TRA, training and other reemployment services, and job search allowances and relocation allowances.

(nn) Trade readjustment allowance (TRA) means a weekly allowance payable to an adversely affected worker with respect to such worker's unemployment under subpart B of this part 617.

(oo) Unemployment insurance (UI) means the unemployment compensation payable to an individual under any State law or Federal unemployment compensation law, including chapter 85, title 5 of the United States Code, and the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act. "UI" includes "regular compensation," "additional compensation," "extended compensation," and "federal supplemental compensation," defined as follows:

(1) Regular compensation means unemployment compensation payable to an individual under any State law, and, when so payable, includes unemployment compensation payable pursuant to chapter 85, title 5 of the United States Code, but does not include extended compensation, additional compensation, or federal supplemental compensation;

(2) Additional compensation means unemployment compensation totally financed by a State and payable under a State law by reason of conditions of high unemployment or by reason of other special factors and, when so payable, includes unemployment compensation payable pursuant to chapter 85, title 5 of the United States Code; and

(3) Extended compensation means the extended unemployment compensation payable to an individual for weeks of unemployment which begin in an Extended Benefit Period, under those provisions of a State law which satisfy the requirements of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970 and regulations governing the payment of extended unemployment compensation, and, when so payable, includes unemployment compensation payable pursuant to chapter 85, title 5 of the United States Code, but does not include regular compensation, additional compensation, or federal supplemental compensation. Extended compensation is also referred to in this part 617 as Extended Benefits or EB.

(4) Federal supplemental compensation means the supplemental unemployment compensation payable to individuals who have exhausted their rights to regular and extended compensation, and which is payable under the Federal Supplemental Compensation Act of 1982 or any similar Federal law enacted before or after the 1982 Act.

(pp) Wages means all compensation for employment for an employer, including commissions, bonuses, and the cash value of all compensation in a medium other than cash.

(qq) Week means a week as defined in the applicable State law.

(rr) Week of unemployment means a week of total, part total, or partial unemployment as determined under the applicable State law or Federal unemployment compensation law.

§ 617.4 Benefit information to workers.

(a) Providing information to workers. State agencies shall provide full information to workers about the benefit allowances, training, and other employment services available under subparts B through E of this part 617 and about the petition and application procedures, and the appropriate filing dates, for such allowances, training and services.

(b) Providing assistance to workers. State agencies shall provide whatever assistance is necessary to enable groups of workers, including unorganized workers, to prepare petitions or applications for program benefits.

(c) Providing information to State vocational education agencies and others. State agencies shall inform the State Board for Vocational Education or equivalent agency and other public or private agencies, institutions, and employers, as appropriate, of each certification issued under section 223 of the Act and of projections, if available, of the needs for training under section 236 of the Act as a result of such certification.

(d) Written and newspaper notices. (1) Written notices to workers. (i) Upon receipt of a certification issued by the Department of Labor, the State agency shall provide a written notice through the mail of the benefits available under subparts B through E of this part 617 to each worker covered by a certification issued under section 223 of the Act when the worker is partially or totally separated or as soon as possible after the certification is issued if such workers are already partially or totally separated from adversely affected employment.

(ii) The State agency will satisfy this requirement by obtaining from the firm, or other reliable source, the names and addresses of all workers who were partially or totally separated from adversely affected employment before the certification was received by the agency, and workers who are thereafter partially or totally separated within the certification period. The State agency shall mail a written notice to each such worker of the benefits available under the TAA Program. The notice must include the following information:

(A) Worker group(s) covered by the certification, and the article(s) produced as specified in the copy of the certification furnished to the State agency.

(B) Name and the address or location of workers' firm.

(C) Impact, certification, and expiration dates in the certification document.

(D) Benefits and reemployment services available to eligible workers.

(E) Explanation of how workers apply for TAA benefits and services.

(F) Whom to call to get additional information on the certification.

(G) When and where the workers should come to apply for benefits and services.

(2) Newspaper notices. (i) Upon receipt of a copy of a certification issued by the Department affecting workers in a State, the State agency shall publish a notice of such certification in a newspaper of general circulation in areas in which such workers reside. Such a newspaper notice shall not be required to be published, however, in the case of a certification with respect to which the State agency can substantiate, and enters in its records evidence substantiating, that all workers covered by the certification have received written notice required by paragraph (d)(1) of this section.

(ii) A published notice must include the following kinds of information:

(A) Worker group(s) covered by the certification, and the article(s) produced as specified in the copy of the certification furnished to the State agency.

§617.10

(B) Name and the address or location of workers' firm.

(C) Impact, certification, and expiration dates in the certification document.

(D) Benefits and reemployment services available to eligible workers.

(E) Explanation of how and where workers should apply for TAA benefits and services.

(e) Advice and assistance to workers. In addition to the information and assistance to workers as required under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, State agencies shall—

(1) Advise each worker who applies for unemployment insurance under the State law of the benefits available under subparts B through E of this part and the procedures and deadlines for applying for such benefits.

(2) Facilitate the early filing of petitions under section 221 of the Act and §617.4(b) for any workers that the agency considers are likely to be eligible for benefits. State agencies shall utilize information received by the State's dislocated worker unit to facilitate the early filing of petitions under section 221 of the Act by workers potentially adversely affected by imports.

(3) Advise each adversely affected worker to apply for training under §617.22(a) before, or at the same time as, the worker applies for trade readjustment allowances under subpart B of this part.

(4) Interview each adversely affected worker, as soon as practicable, regarding suitable training opportunities available to the worker under §617.22(a) and review such opportunities with the worker.

Subpart B—Trade Readjustment Allowances (TRA)

§617.10 Applications for TRA.

(a) Before and after certification. An individual covered under a certification or a petition for certification may apply to a State agency for TRA. A determination shall be made at any time to the extent necessary to establish or protect an individual's entitlement to TRA or other TAA, but no payment of TRA or other TAA may be made by a State agency until a certification is made and the State agency determines that the individual is covered thereunder.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) Timing of applications. An initial application for TRA, and applications for TRA for weeks of unemployment beginning before the initial application for TRA is filed, may be filed within a reasonable period of time after publication of the determination certifying the appropriate group of workers under section 223 of the Act. However, an application for TRA for a week of unemployment beginning after the initial application is filed shall be filed within the time limit applicable to claims for regular compensation under the applicable State law. For purposes of this paragraph (b), a reasonable period of time means such period of time as the individual had good cause for not filing earlier, which shall include, but not be limited to, the individual's lack of knowledge of the certification or misinformation supplied the individual by the State agency.

(c) Applicable procedures. Applications shall be filed in accordance with this subpart B and on forms which shall be furnished to individuals by the State agency. The procedures for reporting and filing applications for TRA shall be consistent with this part 617 and the Secretary's "Standard for Claim Filing, Claimant Reporting, Job Finding and Employment Services", Employment Security Manual, part V, sections 5000 et seq. (Appendix A of this part).

(d) Advising workers to apply for training. State agencies shall advise each worker of the qualifying requirements for entitlement to TRA and other TAA benefits at the time the worker files an initial claim for State UI, and shall advise each adversely affected worker to apply for training under subpart C of this part before, or at the same time, the worker applies for TRA, as required by §617.4(e)(1) and (3).

§617.11 Qualifying requirements for TRA.

(a) Basic qualifying requirements for entitlement—(1) Prior to November 21,

§ 617.11

1988. To qualify for TRA for any week of unemployment that begins prior to November 21, 1988, an individual must meet each of the following requirements of paragraphs (a)(1) (i) through (vii) of this section:

(i) Certification. The individual must be an adversely affected worker covered under a certification.

(ii) Separation. The individual's first qualifying separation (as defined in paragraph (t)(3)(i) of § 617.3) before application for TRA must occur:

(A) On or after the impact date of such certification; and

(B) Before the expiration of the two-year period beginning on the date of such certification, or, if earlier, before the termination date, if any, of such certification.

(iii) Wages and employment. (A) In the 52-week period (i.e., 52 consecutive calendar weeks) ending with the week of the individual's first qualifying separation, the individual must have had at least 26 weeks of employment at wages of $30 or more a week in adversely affected employment with a single firm or subdivision of a firm. Evidence that an individual meets this requirement shall be obtained as provided in § 617.12. Employment and wages covered under more than one certification may not be combined to qualify for TRA.

(B)(1) For the purposes of paragraph (a)(1)(iii) of this section, any week in which such individual—

(i) is on employer-authorized leave from such adversely affected employment for purposes of vacation, sickness, injury, maternity, or inactive duty or active duty military service for training, or

(ii) does not work in such adversely affected employment because of a disability compensable under a workers' compensation law or plan of a State or the United States, or

(iii) had adversely affected employment interrupted to serve as a full-time representative of a labor organization in such firm or subdivision, shall be treated as a week of employment at wages of $30 or more;

(2) Provided, that—

(i) not more than 7 weeks in the case of weeks described in paragraph (a)(1)(iii)(B)(1)(i) or paragraph (a)(1)(iii)(B)(1)(ii) of this section, or both, and (ii) not more than 26 weeks described in paragraph (a)(1)(iii)(B)(1)(ii) of this section, may be treated as weeks of employment for purposes of paragraph (a)(1)(iii) of this section.

(C) Wages and employment creditable under paragraph (a)(1)(iii) of this section shall not include employment or wages earned or paid for employment which is contrary to or prohibited by any Federal law.

(iv) Entitlement to UI. The individual must have been entitled to (or would have been entitled to if the individual had applied therefor) UI for a week within the benefit period—

(A) in which the individual's first qualifying separation occurred, or

(B) which began (or would have begun) by reason of the filing of a claim for UI by the individual after such first qualifying separation.

(v) Exhaustion of UI. The individual must:

(A) Have exhausted all rights to any UI to which the individual was entitled (or would have been entitled to if the individual had applied therefor); and

(B) Not have an unexpired waiting period applicable to the individual for any such UI.

(vi) Extended Benefit work test. (A) The individual must—

(1) Accept any offer of suitable work, as defined in § 617.3(kk), and actually apply for any suitable work the individual is referred to by the State agency, and

(2) Actively engage in seeking work and furnish the State agency tangible evidence of such efforts each week, and

(3) Register for work and be referred by the State agency to suitable work, in accordance with those provisions of the applicable State law which apply to claimants for Extended Benefits and which are consistent with Part 615 of this Chapter.

(B) The Extended Benefit work test shall not apply to an individual with respect to claims for TRA for weeks of unemployment beginning prior to the filing of an initial claim for TRA, nor for any week which begins before the individual is notified that the individual is covered by a certification issued under the Act and is fully informed of the Extended Benefit work test requirements of paragraph (a)(1)(vi) of this section and §617.17. Prior to such notification and advice, the individual shall not be subject to the Extended Benefit work test requirements, nor to any State timely filing requirement, but shall be required to be unemployed and able to work and available for work with respect to any such week except as provided for workers in approved training in §617.17(b)(1).

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(vii) Job search program participation.

(A) The individual is enrolled in, participating in, or has successfully completed a job search program which meets the requirements of §617.49(a); or the State agency has determined that no acceptable job search program is reasonably available under the criteria set forth in §617.49(c).

(B) The job search program requirement shall not apply to an individual with respect to claims for TRA for weeks of unemployment beginning prior to the filing of an initial claim for TRA, nor for any week which begins before the individual is notified that the individual is covered by a certification issued under the Act and is fully informed of the job search program requirement of paragraph (a)(1)(vii) of this section and §617.49.

(C) The job search program requirement shall not apply to an individual, as a qualifying requirement for TRA, with respect to any week ending after November 20, 1988, but cooperating State agencies are encouraged to continue to utilize job search programs after November 20, 1988, as an effective tool to assist adversely affected workers in finding suitable employment, particularly unemployed workers who have completed training or for whom the training requirement has been waived under §617.19.

(2) On and after November 21, 1988. To qualify for TRA for any week of unemployment that begins on or after November 21, 1988, an individual must meet each of the following requirements of paragraphs (a)(2) (i) through (vii) of this section:

(i) Certification. The individual must be an adversely affected worker covered under a certification.

(ii) Separation. The individual's first qualifying separation (as defined in paragraph (t)(3)(i) of §617.3) before application for TRA must occur:

(A) On or after the impact date of such certification; and

(B) Before the expiration of the two-year period beginning on the date of such certification, or, if earlier, before the termination date, if any, of such certification.

(iii) Wages and employment. (A) In the 52-week period (i.e., 52 consecutive calendar weeks) ending with the week of the individual's first qualifying separation, or any subsequent total qualifying separation under the same certification, the individual must have had at least 26 weeks of employment at wages of $30 or more a week in adversely affected employment with a single firm or subdivision of a firm. Evidence that an individual meets this requirement shall be obtained as provided in §617.12. Employment and wages covered under more than one certification may not be combined to qualify for TRA.

(B)(1) For the purposes of paragraph (a)(2)(iii) of this section, any week in which such individual—

(i) Is on employer-authorized leave from such adversely affected employment for purposes of vacation, sickness, injury, maternity, or inactive duty or active duty military service for training, or

(ii) Does not work in such adversely affected employment because of a disability compensable under a workers' compensation law or plan of a State or the United States, or

(iii) Had adversely affected employment interrupted to serve as a full-time representative of a labor organization in such firm or subdivision, or

(iv) Is on call-up for the purpose of active duty in a reserve status in the Armed Forces of the United States (if such week began after August 1, 1990), provided such active duty is "Federal service" as defined in part 614 of this chapter, shall be treated as a week of employment at wages of $30 or more;

(2) Provided, that—

(i) Not more than 7 weeks in the case of weeks described in paragraph (a)(2)(iii)(B)(1) (i) or (iii) of this section, or both, and

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 617.11

(ii) Not more than 26 weeks described in paragraph (a)(2)(iii)(B)(1) (ii) or (iv) of this section, may be treated as weeks of employment for purposes of paragraph (a)(2)(iii) of this section.

(C) Wages and employment creditable under paragraph (a)(2)(iii) of this section shall not include employment or wages earned or paid for employment which is contrary to or prohibited by any Federal law.

(iv) Entitlement to UI. The individual must have been entitled to (or would have been entitled to if the individual had applied therefor) UI for a week within the benefit period—

(A) in which the individual's first qualifying separation occurred, or

(B) which began (or would have begun) by reason of the filing of a claim for UI by the individual after such first qualifying separation.

(v) Exhaustion of UI. The individual must:

(A) Have exhausted all rights to any UI to which the individual was entitled (or would have been entitled if the individual had applied therefor); and

(B) Not have an unexpired waiting period applicable to the individual for any such UI.

(vi) Extended Benefit work test. (A) The individual must—

(1) Accept any offer of suitable work, as defined in §617.3(kk), and actually apply for any suitable work the individual is referred to by the State agency, and

(2) Actively engage in seeking work and furnish the State agency tangible evidence of such efforts each week, and

(3) Register for work and be referred by the State agency to suitable work, in accordance with those provisions of the applicable State law which apply to claimants for Extended Benefits and which are consistent with part 615 of this chapter.

(B) The Extended Benefit work test shall not apply to an individual with respect to claims for TRA for weeks of unemployment beginning prior to the filing of an initial claim for TRA, nor for any week which begins before the individual is notified that the individual is covered by a certification issued under the Act and is fully informed of the Extended Benefit work test requirements of paragraph (a)(2)(vi) of this section and §617.17. Prior to such notification and advice, the individual shall not be subject to the Extended Benefit work test requirements, nor to any State timely filing requirement, but shall be required to be unemployed and able to work and available for work with respect to any such week except as provided in §617.17(b)(2) for workers enrolled in, or participating in, a training program approved under §617.22(a).

(vii) Participation in training. (A) The individual must—

(1) Be enrolled in or participating in a training program approved pursuant to §617.22(a), or

(2) Have completed a training program approved under §617.22(a), after a total or partial separation from adversely affected employment within the certification period of a certification issued under the Act, or

(3) Have received from the State agency a written statement under §617.19 waiving the participation in training requirement for the individual.

(B) The participation in training requirement of paragraph (a)(2)(vii) of this section shall not apply to an individual with respect to claims for TRA for weeks of unemployment beginning prior to the filing of an initial claim for TRA, nor for any week which begins before the individual is notified that the individual is covered by a certification issued under the Act and is fully informed of the participation in training requirement of paragraph (a)(2)(vii) of this section and §617.19.

(C) The participation in training requirement of paragraph (a)(2)(vii) of this section shall apply, as a qualifying requirement for TRA, to an individual with respect to claims for TRA for weeks of unemployment commencing on or after November 21, 1988, and beginning with the first week following the week in which a certification covering the individual is issued under the Act, unless the State agency has issued a written statement to the individual under §617.19 waiving the participation in training requirement for the individual.

§617.11

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(D) For purposes of paragraph (a)(2)(vii) of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) Enrolled in Training. A worker shall be considered to be enrolled in training when the worker's application for training is approved by the State agency and the training institution has furnished written notice to the State agency that the worker has been accepted in the approved training program which is to begin within 30 calendar days of the date of such approval. (A waiver under §617.19 shall not be required for an individual who is enrolled in training as defined herein.)

(2) Completed Training. A worker shall be considered to have completed a training program if the training program was approved, or was approvable and is approved, pursuant to §617.22, and the training was completed subsequent to the individual's total or partial separation from adversely affected employment within the certification period of a certification issued under the Act, and the training provider has certified that all the conditions for completion of the training program have been satisfied.

(3) Special rules for workers separated in 1981 to 1986 period. (i) Basic conditions. Under section 1425(b) of the Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988 (the "OTCA") (Pub. L. 100-418) the time limit on the eligibility period for basic TRA in section 233(a)(2) of the Act (before and after the amendment by Public Law 100-418), and the 210-day time limit in section 233(b) of the Act on the filing of a bona fide application for training in order to qualify for additional TRA, are set aside and shall be disregarded for any individual separated from adversely affected employment in the period which began on August 13, 1981, and ended on April 7, 1986: Provided, That, any such individual must meet all of the following requirements of paragraphs (a)(3)(i)(A) through (E) of this section to qualify for TRA for any week.

(A) Period of separation. The separation of the individual must have occurred on a date within the period which began on August 13, 1981 and ended on April 7, 1986.

(B) Total separation required. Such separation must be a "total separation" as defined in §617.3(11), and a "total qualifying separation" as defined in §617.3(t)(3)(i)(B); and, for the purposes of determining whether an individual has been continuously unemployed, as defined in §617.3(t)(3)(i)(E), only the last such total separation within the August 13, 1981 to April 7, 1986 period shall be taken into account.

(C) Other standard requirements. The individual must, with respect to such total separation, meet all of the requirements of paragraphs (a)(2)(i) through (v) of this section.

(D) Participation in training. (1) The individual must meet the requirements of paragraph (a)(2)(vii) of this section, with respect to being enrolled in or participating in a training program approved pursuant to §617.22(a), as to each week TRA is claimed, and not be ineligible under §617.18(b)(2) for failure to begin participation in such training or for ceasing to participate in such training.

(2) With respect to participation in training, as required under paragraph (a)(3) of this section, the break in training provisions of §617.15(d) shall be applicable, and the waiver of participation provisions in §617.19 shall not be applicable.

(E) Continuously unemployed. (1) The individual must have been continuously unemployed since the date of the individual's total separation referred to in paragraph (a)(2)(vii)(B) of this section, not taking into account for the purposes of this determination any work in which the individual was employed in seasonal employment, odd jobs, or part-time, temporary employment.

(2) For purposes of §617.11(a)(3)(i)(E)(1), continuously unemployed shall mean the individual has not been engaged in any employment, except for seasonal employment, odd-jobs, or part-time, temporary employment. Employment shall be considered:

(i) Seasonal employment when seasonality provisions of the applicable State law are applicable to such employment; or

(ii) An odd job when the established period of employment occurs within five (5) consecutive days or less; or

(iii) Part-time, temporary employment when a termination date of one hundred fifty (150) days or less was established at the time of employment, and the average weekly hours for the job, over the period of employment, was less than 30 hours per week.

(ii) TRA payments prospective only. The provisions of paragraph (a)(3) of this section apply to payments of TRA only for weeks which begin after August 23, 1988, and with respect to training in which the individual becomes enrolled and begins participation before or after such date, and which is approved under § 617.22(a) before or after such date. No payment of TRA may be authorized under paragraph (a)(3) of this section for any week which ends before such training is approved under § 617.22(a).

(iii) Other special rules. (1) Although the last total qualifying separation of an individual will be used for the purposes of the determination under paragraph (a)(3)(i)(B) of this section, the individual's first qualifying separation (as defined in paragraph (t)(3)(ii) of § 617.3) must be used to determine the weekly and maximum amounts payable to the individual in accordance with §§ 617.13 and 617.14.

(2) No individual shall be determined to be eligible for TRA under paragraph (a)(3) of this section if the individual has previously received all of the basic and additional TRA to which the individual was entitled.

(3) The 26-week eligibility period for additional TRA is applicable under paragraph (a)(3) of this section, as such term is defined in paragraph (m)(2) of § 617.3.

(4) Special rules for oil and gas workers—retroactive—(i) Basic conditions. Under section 1421(a)(1)(B) of the OTCA, individuals employed by independent firms engaged in exploration or drilling for oil and natural gas who were separated after September 30, 1985, may be entitled, retroactively, to TAA program benefits, but only if, as to any such individual, all of the conditions in the following provisions of paragraph (a)(4) of this section are met.

(ii) Prior certification. Individuals covered by this paragraph (a)(4) do not include any individual covered under a certification (made with respect to the same firm or subdivision of a firm) that was issued under section 223 of the Act without regard to the amendments to section 222 of the Act (relating to oil and gas workers) made by section 1421(a)(1)(A) of the OTCA.

(iii) Petition. (A) To apply for a certification under section 223 covering workers referred to in section 1421(a)(1)(B) of the OTCA, a petition must have been filed in the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance after August 23, 1988, and on or before November 18, 1988, by or on behalf of a group of workers of such a firm or subdivision of a firm.

(B) A petition, to be valid, may not be signed by or on behalf of an individual referred to in paragraph (a)(4)(ii) of this section.

(iv) Certification. (A) As provided in section 1421(a)(1)(B) of the OTCA, a certification issued pursuant to section 223 of the Act will not be subject to the one-year limitation on the impact date which is specified in section 223(b) of the Act, but the impact date of any such certification may not be a date earlier than October 1, 1985.

(B) A certification shall not be issued under the authority of section 1421(a)(1)(B) of the OTCA if a certification could have been issued under section 223 of the Act before or after the amendment made by section 1421(a)(1)(A) of the OTCA.

(v) Coverage of certification. Individuals covered by a certification issued under the authority of section 1421(a)(1)(B) of the OTCA will be eligible to apply for TAA program benefits as follows:

(A) Basic and additional TRA, retroactively and prospectively, subject to the conditions stated in paragraph (a)(4) of this section;

(B) Training, prospectively, subject to the conditions stated in subpart C of this part;

(C) Job search allowances, prospectively, subject to the conditions stated in subpart D of this part; and

(D) Relocation allowances, prospectively, subject to the conditions stated in subpart E of this part.

(vi) TRA entitlement. To qualify for TRA for any week, an individual must meet all of the following requirements of paragraphs (a)(4)(vi)(A) through (D) of this section;

§617.12

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(A) Certification. The individual must be an adversely affected worker covered under a certification issued pursuant to section 223 of the Act and under the authority of section 1421(a)(1)(B) of the OTCA.

(B) Date of separation. The date of the individual's most recent total separation (as defined in §617.3) must be a date after September 30, 1985, and within the certification period of the certification under which the worker is covered. Separations occurring prior to October 1, 1985, shall be disregarded for the purposes of determining whether an individual experienced a total separation after September 30, 1985.

(C) Other standard requirements. (1) With respect to weeks of unemployment that begin after September 30, 1985, but prior to November 21, 1988, the individual must, with respect to the separation referred to in paragraph (a)(4)(vi)(B) of this section, meet all of the requirements of paragraph (a)(1)(i) through (vii) of this section, and

(2) With respect to weeks of unemployment that begin on or after November 21, 1988, the individual must meet all of the requirements of paragraphs (a)(2)(i) through (vii) of this section.

(D) Other special rules. (1) Although an individual's most recent total or partial separation after September 30, 1985 must be used for the purposes of this paragraph (a)(4)(vi)(B) of this section, the individual's first qualifying separation (as defined in paragraph (t)(3)(ii) of §617.3) must be used to determine the weekly and maximum amounts payable to the individual in accordance with §§617.13 and 617.14.

(2) The 60-day preclusion rule in paragraph (b)(1) of this section shall not be applicable to an individual covered by a certification referred to in paragraph (a)(4)(vi)(A) of this section, and who is eligible for TRA under the provisions of paragraph (a)(4) of this section.

(3) The 26-week eligibility period for additional TRA (as defined in paragraph (m)(2) of §617.3) is applicable under paragraph (a)(4) of this section.

(b) First week of entitlement. The first week any individual may be entitled to a payment of basic TRA shall be the later of:

(1) The first week beginning more than 60 days after the date of the filing of the petition which resulted in the certification under which the individual is covered (except in the case of oil and gas workers to whom paragraph (a)(4) of this section applies); or

(2) The first week beginning after the individual's exhaustion of all rights to UI including waiting period credit, as determined under §617.11(a)(1)(v) or §617.11(a)(2), as appropriate.

§617.12 Evidence of qualification.

(a) State agency action. When an individual applies for TRA, the State agency having jurisdiction under §617.50(a) shall obtain information necessary to establish:

(1) Whether the individual meets the qualifying requirements in §617.11;

(2) The individual's average weekly wage; and

(3) For an individual claiming to be partially separated, the average weekly hours and average weekly wage in adversely affected employment.

(b) Insufficient data. If information specified in paragraph (a) of this section is not available from State agency records or from any employer, the State agency shall require the individual to submit a signed statement setting forth such information as may be required for the State agency to make the determinations required by paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Verification. A statement made under paragraph (b) of this section shall be certified by the individual to be true to the best of the individual's knowledge and belief and shall be supported by evidence such as Forms W-2, paycheck stubs, union records, income tax returns, or statements of fellow workers, and shall be verified by the employer.

(d) Determinations. The State agency shall make the necessary determinations on the basis of information obtained pursuant to this section, except that if, after reviewing information obtained under paragraph (b) of this section against other available data, including agency records, it concludes that such information is not reasonably accurate, it shall make appropriate adjustments and shall make the determination on the basis of the adjusted data.

§ 617.14

§ 617.13 Weekly amounts of TRA.

(a) Regular allowance. The amount of TRA payable for a week of total unemployment (including a week of training approved under subpart C of this part 617 or under the provisions of the applicable State law) shall be an amount equal to the most recent weekly benefit amount of UI (including dependents' allowances) payable to the individual for a week of total unemployment preceding the individual's first exhaustion of UI following the individual's first qualifying separation: Provided, that in a State in which weeks of UI are paid in varying amounts related to wages with separate employers, the weekly amount of TRA shall be calculated as it would be to pay extended compensation: Provided, further, that where a State calculates a base amount of UI and calculates dependents' allowances on a weekly supplemental basis. TRA weekly benefit amounts shall be calculated in the same manner and under the same terms and conditions as apply to claimants for UI, except that the base amount shall not change.

(b) Increased allowance. An individual in training approved under subpart C of this part 617 who is thereby entitled for any week to TRA and a training allowance under any other Federal law for the training of workers shall be paid in the amount computed under paragraph (a) of this section or, if greater, the amount to which the individual would be entitled under such other Federal law if the individual applied for such allowance, as provided in section 232(b) of the Act. A payment under this paragraph (b) shall be in lieu of any training allowance to which the individual is entitled under such other Federal law.

(c) Reduction of amount. An amount of TRA payable under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section for any week shall be reduced (but not below zero) by:

(1) Income that is deductible from UI under the disqualifying income provisions of the applicable State law or Federal unemployment compensation law;

(2) The amount of a training allowance (other than a training allowance referred to in paragraph (b) of this section) under any Federal law that the individual receives for such week, as provided in section 232(c) of the Act. This paragraph (c) shall apply to Veterans Educational Assistance, Pell Grants, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants, and other training allowances under any Federal law other than for the training of workers; and

(3) Any amount that would be deductible from UI for days of absence from training under the provisions of the applicable State law which apply to individuals in approved training.

§ 617.14 Maximum amount of TRA.

(a) General rule. Except as provided under paragraph (b) of this section, the maximum amount of TRA payable to an individual under a certification shall be the amount determined by:

(1) Multiplying by 52 the weekly amount of TRA payable to such individual for a week of total unemployment, as determined under § 617.13(a); and

(2) Subtracting from the product derived under paragraph (a)(1) of this section, the total sum of UI to which the individual was entitled (or would have been entitled if the individual had applied therefor) in the individual's first benefit period described in § 617.11(a)(1)(iv) or, as appropriate, § 617.11(a)(2)(iv). The individual's full entitlement shall be subtracted under this paragraph, without regard to the amount, if any, that was actually paid to the individual with respect to such benefit period.

(b) Exceptions. The maximum amount of TRA determined under paragraph (a) of this section will not include:

(1) The amount of dependents' allowances paid as a supplement to the base weekly amount determined under § 617.13(a);

(2) The amount of the difference between the individual's weekly increased allowances determined under § 617.13(b) and the individual's weekly

§617.15

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

amount determined under §617.13(a); and

(3) The amounts paid for additional weeks determined under §617.15(b); but nothing in this paragraph (b) shall affect an individual's eligibility for such supplemental, increased or additional allowances.

(c) Reduction for Federal training allowance. (1) If a training allowance referred to in §617.13(c)(2) is paid to an individual for any week of unemployment with respect to which the individual would be entitled (determined without regard to any disqualification under §617.18(b)(2)) to TRA, if the individual applied for TRA for such week, each week shall be deducted from the total number of weeks of TRA otherwise payable to the individual.

(2) If the training allowance referred to in paragraph (c)(1) of this section is less than the amount of TRA otherwise payable to the individual for such week, the individual shall, when the individual applies for TRA for such week, be paid TRA in an amount not to exceed the amount equal to the difference between the individual's regular weekly TRA amount, as determined under §617.13(a), and the amount of the training allowance paid to the individual for such week, as provided in section 232(c) of the Act.

[51 FR 45848, Dec. 22, 1986, as amended at 53 FR 32349, Aug. 24, 1988; 54 FR 22277, May 23, 1989; 59 FR 931, Jan. 6, 1994]

§617.15 Duration of TRA.

(a) Basic weeks. An individual shall not be paid basic TRA for any week beginning after the close of the 104-week eligibility period (as defined in §617.3(m)(1)), which is applicable to the individual as determined under §§617.3(m)(1), 617.3(t), and 617.67(e).

(b) Additional weeks. (1) To assist an individual to complete training approved under subpart C of this part, payments may be made as TRA for up to 26 additional weeks in the 26-week eligibility period (as defined in §617.3(m)(2)) which is applicable to the individual as determined under §§617.3(m)(2) and 617.67(f).

(2) To be eligible for TRA for additional weeks, an individual must make a bona fide application for such training—

(i) within 210 days after the date of the first certification under which the individual is covered, or

(ii) if later, within 210 days after the date of the individual's most recent partial or total separation (as defined in §§617.3(cc) and 617.3(11)) under such certification.

(3) Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, payments of TRA for additional weeks may be made only for those weeks in the 26-week eligibility period during which the individual is actually participating fully in training approved under §617.22(a).

(c) Limit. The maximum TRA payable to any individual on the basis of a single certification is limited to the maximum amount of basic TRA as determined under §617.14 plus additional TRA for up to 26 weeks as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(d) Scheduled breaks in training. (1) An individual who is otherwise eligible will continue to be eligible for basic and additional weeks of TRA during scheduled breaks in training, but only if a scheduled break is not longer than 14 days, and the following additional conditions are met:

(i) The individual was participating in the training approved under §617.22(a) immediately before the beginning of the break; and

(ii) The break is provided for in the published schedule or the previously established schedule of training issued by the training provider or is indicated in the training program approved for the worker; and, further

(iii) The individual resumes participation in the training immediately after the break ends.

(2) A scheduled break in training shall include all periods within or between courses, terms, quarters, semesters and academic years of the approved training program.

(3) No basic or additional TRA will be paid to an individual for any week which begins and ends within a scheduled break that is 15 days or more.

(4) The days within a break in a training program that shall be counted in determining the number of days of the break for the purposes of paragraph (d) of this section shall include all calendar days beginning with the first day of the break and ending with the last day of the break, as provided for in the schedule of the training provider, except that any Saturday, Sunday, or official State or National holiday occurring during the scheduled break in training, on which training would not normally be scheduled in the training program if there were no break in training, shall not be counted in determining the number of days of the break for the purposes of paragraph (d) of this section.

§ 617.17

(5) When the worker is drawing basic TRA, the maximum amount of TRA payable is not affected by the weeks the worker does not receive TRA while in a break period, but the weeks will count against the 104-week eligibility period.

(6) When the worker is drawing additional weeks of TRA to complete training, any weeks for which TRA is not paid will count against the continuous 26-week eligibility period and the number of weeks payable.

§ 617.16 Applicable State law.

(a) What law governs. The applicable State law for any individual, for all of the purposes of this part 617, is the State law of the State—

(1) In which the individual is entitled to UI (whether or not the individual has filed a claim therefor) immediately following the individual's first separation (as defined in paragraph (t)(1) of § 617.3), or

(2) If the individual is not so entitled to UI under the State law of any State immediately following such first separation, or is entitled to UI under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act (RRUI), the State law of the State in which such first separation occurred.

(b) Change of law. The State law determined under paragraph (a) of this section to be the applicable State law for an individual shall remain the applicable State law for the individual until the individual becomes entitled to UI under the State law of another State (whether or not the individual files a claim therefor).

(c) UI entitlement. (1) An individual shall be deemed to be entitled to UI under a State law if the individual satisfies the base period employment and wage qualifying requirements of such State law.

(2) In the case of a combined-wage claim (Part 616 of this chapter), UI entitlement shall be determined under the law of the paying State.

(3) In case of a Federal UI claim, or a joint State and Federal UI claim (Parts 609 and 614 of this Chapter), UI entitlement shall be determined under the law of the State which is the applicable State for such claims.

(d) RRUI claimants. If an individual is entitled to UI under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, the applicable State law for purposes of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section is the law of the State in which the individual's first qualifying separation occurs.

(e) Liable State. The State whose State law is determined under this section to be the applicable State law for any individual shall be the liable State for the individual for all purposes of this part 617. Any State other than the liable State shall be an agent State.

§ 617.17 Availability and active search for work.

(a) Extended Benefit work test applicable. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, an individual shall, as a basic condition of entitlement to basic TRA for a week of unemployment—

(1) be unemployed, as defined in the applicable State law for UI claimants, and

(2) be able to work and available for work, as defined in the applicable State law for UI claimants, and

(3) satisfy the Extended Benefit work test in each week for which TRA is claimed, as set forth in §§ 617.11(a)(1)(vi) and 617.11(a)(2)(vi).

(b) Exceptions—(1) Prior to November 21, 1988. The conditions stated in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall not be applicable to an individual actually participating in training approved under the applicable State law or under § 617.22(a), or during a scheduled break in the training program if (as determined for the purposes of § 617.15 (d)) the individual participated in the training immediately before the beginning of the break and resumes participation in the training immediately after the break ends, unless the individual is ineligible or subject to disqualification under the applicable State law or §617.18 (b)(2).

§617.18

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(2) On and after November 21, 1988. The conditions stated in paragraphs (a)(2) and (a)(3) of this section shall not be applicable to an individual who is enrolled in or participating in a training program approved under §617.22 (a), or during a break in the training program if (as determined for the purposes of §617.15(d)) the individual participated in the training immediately before the beginning of the break and resumes participation in the training immediately after the break ends.

§617.18 Disqualifications.

(a) State law applies. Except as stated in paragraph (b) of this section and §617.55(b), an individual shall not be paid TRA for any week of unemployment the individual is or would be disqualified to receive UI under the disqualification provisions of the applicable State law, including the provisions of the applicable State law which apply to EB claimants and which are consistent with section 202(a)(3) of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970.

(b) Disqualification of trainees—(1) State law inapplicable. A State law shall not be applied to disqualify an individual from receiving either UI or TRA because the individual:

(i) Is enrolled in or is participating in a training program approved under §617.22(a); or

(ii) Refuses work to which the individual has been referred by the State agency, if such work would require the individual to discontinue training, or if added to hours of training would occupy the individual more than 8 hours a day or 40 hours a week, except that paragraph (b)(1)(ii) of this section shall not apply to an individual who is ineligible under paragraph (b)(2) of this section; or

(iii) Quits work, if the individual was employed in work which was not suitable (as defined in §617.22(a)(1)), and it was reasonable and necessary for the individual to quit work to begin or continue training approved for the individual under §617.22(a).

(2) Trainees ineligible. (i) An individual who, without justifiable cause, fails to begin participation in a training program which is approved under §617.22(a), or ceases to participate in such training, or for whom a waiver is revoked pursuant to §617.19(c), shall not be eligible for basic TRA, or any other payment under this part 617, for the week in which such failure, cessation, or revocation occurred, or any succeeding week thereafter until the week in which the individual begins or resumes participation in a training program that is approved under §617.22(a).

(ii) For purposes of this section and other provisions of this Part 617, the following definitions shall be used:

(A) Failed to begin participation. A worker shall be determined to have failed to begin participation in a training program when the worker fails to attend all scheduled training classes and other training activities in the first week of the training program, without justifiable cause.

(B) Ceased participation. A worker shall be determined to have ceased participation in a training program when the worker fails to attend all scheduled training classes and other training activities scheduled by the training institution in any week of the training program, without justifiable cause.

(C) Justifiable cause. For the purposes of paragraph (b)(2) of this section, the term “justifiable cause” means such reasons as would justify an individual’s conduct when measured by conduct expected of a reasonable individual in like circumstances, including but not limited to reasons beyond the individual’s control and reasons related to the individual’s capability to participate in or complete an approved training program.

(c) Disqualification while in OJT. In no case may an individual receive TRA for any week with respect to which the worker is engaged in on-the-job training.

[51 FR 45848, Dec. 22, 1986, as amended at 53 FR 32350, Aug. 24, 1988; 59 FR 932, Jan. 6, 1994]

§617.19 Requirement for participation in training.

(a) In general—(1) Basic requirement. (i) All individuals otherwise entitled to basic TRA, for all weeks beginning on and after November 21, 1988, must either be enrolled in or participating in a training program approved under § 617.22(a), or have completed a training program approved under § 617.22(a), as provided in § 617.11(a)(2)(vii), in order to be entitled to basic TRA payments for any such week (except for continuation of payments during scheduled breaks in training of 14 days or less under the conditions stated in § 617.15(d)). The training requirement of paragraph (a)(1)(i) of this section shall be waived in writing on an individual basis, solely in regard to entitlement to basic TRA, if approval of training for the individual is not feasible or is not appropriate, as determined in accordance with paragraph (a)(2) of this section.

(ii) As a principal condition of entitlement to additional TRA payments, all individuals must actually be participating in a training program approved under § 617.22(a), for all weeks beginning before November 21, 1988, and for all weeks beginning on and after November 21, 1988 (except for continuation of payments during breaks in training under the conditions stated in § 617.15(d)). Paragraph (a)(2) of this section is not applicable in regard to additional TRA, and the participation in training requirement of paragraph (a)(1)(ii) of this section may not be waived under any circumstances.

(2) Waiver of participation requirement. When it is determined, in accordance with paragraph (a)(2) of this section, that it is not feasible or is not appropriate (as such terms are defined in paragraph (b) of this section) to approve a training program for an individual otherwise entitled to basic TRA, the individual shall be furnished a formal written notice of waiver, with an explanation of the reason(s) for the waiver and a statement of why training is not feasible or is not appropriate in the case of such individual. At a minimum, the written statement furnished to the individual shall contain information required by § 617.50(e) as well as the following information:

- (i) Name and social security number of the individual;
- (ii) Petition number under which the worker was certified;

(iii) A statement why the agency has determined that it is not feasible or is not appropriate to approve training for the individual at that time, and the reason(s) for the finding;

(iv) A statement that the waiver will be revoked at any time that feasible and appropriate training becomes available;

(v) Any other advice or information the State agency deems appropriate in informing the individual;

(vi) Signature block (with signature) for the appropriate State official; and

(3) Denial of a waiver. In any case in which a determination is made to deny to any individual a waiver of the participation requirement, the individual shall be furnished a formal written notice of denial of waiver, which shall contain all of the information required of formal written notices under paragraph (a)(2) of this section.

(4) Procedure. Any determination under paragraph (a)(2) or paragraph (a)(3) of this section shall be a determination to which §§ 617.50 and 617.51 apply, including the requirement that any written notice furnished to an individual shall include notice of the individual's appeal rights as is provided in § 617.50(e).

(b) Reasons for issuing a waiver. (1) For the purposes of paragraphs (a)(2) and (a)(3) of this section, a waiver of the participation in training requirement shall be issued to an individual only upon a supported finding that approval of a § 617.22(a) training program for that individual is not feasible or is not appropriate at that time.

(i) Feasible and appropriate. For the purposes of this section:

(A) Feasible. The term feasible means:

(1) training is available at that time which meets all the criteria of § 617.22(a);

(2) the individual is so situated as to be able to take full advantage of the training opportunity and complete the training; and

(3) funding is available to pay the full costs of the training and any transportation and subsistence expenses which are compensable.

The funding referred to in paragraph (b)(1)(i)(A)(3) of this section includes not only TAA program funds but also all other funds available under any of the provisions of the Job Training Partnership Act (including Title III) or any other Federal, State or private source that may be utilized for training approvable under §617.22(a). Further, the individual's situation in respect to undertaking training (as referred to in paragraph (b)(1)(i)(A)(2) of this section) shall include taking into account personal circumstances that preclude the individual from being able to participate in and complete the training program, such as the availability of transportation, the ability to make arrangements for necessary child care, and adequate financial resources if the weeks of training exceeds the duration of UI and TRA payments.

(B) Appropriate. The term appropriate means being suitable or compatible, fitting, or proper. Appropriate, therefore, refers to suitability of the training for the worker (including whether there is a reasonable prospect which is reasonably foreseeable that the individual will be reemployed by the firm from which separated), and compatibility of the training for the purposes of the TAA Program. In these respects, suitability of training for the individual is encompassed within the several criteria in §617.22 (a), and compatibility with the program is covered by the various provisions of subpart C of this part which describe the types of training approvable under §617.22(a) and the limitations thereon.

(ii) Basis for application. Whether training is feasible or appropriate at any given time is determined by finding whether, at that time, training suitable for the worker is available, the training is approvable under subpart C of this part including the criteria in §617.22(a), the worker is so situated as to be able to take full advantage of the training and satisfactorily complete the training, full funding for the training is available from one or more sources in accordance with §§617.24 and 617.25, the worker has the financial resources to complete the training when the duration of the training program exceeds the worker's eligibility for TRA, and the training will commence within 30 days of approval.

(2) Particular applications. The reasons for any determination that training is not feasible or is not appropriate shall be in accord with the following:

(i) Not feasible because—

(A) The beginning date of approved training is beyond 30 days, as required by the definition for "Enrolled in training" in §617.11(a)(2)(vi)(D),

(B) Training is not reasonably available to the individual,

(C) Training is not available at a reasonable cost,

(D) Funds are not available to pay the total costs of training, or

(E) Personal circumstances such as health or financial resources, preclude participation in training or satisfactory completion of training,

(F) Other (explain).

(ii) Not appropriate because—

(A)(1) The firm from which the individual was separated plans to recall the individual within the reasonably foreseeable future (State agencies must verify planned recalls with the employer),

(2) Planned recall. For the purpose of determining whether the recall or reemployment of an individual is reasonably foreseeable (for the purposes of this section and §617.22), either a specific or general type of recall (as set out) shall be deemed to be sufficient.

(i) Specific recall. A specific recall is where an individual or group of individuals who was separated from employment is identified and notified by the employer to return to work within a specified time period.

(ii) General recall. A general recall is where the employer announces an intention to recall an individual or group of individuals, or by other action reasonably signals an intent to recall, without specifying any certain date or specific time period.

(iii) Reasonably foreseeable. For purposes of determining whether training should be denied and a training waiver granted, because of a planned recall that is reasonably foreseeable, such a planned recall includes a specific recall and also includes a general recall (as defined in paragraph (b)(2)(ii)(A)(2) of this section) if the general recall in each individual's case is reasonably expected to occur before the individual exhausts eligibility for any regular UI payments for which the individual is or may become entitled. A general recall, in which the timing of the recall is reasonably expected to occur after the individual's exhaustion of any regular UI to which the individual is or may become entitled, shall not be treated as precluding approval of training, but shall be treated as any other worker separation for these purposes.

(B) The duration of training suitable for the individual exceeds the individual's maximum entitlement to basic and additional TRA payments and the individual cannot assure financial responsibility for completing the training program,

(C) The individual possesses skills for "suitable employment" and there is a reasonable expectation of employment in the foreseeable future, or

(D) Other (explain).

(3) Waivers and able and available. An individual who has been furnished a written notice of waiver under paragraph (a)(2) of this section (or denial of waiver under paragraph (a)(3) of this section) shall be subject to all of the requirements of §617.17(a), which shall continue until the individual is enrolled in a training program as required by paragraph (a)(2)(vii) of §617.11.

(c) Waiver review and revocations. (1) State agencies must have a procedure for reviewing regularly (i.e., every 30 days or less) all waivers issued under this section to individuals, to ascertain that the conditions upon which the waivers were granted continue to exist. In any case in which the conditions have changed—i.e., training has become feasible and appropriate—then the waiver must be revoked, and a written notice of revocation shall be furnished to the individual involved.

(2) In addition to the periodic reviews required by paragraph (c)(1) of this section, State agencies must have a procedure for revoking waivers in individual cases promptly whenever a change in circumstances occurs. For example, a written notice of revocation shall be issued to the individual concurrent with the approval of the training in which the individual has enrolled (if such training is scheduled to commence within 30 days), and shall not be issued prior to such approval.

(3) State agencies may incorporate a revocation section in the waiver form or on a separate revocation form. Any determination under paragraph (c) of this section shall be a determination to which §§617.50 and 617.51 apply. The information included in a written notice of revocation issued under this paragraph (c) shall include all of the information required for written notices issued under paragraph (a)(2) of this section.

(d) Recordkeeping and reporting. (1) State agencies must develop procedures for compiling and reporting on the number of waivers issued and revoked, by reason, as specified in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, and report such data to the Department of Labor as requested by the Department.

(2) State agencies are not required to forward copies of individual waiver and revocation notices to the Department of Labor, unless specifically requested by the Department. However, each State agency shall retain a copy of every individual waiver and revocation notice issued by the State, for such period of time as the Department requires.

Subpart C—Reemployment Services

§ 617.20 Responsibilities for the delivery of reemployment services.

(a) State agency referral. Cooperating State agencies shall be responsible for:

(1) Advising each adversely affected worker to apply for training with the State agency responsible for reemployment services, while the worker is receiving UI payments, and at the time the individual files an initial claim for TRA; and

(2) Referring each adversely affected worker to the State agency responsible for training and other reemployment services in a timely manner.

(b) State agency responsibilities. The responsibilities of cooperating State agencies under subpart C of this part include, but are not limited to:

(1) Interviewing each adversely affected worker regarding suitable training opportunities reasonably available to each individual under subpart C of this part, reviewing such opportunities with each individual, informing each individual of the requirement for participation in training as a condition for receiving TRA, and accepting each individual's application for training. Such training may be approved for any adversely affected worker at any time after a certification is issued and the worker is determined to be covered without regard to whether the worker has exhausted all rights to unemployment insurance;

(2) Registering adversely affected workers for work;

(3) Informing adversely affected workers of the reemployment services and allowances available under the Act and this Part 617, the application procedures, the filing date requirements for such reemployment services and the training requirement for receiving TRA;

(4) Determining whether suitable employment, as defined in §617.22(a)(1), is available;

(5) Providing counseling, testing, placement, and supportive services;

(6) Providing or procuring self-directed job search training, when necessary;

(7) Providing training, job search and relocation assistance;

(8) Developing a training plan with the individual;

(9) Determining which training institutions offer training programs at a reasonable cost and with a reasonable expectation of employment following the completion of such training, and procuring such training;

(10) Documenting the standards and procedures used to select occupations and training institutions in which training is approved;

(11) Making referrals and approving training programs;

(12) Monitoring the progress of workers in approved training programs;

(13) Developing, and periodically reviewing and updating reemployment plans for adversely affected workers;

(14) Developing and implementing a procedure for reviewing training waivers and revocations at least every 30 days to determine whether the conditions under which they are issued have changed; and

(15) Coordinating the administration and delivery of employment services, benefits, training, and supplemental assistance for adversely affected workers with programs under the Act and under Title III of the Job Training Partnership Act.

§617.21 Reemployment services and allowances.

Reemployment services and allowances shall include, as appropriate, the services and allowances as set forth in this section, provided that those services included within the scope of paragraphs (a) through (e) of this section shall be provided for under any other Federal law other than the Act.

(a) Employment registration. To ensure, so far as practical, that individuals are placed in jobs which utilize their highest skills and that applicants qualified for job openings are appropriately referred, applications for registration shall be taken on adversely affected workers who apply for reemployment services.

(b) Employment counseling. When local job opportunities are not readily available, counseling shall be used to assist individuals to gain a better understanding of themselves in relation to the labor market so that they can more realistically choose or change an occupation or make a suitable job adjustment.

(c) Vocational testing. Testing shall be used to determine which individual skills or potentials can be developed by appropriate training.

(d) Job development. A State agency shall develop jobs for individuals by soliciting job interviews from public or private employers and shall work with potential employers to customize or restructure particular jobs to meet individual needs.

(e) Supportive services. Supportive services shall be provided so individuals can obtain or retain employment or participate in employment and training programs leading to eventual placement in permanent employment. Such services may include work orientation, basic education, communication skills, child care, and any other services necessary to prepare an individual for full employment in accordance with the individual's capabilities and employment opportunities.

(f) On-the-job training (OJT). OJT is training, in the public or private sector, and may be provided to an individual who meets the conditions for approval of training, as provided in § 617.22(a), and who has been hired by the employer, while the individual is engaged in productive work which provides knowledge or skills essential to the full and adequate performance of the job.

(g) Classroom training. This training activity is any training of the type normally conducted in a classroom setting, including vocational education, and may be provided to individuals when the conditions for approval of training are met, as provided in § 617.22(a), to impart technical skills and information required to perform a specific job or group of jobs. Training designed to enhance the employability of individuals by upgrading basic skills, through the provision of courses such as remedial education or English-as-a-second-language, shall be considered as remedial education approvable under § 617.22(a) if the criteria for approval of training under § 617.22(a) are met.

(h) Self-directed job search. Self-directed job search programs shall be initiated to assist individuals in developing skills and techniques for finding a job. Such programs vary in design and operation and call for a carefully structured approach to individual needs. There are basic elements or activities common to all approaches. These include:

(1) Job search workshop. A short (1-3 days) seminar designed to provide participants with knowledge on how to find jobs, including labor market information, applicant resume writing, interviewing techniques, and finding job openings.

(2) Job finding club. Encompasses all elements of the Job Search Workshop plus a period (1-2 weeks) of structured, supervised application where participants actually seek employment.

(i) Job search allowances. The individual, if eligible, shall be provided job search allowances under subpart D of this part 617 to defray the cost of seeking employment outside of the commuting area.

(j) Relocation allowances. The individual, if eligible, shall be provided relocation allowances under subpart E of this part 617 to defray the cost of moving to a new job outside of the commuting area.

[51 FR 45848, Dec. 22, 1986, as amended at 59 FR 934, Jan. 6, 1994]

§ 617.22 Approval of training.

(a) Conditions for approval. Training shall be approved for an adversely affected worker if the State agency determines that:

(1) There is no suitable employment (which may include technical and professional employment) available for an adversely affected worker.

(i) This means that for the worker for whom approval of training is being considered under this section, no suitable employment is available at that time for that worker, either in the commuting area, as defined in § 617.3(k), or outside the commuting area in an area in which the worker desires to relocate with the assistance of a relocation allowance under subpart E of this part, and there is no reasonable prospect of such suitable employment becoming available for the worker in the foreseeable future. For the purposes of paragraph (a)(1) of this section only, the term "suitable employment" means, with respect to a worker, work of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the worker's past adversely affected employment, and wages for such work at not less than 80 percent of the worker's average weekly wage.

(2) The worker would benefit from appropriate training. (i) This means that there is a direct relationship between the needs of the worker for skills training or remedial education and what would be provided by the training program under consideration for the worker, and that the worker has the mental and physical capabilities to undertake, make satisfactory progress in, and complete the training. This includes the further criterion that the individual will be job ready on completion of the training program.

(3) There is a reasonable expectation of employment following completion of such training. (i) This means that, for that worker, given the job market conditions expected to exist at the time of the completion of the training program, there is, fairly and objectively considered, a reasonable expectation that the worker will find a job, using the skills and education acquired while in training, after completion of the training. Any determination under this criterion must take into account that “a reasonable expectation of employment” does not require that employment opportunities for the worker be available, or offered, immediately upon the completion of the approved training. This emphasizes, rather than negates, the point that there must be a fair and objective projection of job market conditions expected to exist at the time of completion of the training.

(4) Training approved by the Secretary is reasonably available to the worker from either governmental agencies or private sources (which may include area vocational education schools, as defined in section 195(2) of the Vocational Education Act of 1963, and employers). (i) This means that training is reasonably accessible to the worker within the worker’s commuting area at any governmental or private training (or education) provider, particularly including on-the-job training with an employer, and it means training that is suitable for the worker and meets the other criteria in paragraph (a) of this section. It also means that emphasis must be given to finding accessible training for the worker, although not precluding training outside the commuting area if none is available at the time within the worker’s commuting area. Whether the training is within or outside the commuting area, the training must be available at a reasonable cost as prescribed in paragraph (a)(6) of this section.

(ii) In determining whether or not training is reasonably available, first consideration shall be given to training opportunities available within the worker’s normal commuting area. Training at facilities outside the worker’s normal commuting area should be approved only if such training is not available in the area or the training to be provided outside the normal commuting area will involve less charges to TAA funds.

(5) The worker is qualified to undertake and complete such training. (i) This emphasizes the worker’s personal qualifications to undertake and complete approved training. Evaluation of the worker’s personal qualifications must include the worker’s physical and mental capabilities, educational background, work experience and financial resources, as adequate to undertake and complete the specific training program being considered.

(ii) Evaluation of the worker’s financial ability shall include an analysis of the worker’s remaining weeks of UI and TRA payments in relation to the duration of the training program. If the worker’s UI and TRA payments will be exhausted before the end of the training program, it shall be ascertained whether personal or family resources will be available to the worker to complete the training. It must be noted on the worker’s record that financial resources were discussed with the worker before the training was approved.

(iii) When adequate financial resources will not be available to the worker to complete a training program which exceeds the duration of UI and TRA payments, the training shall not be approved and consideration shall be given to other training opportunities available to the worker.

(6) Such training is suitable for the worker and available at a reasonable cost.

(i) Such training means the training being considered for the worker. Suitable for the worker means that paragraph (a)(5) of this section is met and that the training is appropriate for the worker given the worker’s capabilities, background and experience.

(ii) Available at a reasonable cost means that training may not be approved at one provider when, all costs being considered, training substantially similar in quality, content and results can be obtained from another provider at a lower total cost within a similar time frame. It also means that training may not be approved when the costs of the training are unreasonably high in comparison with the average costs of training other workers in similar occupations at other providers. This criterion also requires taking into consideration the funding of training costs from sources other than TAA funds, and the least cost to TAA funding of providing suitable training opportunities to the worker. Greater emphasis will need to be given to these elements in determining the reasonable costs of training, particularly in view of the requirements in § 617.11(a) (2) and (3) that TRA claimants be enrolled in and participate in training.

(iii) For the purpose of determining reasonable costs of training, the following elements shall be considered:

(A) Costs of a training program shall include tuition and related expenses (books, tools, and academic fees), travel or transportation expenses, and subsistence expenses;

(B) In determining whether the costs of a particular training program are reasonable, first consideration must be given to the lowest cost training which is available within the commuting area. When training, substantially similar in quality, content and results, is offered at more than one training provider, the lowest cost training shall be approved; and

(C) Training at facilities outside the worker's normal commuting area that involves transportation or subsistence costs which add substantially to the total costs shall not be approved if other appropriate training is available.

(b) Allowable amounts for training. In approving a worker's application for training, the conditions for approval in paragraph (a) of this section must be found to be satisfied, including assurance that the training is suitable for the worker, is at the lowest reasonable cost, and will enable the worker to obtain employment within a reasonable period of time. An application for training shall be denied if it is for training in an occupational area which requires an extraordinarily high skill level and for which the total costs of the training are substantially higher than the costs of other training which is suitable for the worker.

(c) Previous approval of training under State law. Training previously approved for a worker under State law or other authority is not training approved under paragraph (a) of this section. Any such training may be approved under paragraph (a) of this section, if all of the requirements and limitations of paragraph (a) of this section and other provisions of Subpart C of this part are met, but such approval shall not be retroactive for any of the purposes of this Part 617, including payment of the costs of the training and payment of TRA to the worker participating in the training. However, in the case of a redetermination or decision reversing a determination denying approval of training, for the purposes of this Part 617 such redetermination or decision shall be given effect retroactive to the issuance of the determination that was reversed by such redetermination or decision; but no costs of training may be paid unless such costs actually were incurred for training in which the individual participated, and no additional TRA may be paid with respect to any week the individual was not actually participating in the training.

(d) Applications. Applications for, selection for, approval of, or referral to training shall be filed in accordance with this subpart C and on forms which shall be furnished to individuals by the State agency.

(e) Determinations. Selection for, approval of, or referral of an individual to training under this subpart C, or a decision with respect to any specific training or non-selection, non-approval, or non-referral for any reason shall be a determination to which §§ 617.50 and 617.51 apply.

(f) Length of training and hours of attendance. The State agency shall determine the appropriateness of the length of training and the hours of attendance as follows:

(1) The training shall be of suitable duration to achieve the desired skill level in the shortest possible time;

(2) Length of training. The maximum duration for any approvable training program is 104 weeks (during which training is conducted) and no individual shall be entitled to more than one training program under a single certification.

§617.23

(3) Training program. (i) For purposes of this Part 617, a training program may consist of a single course or group of courses which is designed and approved by the State agency for an individual to meet a specific occupational goal.

(ii) When an approved training program involves more than one course and involves breaks in training (within or between courses, or within or between terms, quarters, semesters and academic years), all such breaks in training are subject to the "14-day break in training" provision in §617.15(d), for purposes of receiving TRA payments. An individual's approved training program may be amended by the State agency to add a course designed to satisfy unforeseen needs of the individual, such as remedial education or specific occupational skills, as long as the length of the amended training program does not exceed the 104-week training limitation in paragraph (f)(2) of this section.

(4) Full-time training. Individuals in TAA approved training shall attend training full time, and when other training is combined with OJT attendance at both shall be not less than full-time. The hours in a day and days in a week of attendance in training shall be full-time in accordance with established hours and days of training of the training provider.

(g) Training of reemployed workers. Adversely affected workers who obtain new employment which is not suitable employment, as described in §617.22(a)(1), and have been approved for training may elect to:

(1) Terminate their jobs, or

(2) Continue in full- or part-time employment, to undertake such training, and shall not be subject to ineligibility or disqualification for UI or TRA as a result of such termination or reduction in employment.

(h) Fees prohibited. In no case shall an individual be approved for training under this subpart C for which the individual is required to pay a fee or tuition.

(i) Training outside the United States. In no case shall an individual be approved for training under this subpart C which is conducted totally or par-

§617.23 Selection of training methods and programs.

(a) State agency responsibilities. If suitable employment as described in §617.22(a)(1), is not otherwise available to an individual or group of individuals, it is the responsibility of the State agency to explore, identify, develop and secure training opportunities and to establish linkages with other public and private agencies, Private Industry Councils (PICs), employers, and Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA) service delivery area (SDA) grant recipients, as appropriate, which return adversely affected workers to employment as soon as possible.

(b) Firm-specific retraining program. To the extent practicable before referring an adversely affected worker to approved training, the State agency shall consult with the individual's adversely affected firm and certified or recognized union, or other authorized representative, to develop a retraining program that meets the firm's staffing needs and preserves or restores the employment relationship between the individual and the firm. The fact that there is no need by other employers in the area for individuals in a specific occupation for which training is undertaken shall not preclude the development of an individual retraining program for such occupation with the adversely affected firm.

(c) Methods of training. Adversely affected workers may be provided either one or a combination of the following methods of training:

(1) Insofar as possible, priority will be given to on-the-job training, which includes related education necessary to acquire skills needed for a position within a particular occupation, in the firm or elsewhere pursuant to §§617.24, 617.25, and 617.26, including training for which the firm pays the costs. This ensures that on-the-job training provides the skills necessary for the individual to obtain employment in an occupation rather than a particular job at a specific site; and

§ 617.25

(2) Institutional training, with priority given to providing the training in public area vocational education schools if it is determined that such schools are at least as effective and efficient as other institutional alternatives, pursuant to §§ 617.24, 617.25, and 617.26.

(d) Standards and procedures. The State agency shall document the standards and procedures used to select occupations and training institutions in which training is approved. Such occupations and training shall offer a reasonable expectation (not necessarily a prior guarantee) of employment following such training.

(1) Standards. The State agency shall approve training in occupations for which an identifiable demand exists either in the local labor market or in other labor markets for which relocation planning has been implemented. If practicable, placement rates and employer reviews of curriculum shall be used as guides in the selection of training institutions.

(2) Procedures. In determining the types of training to be provided, the State agency shall consult with local employers, appropriate labor organizations, Job Service Improvement Program Committees, JTPA SDA grant recipients, PICs, local educational organizations, local apprenticeship programs, local advisory councils established under the Carl D. Perkins Vocational Education Act, and post-secondary institutions.

(3) Exclusions. In determining suitable training the State agency shall exclude certain occupations, where:

(i) Lack of employment opportunities exist as substantiated by job orders and other pertinent labor market data; or

(ii) The occupation provides no reasonable expectation of permanent employment.

§ 617.24 Preferred training.

Training programs that may be approved under § 617.22(a) include, but are not limited to—

(a) On-the-job training,

(b) Any training program provided by a State pursuant to Title III of the Job Training Partnership Act,

(c) Any training program approved by a private industry council established under the Job Training Partnership Act,

(d) Any program of remedial education,

(e) Any training program (other than a training program described in paragraph (c) of § 617.25) for which all, or any portion, of the costs of training the worker are paid—

(1) Under any other Federal or State program other than this Subpart C, or

(2) From any other source other than this section, but not including sources personal to the individual, such as self, relatives, or friends, and

(f) Any other training program approved by the Department.

§ 617.25 Limitations on training under Subpart C of this part.

The second sentence of amended section 236(a)(1) of the Act provides that an adversely affected worker shall be entitled to have payment of the costs of training approved under the Act paid on the worker's behalf, subject, however, "to the limitations imposed by" section 236. The limitations in section 236 which are implemented in this section concern the restrictions on approval of training which are related directly or indirectly to the conditions on training which are approvable or on the funding of training costs.

(a) On-the-job training. The costs of on-the-job training approved Subpart C of this part for a worker, which are paid from TAA funds, shall be paid in equal monthly installments. Such costs may be paid from TAA funds, and such training may be approved under subpart C of this part, however, only if the State agency determines that:

(1) No currently employed individual is displaced by such eligible worker, including partial displacement such as a reduction in the hours of non-overtime work, wages, or employment benefits;

(2) Such training does not impair existing contracts for services or collective bargaining agreements;

(3) In the case of training which would be inconsistent with the terms of a collective bargaining agreement, written concurrence has been obtained from the concerned labor organization;

(4) No other individual is on layoff from the same or any substantially equivalent job for which such eligible worker is being trained;

(5) The employer has not terminated the employment of any regular employee or otherwise reduced the work force with the intention of filling the vacancy so created by hiring the eligible worker;

(6) The job for which the eligible worker is being trained is not being created in a promotional line that will infringe in any way upon the promotional opportunities of currently employed individuals;

(7) Such training is not for the same occupation from which the worker was separated and with respect to which such worker's group was certified pursuant to section 222 of the Act;

(8) The employer certifies to the State agency that the employer will continue to employ the eligible worker for at least 26 weeks after completing the training if the worker desires to continue such employment and the employer does not have due cause to terminate such employment;

(9) The employer has not received payment under this Subpart C or under any other Federal law for any other on-the-job training provided by such employer which failed to meet the requirements of paragraphs (a)(1) through (a)(6) of this section or such other Federal law; and

(10) The employer has not taken, at any time, any action which violated the terms of any certification described in paragraph (a)(8) of this section made by the employer with respect to any other on-the-job training provided by the employer for which the employer has received a payment under Subpart C of this part (or the prior provisions of Subpart C of this part).

(b) Other authority and restrictions on funding—

(1) In general. Section 236(a) contains several provisions which allow the costs of a training program approved under the Act to be paid—

- (i) Solely from TAA funds,
- (ii) Solely from other public or private funds, or
- (iii) Partly from TAA funds and partly from other public or private funds, but also precludes the use of TAA funds or funds under another Federal law where such use of funds would result in duplication of payment of training costs. Those authorities and restrictions are spelled out in paragraph (b) of this section: Provided, that, private funds may not include funds from sources personal to the individual, such as self, relatives, or friends.

(2) Section 236(a)(5)(E) of the Act. (i) In general. Paragraph (5)(E) of section 236(a) of the Act specifies one of the types of training programs approvable under the Act, as including a program (other than a training program described in section 236(a)(7) (paragraph (b)(5) of this section)) for which all, or any portion, of the costs of the training program are paid—

(A) Under any Federal or State program other than the Act, or

(B) From any source other than TAA funds.

(ii) Application. Paragraph (E) of section 236(a)(5) of the Act thus authorizes prearrangements between cooperating State agencies administering the TAA program and the authorities administering any other Federal, State, or private funding source, to agree upon any mix of TAA funds and other funds for paying the costs of a training program approved under Subpart C of this part. Any such prearrangement must contain specific commitments from the other authorities to pay the costs they agree to assume.

(3) Section 236(a)(6) of the Act. (i) In general. Paragraph (6) of section 236(a) of the Act is related to section 236(a)(5)(E) in providing that the costs of a training program approved under the Act are not required to be paid from TAA funds to the extent that such costs are paid under any Federal or State program other than the Act or from any source other than the Act.

(ii) Application. (A) Although paragraph (6) of section 236(a) of the Act is expressed in terms of the costs not being required to be paid from TAA funds, it authorizes the mixing of TAA funds and funds from any other Federal, State or private source. Therefore, sharing the future costs of training is authorized where prior costs were paid from another Federal, State or private source, but this does not authorize reimbursement from TAA funds of any training costs which were incurred and for which payment became due prior to the approval of the training program under Subpart C of this part. In utilizing the authority under paragraph (b)(3) of this section for sharing training costs, prearrangements shall be entered into as required under paragraph (b)(2) of this section before any TAA funds are obligated.

(B) Paragraph (6) of section 236(a) contains a special restriction on the authority derived thereunder to use TAA funds in sharing training costs. Therefore, before approving any training program under Subpart C of this part, which may involve sharing of the training costs under the authority of paragraph (b)(3) of this section, the cooperating State agencies for the TAA program shall require the worker to enter into a written agreement with the State under which TAA funds will not be applied for or used to pay any portion of the costs of the training the worker has reason to believe will be paid by any other governmental or private source.

(4) Section 236(a)(4) of the Act. (i) In general. (A) Paragraph (4) of section 236(a) of the Act (paragraph (3) of section 236(a) before August 23, 1988) continues to provide, as it did before the addition of paragraphs (5)(E), (6), and (7) to section 236(a), that:

(1) When the costs of training are paid from TAA funds under subpart C of this part, no other payment for such costs of training may be made under any other Federal law; and

(2) When the payment of the costs of training has already been made under any other Federal law, or the costs are reimbursable under any other Federal law and a portion of the costs has already been paid under such other Federal law, payment of such training costs may not be made from TAA funds.

(B) Paragraph (4) of section 236(a) also requires that: The provisions of paragraphs (b)(4)(i) (A)(1) and (A)(2) of this section shall not apply to, or take into account, any funds provided under any other provision of Federal law which are used for any purpose other than the direct payment of the identical costs incurred in training the adversely affected worker under the TAA Program, even if such other use has the effect of indirectly paying or reducing any portion of the costs involved in training the adversely affected worker.

(ii) Application. (A) Although the prohibition on duplicate payments in the first part of section 236(a)(4) remains fully implemented in this section, the second part of section 236(a)(4) on the sharing of costs from TAA funds and other Federal fund sources is modified by the explicit provisions of paragraphs (5)(E) and (6) of section 236(a), as set forth in paragraphs (b)(2) and (b)(3) of this section.

(B) When the direct costs of a training program approvable under subpart C of this part are payable from TAA funds and are also wholly or partially payable under another Federal law, or under any State law or from private, nongovernmental sources, the TAA Program agencies shall establish procedures which ensure that TAA funds shall not be utilized to duplicate funds available from another source, but this preclusion of duplication does not prohibit and shall not discourage sharing of costs under prearrangements authorized under paragraphs (b)(2) and (b)(3) of this section.

(C)(1) Therefore, pursuant to paragraph (4) of section 236(a), paragraph (b)(4) of this section continues to prohibit duplicate payment of training costs, which is consistent with the general prohibition expressed in subpart C of this part, against any use of TAA funds to duplicate payment of training costs in any circumstances. Paragraph (b)(4) of this section also continues to prohibit taking into account, in determining whether training costs are payable from TAA funds, any payments to the worker under any other Federal law which may have the effect of indirectly paying all or a portion of the training costs. Such indirect payments include Veterans Educational Assistance, Pell Grants, and Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants, which are paid to the individual. However, any payments to the individual under these programs are deductible from TRA payable to the individual under § 617.13(c)(2).

§ 617.26

(2) When payments of Veterans Educational Assistance, Pell Grants, and Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants are made to the training provider, instead of the individual, and are used for training costs, such payments shall be taken into account as direct payment of the training costs under other Federal law for the purposes of this section.

(5) Section 236(a)(7) of the Act. (i) In general. Paragraph (7) of section 236(a) of the Act provides that a training program shall not be approved under the Act if—

(A) all or a portion of the costs of such training program are paid under any nongovernmental plan or program,

(B) the adversely affected worker has a right to obtain training or funds for training under such plan or program, and

(C) such plan or program requires the worker to reimburse the plan or program from funds provided under the Act, or from wages paid under such training program, for any portion of the costs of such training program paid under the plan or program.

(ii) Application. Paragraph (7) of section 236(a), which is implemented in paragraph (b)(5) of this section, reinforces the prohibition in § 617.22(h) against approval of a training program under subpart C of this part if the worker is required to pay a fee or tuition. The provisions of paragraph (b) and paragraph (h) of this section shall be given effect as prohibiting the approval under subpart C of this part of any training program if the worker would be requested or required, at any time or under any circumstances, to pay any of the costs of a training program, however small, from any TAA funds given to the worker or from any other funds belonging to the worker from any source whatever. Aside from this stringent limitation, however, paragraph (7) of section 236(a) of the Act implicitly authorizes training approved under this subpart C to be wholly or partly funded from nongovernmental (i.e., employer, union or other private) sources.

20 CFR Ch. V (4–1–03 Edition)

§ 617.26 Liable and agent State responsibilities.

(a) Liable State. The liable State means, for any individual, the State which administers the applicable State law (as determined under § 617.16). The liable State is responsible for making all determinations, redeterminations, and decisions on appeals on all claims for program benefits under this part 617, including waivers and revocations of waivers pursuant to § 617.19, subsistence payments pursuant to § 617.27, and transportation payments pursuant to § 617.28. Upon receiving a copy of a certification issued by the Department, with respect to an affected firm in the State, the liable State also is responsible for publishing newspaper notices as provided in § 617.4(d), furnishing information and assistance to workers as provided in § 617.4, furnishing reemployment services under subparts C, D, and E of this part to all eligible workers covered by such certification, and carrying out other activities and functions required by the State's Agreement with the Secretary entered into pursuant to § 617.59. All determinations pertaining to any individual's eligibility for or entitlement to any program benefit under this part 617 shall be subject to the provisions of §§ 617.50 and 617.51.

(b) Agent State. Agent State means, for any individual, any State other than the liable State for the individual. Agent States shall be responsible for cooperating fully with the liable State and assisting the liable State in carrying out its activities and functions. These agent State responsibilities shall be part of the activities and functions undertaken by the agent States under their Agreements entered into pursuant to § 617.59. Agent State responsibilities include cooperating with liable States in taking applications and claims for TAA, providing reemployment services to certified workers in accordance with subparts B, C, D and E of this part, providing interstate claimants with TAA program information and assistance, assisting applicants or claimants to file claims for TAA program benefits and services, cooperating with the liable State by providing information needed to issue determinations, redeterminations, and decisions on appeals, and procuring and paying the cost of any approved training, including subsistence and transportation costs, according to determinations issued by the liable State.

§ 617.27 Subsistence payments.

(a) Eligibility. A trainee under this subpart C shall be afforded supplemental assistance necessary to pay costs of separate maintenance when the training facility is located outside the commuting area, but may not receive such supplemental assistance for any period for which the trainee receives such a payment under the JTPA, or any other law, or for any day referred to under § 617.28(c)(3) pursuant to which a transportation allowance is payable to the individual, or to the extent the individual is entitled to be paid or reimbursed for such expenses from any other source.

(b) Amount. Subsistence payments shall not exceed the lesser of:

(1) The individual's actual per diem expenses for subsistence; or

(2) 50 percent of the prevailing per diem rate authorized under the Federal travel regulations (see 41 CFR part 101-7) for the locale of the training.

(c) Applications. Applications for subsistence payments shall be filed in accordance with this subpart C and on forms which shall be furnished to trainees by the State agency. Such payments shall be made on completion of a week of training, except that at the beginning of a training project a State agency may advance a payment for a week if it determines that such advance is necessary to enable a trainee to accept training. An adjustment shall be made if the amount of an advance is less or more than the amount to which the trainee is entitled under paragraph (b) of this section. A determination as to an application made under this section shall be subject to §§ 617.50 and 617.51.

(d) Unexcused absences. No subsistence payment shall be made to an individual for any day of unexcused absence as certified by the responsible training facility.

§ 617.28 Transportation payments.

(a) Eligibility. A trainee under this subpart C shall be afforded supplemental assistance necessary to pay transportation expenses if the training is outside the commuting area, but may not receive such assistance if transportation is arranged for the trainee as part of a group and paid for by the State agency or to the extent the trainee receives a payment of transportation expenses under another Federal law, or to the extent the individual is entitled to be paid or reimbursed for such expenses from any other source.

(b) Amount. A transportation allowance shall not exceed the lesser of:

(1) The actual cost for travel by the least expensive means of transportation reasonably available between the trainee's home and the training facility; or

(2) The cost per mile at the prevailing mileage rate authorized under the Federal travel regulations. See 41 CFR part 101-7.

(c) Travel included. Travel for which a transportation allowance shall be paid includes travel:

(1) At the beginning and end of the training program;

(2) When the trainee fails for good cause, as described in § 617.18(b)(2), to complete the training program; and

(3) For daily commuting, in lieu of subsistence, but not exceeding the amount otherwise payable as subsistence for each day of commuting.

(d) Applications. Applications for transportation payments shall be filed in accordance with this subpart C and on forms which shall be furnished to trainees by the State agency. Payments may be made in advance. An adjustment shall be made if the amount of an advance is less or more than the amount to which the trainee is entitled under paragraph (b) of this section. A determination as to an application made under this section shall be subject to §§ 617.50 and 617.51.

§ 617.29 Application of EB work test.

(a) Registration for employment. Adversely affected workers who have exhausted all rights to UI and who otherwise qualify for TRA under § 617.11, shall, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section:

§ 617.30

(1) Register for work and be referred to work by the State agency in the same manner as required for EB claimants under the applicable State law provisions which are consistent with section 202(a)(3) of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970; and

(2) Be subject to the work test requirements for EB claimants under the applicable State law provisions which are consistent with section 202(a)(3) of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970.

(b) Exceptions. Paragraph (a) of this section shall not apply to any week an individual is undergoing training approved under this subpart C.

Subpart D—Job Search Allowances

§ 617.30 General.

A job search allowance shall be granted an adversely affected worker to assist the individual in securing a job within the United States as provided in this subpart D.

§ 617.31 Applications.

(a) Forms. Applications for job search allowances shall be filed in accordance with this subpart D and on forms which shall be furnished to individuals by the State agency.

(b) Submittal. An application may be submitted to a State agency at any time by an individual who has been totally or partially separated whether or not a certification covering the individual has been made. However, an application must be submitted to a State agency before the job search begins for the job search allowance to be granted, and the job search may not be approved until after the individual is covered under a certification.

(c) Time limits. Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this section, a job search allowance application may be approved only if submitted before:

(1) The 365th day after the date of the certification under which the individual is covered, or the 365th day after the date of the individual's last total separation, whichever is later; or

20 CFR Ch. V (4–1–03 Edition)

(2) The 182d day after the concluding date of training approved under subpart C of this part 617, or approved under the regulations superseded by this part 617.

§ 617.32 Eligibility.

(a) Conditions. Job search allowance eligibility requires:

(1) A timely filed application;

(2) Total separation from adversely affected employment at the time the job search commences;

(3) Registration with the State agency which shall furnish the individual such reemployment services as are appropriate under subpart C of this part 617.

(4) A determination by the State agency that the individual has no reasonable expectation of securing suitable employment in the commuting area, and has a reasonable expectation of obtaining suitable employment of long-term duration outside the commuting area and in the area where the job search will be conducted. For the purposes of this section, the term "suitable employment" means suitable work as defined in § 617.3(kk) (1) or (2), whichever is applicable to the individual; and

(5) Completion of the job search within a reasonable period not exceeding 30 days after the day on which the job search began.

(b) Completion of job search. A job search is deemed completed when the individual either secures employment or has contacted each employer to whom referred by the State agency in connection with a job search.

(c) Verification of employer contacts. The State agency shall verify contacts with employers certified by the individual.

§ 617.33 Findings required.

(a) Findings by liable State. Before final payment of a job search allowance may be approved, the following findings shall be made by the liable State:

(1) The individual meets the eligibility requirements for a job search allowance specified in § 617.32(a) (1) through (4);

(2) The application for a job search allowance was submitted by the individual within the time limits specified in §617.31(c); and

(3) The individual completed the job search within the time limits stated in §617.32(a)(5), and the requirements of paragraphs (b) and (c) of §617.32 have been met.

(b) Agent State. (1) When an individual files an application for a job search allowance with respect to a job search conducted in a State other than the liable State, the State agency of the State in which the individual conducts the job search shall serve as the agent State and be responsible for assisting the individual in conducting the job search and in filing an application for a job search allowance with the liable State, and for assisting the liable State by furnishing to it any information required for the liable State's determination of the claim.

(2) The agent State shall cooperate fully with the liable State in carrying out its activities and functions with regard to such applications.

§617.34 Amount.

(a) Computation. The amount of a job search allowance shall be 90 percent of the total costs of each of the following allowable transportation and subsistence items:

(1) Travel. The more cost effective mode of travel reasonably available shall be approved by using:

(i) The actual cost of round trip travel by the most economical public transportation the individual reasonably can be expected to take from the individual's residence to the area of job search; or

(ii) The cost per mile at the prevailing mileage rate authorized under the Federal travel regulations (see 41 CFR part 101-7) for such roundtrip travel by the usual route from the individual's residence to the area of job search.

(2) Lodging and meals. The cost allowable for lodging and meals shall not exceed the lesser of:

(i) The actual cost to the individual of lodging and meals while engaged in the job search; or

(ii) 50 percent of the prevailing per diem allowance rate authorized under the Federal travel regulations (see 41 CFR part 101-7) for the locality where the job search is conducted.

(b) Limit. The total job search allowances paid to an individual under a certification may not exceed $800, regardless of the number of job searches undertaken by the individual. The amounts otherwise payable under paragraph (a) of this section shall be reduced by any amounts the individual is entitled to be paid or reimbursed for such expenses from any other source.

[51 FR 45848, Dec. 22, 1986, as amended at 51 FR 45869, Dec. 22, 1986; 53 FR 32351, Aug. 24, 1988; 59 FR 939, Jan. 6, 1994]

§617.35 Time and method of payment.

(a) Determinations. A State agency shall promptly make and record determinations necessary to assure entitlement of an individual to a job search allowance at any time, before or after a certification covering the individual is made. No job search allowance may be paid or advanced to an individual until the State agency determines that the individual is covered under a certification. A State agency shall make payment as promptly as possible upon determining that the individual is covered under a certification and is otherwise eligible.

(b) Payment. Unless paragraph (a) of this section applies, a job search allowance shall be paid promptly after an individual completes a job search and complies with paragraph (d) of this section.

(c) Advances. A State agency may advance an individual (except an individual not yet covered under a certification) 60 percent of the estimated amount of the job search allowance payable on completion of the job search, but not exceeding $360, within 5 days prior to commencement of a job search. Such advance shall be deducted from any payment under paragraph (b) of this section.

(d) Worker evidence. On completion of a job search, the individual shall certify on forms furnished by the State agency as to employer contacts made and amounts expended daily for lodging and meals. Receipts shall be required for all lodging and purchased transportation expenses incurred by the individual pursuant to the job search. An adjustment shall be made if the amount of an advance is less or more than the amount to which the individual is entitled under § 617.34.

Subpart E—Relocation Allowances

A relocation allowance shall be granted an adversely affected worker to assist the individual and the individual's family, if any, to relocate within the United States as stated in this subpart E. A relocation allowance may be granted an individual only once under a certification. A relocation allowance shall not be granted to more than one member of a family with respect to the same relocation. If applications for a relocation allowance are made by more than one member of a family as to the same relocation, the allowance shall be paid to the head of the family if otherwise eligible.

§ 617.41 Applications.

(a) Forms. Applications for a relocation allowance shall be filed in accordance with this subpart E and on forms which shall be furnished by the State agency.

(b) Submittal. An application may be submitted to the State agency at any time by an individual who has been totally or partially separated regardless of whether a certification covering the individual has been made. However, an application must be submitted to a State agency before the relocation begins for the relocation allowance to be granted, and the relocation may not be approved until after the individual is covered under a certification.

(c) Time limits. Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this section, an application for a relocation allowance may not be approved unless submitted before:

(1) The 425th day after the date of the certification under which the individual is covered, or the 425th day after the date of the individual's last total separation, whichever is later; or

(2) The 182d day after the concluding date of training approved under subpart C of this part 617, or approved under the regulations superseded by this part 617.

§ 617.42 Eligibility.

(a) Conditions. Eligibility for a relocation allowance requires:

- (1) A timely filed application;
- (2) Total separation from adversely affected employment at the time relocation commences;
- (3) No prior receipt of a relocation allowance under the same certification;
- (4) Relocation within the United States and outside the individual's present commuting area;
- (5) Registration with the State agency which shall furnish the individual such reemployment services as are appropriate under subpart C of this part 617;

(6) A determination by the State agency that the individual has no reasonable expectation of securing suitable employment in the commuting area, and has obtained suitable employment affording a reasonable expectation of employment of long-term duration, or a bona fide offer of such suitable employment, outside the commuting area and in the area of intended relocation. For the purposes of this section, the term "suitable employment" means suitable work as defined in § 617.3(kk) (1) and (2), whichever is applicable to the individual; and

(7) Relocation beginning within a reasonable period, as determined under § 617.43(b), and completion of such relocation within a reasonable period of time as determined in accordance with Federal travel regulations and § 617.43(a).

(b) Job search. Applications for a relocation allowance and a job search allowance may not be approved concurrently, but the prior payment of a job search allowance shall not otherwise preclude the payment of a relocation allowance.

§ 617.43 Time of relocation.

(a) Applicable considerations. In determining whether an individual's relocation is completed in a reasonable period of time, a State agency, among other factors, shall consider whether:

- (1) Suitable housing is available in the area of relocation;

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 617.46

(2) The individual can dispose of the individual's residence;

(3) The individual or a family member is ill; and

(4) A member of the individual's family is attending school and when the member can best be transferred to a school in the area of relocation.

(b) Time limits. The reasonable period for actually beginning a relocation move shall expire 182 days after the date of application for a relocation allowance, or 182 days after the conclusion of training approved under subpart C of this part 617, or approved under the regulations in former 29 CFR part 91, in effect prior to its redesignation as this 20 CFR part 617 and its concurrent revision.

§ 617.44 Findings required.

(a) Findings by liable State. Before final payment of a relocation allowance may be approved, the following findings shall be made by the liable State:

(1) The individual meets the eligibility requirements for a relocation allowance specified in § 617.42(a) (1) to (6) and § 617.42(b).

(2) The application for a relocation allowance was submitted by the individual within the time limits specified in § 617.41(c);

(3) The individual began and completed the relocation within the limitations specified in § 617.42(a)(7) and § 617.43; and

(4) The liable State has verified (directly or through the agent State) with the employer, and finds, that the individual has obtained suitable employment affording a reasonable expectation of employment of long-term duration, or a bona fide offer of such suitable employment, in the area of intended relocation, in accordance with § 617.42(a)(6).

(b) Agent State. (1) When an individual relocates in a State other than the liable State, the State agency of the State in which the individual relocates shall serve as the agent State and be responsible for:

(i) Assisting the individual in relocating to the State, and in filing an application for a relocation allowance with the liable State, and

(ii) Assisting the liable State by furnishing to it any information required for the liable State's determination on the claim.

(2) The agent State shall cooperate with the liable State in carrying out its activities and functions with regard to such applications. When requested by the liable State, the agent State shall verify with the employer and report to the liable State whether the individual has obtained suitable employment affording a reasonable expectation of employment of long-term duration, or a bona fide offer of such suitable employment.

§ 617.45 Amount.

(a) Items allowable. The amount payable as a relocation allowance shall include the following items:

(1) 90 percent of the travel expenses for the individual and family, if any, from the individual's place of residence to the area of relocation, as determined under § 617.46;

(2) 90 percent of the expenses of moving household goods and personal effects of the individual and family, if any, not to exceed the maximum number of pounds net weight authorized under the Federal travel regulations (see 41 CFR part 101-7), between such locations, as determined under § 617.47; and

(3) A lump sum payment, equal to 3 times the individual's average weekly wage, not to exceed $800.

(b) Reduction. The amount otherwise payable under paragraphs (a)(1) and (a)(2) of this section shall be reduced by any amount the individual is entitled to be paid or reimbursed for such expenses from any other source.

§ 617.46 Travel allowance.

(a) Computation. The amount of travel allowance (including lodging and meals) payable under § 617.45(a)(1) shall be 90 percent of the total costs of each of the following allowable transportation and subsistence items:

§ 617.47

(1) Transportation. The more cost effective mode of transportation reasonably available shall be approved by using:

(i) The actual cost of transportation for the individual and family, if any, by the most economical public transportation the individual and family reasonably can be expected to take from the individual's old residence to the individual's new residence in the area of relocation; or

(ii) The cost per mile at the prevailing mileage rate authorized under the Federal travel regulations (see 41 CFR part 101-7) for the usually traveled route from the individual's old residence to the individual's new residence in the area of relocation. No additional mileage shall be payable for family members traveling on the same trip in the same vehicle.

(2) Lodging and meals. The cost allowable for lodging and meals for an individual or each member of the individual's family shall not exceed the lesser of:

(i) The actual cost to the individual for lodging and meals while in travel status; or

(ii) 50 percent of the prevailing per diem allowance rate authorized under the Federal travel regulations (see 41 CFR part 101-7) for the locality to which the relocation is made.

(b) Separate travel. If, for good cause, a member or members of an individual's family must travel separately to the individual's new residence, 90 percent of the total costs of such separate travel, computed in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, shall be included in calculating the total amount the individual is entitled to be paid under this subpart E. For purposes of this paragraph (b), good cause means such reasons as would justify the family member's inability to relocate with the other members of the individual's family, including but not limited to reasons related to the family member's health, schooling or economic circumstances.

(c) Limitation. In no case may the individual be paid a travel allowance for the individual or a member of the indi-

§ 617.47 Moving allowance.

(a) Computation. The amount of a moving allowance payable under § 617.45(a)(2) shall be 90 percent of the total of the allowable costs under either (1), (2), or (3) of this paragraph, and 90 percent of the total allowable costs under (4) of this paragraph:

(1) Commercial carrier. Allowable costs for moving household goods and personal effects of an individual and family, if any, shall not exceed the maximum number of pounds net weight authorized under the Federal travel regulations (see 41 CFR part 101-7) by commercial carrier from the individual's old residence to the individual's new residence in the area of relocation, including reasonable and necessary accessorial charges, by the most economical commercial carrier the individual reasonably can be expected to use. Before undertaking such move, the individual must submit to the State agency an estimate from a commercial carrier as to the cost thereof. Accessorial charges shall include the cost of insuring such goods and effects for their actual value or $10,000, whichever is least, against loss or damage in transit, if a bid from a licensed insurer is obtained by the individual and approved by the State agency before departure. If a State agency finds it is more economical to pay a carrier an extra charge to assume the responsibility of a common carrier for such goods and effects, 90 percent of such extra charge, but not exceeding $50, shall be paid in lieu of the cost of insurance.

(2) Trailer or rental truck—(i) Trailer. If household goods and personal effects are moved by trailer, the allowable costs shall be:

(A) If the trailer is hauled by private vehicle, the cost per mile for the use of the private vehicle at the prevailing mileage rate authorized under the Federal travel regulations (see 41 CFR part 101-7) for the usually traveled route from the individual's old residence to the individual's new residence in the area of relocation; and

(B) If the trailer is rented, and of the type customarily used for moving household goods and personal effects, the rental fee for each day reasonably required to complete the move; or

(C) The actual charge if hauling is by commercial carrier,

(ii) Rental truck. If household goods and personal effects are moved by rental truck of the type customarily used for moving household goods and personal effects, the allowable costs shall be:

(A) The rental fee for each day reasonably required to complete the move; and

(B) The necessary fuel for such rental truck paid by the individual.

(3) House trailer. If a house trailer or mobile home was used as the individual's place of residence in the old area and will be so used in the new area, the allowable costs of moving such house trailer or mobile home shall be:

(i) The commercial carrier's charges for moving the house trailer or mobile home;

(ii) Charges for unblocking and reblocking;

(iii) Ferry charges, bridge, road, and tunnel tolls, taxes, fees fixed by a State or local authority for permits to transport the unit in or through its jurisdiction, and retention of necessary flagmen; and

(iv) The cost of insuring the house trailer or mobile home, and the personal effects of the individual and family, against loss or damage in transit, in accordance with the provisions in paragraph (a)(1) of this section.

(4) Temporary storage. If temporary storage of household goods and personal effects is necessary, the cost of such temporary storage for a period not to exceed 60 days.

(b) Travel. Payments under this section shall be in addition to payments for travel expenses for the individual and family, if any, under § 617.45(a)(1), except that the allowable cost for a private vehicle used to haul a trailer may not be paid under this section if any cost with respect to such private vehicle is payable under any other provisions of this subpart E.

§ 617.48 Time and method of payment.

(a) Determinations. A State agency shall promptly make and record determinations necessary to assure an individual's entitlement to a relocation allowance at any time, before or after a certification covering the individual is made. No relocation allowance may be paid or advanced to an individual until the State agency determines that the individual is covered under a certification. A State agency shall make payment as promptly as possible upon determining that the individual is covered under a certification and is otherwise eligible.

(b) Travel and moving allowances. Allowances computed under §§ 617.46 and 617.47 shall be paid as follows:

(1) Travel—(i) Transportation and subsistence. The amounts estimated under § 617.46 at 90 percent of the lowest allowable costs shall be paid in advance at the time an individual departs from the individual's residence to begin relocation or within 10 days prior thereto. An amount payable for a family member approved for separate travel shall be paid to the individual at the time of such family member's departure or within 10 days prior thereto.

(ii) Worker evidence. On completion of a relocation, the individual shall certify on forms furnished by the State agency as to the amount expended daily for lodging and meals. Receipts shall be required for all lodging and purchased transportation expenses incurred by the individual and family, if any, pursuant to the relocation. An adjustment shall be made if the amount of an advance is less or more than the amount to which the individual is entitled under § 617.46.

(2) Moving. The amount estimated under § 617.47 at 90 percent of the lowest allowable costs shall be paid:

(i) Commercial carrier. (A) If household goods and personal effects are moved by commercial carrier, 90 percent of the amount of the estimate submitted by the individual under § 617.47(a)(1) and approved by the State agency for covering the cost of such move, and 90 percent of the other charges approved by the State agency under § 617.47(a)(1) shall be advanced by check or checks payable to the carrier and insurer, and delivered to the individual at the time of the scheduled shipment or within 10 days prior thereto. On completion of the move, the individual shall promptly submit to the State agency a copy of the bill of lading prepared by the carrier, including a receipt evidencing payment of moving costs. The individual shall with such submittal reimburse the State agency the amount, if any, by which the advance made under this paragraph (b)(2)(i) exceeds 90 percent of the actual moving costs approved by the State agency. The individual shall be paid the difference if the amount advanced was less than 90 percent of the actual moving costs approved by the State agency.

(B) If more economical, a State agency may make direct arrangements for moving and insuring an individual's household goods and personal effects with a carrier and insurer selected by the individual and may make payment of 90 percent of moving and insurance costs directly to the carrier and insurer. No such arrangement shall release a carrier from liability otherwise provided by law or contract for loss or damage to the individual's goods and effects. The United States shall not be or become liable to either party for personal injury or property loss damage under any circumstances.

(ii) Trailer or rental truck—(A) Private vehicle with trailer. If the move is by private vehicle and trailer, the allowable cost for the use of the private vehicle shall be made at the time payment is made under paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

(B) Rental trailer or rental truck. If the move is by rental trailer or rental truck:

(1) The individual shall submit an estimate of the rental cost from the rental agency; and

(2) 90 percent of such estimated rental cost may be advanced by check payable to the order of the individual and the rental agency at the time payment is made under paragraph (b)(1) of this section; and

(3) On completion of the move the individual shall submit promptly to the State agency a receipted bill itemizing and evidencing payment of the rental charges for the trailer or truck and fuel costs, and shall reimburse the State agency for the amount, if any, by which the advance made for the trailer or truck exceeds 90 percent of the rental charges approved by the State agency. If the amount of the advance was less than 90 percent of the rental charges, the individual shall be paid the difference.

(iii) House trailer. If a house trailer or mobile home is moved by commercial carrier, the individual shall submit to the State agency an estimate of the cost of the move by the commercial carrier. A check for 90 percent of the amount of the estimate, if approved, payable to the individual and the carrier, may be delivered to the individual at the time of the scheduled move or within 10 days prior thereto.

(c) Lump sum allowance. The lump sum allowance provided in §617.45(a)(3) shall be paid when arrangements are completed for relocation of the individual and family, if any, but not more than 10 days before the earlier of the individual's anticipated departure from the individual's residence to begin relocation or the anticipated date of shipment of the individual's household goods and personal effects.

(d) Relocation completed. A relocation is completed when an individual and family, if any, and their household goods and personal effects arrive at the individual's residence in the area of relocation. If no household goods and personal effects are moved, a relocation is completed when the individual and family, if any, arrive in the area of relocation and establish a residence in the new area. The later arrival of a family member approved for separate travel shall not alter the date a relocation was completed.

Subpart F—Job Search Program

§617.49 Job Search Program.

(a) Program requirements. (1) A worker, after being separated from adversely affected employment, must participate in an approved job search program (JSP), or have completed a JSP, as a condition for receiving TRA, except where the State agency determines that an acceptable JSP is not reasonably available.

(2) A TRA claimant is subject to participation in a JSP as a condition for receiving TRA for weeks of unemployment which begin after the date the claimant is notified of the requirement and has filed an initial claim for TRA. The claimant is not subject to the JSP as a condition for receiving TRA for weeks which begin prior to that date.

(3) When the State agency determines that the worker has failed to begin participation in an approved JSP, or ceased to participate in such a JSP before completion, and there is no justifiable cause for such failure or cessation, no TRA may be paid to the worker for weeks beginning with the week that failure or cessation occurred when it is determined that such failure or cessation was without justifiable cause. TRA may be paid thereafter to an otherwise eligible worker only for weeks beginning with the week the worker begins or resumes participation in an approved JSP or complete the JSP. For purposes of this paragraph (a)(3), justifiable cause means such reasons as would justify an individual's conduct when measured by conduct expected of a reasonable individual in like circumstances, including but not limited to reasons beyond the individual's control and reasons related to the individual's capability to enroll in an approved JSP or complete the JSP.

(4) A worker in training approved under §§617.22 through 617.26, or approved by the State agency under State law, is excepted from the JSP qualifying requirement while the worker is attending and making satisfactory progress in the training. This exception applies whether training begins before or after entitlement to basic TRA commences, and also applies after training begins for a worker who is attending a JSP program. Exceptions to the JSP qualifying requirement must be documented in the worker's claim file by the State agency.

(b) Approved JSPs. A job search program may be approved if:

(1) The JSP is provided through the JTPA, the public employment service, or any other Federal or State funded program, and complies with paragraphs (w), (x), and (y) of §617.3.

(2) The JSP is sponsored by a company or firm from which the worker has been separated, and complies with paragraphs (w), (x), and (y) of §617.3.

(c) Determination of reasonably available. (1) Reasonably available means an existing approved JSP that is located in the worker's normal commuting area, as defined in §617.3, and has sufficient capacity to accommodate the worker.

(2) When the State determines that a JSP is not reasonably available for a worker, the requirement is not a condition of qualifying for TRA for the weeks involved. When a determination is made with respect to a worker, the State agency must document its determination, and the weeks involved, in the worker's claim file, prior to making TRA payments to the worker.

(3) The State agency may issue a blanket waiver of the JSP qualifying requirement for TRA for groups of workers, where deemed appropriate, when it is determined that there is no functioning JSP.

(4) All determinations that a JSP is not reasonably available should extend only for that period of time that a JSP is not reasonably available, and the exception for workers in approved training should extend until the completion of training. If the State determines that a JSP is reasonably available at a later date, then the JSP qualifying requirement must be met for entitlement to basic TRA for weeks of unemployment beginning with the week in which JSP becomes reasonably available.

(d) JSP allowances. Subsistence and transportation costs shall be approved for workers participating in JSPs when deemed appropriate and within available State funding levels. Costs incurred may not exceed those allowable for training under §§617.27 and 617.28, if, and when, the State refers a worker to a JSP outside the normal commuting area.

(e) Termination of requirement. The job search program requirement set out in this section shall not be a condition of entitlement to TRA for any week which begins after November 20, 1988.

[53 FR 32351, Aug. 24, 1988, as amended at 54 FR 22277, May 23, 1989; 59 FR 939, Jan. 6, 1994]

Subpart G—Administration by Applicable State Agencies

§ 617.50 Determinations of entitlement; notices to individuals.

(a) Determinations of initial applications for TRA or other TAA. The State Agency whose State law is the applicable State law under § 617.16 shall upon the filing of an initial application for TRA or other TAA promptly determine the individual's entitlement to such TRA or other TAA under this part 617, and may accept for such purposes information and findings supplied by another State agency under this part 617.

(b) Determinations of subsequent applications for TRA or other TAA. The State agency shall, upon the filing of an application for payment of TRA, or subsistence and transportation under §§ 617.27 and 617.28, with respect to a week, promptly determine whether the individual is eligible for a payment of TRA, or subsistence and transportation, with respect to such week, and, if eligible, the amount of TRA, or subsistence and transportation, for which the individual is eligible. In addition, the State agency promptly shall, upon the filing of a subsequent application for job search allowances (where the total of previous job search allowances paid the individual was less than $600), determine whether the individual is eligible for job search allowances, and, if eligible, the amount of job search allowances for which the individual is eligible.

(c) Redeterminations. The provisions of the applicable State law concerning the right to request, or authority to undertake, reconsideration of a determination pertaining to a claim for UI under the applicable State law shall apply to determinations pertaining to all forms of TAA under this part 617.

(d) Use of State law. In making determinations or redeterminations under this section, or in reviewing such determinations or redeterminations under § 617.51, a State agency shall apply the regulations in this part 617. As to matters committed by this part 617 to the applicable State law, a State agency, a hearing officer, or a State court shall apply the applicable State law and regulations thereunder, including procedural requirements of such

State law or regulations, except so far as such State law or regulations are inconsistent with this part 617 or the purpose of this part 617: Provided, that, no provision of State law or regulations on good cause for waiver of any time limit, or for late filing of any claim, shall apply to any time limitation referred to or specified in this part 617, unless such State law or regulation is made applicable by a specific provision of this part 617.

(e) Notices to individual. The State agency shall notify the individual in writing of any determination or redetermination as to entitlement to TAA. Each determination or redetermination shall inform the individual of the reason for the determination or redetermination and of the right to reconsideration or appeal in the same manner as determinations of entitlement to UI are subject to redetermination or appeal under the applicable State law.

(f) Promptness. Full payment of TAA when due shall be made with the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible.

(g) Procedure. Except where otherwise required by the Act or this part 617, the procedures for making and furnishing determinations and written notices of determinations to individuals, shall be consistent with the Secretary's "Standard for Claim Determinations—Separation Information," Employment Security Manual, part V, sections 6010-6015 (appendix B of this part).

§ 617.51 Appeals and hearings.

(a) Applicable State law. A determination or redetermination under this part 617 shall be subject to review in the same manner and to the same extent as determinations and redeterminations under the applicable State law, and only in that manner and to that extent. Proceedings for review of a determination or redetermination may be consolidated or joined with proceedings for review of a determination or redetermination under the State law where convenient or necessary. Procedures as to the right of appeal and opportunity for fair hearing shall be consistent with sections 303(a) (1) and (3) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 503(a) (1) and (3)).

(b) Appeals promptness. Appeals under paragraph (a) of this section shall be decided with a degree of promptness meeting the Secretary's "Standard on Appeals Promptness—Unemployment Compensation" (part 650 of this chapter). Any provisions of the applicable State law for advancement or priority of UI cases on judicial calendars, or otherwise intended to provide for prompt payment of UI when due, shall apply to proceedings involving entitlement to TAA under this part 617.

§ 617.52 Uniform interpretation and application.

(a) First rule of construction. The Act and the implementing regulations in this part 617 shall be construed liberally so as to carry out the purpose of the Act.

(b) Second rule of construction. The Act and the implementing regulations in this part 617 shall be construed so as to assure insofar as possible the uniform interpretation and application of the Act and this part 617 throughout the United States.

(c) Effectuating purpose and rules of construction. (1) To effectuate the purpose of the Act and this part 617 and to assure uniform interpretation and application of the Act and this part 617 throughout the United States, a State agency shall forward, not later than 10 days after issuance, to the Department a copy of any judicial or administrative decision ruling on an individual's entitlement to TAA under this part 617. On request of the Department, a State agency shall forward to the Department a copy of any determination or redetermination ruling on an individual's entitlement to TAA under this part 617.

(2) If the Department believes that a determination, redetermination, or decision is inconsistent with the Department's interpretation of the Act or this part 617, the Department may at any time notify the State agency of the Department's view. Thereafter, the State agency shall issue a redetermination or appeal if possible, and shall not follow such determination, redetermination, or decision as a precedent; and, in any subsequent proceedings which involve such determination, redetermination, or decision, or wherein such determination, redetermination, or decision is cited as precedent or otherwise relied upon, the State agency shall inform the claims deputy or hearing officer or court of the Department's view and shall make all reasonable efforts, including appeal or other proceedings in an appropriate forum, to obtain modification, limitation, or overruling of the determination, redetermination, or decision.

(3) If the Department believes that a determination, redetermination, or decision is patently and flagrantly violative of the Act or this part 617, the Department may at any time notify the State agency of the Department's view. If the determination, redetermination, or decision in question denies TAA to an individual, the steps outlined in paragraph (c)(2) of this section shall be followed by the State agency. If the determination, redetermination, or decision in question awards TAA to an individual, the benefits are "due" within the meaning of section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 503(a)(1)), and therefore must be paid promptly to the individual. However, the State agency, shall take the steps outlined in paragraph (c)(2) of this section, and payments to the individual may be temporarily delayed if redetermination or appeal action is taken not more than one business day following the day on which the first payment otherwise would be issued to the individual; and the redetermination action is taken or appeal is filed to obtain a reversal of the award of TAA and a ruling consistent with the Department's view; and the redetermination action or appeal seeks an expedited redetermination or appeal within not more than two weeks after the redetermination action is taken or the appeal is filed. If redetermination action is not taken or appeal is not filed within the above time limit, or a redetermination or decision is not obtained within the two-week limit, or any redetermination or decision or order is issued which affirms the determination, redetermination, or decision awarding TAA or allows it to stand in whole or in part, the benefits awarded must be paid promptly to the individual.

(4)(i) If any determination, redetermination, or decision, referred to in paragraph (c)(2) or paragraph (c)(3) of this section, is treated as a precedent for any future application for TAA, the Secretary will decide whether the Agreement with the State entered into under the Act and this part 617 shall be terminated and § 617.59(f) applied.

(ii) In the case of any determination, redetermination, or decision that is not legally warranted under the Act or this part 617, including any determination, redetermination, or decision referred to in paragraph (c)(2) or paragraph (c)(3) of this section, the Secretary will decide whether the State shall be required to restore the funds of the United States for any sums paid under such a determination, redetermination, or decision, and whether, in the absence of such restoration, the Agreement with the State shall be terminated and § 617.59(f) applied and whether other action shall be taken to recover such sums for the United States.

(5) A State agency may request reconsideration of a notice issued pursuant to paragraph (c)(2) or paragraph (c)(3) of this section, and shall be given an opportunity to present views and arguments if desired. Such request shall be made to the Secretary and may include views and arguments on the matters to be decided by the Secretary under paragraph (c)(4) of this section.

(6) Concurrence of the Department in a determination, redetermination, or decision shall not be presumed from the absence of a notice issued pursuant to this section.

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1205-0222)

§ 617.53 Subpoenas.

A State agency may issue subpoenas for attendance of witnesses and production of records on the same terms and conditions as under the State law. Compliance may be enforced on the same terms and conditions as under the State law, or, if a State court declines to enforce a subpoena issued under this section, the State agency may petition for an order requiring compliance with such subpoena to the United States District Court within the jurisdiction of which the relevant proceeding under this part 617 is conducted.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 617.54 State agency rulemaking.

A State agency may establish supplemental procedures not inconsistent with the Act or this part 617 or procedures prescribed by the Department to further effective administration of this part 617. The exact text of such supplemental procedure or procedures, certified as accurate by a responsible official, employee, or counsel of the State agency, shall be submitted to the Department, on a form supplied by the Department. No supplemental procedure shall be effective unless and until approved by the Department. Approval may be granted on a temporary basis, not to exceed 90 days, in cases of administrative necessity. On reasonable notice to a State agency, approval of a supplemental procedure may be withdrawn at any time. If public notice and opportunity for hearing would be required under a State law for adoption of a similar or analogous procedure involving UI, such public notice and opportunity for hearing shall be afforded by the State agency as to the supplemental procedure.

§ 617.55 Overpayments; penalties for fraud.

(a) Determination and repayment. (1) If a State agency or a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any person or individual has received any payment under this part 617 to which the person or individual was not entitled, including a payment referred to in paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) of this section, such person or individual shall be liable to repay such amount to the State agency, and the State agency shall recover any such overpayment in accordance with the provisions of this part 617; except that the State agency may waive the recovery of any such overpayment if the State agency determines, in accordance with the guidelines prescribed in paragraph (a)(2) of this section, that:

(i) The payment was made without fault on the part of such person or individual; and

(ii) Requiring such repayment would be contrary to equity and good conscience.

(2)(i)(A) In determining whether fault exists for purposes of paragraph (a)(1)(i) of this section, the following factors shall be considered:

(1) Whether a material statement or representation was made by the person or individual in connection with the application for TAA that resulted in the overpayment, and whether the person or individual knew or should have known that the statement or representation was inaccurate.

(2) Whether the person or individual failed or caused another to fail to disclose a material fact, in connection with an application for TAA that resulted in the overpayment, and whether the person or individual knew or should have known that the fact was material.

(3) Whether the person or individual knew or could have been expected to know, that the person or individual was not entitled to the TAA payment.

(4) Whether, for any other reason, the overpayment resulted directly or indirectly, and partially or totally, from any act or omission of the person or individual or of which the person or individual had knowledge, and which was erroneous or inaccurate or otherwise wrong.

(5) Whether there has been a determination of fraud under paragraph (b) of this section or section 243 of the Act.

(B) An affirmative finding on any one of the factors in paragraphs (a)(2)(i)(A) of this section precludes waiver of overpayment recovery.

(ii)(A) In determining whether equity and good conscience exists for purposes of paragraph (a)(1)(ii) of this section, the following factors shall be considered:

(1) Whether the overpayment was the result of a decision on appeal, whether the State agency had given notice to the person or individual that the case has been appealed and that the person or individual may be required to repay the overpayment in the event of a reversal on appeal, and whether recovery of the overpayment will not cause extraordinary and lasting financial hardship to the person or individual.

(2) Whether recovery of the overpayment will not cause extraordinary financial hardship to the person or individual, and there has been no affirmative finding under paragraph (a)(2)(ii)(A) of this section with respect to such person or individual and such overpayment.

(B) An affirmative finding on either of the foregoing factors in paragraphs (a)(2)(ii)(A) of this section precludes waiver of overpayment recovery.

(C)(1) For the purpose of paragraph (a)(2)(ii) of this section, an extraordinary financial hardship shall exist if recovery of the overpayment would result directly in the person's or individual's loss of or inability to obtain minimal necessities of food, medicine, and shelter for a substantial period of time; and an extraordinary and lasting financial hardship shall be extraordinary as described above and may be expected to endure for the foreseeable future.

(2) In applying this test in the case of attempted recovery by repayment, a substantial period of time shall be 30 days, and the foreseeable future shall be at least three months. In applying this test in the case of proposed recoupment from other benefits, a substantial period of time and the foreseeable future shall be the longest potential period of benefit entitlement as seen at the time of the request for a waiver determination. In making these determinations, the State agency shall take into account all potential income of the person or individual and the person's or individual's firm, organization, or family and all cash resources available or potentially available to the person or individual and the person's or individual's firm, organization, or family in the time period being considered.

(3) Determinations granting or denying waivers of overpayments shall be made only on request for a waiver determination. Such request shall be made on a form which shall be furnished to the person or individual by the State agency. Notices of determination of overpayments shall include an accurate description of the waiver provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, if the State agency has elected to allow waivers of TAA overpayments.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(4) Each State shall have the option to establish a policy as to whether the waiver provisions of this section shall be applied to TAA overpayments. A State's decision on its policy shall not be controlled by whether it waives UI overpayments, but the State's decision shall be published for the information of the public and the Department.

(5)(i) Unless an overpayment is otherwise recovered, or is waived under paragraph (a) of this section, the State agency shall recover the overpayment by deduction from any sums payable to such person or individual under:

(A) This part 617;

(B) Any Federal unemployment compensation law administered by the State agency; or

(C) Any other Federal law administered by the State agency which provides for the payment of unemployment assistance or an allowance with respect to unemployment.

(ii) In addition, a State agency may recover the overpayment from unemployment insurance payable to such person or individual under the State law.

(b) Fraud. If a State agency or a court of competent jurisdiction finds that any person or individual:

(1) Knowingly has made, or caused another to make, a false statement or representation of a material fact; or

(2) Knowingly has failed, or caused another to fail, to disclose a material fact; and as a result of such false statement or representation, or of such non-disclosure, such individual has received any payment under this part 617 to which the person or individual was not entitled, such person or individual shall, in addition to any other penalty provided by law, be ineligible for any further payments under this part 617.

(c) Training, job search and relocation allowances. (1) If an individual fails, with good cause, to complete training, a job search, or a relocation, any payment or portion of a payment made under this part 617 to such individual or any person that is not properly and necessarily expended in attempting to complete such training, job search, or relocation, shall constitute an overpayment.

(2) If an individual fails, without good cause, to complete training, a job search, or a relocation, any payment made under this part 617 to such individual or any person shall constitute an overpayment.

(3) Such overpayment shall be recovered or waived as provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

(d) Final determination. Except for overpayments determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, no repayment may be required, and no deduction may be made, under this section until a determination under paragraph (a) of this section by the State agency has been made, notice of the determination and an opportunity for a fair hearing thereon has been given to the person or individual concerned, and the determination has become final.

(e) Deposit. Any amount recovered by a State agency under this section shall be deposited into the Federal fund or account from which payment was made.

(f) Procedural requirements. (1) The provisions of paragraphs (c), (e), and (g) of §617.50 shall apply to determinations and redeterminations made pursuant to this section.

(2) The provisions of §617.51 shall apply to determinations and redeterminations made pursuant to this section.

(g) Fraud detection and prevention. State procedures for the detection and prevention of fraudulent overpayments of TAA shall be, as a minimum, commensurate with the procedures adopted by the State with respect to State unemployment compensation and consistent with the Secretary's "Standard for Fraud and Overpayment Detection," Employment Security Manual, Part V, sections 7510-7515 (Appendix C of this part).

(h) Debts due the United States or Others. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of this part 617, TAA payable to a person or an individual under this part 617 shall be applied by the State agency for the recovery by offset of any debt due the United States from the person or individual.

(2) TAA shall not be applied or used by the State agency in any manner for the payment of any debt of any person or individual to any State or any other entity or person, except that TRA payable to an individual shall be payable to someone other than the individual if required by State law and Federal law to satisfy the individual's obligation for child support or alimony.

(i) Definition of person. For purposes of this section, a person includes any employer or other entity or organization as well as the officers and officials thereof who may bear individual responsibility.

§ 617.56 Inviolate rights to TAA.

Except as specifically provided in this part 617, the rights of individuals to TAA shall be protected in the same manner and to the same extent as the rights of persons to UI are protected under the applicable State law. Such measures shall include protection of applicants for TAA from waiver, release, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, levy, execution, attachment, and garnishment of their rights to TAA, except as provided in § 617.55. In the same manner and to the same extent, individuals shall be protected from discrimination and obstruction in regard to seeking, applying for, and receiving any right to TAA.

(a) Recordkeeping. Each State agency will make and maintain records pertaining to the administration of the Act as the Secretary requires and will make all such records available for inspection, examination and audit by such Federal officials as the Secretary may designate or as may be required by law. Such recordkeeping will be adequate to support the reporting of TAA activity on reporting form ETA 563 approved under OMB control number 1205-0016.

(b) Disclosure of information. Information in records maintained by a State agency in administering the Act shall be kept confidential, and information in such records may be disclosed only in the same manner and to the same extent as information with respect to UI and the entitlement of individuals thereto may be disclosed under the applicable State law. Such information shall not, however, be disclosed to an employer or any other person except to the extent necessary to obtain information from the employer or other person for the purposes of this part 617. This provision on the confidentiality of information maintained in the administration of the Act shall not apply, however, to the Department or for the purposes of § 617.55 or paragraph (a) of this section, or in the case of information, reports and studies required pursuant to § 617.61, or where the result would be inconsistent with the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552), the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), or regulations of the Department promulgated thereunder (see 29 CFR parts 70 and 70a).

Unemployment insurance payable to an adversely affected worker shall not be denied or reduced for any week by reason of any right to a payment of TAA under the Act and this part 617.

§ 617.59 Agreements with State agencies.

(a) Authority. Before performing any function or exercising any jurisdiction under the Act and this part 617, a State or State agency (as defined in § 617.3(ii)) shall execute an Agreement with the Secretary meeting the requirements of the Act.

(b) Execution. An Agreement under paragraph (a) of this section shall be signed on behalf of a State or State agency by an authorized official of the State or such State agency, and the signature shall be dated. The authority of the State or State agency official shall be certified by the Attorney General of the State or counsel for the State agency, unless the Agreement is signed by the Governor of the State. An agreement will be executed on behalf of the United States by the Secretary.

(c) Public access to Agreements. The State agency will make available to any individual or organization an accurate copy of the Agreement with the Agency for inspection and copying. Copies of an Agreement may be furnished on request to any individual or organization upon payment of the same charges, if any, as apply to the furnishing of copies of other records of the State agency.

(d) Amended Agreement. A State or State agency shall execute an amended Agreement with the Secretary prior to administering any amendments to the TAA provisions of the Trade Act of 1974.

(e) Agent of United States. In making determinations, redeterminations, and in connection with proceedings for review thereof, a State or State agency which has executed an Agreement as provided in this section shall be an agent of the United States and shall carry out fully the purposes of the Act and this part 617.

(f) Breach. If the Secretary finds that a State or State agency has not fulfilled its commitments under its Agreement under this section, section 3302(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 shall apply. A State or State agency shall receive reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing before a finding is made under section 3302(c)(3) whether there has been a failure to fulfill the commitments under the Agreement.

(g) Secretary's review of State agency compliance. The appropriate Regional Administrator shall be initially responsible for the periodic monitoring and reviewing of State and State agency compliance with the Agreement entered into under this section.

(h) Program coordination. State agencies providing employment services, training and supplemental assistance under Subpart C of this part shall, in accordance with their Agreements under this section, coordinate such services and payments with programs and services provided by State Service Delivery Areas, Private Industry Councils, and substate grantees under the Job Training Partnership Act and with the State agency administering the State law.

(i) Administration absent State Agreement. In any State in which no Agreement under this section is in force, the Secretary shall administer the Act and this part 617 and pay TAA hereunder through appropriate arrangements made by the Department, and for this purpose the Secretary or the Department shall be substituted for the State or cooperating State agency wherever appropriate in this part 617. Such arrangements shall include the requirement that TAA be administered in accordance with this part 617, and the provisions of the applicable State law except to the extent that such State law is inconsistent with any provision of this part 617 or section 303 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 503) or section 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 3304(a)), and shall also include provision for a fair hearing for any individual whose application for TAA is denied. A final determination under paragraph (i) of this section as to entitlement to TAA shall be subject to review by the courts in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided by section 205(g) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 405(g)).

§ 617.61 Information, reports, and studies.

A State agency shall furnish to the Secretary such information and reports and conduct such studies as the Secretary determines are necessary or appropriate for carrying out the purposes of the Act and this part 617.

§ 617.62 Transitional procedures.

The procedures for administering the Trade Act of 1974 before and after the amendments made by title XXV of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981 (Pub. L. 97-35) are as follows:

(a) TRA. The provisions contained in subpart B of this part 617 shall apply with respect to the qualifying requirements for TRA for adversely affected workers who are separated on or after October 1, 1981, and were not entitled to TRA for any week of unemployment beginning before October 1, 1981. In addition, such provisions shall apply to TRA payable for weeks of unemployment beginning after September 30, 1981, to adversely affected workers separated before October 1, 1981. Any adversely affected worker entitled to TRA for any week of unemployment beginning before October 1, 1981, shall be entitled to TRA as follows:

(1) Weeks before October 1, 1981. For weeks of unemployment beginning before October 1, 1981, TRA eligibility shall be determined under the provisions of the law and regulations in effect before the amendments made by title XXV of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981 (Pub. L. 97-35).

(2) Weeks after September 30, 1981. (i) Basic weeks (UI exhaustion). For any week of unemployment beginning after September 30, 1981, TRA eligibility for an individual who has exhausted all rights to UI prior to such week shall be determined under subpart B of this part 617, except that the maximum amount of basic TRA payable to the individual for any such week of unemployment shall be an amount equal to the product of the amount of TRA payable to the individual for a week of total unemployment (as determined under § 617.13(a)) multiplied by a factor determined by subtracting from fifty-two the sum of:

(A) The number of weeks preceding the first week which begins after September 30, 1981, including all weeks in the individual's first benefit period, and which are within the period covered by the same certification as such week of unemployment, for which the individual was entitled to a payment of TRA or UI (or would have been entitled to a payment of TRA or UI if the individual had applied therefor); plus

(B) The number of weeks preceding such first week that are deductible under section 232(d) of the Trade Act of 1974 in effect before the amendments made by the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981.

(C) The amount of TRA payable to an individual under this paragraph (a)(2)(i) shall be subject to adjustment on a week-to-week basis as may be required by § 617.13(b).

(ii) Basic weeks UI entitlement. For any week of unemployment beginning after September 30, 1981, TRA eligibility for an individual who still has entitlement to UI shall be discontinued until the individual exhausts all rights to UI as provided in § 617.11(a)(5). After exhaustion of all rights to UI, payment of TRA shall be determined under subpart B of this part 617, except that the maximum amount of basic TRA payable to the individual for ensuing weeks of unemployment shall be an amount equal to the remainder of:

(A) The maximum amount of basic TRA as computed under paragraph (a)(2)(i) of this section; minus

(B) The total sum of UI to which the individual was entitled (or would have been entitled if the individual had applied therefor) for weeks beginning after September 30, 1981.

(iii) Additional weeks. With respect to any week of unemployment beginning after September 30, 1981, for an individual who is in training approved under section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, and who was receiving TRA for basic or additional weeks beginning before October 1, 1981, the weekly amount of TRA for any additional weeks beginning after September 30, 1981, shall be determined under subpart B of this part 617.

(3) Transitional eligibility period. (i) Basic weeks. Any individual who was eligible for a basic TRA payment for any week beginning before October 1, 1981, shall not be eligible for a basic TRA payment for any week beginning after September 30, 1981, and which begins more than 52 weeks after the individual has exhausted all rights to regular compensation in the first benefit period (as provided in § 617.15(a)).

(ii) Additional weeks. Any individual who was eligible for a TRA payment for an additional week beginning before October 1, 1981, shall not be eligible for a TRA payment for any additional week beginning after September 30, 1981, unless such additional week begins within:

(A) 26 weeks after the last week of the individual's entitlement to basic TRA, or

(B) 78 weeks after the individual exhausted regular compensation in the first benefit period, whichever occurs first (as provided in § 617.15).

(b) Training, other reemployment services, and allowances. (1) Applications for training filed before October 1, 1981, concerning the approval of such training after September 30, 1981, shall be determined under subpart C of this part 617.

(2) Applications for transportation and subsistence payments while in training, and job search and relocation allowances filed after September 30,

§ 617.63

1981, shall be determined under the applicable subpart C, D, or E of this part 617.

(3) Individuals who have had self-financed training approved prior to October 1, 1981, shall not be reimbursed for training and related expenses incurred while in such training. However, such individuals may have their eligibility for approved training considered under the criteria outlined in the amended section 236 of the Act and in § 617.22, and, if approved, shall be entitled to have post-approval training costs paid.

(c) Fraud and recovery of overpayments. The fraud and overpayment recovery provisions of this subpart G shall take effect on August 13, 1981, and shall apply to all overpayments outstanding on that date or determined on or after that date.

(d) Required amendments to State law. The provisions of section 2514(a)(2)(D) of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981 (Pub. L. 97-35) (relating to amendment of State laws) shall apply to State laws for the purposes of certifications under section 3304(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1984 on October 31 of any taxable year after 1981; except that, in any State in which the legislature of that State—

(1) Does not meet in a session which begins after August 13, 1981, and before September 1, 1982, and

(2) If in session on August 13, 1981, and does not remain in session for at least 25 calendar days thereafter, the date of "1981" in this paragraph (d) shall be deemed to be "1982."

§ 617.63 Savings clause.

The amendments to the Act made by title XXV of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981 (Pub. L. 97-35) shall not abate or otherwise affect entitlement to TAA under the Trade Act of 1974 or any appeal which was pending on October 1, 1981, or on the date of enactment of any such amendment, as applicable, or prevent any appeal from any determination thereunder which did not become final prior to such applicable date if appeal or petition is filed within the time allowed for appeal or petition.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 617.64 Termination of TAA program benefits.

The following rules are applicable to the termination of TAA benefits under the Act:

(a) No application for TRA, or transportation or subsistence payment while in training approved under subpart C of this part 617, shall be approved, and no payment of TRA or payment for transportation or subsistence occurring on or before the termination date shall be made after the termination date specified in the Act, unless the claim for TRA or an invoice for transportation and subsistence is presented to the State agency and a final determination is made on the amount payable on or before the termination date in the Act.

(b) No payment of job search or relocation allowances shall be made after the termination date specified in the Act, unless an application for such allowances was approved, such job search or relocation was completed, and a final determination made on the amount payable for such benefits by the State agency on or before the termination date in the Act.

(c) No training under subpart C of this part shall be approved unless a determination regarding the approval of such training was made on or before the termination date in the Act, and such training commenced on or before such termination date. Consistent with the requirements of section 236(a)(1) of the Act, and the termination provisions of paragraph (c) of this section, a final determination must be made on the invoice for the training costs by the State agency on or before the termination date specified in the Act to cover tuition related expenses. Determinations on tuition bills shall be limited to the training term, quarter, semester or other period beginning on or before the termination date in the Act. The training period should be in accord with normal billing practices of the training provider and/or State agency approval practices.

§ 617.65 Transition procedures for amendments in sections 2671 and 2672 of Pub. L. 98-369 (Deficit Reduction Act of 1984).

The procedures for administering the Trade Act of 1974 as amended by the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 are as follows:

(a) TRA. (1) The provisions in subpart B of this part 617 shall apply to workers who would lose additional weeks of TRA payments because of delays in approving applications for training. Workers who filed timely, bona fide applications for training shall be eligible to receive additional weeks of TRA payments beginning the first week of training when their applications for training are approved on or after July 18, 1984, and the first week of such training begins later than the first week which follows the last week of entitlement to basic TRA.

(2) Workers whose applications for training were approved prior to July 18, 1984, are covered under the provisions of the Trade Act of 1974 as in effect prior to July 18, 1984, and are not entitled to additional weeks of TRA by reason of the amendment in section 2671 of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 or § 617.15(b) of this part.

(b) Job Search Allowances. (1) The provisions in subpart D of this part 617 shall apply to timely applications for job search allowances that are approved on or after July 18, 1984.

(2) Workers whose applications for job search allowances that were filed timely but were approved before July 18, 1984, in the aggregate authorized amount of $600, are covered under the provisions of the Trade Act of 1974 in effect prior to July 18, 1984, and are not entitled to receive the increase in the allowance level provided in section 2672(a) of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 and § 617.34(b) of this part.

(c) Relocation allowances. (1) The provisions in subpart E of this part 617 shall apply to timely applications for relocation allowances that are approved on or after July 18, 1984.

(2) Workers whose applications for relocation allowances were filed timely but were approved before July 18, 1984, are covered under the provisions of the Trade Act of 1974 in effect prior to July 18, 1984, and are not entitled to receive the increase in the lump sum allowance level provided in section 2672(b) of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 and § 617.45(a)(3) of this part.

§ 617.66 Transition procedures for amendments in sections 13002 through 13009 of Pub. L. 99-272 (the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985).

The procedures for administering the Trade Act of 1974 before and after the amendments made by the Pub. L. 99-272 are as follows:

(a) Duration of TRA. The provisions contained in § 617.15 expanding the eligibility period for payment of basic TRA benefits from 52 weeks to 104 weeks shall apply only to those claimants whose eligibility periods begin on or after April 7, 1986, or who have a previously established 52-week TRA eligibility period that ends on or after April 7, 1986. Workers with 52-week eligibility periods that end before April 7, 1986, will not have their eligibility periods extended to 104 weeks.

(b) TRA payments—(1) Retroactive TRA payments. Retroactive claims of eligible workers may be approved for weeks of unemployment beginning with the first week after the week which includes December 18, 1985. Claims for weeks beginning before April 7, 1986 (or, if later, before claimants are notified of their potential entitlement and have filed claims for retroactive benefits) are not subject to the application of the Extended Benefits (EB) work test, nor to the State timely filing requirement. Claimants shall be subject to those requirements for weeks of unemployment beginning after the date eligible workers are notified of such requirements and have filed claims for such benefits.

(2) Employer-authorized leave, disability leave and union service. The change to § 617.11(a)(3) for crediting weeks of specified leave to qualify for TRA will apply only to initial claims for basic TRA filed with the State agency by eligible workers on or after April 7, 1986.

(c) Job search program. The job search program requirement applies to workers certified under petitions for trade adjustment assistance filed with the Department on or after April 7, 1986.

(d) Training and other amendments. Other amendments in Pub. L. 99-272 are effective on April 7, 1986, and apply to applications for TAA benefits approved on or after April 7, 1986.

(e) Application of Gramm-Rudman. TRA payments to workers made under part 1 of chapter 2 of title II of the Trade Act of 1974 and this part shall be reduced by a percentage equal to the non-defense sequester percentage applied in the Sequestration Report (submitted under the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 and dated January 21, 1986) of the Comptroller General of the United States for Fiscal Year 1986, for the period from March 1, 1986 to October 1, 1986.

The provisions of part 3 of subtitle D of title I of the Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988 (the "OTCA"), Public Law 100-418, approved on August 23, 1988, made material changes in the TAA Program for workers that are reflected in the amended regulations published with this new section on transition guidelines for the 1988 Amendments. States and cooperating State agencies shall be guided by the following paragraphs of this section in the transition to the TAA Program as modified by the 1988 Amendments and reflected in the preceding provisions of this part 617, as well as in the interim operating instructions issued by the Department which are superseded by these regulations. The operating instructions in GAL 15-90, and the Changes thereto, shall continue in effect as guidance on the proper application of the 1988 Amendments except as modified in these final regulations. (GAL 15-90 is available from the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Ave., NW., room C-4318, Washington, DC 20210.)

(a) Oil and gas workers—prospective. Workers in firms or appropriate subdivisions of firms engaged in exploration or drilling for oil or natural gas are newly covered under the TAA Program by an amendment to section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974. This is a permanent change in the Act having prospective effect, and became effective on August 23, 1988. Oil and gas workers covered by a certification issued pursuant to section 223 of the Act and the regulations at 29 CFR part 90 shall be entitled to basic and additional TRA and other TAA Program benefits on precisely the same terms and conditions as apply to other workers covered by other certifications and which are specifically set forth in this part 617.

(b) Oil and gas workers—retroactive. Oil and gas workers referred to in paragraph (a) of this section, who were separated from adversely affected employment after September 30, 1985, are covered retroactively under section 1421(a)(1)(B) of the OTCA, if they are covered by a certification issued pursuant to section 223 of the Act which is in response to a petition filed in the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance on or before November 18, 1988. Administration of TAA Program benefits to these workers shall be on precisely the same terms and conditions as apply to other workers covered by other certifications, except that the limitations of the impact date provision of section 223(b) and the 60-day preclusion in section 231(a) may not be applied to these workers.

(c) Benefit information to workers. (1) An amendment to section 225 of the Act requires individualized and published notices to workers covered by certifications issued pursuant to section 223 of the Act. This amendment became effective as a requirement on September 22, 1988, and is applicable to all certifications issued on and after that date. Individualized notices and published notices shall contain the information specifically set forth in this part 617.

(2) Section 239(f) of the Act requires cooperating State agencies to furnish four discrete items of information and advice to individuals about TAA Program benefits, commencing with such advice and information to every individual who applies for unemployment insurance under each State's unemployment compensation law. See §617.4(e). This amendment became effective on August 23, 1988. Information and advice required by section 239(f) shall be provided in accordance with this part 617.

(d) Training and eligibility requirements for TRA. Effective on November 21, 1988, in general, enrollment and participation in, or completion of, a training program approved under subpart C is required as a condition of entitlement to basic TRA. Amendments to sections 231(a)(5), 231(b), and 231(c) of the Act incorporate this new requirement, replacing the job search program requirement which remains in effect through November 20, 1988. Continuation of the job search program requirement through November 20, 1988, and installation of the training program requirement on and after November 21, 1988, is required of all applicants for basic TRA.

(e) Eligibility period for basic TRA. (1) Effective on August 23, 1988, and with respect to all decisions (i.e., all determinations, redeterminations, and decisions on appeals) issued on or after that date, the eligibility period for basic TRA is changed from the prior law. Prior to the OTCA amendments, section 233(a)(2) provided that the eligibility period for an individual was a fixed 104-week period that immediately followed the week with respect to which the individual first exhausted all rights to regular benefits after the individual's first qualifying separation. Under section 233(a)(2) the new eligibility period is movable, and is the 104-week period that immediately follows the week in which the worker's most recent total qualifying separation occurs under the same, single certification. Under the effective date provisions of the OTCA, section 233(a)(2) applies to all decisions (i.e., determinations, redeterminations, and decisions on appeals) issued on and after August 23, 1988. Further, the law to be applied in making any such decision is the law as in effect on the date such a decision is made. These interpretative rules apply in all cases, regardless of whether the total qualifying separation occurred before, on, or after August 23, 1988, except as noted in paragraph (e)(3) of this section.

(2) The major significance of the change in section 233(a)(2) is that, effective for all decisions (i.e., determinations, redeterminations, and decisions on appeals) issued on or after August 23, 1988, it applies to the "most recent" total qualifying separation. This means that, after the first qualifying separation before August 23, 1988, or the first total qualifying separation on and after August 23, 1988, with each subsequent total qualifying separation of an individual under the same certification the individual's eligibility period must be redetermined as the 104-week period that immediately follows the week in which such subsequent separation occurred.

(3) Section 1430(g) of the OTCA requires that the new eligibility period not be applied with respect to any total qualifying separation occurring before August 23, 1988, if as a result of applying section 233(a)(2) the individual would have an eligibility period with an earlier expiration date than the expiration date of the eligibility period established under the prior law and based on a first qualifying separation which occurred under the same certification before August 23, 1988. Therefore, for decisions (i.e., determinations, redeterminations, and decisions on appeals) issued on or after August 23, 1988, for a worker who had a first qualifying separation under the same certification before August 23, 1988, it must be determined what the individual's eligibility period is based upon the prior law, and, if the individual also had a subsequent total qualifying separation, what the individual's eligibility period is based on the amended law. Only if the subsequent total qualifying separation occurred before August 23, 1988, and the expiration date of the new eligibility period ends on the same date or a later date than the expiration date of the old eligibility period may the new eligibility period be applied to the individual, and in that event it must be applied; if the new eligibility period would end on a date earlier than the ending date of the eligibility period based on the worker's first qualifying separation, section 1430(g) operates to preclude the application of amended section 233(a)(2).

(4) Computation of the weekly and maximum amounts of basic TRA do not change under the 1988 Amendments in the OTCA. They must continue to be based upon the first benefit period which is related to the worker's first total or partial separation under the same certification regardless of whether such first separation occurs before, on, or after August 23, 1988. Upon the occurrence of a second or subsequent separation under the same certification which is a total qualifying separation under this part 617, the individual's eligibility period will be 104 weeks after the week of such second or subsequent (total qualifying) separation, but no change will be made in the weekly or maximum amounts of basic TRA as computed in relation to the first separation. Therefore, for any decision (i.e., determination, redetermination, or decision on appeal) issued on or after August 23, 1988, whenever an individual files a new TRA claim it will be necessary to determine whether the individual's most recent separation was a total qualifying separation, and, if so, whether the individual had a prior partial or total separation within the certification period of the same certification which was a first qualifying separation. If such most recent (total qualifying) separation occurred before August 23, 1988, and was not the individual's first qualifying separation, then:

(i) The eligibility period will be the 104 weeks beginning with the week following the week in which the most recent total qualifying separation occurred or 104 weeks after the first exhaustion of regular UI following the first qualifying separation, whichever is longer, and

(ii) The individual's weekly amount of basic TRA, as computed under §617.13, and the individual's maximum amount of basic TRA, as computed under §617.14, are established or remain fixed as determined with respect to the individual's first benefit period following the first separation which is within the certification period of the certification covering the individual.

(f) Eligibility period for additional TRA. One technical and one conforming change are made by the OTCA in section 233(a)(3) of the Act, but have no effect on the 26-week eligibility period for additional TRA as the statute has been interpreted and applied in the past. Therefore, the 26-week eligibility period begins with the first week of training if the training begins after exhaustion of basic TRA. Further, if the training begins before approval is obtained under this part 617, the 26-week eligibility period begins with the week in which the determination of approval is issued, if there is any scheduled training session in that week after the date of the determination.

(g) Eligibility for TRA during breaks in training. (1) Paragraph (f) of section 233 of the Act, added by the OTCA, provides for the payment, under specified conditions, of both basic and additional TRA during scheduled breaks in a training program, provided the conditions for such payments are met as expressed in this part 617. By making this provision applicable to basic TRA as well as additional TRA, paragraph (f) of section 233 of the Act changes the prior law for both. Previously, basic TRA was payable during training breaks, but additional TRA was payable solely with respect to weeks of training. Under new section 233(f), both basic and additional TRA are payable during training breaks, but only if the break does not exceed 14 days. Now, as under the prior law, weeks when TRA is not payable will still count against the eligibility periods for both basic and additional TRA, and in the case of additional TRA it will also count against the number of weeks payable.

(2) Paragraph (f) of section 233 of the Act is effective with regard to all decisions (i.e., all determinations, redeterminations, and decisions on appeals) made on or after August 23, 1988, regardless of when the training was approved under section 236 of the Trade Act, or whether the training was approved or is approvable under section 236 as amended by the 1988 Amendments, or when the break in training began or ended. In making any decision involving paragraph (f) of section 233 of the Act, the law to be applied is the law as in effect on the date the decision is made.

(h) Retroactive eligibility for TRA. (1) Effective on August 23, 1988, section 1425(b) of the OTCA provides for an open-ended waiver of the time limit in section 233(a)(2) on the eligibility period for basic TRA, and the 210-day time limit in section 233(b) on filing a bona fide application for training in order to qualify for additional TRA. This waiver provision applies solely to workers who experienced a total qualifying separation in the period which began on August 13, 1981 and ended on April 7, 1986. Other conditions must be met that are specified in section 1425(b) and in this part 617.

(2) Altogether, nine conditions must be met for workers to obtain TRA payments under this special provision. (See §617.11(a)(3).) Further, this special provision applies solely to weeks which begin after August 23, 1988; no retroactive payments may be made under this special provision. Finally, only the two specific time limitations are waived, and all other requirements of the prior and amended law apply, including the first separation rule (relating to computation of the weekly and maximum amounts of basic TRA payable), the 26-week eligibility period for additional TRA, and the break provision of section 233(f).

(i) Training for adversely affected workers. Extensive amendments to section 236 are made in the OTCA which, except for some technical and conforming changes that take effect on November 21, 1988, all became effective on August 23, 1988. These changes must be effectuated in accordance with this part 617.

(j) Agreements with States. Section 239 also was amended by the OTCA, to require new terms and conditions in the section 239 agreements. This requires new agreements to be executed between the States and the Secretary of Labor, and gives new emphasis to the contractual nature of the obligations entered into by the States to administer the TAA Program in strict accordance with the Act and the regulations and operating instructions issued by the Department.

(k) Other. Other matters covered by the OTCA amendments, as well as the matters discussed in the preceding paragraphs of this section, shall, to the extent that the States may be involved in their implementation, be effectuated in strict accordance with the Act and the regulations and operating instructions issued by the Department, and as of the respective effective dates of the various provisions of the OTCA.

APPENDIX A TO PART 617—STANDARD FOR CLAIM FILING, CLAIMANT REPORTING, JOB FINDING, AND EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

EMPLOYMENT SECURITY MANUAL (Part V, Sections 5000-5004)

5000 Standard for Claim Filing, Claimant Reporting, Job Finding, and Employment Services

A. Federal law requirements. Section 3304(a)(1) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(2) of the Social Security Act require that a State law provide for: "Payment of unemployment compensation solely through public employment offices or such other agencies as the Secretary may approve."

Section 3304(a)(4) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(5) of the Social Security Act require that a State law provide for:

"Expenditure of all money withdrawn from an unemployment fund of such State, in the payment of unemployment compensation * * *"

Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act requires that the State law provide for:

"Such methods of administration * * * as are found by the Secretary to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due."

B. Secretary's interpretation of federal law requirements.

1. The Secretary interprets section 3304(a)(1) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(2) of the Social Security Act to require that a State law provide for payment of unemployment compensation solely through public employment offices or claims offices administered by the State employment security agency if such agency provides for such coordination in the operations of its public employment offices and claims offices as will insure (a) the payment of benefits only to individuals who are unemployed and who are able to work and available for work, and (b) that individuals claiming unemployment compensation (claimants) are afforded such placement and other employment services as are necessary and appropriate to return them to suitable work as soon as possible.

2. The Secretary interprets all the above sections to require that a State law provide for:

a. Such contact by claimants with public employment offices or claims offices or both, (1) as will reasonably insure the payment of unemployment compensation only to individuals who are unemployed and who are able to work and available for work, and (2) that claimants are afforded such placement and other employment services as are necessary and appropriate to facilitate their return to suitable work as soon as possible; and

b. Methods of administration which do not unreasonably limit the opportunity of individuals to establish their right to unemployment compensation due under such States law.

A. Claim filing—total or part-total unemployment

1. Individuals claiming unemployment compensation for total or part-total unemployment are required to file a claim weekly or biweekly, in person or by mail, at a public employment office or a claims office (these terms include offices at itinerant points) as set forth below.

2. Except as provided in paragraph 3, a claimant is required to file in person.

a. His new claim with respect to a benefit year, or his continued claim for a waiting week or for his first compensable week of unemployment in such year; and

b. Any other claim, when requested to do so by the claims personnel at the office at which he files his claim(s) because questions about his right to benefits are raised by circumstances such as the following:

(1) The conditions or circumstances of his separation from employment;

(2) The claimant's answers to questions on mail claim(s) indicate that he may be unable to work or that there may be undue restrictions on his availability for work or that his search for work may be inadequate or that he may be disqualified;

(3) The claimant's answers to questions on mail claims create uncertainty about his credibility or indicate a lack of understanding of the applicable requirements; or

(4) The claimant's record shows that he has previously filed a fraudulent claim.

In such circumstances, the claimant is required to continue to file claims in person each week (or biweekly) until the State agency determines that filing claims in person is no longer required for the resolution of such questions.

3. A claimant must be permitted to file a claim by mail in any of the following circumstances:

a. He is located in an area requiring the expenditure of an unreasonable amount of time or money in traveling to the nearest facility established by the State agency for filing claims in person;

b. Conditions make it impracticable for the agency to take claims in person;

c. He has returned to full-time work on or before the scheduled date for his filing a claim, unless the agency makes provision for in-person filing at a time and place that does not interfere with his employment;

d. The agency finds that he has good cause for failing to file a claim in person.

4. A claimant who has been receiving benefits for partial unemployment may continue to file claims as if he were a partially unemployed worker for the first four consecutive weeks of total or part-total unemployment immediately following his period of partial unemployment so long as he remains attached to his regular employer.

B. Claim filing—partial unemployment. Each individual claiming unemployment compensation for a week (or other claim period) during which, because of lack of work, he is working less than his normal customary full-time hours for his regular employer and is earning less than the earnings limit provided in the State law, shall not be required to file a claim for such week or other claim period earlier than 2 weeks from the date that wages are paid for such claim period or, if a low earnings report is required by the State law, from the date the employer furnished such report to the individual. State agencies may permit claims for partial unemployment to be filed either in person or by mail, except that in the circumstances set forth in section A 3, filing by mail must be permitted, and in the circumstances set forth in section A 2 b, filing in person may be required.

5002 Requirement for Job Finding, Placement, and Other Employment Services Designed to Satisfy Secretary's Interpretation

A. Claims personnel are required to assure that each claimant is doing what a reasonable individual in his circumstances would do to obtain suitable work.

B. In the discretion of the State agency:

1. The claims personnel are required to give each claimant such necessary and appropriate assistance as they reasonably can in finding suitable work and at their discretion determine when more complete placement and employment services are necessary and appropriate for a claimant; and if they determine more complete services are necessary and appropriate, the claims personnel are to refer him to employment service personnel in the public employment office in which he has been filing claim(s), or, if he has been filing in a claims office, in the public employment office most accessible to him; or

2. All placement and employment services are required to be afforded to each claimant by employment service personnel in the public employment office most accessible to him in which case the claims personnel in the office in which the claimant files his claim are to refer him to the employment service personnel when placement or other employment services are necessary and appropriate for him.

C. The personnel to whom the State agency assigns the responsibilities outlined in paragraph B above are required to give claimants such job-finding assistance, placement, and other employment services as are necessary and appropriate to facilitate their return to suitable work as soon as possible.

In some circumstances, no such services or only limited services may be required. For example, if a claimant is on a short-term temporary layoff with a fixed return date, the only service necessary and appropriate to be given to him during the period of the layoff is a referral to suitable temporary work if such work is being performed in the labor market area.

Similarly, claimants whose unemployment is caused by a labor dispute presumably will return to work with their employer as soon as the labor dispute is settled. They generally do not need services, nor do individuals in occupations where placement customarily is made by other nonfee charging placement facilities such as unions and professional associations.

Claimants who fall within the classes which ordinarily would require limited services or no services shall, if they request placement and employment services, be afforded such services as are necessary and appropriate for them to obtain suitable work or to achieve their reasonable employment goals.

On the other hand, a claimant who is permanently separated from his job is likely to require some services. He may need only some direction in how to get a job; he may need placement services if he is in an occupation for which there is some demand in the labor market area; if his occupation is outdated, he may require counseling and referral to a suitable training course. The extent and character of the services to be given any particular claimant may change with the length of his unemployment and depend not only on his own circumstances and conditions, but also on the condition of the labor market in the area.

D. Claimants are required to report to employment service personnel, as directed, but such personnel and the claims personnel required to so arrange and coordinate the contacts required of a claimant as not to place an unreasonable burden on him or unreasonably limit his opportunity to establish his rights to compensation. As a general rule, a claimant is not required to contact in person claims personnel or employment service personnel more frequently than once a week, unless he is directed to report more frequently for a specific service such as referral to a job or a training course or counseling which cannot be completed in one visit.

E. Employment service personnel are required to report promptly to claims personnel in the office in which the claimant files his claim(s): (1) his failure to apply for or accept work to which he was referred by such personnel or when known, by any other nonfee-charging placement facility such as a union or a professional association; and (2) any information which becomes available to it that may have a bearing on the claimant's ability to work or availability for work, or on the suitability of work to which he was referred or which was offered to him.

5004 Evaluation of Alternative State Provisions

If the State law provisions do not conform to the "suggested State law requirements" set forth in sections 5001 and 5002, but the State law contains alternative provisions, the Manpower Administrator, in collaboration with the State agency, will study the actual or anticipated affect of the alternative provisions. If the Manpower Administrator concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy the requirements of the Federal law as construed by the Secretary (see section 5000 B) he will so notify the State agency. If he does not so conclude, he will submit the matter to the Secretary. If the Secretary concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy such requirements, the State agency will be so notified. If the Secretary concludes that there is a question as to whether the alternative provisions satisfy such requirements, the State agency will be advised that unless the State law provisions are appropriately revised, a notice of hearing will be issued as required by the Code of Federal Regulations, title 20, section 601.3.

APPENDIX B TO PART 617—STANDARD FOR CLAIM DETERMINATIONS—SEPARATION INFORMATION

6010 Federal Law Requirements. Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for:

"Such methods of administration . . . as are found by the Secretary to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due."

Section 303(a)(3) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for:

"Opportunity for a fair hearing before an impartial tribunal, for all individuals whose claims for unemployment compensation are denied."

Section 3304(a)(4) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(5) of the Social Security Act require that a State law include provision for:

"Expenditure of all money withdrawn from an unemployment fund of such State, in the payment of unemployment compensation. . . .

Section 3306(h) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act defines "compensation" as "cash benefits payable to individuals with respect to their unemployment."

6011 Secretary's Interpretation of Federal Law Requirements. The Secretary interprets the above sections to require that a State law include provisions which will insure that:

A. Individuals who may be entitled to unemployment compensation are furnished such information as will reasonably afford them an opportunity to know, establish, and protect their rights under the unemployment compensation law of such State, and

B. The State agency obtains and records in time for the prompt determination and review of benefit claims such information as will reasonably insure the payment of benefits to individuals to whom benefits are due.

6012 Criteria for Review of State Law Conformity with Federal Requirements:

In determining the conformity of a State law with the above requirements of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and the Social Security Act as interpreted by the Secretary, the following criteria will be applied:

A. Is it required that individuals who may be entitled to unemployment compensation be furnished such information of their potential rights to benefits, including the manner and places of filing claims, the reasons for determinations, and their rights of appeal, as will insure them a reasonable opportunity to know, establish, and protect their rights under the law of the State?

B. Is the State agency required to obtain, in time for prompt determination of rights to benefits such information as will reasonably insure the payment of benefits to individuals to whom benefits are due?

C. Is the State agency required to keep records of the facts considered in reaching determinations of rights to benefits?

6013 Claim Determinations Requirements Designed To Meet Department of Labor Criteria:

A. Investigation of claims. The State agency is required to obtain promptly and prior to a determination of an individual's right to benefits, such facts pertaining thereto as will be sufficient reasonably to insure the payment of benefits when due.

This requirement embraces five separate elements:

1. It is the responsibility of the agency to take the initiative in the discovery of information. This responsibility may not be passed on to the claimant or the employer. In addition to the agency's own records, this information may be obtained from the worker, the employer, or other sources. If the information obtained in the first instance discloses no essential disagreement and provides a sufficient basis for a fair determination, no further investigation is necessary. If the information obtained from other sources differs essentially from that furnished by the claimant, the agency, in order to meet its responsibility, is required to inform the claimant of such information from other sources and to afford the claimant an opportunity to furnish any further facts he may have.

2. Evidentiary facts must be obtained as distinguished from ultimate facts or conclusions. That a worker was discharged for misconduct is an ultimate fact or conclusion; that he destroyed a machine upon which he was working is a primary or evidentiary fact, and the sort of fact that the requirement refers to.

3. The information obtained must be sufficient reasonably to insure the payment of benefits when due. In general, the investigation made by the agency must be complete enough to provide information upon which the agency may act with reasonable assurance that its decision is consistent with the unemployment compensation law. On the other hand, the investigation should not be so exhaustive and time-consuming as unduly to delay the payment of benefits and to result in excessive costs.

4. Information must be obtained promptly so that the payment of benefits is not unduly delayed.

5. If the State agency requires any particular evidence from the worker, it must give him a reasonable opportunity to obtain such evidence.

B. Recording of facts. The agency must keep a written record of the facts considered in reaching its determinations.

C. Determination notices:

1. The agency must give each claimant a written notice of:

a. Any monetary determination with respect to his benefit year;

b. Any determination with respect to purging a disqualification if, under the State law, a condition or qualification must be satisfied with respect to each week of disqualification; but in lieu of giving written notice of each determination for each week in which it is determined that the claimant has met the requirements for purging, the agency may inform the claimant that he has purged the disqualification for a week by notation on his applicant identification card or otherwise in writing.

c. Any other determination which adversely affects his rights to benefits, except that written notice of determination need not be given with respect to:

(1) A week in a benefit year for which the claimant's weekly benefit amount is reduced in whole or in part by earnings if, the first time in the benefit year that there is such a reduction, he is required to be furnished a booklet or leaflet containing the information set forth below in paragraph 2f(1). However, a written notice of determination is required if: (a) there is a dispute concerning the reduction with respect to any week (e.g., as to the amount computed as the appropriate reduction, etc.); or (b) there is a change in the State law (or in the application thereof) affecting the reduction; or

(2) Any week in a benefit year subsequent to the first week in such benefit year in which benefits were denied, or reduced in whole or in part for reasons other than earnings, if denial or reduction for such subsequent week is based on the same reason and the same facts as for the first week, and if written notice of determination is required to be given to the claimant with respect to such first week, and with such notice of determination, he is required to be given a booklet or pamphlet containing the information set forth below in paragraph 2f(2) and 2h. However, a written notice of determination is required if: (a) there is a dispute concerning the denial or reduction of benefits with respect to such week; or (b) there is a change in the State law (or in the application thereof) affecting the denial or reduction; or (c) there is a change in the amount of the reduction except as to the balance covered by the last reduction in a series of reductions.

NOTE: This procedure may be applied to determinations made with respect to any subsequent weeks for the same reason and on the basis of the same facts: (a) that claimant is unable to work, unavailable for work, or is disqualified under the labor dispute provision; and (b) reducing claimant's weekly benefit amount because of income other than earnings or offset by reason of overpayment.

2. The agency must include in written notices of determinations furnished to claimants sufficient information to enable them to understand the determinations, the reasons therefor, and their rights to protest, request reconsideration, or appeal.

The written notice of monetary determination must contain the information specified in the following items (except h) unless an item is specifically not applicable. A written notice of any other determination must contain the information specified in as many of the following items as are necessary to enable the claimant to understand the determination and to inform him of his appeal rights. Information specifically applicable to the individual claimant must be contained in the written notice of determination. Information of general application such as (but not limited to) the explanation of benefits for partial unemployment, information as to deductions, seasonality factors, and information as to the manner and place of taking an appeal, extension of the appeal period, and where to obtain information and assistance may be contained in a booklet or leaflet which is given the claimant with his monetary determination.

a. Base period wages. The statement concerning base-period wages must be in sufficient detail to show the basis of computation of eligibility and weekly and maximum benefit amounts. (If maximum benefits are allowed, it may not be necessary to show details of earnings.)

b. Employer name. The name of the employer who reported the wage is necessary so that the worker may check the wage transcript and know whether it is correct. If the worker is given only the employer number, he may not be able to check the accuracy of the wage transcript.

c. Explanation of benefit formula—weekly and maximum benefit amounts. Sufficient information must be given the worker so that he will understand how his weekly benefit amount, including allowances for dependents, and his maximum benefit amount were figured. If benefits are computed by means of a table contained in the law, the table must be furnished with the notice of determination whether benefits are granted or denied.

The written notice of determination must show clearly the weekly benefit amount and the maximum potential benefits to which the claimant is entitled.

The notice to a claimant found ineligible by reason of insufficient earnings in the base period must inform him clearly of the reason for ineligibility. An explanation of the benefit formula contained in a booklet or pamphlet should be given to each claimant at or prior to the time he receives written notice of a monetary determination.

d. Benefit year. An explanation of what is meant by the benefit year and identification of the claimant's benefit year must be included in the notice of determination.

e. Information as to benefits for partial unemployment. There must be included either in the written notice of determination or in a booklet or pamphlet accompanying the notice an explanation of the claimant's rights to partial benefits for any week with respect to which he is working less than his normal customary full-time workweek because of lack of work and for which he earns less than his weekly benefit amount or weekly benefit amount plus earnings, whichever is provided by the State law. If the explanation is contained in the notice of determination, reference to the item in the notice in which his weekly benefit amount is entered should be made.

f. Deductions from weekly benefits:

(1) Earnings. Although written notice of determinations deducting earnings from a claimant's weekly benefit amount is generally not required (see paragraph 1 c (1) above), where written notice of determination is required (or given) it shall set forth the amount of earnings, the method of computing the deduction in sufficient detail to enable the claimant to verify the accuracy of the deduction, and his right to protest, request redetermination, and appeal. Where a written notice of determination is given to the claimant because there has been a change in the State law or in the application of the law, an explanation of the change shall be included.

When claimant is not required to receive a written notice of determination, he must be given a booklet or pamphlet the first time in his benefit year that there is a deduction for earnings which shall include the following information:

(a) The method of computing deductions for earnings in sufficient detail to enable the claimant to verify the accuracy of the deduction;

(b) That he will not automatically be given a written notice of determination for a week with respect to which there is a deduction for earnings (unless there is a dispute concerning the reduction with respect to a week or there has been a change in the State law or in the application of the law affecting the deduction) but that he may obtain such a written notice upon request; and

(c) A clear statement of his right to protest, request a redetermination, and appeal from any determination deducting earnings from his weekly benefit amount even though he does not automatically receive a written notice of determination; and if the State law requires written notice of determination in order to effectuate a protest, redetermination, or appeal, he must be so advised and advised also that he must request a written notice of determination before he takes any such action.

(2) Other deductions:

(a) A written notice of determination is required with respect to the first week in claimant's benefit year in which there is a reduction from his benefits for a reason other than earnings. This notice must describe the deduction made from claimant's weekly benefit amount, the reason for the deduction, the method of computing it in sufficient detail to enable him to verify the accuracy of such deduction, and his right to protest, request redetermination, or appeal.

(b) A written notice of determination is not required for subsequent weeks that a deduction is made for the same reason and on the basis of the same facts, if the notice of determination pursuant to (2) (a), or a booklet or pamphlet given him with such notice explains (i) the several kinds of deductions which may be made under the State law (e.g., retirement pensions, vacation pay, and overpayments); (ii) the method of computing each kind of deduction in sufficient detail that claimant will be able to verify the accuracy of deductions made from his weekly benefit payments; (iii) any limitation on the amount of any deduction or the time in which any deduction may be made; (iv) that he will not automatically be given a written notice of determination for subsequent weeks with respect to which there is a deduction for the same reason and on the basis of the same facts, but that he may obtain a written notice of determination upon request; (v) his right to protest, request redetermination, or appeal with respect to subsequent weeks for which there is a reduction from his benefits for the same reason, and on the basis of the same facts even though he does not automatically receive a written notice of determination; and (vi) that if the State law requires written notice of determination in order to effectuate a protest, redetermination, or appeal, he must be so advised and advised also that he must request a written notice of determination before he takes any such action.

g. Seasonality factors. If the individual's determination is affected by seasonality factors under the State law, an adequate explanation must be made. General explanations of seasonality factors which may affect determinations for subsequent weeks may be included in a booklet or pamphlet given claimant with his notice of monetary determinations.

h. Disqualification or ineligibility. If a disqualification is imposed, or if the claimant is declared ineligible for one or more weeks, he must be given not only a statement of the period of disqualification or ineligibility and the amount of wage-credit reductions, if any, but also an explanation of the reason for the ineligibility or disqualification. This explanation must be sufficiently detailed so that he will understand why he is ineligible or why he has been disqualified, and what he must do in order to requalify for benefits or purge the disqualification. The statement must be individualized to indicate the facts upon which the determination was based, e.g., state, "It is found that you left your work with Blank Company because you were tired of working; the separation was voluntary, and the reason does not constitute good cause," rather than merely the phrase "voluntary quit." Checking a box as to the reason for the disqualification is not a sufficiently detailed explanation. However, this statement of the reason for the disqualification need not be a restatement of all facts considered in arriving at the determination.

i. Appeal rights. The claimant must be given information with respect to his appeal rights.

(1) The following information shall be included in the notice of determination:

(a) A statement that he may appeal or, if the State law requires or permits a protest or redetermination before an appeal, that he may protest or request a redetermination.

(b) The period within which an appeal, protest, or request for redetermination must be filed. The number of days provided by statute must be shown as well as either the beginning date or ending date of the period. (It is recommended that the ending date of the appeal period be shown, as this is the more understandable of the alternatives.)

(2) The following information must be included either in the notice of determination or in separate informational material referred to in the notice:

(a) The manner in which the appeal, protest, or request for redetermination must be filed, e.g., by signed letter, written statement, or on a prescribed form, and the place or places to which the appeal, protest, or request for redetermination may be mailed or hand-delivered.

(b) An explanation of any circumstances (such as nonworkdays, good cause, etc.) which will extend the period for the appeal, protest, or request for redetermination beyond the date stated or identified in the notice of determination.

(c) That any further information claimant may need or desire can be obtained together with assistance in filing his appeal, protest, or request for redetermination from the local office.

If the information is given in separate material, the notice of determination would adequately refer to such material if it said, for example, "For other information about your (appeal), (protest), (redetermination) rights, see pages ____ to ____ of the ____ (name of pamphlet or booklet) heretofore furnished to you."

6014 Separation Information Requirements Designed To Meet Department of Labor Criteria:

A. Information to agency. Where workers are separated, employers are required to furnish the agency promptly, either upon agency request or upon such separation, a notice describing the reasons for and the circumstances of the separation and any additional information which might affect a claimant's right to benefits. Where workers are working less than full time, employers are required to furnish the agency promptly, upon agency request, information concerning a claimant's hours of work and his wages during the claim periods involved, and other facts which might affect a claimant's eligibility for benefits during such periods.

When workers are separated and the notices are obtained on a request basis, or when workers are working less than full time and the agency requests information, it is essential to the prompt processing of claims that the request be sent out promptly after the claim is filed and the employer be given a specific period within which to return the notice, preferably within 2 working days.

When workers are separated and notices are obtained upon separation, it is essential that the employer be required to send the notice to the agency with sufficient promptness to insure that, if a claim is filed, it may be processed promptly. Normally, it is desirable that such a notice be sent to the central office of the agency, since the employer may not know in which local office the worker will file his claim. The usual procedure is for the employer to give the worker a copy of the notice sent by the employer to the agency.

B. Information to worker:

1. Information required to be given. Employers are required to give their employees information and instructions concerning the employees' potential rights to benefits and concerning registration for work and filing claims for benefits.

The information furnished to employees under such a requirement need not be elaborate; it need only be adequate to insure that the worker who is separated or who is working less than full time knows he is potentially eligible for benefits and is informed as to what he is to do or where he is to go to file his claim and register for work. When he files his claim, he can obtain more detailed information.

In States that do not require employers to furnish periodically to the State agency detailed reports of the wages paid to their employees, each employer is required to furnish to his employees information as to (a) the name under which he is registered by the State agency, (b) the address where he maintains his payroll records, and (c) the workers' need for this information if and when they file claims for benefits.

2. Methods for giving information. The information and instructions required above may be given in any of the following ways:

a. Posters prominently displayed in the employer's establishment. The State agency should supply employers with a sufficient number of posters for distribution throughout their places of business and should see that the posters are conspicuously displayed at all times.

b. Leaflets. Leaflets distributed either periodically or at the time of separation or reduction of hours. The State agency should supply employers with a sufficient number of leaflets.

c. Individual notices. Individual notices given to each employee at the time of separation or reduction in hours.

It is recommended that the State agency's publicity program be used to supplement the employer-information requirements. Such a program should stress the availability and location of claim-filing offices and the importance of visiting those offices whenever the worker is unemployed, wishes to apply for benefits, and to seek a job.

6015 Evaluation of Alternative State Provisions with Respect to Claim Determinations and Separation Information. If the State law provisions do not conform to the suggested requirements set forth in sections 6013 and 6014, but the State law contains alternative provisions, the Bureau of Employment Security, in collaboration with the State agency, will study the actual or anticipated effects of the alternative provisions. If the Administrator of the Bureau concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy the criteria in section 6012, he will so notify the State agency. If the Administrator of the Bureau does not so conclude, he will submit the matter to the Secretary. If the Secretary concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy the criteria in section 6012, the State agency will be so notified. If the Secretary concludes that there is a question as to whether the alternative provisions satisfy the criteria, the State agency will be advised that unless the State law provisions are appropriately revised, a notice of hearing will be issued as required by the Code of Federal Regulations, title 20, §601.5.

APPENDIX C TO PART 617—STANDARD FOR FRAUD AND OVERPAYMENT DETECTION

7510 Federal Law Requirements. Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for:

“Such methods of administration . . . as are found by the Secretary to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due.”

Section 1603(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code and section 3030(a)(5) of the Social Security Act require that a State law include provision for:

Section 1607(h) of the Internal Revenue Code defines “compensation” as “cash benefits payable to individuals with respect to their unemployment.”

7511 The Secretary’s Interpretation of Federal Law Requirements. The Secretary of Labor interprets the above sections to require that a State law include provision for such methods of administration as are, within reason, calculated (1) to detect benefits paid through error by the agency or through willful misrepresentation or error by the claimant or others, and (2) to deter claimants from obtaining benefits through willful misrepresentation.

7513 Criteria for Review of State Conformity With Federal Requirements. In determining State conformity with the above requirements of the Internal Revenue Code and the Social Security Act, as interpreted by the Secretary of Labor, the following criteria will be applied:

A. Are investigations required to be made after the payment of benefits, (or, in the case of interstate claims, are investigations made by the agent State after the processing of claims) as to claimants’ entitlement to benefits paid to them in a sufficient proportion of cases to test the effectiveness of the agency’s procedures for the prevention of payments which are not due? To carry out investigations, has the agency assigned to some individual or unit, as a basic function, the responsibility of making or functionally directing such investigations?

Explanation: It is not feasible to prescribe the extent to which the above activities are required; however, they should always be carried on to such an extent that they will show whether or not error or willful misrepresentation is increasing or decreasing, and will reveal problem areas. The extent and nature of the above activities should be varied according to the seriousness of the problem in the State. The responsible individual or unit should:

1. Check paid claims for overpayment and investigate for willful misrepresentation or, alternatively, advise and assist the operating units in the performance of such functions, or both;

2. Perform consultative services with respect to methods and procedures for the prevention and detection of fraud; and

3. Perform other services which are closely related to the above.

Although a State agency is expected to make a full-time assignment of responsibility to a unit or individual to carry on the functions described above, a small State agency might make these functions a part-time responsibility of one individual. In connection with the detection of overpayments, such a unit or individual might, for example:

(a) Investigate information on suspected benefit fraud received from any agency personnel, and from sources outside the agency, including anonymous complaints;

(b) Investigate information secured from comparisons of benefit payments with employment records to detect cases of concurrent working (whether in covered or non-covered work) and claiming of benefits (including benefit payments in which the agency acted as agent for another State).

The benefit fraud referred to herein may involve employers, agency employees, and witnesses, as well as claimants.

Comparisons of benefit payments with employment records are commonly made either by post-audit or by industry surveys. The so-called “post-audit” is a matching of central office wage-record files against benefit payments for the same period. “Industry surveys” or “mass audits” are done in some States by going directly to employers for pay-roll information to be checked against concurrent benefit lists. A plan of investigation based on a sample post-audit will be considered as partial fulfillment of the investigation program; it would need to be supplemented by other methods capable of detecting overpayments to persons who have moved into noncovered occupations or are claiming interstate benefits.

B. Are adequate records maintained by which the results of investigations may be evaluated?

Explanation. To meet this criterion, the State agency will be expected to maintain records of all its activities in the detection of overpayments, showing whether attributable to error or willful misrepresentation, measuring the results obtained through various methods, and noting the remedial action taken in each case. The adequacy and effectiveness of various methods of checking for willful misrepresentation can be evaluated only if records are kept of the results obtained. Internal reports on fraudulent and erroneous overpayments are needed by State agencies for self-evaluation. Detailed records should be maintained in order that the State agency may determine, for example, which of several methods of checking currently used are the most productive. Such records also will provide the basis for drawing a clear distinction between fraud and error.

C. Does the agency take adequate action with respect to publicity concerning willful misrepresentation and its legal consequences to deter fraud by claimants?

Explanation. To meet this criterion, the State agency must issue adequate material of claimant eligibility requirements and must take necessary action to obtain publicity on the legal consequences of willful misrepresentation or willful nondisclosure of facts.

Public announcements on convictions and resulting penalties for fraud are generally considered necessary as a deterrent to other persons, and to inform the public that the agency is carrying on an effective program to prevent fraud. This alone is not considered adequate publicity. It is important that information be circulated which will explain clearly and understandably the claimant's rights, and the obligations which he must fulfill to be eligible for benefits. Leaflets for distribution and posters placed in local offices are appropriate media for such information.

*7515 Evaluation of Alternative State Provisions with Respect to Erroneous and Illegal Payments. If the methods of administration provided for by the State law do not conform to the suggested methods of meeting the requirements set forth in section 7511, but a State law does provide for alternative methods of administration designed to accomplish the same results, the Bureau of Employment Security, in collaboration with the State agency, will study the actual or anticipated effect of the alternative methods of administration. If the Bureau concludes that the alternative methods satisfy the criteria in section 7513, it will so notify the State agency. If the Bureau does not so conclude, it will submit to the Secretary the results of the study for his determination of whether the State's alternative methods of administration meet the criteria.

§ 625.1

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

SOURCE: 42 FR 46712, Sept. 16, 1977, unless otherwise noted.

§ 625.1 Purpose; rules of construction.

(a) Purpose. Section 410 of “The Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act” amended the program for the payment of unemployment assistance to unemployed individuals whose unemployment is caused by a major disaster, and to provide reemployment assistance services to those individuals. The unemployment assistance provided for in section 410 of the Act is hereinafter referred to as Disaster Unemployment Assistance, or DUA. The regulations in this part are issued to implement sections 410 and 423 of the Act.

(b) First rule of construction. Sections 410 and 423 of the Act and the implementing regulations in this part shall be construed liberally so as to carry out the purposes of the Act.

(c) Second rule of construction. Sections 410 and 423 of the Act and the implementing regulations in this part shall be construed so as to assure insofar as possible the uniform interpretation and application of the Act throughout the United States.

(d) Effectuating purpose and rules of construction. (1) In order to effectuate the provisions of this section, each State agency shall forward to the United States Department of Labor, on receipt of a request from the Department, a copy of any determination or redetermination ruling on an individual’s entitlement to DUA.

(2) If the Department believes a determination or redetermination is inconsistent with the Secretary’s interpretation of the Act, the Department may at any time notify the State agency of the department’s view. Thereafter, the State agency shall appeal if possible, and shall not follow such determination or redetermination as a precedent; and in any subsequent proceedings which involve such determination or redetermination, or wherein such determination or redetermination is cited as precedent or otherwise relied upon, the State agency shall inform the hearing officer of the Department’s view and shall make all reasonable efforts to obtain modification, limitation, or overruling of the determination or redetermination.

(3) A State agency may request reconsideration of a notice that a determination or redetermination is inconsistent with the Act, and shall be given an opportunity to present views and arguments if desired. If a determination or redetermination setting a precedent becomes final, which the Department believes to be inconsistent with the Act, the Secretary will decide whether the Agreement with the State shall be terminated.

(4) Concurrence of the Department in a determination or redetermination shall not be presumed from the absence of a notice issued pursuant to this paragraph.

[42 FR 46712, Sept. 16, 1977, as amended at 55 FR 554, Jan. 5, 1990]

§ 625.2 Definitions.

For the purposes of the Act and this part:

(a) Act means sections 410 and 423 of The Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (formerly section 407 of the “Disaster Relief Act of 1974”, Pub. L. 93-288, 88 Stat. 143, 156, approved May 22, 1974), 42 U.S.C. 5177, 5189a, as amended by The Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Amendments of 1988, Pub. L. 100-707, 102 Stat. 4689, 4704, 4705, approved November 23, 1988.

(b) Agreement means the Agreement entered into pursuant to the Act, between a State and the Secretary of Labor of the United States, under which the State agency of the State agrees to make payments of Disaster Unemployment Assistance in accordance with the Act and the regulations and procedures thereunder prescribed by the Secretary.

(c) Announcement date means the first day on which the State agency publicly announces the availability of Disaster Unemployment Assistance in the State, pursuant to § 625.17.

(d) Compensation means unemployment compensation as defined in section 85(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and shall include any assistance or allowance payable to an individual with respect to such individual’s unemployment under any State law or Federal unemployment compensation law unless such governmental unemployment compensation program payments are not considered "compensation" by ruling of the Internal Revenue Service or specific provision of Federal and/or State law because such payments are based on employee contributions which are not deductible from Federal income tax liability until the total nondeductible contributions paid by the employee to such program has been paid or are not "compensation" as defined under paragraph (d)(5) of this section. Governmental unemployment compensation programs include (but are not limited to) programs established under: a State law approved by the Secretary of Labor pursuant to section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code, chapter 85 of title 5 of the United States Code, the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act (45 U.S.C. 351 et seq.), any Federal supplementary compensation law, and trade readjustment allowances payable under chapter 2 of title II of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2271 et seq.). "Compensation" also includes "regular compensation", "additional compensation", "extended compensation", "Federal supplementary compensation", and "disability payments" defined as follows:

(1) Regular compensation means compensation payable to an individual under any State law or the unemployment compensation plan of a political subdivision of a State and, when so payable, includes compensation payable pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85 (parts 609 and 614 of this chapter), but not including extended compensation or additional compensation.

(2) Additional compensation means compensation totally financed by a State and payable under a State law by reason of conditions of high unemployment or by reason of other special factors, and, when so payable, includes compensation payable pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85.

(3) Extended compensation means compensation payable to an individual for weeks of unemployment in an extended benefit period, under those provisions of a State law which satisfy the requirements of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970 (title II, Pub. L. 91-373; 84 Stat. 695, 708; part 615 of this chapter), as amended with respect to the payment of extended compensation, and, when so payable, includes additional compensation and compensation payable pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85.

(4) Federal supplementary compensation means supplemental compensation payable under a temporary Federal law after exhaustion of regular and extended compensation.

(5) Disability payments means cash disability payments made pursuant to a governmental program as a substitute for cash unemployment payments to an individual who is ineligible for such payments solely because of the disability, except for payments made under workmen's compensation acts for personal injuries or sickness.

(e) Date the major disaster began means the date a major disaster first occurred, as specified in the understanding between the Federal Emergency Management Agency and the Governor of the State in which the major disaster occurred.

(f) Disaster Assistance Period means the period beginning with the first week following the date the major disaster began, and ending with [the 26th week subsequent to the date the major disaster was declared.

(g) Disaster Unemployment Assistance means the assistance payable to an individual eligible for the assistance under the Act and this part, and which is referred to as DUA.

(h) Federal Coordinating Officer means the official appointed pursuant to section 302 of The Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, to operate in the affected major disaster area.

(i) Governor means the chief executive of a State.

(j) Initial application means the first application for DUA filed by an individual, on the basis of which the individual's eligibility for DUA is determined.

(k) Major disaster means a major disaster as declared by the President pursuant to section 401 of The Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act.

§ 625.2

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(1) Major disaster area means the area identified as eligible for Federal assistance by the Federal Emergency Management Agency, pursuant to a Presidential declaration of a major disaster.

(m) Secretary means the Secretary of Labor of the United States.

(n) Self-employed individual means an individual whose primary reliance for income is on the performance of services in the individual's own business, or on the individual's own farm.

(o) Self-employment means services performed as a self-employed individual.

(p) State means any State of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, the Territory of Guam, American Samoa, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

(q) State agency means—

(1) In all States except the Territory of Guam, American Samoa, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of the Marshall Islands and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, the agency administering the State law; and

(2) In the Territory of Guam, American Samoa, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of the Marshall Islands and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, the agency designated in the Agreement entered into by the State.

(r)(1) State law means, with respect to—

(i) The States of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, the unemployment compensation law of the State which has been approved under section 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 3304(a)); and

(ii) The Territory of Guam, American Samoa, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of the Marshall Islands and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, the Hawaii Employment Security Law.

(2) Applicable State law means, for an individual, the State law of the applicable State for an individual as provided in § 625.12.

(s) Unemployed worker means an individual who was employed in or was to commence employment in the major disaster area at the time the major disaster began, and whose principal source of income and livelihood is dependent upon the individual's employment for wages, and whose unemployment is caused by a major disaster as provided in § 625.5(a).

(t) Unemployed self-employed individual means an individual who was self-employed in or was to commence self-employment in the major disaster area at the time the major disaster began, and whose principal source of income and livelihood is dependent upon the individual's performance of service in self-employment, and whose unemployment is caused by a major disaster as provided in § 625.5(b).

(u) Wages means remuneration for services performed for another, and, with respect to a self-employed individual, net income from services performed in self-employment.

(v) Week means a week as defined in the applicable State law.

(w) Week of unemployment means—

(1) For an unemployed worker, any week during which the individual is totally, part-totally, or partially unemployed. A week of total unemployment is a week during which the individual performs no work and earns no wages, or has less than full-time work and earns wages not exceeding the minimum earnings allowance prescribed in the applicable State law. A week of part-total unemployment is a week of otherwise total unemployment during which the individual has odd jobs or subsidiary work and earns wages not exceeding the maximum earnings allowance prescribed in the applicable State law. A week of partial unemployment is a week during which the individual works less than regular, full-time hours for the individual's regular employer, as a direct result of the major disaster, and earns wages not exceeding the maximum earnings allowance prescribed by the applicable State law.

(2) For an unemployed self-employed individual, any week during which the individual is totally, part-totally, or partially unemployed. A week of total unemployment is a week during which the individual performs no services in self-employment or in an employer-employee relationship, or performs services less than full-time and earns wages not exceeding the minimum earnings allowance prescribed in the applicable State law. A week of part-total unemployment is a week of otherwise total unemployment during which the individual has odd jobs or subsidiary work and earns wages not exceeding the maximum earnings allowance prescribed in the applicable State law. A week of partial unemployment is a week during which the individual performs less than the customary full-time services in self-employment, as a direct result of the major disaster, and earns wages not exceeding the maximum earnings allowance prescribed by the applicable State law, or during which the only activities or services performed are for the sole purpose of enabling the individual to resume self-employment.

(3) If the week of unemployment for which an individual claims DUA is a week with respect to which the individual is reemployed in a suitable position or has commenced services in self-employment, that week shall be treated as a week of partial unemployment if the week qualifies as a week of partial unemployment as defined in this paragraph.

[42 FR 46712, Sept. 16, 1977, as amended at 55 FR 554, Jan. 5, 1990; 56 FR 22805, May 16, 1991]

§ 625.3 Reemployment assistance.

(a) State assistance. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the applicable State shall provide, without reimbursement from any funds provided under the Act, reemployment assistance services under any other law administered by the State to individuals applying for DUA and all other individuals who are unemployed because of a major disaster. Such services shall include, but are not limited to, counseling, referrals to suitable work opportunities, and suitable training, to assist the individuals in obtaining re-employment in suitable positions as soon as possible.

(b) Federal assistance. In the case of American Samoa, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, the Department of Labor, in consultation with the Federal Emergency Management Agency, will determine what reemployment services are needed by DUA applicants, and if any available Federal programs of reemployment assistance services can be implemented in that jurisdiction.

[55 FR 554, Jan. 5, 1990; as amended at 56 FR 22806, May 16, 1991]

§ 625.4 Eligibility requirements for Disaster Unemployment Assistance.

An individual shall be eligible to receive a payment of DUA with respect to a week of unemployment, in accordance with the provisions of the Act and this part if:

(a) That week begins during a Disaster Assistance Period;

(b) The applicable State for the individual has entered into an Agreement which is in effect with respect to that week;

(c) The individual is an unemployed worker or an unemployed self-employed individual;

(d) The individual's unemployment with respect to that week is caused by a major disaster, as provided in § 625.5;

(e) The individual has filed a timely initial application for DUA and, as appropriate, a timely application for a payment of DUA with respect to that week;

(f) That week is a week of unemployment for the individual;

(g) The individual is able to work and available for work within the meaning of the applicable State law: Provided, That an individual shall be deemed to meet this requirement if any injury caused by the major disaster is the reason for inability to work or engage in self-employment; or, in the case of an unemployed self-employed individual, the individual performs service or activities which are solely for the purpose of enabling the individual to resume self-employment;

§ 625.5

20 CFR Ch. V (4–1–03 Edition)

(h) The individual has not refused a bona fide offer of employment in a suitable position, or refused without good cause to resume or commence suitable self-employment, if the employment or self-employment could have been undertaken in that week or in any prior week in the Disaster Assistance Period; and

(i) The individual is not eligible for compensation (as defined in § 625.2(d)) or for waiting period credit for such week under any other Federal or State law, except that an individual determined ineligible because of the receipt of disqualifying income shall be considered eligible for such compensation or waiting period credit. An individual shall be considered ineligible for compensation or waiting period credit (and thus potentially eligible for DUA) if the individual is under a disqualification for a cause that occurred prior to the individual's unemployment due to the disaster, or for any other reason is ineligible for compensation or waiting period credit as a direct result of the major disaster.

§ 625.5 Unemployment caused by a major disaster.

(a) Unemployed worker. The unemployment of an unemployed worker is caused by a major disaster if—

(1) The individual has a “week of unemployment” as defined in § 625.2(w)(1) following the “date the major disaster began” as defined in § 625.2(e), and such unemployment is a direct result of the major disaster; or

(2) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment as a direct result of the major disaster; or

(3) The individual was to commence employment and does not have a job or is unable to reach the job as a direct result of the major disaster; or

(4) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because the head of the household has died as a direct result of the major disaster; or

(5) The individual cannot work because of an injury caused as a direct result of the major disaster.

(b) Unemployed self-employed individual. The unemployment of an unemployed self-employed individual is caused by a major disaster if—

(1) The individual has a “week of unemployment” as defined in § 625.2(w)(2) following the “date the major disaster began” as defined in § 625.2(e), and such unemployment is a direct result of the major disaster; or

(2) The individual is unable to reach the place where services as a self-employed individual are performed, as a direct result of the major disaster; or

(3) The individual was to commence regular services as a self-employed individual, but does not have a place or is unable to reach the place where the services as a self-employed individual were to be performed, as a direct result of the major disaster; or

(4) The individual cannot perform services as a self-employed individual because of an injury caused as a direct result of the major disaster.

(c) Unemployment is a direct result of the major disaster. For the purposes of paragraphs (a)(1) and (b)(1) of this section, a worker's or self-employed individual's unemployment is a direct result of the major disaster where the unemployment is an immediate result of the major disaster itself, and not the result of a longer chain of events precipitated or exacerbated by the disaster. Such an individual's unemployment is a direct result of the major disaster if the unemployment resulted from:

(1) The physical damage or destruction of the place of employment;

(2) The physical inaccessibility of the place of employment due to its closure by the federal government, in immediate response to the disaster; or

(3) Lack of work, or loss of revenues, provided that, prior to the disaster, the employer, or the business in the case of a self-employed individual, received at least a majority of its revenue or income from an entity that was either damaged or destroyed in the disaster, or an entity closed by the federal government in immediate response to the disaster.

[42 FR 46712, Sept. 16, 1977, as amended at 55 FR 555, Jan. 5, 1990; 56 FR 22806, May 16, 1991; 66 FR 56962, Nov. 13, 2001]

For the convenience of the user, the revised text is set forth as follows:

§ 625.5 Unemployment caused by a major disaster.

* * * * *

(2) The physical inaccessibility of the place of employment in the major disaster area due to its closure by or at the request of the federal, state or local government, in immediate response to the disaster; or

(3) Lack of work, or loss of revenues, provided that, prior to the disaster, the employer, or the business in the case of a self-employed individual, received at least a majority of its revenue or income from an entity in the major disaster area that was either damaged or destroyed in the disaster, or an entity in the major disaster area closed by the federal, state or local government in immediate response to the disaster.

(a) In all States, except as provided in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, the amount of DUA payable to an unemployed worker or unemployed self-employed individual for a week of total unemployment shall be the weekly amount of compensation the individual would have been paid as regular compensation, as computed under the provisions of the applicable State law for a week of total unemployment. In no event shall such amount be in excess of the maximum amount of regular compensation authorized under the applicable State law for that week.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (a)(2) or (b) of this section, in computing an individual's weekly amount of DUA, qualifying employment and wage requirements and benefit formula of the applicable State law shall be applied; and for purposes of this section, employment, wages, and self-employment which are not covered by the applicable State law shall be treated in the same manner and with the same effect as covered employment and wages, but shall not include employment or self-employment, or wages earned or paid for employment or self-employment, which is contrary to or prohibited by any Federal law, such as, but not limited to, section 3304(a)(14)(A) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (26 U.S.C. 3304(a)(14)(A)).

(2) For purposes of paragraph (a)(1) of this section, the base period to be utilized in computing the DUA weekly amount shall be the most recent tax year that has ended for the individual (whether an employee or self-employed) prior to the individual's unemployment that was a direct result of the major disaster. The self-employment income to be treated as wages for purposes of computing the weekly amount under this paragraph (a) shall be the net income reported on the tax return of the individual as income from all self-employment that was dependent upon the performance of services by the individual. If an individual has not filed a tax return for the most recent tax year that has ended at the time of such individual's initial application for DUA, such individual shall have a weekly amount determined in accordance with paragraph (e)(3) of this section.

(3) As of the date of filing an initial application for DUA, family members over the age of majority, as defined under the statutes of the applicable State, who were customarily or routinely employed or self-employed as a family unit or in the same self-employment business prior to the individuals' unemployment that was a direct result of the major disaster, shall have the wages from such employment or net income from the self-employment allocated equally among such adult family members for purposes of computing a weekly amount under this paragraph (a), unless the documentation to substantiate employment or self-employment and wages earned or paid for such employment or self-employment submitted as required by paragraph (e) of this section supports a different allocation. Family members under the age of majority as of the date of filing an initial application for DUA shall have a weekly amount computed under this paragraph (a) based on the actual wages earned or paid for employment or self-employment rather than an equal allocation.

(b) If the weekly amount computed under paragraph (a) of this section is less than 50 percent of the average weekly payment of regular compensation in the State, as provided quarterly by the Department, or, if the individual has insufficient wages from employment or insufficient or no net income from self-employment (which includes individuals falling within paragraphs (a)(3) and (b)(3) of § 625.5) in the applicable base period to compute a weekly amount under paragraph (a) of this section, the individual shall be determined entitled to a weekly amount equal to 50 percent of the average weekly payment of regular compensation in the State.

(1) If an individual was customarily or routinely employed or self-employed less than full-time prior to the individual's unemployment as a direct result of the major disaster, such individual's weekly amount under this paragraph (b)(1) shall be determined by calculating the percent of time the individual was employed or self-employed compared to the customary and usual hours per week that would constitute the average per week hours for year-round full-time employment or self-employment for the occupation, then applying the percentage to the determined 50 percent of the average weekly amount of regular compensation paid in the State. The State agency shall utilize information furnished by the applicant at the time of filing an initial application for DUA and any labor market or occupational information available within the State agency to determine the average per week hours for full-time employment or self-employment for the occupation. If the weekly amount computed for an individual under this paragraph (b)(1) is less than the weekly amount computed under paragraph (a) of this section for the individual, the individual shall be entitled to the higher weekly amount.

(2) The weekly amount so determined under paragraph (b)(1) of this section, if not an even dollar amount, shall be rounded in accordance with the applicable State law.

(c) In the Territory of Guam and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the amount of DUA payable to an unemployed worker or unemployed self-employed individual for a week of total unemployment shall be the average of the payments of regular compensation made under all State laws referred to in § 625.2(r)(1)(i) for weeks of total unemployment in the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the quarter in which the major disaster began. The weekly amount so determined, if not an even dollar amount, shall be rounded to the next higher dollar.

(d) In American Samoa, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of the Marshall Islands and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, the amount of DUA payable to an unemployed worker or unemployed self-employed individual for a week of total unemployment shall be the amount agreed upon by the Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, for Region IX (San Francisco), and the Federal Coordinating Officer, which shall approximate 50 percent of the area-wide average of the weekly wages paid to individuals in the major disaster area in the quarter immediately preceding the quarter in which the major disaster began. The weekly amount so determined, if not an even dollar amount, shall be rounded to the next higher dollar.

(e) The State agency shall immediately determine, upon the filing of an initial application for DUA, a weekly amount under the provisions of paragraphs (a) through (d) of this section, as the case may be, based on the individual's statement of employment or self-employment preceding the individual's unemployment that was a direct result of the major disaster, and wages earned or paid for such employment or self-employment. An immediate determination of a weekly amount shall also be made where, in conjunction with the filing of an initial application for DUA, the individual submits documentation substantiating employment or self-employment and wages earned or paid for such employment or self-employment, or, in the absence of documentation, where any State agency records of employment or self-employment and wages earned or paid for such employment or self-employment, justify the determination of a weekly amount. An immediate determination shall also be made based on the individual's statement or in conjunction with the submittal of documentation in those cases where the individual was to commence employment or self-employment on or after the date the major disaster began but was prevented from doing so as a direct result of the disaster.

(1) In the case of a weekly amount determined in accordance with paragraph (e) of this section, based only on the individual's statement of earnings, the individual shall furnish documentation to substantiate the employment or self-employment or wages earned from or paid for such employment or self-employment or documentation to support that the individual was to commence employment or self-employment on or after the date the major disaster began. In either case, documentation shall be submitted within 21 calendar days of the filing of the initial application for DUA.

(2) Any individual who fails to submit documentation to substantiate employment or self-employment or the planned commencement of employment or self-employment in accordance with paragraph (e)(1) of this section, shall be determined ineligible for the payment of DUA for any week of unemployment due to the disaster. Any weeks for which DUA was already paid on the application prior to the date of the determination of ineligibility under this paragraph (e)(2) are overpaid and a determination shall be issued in accordance with § 625.14(a). In addition, the State agency shall consider whether the individual is subject to a disqualification for fraud in accordance with the provisions set forth in § 625.14(i).

(3) For purposes of a computation of a weekly amount under paragraph (a) of this section, if an individual submits documentation to substantiate employment or self-employment in accordance with paragraph (e)(1), but not documentation of wages earned or paid during the base period set forth in paragraph (a)(2) of this section, including those cases where the individual has not filed a tax return for the most recent tax year that has ended, the State agency shall immediately redetermine the weekly amount of DUA payable to the individual in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

(4) Any individual determined eligible for a weekly amount of DUA under the provisions of paragraph (e)(3) of this section may submit necessary documentation to substantiate wages earned or paid during the base period set forth in paragraph (a)(2) of this section, including those cases where the individual has not filed a tax return for the most recent tax year that has ended, at any time prior to the end of the disaster assistance period. A redetermination of the weekly amount payable, as previously determined under paragraph (b) of this section, shall immediately be made if the wages earned or paid for services performed in employment or self-employment reflected in such documentation is sufficient to permit a computation under paragraph (a) of this section of a weekly amount higher than was determined under paragraph (b) of this section. Any higher amount so determined shall be applicable to all weeks during the disaster assistance period for which the individual was eligible for the payment of DUA.

(f)(1) The weekly amount of DUA payable to an unemployed worker or unemployed self-employed individual for a week of partial or part-total unemployment shall be the weekly amount determined under paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this section, as the case may be, reduced (but not below zero) by the amount of wages that the individual earned in that week as determined by applying to such wages the earnings allowance for partial or part-total employment prescribed by the applicable State law.

(2) The weekly amount of DUA payable to an unemployed self-employed individual for a week of unemployment shall be the weekly amount determined under paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this section, as the case may be, reduced (but not below zero) by the full amount of any income received during the week for the performance of services in self-employment, regardless of whether or not any services were performed during the week, by applying the earnings allowance as set forth in paragraph (f)(1) of this section. Notwithstanding the definition of “wages” for a self-employed individual under § 625.2(u), the term “any income” for purposes of this paragraph (f)(2) means gross income.

§ 625.7

§ 625.7 Disaster Unemployment Assistance: Duration.

DUA shall be payable to an eligible unemployed worker or eligible unemployed self-employed individual for all weeks of unemployment which begin during a Disaster Assistance Period.

§ 625.8 Applications for Disaster Unemployment Assistance.

(a) Initial application. An initial application for DUA shall be filed by an individual with the State agency of the applicable State within 30 days after the announcement date of the major disaster as the result of which the individual became unemployed, and on a form prescribed by the Secretary which shall be furnished to the individual by the State agency. An initial application filed later than 30 days after the announcement date of the major disaster shall be accepted as timely by the State agency if the applicant had good cause for the late filing, but in no event shall an initial application be accepted by the State agency if it is filed after the expiration of the Disaster Assistance Period. If the 30th day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday in the major disaster area, the 30-day time limit shall be extended to the next business day.

(b) Weekly applications. Applications for DUA for weeks of unemployment shall be filed with respect to the individual's applicable State at the times and in the manner as claims for regular compensation are filed under the applicable State law, and on forms prescribed by the Secretary which shall be furnished to the individual by the State agency.

(c) Filing in person. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (c)(2) of this section, all applications for DUA, including initial applications, shall be filed in person.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(2) Whenever an individual has good cause for not filing any application for DUA in person, the application shall be filed at such time, in such place, and in such a manner as directed by the State agency and in accordance with this part and procedures prescribed by the Secretary.

(d) IBPP. The “Interstate Benefit Payment Plan” shall apply, where appropriate, to an individual filing applications for DUA.

(e) Wage combining. The “Interstate Arrangement for Combining Employment and Wages” (part 616 of this chapter) shall apply, where appropriate, to an individual filing applications for DUA: Provided, That the “Paying State” shall be the applicable State for the individual as prescribed in § 625.12.

(f) Procedural requirements. (1) The procedures for reporting and filing applications for DUA shall be consistent with this part, and with the Secretary's “Standard for Claim Filing, Claimant Reporting, Job Finding and Employment Services,” Employment Security Manual. Part V, sections 5000 et seq. (appendix A of this part), insofar as such standard is not inconsistent with this part.

(2) The provisions of the applicable State law which apply hereunder to applications for and the payment of DUA shall be applied consistent with the requirements of title III of the Social Security Act and the Federal Unemployment Tax Act which are pertinent in the case of regular compensation, including but not limited to those standards and requirements specifically referred to in the provisions of this part.

§ 625.9 Determinations of entitlement; notices to individual.

(a) Determination of initial application. (1) The State agency shall promptly, upon the filing of an initial application for DUA, determine whether the individual is eligible, and if the individual is found to be eligible, the weekly amount of DUA payable to the individual and the period during which DUA is payable.

(2) An individual's eligibility for DUA shall be determined, where a reliable record of employment, self-employment and wages is not obtainable, on the basis of an affidavit submitted to the State agency by the individual, and on a form prescribed by the Secretary which shall be furnished to the individual by the State agency.

(b) Determinations of weekly applications. The State agency shall promptly, upon the filing of an application for a payment of DUA with respect to a week of unemployment, determine whether the individual is entitled to a payment of DUA with respect to that week, and, if entitled, the amount of DUA to which the individual is entitled.

(c) Redetermination. The provisions of the applicable State law concerning the right to request, or authority to undertake, reconsideration of a determination pertaining to regular compensation under the applicable State law shall apply to determinations pertaining to DUA.

(d) Notices to individual. The State agency shall give notice in writing to the individual, by the most expeditious method, of any determination or redetermination of an initial application, and of any determination of an application for DUA with respect to a week of unemployment which denies DUA or reduces the weekly amount initially determined to be payable, and of any redetermination of an application for DUA with respect to a week of unemployment. Each notice of determination or redetermination shall include such information regarding the determination or redetermination and notice of right to reconsideration or appeal, or both, as is furnished with written notices of determination and written notices of redeterminations with respect to claims for regular compensation.

(e) Promptness. Full payment of DUA when due shall be made with the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible.

(f) Secretary's Standard. The procedures for making determinations and redeterminations, and furnishing written notices of determinations, redeterminations, and rights of appeal to individuals applying for DUA, shall be consistent with this part and with the Secretary's "Standard for Claim Determinations—Separation Information," Employment Security Manual, Part V, sections 6010 et seq. (Appendix B of this part).

§ 625.10 Appeal and review.

(a) States of the United States. (1) Any determination or redetermination made pursuant to § 625.9, by the State agency of a State (other than the State agency of the Territory of Guam, American Samoa, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of the Marshall Islands, or the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands) may be appealed by the applicant in accordance with the applicable State law to the first-stage administrative appellate authority in the same manner and to the same extent as a determination or redetermination of a right to regular compensation may be appealed under the applicable State law, except that the period for appealing shall be 60 days from the date the determination or redetermination is issued or mailed instead of the appeal period provided for in the applicable State law. Any decision on a DUA first-stage appeal must be made and issued within 30 days after receipt of the appeal by the State.

(2) Notice of the decision on appeal, and the reasons therefor, shall be given to the individual by delivering the notice to such individual personally or by mailing it to the individual's last known address, whichever is most expeditious. The decision shall contain information as to the individual's right to review of the decision by the appropriate Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, if requested within 15 days after the decision was mailed or delivered in person to the individual. The notice will include the manner of requesting such review, and the complete address of the Regional Administrator. Notice of the decision on appeal shall be given also to the State agency (with the same notice of right to review) and to the appropriate Regional Administrator.

(b) Guam, American Samoa, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands. (1) In the case of an appeal by an individual from a determination or redetermination by the State agency of the Territory of Guam, American Samoa, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of the Marshall Islands, or the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, the individual shall be entitled to a hearing and decision in accordance with § 625.30 of this part.

(2) Notice of the referee's decision, and the reasons therefor, shall be given to the individual by delivering the notice to the individual personally or by mailing it to the individual's last known address, whichever is most expeditious. The notice of decision shall contain information as to the individual's right to review of the decision by the Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, for Region IX (San Francisco), and the manner of obtaining such review, including the address of the Regional Administrator. Notice of the decision on appeal shall be given also to the State agency and to the Regional Administrator.

(c) Review by Regional Administrator. (1) The appropriate Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, upon request for review by an applicant or the State agency shall, or upon the Regional Administrator's own motion may, review a decision on appeal issued pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this section.

(2) Any request for review by an applicant or a State agency shall be filed, and any review on the Regional Administrator's own motion shall be undertaken, within 15 days after notice of the decision on appeal was delivered or mailed to the individual.

(3)(i) A request for review by an individual may be filed with the appropriate State agency, which shall forward the request to the appropriate Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, or may be filed directly with the appropriate Regional Administrator.

(ii) A request for review by a State agency shall be filed with the appropriate Regional Administrator, and a copy shall be served on the individual by delivery to the individual personally or by mail to the individual's last known address.

(iii) When a Regional Administrator undertakes a review of a decision on the Regional Administrator's own motion, notice thereof shall be served promptly on the individual and the State agency.

(iv) Whenever review by a Regional Administrator is undertaken pursuant to an appeal or on the Regional Administrator's own motion, the State agency shall promptly forward to the Regional Administrator the entire record of the case.

(v) Where service on the individual is required by paragraph (c)(3)(ii) of this section, adequate proof of service shall be furnished for the record before the Regional Administrator, and be a condition of the Regional Administrator undertaking review pursuant to this paragraph.

(4) The decision of the Regional Administrator on review shall be rendered promptly, and not later than the earlier of—

(i) 45 days after the appeal is received or is undertaken by the Regional Administrator, or

(ii) 90 days from the date the individual's appeal from the determination or redetermination was received by the State agency.

(5) Notice of the Regional Administrator's decision shall be mailed promptly to the last known address of the individual, to the State agency of the applicable State, and to the Director, Unemployment Insurance Service. The decision of the Regional Administrator shall be the final decision under the Act and this part, unless there is further review by the Assistant Secretary as provided in paragraph (d) of this section.

(d) Further review by the Assistant Secretary. (1) The Assistant Secretary for Employment and Training on his own motion may review any decision by a Regional Administrator issued pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section.

(2) Notice of a motion for review by the Assistant Secretary shall be given to the applicant, the State agency of the applicable State, the appropriate Regional Administrator, and the Director, Unemployment Insurance Service.

(3) When the Regional Administrator and the State agency are notified of the Assistant Secretary's motion for review, they shall forward all records in the case to the Assistant Secretary.

(4) Review by the Assistant Secretary shall be solely on the record in the case, any other written contentions or evidence requested by the Assistant Secretary, and any further evidence or arguments offered by the individual, the State agency, the Regional Administrator, or the Director, Unemployment Insurance Service, which are mailed to the Assistant Secretary within 15 days after mailing the notice of motion for review.

(5) Upon review of a case under this paragraph, the Assistant Secretary may affirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the Regional Administrator, and may remand the case for further proceedings and decision in accordance with the Assistant Secretary's decision.

(6) The decision of the Assistant Secretary shall be made promptly, and notice thereof shall be sent to the applicant, the State agency, the Regional Administrator, and the Director, Unemployment Insurance Service.

(7) The decision of the Assistant Secretary shall be final and conclusive, and binding on all interested parties, and shall be a precedent applicable throughout the States.

(e) Procedural requirements. (1) All decisions on first-stage appeals from determinations or redeterminations by the State agencies must be made within 30 days of the appeal; therefore, the Secretary's "Standard for Appeals Promptness-Unemployment Compensation" in part 650 of this chapter shall not apply to the DUA program.

(2) The provisions on right of appeal and opportunity for hearing and review with respect to applications for DUA shall be consistent with this part and with sections 303(a)(1) and 303(a)(3) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 503(a)(1) and 503(a)(3).

(3) Any petition or other matter required to be filed within a time limit under this section shall be deemed to be filed at the time it is delivered to an appropriate office, or at the time of the postmark if it is mailed via the United States Postal Service to an appropriate office.

(4) If any limited time period specified in this section ends on a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday in the major disaster area, the time limit shall be extended to the next business day.

[42 FR 46712, Sept. 16, 1977, as amended at 55 FR 555, Jan. 5, 1990; 56 FR 22805, May 16, 1991]

§ 625.11 Provisions of State law applicable.

The terms and conditions of the State law of the applicable State for an individual, which apply to claims for, and the payment of regular compensation, shall apply to applications for, and the payment of, DUA to each such individual, only as specifically set forth in the provisions of this part.

§ 625.12 The applicable State for an individual.

(a) Applicable State. The applicable State for an individual shall be that State in which the individual's unemployment is the result of a major disaster.

(b) Limitation. DUA is payable to an individual only by an applicable State as determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, and—

(1) Only pursuant to an Agreement entered into pursuant to the Act and this part, and with respect to weeks in which the Agreement is in effect; and

(2) Only with respect to weeks of unemployment that begin during a Disaster Assistance Period.

§ 625.13 Restrictions on entitlement; disqualification.

(a) Income reductions. The amount of DUA payable to an individual for a week of unemployment, as computed pursuant to § 625.6, shall be reduced by the amount of any of the following that an individual has received for the week or would receive for the week if the individual filed a claim or application therefor and took all procedural steps necessary under the appropriate law, contract, or policy to receive such payment:

(1) Any benefits or insurance proceed from any source not defined as “compensation” under § 625.2(d) for loss of wages due to illness or disability;

(2) A supplemental unemployment benefit pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement.

(3) Private income protection insurance;

(4) Any workers’ compensation by virtue of the death of the head of the household as the result of the major disaster in the major disaster area, prorated by weeks, if the individual has become the head of the household and is seeking suitable work because the head of the household died as the result of the major disaster in the major disaster area; and

(5) The prorated amount of a retirement pension or annuity under a public or private retirement plan or system, prorated, where necessary, by weeks, but only if, and to the extent that, such amount would be deducted from regular compensation payable under the applicable State law.

(6) The prorated amount of primary benefits under title II of the Social Security Act, but only to the extent that such benefits would be deducted from regular compensation if payable to the individual under the applicable State law.

(b) Disqualification. (1) An individual shall not be entitled to DUA for any week after the week in which the individual is reemployed in a suitable position.

(2) An individual who refuses without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of reemployment in a position suitable to the individual, or to investigate or accept a referral to a position which is suitable to and available to the individual, shall not be entitled to DUA with respect to the week in which such refusal occurs or in any subsequent week in the Disaster Assistance Period. For the purposes of this paragraph, a position shall not be deemed to be suitable for an individual if the circumstances present any unusual risk to the health, safety, or morals of the individual, if it is impracticable for the individual to accept the position, or if acceptance for the position would, as to the individual, be inconsistent with any labor standard in section 3304(a)(5) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, 26 U.S.C. 3304(a)(5), or the comparable provisions of the applicable State law.

§ 625.14 Overpayments; disqualification for fraud.

(a) Finding and repayment. If the State agency of the applicable State finds that an individual has received a payment of DUA to which the individual was not entitled under the Act and this part, whether or not the payment was due to the individual’s fault or misrepresentation, the individual shall be liable to repay to the applicable State the total sum of the payment to which the individual was not entitled, and the State agency shall take all reasonable measures authorized under any State law or Federal law to recover for the account of the United States the total sum of the payment to which the individual was not entitled.

(b) Recovery by offset. (1) The State agency shall recover, insofar as is possible, the amount of any outstanding overpayment of DUA made to the individual by the State, by deductions from any DUA payable to the individual under the Act and this part, or from any compensation payable to the individual under any Federal unemployment compensation law administered by the State agency, or from any assistance or allowance payable to the individual with respect to unemployment under any other Federal law administered by the State agency.

(2) The State agency shall also recover, insofar as possible, the amount of any outstanding overpayment of DUA made to the individual by another State, by deductions from any DUA payable by the State agency to the individual under the Act and this part, or from any compensation payable to the individual under any Federal unemployment compensation law administered by the State agency, or from any assistance or allowance payable to the individual with respect to unemployment under any other Federal law administered by the State agency.

(3) If the State has in effect an agreement to implement the cross-program offset provisions of section 303(g)(2) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 503(g)(2)), the State shall apply the provisions of such agreement to the recovery of outstanding DUA overpayments.

(c) Debts due the United States. DUA payable to an individual shall be applied by the State agency for the recovery by offset of any debt due to the United States from the individual, but shall not be applied or used by the State agency in any manner for the payment of any debt of the individual to any State or any other entity or person.

(d) Recovered overpayments. Overpayments recovered in any manner shall be credited or returned, as the case may be, to the appropriate account of the United States.

(e) Application of State law. Any provision of State law authorizing waiver of recovery of overpayments of compensation shall not be applicable to DUA.

(f) Final decision. Recovery of any overpayment of DUA shall not be enforced by the State agency until the determination establishing the overpayment has become final, or if appeal is taken from the determination, until the decision after opportunity for a fair hearing has become final.

(g) Procedural requirements. (1) The provisions of paragraphs (c), (d), and (f) of §625.9 shall apply to determinations and redeterminations made pursuant to this section.

(2) The provisions of §625.10 shall apply to determinations and redeterminations made pursuant to this section.

(h) Fraud detection and prevention. Provisions in the procedures of each State with respect to detection and prevention of fraudulent overpayments of DUA shall be, as a minimum, commensurate with the procedures adopted by the State with respect to regular compensation and consistent with the Secretary's "Standard for Fraud and Overpayment Detection," Employment Security Manual, part V, sections 7510 et seq. (Appendix C of this part).

(i) Disqualification for fraud. Any individual who, with respect to a major disaster, makes or causes another to make a false statement or misrepresentation of a material fact, knowing it to be false, or knowingly fails or causes another to fail to disclose a material fact, in order to obtain for the individual or any other person a payment of DUA to which the individual or any other person is not entitled, shall be disqualified as follows:

(1) If the false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure pertains to an initial application for DUA—

(i) The individual making the false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure shall be disqualified from the receipt of any DUA with respect to that major disaster; and

(ii) If the false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure was made on behalf of another individual, and was known to such other individual to be a false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure, such other individual shall be disqualified from the receipt of any DUA with respect to that major disaster; and

(2) If the false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure pertains to a week for which application for a payment of DUA is made—

(i) The individual making the false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure shall be disqualified from the receipt of DUA for that week and the first two compensable weeks in the Disaster Assistance Period that immediately follow that week, with respect to which the individual is otherwise entitled to a payment of DUA; and

(ii) If the false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure was made on behalf of another individual, and was known to such other individual to be a false statement, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure, such other individual shall be disqualified from the receipt of DUA for that week and the first two compensable weeks in the Disaster Assistance Period that immediately follow that week, with respect to which the individual is otherwise entitled to a payment of DUA.

(j) Criminal penalties. The provisions of this section on recovery of overpayments and disqualification for fraudulently claiming or receiving any DUA to which an individual was not entitled under the Act and this part shall be in addition to and shall not preclude any applicable criminal prosecution and penalties under State or Federal law.

§ 625.15 Inviolate rights to DUA.

Except as specifically provided in this part, the right of individuals to DUA shall be protected in the same manner and to the same extent as the rights of persons to regular unemployment compensation are protected under the applicable State law. Such measures shall include protection of applicants for DUA from waiver, release, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, levy, execution, attachment, and garnishment, of their rights to DUA. In the same manner and to the same extent, individuals shall be protected from discrimination and obstruction in regard to seeking, applying for and receiving any right to DUA.

§ 625.16 Recordkeeping; disclosure of information.

(a) Recordkeeping. Each State agency will make and maintain records pertaining to the administration of the Act as the Secretary requires, and will make all such records available for inspection, examination, and audit by such Federal officials or employees as the Secretary may designate or as may be required by law.

(b) Disclosure of information. Information in records made and maintained by a State agency in administering the Act shall be kept confidential, and information in such records may be disclosed only in the same manner and to the same extent as information with respect to regular compensation and the entitlement of individuals thereto may be disclosed under the applicable State law, and consistently with section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 503(a)(1). This provision on the confidentiality of information obtained in the administration of the Act shall not apply, however, to the United States Department of Labor, or in the case of information, reports and studies requested pursuant to § 625.19, or where the result would be inconsistent with the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552), the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), or regulations of the United States Department of Labor promulgated thereunder.

§ 625.17 Announcement of the beginning of a Disaster Assistance Period.

Whenever a major disaster is declared in a State, the State agency shall promptly announce throughout the major disaster area by all appropriate news media that individuals who are unemployed as the result of the major disaster may be entitled to DUA; that they should file initial applications for DUA as soon as possible, but not later than the 30th day after the announcement date; the beginning date of the Disaster Assistance Period; and where individuals may obtain further information and file applications for DUA.

§ 625.18 Public access to Agreements.

The State agency of a State will make available to any individual or organization a true copy of the Agreement with the State for inspection and copying. Copies of an Agreement may be furnished on request to any individual or organization upon payment of the same charges, if any, as apply to the furnishing of copies of other records of the State agency.

§ 625.19 Information, reports and studies.

(a) Routine responses. State agencies shall furnish to the Secretary such information and reports and make such studies as the Secretary decides are necessary or appropriate for carrying out the purposes of the Act and this part.

(b) Final Report. In addition to such other reports as may be required by the Secretary, within 60 days after all payments of Disaster Unemployment Assistance as the result of a major disaster in the State have been made, the State agency shall submit a final report to the Secretary. A final report shall contain a narrative summary, a chronological list of significant events, pertinent statistics about the Disaster Unemployment Assistance provided to disaster victims, brief statements of major problems encountered, discussion of lessons learned, and suggestions

§ 625.20 Saving clause.

The regulations in this part do not apply to applications, determinations, hearings, or other administrative or judicial proceedings, with respect to any major disaster declared prior to November 23, 1988, and such applications, determinations, hearings, or other administrative or judicial proceeding shall remain subject to the Act and the Regulations in this part issued thereunder which were in effect prior to that date.

§ 625.30 Appeal Procedures for Guam, American Samoa, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

(a) Designation of referee. The Director of the Unemployment Insurance Service shall designate a referee of a State agency to hear and decide appeals under this section from determinations and redeterminations by the State agencies of the Territory of Guam, American Samoa, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

(b) Appeals to referee. (1) A DUA applicant may appeal from a determination or redetermination issued by the State agency of the Territory of Guam, American Samoa, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of the Marshall Islands, or the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands within 60 days after the mailing of notice and a copy of such determination or redetermination to such applicant's last known address, or in the absence of mailing within 60 days after delivery in person thereof to such applicant. The appeal shall be in writing and may be filed with any office of the State agency.

(2) Notice that an appeal has been filed may be given or mailed, in the discretion of the referee, to any person who has offered or is believed to have evidence with respect to the claim.

(3) An appeal shall be promptly scheduled and heard, in order that a decision on the appeal can be issued within 30 days after receipt of the appeal by the State agency. Written notice of hearing, specifying the time and place thereof and those questions known to be in dispute, shall be given or mailed to the applicant, the State agency, and any person who has offered or is believed to have evidence with respect to the claim 7 days or more before the hearing, except that a shorter notice period may be used with the consent of the applicant.

(c) Conduct of hearings. Hearings before the referee shall be informal, fair, and impartial, and shall be conducted in such manner as may be best suited to determine the DUA applicants' right to compensation. Hearings shall be open to the public unless sufficient cause for a closed hearing is shown. The referee shall open a hearing by ascertaining and summarizing the issue or issues involved in the appeal. The applicant may examine and cross-examine witnesses, inspect documents, and explain or rebut any evidence. An opportunity to present argument shall be afforded such applicant, and such argument shall be made part of the record. The referee shall give such applicant, if not represented by counsel or other representative, every assistance that does not interfere with the impartial discharge of the referee's duties. The referee may examine such applicant and other witnesses to such extent as the referee deems necessary. Any issue involved in the claim shall be considered and passed upon even though such issue was not set forth as a ground of appeal.

(d) Evidence. Oral or written evidence of any nature, whether or not conforming to the legal rules of evidence, may be accepted. Any official record of the State agency, including reports submitted in connection with administration of the DUA program, may be included in the record if the applicant is given an opportunity to examine and rebut the same. A written statement under oath or affirmation may be accepted when it appears impossible or unduly burdensome to require the attendance of a witness, but a DUA applicant adversely affected by such a statement must be given the opportunity to examine such statement, to comment on or rebut any or all portions thereof, and whenever possible to cross-examine a witness whose testimony has been introduced in written form by submitting written questions to be answered in writing.

(e) Record. All oral testimony before the referee shall be taken under oath or affirmation and a transcript thereof shall be made and kept. Such transcript together with all exhibits, papers, and requests filed in the proceeding shall constitute the record for decision.

(f) Withdrawal of appeal. A DUA applicant who has filed an appeal may withdraw such appeal with the approval of the referee.

(g) Nonappearance of DUA applicant. Failure of a DUA applicant to appear at a hearing shall not result in a decision being automatically rendered against such applicant. The referee shall render a decision on the basis of whatever evidence is properly before him/her unless there appears to be a good reason for continuing the hearing. An applicant who fails to appear at a hearing with respect to his/her appeal may within seven days thereafter petition for a reopening of the hearing. Such petition shall be granted if it appears to the referee that such applicant has shown good cause for his/her failure to attend.

(h) Notice of referee's decision and further review—(1) Decision. A copy of the referee's decision, which shall include findings and conclusions, shall promptly be given or mailed to the applicant, the State agency, and to the Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, for Region IX (San Francisco). The decision of the referee shall be accompanied by an explanation of the right of such applicant or State agency to request review by the Regional Administrator and the time and manner in which such review may be instituted, as provided in paragraph (a)(2) of § 625.10.

(2) Time limit for decision. A decision on an appeal to a referee under this section shall be made and issued by the referee not later than 30 days after receipt of the appeal by the State agency.

(3) Further review. Further review by the Regional Administrator or the Assistant Secretary with respect to an appeal under this section shall be in accordance with paragraphs (c) and (d) of § 625.10.

(i) Consolidation of appeals. The referee may consolidate appeals and conduct joint hearings thereon where the same or substantially similar evidence is relevant and material to the matters in issue. Reasonable notice of consolidation and the time and place of hearing shall be given or mailed to the applicants or their representatives, the State agency, and to persons who have offered or are believed to have evidence with respect to the DUA claims.

(j) Representation. A DUA applicant may be represented by counsel or other representative in any proceedings before the referee or the Regional Administrator. Any such representative may appear at any hearing or take any other action which such applicant may take under this part. The referee, for cause, may bar any person from representing an applicant, in which event such action shall be set forth in the record. No representative shall charge an applicant more than an amount fixed by the referee for representing the applicant in any proceeding under this section.

(k) Postponement, continuance, and adjournment of hearings. A hearing before the referee shall be postponed, continued, or adjourned when such action is necessary to afford a DUA applicant reasonable opportunity for a fair hearing. In such case notice of the subsequent hearing shall be given to any person who received notice of the prior hearing.

(1) Information from agency records. Information shall be available to a DUA applicant, either from the records of the State agency or as obtained in any proceeding herein provided for, to the extent necessary for proper presentation of his/her case. All requests for information shall state the nature of the information desired as clearly as possible and shall be in writing unless made at a hearing.

(m) Filing of decisions. Copies of all decisions of the referee shall be kept on file at his/her office or agency for at least 3 years.

APPENDIX A TO PART 625—STANDARD FOR CLAIM FILING, CLAIMANT REPORTING, JOB FINDING, AND EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

5000 Standard for Claim Filing, Claimant Reporting, Job Finding, and Employment Services

A. Federal law requirements. Section 3304(a)(1) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(2) of the Social Security Act require that a State law provide for: “Payment of unemployment compensation solely through public employment offices or such other agencies as the Secretary may approve.”

Section 3304(a)(4) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(5) of the Social Security Act require that a State law provide for: “Expenditure of all money withdrawn from an unemployment fund of such State, in the payment of unemployment compensation * * *”

Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act requires that the State law provide for: “Such methods of administration . . . as are found by the Secretary to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due.”

B. Secretary’s interpretation of federal law requirements: 1. The Secretary interprets section 3304(a)(1) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(2) of the Social Security Act to require that a State law provide for payment of unemployment compensation solely through public employment offices or claims offices administered by the State employment security agency if such agency provides for such coordination in the operations of its public employment offices and claims offices as will insure (a) the payment of benefits only to individuals who are unemployed and who are able to work and available for work, and (b) that individuals claiming unemployment compensation (claimants) are afforded such placement and other employment services as are necessary and appropriate to return them to suitable work as soon as possible.

2. The Secretary interprets all the above sections to require that a State law provide for: a. Such contact by claimants with public employment offices or claims offices or both, (1) as will reasonably insure the payment of unemployment compensation only to individuals who are unemployed and who are able to work and available for work, and (2) that claimants are afforded such placement and other employment services as are necessary and appropriate to facilitate their return to suitable work as soon as possible; and b. Methods of administration which do not unreasonably limit the opportunity of individuals to establish their right to unemployment compensation due under such State law.

5001 Claim Filing and Claimant Reporting Requirements Designed to Satisfy Secretary’s Interpretation

A. Claim filing—total or part-total unemployment: 1. Individuals claiming unemployment compensation for total or part-total unemployment are required to file a claim weekly or biweekly, in person or by mail, at a public employment office or a claims office (these terms include offices at itinerant points) as set forth below.

2. Except as provided in paragraph 3, a claimant is required to file in person: a. His new claim with respect to a benefit year, or his continued claim for a waiting week or for his first compensable week of unemployment in such year; and b. Any other claim, when requested to do so by the claims personnel at the office at which he files his claim(s) because questions about his right to benefits are raised by circumstances such as the following:

- (1) The conditions or circumstances of his separation from employment;
- (2) The claimant’s answers to questions on mail claim(s) indicate that he may be unable to work or that there may be undue restrictions on his availability for work or that his search for work may be inadequate or that he may be disqualified;
- (3) The claimant’s answers to questions on mail claims create uncertainty about his credibility or indicate a lack of understanding of the applicable requirements; or
- (4) The claimant’s record shows that he has previously filed a fraudulent claim.

In such circumstances, the claimant is required to continue to file claims in person each week (or biweekly) until the State agency determines that filing claims in person is no longer required for the resolution of such questions.

3. A claimant must be permitted to file a claim by mail in any of the following circumstances: a. He is located in an area requiring the expenditure of an unreasonable amount of time or money in traveling to the nearest facility established by the State agency for filing claims in person; b. Conditions make it impracticable for the agency to take claims in person; c. He has returned to full-time work on or before the scheduled date for his filing a claim, unless the agency makes provision for in-person filing at a time and place that does not interfere with his employment; d. The agency finds that he has good cause for failing to file a claim in person.

4. A claimant who has been receiving benefits for partial unemployment may continue to file claims as if he were a partially unemployed worker for the first four consecutive weeks of total or part-total unemployment immediately following his period of partial unemployment so long as he remains attached to his regular employer.

B. Claim filing—partial unemployment. Each individual claiming unemployment compensation for a week (or other claim period) during which, because of lack of work, he is working less than his normal customary full-time hours for his regular employer and is earning less than the earnings limit provided in the State law, shall not be required to file a claim for such week or other claim period earlier than 2 weeks from the date that wages are paid for such claim period or, if a low earnings report is required by the State law, from the date the employer furnished such report to the individual. State agencies may permit claims for partial unemployment to be filed either in person or by mail, except that in the circumstances set forth in section A 3, filing by mail must be permitted, and in the circumstances set forth in section A 2 b, filing in person may be required.

5002 Requirement for Job Finding, Placement, and other Employment Services Designed to Satisfy Secretary's Interpretation

A. Claims personnel are required to assure that each claimant is doing what a reasonable individual in his circumstances would do to obtain suitable work.

B. In the discretion of the State agency: 1. The claims personnel are required to give each claimant such necessary and appropriate assistance as they reasonably can in finding suitable work and at their discretion determine when more complete placement and employment services are necessary and appropriate for a claimant; and if they determine more complete services are necessary and appropriate, the claims personnel are to refer him to employment service personnel in the public employment office in which he has been filing claim(s), or, if he has been filing in a claims office, in the public employment office most accessible to him; or

2. All placement and employment services are required to be afforded to each claimant by employment service personnel in the public employment office most accessible to him in which case the claims personnel in the office in which the claimant files his claim are to refer him to the employment service personnel when placement or other employment services are necessary and appropriate for him.

C. The personnel to whom the State agency assigns the responsibilities outlined in paragraph B above are required to give claimants such job-finding assistance, placement, and other employment services as are necessary and appropriate to facilitate their return to suitable work as soon as possible.

In some circumstances, no such services or only limited services may be required. For example, if a claimant is on a short-term temporary layoff with a fixed return date, the only service necessary and appropriate to be given to him during the period of the layoff is a referral to suitable temporary work if such work is being performed in the labor market area.

Similarly, claimants whose unemployment is caused by a labor dispute presumably will return to work with their employer as soon as the labor dispute is settled. They generally do not need services, nor do individuals in occupations where placement customarily is made by other nonfee charging placement facilities such as unions and professional associations.

Claimants who fall within the classes which ordinarily would require limited services or no services shall, if they request placement and employment services, be afforded such services as are necessary and appropriate for them to obtain suitable work or to achieve their reasonable employment goals.

On the other hand, a claimant who is permanently separated from his job is likely to require some services. He may need only some direction in how to get a job; he may need placement services if he is in an occupation for which there is some demand in the labor market area; if his occupation is outdated, he may require counseling and referral to a suitable training course. The extent and character of the services to be given any particular claimant may change with the length of his unemployment and depend not only on his own circumstances and conditions, but also on the condition of the labor market in the area.

D. Claimants are required to report to employment service personnel, as directed, but such personnel and the claims personnel are required to so arrange and coordinate the contracts required of a claimant as not to place an unreasonable burden on him or unreasonably limit his opportunity to establish his rights to compensation. As a general rule, a claimant is not required to contact in person claims personnel or employment service personnel more frequently than once a week, unless he is directed to report more frequently for a specific service such as referral to a job or a training course or counseling which cannot be completed in one visit.

E. Employment service personnel are required to report promptly to claims personnel in the office in which the claimant files his claim(s): (1) his failure to apply for or accept work to which he was referred by such personnel or when known, by any other nonfee-charging placement facility such as a union or a professional association; and (2) any information which becomes available to it that may have a bearing on the claimant's ability to work or availability for work, or on the suitability of work to which he was referred or which was offered to him.

5004 Evaluation of Alternative State Provisions

If the State law provisions do not conform to the "suggested State law requirements" set forth in sections 5001 and 5002, but the State law contains alternative provisions, the Manpower Administrator, in collaboration with the State agency, will study the actual or anticipated affect of the alternative provisions. If the Manpower Administrator concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy the requirements of the Federal law as construed by the Secretary (see section 5000 B) he will so notify the State agency. If he does not so conclude, he will submit the matter to the Secretary. If the Secretary concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy such requirements, the State agency will be so notified. If the Secretary concludes that there is a question as to whether the alternative provisions satisfy such requirements, the State agency will be advised that unless the State law provisions are appropriately revised, a notice of hearing will be issued as required by the Code of Federal Regulations, title 20, section 601.5.

APPENDIX B TO PART 625—STANDARD FOR CLAIM DETERMINATIONS—SEPARATION INFORMATION

6010-6019 Standard for Claim Determinations—Separation Information

6010 Federal Law Requirements. Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for: "Such methods of administration . . . as are found by the Secretary to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due."

Section 303(a)(3) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for: "Opportunity for a fair hearing before an impartial tribunal, for all individuals whose claims for unemployment compensation are denied."

Section 3304(a)(4) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and section 303(a)(5) of the Social Security Act require that a State law include provision for: "Expenditure of all money withdrawn from an unemployment fund of such State, in the payment of unemployment compensation . . . ."

Section 3306(h) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act defines "compensation" as "cash benefits payable to individuals with respect to their unemployment."

6011 Secretary's Interpretation of Federal Law Requirements. The Secretary interprets the above sections to require that a State law include provisions which will insure that: A. Individuals who may be entitled to unemployment compensation are furnished such information as will reasonably afford them an opportunity to know, establish, and protect their rights under the unemployment compensation law of such State, and

B. The State agency obtains and records in time for the prompt determination and review of benefit claims such information as will reasonably insure the payment of benefits to individuals to whom benefits are due.

6012 Criteria for Review of State Law Conformity with Federal Requirements. In determining the conformity of a State law with the above requirements of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and the Social Security Act as interpreted by the Secretary, the following criteria will be applied:

A. Is it required that individuals who may be entitled to unemployment compensation be furnished such information of their potential rights to benefits, including the manner and places of filing claims, the reasons for determinations, and their rights of appeal, as will insure them a reasonable opportunity to know, establish, and protect their rights under the law of the State?

B. Is the State agency required to obtain, in time for prompt determination of rights to benefits such information as will reasonably insure the payment of benefits to individuals to whom benefits are due?

C. Is the State agency required to keep records of the facts considered in reaching determinations of rights to benefits?

6013 Claim Determinations Requirements Designed To Meet Department of Labor Criteria.

A. Investigation of claims. The State agency is required to obtain promptly and prior to a determination of an individual's right to benefits, such facts pertaining thereto as will be sufficient reasonably to insure the payment of benefits when due.

This requirement embraces five separate elements:

1. It is the responsibility of the agency to take the initiative in the discovery of information. This responsibility may not be passed on to the claimant or the employer. In addition to the agency's own records, this information may be obtained from the worker, the employer, or other sources. If the information obtained in the first instance discloses no essential disagreement and provides a sufficient basis for a fair determination, no further investigation is necessary. If the information obtained from other sources differs essentially from that furnished by the claimant, the agency, in order to meet its responsibility, is required to inform the claimant of such information from other sources and to afford the claimant an opportunity to furnish any further facts he may have.

2. Evidentiary facts must be obtained as distinguished from ultimate facts or conclusions. That a worker was discharged for misconduct is an ultimate fact or conclusion; that he destroyed a machine upon which he was working is a primary or evidentiary fact, and the sort of fact that the requirement refers to.

3. The information obtained must be sufficient reasonably to insure the payment of benefits when due. In general, the investigation made by the agency must be complete enough to provide information upon which the agency may act with reasonable assurance that its decision is consistent with the unemployment compensation law. On the other hand, the investigation should not be so exhaustive and time-consuming as unduly to delay the payment of benefits and to result in excessive costs.

4. Information must be obtained promptly so that the payment of benefits is not unduly delayed.

5. If the State agency requires any particular evidence from the worker, it must give him a reasonable opportunity to obtain such evidence.

B. Recording of facts. The agency must keep a written record of the facts considered in reaching its determinations.

C. Determination notices

1. The agency must give each claimant a written notice of:

a. Any monetary determination with respect to his benefit year;

b. Any determination with respect to purging a disqualification if, under the State law, a condition or qualification must be satisfied with respect to each week of disqualification; but in lieu of giving written notice of each determination for each week in which it is determined that the claimant has met the requirements for purging, the agency may inform the claimant that he has purged the disqualification for a week by notation on his application identification card or otherwise in writing.

c. Any other determination which adversely affects<sup>1</sup> his rights to benefits, except that written notice of determination need not be given with respect to:

(2) Any week in a benefit year subsequent to the first week in such benefit year in which benefits were denied, or reduced in whole or in part for reasons other than earnings, if denial or reduction for such subsequent week is based on the same reason and the same facts as for the first week, and if written notice of determination is required to be given to the claimant with respect to such first week, and with such notice of determination, he is required to be given a booklet or pamphlet containing the information set forth below in paragraphs 2 f (2) and 2 h. However, a written notice of determination is required if: (a) there is a dispute concerning the denial or reduction of benefits with respect to such week; or (b) there is a change in the State law (or in the application thereof) affecting the denial or reduction; or (c) there is a change in the amount of the reduction except as to the balance covered by the last reduction in a series of reductions.

Note: This procedure may be applied to determinations made with respect to any subsequent weeks for the same reason and on the basis of the same facts: (a) that claimant is unable to work, unavailable for work, or is disqualified under the labor dispute provision; and (b) reducing claimant's weekly benefit amount because of income other than earnings or offset by reason of overpayment.

cellation of benefits or wage credits or any reduction in whole or in part below the weekly or maximum amount established by his monetary determination) for any week or other period; or (2) denies credit for a waiting week; or (3) applies any disqualification or penalty; or (4) determines that he has not satisfied a condition of eligibility, requalification for benefits, or purging a disqualification; or (5) determines that an overpayment has been made or orders repayment or recoupment of any sum paid to him; or (6) applies a previously determined overpayment, penalty, or order for repayment or recoupment; or (7) in any other way denies claimant a right to benefits under the State law.

2. The agency must include in written notices of determinations furnished to claimants sufficient information to enable them to understand the determinations, the reasons therefor, and their rights to protest, request reconsideration, or appeal.

The written notice of monetary determination must contain the information specified in the following items (except h) unless an item is specifically not applicable. A written notice of any other determination must contain the information specified in as many of the following items as are necessary to enable the claimant to understand the determination and to inform him of his appeal rights. Information specifically applicable to the individual claimant must be contained in the written notice of determination. Information of general application such as (but not limited to) the explanation of benefits for partial unemployment, information as to deductions, seasonality factors, and information as to the manner and place of taking an appeal, extension of the appeal period, and where to obtain information and assistance may be contained in a booklet or leaflet which is given the claimant with his monetary determination.

a. Base period wages. The statement concerning base-period wages must be in sufficient detail to show the basis of computation of eligibility and weekly and maximum benefit amounts. (If maximum benefits are allowed, it may not be necessary to show details of earnings.)

b. Employer name. The name of the employer who reported the wages is necessary so that the worker may check the wage transcript and know whether it is correct. If the worker is given only the employer number, he may not be able to check the accuracy of the wage transcript.

c. Explanation of benefit formula—weekly and maximum benefit amounts. Sufficient information must be given the worker so that he will understand how his weekly benefit amount, including allowances for dependents, and his maximum benefit amount were figured. If benefits are computed by means of a table contained in the law, the table must be furnished with the notice of determination whether benefits are granted or denied.

The written notice of determination must show clearly the weekly benefit amount and the maximum potential benefits to which the claimant is entitled.

The notice to a claimant found ineligible by reason of insufficient earnings in the base period must inform him clearly of the reason for ineligibility. An explanation of the benefit formula contained in a booklet or pamphlet should be given to each claimant at or prior to the time he receives written notice of a monetary determination.

d. Benefit year. An explanation of what is meant by the benefit year and identification of the claimant's benefit year must be included in the notice of determination.

e. Information as to benefits for partial unemployment. There must be included either in the written notice of determination or in a booklet or pamphlet accompanying the notice an explanation of the claimant's rights to partial benefits for any week with respect to which he is working less than his normal customary full-time workweek because of lack of work and for which he earns less than his weekly benefit amount or weekly benefit amount plus earnings, whichever is provided by the State law. If the explanation is contained in the notice of determination, reference to the item in the notice in which his weekly benefit amount is entered should be made.

f. Deductions from weekly benefits

(1) Earnings. Although written notice of determinations deducting earnings from a claimant's weekly benefit amount is generally not required (see paragraph 1 c(1) above), where written notice of determination is required (or given) it shall set forth the amount of earnings, the method of computing the deduction in sufficient detail to enable the claimant to verify the accuracy of the deduction, and his right to protest, request redetermination, and appeal. Where a written notice of determination is given to the claimant because there has been a change in the State law or in the application of the law, an explanation of the change shall be included.

Where claimant is not required to receive a written notice of determination, he must be given a booklet or pamphlet the first time in his benefit year that there is a deduction for earnings which shall include the following information:

(a) The method of computing deductions for earnings in sufficient detail to enable the claimant to verify the accuracy of the deduction;

(b) That he will not automatically be given a written notice of determination for a week with respect to which there is a deduction for earnings (unless there is a dispute concerning the reduction with respect to a week or there has been a change in the State law or in the application of the law affecting the deduction) but that he may obtain such a written notice upon request; and

(c) A clear statement of his right to protest, request a redetermination, and appeal from any determination deducting earnings from his weekly benefit amount even though he does not automatically receive a written notice of determination; and if the State law requires written notice of determination in order to effectuate a protest, redetermination, or appeal, he must be so advised and advised also that he must request a written notice of determination before he takes any such action.

(2) Other deductions

(a) A written notice of determination is required with respect to the first week in claimant's benefit year in which there is a reduction from his benefits for a reason other than earnings. This notice must describe the deduction made from claimant's weekly benefit amount, the reason for the deduction, the method of computing it in sufficient detail to enable him to verify the accuracy of such deduction, and his right to protest, request redetermination, or appeal.

(b) A written notice of determination is not required for subsequent weeks that a deduction is made for the same reason and on the basis of the same facts, if the notice of determination pursuant to (2)(a), or a booklet or pamphlet given him with such notice explains (i) the several kinds of deductions which may be made under the State law (e.g., retirement pensions, vacation pay, and overpayments); (ii) the method of computing each kind of deduction in sufficient detail that claimant will be able to verify the accuracy of deductions made from his weekly benefit payments; (iii) any limitation on the amount of any deduction or the time in which any deduction may be made; (iv) that he will not automatically be given a written notice of determination for subsequent weeks with respect to which there is a deduction for the same reason and on the basis of the same facts, but that he may obtain a written notice of determination upon request; (v) his right to protest, request redetermination, or appeal with respect to subsequent weeks for which there is a reduction from his benefits for the same reason, and on the basis of the same facts even though he does not automatically receive a written notice of determination; and (vi) that if the State law requires written notice of determination in order to effectuate a protest, redetermination, or appeal, he must be so advised and advised also that he must request a written notice of determination before he takes any such action.

g. Seasonality factors. If the individual's determination is affected by seasonality factors under the State law, an adequate explanation must be made. General explanations of seasonality factors which may affect determinations for subsequent weeks may be included in a booklet or pamphlet given claimant with his notice of monetary determination.

h. Disqualification or ineligibility. If a disqualification is imposed, or if the claimant is declared ineligible for one or more weeks, he must be given not only a statement of the period of disqualification or ineligibility and the amount of wage-credit reductions, if any, but also an explanation of the reason for the ineligibility or disqualification. This explanation must be sufficiently detailed so that he will understand why he is ineligible or why he has been disqualified, and what he must do in order to requalify for benefits or purge the disqualification. The statement must be individualized to indicate the facts upon which the determination was based, e.g., state, "It is found that you left your work with Blank Company because you were tired of working; the separation was voluntary, and the reason does not constitute good cause," rather than merely the phrase "voluntary quit." Checking a box as to the reason for the disqualification is not a sufficiently detailed explanation. However, this statement of the reason for the disqualification need not be a restatement of all facts considered in arriving at the determination.

1. Appeal rights. The claimant must be given information with respect to his appeal rights.

(1) The following information shall be included in the notice of determination:

(a) A statement that he may appeal or, if the State law requires or permits a protest or redetermination before an appeal, that he may protest or request a redetermination.

(b) The period within which an appeal, protest, or request for redetermination must be filed. The number of days provided by statute must be shown as well as either the beginning date or ending date of the period. (It is recommended that the ending date of the appeal period be shown, as this is the more understandable of the alternatives.)

(2) The following information must be included either in the notice of determination or in separate informational material referred to in the notice:

(a) The manner in which the appeal, protest, or request for redetermination must be filed, e.g., by signed letter, written statement, or on a prescribed form, and the place or places to which the appeal, protest, or request for redetermination may be mailed or hand-delivered.

(b) An explanation of any circumstances (such as nonworkdays, good cause, etc.) which will extend the period for the appeal, protest, or request for redetermination beyond the date stated or identified in the notice of determination.

(c) That any further information claimant may need or desire can be obtained together with assistance in filing his appeal, protest, or request for redetermination from the local office.

If the information is given in separate material, the notice of determination would adequately refer to such material if it said, for example, "For other information about your (appeal), (protest), (redetermination) rights, see pages ___ to ___ of the _____ (name of pamphlet or booklet) heretofore furnished to you."

6014 *Separation Information Requirements
Designed To Meet Department of Labor Criteria*

A. Information to agency. Where workers are separated, employers are required to furnish the agency promptly, either upon agency request or upon such separation, a notice describing the reasons for and the circumstances of the separation and any additional information which might affect a claimant's right to benefits. Where workers are working less than full time, employers are required to furnish the agency promptly, upon agency request, information concerning a claimant's hours of work and his wages during the claim periods involved, and other facts which might affect a claimant's eligibility for benefits during such periods.

When workers are separated and the notices are obtained on a request basis, or when workers are working less than full time and the agency requests information, it is essential to the prompt processing of claims that the request be sent out promptly after the claim is filed and the employer be given a specific period within which to return the notice, preferably within 2 working days.

When workers are separated and notices are obtained upon separation, it is essential that the employer be required to send the notice to the agency with sufficient promptness to insure that, if a claim is filed, it may be processed promptly. Normally, it is desirable that such a notice be sent to the central office of the agency, since the employer may not know in which local office the worker will file his claim. The usual procedure is for the employer to give the worker a copy of the notice sent by the employer to the agency.

B. Information of worker. 1. Information required to be given. Employers are required to give their employees information and instructions concerning the employees' potential rights to benefits and concerning registration for work and filing claims for benefits.

The information furnished to employees under such a requirement need not be elaborate; it need only be adequate to insure that the worker who is separated or who is working less than full time knows he is potentially eligible for benefits and is informed as to what he is to do or where he is to go to file his claim and register for work. When he files his claim, he can obtain more detailed information.

In States that do not require employers to furnish periodically to the State agency detailed reports of the wages paid to their employees, each employer is required to furnish to his employees information as to (a) the name under which he is registered by the State agency, (b) the address where he maintains his payroll records, and (c) the workers' need for this information if and when they file claims for benefits.

2. Methods for giving information. The information and instructions required above may be given in any of the following ways:

a. Posters prominently displayed in the employer's establishment. The State agency should supply employers with a sufficient number of posters for distribution throughout their places of business and should see that the posters are conspicuously displayed at all times.

b. Leaflets. Leaflets distributed either periodically or at the time of separation or reduction of hours. The State agency should supply employers with a sufficient number of leaflets.

c. Individual notices. Individual notices given to each employee at the time of separation or reduction in hours.

It is recommended that the State agency's publicity program be used to supplement the employer-information requirements. Such a program should stress the availability and location of claim-filing offices and the importance of visiting those offices whenever the worker is unemployed, wishes to apply for benefits, and to seek a job.

6015 Evaluation of Alternative State Provisions with Respect to Claim Determinations and Separation Information. If the State law provisions do not conform to the suggested requirements set forth in sections 6013 and 6014, but the State law contains alternative provisions, the Bureau of Employment Security, in collaboration with the State agency, will study the actual or anticipated effects of the alternative provisions. If the Administrator of the Bureau concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy the criteria in section 6012, he will so notify the State agency. If the Administrator of the Bureau does not so conclude, he will submit the matter to the Secretary. If the Secretary concludes that the alternative provisions satisfy the criteria in section 6012, the State agency will be so notified. If the Secretary concludes that there is a question as to whether the alternative provisions satisfy the criteria, the State agency will be advised that unless the State law provisions are appropriately revised, a notice of hearing will be issued as required by the Code of Federal Regulations, title 20, section 601.5.

APPENDIX C TO PART 625—STANDARD FOR FRAUD AND OVERPAYMENT DE-TECTION

Employment Security Manual (Part V, Sections 7510-7515)

7510-7519 Standard for Fraud and Overpayment Detection

7510 Federal Law Requirements. Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for:

“Such methods of administration * * * as are found by the Secretary to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due.”

Section 1603(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code and section 3030(a)(5) of the Social Security Act require that a State law include provision for:

Section 1607(h) of the Internal Revenue Code defines “compensation” as “cash benefits payable to individuals with respect to their unemployment.”

7511 The Secretary’s Interpretation of Federal Law Requirements. THE SECRETARY OF LABOR INTERPRETS THE ABOVE SECTIONS TO REQUIRE THAT A STATE LAW INCLUDE PROVISION FOR SUCH METHODS OF ADMINISTRATION AS ARE, WITHIN REASON, CALCULATED (1) TO DETECT BENEFITS PAID THROUGH ERROR BY THE AGENCY OR THROUGH WILLFUL MISREPRESENTATION OR ERROR BY THE CLAIMANT OR OTHERS, AND (2) TO DETER CLAIMANTS FROM OBTAINING BENEFITS THROUGH WILLFUL MISREPRESENTATION.

7513 Criteria for Review of State Conformity With Federal Requirements. IN DETERMINING STATE CONFORMITY WITH THE ABOVE REQUIREMENTS OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE AND THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT, AS INTERPRETED BY THE SECRETARY OF LABOR, THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA WILL BE APPLIED:

A. Are investigations required to be made after the payment of benefits, (or, in the case of interstate claims, are investigations made by the agent State after the processing of claims) as to claimants’ entitlement to benefits paid to them in a sufficient proportion of cases to test the effectiveness of the agency’s procedures for the prevention of payments which are not due? To carry out investigations, has the agency assigned to some individual or unit, as a basic function, the responsibility of making or functionally directing such investigations?

Explanation: It is not feasible to prescribe the extent to which the above activities are required; however, they should always be carried on to such an extent that they will show whether or not error or willful misrepresentation is increasing or decreasing, and will reveal problem areas. The extent and nature of the above activities should be varied according to the seriousness of the problem in the State. The responsible individual or unit should:

1. Check paid claims for overpayment and investigate for willful misrepresentation or, alternatively, advise and assist the operating units in the performance of such functions, or both;

2. Perform consultative services with respect to methods and procedures for the prevention and detection of fraud; and

3. Perform other services which are closely related to the above.

Although a State agency is expected to make a full-time assignment of responsibility to a unit or individual to carry on the functions described above, a small State agency might make these functions a part-time responsibility of one individual. In connection with the detection of overpayments, such a unit or individual might, for example:

(a) Investigate information on suspected benefit fraud received from any agency personnel, and from sources outside the agency, including anonymous complaints;

(b) Investigate information secured from comparisons of benefit payments with employment records to detect cases of concurrent working (whether in covered or non-covered work) and claiming of benefits (including benefit payments in which the agency acted as agency for another State).

The benefit fraud referred to herein may involve employers, agency employees, and witnesses, as well as claimants.

Comparisons of benefit payments with employment records are commonly made either by post-audit or by industry surveys. The so-called “post-audit” is a matching of central office wage-record files against benefit payments for the same period. “Industry surveys” or “mass audits” are done in some States by going directly to employers for pay-roll information to be checked against concurrent benefit lists. A plan

A. of investigation based on a sample post-audit will be considered as partial fulfillment of the investigation program; it would need to be supplemented by other methods capable of detecting overpayments to persons who have moved into noncovered occupations or are claiming interstate benefits.

B. Are adequate records maintained by which the results of investigations may be evaluated?

Explanation: To meet this criterion, the State agency will be expected to maintain records of all its activities in the detection of overpayments, showing whether attributable to error or willful misrepresentation, measuring the results obtained through various methods, and noting the remedial action taken in each case. The adequacy and effectiveness of various methods of checking for willful misrepresentation can be evaluated only if records are kept of the results obtained. Internal reports on fraudulent and erroneous overpayments are needed by State agencies for self-evaluation. Detailed records should be maintained in order that the State agency may determine, for example, which of several methods of checking currently used are the most productive. Such records also will provide the basis for drawing a clear distinction between fraud and error.

C. Does the agency take adequate action with respect to publicity concerning willful misrepresentation and its legal consequences to deter fraud by claimants?

Explanation: To meet this criterion, the State agency must issue adequate material on claimant eligibility requirements and must take necessary action to obtain publicity on the legal consequences of willful misrepresentation or willful nondisclosure of facts.

Public announcements on convictions and resulting penalties for fraud are generally considered necessary as a deterrent to other persons, and to inform the public that the agency is carrying on an effective program to prevent fraud. This alone is not considered adequate publicity. It is important that information be circulated which will explain clearly and understandably the claimant's rights, and the obligations which he must fulfill to be eligible for benefits. Leaflets for distribution and posters placed in local offices are appropriate media for such information.

7515 Evaluation of Alternative State Provisions with Respect to Erroneous and Illegal Payments. If the methods of administration provided for by the State law do not conform to the suggested methods of meeting the requirements set forth in section 7511, but a State law does provide for alternative methods of administration designed to accomplish the same results, the Bureau of Employment Security, in collaboration with the State agency, will study the actual or anticipated effect of the alternative methods of administration. If the Bureau concludes that the alternative methods satisfy the criteria in section 7513, it will so notify the State agency. If the Bureau does not so conclude, it will submit to the Secretary the results of the study for his determination of whether the State's alternative methods of administration meet the criteria.

PART 626—INTRODUCTION TO THE REGULATIONS UNDER THE JOB TRAINING PARTNERSHIP ACT

Sec.

626.1 Scope and purpose of the Job Training Partnership Act.

626.2 Format of the Job Training Partnership Act regulations.

626.3 Purpose, scope, and applicability of the Job Training Partnership Act regulations.

626.4 Table of contents for the Job Training Partnership Act regulations.

626.5 Definitions.

AUTHORITY: 29 U.S.C. 1579(a).

SOURCE: 59 FR 45815, Sept. 2, 1994, unless otherwise noted.

§ 626.1 Scope and purpose of the Job Training Partnership Act.

It is the purpose of the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA or the Act) to establish programs to prepare youth and adults facing serious barriers to employment for participation in the labor force by providing job training and other services that will result in increased employment and earnings, increased educational and occupational skills, and decreased welfare dependency, thereby improving the quality of the work force and enhancing the productivity and competitiveness of the Nation (section 2).

§ 626.2 Format of the Job Training Partnership Act regulations.

(a) Regulations promulgated by the Department of Labor to implement the provisions of the Act are set forth in parts 626 through 638 of title 20, chapter V, of the Code of Federal Regulations, with the exception of the veterans' employment program's chapter IX regulations of the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Veterans' Employment and Training, which are set forth at part 1005 of title 20.

(b) Nondiscrimination and equal opportunity requirements and procedures, including complaint processing and compliance reviews, will be governed by the provisions of 29 CFR part

§ 626.3

34 and will be administered by the Department of Labor (Department or DOL) Directorate of Civil Rights.

(c) General authority for the JTPA regulations is found at section 169 of the Act. Specific statutory authorities other than section 169 are noted throughout the JTPA regulations.

§ 626.3 Purpose, scope, and applicability of the Job Training Partnership Act regulations.

(a) Parts 626 through 638 of this chapter and part 1005 of chapter IX (Veterans' employment programs under title IV, part C of the Job Training Partnership Act) establish the Federal programmatic and administrative requirements for JTPA grants awarded by the Department of Labor to eligible grant recipients.

(b) Parts 626 through 638 of this chapter and part 1005 of chapter IX apply to recipients and subrecipients of JTPA funds.

§ 626.4 Table of contents for the Job Training Partnership Act regulations.

The table of contents for the regulations under the Job Training Partnership Act, 20 CFR parts 626–638 and 1005,<sup>1</sup> is as follows:

§ 626.5 Definitions.

In addition to the definitions contained in section 4 of the Act, the following definitions of terms used in the Act or parts 626-631 of this chapter apply as appropriate to programs under titles I, II, and III of the Act:

Accrued expenditures means charges made to the JTPA program. Expenditures are the sum of actual cash disbursements, the amount of indirect expense incurred, and the net increase (or decrease) in the amounts owed by the recipient for the goods and other property received, for services performed by employees, contractors, subgrantees, subcontractors, and other payees, and other amounts becoming owed under programs for which no current services or performance are required, such as annuities, insurance claims, and other benefit payments.

Act means the Job Training Partnership Act.

ALJ means an administrative law judge in the Office of Administrative Law Judges of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Awarding agency means: (1) With respect to a grant, the Department of Labor; and (2) with respect to a subgrant or contract, the party that awarded the subgrant or contract.

Capacity building means the systematic improvement of job functions, skills, knowledge, and expertise of the personnel who staff and administer employment and training and other closely related human service systems. Capacity building is designed to enhance the effectiveness, to strengthen the caliber of customer services provided under the Act and other Federal, State, and local employment and training programs, and improve coordination among them. Capacity building includes curriculum development, appropriate training, technical assistance, staff development, and other related activities.

Chief elected official (CEO) means the official or officials, or their representatives, of the jurisdiction or jurisdictions which requested designation by the Governor as a service delivery area.

Commercial organizations means private for-profit entities.

Commercially available off-the-shelf training package means a training package sold or traded to the general public in the course of normal business operations, at prices based on established catalog or market prices. To be considered as “sold to the general public,” the package must be regularly sold in sufficient quantities to constitute a real commercial market to buyers that must include other than JTPA programs. The package must include performance criteria pertaining to the delivery of the package which may include participant attainment of knowledge, skills or a job.

Contractor means the organization, entity, or individual that is awarded a procurement contract under the recipient’s or subrecipient’s procurement standards and procedures.

Cost means accrued expenditure.

Department means the U.S. Department of Labor.

DOL means the U.S. Department of Labor.

ETA means the Employment and Training Administration of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Family is defined at section 4(34) of the Act. An “individual with a disability” shall, for the purposes of income eligibility determination, be considered to be an unrelated individual who is a family unit of one, consistent with the definition of “economically disadvantaged” at section 4(8) of the Act. The Governor may provide interpretations of the term “family” related to how “dependent children” are defined for programs within a State, consistent with the Act, and all applicable rules and regulations, and State or local law. Such interpretations by the Governor may address the treatment of certain individuals who may need to be viewed discretely in the income eligibility determination process, such as runaways, emancipated youth, and court adjudicated youth separated from the family.

The phrase “living in a single residence” with other family members includes temporary, voluntary residence elsewhere (e.g., attending school or college, or visiting relatives). It does not include involuntary temporary residence elsewhere (e.g., incarceration, or placement as a result of a court order).

Family income means “income” as defined by the Department of Health and Human Services in connection with the annual poverty guidelines. Such income shall not include unemployment compensation, child support and public assistance (including Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Supplemental Security Income, Emergency Assistance money payments, and non-federally funded General Assistance or General Relief money payments), as provided for at section 4(8) of the Act. In addition, such income shall also exclude foster child care payments, educational financial assistance received under title IV of the Higher Education Act (20 U.S.C. 1087), as amended by section 479(B) of the Higher Education Act Amendments of 1992), needs-based scholarship assistance, and income earned while on active military duty and other benefit payments specified at 38 U.S.C. 4213, items (1) and (3). The Governor may, for the purposes of determining income eligibility for services to older individuals under section 204(d)(5) of the Act, exclude up to 25 percent of Social Security and Old Age Survivors’ Insurance benefit payments under title II of the Social Security Act, (42 U.S.C., section 401, et seq.) from the definition of family income. In addition, when a Federal statute specifically provides that income or payments received under such statute shall be excluded in determining eligibility for and the level of benefits received under any other federal statute, such income or payments shall be excluded in JTPA eligibility determinations.

Funding period means the period of time when JTPA funds are available for expenditure. Unless a shorter period of time is specified in a title III discretionary award, the JTPA funding period is the 3-year period specified in JTPA section 161(b); the program year in which Federal funds are obligated to the recipient, and the two succeeding program years.

Governor means, in addition to the definition at section 4(9) of the Act, the recipient of JTPA funds awarded to the State under titles I through III.

Grant means an award of JTPA financial assistance by the U.S. Department of Labor to an eligible JTPA recipient.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 626.5

(Also, see §§ 627.405 and 627.430 of these regulations).

Grantee means the recipient.

Individual service strategy (ISS) is defined in § 628.520 of this chapter.

Job search assistance (also including job search skills training and job club activities) means the provision of instruction and support to a participant to give the participant skills in acquiring full time employment. The services provided may include, but are not limited to, resume writing, interviewing skills, labor market guidance, telephone techniques, information on job openings, and job acquisition strategies, as well as the provision of office space and supplies for the job search.

Job Training Partnership Act means Public Law (Pub. L.) 97-300, as amended, 29 U.S.C. 1501, et seq.

JTPA means the Job Training Partnership Act.

Nontraditional employment, as applied to women, means occupations or fields of work where women comprise less than 25 percent of the individuals employed in such occupation or field of work as provided periodically by the Department in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (Pub. L. 102-235, Nontraditional Employment for Women Act).

ALJ means the Office of Administrative Law Judges of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Obligations means the amounts of orders placed, contracts and subgrants awarded, goods and services received, and similar transactions during a funding period that will require payment by the recipient or subrecipient during the same or a future period.

OIG means the Office of Inspector General of the U.S. Department of Labor.

PIC means a private industry council.

Participant means an individual who has been determined to be eligible to participate in and who is receiving services (except post-termination services authorized under sections 204(c)(4) and 264(d)(5) and followup services authorized under section 253(d)) under a program authorized by the JTPA. Participation shall be deemed to commence on the first day, following determination of eligibility, on which the participant began receiving subsidized employment, training, or other services provided under the JTPA. (section 4(37)).

Program year means the 12-month period beginning July 1 of the indicated year.

Recipient means the entity to which a JTPA grant is awarded directly from the Department of Labor to carry out the JTPA program. The recipient is the entire legal entity that received the award and is legally responsible for carrying out the JTPA program, even if only a particular component of the entity is designated in the grant award document. For JTPA grants under titles I, II and III, except for certain discretionary grants awarded under title III, part B, the State is the recipient.

SDA means a service delivery area designated by the Governor pursuant to section 101(a)(4) of the Act. As used in these regulations, SDA may also refer to the entity that administers the JTPA program within the designated area.

SDA grant recipient means the entity that receives JTPA funds for a service delivery area directly from the recipient.

Secretary means the Secretary of Labor, U.S. Department of Labor, or his or her designee.

Section, as used in this chapter, means a section of the Act unless the text specifically indicates otherwise.

Service provider means a public agency, private nonprofit organization, or private-for-profit entity that delivers educational, training, employment or supportive services to JTPA participants. Awards to service providers may be made by subgrant, contract, sub-contract, or other legal agreement.

Stand-in costs means costs paid from non-Federal sources that a recipient proposes to substitute for Federal costs that have been disallowed as a result of an audit or other review. In order to be considered as valid substitutions, the costs (1) shall have been reported by the grantee as uncharged program costs under the same title and in the same program year in which the disallowed costs were incurred (2) shall have been incurred in compliance with laws, regulations, and contractual provisions governing JTPA, and (3) shall not result in a violation of the applicable cost limitations.

State is defined at section 4(22) of the Act. For cash payment purposes, the definition of "State" contained in the Department of the Treasury regulations at 31 CFR 205.3 shall apply to JTPA programs.

State council means the State Job Training Coordinating Council (SJTCC) or, in a State with a Human Resource Investment Council (HRIC) pursuant to § 628.215 of this chapter, the HRIC.

Subgrant means an award of JTPA financial assistance in the form of money, or property in lieu of money, made under a grant by a recipient to an eligible subrecipient. It also means a subgrant award of JTPA financial assistance by a subrecipient to a lower tier subrecipient. The term includes financial assistance when provided by any legal agreement, even if the agreement is called a contract, but does not include procurement purchases from vendors nor does it include any form of assistance received by program participants.

Subgrantee means a subrecipient.

Subrecipient means the legal entity to which a subgrant is awarded and which is accountable to the recipient (or higher tier subrecipient) for the use of the funds provided. For JTPA purposes, distinguishing characteristics of a subrecipient include items such as determining eligibility of applicants, enrollment of participants, performance measured against meeting the objectives of the program, responsibility for programmatic decisionmaking, responsibility for compliance with program requirements, and use of the funds awarded to carry out a JTPA program or project, as compared to providing goods or services for a JTPA program or project (vendor). Depending on local circumstances, the PIC, local elected official, or administrative entity may be a subrecipient. SDA grant recipients and JTPA title III substate grantees are particular types of subrecipients.

Substate grantee (SSG) means that agency or organization selected to administer programs pursuant to section 312(b) of the Act. The substate grantee is the entity that receives JTPA title

III funds for a substate area directly from the Governor.

Technical assistance is a facet of capacity building which may include but is not limited to information sharing, dissemination and training on program models and job functions; peer-to-peer networking and problem solving; guides; and interactive communication technologies.

Title, as used in this chapter, means a title of the Act, unless the text of the regulation specifically indicates otherwise.

Vendor means an entity responsible for providing generally required goods or services to be used in the JTPA program. These goods or services may be for the recipient's or subrecipient's own use or for the use of participants in the program. Distinguishing characteristics of a vendor include items such as: Providing the goods and services within normal business operations; providing similar goods or services to many different purchasers, including purchasers outside the JTPA program; and operating in a competitive environment. A vendor is not a subrecipient and does not exhibit the distinguishing characteristics attributable to a subrecipient, as defined above. Any entity directly involved in the delivery of program services not available to the general public, with the exception of an employer providing on-the-job training, shall be considered a subrecipient rather than a vendor.

§ 627.100

SUBPART A—SCOPE AND PURPOSE

§ 627.100 Scope and purpose of this part 627.

(a) This part sets forth requirements for implementation of programs under titles I, II, and III of the Job Training Partnership Act.

(b) Subpart B provides general program requirements that apply to all programs under the titles I, II, and III of the Act, except as provided elsewhere in the Act or this chapter. These requirements include the Governor/Secretary agreement, the non-discrimination and nonsectarian activity provisions, coordination provisions with Higher Education Act programs, and the prohibitions on public service employment, relocation assistance, displacement, and employment generating activities. This subpart also sets forth comprehensive rules for on-the-job training for JTPA participants as well as for work experience.

(c) Subpart C sets forth requirements for allowable payments to JTPA participants.

(d) Subpart D establishes the administrative and financial standards and requirements that apply to funds received under the Act.

(e) Subpart E establishes the procedures that apply to the handling of noncriminal complaints under the Act at the Governor, the SDA, and title III SSG levels.

(f) Subpart F establishes the procedures that apply to the filing, handling, and review of complaints at the Federal level.

(g) Subpart G sets forth the provisions that apply to the sanctions and corrective actions that may be imposed by the Secretary for violations of the Act, regulations, or grant terms and conditions.

(h) Subpart H sets forth procedures that apply to hearing by the Office of the Administrative Law Judges.

Subpart B—Program Requirements

§ 627.200 Governor/Secretary agreement.

(a)(1) To establish a continuing relationship under the Act, the Governor and the Secretary shall enter into a Governor/Secretary agreement. The agreement shall consist of a statement assuring that the State shall comply with (i) the Job Training Partnership Act and all applicable rules and regulations and (ii) the Wagner-Peyser Act and all applicable rules and regulations. The agreement shall specify that guidelines, interpretations, and definitions, adopted and issued by the Governor and identified pursuant to section 124 of the Act, shall, to the extent that they are consistent with the Act and applicable rules and regulations, be accepted by the Secretary.

(2) Either the Governor or the Secretary may seek a modification, revision, or termination of the agreement at any time, to be effective at the end of a program year.

(b) Except as provided at part B of title III of the Act and part 631, subpart G, of this chapter, the State shall be the grant recipient of JTPA funds awarded under titles I, II, and III.

(a)(1) The Governor may request, and the Secretary may grant, a waiver of specific provisions of these regulations to the extent that such request is consistent with the provisions of the Act.

(2) In requesting a waiver under paragraph (a)(1) of this section, the Governor shall demonstrate how it will either improve the targeting of services to the hard to serve, increase the level of basic and occupational skills training provided by the JTPA program in the State, contribute to the provision of academic enrichment services to youth, promote coordination of JTPA programs with other human resource programs, or substantially improve the job placement outcomes of the JTPA program.

(3) Waivers granted by the Secretary shall be effective for no more than four years from the date the waiver is granted.

§ 627.205 Public service employment prohibition.

No funds available under titles I, II-A, II-C, or III-A of the Act may be used for public service employment (sections 141(p) and 314(d)(2)).

§ 627.210 Nondiscrimination and non-sectarian activities.

(a)(1) Recipients, SDA grant recipients, title III substate grantees, and other subrecipients shall comply with the nondiscrimination provisions of section 167 of the Act.

(2) Nondiscrimination and equal opportunity requirements and procedures, including complaint processing and compliance reviews, are governed by the provisions of 29 CFR part 34 and are administered and enforced by the DOL Directorate of Civil Rights.

(3) Funds may be used to meet a recipient's or subrecipient's obligation to provide physical and programmatic accessibility and reasonable accommodation in regard to the JTPA program as required by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

(b) The employment or training of participants in sectarian activities is prohibited.

(a) No funds provided under the Act shall be used, or proposed for use, to encourage or to induce the relocation of an establishment, or part thereof, that result in the loss of employment for any employee or such establishment at the original location.

(b) For 120 days after the commencement or the expansion of commercial operations of a relocating establishment, no funds provided under this Act shall be used for customized or skill training, on-the-job training, or company-specific assessments of job applicants or employees, for any relocating establishment or part thereof at a new, or expanded location, if the relocation of such establishment or part thereof results in a loss of employment for any employee of such establishment at the original location.

(c) For the purposes of this section, relocating establishment means a business entity, including a successor-in-interest, which is moving any operations from a facility in one labor market area within the United States and its territories to a new or expanding facility in another labor market area. For the purposes of this section, a labor market area is an area within which individuals can readily change employment without changing their place of residence.

(d) Pre-award review. To verify that an establishment which is new or expanding is not, in fact, relocating employment from another area, standardized pre-award review procedures developed by the State shall be completed and documented jointly by the service delivery area or substate grantee and the establishment as a prerequisite to JTPA assistance. The review should include names under which the establishment does business, including successors-in-interest; the name, title, and address of the company official certifying the information; the name and address of the facility in the other geographic location which is being closed or from which business is being transferred; a statement from the employer about job losses at that location; the nature of the products or business being transferred; the date the facility will commence or expand operations, and whether JTPA assistance is sought in connection with past or impending job losses at other facilities.

(e) Violations and sanctions. The Department will promptly review and take appropriate action with regard to alleged violations of the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section. Procedures for the investigation and resolution of the violations are provided for under subpart F of this part. Sanctions and remedies are provided for under subpart G of this part.

§ 627.220 Coordination with programs under title IV of the Higher Education Act including the Pell grant program.

(a) Coordination. Financial assistance programs under title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (HEA) (the Pell Grant program, the Supplemental Education Opportunity Grant program, the Work-study program, and Federal loan programs such as Federal Perkins Loans, Federal Stafford Loans and Federal Direct Stafford Loans) provide student financial aid and are available to JTPA participants enrolling in postsecondary level education programs. SDA's and title III SSG's shall establish coordination procedures and contractual safeguards to ensure that JTPA funds are used in addition to funds otherwise available in the area and are coordinated with these funding sources.

(b) Affordable programs. (1) The SDA shall assist the participant early in the objective assessment, as appropriate, to establish eligibility for Pell Grants, student loans and other forms of financial aid.

(2) The SDA or SSA shall record in the ISS or participant record the participant's training-related financial assistance needs and the mix of JTPA and other funds, including Pell Grant funds (sections 141(b), 107(b), 205(b) and 265(b)).

(3) The SDA shall ensure, to the extent practicable, that available Federal, State, and local resources are coordinated sufficiently to meet the training and education-related costs of services, so that the participant can afford to complete the agreed-upon program successfully.

(4) Participants shall not be required to apply for or access student loans, or incur personal debt as a condition of JTPA participation.

(c) Information sharing. To prevent duplication of funding and to streamline the tracking of the participant's financial needs and use of funds when HEA, title IV programs are involved, contracts and agreements with educational institutions shall require the educational institution's financial aid officer to inform the SDA's/SSG's of the amounts and disposition of any HEA, title IV awards and other types of financial aid to each JTPA participant awarded after the enrollment of the participant, as part of a continuing, regular information sharing process (section 141(b)).

(a)(1) No funds available under the Act shall be used for employment generating activities, economic development activities, investment in revolving loan funds, capitalization of businesses, investment in contract bidding resource centers, or similar activities.

(2) No funds available under titles I, II, or III of the Act shall be used for foreign travel for employment generating activities, economic development activities, or similar activities.

(b) JTPA funds may be used for normal employer outreach and job development activities including, but not limited to: contacts with potential employers for the purpose of placement of JTPA participants; participation in business associations (such as chambers of commerce); JTPA staff participation on economic development boards and commissions, and work with economic development agencies, to provide information about JTPA and to assist in making informed decisions about community job training needs; subscriptions to relevant publications; general dissemination of information on JTPA programs and activities; labor market surveys; and development of on-the-job training (OJT) opportunities, as defined in § 627.240; and other allowable JTPA activities in the private sector.

(a) No currently employed worker shall be displaced by any participant (including partial displacement such as a reduction in the hours of non-overtime work, wages, or employment benefits).

(b) No participant shall be employed or job opening filled: (1) When any other individual is on layoff from the same or any substantially equivalent job, or

(2) When the employer has terminated any regular employee without cause or otherwise reduced its workforce with the intention of filling the vacancy so created by hiring a participant whose wages are subsidized under the Act.

(c) Violations and sanctions. The Department will promptly review and take appropriate action with regard to alleged violations of the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section. Procedures for the investigation and resolution of violations are provided for under subpart F of this part. Sanctions and remedies are provided for under subpart G of this part.

§ 627.235 General program requirements.

(a) The requirements set forth in sections 141, 142 and 143 of the Act apply to all programs under titles I, II, and III of the Act, except as provided elsewhere in the Act.

(b) Recipients shall ensure that an individual enrolled in a JTPA program meets the requirements of section 167(a)(5) of the Act, Section 3 of the Military Selective Service Act (50 U.S.C. App. 453) and other requirements applicable to programs funded under the specific section or title of the Act under which the participant is enrolling (section 604).

(c) Recipients shall ensure that individuals are enrolled within 45 days of the date of eligibility determination or a new eligibility determination (including new application, if necessary) shall be made, except that eligible summer program applicants under title II-B may be enrolled within 45 days into a summer youth enrollee pool, and no subsequent eligibility determination need be made prior to participation during the period of that summer program. In addition, the 45-day enrollment requirement shall not apply for individuals who have a valid certificate of continuing eligibility under the title III program, as described in § 631.3 and § 631.53 of this chapter.

(d) Programs operated under titles I, II, and III of the Act are not subject to the provisions of 29 CFR part 97, "Uniform Administrative Requirements for Grants and Cooperative Agreements to State and Local Governments," except as otherwise explicitly provided in this chapter.

(e) If a recipient or SDA imposes a requirement that is in addition to the provisions of the Act and these regulations relating to the administration and operation of programs funded by the Act, the recipient or SDA shall identify the requirement as a State- or SDA-imposed requirement (section 124).

§ 627.240 On-the-job training.

(a) General—(1) On-the-job training (OJT) means training by an employer in the private or public sector given to a participant who, after objective assessment, and in accordance with the ISS, has been referred to and hired by the employer following the development of an agreement with the employer to provide occupational training in exchange for reimbursement of the employer's extraordinary costs. On-the-job training occurs while the participant is engaged in productive work which provides knowledge and skills essential to the full and adequate performance of the job.

(2) This does not preclude a participant who has been trained by one employer from ultimately being placed in a comparable training-related position with another employer.

(3) On-the-job training may be sequenced with or accompanied by other types of training such as classroom training or literacy training.

(b) Duration of OJT. (1) OJT authorized for a participant shall be limited to a period not in excess of that required for the participant to acquire the skills needed for the OJT position. Except as described in paragraph (b) (3) of this section, the period of reimbursement to the employer under an OJT agreement shall not exceed 6 months of training.

(2) The 6-month duration of OJT may be expressed as a number of hours, days, or weeks the participant is expected to work in a 6-month period if the participant works full-time.

(3) In the event that a participant's regular employment is less than full-time and less than 500 hours of OJT has occurred by the end of 6 months, that participant may remain in OJT until 499 hours OJT hours have occurred.

(4)(i) Recipients shall develop policies and procedures for determining the average training duration for occupations including to reflect an individual participant's need for additional training time, or reduction in training time to reflect the individual participant's partial acquisition of needed skills. (In no case should an individual who is fully skilled in an occupation be placed in OJT in that occupation.)

(ii) In determining the average training time, consideration should be given to recognized reference materials, such as the "Dictionary of Occupational Titles" (DOT) and employer training plans. Such materials need not be limited to the DOT, however.

(5) On-the-job training is encouraged, but not required, in all occupations with significant training content, particularly in higher-skill occupations appropriate to the participant's needs. Training plans may be developed that recognize the full duration of the OJT period necessary for the full and adequate performance of the job, but the period of reimbursement may not exceed the duration in paragraph (a)(1) or (a)(2) of this section.

(6) When the OJT period in a given occupation for a participant for whom the ISS identifies OJT as appropriate varies from the average for that occupation, the basis for the variation shall be recorded in the ISS.

(c) On-the-job training payments to employers. (1) On-the-job training payments to employers are deemed to be in compensation for the extraordinary costs associated with training participants and in compensation for the costs associated with the lower productivity of such participants. Employers shall not be required to document such extraordinary costs or lower productivity (section 141(g)(1)).

(2)(i) On-the-job training payments to employers shall not, during the period of such training, average more than 50 percent of the wages paid by the employer to OJT participants.

(ii) On-the-job training payments to employers may be based upon scheduled raises or regular pay increases.

(iii) On-the-job training payments may not be based on overtime, shift differential, premium pay and other nonregular wages paid by the employer to participants.

(iv) On-the-job training payments may not be based upon periods of time such as illness, holidays, plant downtime or other events in which no training occurs.

(3) Employers which provide classroom or vestibule training to meet the specific training needs of JTPA participants to equip them with education and knowledge necessary to the OJT occupation may be separately reimbursed for training costs, such as instructors and training material.

(d) On-the-job training agreements. (1) Each OJT agreement shall, at a minimum, specify the occupation(s) for which training is to be provided, the duration of the training, the number of participants to be trained in each occupation, wage rates to be paid, the rate of reimbursement, the maximum amount of reimbursement, a job description or training outline that reflects what the participant will learn, and any other separate classroom training that may be provided.

(2) The agreement shall provide that the employer will maintain and make available time and attendance, payroll and other records to support amounts reimbursed under OJT contracts.

(e) Labor standards. OJT participants shall be compensated by the employer at the same rates, including periodic increases, as similarly situated employees, but in no event less than the higher of the minimum wage specified under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended or the applicable State or local minimum wage. Participants must receive the same benefits and have the same working conditions as similarly situated employees.

(f) Suitability of participants. (1) Only those participants who have been assessed and for whom OJT has been determined as an appropriate activity in the participant's ISS may be referred to an employer for participation in OJT.

(2) An individual referred to the JTPA program by an employer may be enrolled in an OJT program with such employer only upon completion of the objective assessment and individual service strategy in which OJT with such employer has been determined to be an appropriate activity and only if the employer has not already hired such individual.

(3) OJT with the participant's previous or current employer in the same, a similar, or an upgraded job is not permitted.

(g) Monitoring. (1) OJT agreements shall be monitored periodically on-site by the entity issuing the contract to assure that the validity and propriety of amounts claimed for reimbursement are substantiated by payroll and time and attendance records and that the training is being provided as specified in the agreement.

(2) Brokering contractors shall conduct on-site monitoring of the OJT employers and other subcontractors to verify compliance with subcontract terms before making payments.

(3) Nothing in this paragraph (g) shall relieve recipients and SDA's from responsibility for monitoring expenditures under the Act.

(h) Employer eligibility. (1) OJT agreements shall not be entered into with employers which, under previous agreements, have exhibited a pattern of failing to provide OJT participants with continued long-term employment as regular employees with wages, benefits and working conditions at the same level and to the same extent as similarly situated employees. This prohibition does not apply to OJT agreements for youth in the program under title II-B who are returning to school.

(2) Governors shall issue procedures and criteria to implement the requirement in paragraph (h)(1) of this section, which shall specify the duration of the period of loss of eligibility. The procedures and criteria shall provide that situations in which OJT participants quit voluntarily, are terminated for cause, or are released due to unforeseeable changes in business conditions will not necessarily result in termination of employer eligibility.

(i) Brokered OJT. Each agreement with an OJT employer that is written by a brokering contractor (not written directly by the SDA/SSA or recipient) shall specify and clearly differentiate the services to be provided by the brokering contractor (including but not limited to outreach, recruitment, training, counseling, assessment, placement, monitoring, and followup), the employer and other agencies and subcontractors, including services provided with or without cost by other agencies or subcontractors.

(j) Youth OJT. OJT conducted under title II-C shall meet the requirements of subpart H of part 628 of this chapter (628.804), as well as the requirements of this section. Where OJT is provided to youth concurrently enrolled under titles II-B and II-C, the source of funding for the OJT shall govern which requirements apply.

(k) Employment and employee leasing agencies.

(1) Definition. The terms employment agency and employee leasing agency mean an employer that provides regular, on-going employment (i.e., not probationary, temporary, or intermittent employment) in a specific occupation and, for a fee, places employees at the worksite of another employer to perform work for such employer.

(2) Employment and employee leasing agencies that meet the other requirements of this section may be eligible for OJT agreements when the agreement specifies the source of training and specifies that the payments are for the extraordinary training costs of the entity providing the training.

§ 627.245 Work experience.

(a) Definition.—Work Experience means a short-term or part-time training assignment with a public or private nonprofit organization for a participant who needs assistance in becoming accustomed to basic work requirements. It is prohibited in the private for-profit sector.

(b) Suitability. Work experience should be designed to promote the development of good work habits and basic work skills.

(c) Duration of work experience. Participation in work experience shall be for a reasonable length of time, based on the needs of the participant. The duration of work experience shall be recorded in the participant's ISS.

(d) Combination with other services. Work experience under titles II-A and C shall be accompanied either concurrently or sequentially by other services designed to increase the basic education and/or occupational skills of the participant, as recorded in the ISS.

(e) Work experience is not an allowable activity under title III of the Act. (Sections 204(b) and (c), 253(a), and 264 (c) and (d).)

§ 627.250 Interstate agreements.

The Secretary hereby grants authority to the several States to enter into interstate agreements and compacts in accordance with section 127 of the Act and, as specified in § 627.420(g), Procurement.

Subpart C—Payments, Supportive Services, and Benefits and Working Conditions

§ 627.300 Scope and purpose.

This subpart sets forth requirements for allowable payments to JTPA participants under titles I and II. These include needs-based payments under title II, incentive and bonus payments under title II, work-based training payments under title II, and payments for combined activities under title II. Requirements for supportive services under titles I, II, and III, including financial assistance and needs-related payments, are also included in this subpart. This subpart also sets forth rules for benefits and working conditions for JTPA participants. These include requirements for: Compliance with applicable labor laws; workers' compensation coverage or medical and accident insurance where there is no State workers' compensation coverage; and working conditions which are not detrimental to the participant's health and safety.

§ 627.305 Payments.

(a)(1) General. Allowable types of payments which may be made to participants are: Needs-based payments for eligible individuals in programs under title II; incentive and bonus payments for participants in title II programs; work-based training payments for work experience, entry employment experience, internships and other work-based training activities; payments for participants in title II-B activities; and training payments for combined activities in title II programs. These payments shall be made in accordance with paragraphs (b) through (f) of this section.

(2) A participant shall receive no payments for training activities in which the participant fails to participate without good cause (section 142(a)(1)).

(3) The SDA shall ensure to the extent possible that similarly situated participants receive similar payments.

(4) Payments to participants, broadly defined for this subsection as all funds distributed to participants except OJT wages, shall not be considered as income for the purposes of determining eligibility for and the amount of income transfer and in-kind aid furnished under any Federal or federally assisted program based on need, other than as provided under the Social Security Act (section 142(b)).

(5) The SDA is responsible for meeting any applicable Internal Revenue Service and Fair Labor Standards Act requirements (section 142(a)(3)).

(6) An SDA may set fixed levels for any non-wage payment.

(b) Needs-based payments. (1) Participants in programs funded under title II may receive needs-based payments when such payments are necessary to enable the individual to participate in training programs. Payments shall be made in accordance with a locally developed policy which is included in the job training plan approved by the Governor.

(2) The individual determination of participants' needs-based payments and the amount of such payments shall be based upon the results of the continuing objective assessment and determined in accordance with a locally developed policy. The provisions and amount of such payments shall be recorded in the ISS.

(c) Incentive and bonus payments. Participants in programs funded under title II may receive incentive and bonus payments based on their attendance and performance in accordance with a locally developed policy. The policy shall be described in the job training plan approved by the Governor and shall include a specification of the requirements for the receipt of such payments and the level of payments.

(d) Work-based training payments. Individuals participating in work experience, in entry employment experience programs, in limited internships for youth in the private sector, or in other work-based training activities under title II of the Act may receive work-based training payments which may be wages.

(e) Summer participants may receive training payments for participation in activities under title II-B.

(f) Training payments for combined activities. For title II programs, participants in one of the activities described in paragraph (d) of this section for which work-based training payments are payable for more than 50 percent of the participant's time, including classroom training, may also receive training payments for hours of participation in classroom training.

(a)(1) The SDA or SSG shall develop a policy on supportive services in accordance with the definition at section 4(24) of the Act. This policy shall be included in the job training plan approved by the Governor (section 4(24)). Supportive services may be provided to participants through in-kind or cash assistance, or by arrangement with another human service agency when necessary to enable an individual who is eligible for training under a JTPA assisted program, but who cannot afford to pay for such services, to participate in such JTPA-assisted program.

(2) In the event that an SDA or SSG adopts a policy of providing a fixed reimbursement for a particular supportive service to all participants, it shall, as part of its policy, state the rationale for its choice and the fixed amounts it has adopted.

(b) Limited supportive services may be provided to applicants in order to permit them to complete the application process.

(c) Necessary supportive services shall be recorded in a participant's ISS under title II or should be recorded in a participant's individual readjustment plan under title III. When supportive services are provided in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, information on any supportive service provided may be maintained for future inclusion in an ISS.

(d) The SDA or SSG shall ensure, to the extent possible, that similarly situated participants receive similar supportive services.

(e) For title II participants, necessary supportive services (with the exception of financial assistance) may be provided for up to one year following termination as post-termination or followup services (sections 4(24), 204(b)(2)(J), and 204(c)(4)). For title III participants, the provisions at section 314(c)(15) of the Act shall apply.

(f) An SDA or SSG may set fixed levels of benefit for any supportive service.

(g)(1) For purposes of title II, financial assistance is defined as a general supportive service payment for the purpose of retaining participants in training.

(2) Financial assistance payments may be considered to be necessary for participation in training for title II participants, i.e., a separate, individual determination of need is not necessary.

(h) Needs-related payments. The requirements pertaining to needs-related payments provided for under section 315(b) under title III of the Act, are described in part 631 of this chapter.

§ 627.315 Benefits and working conditions.

(a) In the development and conduct of programs funded under the Act, SDA's and SSG's shall ensure that participants are not assigned to work for employers which do not comply with applicable labor laws, including wage and hour, occupational health and safety, and child labor laws (29 CFR part 570).

(b) To the extent that a State workers' compensation law is applicable, workers' compensation benefits in accordance with such law shall be available with respect to injuries suffered by participants. Where a State's workers' compensation law is not applicable, recipients and subrecipients shall secure insurance coverage for injuries suffered by such participants in all JTPA work-related activities. Income maintenance coverage (e.g., contributions for unemployment compensation), is not required for participants (section 143(a)(3)).

(c) Where a participant is engaged in activities not covered under the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970, as amended, the participant shall not be required or permitted to work, be trained, or receive services in buildings or surroundings or under working conditions which are unsanitary, hazardous, or dangerous to the participant's health or safety. A participant employed or trained for inherently dangerous occupations, e.g., fire or police jobs, shall be assigned to work in accordance with reasonable safety practices (section 143(a)(2)).

Subpart D—Administrative Standards

§ 627.400 Scope and purpose.

This subpart establishes the administrative and financial standards and requirements that apply to funds received under the Act.

§ 627.405 Grant agreement and funding.

(a)(1) Pursuant to § 627.200 of this part and the Governor/Secretary agreement, each program year there will be executed a grant agreement signed by the Governor or the Governor's designated representative and the Secretary or the Secretary's designated representative (Grant Officer).

(2) The grant agreement described in paragraph (a)(1) of this section shall be the basis for Federal obligation of funds for the program year for programs authorized by titles I, II, and III, including any title III discretionary projects awarded to the State, and such other funds as the Secretary may award under the grant.

(b) Funding. The Secretary shall allot funds to the States in accordance with sections 162, 202, 252, 262, and 302 of the Act. The Secretary shall obligate such allotments through Notices of Obligation.

(c) Pursuant to instructions issued by the Secretary, additional funds may be awarded to States for the purpose of carrying out the administrative activities described in section 202(c)(1)(A) when a State receives an amount under such section that is less than $500,000 (section 453(d)).

(d) Termination. Each grant shall terminate when the period of availability for expenditure (funding period), as specified in section 161(b) of the Act, has expired and shall be closed in accordance with § 627.485, of this part, Closeout.

§ 627.410 Reallotment and reallocation.

(a)(1) The Governor shall reallocate title II–A and II–C funds among service delivery areas within the State in accordance with the provisions of section 109(a) of the Act. The amount to be reallocated, if any, shall be based on SDA obligations of the funds allocated separately to each SDA for title II–A or II–C programs.

rately to each SDA for title II–A or II–C programs.

(2) The Governor shall not establish reallocation requirements that are inconsistent with the provisions of section 109(a) of the Act.

(b) The Secretary shall reallocate title II–A and II–C funds among the States in accordance with the provisions of section 109(b) of the Act. The amounts to be reallocated, if any, shall be based on State obligations of the funds allotted separately to each State for title II–A or II–C programs, excluding funds allotted under section 202(c)(1)(D) and the State's obligation of such funds.

(c) Title III funds shall be reallocated by the Secretary in accordance with section 303 of the Act.

§ 627.415 Insurance.

(a) General. Each recipient and subrecipient shall follow its normal insurance procedures except as otherwise indicated in this section and § 627.465, Property Management Standards.

(b) DOL assumes no liability with respect to bodily injury, illness, or any other damages or losses, or with respect to any claims arising out of any activity under a JTPA grant or agreement whether concerning persons or property in the recipient's or any subrecipient's organization or that of any third party.

§ 627.420 Procurement.

(a) General. (1) For purposes of this section, the term procurement means the process which leads to any award of JTPA funds.

(2) The Governor, in accordance with the minimum requirements established in this section, shall prescribe and implement procurement standards to ensure fiscal accountability and prevent waste, fraud, and abuse in programs administered under this Act.

(3) When procuring property and services, a State shall follow the same policies and procedures it uses for procurements from its non-Federal funds, provided that the State's procurement procedures also comply with the minimum requirements of this section.

(4) Each subrecipient shall use its own procurement procedures which reflect applicable State and local laws and regulations, provided that the subrecipient's procurement procedures also comply with the requirements of this section and the standards established by the Governor, pursuant to paragraph (a)(2) of this section.

(5) States and subrecipients shall not use funds provided under JTPA to duplicate facilities or services available in the area (with or without reimbursement) from Federal, State, or local sources, unless it is demonstrated that the JTPA-funded alternative services or facilities would be more effective or more likely to achieve performance goals (sections 107(b) and 141(h)).

(6) Awards are to be made to responsible organizations possessing the demonstrated ability to perform successfully under the terms and conditions of a proposed subgrant or contract. A determination of demonstrated ability shall be done in accordance with the requirements contained in § 627.422 (b) and (d).

(b) Competition. (1) Each State and subrecipient shall conduct procurements in a manner which provides full and open competition. Some of the situations considered to be restrictive of competition include, but are not limited to:

- (i) Placing unreasonable requirements on firms or organizations in order for them to qualify to do business;
- (ii) Requiring unnecessary experience and excessive bonding;
- (iii) Noncompetitive pricing practices between firms or organizations or between affiliated companies or organizations;
- (iv) Noncompetitive awards to consultants that are on retainer contracts;
- (v) Organizational conflicts of interest;
- (vi) Specifying only a "brand name" product instead of allowing "an equal" product to be offered and describing the performance of other relevant requirements of the procurement;
- (vii) Overly restrictive specifications; and
- (viii) Any arbitrary action in the procurement process.

(2) Each State and subrecipient shall have written procedures for procurement transactions. These procedures shall ensure that all solicitations:

(i) Incorporate a clear and accurate description of the technical requirements for the material, product, or service to be procured (including quantities). Such description shall not, in competitive procurements, contain features which unduly restrict competition; and

(ii) Identify all requirements which the offerors must fulfill and all other factors to be used in evaluating bids or proposals.

(3) Each State and subrecipient shall ensure that all prequalified lists of persons, firms, or other organizations which are used in acquiring goods and services are current and include sufficient numbers of qualified sources to ensure maximum open and free competition.

(c) Conflict of interest. (1) Each recipient and subrecipient shall maintain a written code of standards of conduct governing the performance of persons engaged in the award and administration of JTPA contracts and subgrants. To the extent permitted by State or local law or regulation, such standards of conduct will provide for penalties, sanctions, or other disciplinary actions for violations of such standards by the awarding agency's officers, employees, or agents, or by awardees or their agents.

(2) Staff conflict of interest. Each recipient and subrecipient shall ensure that no individual in a decisionmaking capacity shall engage in any activity, including participation in the selection, award, or administration of a subgrant or contract supported by JTPA funds if a conflict of interest, real or apparent, would be involved.

(3) PIC conflict of interest. (i) A PIC member shall not cast a vote, nor participate in any decisionmaking capacity, on the provision of services by such member (or any organization which that member directly represents), nor on any matter which would provide any direct financial benefit to that member.

(ii) Neither membership on the PIC nor the receipt of JTPA funds to provide training and related services shall be construed, by itself, to violate provisions of section 141(f) of the Act or § 627.420.

(4) A conflict of interest under paragraphs (c) (2) and (3) of this section would arise when:

- (i) The individual,
- (ii) Any member of the individual's immediate family,
- (iii) The individual's partner, or
- (iv) An organization which employs, or is about to employ, any of the above, has a financial or other interest in the firm or organization selected for award.

(5) The officers, employees, or agents of the agency and PIC members making the award will neither solicit nor accept gratuities, favors, or anything of monetary value from awardees, potential awardees, or parties to sub-agreements. States and subrecipients may set minimum rules where the financial interest is not substantial or the gift is an unsolicited item of nominal intrinsic value.

(d) Methods of procurement. (1) Each State and subrecipient shall use one of the following methods of procurement, as appropriate for each procurement action:

(i) Small purchase procedures—simple and informal procurement methods for securing services, supplies, or other property that do not cost more than $25,000 in the aggregate. Recipients and subrecipients shall not break down one purchase into several purchases merely to be able to use small purchase procedures. The Governor shall establish standards for small purchase procedures to ensure that price or rate quotations will be documented from an adequate number of qualified sources.

(ii) Sealed bids (formal advertising)—bids are publicly solicited procurements for which a firm-fixed-price award (lump sum or unit price) or other fixed-price arrangement is awarded to the responsible bidder whose bid, conforming with all the material terms and conditions of the invitation for bids, is the lowest in price. The Governor shall establish standards for sealed bids which include requirements that invitations for bids be publicly advertised, and that bids be solicited from an adequate number of organizations.

(iii) Competitive proposals—normally conducted with more than one source submitting an offer and either a fixed-price or cost-reimbursement type award is made. The Governor shall establish standards for competitive proposals which include requirements for the establishment of a documented methodology for technical evaluations and award to the responsible offeror whose proposals are most advantageous to the program with price, technical, and other factors considered.

(iv) Noncompetitive proposals (sole source)—procurement through solicitation of a proposal from only one source, the funding of an unsolicited proposal, or when, after solicitation of a number of sources, competition is determined inadequate. Each State and subrecipient shall minimize the use of sole source procurements to the extent practicable, but in every case the use of sole source procurements shall be justified and documented. On-the-job training (OJT) awards (except OJT brokering awards, which shall be selected competitively) and the enrollment of individual participants in classroom training may be sole sourced. For all other awards, procurement by noncompetitive proposals may be used only when the award is infeasible under small purchase procedures, sealed bids, or competitive proposals and one of the following circumstances applies:

(A) The item or service is available only from a single source;

(B) The public exigency or emergency need for the item or service does not permit a delay resulting from competitive solicitation;

(C) For SDAs, SSGs and subrecipients, the awarding agency authorizes noncompetitive proposals; for States, the noncompetitive proposal is approved through the State's normal sole source approval process;

(D) After solicitation of a number of sources, competition is determined inadequate;

(2) Pass Throughs—The procurement rules do not apply to pass throughs of monies from any unit of State or local government (or SDA or SSG administrative entities) to other such units, such as a local educational agency or public housing authority. To qualify as a pass through, the receiving entity must either further pass through the monies to another such entity or procure services in accordance with the procurement rules.

(e) Cost or price analysis. (1) Each recipient, in accordance with the minimum requirements established in this section, shall establish standards on the performance of cost or price analysis.

(2) Each recipient and subrecipient shall perform a cost or price analysis in connection with every procurement action, including modifications (except for modifications where a determination has been made that they do not have a monetary impact). The method and degree of analysis depends on the facts surrounding the particular procurement and pricing situation. At a minimum, the awarding agency shall make independent estimates before receiving bids or proposals. A cost analysis is necessary when the offeror is required to submit the elements of the estimated cost (e.g., as in the case of subrecipient relationships), when adequate price competition is lacking, and for sole source procurements, including modifications or change orders. A price analysis shall be used when price reasonableness can be established on the basis of a catalog or market price of a commercial product sold in substantial quantities to the general public or based on prices set by law or regulation (including situations involving inadequate price competition and sole source procurements where a price analysis may be used in lieu of a cost analysis). When a cost analysis is necessary and there is inadequate price competition, the offeror shall certify that to the best of its knowledge and belief, the cost data are accurate, complete, and current at the time of agreement on price. Awards or modifications negotiated in reliance on such data should provide the awarding agency a right to a price adjustment to exclude any significant sum by which the price was increased because the awardee had knowingly submitted data that were not accurate, complete, or current as certified.

(3) JTPA procurements shall not permit excess program income (for non-profit and governmental entities) or excess profit (for private for-profit entities). If profit or program income is included in the price, the awarding agency shall negotiate profit or program income as a separate element of the price for each procurement in which there is no price competition and in all cases where cost analysis is performed. To establish a fair and reasonable profit or program income, consideration shall be given to:

- (i) The complexity of the work to be performed;
- (ii) The risk borne by the awardee;
- (iii) The offeror's investment;
- (iv) The amount of subcontracting/subgranting;
- (v) The quality of the offeror's record of past performance;
- (vi) Industry profit rates in the surrounding geographical area for similar work; and
- (vii) Market conditions in the surrounding geographical area.

(4) Each recipient and subrecipient may charge to the agreement only those costs which are consistent with the allowable cost provisions of § 627.435 of this part, including the guidelines issued by the Governor, as required at § 627.435(i) of this part.

(5) The cost plus a percentage of cost method shall not be used.

(f) Oversight. (1) Each recipient and subrecipient shall conduct and document oversight to ensure compliance with the procurement standards, in accordance with the requirements of § 627.475 of this part, Oversight and monitoring.

(2) Each recipient and subrecipient shall maintain an administration system which ensures that vendors and subrecipients perform in accordance with the terms, conditions, and specifications of their awards.

(g) Transactions between units of government. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (g)(2) of this section, procurement transactions between units of State or local governments, or any other entities organized principally as the administrative entity for service delivery areas or substate areas, shall be conducted on a cost reimbursable basis. Cost plus type awards are not allowable.

(2) In the case of procurement transactions with schools that are a part of these entities, such as State universities and secondary schools, when tuition charges or entrance fees are not more than the educational institution's catalogue price, necessary to receive specific training, charged to the general public to receive the same training, and for training of participants, the tuition and/ or entrance fee does not have to be broken out by items of cost.

(h) Award provisions. Each recipient and subrecipient agreement shall:

(1) Clearly specify deliverables and the basis for payment; and

(2) In the case of awards to subrecipients, contain clauses that provide for:

(i) Compliance with the JTPA regulations;

(ii) Assurance of nondiscrimination and equal opportunity as found in 29 CFR 34.20, Assurance required; duration of obligation; covenants.

(3) In the case of awards to vendors, contain clauses that provide for:

(i) Access by the recipient, the subrecipient, the Department of Labor, the Comptroller General of the United States, or any of their duly authorized representatives to any books, documents, papers, and records (including computer records) of the contractor or subcontractor which are directly pertinent to charges to the program, in order to conduct audits and examinations and to make excerpts, transcripts, and photocopies; this right also includes timely and reasonable access to contractor's and subcontractor's personnel for the purpose of interviews and discussions related to such documents;

(4) In the case of awards to both subrecipients and vendors, contain clauses that provide for:

(i) Administrative, contractual, or legal remedies in instances where contractors/subgrantees violate or breach agreement terms, which shall provide for such sanctions and penalties as may be appropriate;

(ii) Notice of 29 CFR 97.34 requirements pertaining to copyrights (agreements which involve the use of copyrighted materials or the development of copyrightable materials);

(iii) Notice of requirements pertaining to rights to data. Specifically, the awarding agency and the Department of Labor shall have unlimited rights to any data first produced or delivered under the agreement (agreements which involve the use/development of computer programs/ applications, or the maintenance of databases or other computer data processing program, including the inputting of data);

(iv) Termination for cause and for convenience by the awarding agency, including the manner by which the termination will be effected and the basis for settlement;

(v) Notice of awarding agency requirements and regulations pertaining to reporting;

(vi) Audit rights and requirements;

(vii) Payment conditions and delivery terms;

(viii) Process and authority for agreement changes; and

(ix) Provision against assignment;

(5) The Governor may establish additional clauses, as deemed appropriate, for State and subrecipient procurements.

(i) Disputes. (1) The Governor shall ensure that the recipient and each subrecipient have protest procedures to handle and resolve disputes relating to their procurements. A protester shall exhaust all administrative remedies with the subrecipient before pursuing a protest at a higher level.

(2) Violations of law will be handled in accordance with the requirements contained in § 627.500(c).

(j) Each recipient and subrecipient shall maintain records sufficient to detail the significant history of a procurement. These records shall include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following: rationale for the method of procurement, selection of agreement type, awardee selection or rejection, and the basis for the agreement price.

§ 627.422 Selection of service providers.

(a) Service providers selected under titles I, II, and III of the Act shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of section 107 of the Act, except that section 107(d) shall not apply to training under title III.

(b) Consistent with the requirements of this section, the Governor shall establish standards to be followed by recipients and subrecipients in making determinations of demonstrated performance, prior to the award of all agreements under titles I, II, and III of the Act. These standards shall comply with the requirements of this section, §627.420, of this part, Procurement, and section 164(a)(3) of the Act. The standards shall require that determinations of demonstrated performance will be in writing, and completed prior to the award of an agreement.

(c) Each recipient and subrecipient, to the extent practicable, shall select service providers on a competitive basis, in accordance with the standards established in §627.420(b) of this part, Procurement. When a State, SDA, SSG, or administrative entity determines that services other than intake and eligibility determination will be provided by its own staff, a determination shall be made of the demonstrated performance of the entity to provide the services. This determination: Shall be in writing; shall take into consideration the matters listed in paragraph (d) of this section; and may, if appropriate, be documented and described in the Job Training Plan, GCSSP, or EDWAA plan.

(d) Awards are to be made to organizations possessing the demonstrated ability to perform successfully under the terms and conditions of a proposed subgrant or contract. Where comparable proposals have been received from an offeror which has demonstrated performance and a high-risk recipient/subrecipient, and a determination has been made that both proposals are fundable, the award should be made to the offeror which has demonstrated performance, unless other factors dictate a contrary result. Determinations of demonstrated performance shall be in writing, and take into consideration such matters as whether the organization has:

- (1) Adequate financial resources or the ability to obtain them;
- (2) The ability to meet the program design specifications at a reasonable cost, as well as the ability to meet performance goals;
- (3) A satisfactory record of past performance (in job training, basic skills training, or related activities), including demonstrated quality of training; reasonable drop-out rates from past programs; where applicable, the ability to provide or arrange for appropriate supportive services as specified in the ISS, including child care; retention in employment; and earning rates of participants;

(4) For title II programs, the ability to provide services that can lead to the achievement of competency standards for participants with identified deficiencies;

(5) A satisfactory record of integrity, business ethics, and fiscal accountability;

(6) The necessary organization, experience, accounting and operational controls; and

(7) The technical skills to perform the work.

(e) In selecting service providers to deliver services in a service delivery area/substate area, proper consideration shall be given to community-based organizations (section 107(a)). These community-based organizations, including women's organizations with knowledge about or experience in non-traditional training for women, shall be organizations which are recognized in the community in which they are to provide services. Where proposals are evenly rated, and one of these proposals has been submitted by a CBO, the tie breaker may go to the CBO.

(f) Appropriate education agencies in the service delivery area/substate area shall be provided the opportunity to provide educational services, unless the administrative entity demonstrates that alternative agency(ies) or organization(s) would be more effective or would have greater potential to enhance the participants' continued educational and career growth (section 107(c)). Where proposals are evenly rated, and one of these proposals has been submitted by an educational institution, the tie breaker shall go to the educational institution.

(g) In determining demonstrated performance of institutions/organizations which provide training, such performance measures as retention in training, training completion, job placement, and rates of licensure shall be taken into consideration.

§ 627.423

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(h) Service providers under agreements to conduct projects under section 123(a)(2) shall be selected in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(i) The requirements of section 204(d)(2)(B) shall be followed in entering into agreements to provide services for older individuals funded under title II, part A.

(j) Additional requirements for selection of service providers by substate grantees are described at section 313(b)(6) of the Act and § 631.52 of this chapter.

(k) Amounts for service providers. Each SDA/SSG shall ensure that, for all services provided to participants through contracts, grants, or other agreements with a service provider, such contract, grant, or agreement shall include appropriate amounts necessary for administration and supportive services (section 108(b)(5)).

(l) When a State, SDA or SSG has a policy of awarding additional points to proposals received from such organizations as minority business enterprises and women-owned businesses, and this policy is generally applicable to its other funds, the State, SDA or SSG may apply this policy to the JTPA funds.

§ 627.423 Funding restrictions for “high-risk” recipients and subrecipients.

(a) A recipient or subrecipient may be considered “high-risk” if an awarding agency determines that the recipient or subrecipient is otherwise responsible, but:

- (1) Has a history of unsatisfactory performance;
- (2) Is not financially stable;
- (3) Has a management system which does not meet the management standards set forth in this part; or
- (4) Has not conformed to terms and conditions of a previously awarded grant or subgrant.

(b) If the awarding agency determines that an award will be made to a “high-risk” recipient or subrecipient, then special funding restrictions that address the “high-risk” status may be included in the award. Funding restrictions may include, but are not limited to:

(1) Payment on a reimbursement basis;

(2) Requiring additional and/or more detailed financial or performance reports;

(3) Additional monitoring;

(4) Requiring the recipient or subrecipient to obtain specific technical or management assistance; and/or

(5) Establishing additional prior approvals.

(c) If an awarding agency decides to impose such funding restrictions, the awarding official will notify the recipient or subrecipient as early as possible, in writing, of:

(1) The nature of the funding restrictions;

(2) The reason(s) for imposing them;

(3) The corrective actions which must be taken before they will be removed and the time allowed for completing the corrective actions; and

(4) The method of requesting reconsideration of the restrictions imposed.

§ 627.424 Prohibition of subawards to debarred and suspended parties.

(a) No recipient or subrecipient shall make any awards or permit any awards at any tier to any party which is debarred or suspended or is otherwise excluded from or ineligible for participation in Federal assistance programs in accordance with the Department of Labor regulations at 29 CFR part 98.

(b) Recipients and subrecipients shall comply with the applicable requirements of the Department of Labor regulations at 29 CFR part 98.

§ 627.425 Standards for financial management and participant data systems.

(a)(1) General. The financial management system and the participant data system of each recipient and subrecipient shall provide federally required records and reports that are uniform in definition, accessible to authorized Federal and State staff, and verifiable for monitoring, reporting, audit, program management, and evaluation purposes (sections 165(a)(1) and (2), and 182).

(2) An awarding agency may review the adequacy of the financial management system and participant data system of any recipient/subrecipient as part of a preaward review or at any time subsequent to award.

(b) Financial systems. Recipients and subrecipients shall ensure that their own financial systems as well as those of their subrecipients provide fiscal control and accounting procedures that are:

(1) In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applicable in each State including:

(i) Information pertaining to subgrant and contract awards, obligations, unobligated balances, assets, liabilities, expenditures, and income;

(ii) Effective internal controls to safeguard assets and assure their proper use;

(iii) A comparison of actual expenditures with budgeted amounts for each subgrant and contract;

(iv) Source documentation to support accounting records; and

(v) Proper charging of costs and cost allocation; and

(2) Sufficient to:

(i) Permit preparation of required reports;

(ii) Permit the tracing of funds to a level of expenditure adequate to establish that funds have not been used in violation of the applicable restrictions on the use of such funds;

(iii) As required by section 165(g), permit the tracing of program income, potential stand-in costs and other funds that are allowable except for funding limitations, as defined in § 627.480(f) of this part, Audits; and

(iv) Demonstrate compliance with the matching requirement of section 123(b)(2).

(c) Applicant and participant data systems. Each recipient and subrecipient shall ensure that records are maintained:

(1) Of each applicant for whom an application has been completed and a formal determination of eligibility or ineligibility made;

(2) Of each participant's enrollment in a JTPA-funded program in sufficient detail to demonstrate compliance with the relevant eligibility criteria attending a particular activity and with the restrictions on the provision and duration of services and specific activities imposed by the Act; and

(3) Of such participant information as may be necessary to develop and measure the achievement of performance standards established by the Secretary.

§ 627.430 Grant payments.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (h)(2) of this section, JTPA grant payments shall be made to the Governor in accordance with the Cash Management Improvement Act of 1990 (31 U.S.C. 6501, et seq.), Department of Treasury regulations at 31 CFR part 205, and the State Agreement entered into with the Department of the Treasury.

(b) Basic standard. Except as provided in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section, each recipient and subrecipient shall be paid in advance, provided it demonstrates the willingness and ability to limit advanced funds to the actual immediate disbursement needs in carrying out the JTPA program.

(c) Advance payments. To the maximum extent feasible, each subrecipient shall be provided advance payments via electronic funds transfer, following the procedures of the awarding agency.

(d) Reimbursement. (1) Reimbursement is the preferred method when the requirements in paragraph (b) of this section are not met.

(i) Each recipient shall submit requests for reimbursement in accordance with the provisions at 31 CFR part 205.

(ii) Each subrecipient shall submit requests for reimbursement in accordance with requirements established by the awarding agency.

(2) Each subrecipient shall be paid as promptly as possible after receipt of a proper request for reimbursement.

(e) Working capital advance payments. If a subrecipient cannot meet the criteria for advance payments described in paragraph (b) of this section, and the awarding agency has determined that reimbursement is not feasible because the subrecipient lacks sufficient working capital, the awarding agency may provide cash on a working capital advance payment basis. Under this procedure, the awarding agency shall advance cash to the subrecipient to cover its estimated disbursement needs for an initial period, generally geared to the subrecipient's disbursing cycle. In no event may such an advance exceed 20 percent of the award amount. Thereafter, the awarding agency shall reimburse the subrecipient for its actual cash disbursements. The working capital advance method of payment shall not be used by recipients or subrecipients if the reason for using such method is the unwillingness or inability of the recipient or subrecipient to provide timely advances to the subrecipient to meet the subrecipient's actual cash disbursements.

(f) Effect of program income, refunds, and audit recoveries on payment. Each recipient and subrecipient shall disburse cash received as a result of program income, rebates, refunds, contract settlements, audit recoveries, and interest earned on such funds before requesting additional cash payments.

(g) Cash depositories. (1) Consistent with the national goal of expanding the opportunities for minority business enterprises, each recipient and subrecipient is encouraged to use minority-owned banks (a bank which is at least 50 percent owned by minority group members). Additional information may be obtained from the Minority Business Development Agency, Department of Commerce, Washington, DC 20230.

(2) A recipient or subrecipient shall not be required to maintain a separate bank account but shall separately account for Federal funds on deposit.

(h) Interest earned on advances. (1) An interest liability shall accrue on advance payments between Federal agencies and State governments, as provided by the Cash Management Improvement Act (31 U.S.C. 6501, et seq.) and implementing regulations at 31 CFR part 205.

(2) Each recipient and subrecipient shall account for interest earned on advances of Federal funds as program income, as provided at § 627.450 of this part, Program income.

§ 627.435 Cost principles and allowable costs.

(a) General. To be allowable, a cost shall be necessary and reasonable for the proper and efficient administration of the program, be allocable to the program, and, except as provided herein, not be a general expense required to carry out the overall responsibilities of the Governor or a governmental subrecipient. Costs charged to the program shall be accorded consistent treatment through application of generally accepted accounting principles appropriate to the JTPA program, as determined by the Governor.

(b) Whether a cost is charged as a direct cost or as an indirect cost shall be determined in accordance with the descriptions of direct and indirect costs contained in the OMB Circulars identified in DOL's regulations at 29 CFR 97.22(b).

(c) Costs allocable to another Federal grant, JTPA program, or cost category may not be shifted to a JTPA grant, subgrant, program, or cost category to overcome fund deficiencies, avoid restrictions imposed by law or grant agreements, or for other reasons.

(d) Applicable credits such as rebates, discounts, refunds, and overpayment adjustments, as well as interest earned on any of them, shall be credited as a reduction of costs if received during the same funding period that the cost was initially charged. Credits received after the funding period shall be returned to the Department as provided for at § 627.490(b).

(e) The following costs are not allowable charges to the JTPA program:

(1) Costs of fines and penalties resulting from violations of, or failure to comply with, Federal, State, or local laws and regulations;

(2) Back pay, unless it represents additional pay for JTPA services performed for which the individual was underpaid;

(3) Entertainment costs;

(4) Bad debts expense;

(5) Insurance policies offering protection against debts established by the Federal Government;

(6) Contributions to a contingency reserve or any similar provision for unforeseen events;

(7) Costs prohibited by 29 CFR part 93 (Lobbying Restrictions) or costs of any salaries or expenses related to any activity designed to influence legislation or appropriations pending before the Congress of the United States; and

(8) Costs of activities prohibited in § 627.205, Public service employment

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 627.440

prohibition; § 627.210, Nondiscrimination and nonsectarian activities; § 627.215, Relocation; § 627.225, Employment generating activities; and § 627.230, Displacement, of this part.

(f)(1) The cost of legal expenses required in the administration of grant programs is allowable. Legal expenses include the expenses incurred by the JTPA system in the establishment and maintenance of a grievance system, including the costs of hearings and appeals, and related expenses such as lawyers' fees. Legal expenses does not include costs resulting from, and after, the grievance process such as fines and penalties, which are not allowable, and settlement costs, which are allowable to the extent that such costs included in the settlement would have been allowable if charged to the JTPA program at the time they were incurred.

(2) Legal services furnished by the chief legal officer of a State or local government or staff solely for the purpose of discharging general responsibilities as a legal officer are unallowable.

(3) Legal expenses for the prosecution of claims against the Federal Government, including appeals to an Administrative Law Judge, are unallowable.

(g) Costs of travel and incidental expenses incurred by volunteers are allowable provided such costs are incurred for activities that are generally consistent with section 204(c)(6) of the Act.

(h) Contributions to a reserve for a self-insurance program, to the extent that the type and extent of coverage and the rates and premiums would have been allowed had insurance been purchased to cover the risks, are allowable.

(i) The Governor shall prescribe and implement guidelines on allowable costs for SDA, SSG, and statewide programs that are consistent with the cost principles and allowable costs provisions of paragraphs (a) through (h) of this section and that include, at a minimum, provisions that specify the extent to which the following cost items are allowable or unallowable JTPA costs and, if allowable, guidelines on conditions or the extent of allowability, documentation requirements, and any prior approval requirements applicable to such cost items:

(1) Compensation for personal services of staff, including wages, salaries, supplementary compensation, and fringe benefits;

(2) Costs incurred by the SJTCC, HRIC, PIC's, and other advisory councils or committees;

(3) Advertising costs;

(4) Depreciation and/or use allowances;

(5) Printing and reproduction costs;

(6) Interest expense;

(7) Expenditures for transportation and travel;

(8) Payments to OJT employers, training institutions, and other vendors;

(9) Fees or profits;

(10) Insurance costs, including insurance coverage for injuries suffered by participants who are not covered by existing workers' compensation, and personal liability insurance for PIC members;

(11) Acquisitions of capital assets;

(12) Building space costs, including rent, repairs, and alterations;

(13) Pre-agreement costs;

(14) Fund-raising activities;

(15) Professional services, including organizational management studies conducted by outside individuals or firms; and

(16) Taxes.

§ 627.440 Classification of costs.

(a) Allowable costs for programs under title II and title III shall be charged (allocated) to a particular cost objective/category to the extent that benefits are received by such cost objective/category. Joint and similar types of costs may be charged initially to a cost pool used for the accumulation of such costs pending distribution in due course to the ultimate benefiting cost objective/category. The classification of costs for programs under title III of the Act are set forth at § 631.13 of this chapter, Classification of costs at State and substate levels.

(b) For State-administered programs under Title II, the State is required to plan, control, and charge expenditures against the following cost objectives/categories:

(1) Titles II-A and II-C (combined)—capacity building and technical assistance (sections 202(c)(1)(B) and 262(c)(1)(B) of the Act to carry out activities pursuant to sections 202(c)(3)(A) and 262(c)(3)(A) of the Act);

(2) Titles II–A and II–C (combined)—8 percent coordination (sections 202(c)(1)(C) and 262(c)(1)(C) of the Act to carry out activities pursuant to section 123(d)(2)(A) of the Act);

(3) Titles II–A and II–C (combined)—8 percent services/direct training (sections 202(c)(1)(C) and 262(c)(1)(C) of the Act to carry out activities pursuant to section 123(d)(2)(B) of the Act);

(4) Titles II–A and II–C (combined)—8 percent services/training-related and supportive services (sections 202(c)(1)(C) and 262(c)(1)(C) of the Act to carry out activities pursuant to section 123(d)(2)(B) of the Act);

(5) Titles II–A and II–C (combined)—8 percent services/administration (sections 202(c)(1)(C) and 262(c)(1)(C) of the Act to carry out activities pursuant to section 123(d)(2)(B) of the Act);

(6) Titles II–A and II–C (combined)—8 percent services to disadvantaged (section 202(c)(1)(C) and 262(c)(1)(C) of the Act to carry out activities pursuant to section 123(d)(2)(C) of the Act);

(7) Title II–A—older individuals/direct training (section 202(c)(1)(D) of the Act to carry out activities pursuant to section 204(d) of the Act);

(8) Title II–A—older individuals/training-related and supportive services (section 202(c)(1)(D) of the Act to carry out activities pursuant to section 204(d) of the Act);

(9) Title II–A—older individuals/administration (section 202(c)(1)(D) of the Act to carry out activities pursuant to section 204(d) of the Act); and

(10) Title II—administration (sections 202(c)(1)(A) and 262(c)(1)(A) of the Act to carry out activities pursuant to Title II of the Act, including Title II–B).

(c)(1) SDA grant recipients and their subrecipients shall plan, control, and charge expenditures, excluding incentive funds received pursuant to sections 202(c)(1)(B) and 262(c)(1)(B) of the Act, against the following cost objectives/categories:

(i) Title II–A—direct training services;

(ii) Title II–C—direct training services;

(iii) Title II–A—training-related and supportive services;

(iv) Title II–C—training-related and supportive services;

(v) Title II–B—training and supportive services;

(vi) Title II–A—administration;

(vii) Title II–B—administration; and (viii) Title II–C—administration.

(2) Incentive funds received pursuant to sections 202(c)(1)(B) and 262(c)(1)(B) of the Act, may be combined and accounted for in total, without regard to cost categories or cost limitations.

(d) States and subrecipients shall use the following definitions in assigning costs to the cost categories contained in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section:

(1) Direct training services—title II–A. Costs for direct training services that may be charged to the title II–A program are:

(i) The personnel and non-personnel costs directly related to providing those services to participants specified in section 204(b)(1) of the Act and which can be specifically identified with one or more of those services. Generally, such costs are limited to:

(A) Salaries, fringe benefits, equipment, supplies, space, staff training, transportation, and other related costs of personnel directly engaged in providing training; and

(B) Salaries, fringe benefits, and related non-personnel costs of program component supervisors and/or coordinators as well as clerical staff, provided such staff work exclusively on activities or functions specified in section 204(b)(1) of the Act or allocations of such costs are made based on actual time worked or other equitable cost allocation methods;

(ii) Books, instructional materials, and other teaching aids used by or for participants;

(iii) Equipment and materials used in providing training to participants;

(iv) Classroom space and utility costs;

(v) Costs of insurance coverage of participants as specified at § 627.315(b) of this part, Benefits and Working Conditions;

(vi) Payments to vendors for goods or services procured for the use or benefit of program participants for direct training services, including:

(A) Payments for commercially available training packages purchased competitively pursuant to section 141(d)(3) of the Act;

(B) Tuition charges, entrance fees, and other usual and customary fees of an educational institution when such tuition charges, entrance fees, or other fees are not more than the educational institution's catalogue price, necessary to receive specific training, charged to the general public to receive the same training, and are for training of participants; and

(C) Payments to OJT employers, but not brokering contractors. Costs incurred under brokering arrangements shall be allocated to all of the benefitting cost categories, and

(vii) Payments to JTPA participants that represent hours spent in a direct training activity (e.g., wages, work-based training payments, training payments for combined activities), including work experience, vocational exploration, limited internships, and entry employment.

(2) Direct training services—title II-C. Costs for direct training services that may be charged to the title II-C program are the costs identified in paragraph (d)(1) of this section as well as costs directly related to providing those services to participants specified in section 264(c)(1) of the Act and which can be specifically identified with one or more of those services.

(3) Training-related and supportive services—title II-A. Costs for training-related and supportive services that may be charged to the title II-A program are:

(i) The personnel and non-personnel costs directly related to providing outreach, intake, and eligibility determination, as well as those services to participants specified in section 204(b)(2) of the Act, and which can be specifically identified with one or more of those services. Generally, such costs are limited to:

(A) Salaries, fringe benefits, equipment, supplies, space, staff training, transportation, and other related costs of personnel directly engaged in providing training-related and/or supportive services; and

(B) Salaries, fringe benefits, and related non-personnel costs of program component supervisors and/or coordinators as well as clerical staff, provided such staff work exclusively on activities or functions specified in section 204(b)(2) of the Act or allocations of such costs are made based on actual time worked or another equitable allocation method.

(ii) Needs-based payments, cash incentives and bonuses, other financial assistance and supportive services to participants and applicants, where applicable.

(4) Training-related and supportive services—title II-C. Costs for training-related and supportive services that may be charged to the title II-C program are the costs identified in paragraph (d)(3) of this section, as well as costs directly related to providing those services to participants specified in section 264(c)(2) of the Act and which can be specifically identified with one or more of those services.

(5) Administration. The costs of administration are those portions of necessary and allowable costs associated with the overall management and administration of the JTPA program and which are not directly related to the provision of services to participants or otherwise allocable to the program cost objectives/categories in paragraphs (b)(1)–(8) or (c)(1) (i)–(v) of this section. These costs can be both personnel and non-personnel and both direct and indirect. Costs of administration shall include:

(i) Except as provided in paragraph (e)(1) of this section, costs of salaries, wages, and related costs of the recipient's or subrecipient's staff or PIC staff engaged in:

(A) Overall program management, program coordination, and general administrative functions, including the salaries and related costs of the executive director, JTPA director, project director, personnel officer, fiscal officer/bookkeeper, purchasing officer, secretary, payroll/insurance/property clerk and other costs associated with carrying out administrative functions;

(B) Preparing program plans, budgets, schedules, and amendments thereto;

§ 627.445

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(C) Monitoring of programs, projects, subrecipients, and related systems and processes;

(D) Procurement activities, including the award of specific subgrants, contracts, and purchase orders;

(E) Providing State or local officials and the general public with information about the program (public relations);

(F) Developing systems and procedures, including management information systems, for assuring compliance with program requirements;

(G) Preparing reports and other documents related to the program requirements;

(H) Coordinating the resolution of audit findings;

(I) Evaluating program results against stated objectives; and

(J) Performing such administrative services as general legal services, accounting services, audit services; and managing purchasing, property, payroll, and personnel;

(i) Costs for goods and services required for administration of the program, including such goods and services as rental or purchase of equipment, utilities, office supplies, postage, and rental and maintenance of office space;

(iii) The costs of organization-wide management functions; and

(iv) Travel costs incurred for official business in carrying out program management or administrative activities, including travel costs incurred by PIC members.

(e) Other cost classification guidance.

(1) Personnel and related non-personnel costs of the recipient's or subrecipient's staff, including project directors, who perform services or activities that benefit two or more of the cost objectives/categories identified in this section may be allocated to the benefiting cost objectives/categories based on documented distributions of actual time worked or other equitable cost allocation methods.

(2) Indirect or overhead costs normally shall be charged to administration, except that specific costs charged to an overhead or indirect cost pool that can be identified directly with a JTPA cost objective/category other than administration may be charged to the JTPA cost objective/category directly benefitted. Documentation of such charges shall be maintained.

(3) Where an award to a subrecipient is for a "commercially available off-the-shelf training package," as defined at § 626.5 of this chapter, the subrecipient may charge all costs of such package to the direct training services cost category.

(4) Profits, fees, and other revenues earned by a subrecipient that are in excess of actual costs incurred, to the extent allowable and consistent with the guidelines on allowable costs prescribed by the Governor in accordance with § 627.435(i). Cost principles and allowable costs, may be allocated to all three cost categories based on the proportionate share of actual costs incurred attributable to each category.

§ 627.445 Limitations on certain costs.

(a) State-administered programs—(1) Services for older individuals. Of the funds allocated for any program year for section 202(c)(1)(D) of the Act to carry out activities pursuant to section 204(d) of the Act—

(i) Not less than 50 percent shall be expended for the cost of direct training services; and

(ii) Not more than 20 percent shall be expended for the cost of administration.

(2) State education services. Of the funds allocated for any program year for sections 202(c)(1)(C) and 262(c)(1)(C) of the Act to carry out activities pursuant to section 123(d)(2)(B) of the Act—

(i) Not less than 50 percent shall be expended for the cost of direct training services; and

(ii) Not more than 20 percent shall be expended for the cost of administration.

(3) The limitations specified in paragraph (a)(2) of this section shall apply to the combined total of funds allocated for sections 202(c)(1)(C) and 262(c)(1)(C) of the Act.

(b) SDA allocations. (1) In applying the title II-A and II-C cost limitations specified in section 108(b)(4) of the Act, the funds allocated to a service delivery area shall be net of any:

(i) Transfers made in accordance with sections 206, 256, and 266 of the Act; and

(ii) Reallocations made by the Governor in accordance with section 109(a) of the Act.

(2) The limitations specified in paragraph (b)(1) of this section shall apply separately to the funds allocated for title II-A and title II-C programs.

(3) The title II-B administrative cost limitation of 15 percent shall be 15 percent of the funds allocated for any program year to a service delivery area, excluding any funds transferred to title II-C in accordance with section 256 of the Act (section 253(a)(3)).

(c)(1) The State shall establish a system to regularly assess compliance with the cost limitations including periodic review and corrective action, as necessary.

(2) States and service delivery areas shall have the 3-year period of fund availability to comply with the cost limitations in section 108 of the Act and paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section (section 161(b)).

(d) Administrative costs incurred by a community-based organization or non-profit service provider shall not be included in the limitation described in section 108(b)(4)(A) of the Act if:

(1) Such costs are incurred under an agreement that meets the requirements of section 141(d)(3)(C) (i) and (ii) of the Act;

(2) The total administrative expenditures of the service delivery area, including the administrative expenditures of such community-based organizations or non-profit service providers, do not exceed 25 percent of the funds allocated to the service delivery area for the program year of allocation; and

(3) The total direct training expenditures of the service delivery area, including the direct training expenditures of such community-based organizations or non-profit service providers, is equal to or exceeds 50 percent of the funds allocated to the service delivery area for the program year less one-half of the percentage by which the total administrative expenditures of the service delivery area exceeds 20 percent. For example, if the total administrative expenditures of the service delivery area is 24 percent, then the total direct training expenditures of the service delivery area must be at least 48 percent.

(e) The provisions of this section do not apply to any title III programs.

(f) The provisions of this section do not apply to any designated SDA which served as a concentrated employment program grantee for a rural area under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (section 108(d)).

§ 627.450 Program income.

(a) Definition of program income. (1) Program income means income received by the recipient or subrecipient that is directly generated by a grant or subgrant supported activity, or earned only as a result of the grant or subgrant. Program income includes:

(i) Income from fees for services performed and from conferences;

(ii) Income from the use or rental of real or personal property acquired with grant or subgrant funds;

(iii) Income from the sale of commodities or items fabricated under a grant or subgrant;

(iv) Revenues earned by a governmental or non-profit service provider under either a fixed-price or reimbursable award that are in excess of the actual costs incurred in providing the services; and

(v) Interest income earned on advances of JTPA funds.

(2) Program income does not include:

(i) Rebates, credits, discounts, refunds, etc., or interest earned on any of them, which shall be credited in accordance with § 627.435(d), Cost principles and allowable costs;

(ii) Taxes, special assessments, levies, fines, and other such governmental revenues raised by a recipient or subrecipient; or

(iii) Income from royalties and license fees for copyrighted material, patents, patent applications, trademarks, and inventions developed by a recipient or subrecipient.

(3) Property. Proceeds from the sale of property shall be handled in accordance with the requirements of § 627.465 of this part, Property management standards.

(b) Cost of generating program income. Costs incidental to the generation of program income may be deducted, if not already charged to the grant, from gross income to determine program income.

§ 627.455

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(c) Use of program income. (1)(i) A recipient or subrecipient may retain any program income earned by the recipient or subrecipient only if such income is added to the funds committed to the particular JTPA grant or subgrant and title under which it was earned and such income is used for that title's purposes and under the terms and conditions applicable to the use of the grant funds.

(ii) A State may use interest it earns on JTPA funds, deposited by the United States to the State's account, to satisfy the requirement at 31 U.S.C. 6503(c) that the State pay interest on such deposits.

(iii) The classification of costs in §§ 627.440 and 631.13 shall apply to the use of program income.

(iv) The administrative cost limitation in §§ 627.445 and 631.14 shall apply to the use of program income, except that program income used in accordance with paragraph (c)(1)(ii) of this section shall be exempt from the administrative cost limitations.

(2) Program income generated under title II may also be used to satisfy the matching requirement of section 123(b) of the Act.

(3) Program income shall be used prior to the submission of the final report for the funding period of the program year of funds to which the earnings are attributable.

(4) If the subrecipient that earned program income cannot use such income for JTPA purposes, the recipient may permit another entity to use the program income for JTPA purposes.

(5) Program income not used in accordance with the requirements of this section shall be remitted to the Department of Labor.

(d) Program and other income after the funding period. Rental income and user fees on real and personal property acquired with JTPA funds shall continue to be JTPA program income in subsequent funding periods. There are no Federal requirements governing the disposition of all other income that is earned after the end of the funding period.

§ 627.455 Reports required.

(a) General. The Governor shall report to DOL pursuant to instructions issued by DOL. Reports shall be submitted no more frequently than quarterly, in accordance with section 165(f) of the Act, and within 45 calendar days after the end of the report period. Additional reporting requirements for title III are set forth at § 631.15 of this chapter.

(b) A recipient may impose different forms or formats, shorter due dates, and more frequent reporting requirements on subrecipients, however, the recipient is required to meet the reporting requirements imposed on it by DOL.

(c) DOL may provide computer outputs to recipients to expedite or contribute to the accuracy of reporting. DOL may accept the required information from recipients in electronically reported format or computer printouts instead of prescribed forms.

(d) Financial reports. (1) Financial reports for programs under titles I, II, and III shall be submitted to DOL by each State quarterly and by program year of appropriation.

(2) Each recipient shall report program outlays on an accrual basis. If the recipient's accounting records are not normally kept on the accrual basis, the recipient shall develop such accrual information through an analysis of the documentation on hand.

(3) A final financial report is required 90 days after the expiration of a funding period (see § 627.485 of this part, Closeout).

(4) Pursuant to section 104(b)(13) of the Act, the SDA shall annually report to the Governor. Among other items, this report shall include information on the extent to which the SDA has met the goals for the training and training-related placement of women in nontraditional employment.

§ 627.460 Requirements for records.

(a) Records, including the records identified in section 165(g) of the Act, shall be retained in accordance with section 165(e) of the Act. In establishing the time period of record retention requirements for records of subrecipients, the State may either:

(1) Impose the time limitation requirement of section 165(e) of the Act; or

(2) Require that subrecipient records for each funding period be retained for 3 years after the subrecipient submits to the awarding agency its final expenditure report for that funding period. Records for nonexpendable property shall be retained for a period of three years after final disposition of the property.

(b) The Governor shall ensure that the records under this section shall be retained beyond the prescribed period if any litigation or audit is begun or if a claim is instituted involving the grant or agreement covered by the records. In these instances, the Governor shall ensure that the records shall be retained until the litigation, audit, or claim has been finally resolved.

(c) In the event of the termination of the relationship with a subrecipient, the Governor or SDA or title III SSG shall be responsible for the maintenance and retention of the records of any subrecipient unable to retain them.

(d) Record storage. Records shall be retained and stored in a manner which will preserve their integrity and admissibility as evidence in any audit or other proceeding. The burden of production and authentication of the records shall be on the custodian of the records.

(e) Federal and awarding agencies' access to records—(1) Records of recipients and subrecipients. The awarding agency, the Department of Labor (including the Department of Labor's Office of Inspector General), and the Comptroller General of the United States, or any of their authorized representatives, have the right of timely and reasonable access to any books, documents, papers, computer records, or other records of recipients and subrecipients that are pertinent to the grant, in order to conduct audits and examinations, and to make excerpts, transcripts, and photocopies of such documents. This right also includes timely and reasonable access to recipient and subrecipient personnel for the purpose of interview and discussion related to such documents.

(2) Expiration of right of access. The right of access in this section is not limited to the required retention period but shall last as long as the records are retained.

§ 627.463 Public access to records.

(a) Public access. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, records maintained by recipients or subrecipients pursuant to § 627.460 shall be made available to the public upon request, notwithstanding the provisions of State or local law.

(b) Exceptions. This requirement does not apply to:

(1) Information, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; or

(2) Trade secrets, or commercial or financial information, obtained from a person and privileged or confidential.

(c) Fees. For processing of a request for a record under this section, a fee may be charged to the extent sufficient to recover the cost applicable to processing such request (section 165(a)(4)).

§ 627.465 Property management standards.

(a) States and governmental subrecipients. Real property, equipment, supplies, and intangible property acquired or produced after July 1, 1993, by States and governmental subrecipients with JTPA funds shall be governed by the definitions and property requirements in the DOL regulations at 29 CFR part 97, except that prior approval by the Department of Labor to acquire property is waived.

(b) Nongovernmental subrecipients. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, real and personal property, including intangible property, acquired or produced after July 1, 1993, by nongovernmental subrecipients with JTPA funds shall be governed by the definitions and property management standards of OMB Circular A-110, as codified by administrative regulations of the Department of Labor in 29 CFR Part 95, except that prior approval by the Department of Labor to acquire property is waived.

(c) Special provisions for property acquired under subgrants to commercial organizations—(1) Scope. This paragraph (c) applies to real and personal property other than supplies that are acquired or produced after July 1, 1993, under a JTPA subgrant to a commercial organization.

(2) Property acquired by commercial subrecipients. Title to property acquired or produced by a subrecipient that is a commercial organization shall vest in the awarding agency, provided such agency is a governmental entity or nongovernmental organization that is not a commercial organization. Property so acquired or produced shall be considered to be acquired or produced by the awarding agency and paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, as appropriate, shall apply to that property. If the awarding agency is also a commercial organization, title shall vest in the higher level, non-commercial awarding agency that made the subaward to the commercial subrecipient.

(3) Approval for acquisition. A subrecipient that is a commercial organization shall not acquire property subject to this section without the prior approval of the awarding agency.

(d) Notification to the Secretary of real property acquisitions. Recipients shall notify the Secretary immediately upon acquisition of real property with JTPA funds, including acquisitions by subrecipients. Such notification shall include the location of the real property and the Federal share percentage.

(e) Property procured before July 1, 1993. (1) Personal or real property procured with JTPA funds or transferred from programs under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act must be used for purposes authorized by the Act. Subject to the Secretary's rights to such property, the Governor shall maintain accountability for property in accordance with State procedures and the records retention requirements of § 627.460 of this part.

(2) The JTPA program must be reimbursed the fair market value of any unneeded property retained by the Governor for use in a non-JTPA program. The proceeds from the sale of any property or transfer of property to a non-JTPA program must be used for purposes authorized under the Act.

§ 627.470 Performance standards.

(a) General. The Secretary shall prescribe performance standards for adult programs under title II-A, for youth programs under title II-C, for dislocated worker programs under title III, and for older worker programs under section 204(d) of the Act. Any performance standards developed for employment competencies shall be based on such factors as entry level skills and other hiring requirements.

(b) Pursuant to instructions and time lines issued by the Secretary, the Governor shall:

(1) Collect the data necessary to set performance standards pursuant to section 106 of the Act; and

(2) Maintain records and submit reports required by sections 106(j)(3), 165(a)(3), (c)(1), and (d) and 121(b)(6) of the Act.

(c) Title II performance standards. (1) The Governor shall establish SDA performance standards for title II within the parameters set by the Secretary pursuant to sections 106(b) and (d) of the Act and apply the standards in accordance with section 202(c)(1)(B) of the Act.

(2) The Governor shall establish incentive award policies pursuant to section 106(b)(7) of the Act, except for programs operated under section 204(d) of the Act. Pursuant to section 106(b)(8) of the Act, Governors may not consider standards relating gross program expenditures to performance measures in making such incentive awards.

(3) The Governor shall provide technical assistance to SDA's failing to meet performance standards established by the Secretary for a given program year (section 106(j)(2)).

(4)(i) If an SDA fails to meet a prescribed number of the Secretary's performance standards for 2 consecutive years, the Governor shall notify the Secretary and the service delivery area of the continued failure and impose a reorganization plan (section 106(j)(4)).

(ii) The number of standards deemed to constitute failure shall be specified by the Secretary biennially and shall be based on an appropriate proportion of the total number established by the Secretary for that performance cycle. In determining failure, the specified proportion shall be applied separately to each year of the two year cycle.

(iii) A reorganization plan shall not be imposed for a failure to meet performance standards other than those established by the Secretary.

(iv) A reorganization plan shall be considered to be imposed when, at a minimum:

(A) The problem or deficiency is identified,

(B) The problem is communicated to the SDA, and

(C) The SDA is provided an initial statement of the actions or steps required and the timeframe within which they are to be initiated. A final statement of required steps and actions is to be issued within 30 days.

(d)(1) If the Governor does not impose a reorganization plan, required by paragraph (c)(4) of this section, within 90 days of notifying the Grant Officer of an SDA's continued failure to meet performance standards, the Grant Officer shall develop and impose such a plan (section 106(j)(5)).

(2) Before imposing a reorganization plan, the Grant Officer shall notify the Governor and SDA in writing of the intent to impose the plan and provide both parties the opportunity to submit comments within 30 days of receipt of the Grant Officer's notice.

(e) An SDA subject to a reorganization plan under paragraphs (c)(4) or (d) of this section may, within 30 days of receiving notice of such action, appeal to the Secretary to revise or rescind the reorganization plan under the procedures set forth at §627.471 of this subpart, Reorganization plan appeals (section 106(j)(6)(A)).

(f) Secretarial action to recapture or withhold funds. (1) The Grant Officer shall recapture or withhold an amount not to exceed one-fifth of the State administration set-aside allocated under sections 202(c)(1)(A) and 262(c)(1)(A) of the Act when:

(i) The Governor has failed to impose a reorganization plan under paragraph (c)(4) of this section, for the purposes of providing technical assistance under a reorganization plan imposed by the Secretary (section 106(j)(5)(B)); or

(ii) The Secretary determines in an appeal provided for at paragraph (e) of this section, and set forth at §627.471 of this subpart, that the Governor has not provided appropriate technical assistance as required at section 106(j)(2) (section 106(j)(6)(B)).

(2)(i) A Governor of a State that is subject to recapture or withholding under paragraph (f)(1) of this section may, within 30 days of receipt of such notice, appeal such recapture or withholding to the Secretary.

(ii) The Secretary may consider any comments submitted by the Governor and shall make a decision within 45 days after the appeal is received.

(g) Title III performance standards. (1) The Governor shall establish SSG performance standards for programs under title III within the parameters set annually by the Secretary pursuant to section 106(c) and (d) of the Act.

(2) Any performance standard for programs under title III shall make appropriate allowances for the difference in cost resulting from serving workers receiving needs-related payments authorized under §631.20 of this chapter (section 106(c)(2)).

(3) The Secretary annually shall certify compliance, if the program is in compliance, with the title III performance standards established pursuant to paragraph (a) of section 322(a)(4) of the Act.

(4) The Governor shall not establish standards for the operation of programs under title III that are inconsistent with the performance standards established by the Secretary under provisions of section 106(c) of the Act (section 311(b)(8)).

(5) When an SSG fails to meet performance standards for 2 consecutive years, the Governor may institute procedures pursuant to the Governor's bypass authority in accordance with §631.38(b) of this chapter or require redesignation of the substate grantee in accordance with §631.35 of this chapter, as appropriate.

(a) A reorganization plan imposed by the Governor, as provided for at §§ 627.470(c)(4) or 627.477(b)(2) of this part, or by the Secretary, as provided for at §627.470(d) of this part, may be appealed directly to the Secretary without prior exhaustion of local remedies.

(b)(1) Appeals shall be submitted to the Secretary, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, DC 20210, ATTENTION: ASET. A copy of the appeal shall be provided simultaneously to the Governor.

§ 627.475

(2) The Secretary shall not accept an appeal dated later than 30 days after receipt of written notification from the Governor or the Secretary.

(3) The appealing party shall explain why it believes the decision to impose the reorganization plan is contrary to the provisions of section 106 of the Act.

(4) The Secretary shall accept the appeal and make a decision only with regard to determining whether or not the decision to impose the reorganization plan is inconsistent with section 106 of the Act. The Secretary may consider any comments submitted by the Governor or the SDA, as appropriate. The Secretary shall make a final decision within 60 days after this appeal is received (section 106(j)).

§ 627.475 Oversight and monitoring.

(a) The Secretary may monitor all recipients and subrecipients of financial assistance pursuant to section 163 of the Act.

(b) The Governor is responsible for oversight of all SDA and SSG activities and State-supported programs. The Governor shall develop and make available for review a State monitoring plan. The plan shall specify the mechanism which:

(1) Ensures that established policies to achieve program quality and outcomes meet the objectives of the Act and regulations promulgated thereunder;

(2) Enables the Governor to determine if SDA's and SSG's have demonstrated substantial compliance with the requirements for oversight;

(3) Determines whether the Job Training Plan shall be disapproved consistent with the criteria contained in section 105(b)(1) of the Act;

(4) Regularly examines expenditures against the cost categories and cost limitations specified in the Act and these regulations;

(5) Ensures that all areas of SDA and SSG operations are monitored onsite regularly, but not less than once annually; and

(6) Provides for corrective action to be imposed if conditions in paragraphs (b)(1)–(4) of this section are not met.

(c) The Governor shall issue instructions to SDA's and title III SSG's on the development of a substate monitoring plan. The instructions for development of the monitoring plan, at a minimum, shall address the monitoring scope and frequency, and the Secretary's emphasis and direction. The substate monitoring plan shall be part of the job training plan.

20 CFR Ch. V (4–1–03 Edition)

(d) The Governor shall establish general standards for PIC oversight responsibilities. The required PIC standards shall be included in the Governor's Coordination and Special Services Plan (GCSSP).

(e)(1) The PIC, pursuant to standards established by the Governor, shall establish specific policies for monitoring and oversight of SDA performance which shall be described in the job training plan.

(2) The PIC shall exercise independent oversight over activities under the job training plan which shall not be circumscribed by agreements with the appropriate chief elected official(s) of the SDA.

(f) The PIC and chief elected official(s) may conduct such oversight as they, individually or jointly, deem necessary or delegate oversight responsibilities to an appropriate entity pursuant to their mutual agreement.

§ 627.477 Governor's determination of substantial violation.

(a) Except as provided at paragraph (d) of this section, if, as a result of financial and compliance audits or otherwise, the Governor determines that there is a substantial violation of a specific provision of this Act or the regulations under this Act, and corrective action has not been taken, the Governor shall

(1) Issue a notice of intent to revoke approval of all or part of the plan affected; or

(2) Impose a reorganization plan, which may include

(i) Restructuring the private industry council involved;

(ii) Prohibiting the use of designated service providers;

(iii) Selecting an alternative entity to administer the program for the service delivery area involved;

(iv) Merging the service delivery area into 1 or more other existing service delivery areas; or

(v) Other such changes as the Secretary or Governor determines necessary to secure compliance (section 164(b)(1)).

(b)(1) The actions taken by the Governor pursuant to paragraph (a)(1) of this section may be appealed to the Secretary as provided at § 628.426 of this chapter (section 164(b)(2)(A)).

(2) The actions taken by the Governor pursuant to paragraph (a)(2) of this section may be appealed to the Secretary, as provided at § 627.471 of this part (section 164(b)(2)(B)).

(c) Allegations that the Governor failed to promptly take the actions required under paragraph (a) of this section shall be handled under § 627.607 of this part (section 164(b)(3)).

(d) This section does not apply to remedial actions for SDA failures to meet performance standards, which are provided for at § 627.470 of this part, and do not apply to remedial actions for the failure to comply with procurement standards, which are provided for at § 627.703 of this part.

§ 627.480 Audits.

(a) Non-Federal Audits—(1) Governments. Each recipient and governmental subrecipient is responsible for complying with the Single Audit Act of 1984 (31 U.S.C. 7501-7) and 29 CFR part 96, the Department of Labor regulations which implement Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-128, “Audits of State and Local Governments”.

(2) Non-governmental organizations. Each non-governmental recipient or subrecipient shall comply with OMB Circular A-133, “Audits of Institutions of Higher Education and Other Non-profit Institutions”, as implemented by the Department of Labor regulations at 29 CFR part 96. The provisions of this paragraph (a)(2) do not apply to any non-governmental organization that is:

- (i) A commercial organization; or
- (ii) A hospital or an institution of higher education for which State or local governments choose to apply OMB Circular A-128.

(3) Commercial organizations. A commercial organization which is a recipient or subrecipient and which receives $25,000 or more a year in Federal financial assistance to operate a JTPA program shall have an audit that:

(i) Is usually performed annually, but not less frequently than every two years;

(ii) Is completed within one year after the end of the period covered by the audit and submitted to the awarding agency within one month after completion;

(iii) Is either:

(A) An independent financial and compliance audit of Federal funds that includes coverage of the JTPA program within its scope, and is conducted and prepared in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards; or

(B) An organization-wide audit that includes financial and compliance coverage of the JTPA program within its scope.

(b) Federal audits. The notice of audits conducted or arranged by the Office of Inspector General or the Comptroller General shall be provided in advance, as required by section 165(b) of the Act.

(c) Audit reports. (1) Audit reports of recipient-level entities and other organizations which receive JTPA funds directly from the U.S. Department of Labor shall be submitted to the Office of Inspector General.

(2) Audit reports of organizations other than those described in paragraph (c)(1) of this section shall be submitted to the entity which provided the JTPA funds.

(d) Each entity that receives JTPA program funds and awards a portion of those funds to one or more subrecipients shall:

(1) Ensure that each subrecipient complies with the applicable audit requirements;

(2) Resolve all audit findings that impact the JTPA program with its subrecipient and ensure that corrective action for all such findings is instituted within 6 months after receipt of the audit report (where appropriate, corrective action shall include debt collection action for all disallowed costs); and

(3) Maintain an audit resolution file documenting the disposition of reported questioned costs and corrective actions taken for all findings. The ETA

Grant Officer may request that an audit resolution report, as specified in paragraph (e)(2) of this section, be submitted for such audits or may have the audit resolution reviewed through the compliance review process.

(e)(1) Audits of recipient-level entities and other organizations which receive JTPA funds directly from DOL and all audits conducted by or under contract for the Office of Inspector General shall be issued by the OIG to the Employment and Training Administration after acceptance by OIG.

(2) After receipt of the audit report, the ETA Grant Officer shall request that the State submit an audit resolution report documenting the disposition of the reported questioned costs, i.e., whether allowed or disallowed, the basis for allowing questioned costs, the method of repayment planned or required, and corrective actions, including debt collection efforts, taken or planned.

(f) If the recipient intends to propose the use of “stand-in” costs as substitutes for otherwise unallowable costs, the proposal shall be included with the audit resolution report. To be considered, the proposed “stand-in” costs shall have been reported as uncharged JTPA program costs, included within the scope of the audit, and accounted for in the auditee’s financial system, as required by § 627.425 of this part, Standards for financial management and participant data systems. To be accepted, stand-in costs shall be from the same title, and program year as the costs which they are proposed to replace, and shall not result in a violation of the applicable cost limitations.

(g) After receiving the audit resolution report, the ETA Grant Officer shall review the report, the recipient’s disposition, and any liability waiver request submitted in accordance with § 627.704 of this part. If the Grant Officer agrees with all aspects of the recipient’s disposition of the audit, the Grant Officer shall so notify the recipient. If the Grant Officer disagrees with the recipient’s conclusion on specific points in the audit, the Grant Officer shall resolve the audit through the initial and final determination process described in § 627.606 of this part.

§ 627.481 Audit resolution.

(a) Federal audit resolution. When the OIG issues an audit report to the Employment and Training Administration for resolution, the ETA Grant Officer shall provide a copy of the report to the recipient (if it does not already have the report), along with a request that the recipient submit its audit resolution report as specified in § 627.480(e)(2) of this part, unless the Grant Officer chooses to proceed directly against the recipient pursuant to § 627.601 of this part.

(1) For audits of recipient-level entities and other organizations which receive JTPA funds directly from DOL, the Grant Officer shall request that the audit resolution report be submitted within 60 days from the date that the audit report is issued by the OIG.

(2) For audits of subrecipient organizations, the Grant Officer shall provide the recipient with a 180-day period within which to resolve the audit with its subrecipient(s), and shall request that the audit resolution report be submitted at the end of that 180-day period.

(b) After receiving the audit resolution report, the ETA Grant Officer shall review the report, the recipient’s disposition, any liability waiver request, and any proposed “stand-in” costs. If the Grant Officer agrees with all aspects of the recipient’s disposition of the audit, the Grant Officer shall so notify the recipient, constituting final agency action on the audit. If the Grant Officer disagrees with the recipient’s conclusion on specific points in the audit, or if the recipient fails to submit its audit resolution report, the Grant Officer shall resolve the audit through the initial and final determination process described in § 627.606 of this part. Normally, the Grant Officer’s notification of agreement (a concurrence letter) or disagreement (an initial determination) with the recipient’s audit resolution report will be provided within 180 days of the Grant Officer’s receipt of the report.

(c) Non-Federal audit resolution. (1) To ensure timely and appropriate resolution for audits of all subrecipients, including SDA grant recipients and title III SSG’s, and to ensure recipient-wide consistency, the Governor shall prescribe standards for audit resolution and debt collection policies and procedures that shall be included in each job training plan in accordance with section 104(b)(12) of the Act.

(2) The Governor shall prescribe an appeals procedure for audit resolution disputes which, at a minimum, provides for:

- (i) The period of time, not less than 15 days nor more than 30 days, after the issuance of the final determination in which an appeal may be filed;
- (ii) The rules of procedure;
- (iii) Timely submission of evidence;
- (iv) The timing of decisions; and
- (v) Further appeal rights, if any.

§ 627.485 Closeout.

(a) General. The Grant Officer shall close out each annual JTPA grant agreement within a timely period after the funding period covered by the award has expired.

(b) Revisions to the reported expenditures for a program year of funds may be made until 90 days after the time limitation for expenditure of JTPA funds, as set forth in section 161(b) of the Act, has expired. The Grant Officer may extend this deadline if the recipient submits a written request with justification. After that time, the Grant Officer shall consider all reports received as final and no additional revisions may be made.

(c) When closing out a JTPA grant, the Grant Officer shall notify the recipient, by certified mail, that, since the time limitation for expenditure of funds covered by the grant award has expired, it is the Department of Labor's intent to close the annual grant as follows:

(1) Cost adjustment. Based on receipt of reports in paragraph (b) of this section, the Grant Officer shall make upward or downward adjustments to the allowable costs; and

(2) Cash adjustment. DOL shall make prompt payment to the recipient for allowable reimbursable costs; the recipient shall promptly refund to DOL any balance of cash advanced that is in excess of allowable costs for the grant award being closed.

(d) The recipient shall have an additional 60 days after the date of the notice described in paragraph (c) of this section in which to provide the Grant Officer with information as to the reason(s) why closeout should not occur.

(e) At the end of the 60-day period described in paragraph (d) of this section, the Grant Officer shall notify the recipient that closeout has occurred, unless information provided by the recipient, pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, indicates otherwise.

§ 627.490 Later disallowances and adjustments after closeout.

The closeout of a grant does not affect:

(a) The Grant Officer's right to disallow costs and recover funds on the basis of a later audit or other review;

(b) The recipient's obligation to return any funds due as a result of later refunds, corrections, subrecipient audit disallowances, or other transactions;

(c) Records retention requirements in § 627.460 of this part, Requirements for records, and § 627.463 of this part, Public access to records;

(d) Property management requirements in § 627.465 of this part, Property management standards; and

(e) Audit and audit resolution requirements in § 627.480 of this part, Audits and § 627.481 of this part, Audit resolution.

§ 627.495 Collection of amounts due.

(a) Any funds paid to a recipient in excess of the amount to which the recipient is finally determined to be entitled under the terms of the grant constitute a debt to the Federal Government. If not paid within a reasonable period after demand, the Secretary may take any actions permitted by law to recover the funds.

(b) The Secretary shall charge interest on an overdue debt in accordance with the Federal Claims Collection Standards (4 CFR ch. II).

Subpart E—Grievances Procedures at the State and Local Level

§ 627.500 Scope and purpose.

(a) General. This subpart establishes the procedures which apply to the handling of noncriminal complaints under the Act at the Governor, the SDA, and the SSG levels. Nothing contained in this subpart shall be deemed to prejudice the separate exercise of other legal rights in pursuit of remedies and sanctions available outside the Act.

(b) Handling of discrimination complaints. Complaints of discrimination pursuant to section 167(a) of the Act shall be handled under 29 CFR part 34.

(c) Complaints and reports of criminal fraud, waste, and abuse. Information and complaints involving criminal fraud, waste, abuse or other criminal activity shall be reported through the Department's Incident Reporting System, directly and immediately to the DOL Office of Inspector General, Office of Investigations, 200 Constitution Avenue NW., Room S5514, Washington, DC 20210, or to the corresponding Regional Inspector General for Investigations, with a copy simultaneously provided to the Employment and Training Administration. The Hotline number is 1-800-347-3756. Other complaints of a non-criminal nature will continue to be handled under the procedures set forth in this part, subparts E and F, and through the Department's Incident Reporting System.

(d) Non-JTPA remedies. Whenever any person, organization, or agency believes that a recipient, an SDA, an SSG, or other subrecipient has engaged in conduct that violates the Act and that such conduct also violates a Federal statute other than JTPA, or a State or local law, that person, organization, or agency may, with respect to the non-JTPA cause of action, institute a civil action or pursue other remedies authorized under such other Federal, State, or local law against the recipient, the SDA, the SSG, or other subrecipient, without first exhausting the remedies in this subpart. Nothing in the Act or this chapter shall:

(1) Allow any person or organization to file a suit which alleges a violation of JTPA or regulations promulgated thereunder without first exhausting the administrative remedies described in this subpart; or

(2) Be construed to create a private right of action with respect to alleged violations of JTPA or the regulations promulgated thereunder.

§ 627.501 State grievance and hearing procedures for noncriminal complaints at the recipient level.

(a)(1) Each recipient shall maintain a recipient-level grievance procedure and shall ensure the establishment of procedures at the SDA level and the SSG level for resolving any complaint alleging a violation of the Act, regulations promulgated thereunder, grants, or other agreements under the Act. The procedures shall include procedures for handling complaints and grievances arising in connection with JTPA programs operated by each SDA, SSG, and subrecipient under the Act (section 144(a)).

(2) The procedures described in paragraph (a)(1) of this section shall also provide for resolution of complaints arising from actions taken by the recipient with respect to investigations or monitoring reports.

(b) The recipient's grievance hearing procedure shall require written notice to interested parties of the date, time, and place of the hearing; an opportunity to present evidence; and a written decision. For matters under paragraph (a)(2) of this section, the notice of hearing shall indicate the nature of the violation(s) which the hearing covers.

§ 627.502 Grievance and hearing procedures for noncriminal complaints at the SDA and SSG levels.

(a) Each SDA and SSG, pursuant to guidelines established by the recipient, shall establish procedures for resolving complaints and grievances arising in connection with JTPA programs operated by the SDA, the SSG, and other subrecipients under the Act. The procedures also shall provide for resolution of complaints arising from actions taken by the SDA or the SSG with respect to investigations or monitoring reports of their subgrantees, contractors, and other subrecipients (section 144(a)).

(b) Each SDA and SSG grievance hearing procedure shall include written notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing; an opportunity to present evidence; a written decision; and a notice of appeal rights.

(c) The SDA and SSG procedures shall provide for a decision within 60 days of the filing of the complaint.

§ 627.503 Recipient-level review.

(a) If a complainant does not receive a decision at the SDA or the SSG level within 60 days of filing the complaint or receives a decision unsatisfactory to the complainant, the complainant shall have the right to request a review of the complaint by the recipient. The recipient shall issue a decision within 30 days of receipt of the complaint.

(b) The recipient shall also provide for an independent review, by a reviewer who is independent of the JTPA program, of a complaint initially filed at the recipient level on which a decision was not issued within 60 days of receipt of a complaint or on which the complainant has received an adverse decision. A decision shall be made within 30 days of receipt by the recipient.

(c) A request for review under the provisions of paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section shall be filed within 10 days of receipt of the adverse decision or, if no timely decision is rendered, within 15 days from the date on which the complainant should have received a timely decision.

(d) With the exception of complaints alleging violations of the labor standards under section 143 of the Act, the recipient's decision is final unless the Secretary exercises the authority for Federal-level review in accordance with the provisions at § 627.601 of this part. Complaints and grievances at the Federal level. Complaints alleging violations of section 143 of the Act shall be handled under the procedures set forth at § 627.603 of this part, special handling of labor standards violations under section 143.

§ 627.504 Noncriminal grievance procedure at employer level.

(a) Recipients, SDA's, SSG's, and other subrecipients shall assure that other employers, including private-for-profit employers of participants under the Act, have a grievance procedure relating to the terms and conditions of employment available to their participants (section 144(b)).

(b)(1) Employers under paragraph (a) of this section may operate their own grievance system or may utilize the grievance system established by the recipient, the SDA, or the SSG under this subpart, except as provided for in paragraph (b)(2) of this section. Employers shall inform participants of the grievance procedures they are to follow when the participant begins employment.

(2) If an employer is required to use a certain grievance procedure under a covered collective bargaining agreement, then those procedures should be followed for the handling of JTPA complaints under this section.

(c) An employer grievance system shall provide for, upon request by the complainant, a review of an employer's decision by the SDA, or the SSG and the recipient if necessary, in accordance with §§ 627.501 and 627.502 of this part.

Subpart F—Federal Handling of Noncriminal Complaints and Other Allegations

§ 627.600 Scope and purpose.

(a) This subpart establishes the procedures which apply to the filing, handling, and reviewing of complaints at the Federal level. Nothing in the Act or this chapter shall be construed to allow any person or organization to join or sue the Secretary with respect to the Secretary's responsibilities under JTPA except after exhausting the remedies in subpart E of this part and this subpart F.

(b) Complaints of discrimination pursuant to section 167(a) of the Act shall be handled under 29 CFR part 34.

§ 627.601 Complaints and allegations at the Federal level.

(a) The types of complaints and allegations that may be received at the Federal level for review include:

(1) Complaints for which the recipient has failed to issue a timely decision as required by § 627.503 of this part;

(2) Alleged violations of the Act and/or the regulations promulgated thereunder resulting from Federal, State, and/or SDA and SSG monitoring and oversight reviews;

§ 627.602

(3) Alleged violations of the labor standards provisions at section 143 of the Act;

(4) Alleged violations of the relocation provisions in section 141(c) of the Act; and

(5) Other allegations of violations of the Act or the regulations promulgated thereunder.

(b) Upon receipt of a complaint or allegation alleging any of the violations listed in paragraph (a) of this section, the Secretary may:

(1) Direct the recipient to handle a complaint through local grievance procedures established under § 627.502 of this part; or

(2) Investigate and determine whether the recipient or subrecipient(s) are in compliance with the Act and regulations promulgated thereunder (section 163(b) and (c)).

(3) Allegations of violations of sections 141(c) or 143 of the Act and § 627.503 of this part shall be handled under paragraph (b)(2) of this section.

§ 627.602 Resolution of investigative findings.

(a)(1) As a result of an investigation or monitoring by the Department, or of the actions specified in paragraph (b)(2) of § 627.601 of this part, the Grant Officer shall notify the recipient of the findings of the investigation and shall give the recipient a period of time, not to exceed 60 days, depending on the nature of the findings, to comment and to take appropriate corrective actions.

(2) The Grant Officer shall review the complete file of the investigation and the recipient's actions. The Grant Officer's review shall take into account the sanction provisions of subpart G of this part. If the Grant Officer agrees with the recipient's handling of the situation, the Grant Officer shall so notify the recipient. This notification shall constitute final agency action.

(3) If the Grant Officer disagrees with the recipient's handling of the matter, the Grant Officer shall proceed pursuant to § 627.606 of this part, Grant officer resolution.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 627.603 Special handling of labor standards violations under section 143 of the Act.

(a) A complaint alleging JTPA section 143 violations may be submitted to the Secretary by either party to the complaint when:

(1) The complainant has exhausted the grievance procedures set forth at subpart E of this part, or

(2) The 60-day time period specified for reaching a decision under a procedure set forth at subpart E of this part has elapsed without a decision (section 144(a) and (d)(1)).

(b)(1) The Secretary shall investigate the allegations contained in a complaint alleging violations of JTPA section 143, make a determination whether a violation has occurred, and issue a decision within 120 days of receipt by the Secretary of the complaint (section 144(c) and (d)).

(2) If the results of the Secretary's investigation indicate that a decision by a recipient under a procedure set forth at subpart E of this part requires modification or reversal, or that the 60-day time period for decision under section 144(a) has elapsed, the Secretary shall modify, reverse, or issue such decision.

(3) If the Secretary modifies or reverses a decision made under a procedure set forth at subpart E of this part, or issues a decision where the 60-day time period has elapsed without a decision, the Secretary shall offer an opportunity for a hearing, in accordance with the procedures under section 166 of the Act and subpart H of this part (sections 144(d)(2) and 166(a)).

(4) If the Secretary upholds a recipient's decision, the determination is the final decision of the Secretary (section 144(d)(3)). This decision is not appealable to the Office of Administrative Law Judges.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, remedies available under this section to a grievant for violations of section 143 of the Act shall be limited to:

(1) Suspension or termination of payments under the Act;

(2) Prohibition of placement of a participant, for an appropriate period of time, in a program under the Act with an employer that has violated section 143 of the Act, as determined under section 144(d) or (e) of the Act; and/or

(3) Appropriate equitable relief (other than back pay) (section 144(f)(1)).

(d) Available remedies for violations of section 143(a)(4), (b)(1), (b)(3), and (d) of the Act include the remedies listed in paragraph (c) of this section, and may include the following:

(1) Reinstatement of the grievant to the position held prior to displacement;

(2) Payment of lost wages and benefits; and/or

(3) Reestablishment of other relevant terms, conditions, and privileges of employment.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a grievant from pursuing a remedy authorized under another Federal, State, or local law for a violation of section 143 of the Act (section 144(g)).

§ 627.604 Alternative procedure for handling labor standards violations under section 143 of the Act—binding arbitration.

(a) A person alleging a violation of section 143 of the Act, as an alternative to processing the grievance under a procedure described at section 144 of the Act, may submit the grievance to a binding arbitration procedure, if a collective bargaining agreement covering the parties to the grievance so provides (section 144(e)(1)).

(b) A person electing to have her/his complaint on JTPA section 143 labor standard violations processed under binding arbitration provisions—

(1) Shall choose binding arbitration before, and in lieu of, initiating a complaint under other grievance procedures established pursuant to section 144 of the Act, and

(2) May not elect binding arbitration for a complaint that previously has been or is subject to any other grievance procedure established under the Act.

(c) Binding arbitration decisions under the provisions of section 144(e) of the Act are not reviewable by the Secretary.

(d) The remedies available to a grievant under binding arbitration are limited to those set forth at section 144(f)(1)(C) and (f)(2) of the Act (section 144(e)(2)).

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a grievant from pursuing a remedy authorized under another Federal, State, or local law for a violation of section 143 of the Act (section 144(g)).

§ 627.605 Special Federal review of SDA- and SSG-level complaints without decision.

(a) Should the recipient fail to provide a decision as required in § 627.503 of this part, the complainant may then request from the Secretary a determination whether reasonable cause exists to believe that the Act or regulations promulgated thereunder have been violated.

(b) The Secretary shall act within 90 days of receipt of a request made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section. Where there is reasonable cause to believe the Act or regulations promulgated thereunder have been violated, the Secretary shall direct the recipient to issue a decision adjudicating the dispute pursuant to recipient and local procedures. The Secretary's action does not constitute final agency action and is not appealable under the Act (sections 166(a) and 144(c)). If the recipient does not comply with the Secretary's order within 60 days, the Secretary may impose a sanction upon the recipient for failing to issue a decision.

(c) A request pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall be filed no later than 15 days from the date on which the complainant should have received a decision as required in § 627.503 of this part. The complaint shall contain the following:

(1) The full name, telephone number (if any), and address (if any) of the person making the complaint;

(2) The full name and address of the respondent against whom the complaint is made;

(3) A clear and concise statement of the facts, including pertinent dates, constituting the alleged violation;

(4) The provisions of the Act, regulations promulgated thereunder, grant, or other agreement under the Act believed to have been violated;

(5) A statement disclosing whether proceedings involving the subject of the request have been commenced or concluded before any Federal, State, or local authority, and, if so, the date of such commencement or conclusion, the name and address of the authority, and the style of the case; and

(6) A statement of the date the complaint was filed with the recipient, the date on which the recipient should have issued decision, and an attestation that no decision was issued.

(d)(1) A request pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section will be considered to have been filed when the Secretary receives from the complainant a written statement sufficiently precise to evaluate the complaint and the grievance procedure used by the recipient, the SDA, or the SSG.

(2) When an imprecise request is received within the 15-day period prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the Secretary may extend the period for submission.

§ 627.606 Grant Officer resolution.

(a) When the Grant Officer is dissatisfied with the State's disposition of an audit, as specified in § 627.481 of this part, or other resolution of violations (including those arising out of incident reports or compliance reviews), with the recipient's response to findings resulting from investigations pursuant to § 627.503 of this part, or if the recipient fails to comply with the Secretary's decision pursuant to § 627.605(b) of this part, the initial and final determination process shall be used to resolve the matter.

(b) Initial determination. The Grant Officer shall make an initial determination on the findings for both those matters where there is agreement and those where there is disagreement with the recipient's resolution, including the allowability of questioned costs or activities. Such initial determination shall be based upon the requirements of the Act, regulations promulgated thereunder, grants, contracts, or other agreements under the Act.

(c) Informal resolution. The Grant Officer shall not revoke a recipient's grant in whole or in part, nor institute corrective actions or sanctions, without first providing the recipient with an opportunity to present documentation or arguments to resolve informally those matters in controversy contained in the initial determination. The initial determination shall provide for an informal resolution period which shall be at least 60 days from issuance of the initial determination. If the matters are resolved informally, the Grant Officer shall issue a final determination pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section which notifies the parties in writing of the nature of the resolution and may close the file.

(d) Grant Officer's final determination.
 (1) If the matter is not fully resolved informally, the Grant Officer shall provide each party with a written final determination by certified mail, return receipt requested. For audits of recipient-level entities and other recipients which receive JTPA funds directly from DOL, ordinarily the final determination will be issued not later than 180 days from the date that the OIG issues the final approved audit report to the Employment and Training Administration. For audits of subrecipients conducted by the OIG, ordinarily the final determination will be issued not later than 360 days from the date the OIG issues the final approved audit report to ETA.

(2) A final determination under this paragraph (d) shall:

(i) Indicate that efforts to informally resolve matters contained in the initial determination have been unsuccessful;

(ii) List those matters upon which the parties continue to disagree;

(iii) List any modifications to the factual findings and conclusions set forth in the initial determination;

(iv) Establish a debt, if appropriate;

(v) Require corrective action when needed;

(vi) Determine liability, method of restitution of funds and sanctions; and

(vii) Offer an opportunity for a hearing in accordance with subpart H of this part.

(3) Unless a hearing is requested, a final determination under this paragraph (d) constitutes final agency action and is not subject to further review.

(e) Nothing in this section shall preclude the Grant Officer from issuing an initial determination and/or final determination directly to a subrecipient, in accordance with section 164(e)(3) of the Act. In such a case, the Grant Officer shall inform the recipient of such action.

§ 627.607 Grant Officer resolution of Governor's failure to promptly take action.

(a) An allegation, whether arising from a complaint, from monitoring or other information available to the Department, that a Governor failed to promptly take remedial action of a substantial violation of the Act or the regulations under this Act, as required by § 627.477 of this part, shall be promptly investigated by the Department.

(b) The Grant Officer shall notify the Governor of the findings of the investigation or monitoring and shall give the Governor a period of time, not to exceed 30 days, to comment on the nature of the findings and to take appropriate corrective actions.

(c) The Grant Officer shall review the complete file of the investigation, monitoring, and the Governor's actions.

(d) If the Grant Officer determines that, (1) as a result financial and compliance audits or otherwise, the Governor determined that there was a substantial violation of a specific provision of the Act or the regulations under this Act, and corrective action had not been taken and, (2) the Grant Officer determines that the Governor has not taken the actions required by § 627.477(a), the Grant Officer shall take such actions required by § 627.477(a).

(e) The Grant Officer's determination, unless a hearing is requested, constitutes final agency action and is not subject to further review. (Section 164(b)(3)).

Subpart G—Sanctions for Violations of the Act

§ 627.700 Purpose and scope.

This subpart describes the sanctions and appropriate corrective actions that may be imposed by the Secretary for violations of the Act, regulations promulgated thereunder, or grant terms and conditions (sections 106(j)(5), 164 (b), (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h)).

§ 627.702 Sanctions and corrective actions.

(a) Except for actions under sections 106(j), 164 (b) and (f), and 167 of the Act and the funding restrictions specified at § 627.423 of this part, Funding restrictions for "high-risk" recipients and subrecipients, the Grant Officer shall utilize initial and final determination procedures outlined in § 627.606, Grant Officer resolution, of this part to impose a sanction or corrective action.

(b) To impose a sanction or corrective action regarding a violation of section 167 of the Act, the Department shall utilize the procedures of 29 CFR part 34.

(c) To impose a sanction or corrective action for failure to meet performance standards, where the recipient has not acted as required at section 106(j)(4), the Grant Officer shall utilize the procedures set forth at § 627.470 (d) and (f).

(d) To impose a sanction or corrective action for noncompliance with the procurement standards provisions set forth at §§ 627.420 and 627.703 of this part, where the recipient has not acted, the Grant Officer may utilize the procedures set forth at section 164(b) of the Act.

(e) To impose a sanction or corrective action for the Governor's failure to promptly take remedial action of a substantial violation as required by § 627.477 of this part, the Grant Officer shall utilize the procedure set forth in § 627.607 of this part.

(f) The recipient shall be held responsible for all funds under its grant(s). The recipient shall hold subrecipients, including SDA's and SSG's, responsible for JTPA funds received through the grant, and may ultimately hold the units of local government which constitute the SDA or the SSG responsible for such funds.

(g) Nothing in this section shall preclude the Grant Officer from imposing a sanction directly against a subrecipient, as authorized in section 164(e)(3) of the Act. In such a case, the Grant Officer shall inform the recipient of such action.

§ 627.703 Failure to comply with procurement provisions.

(a) If, as part of the recipient's annual on-site monitoring of its SDA's/SSG's, the recipient determines that an SDA/SSG is not in compliance with the procurement requirements established in accordance with the provisions at section 164(a)(3) of the Act and § 627.420, of this part, Procurement, and § 627.422 of this part, Selection of service providers, the recipient shall:

(1) Require corrective action to secure prompt compliance; and

(2) Impose the sanctions provided for under the provisions at section 164(b) if the recipient finds that the SDA/SSG has failed to take timely corrective action under paragraph (a)(1) of this section (section 164(a) (4) and (5)).

(b) An action by the recipient to impose a sanction against either an SDA or SSG, in accordance with this section, may be appealed to the Secretary under the same terms and conditions as the disapproval of the respective plan, or plan modification, as set forth at § 628.426(e), Review and approval (section 164(b)(2)).

(c) If, upon a determination under paragraph (a)(2) of this section to impose a sanction under section 164(b) of the Act, the recipient fails to promptly take the actions required under paragraph (a)(2) of this section, the Secretary shall take such actions against the recipient or the SDA/SSG as appropriate (section 164(b)(3)).

§ 627.704 Process for waiver of State liability.

(a) A recipient may request a waiver of liability as described in section 164(e)(2) of the Act.

(b)(1) When the debt for which a waiver of liability is desired was established in a non-Federal resolution, such requests shall be accompanied by a resolution report.

(2) When the ETA Grant Officer is resolving the finding(s) for which a waiver of liability is desired, such request shall be made no later than the informal resolution period described in § 627.606(c) of this part.

(c) A waiver of the recipient's liability can only be considered by the Grant Officer when the misexpenditure of JTPA funds:

(1) Occurred at a subrecipient level;

(2) Was not a violation of section 164(e)(1) of the Act, or did not constitute fraud; or

(3) If fraud did exist, it was perpetrated against the recipient/subrecipient; and:

(i) The recipient/subrecipient discovered, investigated, reported, and prosecuted the perpetrator of said fraud; and

(ii) After aggressive debt collection action, it can be documented that there is no likelihood of collection from the perpetrator of the fraud.

(4) The recipient has issued a final determination which disallows the misexpenditure, the recipient's appeal process has been exhausted, and a debt has been established; and

(5) The recipient requests such a waiver and provides documentation to demonstrate that it has substantially complied with the requirements of section 164(e)(2)(A), (B), (C), and (D) of the Act.

(d) The recipient shall not be released from liability for misspent funds under the determination required by section 164(e) of the Act unless the Grant Officer determines that further collection action, either by the recipient or subrecipient, would be inappropriate or would prove futile.

§ 627.706 Process for advance approval of a recipient's contemplated corrective actions.

(a) The recipient may request advance approval from the Grant Officer for contemplated corrective actions, including debt collection actions, which the recipient plans to initiate or to forego. The recipient's request shall include a description and an assessment of all actions taken by the subrecipient to collect the misspent funds.

(b) Based on the recipient's request, the Grant Officer may determine that the recipient may forego certain collection actions against a subrecipient where:

(1) The subrecipient was not at fault with respect to the liability criteria set forth in section 164(e)(2)(A), (B), (C), and (D) of the Act;

(2) The misexpenditure of funds:

(i) Was not made by that subrecipient but by an entity that received JTPA funds from that subrecipient;

(ii) Was not a violation of section 164(e)(1) of the Act, or did not constitute fraud; or

(iii) If fraud did exist, it was perpetrated against the subrecipient, and:

(A) The subrecipient discovered, investigated, reported, and prosecuted the perpetrator of said fraud; and

(B) After aggressive debt collection action, it can be documented that there is no likelihood of collection from the perpetrator of the fraud.

(3) A final determination which disallows the misexpenditure and establishes a debt has been issued at the appropriate level;

(4) Final action within the recipient's appeal system has been completed; and

(5) Further debt collection action by that subrecipient or the recipient would be either inappropriate or futile.

§ 627.708 Offset process.

(a) In accordance with section 164(d) of the Act, the primary sanction for misexpenditure of JTPA funds is repayment.

(b) A recipient may request that a debt, or a portion thereof, be offset against amounts allotted to the recipient, and retained at the recipient level for administrative costs, under the current or a future JTPA entitlement.

(1) For title II grants, any offset shall be applied against the recipient level 5 percent administrative cost set-aside only and may not be distributed by the recipient among its subrecipients.

(2) For title III grants, any such offset must be applied against that portion of funds reserved by the recipient for recipient level administration only and may not be distributed by the recipient among its subrecipients.

(c) The Grant Officer may approve an offset request, under section 164(d) of the Act, if the misexpenditures were not in violation of section 164(e)(1) of the Act.

(d) If offset is granted, the debt shall not be fully satisfied until the Grant Officer reduces amounts allotted to the State by the amount of the misexpenditure.

(e) The recipient shall not have the authority to reduce allocations to an SDA or SSG for misexpenditure of JTPA funds under section 164(d) of the Act.

Subpart H—Hearings by the Office of Administrative Law Judges

§ 627.800 Scope and purpose.

(a) The jurisdiction of the Office of the Administrative Law Judges (OALJ) extends only to those complainants identified in sections 141(c), 144(d), 164(f), and 166(a) of the Act.

(b) Actions arising under section 167 of the Act shall be handled under 29 CFR part 34.

(c) All other disputes arising under the Act shall be adjudicated under the appropriate recipient or subrecipient grievance procedures or other applicable law.

§ 627.801 Procedures for filing request for hearing.

(a) Within 21 days of receipt of a final determination imposing a sanction or corrective action or denying financial assistance, the applicant, the recipient, the SDA, the SSG, or other subrecipient, or a vendor against which the Grant Officer has imposed a sanction or corrective action may appeal the Grant Officer's determination to the OALJ. A request for a hearing shall be transmitted by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the Chief Administrative Law Judge, U.S. Department of Labor, 800 K Street, NW., Suite 400, Washington, DC 20001, with one copy to the departmental official who issued the determination.

(b) The 21-day filing requirement in paragraph (a) of this section is jurisdictional. Failure to timely request a hearing acts as a waiver of the right to hearing.

(c) A request for a hearing under this section shall state specifically those issues of the final determination upon which review is requested. Those provisions of the final determination not specified for review, or the entire final determination when no hearing has been requested within the 21 days, shall be considered resolved and not subject to further review. Only alleged violations of the Act, regulations promulgated thereunder, grant or other agreement under the Act fairly raised in the determination and the request for hearing are subject to review.

(d) The procedures set forth in this subpart apply in the case of a complainant who has not had a dispute adjudicated under the alternative dispute resolution process set forth in § 627.805 of this part within 60 days, except that the request for hearing before the OALJ must be filed within 15 days of the conclusion of the 60-day period. In addition to including the final determination upon which review is requested, the complainant shall include a copy of any Stipulation of Facts and a brief summary of proceedings.

§ 627.802 Rules of procedure.

(a) The rules of practice and procedure promulgated by the OALJ, at subpart A of 29 CFR part 18, shall govern the conduct of hearings under this section, except that a request for hearing under this section shall not be considered a complaint to which the filing of an answer by DOL or a DOL agency or official is required. Technical rules of evidence shall not apply to hearings conducted pursuant to this part; however, rules or principles designed to assure production of the most credible evidence available and to subject testimony to cross-examination shall apply.

(b) Prehearing procedures. In all cases, the ALJ should encourage the use of prehearing procedures to simplify and to clarify facts and issues.

(c) Subpoenas. Subpoenas necessary to secure the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents or things at hearings shall be obtained from the ALJ and shall be issued pursuant to the authority contained in section 163(b) of the Act, incorporating 15 U.S.C. 49.

(d) Timely submission of evidence. The ALJ shall not permit the introduction at the hearing of any documentation if such documentation has not been made available for review by the other parties to the proceeding either at the time ordered for any prehearing conference, or, in the absence of such an order, at least 3 weeks prior to the hearing date.

(e) Burden of production. The Grant Officer shall have the burden of production to support her or his decision. To this end, the Grant Officer shall prepare and file an administrative file in support of the decision which shall be made part of the record. Thereafter, the party or parties seeking to overturn the Grant Officer's decision shall have the burden of persuasion.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 627.803 Relief.

In ordering relief, the ALJ shall have the full authority of the Secretary under section 164 of the Act.

§ 627.804 Timing of decisions.

The ALJ should render a written decision not later than 90 days after the closing of the record.

§ 627.805 Alternative dispute resolution.

(a) Parties to a complaint under § 627.801 of this part, Procedures for filing a request for hearing, may choose to waive their rights to an administrative hearing before the OALJ by choosing to transfer the settlement of their dispute to an individual acceptable to all parties for the purpose of conducting an informal review of the stipulated facts and rendering a decision in accordance with applicable law. A written decision will be issued within 60 days after the matter is submitted for informal review.

(b) The waiver of the right to request a hearing before the OALJ may be revoked if a settlement has not been reached or a decision has not been issued within the 60 days provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) The decision rendered under this informal review process shall be treated as a final decision of an Administrative Law Judge pursuant to section 166(b) of the Act.

§ 627.806 Other authority.

Nothing contained in this subpart shall be deemed to prejudice the separate exercise of other legal rights in pursuit of remedies and sanctions available outside the Act.

Subpart I—Transition Provisions

§ 627.900 Scope and purpose.

(a) Regulations set forth at parts 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, and 637 of 20 CFR chapter V (1993) were amended, effective December 29, 1992, and were published as an interim final rule to provide planning guidance for States and SDA's on the changes made to the JTPA program as a result of the 1992 JTPA amendments (See 57 FR 62004 (December 29, 1992)). The transition provisions of the regulations were amended on June 3, 1992 (see 58 FR 31472, June 3, 1993). Those regulations and the statutory amendments were effective for the program year beginning July 1, 1993 (PY 1993), and succeeding program years. For PY 1992, JTPA programs and activities shall continue under the regulations set forth at 20 CFR parts 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, and 637 (1992).

(b) In order to provide for the orderly transition to and implementation of the provisions of JTPA, as amended by the 1992 amendments, this subpart I applies to the use of JTPA title II and title III funds allotted by formula to the States. Additional guidance on transition matters may be provided in administrative issuances. The provisions in this subpart are operational during the transition period for implementing the 1992 JTPA amendments.

§ 627.901 Transition period.

The transition period ended June 30, 1993 unless otherwise stated. The intent of the transition period is to complete, to the extent possible, activity begun on or before June 30, 1993 under current policy and regulations and to ensure that all requirements mandated by the 1992 JTPA amendments have been implemented.

§ 627.902 Governor's actions.

The following are actions required to be taken prior to July 1, 1993:

- (a) Review current policies, practices, procedures, and delivery systems to ensure that they conform to the requirements of the amendments;
- (b) Modify the Governor's coordination and special services plan in accordance with instructions issued by the Secretary;
- (c) Ensure that SDAs modify job training plans as necessary;
- (d) Execute a new Governor/Secretary agreement and a new grant agreement;

(e) Issue procurement standards that comply with the Act and these regulations, as described in § 627.420 of this part, Procurement;

(f) Issue instructions necessary to implement program year 1993 cost categories pursuant to § 627.440 of this part, Classification of costs;

(g) Issue instructions necessary for SDAs to report program expenditures by year of appropriation pursuant to § 627.455 of this part, Reports required;

(h) Certify private industry councils pursuant to § 628.410 of this chapter, Private Industry Council.

§ 627.903 Actions which are at the discretion of the Governor.

(a) Establish a State Human Resource Investment Council (HRIC);

(b) Issue instructions to "grandparent" participants in JTPA programs as of June 30, 1993 for purposes of completing training;

(c) Issue instructions for use of PY 1992 and prior year 6 percent performance standards incentive funds to further develop and implement data collection and management information systems to track the program experience of participants. PY 1993 and subsequent performance standards incentive funds may not be used for this purpose;

(d) Of the Title II and Title III unobligated balance of funds available as of June 30, 1993, any amount may be reprogrammed into PY 1993 activity. The Department believes these amounts will be minimal and not represent a significant proportion of the funds available. Such reprogrammed funds will be subject to requirements contained in JTPA regulations effective July 1, 1993.

§ 627.904 Transition and implementation.

(a) Review. The Governor shall conduct a comprehensive review of the current policies, procedures, and delivery systems relating to programs authorized under the Job Training Partnership Act for the purpose of ensuring the effective implementation of the amendments. Such a review shall include consideration of the appropriateness of current SDA designations, the representation on current State and local councils, the adequacy of current administrative systems, the effectiveness of current outreach, service delivery, and coordination activities, and other relevant matters.

(b) Governor's Coordination and Special Services Plan (GCSSP). The GCSSP requires modification to assure conformance to the requirements of the amendments. The plan was to be modified pursuant to instructions issued by the Secretary and shall be submitted to the Secretary for review by May 15, 1993.

(c) Job training plans. Service delivery area job training plans will require modification to comply with § 628.420 of this chapter, Job training plan.

(d) Governor/Secretary agreement and grant agreement. A new Governor/Secretary agreement is required to assure that the State shall comply with JTPA, as amended, and the applicable rules and regulations; the Wagner-Peyser Act, as amended, and the applicable rules and regulations. A new grant agreement is needed to provide the basis for Federal obligation of funds for programs authorized by Titles I, II, and III, and such other funds as the Secretary may award under the grant.

(e) Procurement standards. In order to ensure fiscal accountability and prevent waste, fraud, and abuse in programs administered under JTPA, as amended, the Governor shall prescribe and implement procurement standards meeting the requirements of § 627.420 of this part, Procurement. All procurements initiated on or after July 1, 1993 shall be governed by and follow the requirements in § 627.420 of this part. Initiation of procurement means any sole source or small purchase awarded on or after July 1, 1993 and any Invitation for Bid or Request for Proposal issued on or after July 1, 1993.

(f) Participants. In order to have the least possible disruption to program participants, during PY 1993, Governors and SDAs have the flexibility to grandfather participants already enrolled in JTPA programs up to and including June 30, 1993 under existing rules and regulations. All participants in programs on June 30, 1993, will be eligible for transfer to programs operated under the new provisions at any time beginning on July 1, 1993. "Hard to serve" barriers to participation, assessment and Individual Service Strategy provisions of the amendments will not apply to participants enrolled prior to July 1, 1993 or to 1993 Title II-B participants.

(g) Cost categories. (1) Cost categories applicable to PY 1992 and earlier funds will be subject to prior regulations either until the funds have been exhausted or program activity has been completed. In order to assist the orderly transition to and implementation of the new requirements of the 1992 JTPA amendments, an increase is allowed in the administrative cost limitation for PY 1992 funds from 15 percent to 20 percent, with a corresponding adjustment to cost limitations for training and participant support. Specifically, not less than 80 percent of the title II-A funds shall be expended for training and participant support, and not less than 65 percent shall be expended for training.

(2) Any prior year's carryover funds made available for use in PY 1993 will be subject to the reporting requirements and cost categories applicable to PY 1993 funds.

(3) In determining compliance with the JTPA cost limitations for PY 1992, Governors may either:

(i) Determine cost limitation compliance separately for funds expended in accordance with paragraphs (g)(1) and (g)(2) of this section; or

(ii) Determine compliance for each cost category against the total PY 1992 funds, whether expended in accordance with the Act and regulations in effect prior to the 1992 amendments to JTPA or in accordance with the amended Act and these regulations. Using this option, the total combined funds expended for training and direct training should be at least 65 percent of PY 1992 SDA allocations.

(4) In addition to the institutions specified in § 627.440(d)(1)(vi)(B), the costs of tuition and entrance fees of a postsecondary vocational institution specified at section 481(c) of the Higher Education Act (20 U.S.C. 1088(c)) may be charged to direct training services through June 30, 1995, when such tuition charges or entrance fees are not more than the educational institution's catalog price, are necessary to receive specific training, are charged to the general public to receive such training, and are for the training of participants.

§ 627.906

(h) Financial reporting. Notwithstanding reprogramming, expenditures must be recorded separately by year of appropriation.

(i) Private Industry Council. The private industry councils shall be certified pursuant to § 628.410 of this chapter, Private Industry Council.

(j) Grievances, investigations, and hearings. Generally, all grievances, investigations and hearings pending on or before June 30, 1993 should be resolved and settled under prior rules and procedures. Grievances, investigations, and hearings occurring on or after July 1, 1993 will be governed by the procedures described in subparts E, F, and H of this part 627.

(k) Summer program. (1) The Title II-B Summer Youth Employment Program for 1993 shall be governed by the Act and regulations in effect prior to the Amendments (prior to September 7, 1992).

(2) Up to 10 percent of the 1993 title II-B funds available may be transferred to the title II-C program.

(l) SDA designation. At the Governor's discretion, SDA's designated prior to July 1, 1992 need not be subject to the provisions of § 628.405, Service delivery areas.

(m) Program implementation. The implementation by the States and SDA's of certain new program design requirements, particularly objective assessment and development of individual service strategies (ISS), may require additional time to fully implement beyond July 1, 1993. Reasonable efforts to implement the provisions of §§ 628.515, 628.520, and 628.530, as soon as possible after July 1, 1993, are expected to be made. However, it is not expected that every new participant will initially receive objective assessment, ISS, and referral to non-title II services for a period of 6 months, or until January 1, 1994.

(n) Out-of-school youth ratio. The 50-percent out-of-school participants requirement for title II-C will be phased in during PY 1993 and will not be the subject of compliance review until PY 1994, beginning July 1, 1994. During PY 1993, however, SDA's must show significant improvement in the proportion of out-of-school youth being served and performance in increasing the service ratio will be monitored by the States and DOL during this implementation period.

(o) Administrative issuances. Other implementation issues may be handled by administrative issuance. ETA will transmit such guidance directly to all Governors via a Training and Employment Guidance Letter (TEGL). Such TEGL's will be published as Notices in the FEDERAL REGISTER (section 701(i)).

§ 627.905 Guidance on contracts and other agreements.

The Department does not intend for contracts, agreements, inter-agency agreements, retainers, and similar arrangements to be negotiated and/or entered into for the sole purpose of applying previously existing rules and regulations. The 1992 JTPA amendments were effective July 1, 1993. The Department intends that contracts, awards and agreements entered into on or before June 30, 1993 are to be used to serve and/or train participants enrolled on or before June 30, 1993, unless the contracts and agreements are modified to comply with the new amendments and regulations.

§ 627.906 Determinations on State and SDA implementation.

(a) The Department expects that the States and SDA's will fully implement the provisions of the Act and these regulations regarding procurement, cost principles, cost categories, cost limitations, participant service requirements and eligibility beginning July 1, 1993.

(b) The Department expects that the implementation by the States and SDA's of the program design features in these regulations, particularly objective assessment and development of the ISS, may require additional time beyond July 1, 1993 to fully implement.

(c) In deciding to allow or disallow questioned costs related to the implementation of the provisions described in paragraph (b) of this section, the Grant Officer will consider the extent to which the State's and SDA's have made good faith efforts in properly implementing such provisions in the period July 1, 1993 through June 30, 1994.

Subpart A—Scope and Purpose

§ 628.100 Scope and purpose of part 628.

(a) This part sets forth requirements for implementation of programs under title II of the Job Training Partnership Act, and includes the councils described in subpart B that have responsibilities under titles I, II, and III. In this part, the provisions generally pertaining to title II are covered in subparts B, C, D, and E. Matters specific to titles IIA, II-B, or II-C are addressed in subparts F, G, or H, respectively.

(b) Title II-A Adult Training programs are to prepare adults for participation in the labor force by providing job training and other services that will result in increased employment and earnings, increased occupational and educational skills, reduced welfare dependency, and result in improved long-term employability.

(c) Title II-B Summer Youth Employment and Training programs are to provide eligible youth with exposure to the world of work, to enhance the basic education skills of youth, to encourage school completion or enrollment in supplemental or alternative school programs and to enhance the citizenship skills of youth.

(d) Title II-C Youth Training programs are to improve the long-term employability of youth; to enhance the educational, occupational and citizenship skills of youth; to encourage school completion or enrollment in alternative school programs; to increase the employment and earnings of youth; to reduce welfare dependency; and to assist youth in addressing problems that impair their ability to make successful transition from school to work, to apprenticeship, to the military or to postsecondary education and training.

Subpart B—State Planning

§ 628.200 Scope and purpose.

This subpart provides requirements for the submission of the Governor's Coordination and Special Services Plan, as well as the procedures for plan review. This subpart also contains requirements for the composition and responsibilities of the State Job Training Coordinating Council and the State Human Resource Investment Council.

§ 628.205 Governor's coordination and special services plan.

(a)(1) Submittal. By a date established by the Secretary, each State seeking financial assistance under the Act shall submit to the Secretary, biennially, the Governor's coordination and special services plan (GCSSP) encompassing two program years (section 121(a)).

(2) The GCSSP shall address the requirements of section 121(b) of the Act, including a description of the Governor's coordination criteria; the measures taken by the State to ensure coordination and prevent duplication with the Job Opportunities and Basic Skills (JOBS) program; the certification of the implementation of the procurement system, as required at section 164(a)(6) of the Act; the technical assistance and training plan; goals, and the efforts to accomplish such goals, for the training and placement of women in nontraditional employment and apprenticeship; the projected use of resources, including oversight of program performance; program administration; program financial management and audit resolution procedures; capacity building; priorities and criteria for State incentive grants; and performance goals for State supported programs (section 121(b)).

(b) GCSSP review. The Secretary shall review the GCSSP for overall compliance with the provisions of the Act. If the GCSSP is disapproved, the Secretary shall notify the Governor, in writing, within 45 days of submission of the reasons for disapproval so that the Governor may modify the plan to bring it into compliance with the Act (section 121(d)).

(c) Information to SDA's. (1) In the year preceding the program years for which the plan is developed, the State shall make available to the SDA's in the State information on its plans to undertake State activities in program areas including education coordination grants, services to older workers, and capacity building.

(2) The information described in paragraph (c)(1) of this section shall be provided to SDA's in sufficient time for SDA's to take it into consideration in developing local job training plans.

§ 628.210 State Job Training Coordinating Council.

(a) The Governor shall appoint a State Job Training Coordinating Council (SJTCC) pursuant to section 122 of the Act. In lieu of a SJTCC, the Governor may establish and utilize a State Human Resource Investment Council (HRIC) pursuant to section 701 of the Act and in accordance with § 628.215 of this part.

(b) Consistent with section 122(a)(3) of the Act, the SJTCC shall be composed as follows: 30 percent, business and industry representatives; 30 percent, State and local government and local education agency representatives; 30 percent, organized labor and community-based organization representatives; and 10 percent, representatives from the general public. The SJTCC shall have the specific functions and responsibilities outlined in sections 122, 317, and 501 of the Act.

(c) Funding for the SJTCC shall be provided pursuant to sections 202(c)(1)(A) and 262(c)(1)(A) of the Act.

(d) The SJTCC shall:

(1) Analyze the SDAs' reports made pursuant to section 104(b)(13) of the Act and make recommendations for technical assistance and corrective action, and

(2) Prepare a summary of such reports and disseminate them to SDA's and service providers in the State and to the Secretary (section 122(a)(5) and (6)).

§ 628.215 State Human Resource Investment Council.

(a) Establishment and responsibilities. The State may, in accordance with sections 701, 702, and 703 of the Act, establish a State Human Resource Investment Council (HRIC). The HRIC's responsibilities are described at section 701(a) of the Act. The HRIC shall carry out the following responsibilities:

(1) Review the provision of services and the use of funds and resources under applicable Federal human resource programs and advise the Governor on methods of coordinating such provision of services and use of funds and resources consistent with the laws and regulations governing such programs;

(2) Advise the Governor on the development and implementation of State and local standards and measures relating to applicable Federal human resource programs and coordination of such standards and measures; and

(3) Carry out the duties and functions prescribed for existing State councils described under the laws relating to the applicable Federal human resource programs, including the responsibilities of the State Council on Vocational Education (SCOVE) under Section 112 of the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Applied Technology Education Act.

(4) Perform other functions as specified by the Governor (section 701).

(b) Applicable Programs. For the purposes of this section, the programs included are those listed at section 701(b)(2) of the Act. A program shall be included only if the Governor and the head of the State agency responsible for the administration of the program jointly agree to include such program. In addition, programs under the Carl Perkins Vocational and Applied Technology Act shall require the agreement of the State council on vocational education (section 701(b)(1)(B)).

(c) Composition. (1) The Governor shall establish procedures to ensure appropriate representation on the HRIC from among the categories of representation specified in section 702 of the Act.

(2) In addition, when the functions and responsibilities of the SCOVE are included on the HRIC, the Governor is encouraged to consider appointing the State Director for Vocational Education as a representative on the HRIC.

(d) Funding. (1) Funding to carry out the functions of the HRIC shall be available pursuant to section 703(a) of the Act.

(i) The costs associated with the operation of the HRIC should be allocated among the various funding sources based on the relationship of each funding source or program to total spending of all applicable funding sources and programs (section 703(d)).

(ii) Costs of the HRIC that are in excess of costs paid by funds from participating State agencies are, subject to the availability of funds from applicable JTPA sources, allowable JTPA costs (section 703(a) and (d)).

(2) A HRIC which meets the requirements of title VII and includes each of the programs listed at section 701(b)(2)(A) of the Act shall be authorized to use JTPA State Education Coordination and Grants funds (section 123(a)(2)(D)(ii)).

(e) Replacement of other councils. A HRIC meeting the requirements of title VII of the Act shall replace the councils of the participating programs listed at section 701(b)(2)(A) of the Act.

(f) Expertise. The Governor shall ensure that in the composition of the HRIC and the staff of the HRIC there exists the proper expertise to carry out the functions of the HRIC and the council(s) it replaces (sections 702(c)(2) and 703(b)).

(g) Certification. Each State, as part of the certification process to the Secretary, shall ensure that the council meets the requirements of sections 701, 702, and 703. This certification shall be made in writing and submitted to the Secretary, with a copy provided to the Secretary of Education, at least 90 days before the beginning of each period of 2 program years for which a job training plan is submitted under the Act.

Subpart C—State Programs

§ 628.300 Scope and purpose.

This subpart provides requirements for the State-operated programs including the education coordination and grants, services to older workers, and incentive grants to SDA's and grants to SDA's for capacity building and technical assistance.

§ 628.305 State distribution of funds.

(a) The funds made available to the Governor under sections 202(c) and 262(c) of the Act shall be used to carry out activities and services under this subpart.

§ 628.310 Administration.

Funds provided to the Governor under sections 202(c)(1)(A) and 262(c)(1)(A) of the Act may be used for overall administration, management, oversight of program performance; technical assistance to SDA's failing to meet performance standards, as described in section 106(j)(1) of the Act; auditing; and activities under sections 121 and 122 of the Act.

§ 628.315 Education coordination and grants.

(a) Governor's responsibilities. The Governor shall allocate funds available pursuant to sections 202(c)(1)(C) and 262(c)(1)(C) of the Act to any State education agency. For the purposes of this section, "State education agency" shall not include the State agency which administers the JTPA program within the State or other agencies which do not have education as a primary and operational function, such as correctional agencies, although this limitation shall not preclude such an agency from being an ultimate sub-recipient of funds (section 123(a)(1)).

(b) Agreements. (1) The State education agency to be allocated funds under section 123(a)(1) of the Act shall participate in joint planning activities with the Governor in order to develop a plan which shall be submitted in the GCSSP (section 123(c)).

(2) The Governor and the State education agency shall jointly agree on the plan required in paragraph (b)(1) of this section, which shall include a description of the agreements described in paragraph (b)(3) of this section (section 123(c)).

(3) Projects to undertake the activities set forth in section 123(a)(2) shall be conducted in accordance with agreements between the State education agency(ies) and administrative entities in service delivery areas in the State. The agreements may include other entities such as State agencies, local education agencies and alternative service providers (section 123(b)(1)(B)).

(4)(i) When there is a failure by the State education agency and the Governor to develop the joint plan described in paragraph (b)(2) of this section, the Governor shall not allocate funds under section 123(a)(1) to such education agency nor shall such funds be available for expenditure by the Governor (section 123(c)).

(ii) When no State education agency accepts the allocation of funds under section 123(a)(1), or when there is a failure to reach the agreement(s) specified in paragraph (b)(3) of this section, the funds may only be used by the Governor pursuant to section 123(e) and in accordance with the GCSSP (section 123(e)).

(c) Allowable activities. (1) Funds made available for education coordination and grants under section 123 of the Act shall be used to pay the Federal share of education coordination and grants projects (section 123(a)(2)).

(2) Projects, as defined at section 123(a)(2)(A), (B), and (C) of the Act shall be conducted for eligible individuals and should include those which:

(i) Provide school-to-work services of demonstrated effectiveness, including youth apprenticeship programs;

(ii) Provide literacy and lifelong learning opportunities and services of demonstrated effectiveness, including basic education and occupational skills training; and

(iii) Provide statewide coordinated approaches to education and training services, including model programs, designed to train, place, and retain women in nontraditional employment (section 123(a)).

(3) Projects for coordination of education and training may also be conducted which may include support activities pertaining to the HRIC which meets the requirements of title VII.

(d) Expenditure requirements. (1)(i) At least 80 percent of the funds allocated under section 202(c)(1)(C) and section 262(c)(1)(C) of the Act shall be expended to pay for the Federal share of projects described in paragraph (c)(2) of this section (section 123(d)(2)(B)).

§ 628.320

(ii) The Governor shall assure that not less than 75 percent of the funds expended for such projects are expended for projects for eligible economically disadvantaged participants who experience barriers to employment. For purposes of meeting this requirement, participants meeting the conditions of section 263(a)(2)(B) and (C) and (g) of the Act may be considered economically disadvantaged (section 123(d)(2)(C)).

(iii) Priority for funds not expended for the economically disadvantaged shall be given to title III participants and persons with barriers to employment.

(iv) The Governor may assure compliance with the requirement to serve participants with barriers to employment by targeting projects to particular barrier groups (e.g., school dropouts).

(2) Not more than 20 percent of funds allocated under section 202(c)(1)(C) of the Act may be expended to:

(i) Facilitate coordination of education and training services for participants in the projects described in section 123(a)(2)(A), (B) and (C), or

(ii)(A) Support activities pertaining to a HRIC that meets the requirements of § 628.215 of this part, or

(B) Support activities pertaining to a State council which carries out functions similar to those of a HRIC if such council was established prior to July 1, 1992.

(e) Contribution. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (e)(3) of this section, the State shall provide for the contribution of funds, other than the funds made available under this Act, of a total amount equal to the amounts allotted under Section 123;

(2) The Governor shall define and assure the provision of adequate resources by the State to meet the requirements of paragraph (e)(1) of this section. Such amount may include the direct cost of employment and training services provided by other Federal programs or agencies if such use for matching is in accordance with the applicable Federal law governing the use of such funds.

(3) When there is a failure to reach agreement between the State education agency and the administrative entity in the service delivery area, as set forth in paragraph (b)(3) of this section, the requirement for the contribution of funds shall not apply.

(f) Eligible youth, age 14 through 15, may be served in the program under this section to the extent set forth in the agreements under paragraph (b)(3) of this section.

§ 628.320 Services for older individuals.

(a) Consultation. (1) The Governor shall consult with the appropriate PIC's and chief elected official(s) prior to entering into agreements to provide services under section 204(d) and to assure that services provided to participants under section 204(d) are consistent with the programs and activities provided in the SDA to eligible older participants.

(2) The GCSSP shall specify the process for accomplishing the consultation required by paragraph (a)(2) of this section.

(b) Funds available under section 204(d) shall be used by the Governor to provide services on an equitable basis throughout the State, taking into account the relative share of the population of eligible older individuals residing in each SDA and the participation of such older individuals in the labor force.

(c) Delivery of services. (1) Services to participants eligible under section 204(d) shall be delivered through agreements with SDA's, private industry councils, public agencies, private non-profit organizations (including veterans organizations) and private-for-profit organizations.

(2) Priority for delivery of services under this section shall be given to agencies and organizations which have a demonstrated effectiveness in providing training and employment services to such older individuals.

(d) Eligibility. (1) Individuals provided services under section 204(d) of the Act shall be economically disadvantaged, based on criteria applicable in the SDA in which they reside, and shall be age 55 or older. However, each program year not more than 10 percent of participants enrolled under section 204(d) may be individuals who are not economically disadvantaged but have serious barriers to employment as identified by the Governor and have been determined within the last 12 months to meet the income eligibility requirements for title V of the Older Americans Act of 1965 (section 204(d)(5)(B)(i)).

(2) The following criteria shall apply to joint programs for older workers.

(i) In order to carry out a joint program with operators of programs under title V of the Older Americans Act, there shall be a written financial or non-financial agreement, or written joint program description when the entity which operates the JTPA and title V program are the same.

(ii) Joint programs under this paragraph (d)(2) may include referrals between programs, co-enrollment and provision of services.

(iii) Under agreements pursuant to this paragraph (d)(2), individuals eligible under title V of the Older Americans Act shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of section 203(a)(2) of the Act (Older Americans Act, Pub. L. 103-171, section 510).

(e) Applicable requirements. Except as provided in the Act, the provisions of title II-A shall apply to programs conducted under section 204(d) (section 204(d)(6)).

(f) The Governor shall make efforts to coordinate the delivery of services under section 204(d) with the delivery of services under title V of the Older Americans Act of 1965. Such coordination may include coenrollment, coordination of a continuum of services between this section and title V of the Older Americans Act and other appropriate linkages.

(g) The Governor shall give consideration to assisting programs involving training for jobs in growth industries and jobs reflecting the use of new technological skills (section 204(d)(3)).

§ 628.325 Incentive grants, capacity building, and technical assistance.

(a) Funds available to the Governor under sections 202(c)(1)(B) and 262(c)(1)(B) of the Act shall be used to provide incentive grants to SDA's and for capacity building and technical assistance.

(b) Incentive grants. (1) Not less than 67 percent of the funds available under sections 202(c)(1)(B) and 262(c)(1)(B) of the Act shall be used by the Governor to provide incentive grants for programs, except programs under section 204(d) of the Act, exceeding title II performance standards (section 106(b)(7)).

(2) Incentive grant funds under this section shall be distributed by the Governor among SDA's within the State pursuant to section 106(b)(7) of the Act.

(3) The Governor shall, as part of the annual statement of goals and objectives required by section 121(a)(1) of the Act, provide SDA's with the specific policies and procedures to implement section 106(b)(7) of the Act.

(4) In a State which is the service delivery area, incentive grant funds shall be distributed in a manner determined by the Governor and described in the GCSSP. The Governor shall give consideration to recognizing the performance of service providers within the State.

(5) SDA's should use incentive grant funds for capacity building and technical assistance activities and/or for the conduct of allowable Title II activities for eligible youth, eligible adults, or both, at the discretion of the SDA.

(c) Capacity building and technical assistance. (1) Up to 33 percent of the funds available under sections 202(c)(1)(B) and 262(c)(1)(B) of the Act may be used by the Governor to provide capacity building and technical assistance efforts aimed at improving the competencies of the personnel who staff and administer JTPA including SDA's, service providers, State staff, private industry councils, other job training councils and related human service systems provided for in section 205(a) of the Act.

(2) In providing capacity building and technical assistance activities, the Governor shall:

(i) Consult with SDA's concerning capacity building and technical assistance activities consistent with the process specified in the GCSSP;

(ii) Ensure that the use of funds will assist front line staff providing services to participants by directing resources to SDA and service provider staff for capacity building efforts, building a statewide capacity building strategy based on an assessment of local capacity building needs developed in cooperation with the SDA's, and/or delivering training and technical assistance directly to the local level;

§ 628.400

(iii) Ensure that expenditures for the purchase of hardware/software are only for the development of Statewide communications and training mechanisms involving computer-based communication technologies that directly facilitate interaction with the National Capacity Building and Information Dissemination Network (National Network) described in section 453 of the Act and that facilitate the use of computer-based training techniques in capacity building and technical assistance activities;

(iv) Ensure that State and local capacity building efforts are coordinated and integrated with the National Network, pursuant to sections 202(c)(3)(B) and 262(c)(3)(B) of the Act, and that materials developed with funds under this section are made available to be shared with other States, SDA's and the National Network. States and SDA's retain the flexibility to tailor Network products to their own needs and/or to produce and train on similar or related products when local circumstances so dictate and;

(v) Provide technical assistance to service delivery areas failing to meet performance standards pursuant to section 106(j)(2) of the Act.

(d) Cost sharing. (1) Cost sharing approaches are encouraged among States, SDA's and/or among other Federal, State, and local human service programs, including those listed in section 205(a) of the Act, in developing electronic communications, training mechanisms and/or contributing to the National Network.

(2) All shared costs shall be allocated among the contributing funding sources on the basis of benefits received.

Subpart D—Local Service Delivery System

§ 628.400 Scope and purpose.

This subpart sets forth requirements for the selection of service delivery areas, the establishment and responsibilities of the private industry council, and the selection of the SDA grant recipient and administrative entity. This subpart also contains the requirements for the local job training plan as well as the procedures for its review and approval by the State.

§ 628.405 Service delivery areas.

(a)(1) The Governor, after receiving recommendations from the SJTCC, shall designate SDA's within the State in accordance with the provisions of section 101 of the Act.

(2) SDA's may not be designated by the Governor more frequently than once every two years, and such designations shall be made to coincide with the two-year plan cycle for the GCSSP and local job training plans (i.e., the designation cannot be made for an off-year in this cycle).

(3) Each request for designation as an SDA shall be submitted in a form and by a date established by the Governor. The procedures established by the Governor shall provide for the treatment of existing SDA's for the purposes of submitting SDA designation requests.

(b)(1) The Governor shall approve SDA designation requests from entities with a population of 200,000 or more that satisfy the criteria specified in section 101(a)(4)(A) of the Act.

(2) When there are competing applications under paragraph (b)(1) of this section for the same geographic area, the Governor shall designate the entity with the population closest to 200,000, if the remaining reduced area also continues to satisfy the criteria specified in section 101(a)(4)(A) of the Act. The Governor shall offer to designate the remaining reduced area as an SDA as well.

(3) When there are competing applications under paragraph (b)(1) of this section for the same geographic area and the designation of the entity with the population closest to 200,000 would have the effect of reducing the population of the competing entity to below a population of 200,000, the Governor has the discretion to determine which request to honor.

(d) The Governor may, in accordance with section 101(a)(4)(B) of the Act, approve a request to be a SDA from any unit, or contiguous units, of general local government, without regard to population, which serves a substantial portion of a labor market area. In making such designations, the Governor shall evaluate the degree to which a proposed service delivery area meets criteria established by the Governor which, at a minimum, shall include:

(1) The capability to effectively deliver job training services;

(2) The capacity to administer the job training program in accordance with the Act, applicable rules and regulations and State standards; and

(3) The portion of a labor market to be served.

(e) For the purposes of SDA designations under section 101(a)(4)(A) and (B) of the Act, the term “substantial part” and “substantial portion” of a labor market area shall be defined by the Governor, but shall not be less than 10% of the population of a labor market area.

(f) All areas within the State shall be covered by designated SDA’s. After honoring all requests for designation from eligible entities under section 101(a)(4)(A) of the Act, and making any qualified discretionary designations under section 101(a)(4)(B) of the Act, the Governor shall include uncovered areas in the State within other designated SDA’s willing to accept them or within a State administered SDA.

(g) Appeals. (1) Only an entity which meets the requirements of section 101(a)(4)(A) of the Act for designation as a service delivery area, but which has had its request to be an SDA denied, may appeal the Governor’s denial of service delivery area designation to the Secretary of Labor.

(2) Appeals made pursuant to paragraph (g)(1) of this section shall be submitted by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the Secretary, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, DC 20210, Attention: ASET. A copy of the appeal shall simultaneously be provided to the Governor.

(3) The Secretary shall not accept an appeal dated later than 30 days after receipt of written notification of the denial from the Governor.

(4) The appealing party shall explain why it believes the denial is contrary to the provisions of section 101 of the Act.

(5) The Secretary shall accept the appeal and make a decision only with regard to whether or not the denial is inconsistent with section 101 of the Act. The Secretary may consider any comments submitted by the Governor. The Secretary shall make a final decision within 30 days after receipt of the appeal (section 101(a)(4)(C)).

(6) The Secretary shall notify the Governor and the appellant in writing of the Secretary’s decision.

§ 628.410 Private Industry Council.

(a) Certification of the PIC. (1) The chief elected official(s) of the SDA shall establish and the Governor shall certify the private industry council (PIC) pursuant to section 102 of the Act.

(2) The Governor shall review the certification of the PIC biennially, one year prior to the effective date of the 2-year SDA job training plan to the Governor. The Governor’s review shall include:

(i) The PIC composition, which shall be consistent with section 102(a), (b), (c), and (d) of the Act and shall include the names of individuals nominated and their qualifications;

(ii) The nomination process;

(iii) The written agreement(s) among the appropriate chief elected official(s) and the PIC, including procedures for the development of the SDA job training plan and the selection of the grant recipient and administrative entity.

(3) The chief elected official shall select labor representatives for the PIC from individuals recommended by recognized State and local labor federations. For purposes of this section, a labor federation is an alliance of two or more organized labor unions for the purpose of mutual support and action. An example of a recognized labor federation is the AFL–CIO.

(b) Responsibilities of the PIC. Pursuant to section 103 of the Act, the PIC shall:

(1) Provide policy and program guidance for all activities under the job training plan for the SDA;

(2) In accordance with agreements negotiated with the appropriate chief elected official(s), determine the procedures for development of the job training plan and select the grant recipient and administrative entity for the SDA;

(3) Independent oversight. As specified in subpart D of part 627 of this chapter, the PIC shall exercise independent oversight over programs and activities under the job training plan, which oversight shall not be circumscribed by agreements with the appropriate chief elected official(s) of the SDA;

(4) Be a party to the designation of substate grantees under title III, as set forth in § 631.35 of this chapter;

(5) Establish guidelines for the level of skills to be provided in occupational skills training programs funded by the administrative entity;

(6) Consult with the Governor on agreements to provide services for older individuals under section 204(d) of the Act;

(7) Establish youth and adult competency levels consistent with performance standards established by the Secretary, based on such factors as entry level skills and other hiring requirements, in consultation with educational agencies and, where appropriate, with representatives of business, organized labor and community-based organizations pursuant to section 106(b)(5) and 107(d); and

(8) Identify occupations for which there is a demand in the area served.

(c) Substate plan. The PIC shall be provided the opportunity to review and comment on a substate grantee plan under title III of the Act prior to the submission of such plan to the Governor (section 313(a)).

(d) [Reserved]

(e) The State Employment Service agency shall develop jointly with each appropriate PIC and chief elected official(s) for the SDA those components of the plans required under the Wagner-Peyser Act which are applicable to the SDA. (See part 652 of this chapter).

(f) Single SDA States. (1) In any case in which the service delivery area is a State, the SJTCC or a portion of the SJTCC may be reconstituted as a PIC if the PIC meets the requirements of section 102(a) of the Act.

(2) When the service delivery area is a State and the functions of the SJTCC are embodied in the HRIC, the HRIC or a portion of the HRIC may be reconstituted as a PIC if the requirements for private sector business representation at section 102(a)(1) of the Act are met (section 102(h)).

§ 628.415 Selection of SDA grant recipient and administrative entity.

(a) Selection of SDA grant recipient. (1) The SDA grant recipient and the entity to administer the SDA's job training plan for title II, developed pursuant to section 104 of the Act, shall be selected by agreement of the PIC and chief elected official(s) of the SDA. These may be the same or different entities.

(2) The specific functions and responsibilities of the entities described in paragraph (a)(1) of this section shall be spelled out in the agreement between the PIC and the chief elected official(s), and shall specifically address the provisions of section 141(i) of the Act (section 103(b)(1)).

(b) Subrecipient requirements. (1) The Governor may establish requirements pertaining to subrecipient, including SDA grant recipient, responsibility for JTPA funds.

(2) The requirements of paragraph (b)(1) of this section shall not preclude the selection of any entity identified in section 103(b) of the Act as SDA grant recipient.

§ 628.420 Job training plan.

(a) The Governor shall issue instructions and schedules to assure that job training plans and plan modifications for SDA's within the State conform to all requirements of the Act.

(b) The Governor's instructions for development of the SDA's job training plan shall require that the plan contain the following information:

(1) A complete and detailed discussion of the elements found in section 104(b) of the Act, including goals for the training and training related placement of women in nontraditional employment and apprenticeships;

(2) A discussion of the SDA's compliance with the Secretary's program goals, as outlined in the planning guidance provided to the Governor; and

(3) An oversight plan for the SDA which includes: (i) A description of the oversight activities of the PIC and the chief elected official(s), and (ii) the SDA administrative entity's monitoring plan which includes the Governor's monitoring requirements for service providers.

(c) The Governor may also require that the SDA job training plan contain a capacity building and technical assistance strategy that includes plans for designating capacity building as a staff function, assessing local capacity building needs, and developing and participating in computerized communication mechanisms.

(d) The SDA job training plan shall be jointly approved and jointly submitted to the Governor by the PIC and the chief elected official(s) (section 103(d)).

(e) Modifications. (1) Any major modification to the SDA job training plan shall be jointly approved and jointly submitted by the PIC and chief elected official(s) of the SDA to the Governor for approval.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the circumstances which constitute a "major" modification shall be specified by the Governor.

§ 628.425 Review and approval.

(a) Standards and procedures. The Governor shall establish standards and procedures for the review and approval or disapproval of the SDA job training plan and plan modifications that shall be provided to the SDA's at the same time as the instructions and schedules for preparation of the plans are provided.

(b) Plan approval. Except when the Governor makes a finding under the provisions of section 105(b)(1) of the Act, the Governor shall approve the SDA job training plan or plan modification. The notice of approval shall be provided in writing to the chief elected official(s) and to the private industry council.

§ 628.426 Disapproval or revocation of the plan.

(a) If the Governor disapproves the SDA job training plan or plan modification for any reason, the Governor shall notify the PIC and chief elected official(s) for the SDA in writing as provided in section 105(b)(2) of the Act.

(b) If the Governor disapproves the SDA job training plan or plan modification, the Governor shall provide the PIC and the chief elected official(s) for the SDA 30 days to correct the deficiencies and resubmit the plan or plan modification. Within 15 days after the plan or plan modification is resubmitted, the Governor shall make a final decision and shall notify the PIC and the appropriate chief elected official(s) of the SDA in writing of the final disapproval or approval.

(c) Governor mediation. If the PIC and the appropriate chief elected official(s) of an SDA are unable to reach an agreement under the provisions of section 103 (b)(1) or (d) of the Act, any such party may request the Governor to mediate.

(d) Failure to reach agreement. If the PIC and the chief elected official(s) fail to reach the required agreements in section 103 (b)(1) or (d) of the Act, funds may not be made available to an SDA under section 104 of the Act and the Governor shall merge the affected area into one or more other existing service delivery areas (section 105(c)(1)).

(e) Appeals. (1) In accordance with section 105(b)(2) of the Act, any final disapproval by the Governor of the SDA job training plan or modification may be appealed by the PIC and chief elected official(s) of the SDA to the Secretary.

(2) The Secretary shall not accept an appeal dated later than 30 days after receipt by the PIC and chief elected official(s) of the final disapproval of the SDA job training plan or modification from the Governor.

(3) The Secretary shall accept an appeal under paragraph (e)(1) of this section and shall determine only whether the disapproval is clearly erroneous under section 105(b)(1) of the Act. The Secretary may consider any comments submitted by the Governor. In accordance with section 105(b)(2) of the Act, the Secretary shall make a final decision within 45 days after the appeal is received by the Secretary.

(4) The Secretary shall notify the Governor and the appellant in writing of the Secretary's decision.

(f) Appeals of plan revocations. Pursuant to section 164(b)(1) of the Act, a notice of intent to revoke approval of all or part of a plan may be appealed to the Secretary. Such appeals shall be treated as a disapproval under paragraphs (c) and (e) of this section, except that the revocation shall not become effective until the later of:

(1) The time for appeal under paragraph (e) of this section has expired; or

(2) The date on which the Secretary issues a decision affirming the revocation.

(g) In the event that a plan is disapproved and the Governor's decision is upheld upon appeal, the Governor shall merge the affected area into other designated SDA's willing to accept it or include it in another SDA within the State.

§ 628.430 State SDA Submission.

(a) Pursuant to section 105(d) of the Act, when the SDA is the State, the Governor shall submit to the Secretary, not less than 60 days before the beginning of the first of the two program years covered by the job training plan and in accordance with instructions issued by the Secretary, an SDA job training plan covering two program years. When the SDA is the State, modifications to the plan shall be submitted to the Secretary for approval.

(b) When a State submits an SDA job training plan or plan modification pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, the Secretary shall review the plan or plan modification for overall compliance with the provisions of the Act. The State's plan shall be considered approved unless, within 45 days of receipt of the submission described in paragraph (a) of this section, the Secretary notifies the Governor in writing of inconsistencies between the submission and requirements of specific provisions of the Act. If the plan or plan modification is disapproved, the Governor may appeal the decision by requesting a hearing before an administrative law judge pursuant to subpart H of part 627 of this chapter.

Subpart E—Program Design Requirements for Programs Under Title II of the Job Training Partnership Act

§ 628.500 Scope and purpose.

This subpart contains the regulations pertaining to the program design requirements common to all programs conducted under titles I (i.e., sections 121 and 123) and II of the Act. Regulations specifically pertaining to the Adult Program can be found in subpart F of this part. Regulations pertaining to the Summer Youth Employment and Training Program can be found in subpart G of this part. Regulations pertaining to the Youth Training Program can be found in subpart H of this part.

§ 628.505 Eligibility.

(a) Eligibility criteria. (1) Individuals who apply to participate in a program under title II shall be evaluated for eligibility based on age and economic disadvantage. Specific eligibility criteria for programs under title II, parts A, B, and C are described in this part.

(2) Individuals served under title II shall be residents of the SDA, as determined by local government policy, except for the limited exceptions described in the job training plan, including joint programs operated by SDA's (section 141(e)).

(b) Eligibility documentation. (1) In order to promote the uniform and standard application of eligibility criteria for participation in the JTPA program, the Department has issued an Eligibility Documentation TAG that provides guidance on acceptable documentation.

(2) SDA utilization of eligibility guidance. When it is determined that the SDA or service provider has followed the guidance contained in the Eligibility Documentation TAG, the Grant Officer will not disallow questioned costs related to the required documentation concerning an individual's eligibility.

§ 628.510 Intake, referrals and targeting.

(a) Collection of personal data. In addition to determining an applicant's eligibility, the intake process shall include a preliminary review of information relating to whether an applicant is included in one or more of the categories listed in section 203(b) of the Act.

(b) Information on services. Upon application, an eligible individual shall be provided information by the SDA or its service providers on the full array of services available through the SDA and its service providers, including information for women about the opportunities for nontraditional training and employment.

(c) Assessment during intake. Some limited assessment activities may be conducted during the intake process in order to determine an eligible applicant's suitability for title II program services. This assessment should be a method, in difficult cases, to finalize determinations for enrollment. The amount of assessment provided during intake is not restricted, however, assessment during intake shall be charged in accordance with § 627.440(d)(3).

(d) Referral of eligible applicants. During the intake process, determinations may be made prior to enrollment to refer an eligible applicant to another human service, training or education program deemed more suitable for the individual, including the Job Corps program. In these cases, information on the full array of services available in the SDA may be provided in written form with recommendations and written referrals to other appropriate programs. Copies of or notations of referrals will be maintained as documentation and may be recorded in an incomplete ISS. Further tracking or follow-up of referrals out of title II is not required.

(e) Referrals from service providers to service delivery areas for additional assessment. (1) Each service provider shall ensure that an eligible applicant who cannot be served by its particular program shall be referred to the SDA for assessment, as necessary, and suitable referral to other appropriate programs. Each service provider shall also ensure that a participant who cannot be served by its particular program shall be referred to the SDA for further assessment, as necessary, and suitable referral to other appropriate programs, consistent with § 628.515.

(2) Each SDA shall take the appropriate steps (e.g., contract provisions, local administrative issuances, and/or PIC policies) to ensure that its service providers adhere to the provisions of this section and that they maintain documentation of referrals.

(3) Each SDA shall develop an appropriate mechanism to ensure suitability screening for eligible applicants or to apply the provisions of § 628.530 for participants referred by service providers and describe such mechanism in its SDA job training plan.

(f)(1) "Most in need." SDA's that satisfy the requirements of sections 203(b) and 263 (b) and (d) pertaining to hard to serve individuals shall be deemed to meet the "most in need" criteria at section 141(a) of the Act.

(2) The requirements referred to in paragraph (h)(1) of this section shall be calculated on the basis of new participants for whom services or training have been provided subsequent to the objective assessment.

(g) The SDA's method of meeting the requirements of sections 203(b) and 263(b) pertaining to hard to serve individuals shall be implemented consistent with the equal opportunity provisions of 29 CFR part 34.

§ 628.515 Objective assessment.

(a) General. The requirements of this section shall apply to programs conducted under title I (i.e., sections 121 and 123) and title II, parts A, B, and C.

(b) Definition. (1) For purposes of this part, an objective assessment means an examination of the capabilities, needs, and vocational potential of a participant and is to be used to develop an individual service strategy and employment goal. Such assessment is customer-centered and a diagnostic evaluation of a participant's employment barriers taking into account the participant's family situation, work history, education, basic and occupational skills, interests, aptitudes (including interests and aptitudes for nontraditional occupations), attitude towards work, motivation, behavior patterns affecting employment potential, financial resources and needs, supportive service needs, and personal employment information as it relates to the local labor market.

(2) For the program under title II-B, the objective assessment shall include an examination of the basic skills and supportive service needs of each participant and may include the other areas listed in paragraph (b)(1) of this section (sections 204(a)(1)(A), 253(c)(1) and 264(b)(1)(A)).

(c) Methods of objective assessment. (1) The SDA shall choose the most appropriate means to measure skills, abilities, attitudes, and interests of the participants. The methods used in conducting the objective assessment may include, but are not limited to, structured interviews, paper and pencil tests, performance tests (e.g., skills, and/or work samples, including those that measure interest and capability to train in nontraditional employment), behavioral observations, interest and/or attitude inventories, career guidance instruments, aptitude tests, and basic skills tests.

(2) Instruments used for objective assessment may be developed at the local level; however, any formalized instruments nationally available should be used only for the specific populations for which they are normed.

(d) Updating of assessments. Objective assessment should be treated as an ongoing process. As additional relevant information relating to a participant becomes available, it should be reviewed and considered for inclusion in the individual service strategy.

(e) Other sources of objective assessment. Other non-JTPA assessments (e.g., through the Job Opportunities and Basic Skills (JOBS) program under title IV of the Social Security Act, or through schools) which have been completed within one year of application for services, and which meet the requirements of this section, may be used to comply with the requirement to assess each participant.

§ 628.520 Individual service strategy.

(a) General. The requirements of this section shall apply to programs conducted under title I (i.e., sections 121 and 123) and title II, parts A, B and C.

(b) Definition. (1) Individual service strategy (ISS) means an individual plan for a participant, which shall include an employment goal (including, for women, consideration of nontraditional employment), appropriate achievement objectives, and the appropriate combination of services for the participant based on the objective assessment conducted pursuant to § 628.515 of this part, Objective assessment. In developing the ISS, the participant shall be counseled regarding required loan repayments if the participant chooses to incur personal indebtedness to participate in an education program. The participant shall also be apprised of the requirements for self-sufficiency and the occupational demands within the labor market.

(2) Decisions concerning appropriate services shall be customer-centered, and ensure that the participant is not excluded from training or career options consistent with the provisions of 29 CFR part 34 concerning non-discrimination and equal opportunity.

(3) For the title II-B program, the ISS may include the components specified in paragraph (b)(1) of this section (sections 204(a)(1)(B), 253(c)(2) and 264(b)(1)(B)). For purposes of titles II-B and II-C, the employment goal may be interpreted broadly and based on long-term career guidance.

(c) Joint Development of ISS. The ISS shall be developed in partnership with the participant and reflect the needs indicated by the objective assessment and the expressed interests and desires of the participant. It is not a formal contract and signatures are not a requirement.

(d) Review of ISS. The ISS shall be reviewed periodically to evaluate the progress of each participant in meeting the objectives of the service strategy, including an evaluation of the participant's progress in acquiring basic skills, and occupational skills, as appropriate, and the adequacy of the supportive services provided.

(e) Provision of services. If JTPA resources are not sufficient to provide the full range of training or supportive services which might be identified in the ISS, the SDA shall make every reasonable effort to arrange for, through other community resources, basic and occupational skills training and supportive services identified as needed in the ISS for participants under titles II-A and II-C and, in addition, preemployment and work maturity skills training and work experience combined with skills training for participants under title II-C (sections 204(a)(1)(D) and 264(b)(1)(D)).

(f) SDA review of objective assessment and ISS. (1) The objective assessment and development of the ISS may be conducted by service providers.

(2) The SDA administrative entity shall ensure that development of the ISS and the services provided, respond to the individual needs of the participant and that the combination of services to the participant is indicated by the results of the objective assessment.

(g) ISS record of decisions. The ISS shall be used as the basic instrument for the SDA to record the results of decisions made about the combination and sequence of services for the participant based on the objective assessment. Justification for decisions may be referenced but need not be recorded in the ISS. These decisions shall include, but are not limited to, the employment goal and/or career cluster; referrals to other programs for specified activities; the provision and amount of supportive services; and the delivery agents and schedules for training and supportive services activities. The decisions for time and duration of OJT (§627.240 of this chapter) shall be briefly recorded in the ISS and may not reference other documents.

(h) The ISS is a customer-centered case management tool and shall not be used as a compliance document.

§ 628.525 Limitations.

Neither eligibility for nor participation in a JTPA program creates an entitlement to services, and nothing in the Act or this part shall be construed to establish a private right of action for a participant to obtain services described in the objective assessment or ISS.

§ 628.530 Referrals of participants to non-title II programs.

(a) When it is determined, through the objective assessment and the ISS, that a participant would be better served by a program other than one under title II (e.g., Job Corps, Vocational Rehabilitation, State or local education, substance abuse treatment center, and/or dislocated worker programs), the participant shall be referred to the appropriate program. Such referral shall be recorded in the ISS.

(b) In cases where there will be a continuing relationship with a participant, a referral to another program(s) for specific services will be part of the participant's title II program strategy and will be recorded in the ISS.

(c) When there will not be a continuing relationship with a participant as the result of a referral to a program other than title II, and an assessment but no training component has been provided, the referral should be recorded in a partial ISS and the individual shall not be counted for purposes of calculating performance against the SDA's performance standards. Further tracking or follow-up of referrals out of title II is not required.

§ 628.535 Limitations on job search assistance.

(a) General. Job search assistance is designed to give a participant skills in acquiring full time employment. (See §626.5 of this chapter, Definitions.)

(b) Conditions. Job search activities may be conducted only:

(1) For participants when specified as appropriate in the ISS; and

(2) When delivered in conjunction with other training or educational services designed to increase the participant's ability to acquire employment. Additional services which may be provided in conjunction with job search include the direct training services listed in JTPA section 204(b)(1) of the Act, excluding standalone skill assessment, counseling, work experience and case management and the direct training services listed in 264(b) of the Act excluding tutoring, standalone skill assessment, counseling, work experience and case management. (See §627.245 of this chapter, "Work Experience," especially §627.245(d) regarding combination of other services.)

(c) Exceptions. (1) Job search assistance activities, including job search skills, training, and job clubs may be provided without the accompanying services specified in paragraph (b) of this section only when:

(i) The objective assessment and the ISS indicate that the additional services are not appropriate; and

(ii) The activities are not available or accessible through other public agencies, including the Employment Service.

(2) The exceptions in paragraph (c)(1) of this section apply to Title II-A and II-B and are not applicable to Title II-C programs (see § 628.804 (d) and (e)).

(d) Determination of job search availability. For purposes of this section, a determination of the availability of the job search assistance activity will be made by the SDA, in consultation with the employment service and documented in the local job training plan.

(e) Older individuals. For purposes of this section, when an individual aged 55 or older indicates in the assessment a preference for immediate job placement, job search assistance may be provided on a stand-alone basis. The individual's preference shall be recorded in the ISS.

§ 628.540 Volunteer program.

Pursuant to sections 204(c)(6) and 264(d)(7) of the Act, the SDA shall make opportunities available for individuals who have successfully participated in programs under this part to volunteer assistance, in the form of mentoring, tutoring, and other activities.

§ 628.545 Linkages and coordination.

(a) General requirements. (1) To the extent practicable, and as permitted by law and regulations, the Governor shall, at the State level, facilitate coordination among the programs set forth at section 205(a) and 265(b) of the Act, including, but not limited to, the establishment of State-level coordination agreements. The Governor may focus coordination through the SJTCC or the HRIC.

(2) The SDA, in conducting programs under this part, shall establish appropriate linkages and coordination procedures with other Federal programs and appropriate State and local educational, social service, and public housing agencies, including with CBO's, business and labor organizations, volunteer groups and others, such as women and older worker organizations, and with appropriate education and training agencies, such as local JOBS programs, Employment Service offices which provide services for JTPA participants, and the local agencies on aging, to avoid duplication and to enhance the delivery of services, which shall be described in the SDA job training plan. Where a local agency declines to complete such a linkage with an SDA, the SDA shall reflect this information in its job training plan (section 104(b)).

(b) SDA's are encouraged to facilitate effective "one stop shop career centers" and "single point of contact" delivery systems which may include:

(1) The development of individual service strategy plans and of a common program application; and

(2) A unified job development effort and comprehensive programmatic design (sections 104(b) (3) and (4), 205 (a) and (b) and 265).

(c) Requirements for youth. For the youth programs under this part, formal agreements shall be established with appropriate local educational agencies which participate in JTPA programs which, at a minimum, shall specify:

(1) The procedures for referring and serving in-school youth;

(2) The methods of assessment of in-school youth; and

(3) Procedures for notifying the SDA when a youth drops out of the school system.

(d) Schoolwide projects. (1) In conducting a schoolwide project for low income individuals under sections 263(g) and 265(d) of the Act, the SDA shall establish a cooperative agreement with the appropriate local educational agency.

(2) In addition to the requirements listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the cooperative agreement shall include:

(i) A description of the ways in which the JTPA schoolwide project will supplement the educational program of the school;

(ii) Identification of measurable goals to be achieved by the schoolwide project and a provision for assessing the extent to which such goals are met;

(iii) A description of the ways in which the program will use available JTPA and other education program resources;

(iv) A description of the number of individuals to be served by the schoolwide project; and

(v) Assurances that JTPA resources shall be used in coordination with existing sources of funds to supplement and not supplant them (section 107(b)).

(3) In areas where there is more than one local educational agency, cooperative agreements for schoolwide projects are required only with those local education agencies that will participate in programs under schoolwide projects (section 263(g)).

§ 628.550 Transfer of funds.

If described in the job training plan and approved by the Governor:

(a) An amount up to 10 percent of the funds allocated to the SDA under section 202(b) of the Act for title II-A may be transferred to the program under title II-C of the Act;

(b) An amount up to 20 percent of the funds allocated to the SDA under section 252(b) of the Act for title II-B may be transferred to the program under title II-C of the Act; and

(c) An amount up to 10 percent of the funds allocated to the SDA under section 262(b) of the Act for title II-C may be transferred to the program under title II-A of the Act.

Subpart F—The Adult Program

§ 628.600 Scope and purpose.

This subpart contains the regulations for the Adult Program under part A of Title II of the Act. The regulations in part 627 of this chapter and subpart E of this part apply to the Adult Program to the extent that they do not conflict with the provisions of this subpart.

§ 628.605 Eligibility.

(a) Age and economic disadvantage. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, an individual shall be eligible to participate under this part only if he or she is economically disadvantaged and 22 years of age or older. There is no maximum age for eligibility.

(b) Non-economically disadvantaged individuals. Up to 10 percent of the individuals served under this subpart in each SDA may be individuals who are not economically disadvantaged, if such individuals face serious barriers to employment in accordance with section 203(c) of the Act.

(c) Requirement to assist hard-to-serve individuals. (1) Not less than 65 percent of adults who participate in the program under this subpart, including those who are not economically disadvantaged, shall have one or more of the additional barriers to employment as described in section 203(b) of the Act.

(2) The 65 percent barrier requirement in paragraph (c)(1) of this section shall be calculated on the basis of participants for whom services or training have been provided subsequent to an objective assessment on July 1, 1993 or later.

(d) Addition of barrier. An SDA may identify and add one additional serious barrier to employment to the categories listed at section 203(b) of the Act, in accordance with the specific procedures and requirements in section 203(d) of the Act.

(e) Criteria for older workers under joint programs. (1) The SDA may establish written financial or non-financial agreements with sponsors of programs under title V of the Older Americans Act to carry out joint programs.

(2) Joint programs under this paragraph (e) may include referrals between programs, co-enrollment and provision of services.

(3) Under agreements entered into pursuant to this paragraph (e), individuals eligible under title V of the Older Americans Act shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of section 203(a)(2) of the JTPA (Older Americans Act, Pub. L. 102-375, section 510).

§ 628.610 Authorized services.

(a) The services that may be provided under this subpart are those described at section 204(b) of the Act.

(b) Counseling and supportive services. Counseling and supportive services provided under this subpart may be provided to a participant for a period of up to 1 year after the date on which the participant completes the program.

Subpart G—The Summer Youth Employment and Training Program

§ 628.700 Scope and purpose.

This subpart contains the regulations for the Summer Youth Employment and Training Program (SYETP) under part B of title II of the Act. The regulations in part 627 of this chapter and subpart E of this part apply to the SYETP to the extent that they do not conflict with the provisions of this subpart.

§ 628.701 Program goals and objectives.

(a) Each SDA shall establish written goals and objectives that shall be used in evaluating the effectiveness of its SYETP activities. Such goals and objectives may include enhancement of basic educational skills through improvement in school retention or academic performance (including mathematics and reading comprehension); encouragement of school completion or enrollment in supplementary or alternative school programs; improvement of employability skills, including provision of vocational exploration opportunities and exposure to the world of work; enhancement of youth citizenship skills; and demonstrated coordination with other appropriate community organizations.

(b) Each SDA shall ensure that the activities and services offered under the SYETP are consistent with and will contribute to the achievement of the goals and objectives developed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 628.702 Eligibility.

(a) Age and economic disadvantage. An individual is eligible to participate in programs funded under title II-B of the Act, if such individual is

(1) Age 14 through 21; and

(2)(i) Economically disadvantaged; or

(ii) Has been determined to meet the eligibility requirements for free meals under the National School Lunch Act during the most recent school year. Most recent school year means the current school year unless the eligibility determination is made during an interim period between school terms, in which case the term means the preceding school year; or

(iii) Is participating in a compensatory education program under Chapter I of title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965; or

(iv) Is participating in a schoolwide project as set forth at section 263(g) of the Act.

(b) Eligibility determination verification. The SDA may accept the same documentation utilized by the local educational agency for approving free lunch meals or an assurance by school officials concerning the students' participation in the free school lunch program under the National School Lunch Act.

§ 628.705 SYETP authorized services.

(a) The services that may be provided under this subpart are those described at section 253 of the Act.

(b) Basic and remedial education and preemployment and work maturity skills training. The SDA shall ensure the availability of basic or remedial education and preemployment and work maturity skills training for SYETP participants pursuant to the assessment process described in § 628.515 of this part from funds available to the SDA or by other education and training programs, including, but not limited to, the Job Corps, the JOBS program, youth corps programs or alternative or secondary schools.

(c) Work experience. (1) Work experience shall be conducted consistent with the provisions of § 627.245 of this chapter.

(2) Work experience provided under this subpart, to the extent feasible, shall include contextual learning opportunities which integrate the development of general competencies with the development of academic skills.

(d) Concurrent enrollment. (1) Youth being served under the SYETP or the Youth Training Program authorized under title II-C of the Act (see subpart H of this part) are not required to be terminated from participation in one program to enroll in the other. The SDA may enroll such youth concurrently in programs under this subpart and subpart H of this part, pursuant to guidance to be issued by the Secretary, in order to promote continuity and coordination of services.

(2) The requirement that not less than 65 percent of the total number of title II-C participants shall have one or more barriers to employment pursuant to section 263(c) and (d) of the Act shall apply to youth who are concurrently enrolled and will participate in the program under title II-C.

(e) Followup services. (1) The SDA shall make followup services available for participants if the ISS indicates that such services are appropriate (section 253(d)).

(2) Title II-B funds may be used for such followup services for one year after program participation, which may be concurrent with a period of any subsequent participation in the Title II-C program.

(3) Followup services include the full array of supportive services described in section 4(24) of the Act, except for financial assistance, and may include such followup services as counseling, mentoring, or tutoring.

(f) Classroom training. Classroom training provided under this subpart shall, to the extent feasible, include opportunities to apply knowledge and skills relating to academic subjects to the world of work.

(g) Educational linkages. (1) In conducting the program assisted under this subpart, service delivery areas shall establish linkages with the appropriate educational agencies responsible for service to participants.

(2) Such linkages shall include arrangements to ensure that there is a regular exchange of information relating to the progress, problems and needs of participants, including the results of assessments of the skill levels of participants.

§ 628.710 Period of program operation.

(a) Except as provided under paragraph (b) of this section, the SYETP shall be conducted during the school vacation period occurring during the summer months.

(b) An SDA operating within the jurisdiction of one or more local educational agencies that operate schools on a year-round full-time basis may offer SYETP activities to participants in such a jurisdiction during the school vacation period(s) treated as the period(s) equivalent to a school summer vacation.

Subpart H—Youth Training Program

§ 628.800 Scope and purpose.

This subpart contains the regulations for the Year-round Youth Program under part C of title II of the Act. The regulations in part 627 of this chapter and subpart E of this part apply to the Year-round Youth program to the extent that they do not conflict with the provisions of this subpart.

§ 628.803 Eligibility.

(a) Out-of-school youth. An out of school youth is a youth who does not meet the definition of in-school youth as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. An out-of-school youth shall be eligible to participate in programs under this subpart, if such individual is:

- (1) Age 16 through 21, and
- (2) Economically disadvantaged.

(b) In-school youth. Definition. In-school youth means a youth who has not yet attained a high school diploma and is attending school full time. An in-school youth shall be eligible to participate in programs under this subpart, if such individual is:

- (1)(i) Age 16 through 21, or
- (ii) If provided in the job training plan, age 14 through 21 inclusive; and
- (2)(i) Economically disadvantaged; or
- (ii) Participating in a compensatory education program under Chapter I of title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965; or

(iii) Has been determined to meet the eligibility requirements for free meals under the National School Lunch Act during the most recent school year. Most recent school year means the current school year unless the eligibility determination is made during an interim period between school terms, in which case the term means the preceding school year.

(c) Eligibility determination verification. The SDA may accept the same documentation utilized by the local educational agency for approving free lunch meals or an assurance by school officials concerning the students' participation in the free school lunch program under the National School Lunch Act. The Department shall provide guidance on this verification separate from these regulations.

(d) Requirement to serve hard-to-serve individuals. (1) Not less than 65 percent of the in-school youth who participate in the program under this subpart, including those who are not economically disadvantaged, shall have one or more additional barriers to employment, as described in section 263(b) of the Act.

(2)(i) Not less than 65 percent of the out-of-school youth who participate in the program under this subpart, including those who are not economically disadvantaged, shall have one or more barriers to employment, as described in section 263(d) of the Act, in addition to any criterion listed in paragraph (b)(2) of this section.

(ii) All Job Corps participants shall be considered out-of-school and as having a barrier to employment.

(3) The requirement of paragraphs (d)(1) and (2) of this section shall be calculated on the basis of participants for whom services or training have been provided subsequent to the objective assessment on July 1, 1993 or later.

(e) Addition of barrier. An SDA may identify and add one additional serious barrier to employment to the categories listed at sections 263(b) and (d) of the Act in accordance with the specific procedures and requirements in section 263(h) of the Act.

(f) Services to non-economically disadvantaged individuals. Up to 10 percent of the youth served by an SDA under this subpart may be individuals who are not economically disadvantaged, but such individuals shall face one or more serious barriers to employment in accordance with section 263(e) of the Act.

(g) Eligibility based on schoolwide project participation. (1) In addition to the individuals who meet the conditions described in § 628.803 of this part, individuals who are not economically disadvantaged may participate in programs under this subpart if they are enrolled in a schoolwide project pursuant to section 263(g) of the Act.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (g)(1) of this section, the term school means an individual building, facility, campus or a portion of the school such as the 11th or 12th grade.

(3) A schoolwide project may be operated in a public school located in an urban census tract or non-metropolitan county with a poverty rate of 30 percent or above, and in which 70 percent or more of the students have at least one barrier to employment. The school shall make the determination on whether its students meet the barrier requirements.

(4) The SDA shall determine which will be its schoolwide projects. Examples of schoolwide projects include, but are not limited to, school-to-work programs; college awareness and application assistance programs; school restructuring to make the schools career academies or magnet schools; mentoring programs; business-education compacts; integration of work and learning; year-round extensions of summer STEP programs; community service programs, including linkages with youth service corps; programs to encourage teen parents to stay in school, including establishing child care centers; and work experience slots provided as incentives to stay in school.

(h)(1) Out-of-school ratio. Not less than 50 percent of the total title II-C participants in each SDA shall be out-of-school youth (section 263(f)(1) of the Act). The Governor shall be responsible for determining the period for which the 50 percent requirement will be calculated based either on the period covered by the job training plan or on a program year basis.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (h)(1) of this section, a youth who has attained a high school diploma or an equivalency, is habitually truant, as defined by State law, or is attending an alternative school program may be considered out of school. An alternative school program includes an alternative high school, an alternative course of study approved by the local educational agency, or a high school equivalency program. Such programs may be operated either within or outside of the local public school system, and can offer either a high school diploma or equivalency.

(3) Schoolwide project ratios. Those in-school participants who are served under a schoolwide project shall not be counted in determining the ratio of in-school to out-of-school youth in paragraph (h)(1) of this section.

§ 628.804 Authorized services.

(a) The SDA and the PIC shall take into consideration exemplary program strategies and services, including those selected for replication pursuant to section 453(c) of the Act concerning capacity building, in the development of services for programs under this subpart.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, in order to participate in programs under this part an individual who is under the age of 18 and a school dropout, as defined in section 4(38) of the Act, shall enroll in and attend a school, course or program described in section 264(d)(2)(B)(ii) and (iii). An alternative course of study shall be approved by the LEA and may include educational programs provided by community-based organizations.

(c) An individual who is a school dropout, as defined in section 4(38) of the Act, and under the age of 18 may participate in programs under this part without meeting the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section for a limited interim period which may be during the summer months, during periods between school terms, or when a course of study is not immediately available.

(d) The provision of preemployment and work maturity skills training shall be accompanied either by work experience or by other additional services which are designed to increase the basic education or occupational skills of the participant (section 264(d)(3)(A)).

(e) The provision of work experience, job search assistance, job search skills training, and job club activities under programs conducted under this subpart shall be accompanied by other additional services which are designed to increase the basic education or occupational skills of the participant (section 264(d)(3)(B)).

(f) The additional services offered pursuant to paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section may be provided concurrently or sequentially with services provided under other education and training programs (e.g., Job Opportunities and Basic Skills programs under title IV of the Social Security Act, Job Corps (see part 638 of this chapter), or schools).

(g) Schoolwide projects for low-income schools shall meet the conditions in sections 263(g)(1) and (2) of the Act.

(h) Entry employment experience is a training activity which may be conducted in public or private agencies. In all cases, this training activity shall increase or develop the long term employability of eligible in-school and out-of-school youth. Entry employment experiences may include, but are not limited to:

(1) Work experience as described in § 627.245 of this chapter; and

(2) Cooperative education programs that coordinate educational programs with work in the private sector. Subsidized wages are not permitted in cooperative education programs.

(i) Limited internships in the private sector under this subpart shall be designed to enhance the long-term employability of youth.

(1) A limited internship shall be conducted pursuant to an agreement with an employer to provide structured on-site private sector exposure to work and the requirements for successful job retention.

(2) A limited internship should be combined with classroom instruction relating to a particular position, occupation, industry or the basic skills and abilities to successfully compete in the local labor market.

(j)(1) On-the-job (OJT) training activities approved under this subpart shall be consistent with the provisions of subpart B of part 627 of this chapter and shall:

(i) Be for positions that pay the participant a wage that equals or exceeds on the average wage at placement based on the most recent available data in the SDA for participants under title II-A;

(ii) Be for positions that have career advancement potential; and

(iii) Include a formal, written program of structured job training that will provide the participant with an orderly combination of instruction in work maturity skills, general employment competencies, and occupational specific skills.

(2) In those cases where the OJT participant is a school dropout, the participant shall participate in an education program in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

(k) Counseling and supportive services provided under this subpart may be provided to a participant for a period of up to 1 year after the date on which the participant completes the program. These include the full array of supportive services described in section 4(24) of the Act except for financial assistance.

(1) Year-round operations. Programs for youth under this subpart shall:

(1) Provide for a year-round education and training program that is coordinated with the appropriate local educational agencies, service providers, and other programs; and

(2) As appropriate, ensure services for youth are available on a multiyear basis, consistent with the determined needs and goals of the youth served.

(3) The year-round program delivery requirement of this paragraph does not prohibit schools on a 9-month operations schedule from providing services for programs under this part.

Subpart A—General Provisions

§ 631.1 Scope and purpose.

This part implements Title III of the Act. Title III programs seek to establish an early readjustment capacity for workers and firms in each State; to provide comprehensive coverage to workers regardless of the cause of dislocation; to provide early referral from the unemployment insurance system to adjustment services as an integral part of the adjustment process; to foster labor, management and community partnerships with government in addressing worker dislocation; to emphasize retraining and reemployment services rather than income support; to create an on-going substate capacity to deliver adjustment services; to tailor services to meet the needs of individuals; to improve accountability by establishing a system of mandated performance standards; to improve financial management by monitoring expenditures and reallocating available funds; and to provide the flexibility to target funds to the most critical dislocation problems.

§ 631.2 Definitions.

In addition to the definitions contained in sections 4, 301, and 303(e) of the Act and Part 626 of this chapter, the following definitions apply to programs under Title III of the Act and this part:

Substantial layoff (for participant eligibility) means any reduction-in-force which is not the result of a plant closing and which results in an employment loss at a single site of employment during any 30 day period for:

(a)(1) At least 33 percent of the employees (excluding employees regularly working less than 20 hours per week); and

(2) At least 50 employees (excluding employees regularly working less than 20 hours per week); or

(b) At least 500 employees (excluding employees regularly working less than 20 hours per week).

Substantial layoff (for rapid response assistance) means any reduction-in-force which is not the result of a plant closing and which results in an employment loss at a single site of employment during any 30 day period for at least 50 employees (excluding employees regularly working less than 20 hours per week) (section 314(b)(4)).

§ 631.3 Participant eligibility.

(a) Eligible dislocated workers, as defined in section 301 of the Act, may participate in programs under this part. For the purposes of determining eligibility under section 301(a)(1)(A) of the Act, the term “eligible for” unemployment compensation includes any individual whose wages from employment would be considered in determining eligibility for unemployment compensation under Federal or State unemployment compensation laws.

(b)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (b)(3) of this section, workers who have not received an individual notice of termination but who are employed at a facility for which the employer has made a public announcement of planned closure shall be considered eligible dislocated workers with respect to the provision of basic readjustment services specifically identified in section 314(c) of the Act with the exception of supportive services and relocation assistance.

(2) Individuals identified in paragraph (b)(1) of this section shall be eligible to receive all services authorized in sections 314 of the Act after a date which is 180 days prior to the scheduled closure date of the facility, subject to the provisions of § 631.20 of this part and other applicable provisions regarding receipt of supportive services.

(3) Paragraphs (b)(1) and (b)(2) of this section shall not apply to individuals who are likely to remain employed with the employer or to retire instead of seeking new employment.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (b)(1) of this section, the Governor shall establish criteria for defining public announcement. Such criteria shall include provisions that the public announcement shall be made by the employer and shall indicate a planned closure date for the facility (section 314(h)).

§ 631.3

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(c) Eligible dislocated workers include individuals who were self-employed (including farmers and ranchers) and are unemployed:

(1) Because of natural disasters, subject to the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section; or

(2) As a result of general economic conditions in the community in which they reside.

(d) For the purposes of paragraph (c) of this section, categories of economic conditions resulting in the dislocation of a self-employed individual may include, but are not limited to:

(1) Failure of one or more businesses to which the self-employed individual supplied a substantial proportion of products or services;

(2) Failure of one or more businesses from which the self-employed individual obtained a substantial proportion of products or services;

(3) Substantial layoff(s) from, or permanent closure(s) of, one or more plants or facilities that support a significant portion of the State or local economy.

(e) The Governor is authorized to establish procedures to determine the eligibility to participate in programs under this part of the following categories of individuals:

(1) Self-employed farmers, ranchers, professionals, independent tradespeople and other business persons formerly self-employed but presently unemployed.

(2) Self-employed individuals designated in paragraph (d)(1) of this section who are in the process of going out of business, if the Governor determines that the farm, ranch, or business operations are likely to terminate.

(3) Family members and farm or ranch hands of individuals identified under paragraphs (d)(1) and (2) of this section, to the extent that their contribution to the farm, ranch, or business meets minimum requirements as established by the Governor.

(f) The Governor is authorized to establish procedures to identify individuals permanently dislocated from their occupations or fields of work, including self-employment, because of natural disasters. For the purposes of this paragraph (f), categories of natural disasters include, but are not limited to, any hurricane, tornado, storm, flood, high water, wind-driven water, tidal wave, tsunami, earthquake, volcanic eruption, landslide, mudslide, drought, fire, or explosion.

(g) The State may provide services to displaced homemakers (as defined in section 4 of the Act) under this part only if the Governor determines that such services may be provided without adversely affecting the delivery of such services to eligible dislocated workers (section 311(b)(4)).

(h) An eligible dislocated worker issued a certificate of continuing eligibility, as provided in § 631.53 of this part, shall remain eligible for assistance under this part for the period specified in the certificate, not to exceed 104 weeks. The 45-day enrollment provisions described in subpart B of part 627 of this chapter shall be waived for eligible individuals who possess a valid certificate under this paragraph and it is not required that a new application be taken prior to participation.

(i) An eligible dislocated worker who does not possess a valid certificate shall remain eligible if such individual:

(1) Remains unemployed, or

(2) Accepts temporary employment for the purpose of income maintenance prior to and/or during participation in a training program under this part with the intention of ending such temporary employment at the completion of the training and entry into permanent unsubsidized employment as a result of the training. Such temporary employment must be with an employer other than that from which the individual was dislocated. This provision applies to eligible individuals both prior to and subsequent to enrollment.

(j) The Governor shall ensure that rapid response and basic readjustment services under Title III of JTPA are made available to workers who, under the NAFTA Worker Security Act (Pub. L. 103-182), are members of a group of workers (including workers in any agricultural firm or subdivision of an agricultural firm) for which the Governor has made a finding that (1) the sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely, and (2) imports from Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have increased; or (3) there has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to Mexico or Canada of articles which are produced by the firm or subdivision.

§ 631.4 Approved training rule.

An eligible dislocated worker who is participating in any retraining activity, except on-the-job training, under Title III of the Act or this part shall be deemed to be in training with the approval of the State agency for purposes of section 3304(a)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Participation in the approved training shall not disqualify the individual from receipt of unemployment benefits to which the individual is otherwise entitled (section 314(f)(2)).

Subpart B—Additional Title III Administrative Standards and Procedures

§ 631.11 Allotment and obligation of funds by the Secretary.

(a) Funds shall be allotted among the various States in accordance with section 302(b)(1) of the Act, subject to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Funds shall be allotted among the various States in accordance with section 302(b)(2)(A) and (B) of the Act as soon as satisfactory data are available under section 462(e) of the Act.

(c) Allotments for the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands and other territories and possessions of the United States shall be made by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of section 302(e) of the Act.

§ 631.12 Reallotment of funds by the Secretary.

(a) Based upon reports submitted by States pursuant to § 631.15 of this part, the Secretary shall make determinations regarding total expenditures of funds within the State with reference to the amount required to be reallotted pursuant to section 303(b) of the Act. For purposes of this paragraph (a)—

(1) The funds to be reallotted will be an amount equal to the sum of:

(i) Unexpended funds in excess of 20 percent of the prior program year's formula allotment to the State, and

(ii) All unexpended funds from the formula allotment for the program year preceding the prior program year.

(2)(i) The current program year is the year in which the determination is made; and

(ii) The prior program year is the year immediately preceding the current program year.

(3) Unexpended funds shall mean the remainder of the total funds made available by formula that were available to the State for the prior program year minus total accrued expenditures at the end of the prior program year.

(4) Reallotted funds will be made available from current year allotments made available by formula.

(b) Based upon the most current and satisfactory data available, the Secretary shall identify eligible States, pursuant to the definitions in section 303(e) of the Act.

(c) The Secretary shall recapture funds from States identified in paragraph (a) of this section and reallot and reobligate such funds by a Notice of Obligation (NOO) adjustment to current year funds to eligible States as identified in paragraph (b) of this section, as set forth in section 303(a), (b), and (c) of the Act.

(d) Reallotted funds shall be subject to allocation pursuant to § 631.32 of this part, and to the cost limitations at § 631.14 of this part.

§ 631.13 Classification of costs at State and substate levels.

(a)(1) Allowable costs under Title III shall be planned, controlled, and charged by either the State or the substate grantee against the following cost categories: rapid response services, basic readjustment services, retraining services, needs-related payments and supportive services, and administration. Costs shall be reported to the Secretary of Labor in accordance with the reporting requirements established pursuant to § 631.15 of this part.

(2) All costs shall be allocable to a particular cost category to the extent that benefits are received by such category; and no costs shall be chargeable to a cost category except to the extent that benefits are received by such category.

§ 631.14

20 CFR Ch. V (4–1–03 Edition)

(b) Rapid response services shall include the cost of rapid response activities identified at section 314(b) of the Act.

(1) Staff salary and benefit costs are chargeable to the rapid response services cost category only for that portion of staff time actually spent on rapid response activities.

(2) All other costs are chargeable to the rapid response services cost category only to the extent that they are for rapid response purposes.

(c) Basic readjustment services shall include the cost of basic readjustment services identified at section 314(c) of the Act, except that the cost of supportive services under section 314(c)(15) of the Act shall be charged to the needs-related payments and supportive services cost category, as provided in paragraph (e) of this section.

(d) Retraining services shall include the cost of retraining services identified at section 314(d) of the Act.

(e) Needs-related payments and supportive services shall include the cost of needs-related payments identified in section 314(e) of the Act, and supportive services identified in section 4(24) of the Act and provided for in section 314(c)(15) of the Act.

(f)(1) Administration shall include the costs incurred by recipients and subrecipients in the administration of programs under Title III of the Act, and shall be that portion of necessary and allowable costs which is not directly related to the provision of services and otherwise allocable to the cost categories in paragraphs (b) through (e) of this section. The description of administrative costs in subpart D of part 627 of this chapter shall be used by States and substate grantees as guidance in charging administration costs to Title III programs.

(2) Administration does not include the costs of activities under section 314(b) of the Act and which are provided for in paragraph (b) of this section.

(3) Administration shall include Title III funds used for coordination of worker adjustment programs with the Federal-State unemployment compensation system and with Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C.

2271, et seq.) and part 617 of this chapter (sections 311(b)(10) and 314(f)).

§ 631.14 Limitations on certain costs.

(a) Retraining services. Of the funds allocated to a substate grantee under part A of Title III for any program year, not less than 50 percent shall be expended for retraining services specified under section 314(d) of the Act, unless a waiver of this requirement is granted by the Governor. The Governor shall prescribe criteria that will allow substate grantees to apply in advance for a waiver of this requirement, pursuant to section 315(a)(2) of the Act. The Governor shall prescribe the time and form for the submission of an application for such a waiver, as provided for at section 315(a)(3) of the Act. The Governor shall not grant a waiver that allows less than 30 percent of the funds expended by a substate grantee to be expended for retraining activities.

(b) Needs-related payments and supportive services. Of the funds allocated to the Governor, or allocated to any substate grantee, under part A of Title III for any program year, not more than 25 percent may be expended to provide needs-related payments and other supportive services.

(c) Administrative cost. Of the funds allocated to the Governor, or allocated to any substate grantee, under part A of Title III for any program year, not more than 15 percent may be expended to cover the administrative cost of programs.

(d) Reallotted funds are subject to the cost limitations in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section.

(e) Funds allocated (or distributed) to substate areas under the provisions of section 302(c)(1)(E) of the Act shall be considered funds allocated to a substate grantee for the program year of the funds' initial allotment to the State, and included in the cost limitations in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section.

(f) Funds reserved by the Governor under the provisions of Section 302(c)(1) of the Act, other than funds distributed to substate grantees under the provisions of JTPA section 302(c)(1)(E), shall be considered funds allocated to the Governor for the program year of the funds' initial allotment to the State and included in the cost limitations applicable to the Governor.

§ 631.16

(g) States and substate grantees shall have the full period of time that the funds are available to them to comply with the cost limitations described in JTPA section 315 and paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section.

(h) Combination of funds. (1) Substate grantees within a State may combine funds allocated under part A of Title III for provision of services to eligible dislocated workers from two or more substate areas. Funds contributed by the substate grantees under this section remain subject to the cost limitations which apply to each substate grantee's total allocation (section 315(d)).

(2) To combine funds under this provision, substate grantees must be in contiguous substate areas or part of the same labor market area.

(i) For the purposes of this section:

(1) Allotment to the State means allotted by the formula described in section 302(b) of the Act, as adjusted by reallotments among the States, in accordance with section 303 of the Act. For purposes of determining availability and of applying cost limitations, funds will retain the identity of the program year in which they were initially allotted to a State, irrespective of subsequent reallotments.

(2) Allocated to the substate grantee means allocated by the formula prescribed by the Governor under section 302(b) of the Act, and allocated (or distributed) under the provisions of section 302(c)(1)(E), as adjusted by within State reallocations implemented by the Governor through procedures established pursuant to section 303(d) of the Act. For purposes of determining availability and of applying cost limitations, funds will retain the identity of the program year in which they were initially allotted to the State.

(3) Allocated to the Governor refers to funds reserved by the Governor for use in accordance with the provisions of section 302(c)(1) of the Act, exclusive of any such funds which are distributed or allocated to substate grantees pursuant to section 302(c)(1)(E).

(j) The cost limitations described in this section do not apply to any designated substate grantee which served as a concentrated employment program grantee for a rural area under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (section 108(d)).

§ 631.15 Federal reporting requirements.

Notwithstanding the requirements in subpart D of part 627 of this chapter, the Governor shall report to the Secretary pursuant to instructions issued by the Secretary for programs and activities funded under this part. Such reports shall include a cost breakdown of all funds made available under this part used by the State Dislocated Worker Unit for administrative expenditures. Reports shall be provided to the Secretary within 45 calendar days after the end of the report period (sections 165(a)(2) and 311(b)(11)).

§ 631.16 Complaints, investigations, and penalties.

The provisions of this section apply in addition to the sanctions provisions in subpart G of part 627 of this chapter.

(a) The Secretary shall investigate a complaint or report received from an aggrieved party or a public official which alleges that a State is not complying with the provisions of the State plan required under section 311(a) of the Act (section 311(e)(1)).

(b) Where the Secretary determines that a State has failed to comply with its State plan, and that other remedies under the Act and part 627 of this chapter are not available or are not adequate to achieve compliance, the Secretary may withhold an amount not to exceed 10 percent of the allotment to the State for the program year in which the determination is made for each such violation (section 311(e)(2)(A)).

(c) The Secretary will not impose the penalty provided for under paragraph (b) of this section until all other remedies under the Act and part 627 of this chapter for achieving compliance have been exhausted or are determined to be unavailable or inadequate to achieve State compliance with the terms of the State plan.

(d) The Secretary will make no determination under this section until the affected State has been afforded adequate written notice and an opportunity to request and to receive a hearing before an administrative law judge pursuant to the provisions of subpart H of part 627 of this chapter (section 311(e)(2)(B)).

§ 631.17

§ 631.17 Federal monitoring and oversight.

The Secretary shall conduct oversight of State administration of programs under this part, including the administration by each State of the rapid response assistance services provided in such State. The Secretary shall take the appropriate actions to ensure the effectiveness, efficiency and timeliness of services conducted by the State in accordance with § 631.30(b) of this part (section 314(b)(3)).

§ 631.18 Federal by-pass authority.

(a) In the event that a State fails to submit a biennial State plan that is approved under § 631.36 of this part, the Secretary shall make arrangements to use the amount that would be allotted to that State for the delivery in that State of the programs, activities, and services authorized under Title III of the Act and this part.

(b) No determination may be made by the Secretary under this section until the affected State is afforded written notification of the Secretary's intent to exercise by-pass authority and an opportunity to request and to receive a hearing before an administrative law judge pursuant to the provisions of subpart H of part 627 of this chapter.

(c) The Secretary will exercise by-pass authority only until such time as the affected State has an approved plan under the provisions of § 631.36 of this part (section 321(b)).

§ 631.19 Appeals.

Except as provided in this part, disputes arising in programs under this part shall be adjudicated under the appropriate State or local grievance procedures required by subpart E of part 627 of this chapter or other applicable law. Complaints alleging violations of the Act or this part may be filed with the Secretary, pursuant to subpart F of part 627 of this chapter. Paragraphs (a) through (e) of this section refer to appeal rights set forth in this part.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(a) Section 628.405(g) of this chapter (appeals of denial of SDA designation) shall apply to denial of substate area designations under § 631.34(c)(1) and (3) of this part.

(b) Section 628.426(e) of this chapter (appeals of final disapproval of SDA job training plans or modifications) shall apply to final disapproval of substate plans under § 631.50(f) of this part.

(c) Section 628.426(f) of this chapter (appeals of a Governor's notice of intent to revoke approval of all or part of a plan) shall apply to a Governor's notice of intent to exercise by-pass authority under § 631.38 of this part.

(d) Section 628.430(b) of this chapter (appeals of the Secretary's disapproval of a plan when the SDA is the State) shall apply to plan disapproval when the substate area is the State, as set forth in § 631.50(g) and (h) of this part.

(e) Decisions pertaining to designations of substate grantees under § 631.35 of this part are not appealable to the Secretary.

Subpart C—Needs-related payments

§ 631.20 Needs-related payments.

(a) Title III funds available to States and substate grantees may be used to provide needs-related payments to participants in accordance with the approved State or substate plan, as appropriate.

(b) In accordance with the approved substate plan, needs-related payments shall be provided to an eligible dislocated worker only in order to enable such worker to participate in training or education programs under this part. To be eligible for needs-related payments:

(1) An eligible worker who has ceased to qualify for unemployment compensation must have been enrolled in a training or education program by the end of the thirteenth week of the worker's initial unemployment compensation benefit period, or, if later, by the end of the eighth week after an employee is informed that a short-term layoff will in fact exceed 6 months.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (b)(1) of this section, the term enrolled in a training or education program means that the worker's application for training has been approved and the training institution has furnished written notice that the worker has been accepted in the approved training program beginning within 30 calendar days.

(3) An eligible worker who does not qualify for unemployment compensation must be participating in a training or education program (section 314(e)(1)).

(c) Needs-related payments shall not be provided to any participant for the period that such individual is employed, enrolled in, or receiving on-the-job training, out-of-area job search, or basic readjustment services in programs under the Act, nor to any participant receiving trade readjustment allowances, on-the-job training, out-of-area job search allowances, or relocation allowances under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2271, et seq.) or part 617 of this chapter (section 314(e)(1)).

(d) The level of needs-related payments to an eligible dislocated worker in programs under this part shall not exceed the higher of:

(1) The applicable level of unemployment compensation; or

(2) The poverty level (as by the published by the Secretary of Health and Human Services) (section 314(e)(2)).

Subpart D—State Administration

§ 631.30 Designation or creation and functions of a State dislocated worker unit or office, and rapid response assistance.

(a) Designation or creation of State dislocated worker unit or office. The State shall designate or create an identifiable State dislocated worker unit or office with the capabilities and functions identified in paragraph (b) of this section. Such unit or office may be an existing organization or new organization formed for this purpose (section 311(b)(2)). The State dislocated worker unit or office shall:

(1) Make appropriate retraining and basic adjustment services available to eligible dislocated workers through substate grantees, and in statewide, regional or industrywide projects;

(2) Work with employers and labor organizations in promoting labor-management cooperation to achieve the goals of this part;

(3) Operate a monitoring, reporting, and management system to provide adequate information for effective program management, review, and evaluation;

(4) Provide technical assistance and advice to substate grantees;

(5) Exchange information and coordinate programs with the appropriate economic development agency, State education and training and social services programs;

(6) Coordinate with the unemployment insurance system, the Federal-State Employment Service system, the Trade Adjustment Assistance program and other programs under this chapter;

(7) Receive advance notice of plant closings and mass layoffs as provided at section 3(a)(2) of the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act (29 U.S.C. 2102(a)(2) and part 639 of this chapter);

(8) Immediately notify (within 48 hours) the appropriate substate grantees following receipt of an employer notice of layoff or plant closing or of any other information that indicates a projected layoff or plant closing by an employer in the grantee's substate area, in order to continue and expand the services initiated by the rapid response team (section 311(b)(3)(D));

(9) Fully consult with labor organizations where substantial numbers of their members are to be served; and

(10) Disseminate throughout the State information on the availability of services and activities under Title III of the Act and this part.

(b) Rapid response capability. The dislocated worker unit shall have one or more rapid response specialists, and the capability to provide rapid response assistance, on-site, for dislocation events such as permanent closures and substantial layoffs throughout the State. The State shall not transfer the responsibility for the rapid response assistance functions of the State dislocated worker unit to another entity, but the State may contract with another entity to perform rapid response assistance services. Nothing in this paragraph shall remove or diminish the dislocated worker unit's accountability for ensuring the effective delivery of rapid response assistance services throughout the State (section 311(b)(12)).

(1) State rapid response specialists should be knowledgeable about the resources available through programs under this part and all other appropriate resources available through public and private sources to assist dislocated workers. The expertise required by this part includes knowledge of the Federal, State, and local training and employment systems; labor-management relations and collective bargaining activities; private industry and labor market trends; programs and services available to veterans; and other fields necessary to carry out the rapid response requirements of the Act.

(2) The rapid response specialists should have:

(i) The ability to organize a broad-based response to a dislocation event, including the ability to coordinate services provided under this part with other State-administered programs available to assist dislocated workers, and the ability to involve the substate grantee and local service providers in the assistance effort;

(ii) The authority to provide limited amounts of immediate financial assistance for rapid response activities, including, where appropriate, financial assistance to labor-management committees formed under paragraph (c)(2) of this section;

(iii) Credibility among employers and in the employer community in order to effectively work with employers in difficult situations; and

(iv) Credibility among employee groups and in the labor community, including organized labor, in order to effectively work with employees in difficult situations.

(3) The dissemination of information on the State dislocated worker unit's services and activities should include efforts to ensure that major employers, organized labor, and groups of employees not represented by organized labor, are aware of the availability of rapid response assistance. The State dislocated worker unit should make equal effort in responding to dislocation events without regard to whether the affected workers are represented by a union.

(4) In a situation involving an impending permanent closure or substantial layoff, a State may provide funds, where other public or private resources are not expeditiously available, for a preliminary assessment of the advisability of conducting a comprehensive study exploring the feasibility of having a company or group, including the workers, purchase the plant and continue it in operation.

(5) Rapid response specialists may use funds available under this part:

(i) To establish on-site contact with employer and employee representatives within a short period of time (preferably 48 hours or less) after becoming aware of a current or projected permanent closure or substantial layoff in order to—

(A) Provide information on and facilitate access to available public programs and services; and

(B) Provide emergency assistance adapted to the particular permanent closure or substantial layoff; such emergency assistance may include financial assistance for appropriate rapid response activities, such as arranging for the provision of early intervention services and other appropriate forms of immediate assistance in response to the dislocation event;

(ii) To promote the formation of labor-management committees as provided for in paragraph (c) of this section, by providing:

(A) Immediate assistance in the establishment of the labor-management committee, including providing immediate financial assistance to cover the start-up costs of the committee;

(B) A list of individuals from which the chairperson of the committee may be selected;

(C) Technical advice as well as information on sources of assistance, and liaison with other public and private services and programs; and

(D) Assistance in the selection of worker representatives in the event no union is present;

(iii) To provide ongoing assistance to labor-management committees described in paragraph (c) of this section by:

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 631.30

(A) Maintaining ongoing contact with such committees, either directly or through the committee chairperson;

(B) Attending meetings of such committees on an ex officio basis; and

(C) Ensuring ongoing liaison between the committee and locally available resources for addressing the dislocation, including the establishment of linkages with the substate grantee or with the service provider designated by the substate grantee to act in such capacity;

(iv) To collect information related to:

(A) Economic dislocation (including potential closings or layoffs); and

(B) All available resources within the State for serving displaced workers, which information shall be made available on a regular basis to the Governor and the State Council to assist in providing an adequate information base for effective program management, review, and evaluation;

(v) To provide or obtain appropriate financial and technical advice and liaison with economic development agencies and other organizations to assist in efforts to avert worker dislocations;

(vi) To disseminate information throughout the State on the availability of services and activities carried out by the dislocated worker unit or office; and

(vii) To assist the local community in developing its own coordinated response and in obtaining access to State economic development assistance.

(6) Notwithstanding the definition of "substantial layoff (for rapid response assistance)" at § 631.2 of this part;

(i) The Governor shall provide rapid response and basic readjustment services to members of a group of workers under the NAFTA Worker Security Act for which the Governor has made a finding under § 631.3(j); and

(ii) The Governor may, under exceptional circumstances, authorize rapid response assistance provided by a State dislocated worker unit when the layoff is less than 50 or more individuals, is not at a single site of employment, or does not take place during a single 30 day period. For purposes of this provision, exceptional circumstances include those situations which would have a major impact upon the community(ies) in which they occur (section 314(b)).

(c) Labor-management committees. As provided in sections 301(b)(1) and 314(b)(1)(B) of the Act, labor-management committees are a form of rapid response assistance which may be voluntarily established to respond to actual or prospective worker dislocation.

(1) Labor management committees ordinarily include (but are not limited to) the following:

(i) Shared and equal participation by workers and management, with members often selected in an informal fashion;

(ii) Shared financial participation between the company and the State, using funds provided under Title III of the Act, in paying for the operating expenses of the committee; in some instances, labor union funds may help to pay committee expenses;

(iii) A chairperson, to oversee and guide the activities of the committee who—

(A) Shall be jointly selected by the labor and management members of the committee;

(B) Is not employed by or under contract with labor or management at the site; and

(C) Shall provide advice and leadership to the committee and prepare a report on its activities;

(iv) The ability to respond flexibly to the needs of affected workers by devising and implementing a strategy for assessing the employment and training needs of each dislocated worker and for obtaining the services and assistance necessary to meet those needs;

(v) A formal agreement, terminable at will by the workers or the company management, and terminable for cause by the Governor; and

(vi) Local job identification activities by the chairperson and members of the committee on behalf of the affected workers.

(2) Because they include employee representatives, labor-management committees typically provide a channel whereby the needs of eligible dislocated workers can be assessed, and programs of assistance developed and implemented, in an atmosphere supportive to each affected worker. As such, committees must be perceived to be representative and fair in order to be most effective.

§ 631.31

§ 631.31 Monitoring and oversight.

The Governor is responsible for monitoring and oversight of all State and substate grantee activities under this part. In such monitoring and oversight of substate grantees, the Governor shall ensure that expenditures and activities are in accordance with the substate plan or modification thereof, and with the cost limitations described in § 631.14 of this part.

§ 631.32 Allocation of funds by the Governor.

Of the funds allotted to the Governor by the Secretary under §§ 631.11 and 631.12 of this part:

(a) The Governor shall issue allocations to substate grantees, the sum of which shall be no less than 50 percent of the State's allotment (section 302(d)).

(b)(1) The Governor shall prescribe the formula to be used in issuing substate allocations required under paragraph (a) of this section to substate grantees.

(2) The formula prescribed pursuant to paragraph (b)(1) of this section shall utilize the most appropriate information available to the Governor. In prescribing the formula, the Governor shall include (but need not be limited to) the following information:

- (i) Insured unemployment data;
- (ii) Unemployment concentrations;
- (iii) Plant closing and mass layoff data;
- (iv) Declining industries data;
- (v) Farmer-rancher economic hardship data; and
- (vi) Long-term unemployment data.

(3) The Governor may allow for an appropriate weight for each of the formula factors set forth in paragraph (b)(2) of this section. A weight of zero for any of the factors required in section 302(d) of the Act and identified in paragraph (b)(2) of this section shall only be made when a review of available data indicates that the factor is not relevant to determining the incidence of need for worker dislocation assistance within the State. The formula may be amended no more frequently than once each program year (section 302(d)).

(c) The Governor may reserve an amount equal to not more than 40 percent of the funds allotted to the State under § 631.11 and § 631.12 of this part for State activities and for discretionary allocations to substate grantees (section 302(c)(1)).

(d) The Governor may reserve an additional amount equal to not more than 10 percent of the funds allotted to the State under § 631.11 of this part. The Governor shall allocate such funds, subject to the SJTCC or HRIC review and comment, during the first three quarters of the program year among substate grantees on the basis of need. Such funds shall be allocated to substate grantees and shall not be used for statewide activities. Such funds shall be included in each substate grantee's allocation for purposes of cost limitations, as described in § 631.14 of this part (sections 302(c)(2) and 317(1)(B)).

§ 631.33 State procedures for identifying funds subject to mandatory Federal reallocation.

The Governor shall establish procedures to assure the equitable identification of funds required to be reallocated pursuant to section 303(b) of the Act. Funds so identified may be funds reserved by the State pursuant to section 302(c)(1)(A) through (D) of the Act and/or allocated to substate grantees pursuant to section 302(c)(1)(E), (c)(2) and/or (d) of the Act (section 303(d)). Such procedures may not exempt either State or substate funds from reallocation.

§ 631.34 Designation of substate areas.

(a) The Governor, after receiving recommendations from the SJTCC or HRIC, shall designate substate areas for the State (section 312(a)).

(b) In designating substate areas, the Governor shall:

(1) Ensure that each service delivery area within the State is included within a substate area and that no SDA is divided among two or more substate areas; and

(2) Consider the availability of services throughout the State, the capability to coordinate the delivery of services with other human services and economic development programs, and the geographic boundaries of labor market areas within the State.

§ 631.35

(c) Subject to paragraph (b) of this section, the Governor shall designate as a substate area:

(1) Any single SDA that has a population of 200,000 or more;

(2) Any two or more contiguous SDA's that:

(i) In the aggregate have a population of 200,000 or more; and

(ii) Request such designation; and

(3) Any concentrated employment program grantee for a rural area as described in section 101(a)(4)(A)(iii) of the Act.

(d) In addition to the entities identified in paragraph (c) of this section, the Governor may, without regard to the 200,000 population requirement, designate SDAs with smaller populations as substate areas.

(e) The Governor may deny a request for substate area designation from a consortium of two or more SDAs that meets the requirements of paragraph (c)(2) of this section only upon a determination that the request is not consistent with the effective delivery of services to eligible dislocated workers in the relevant labor market area, or would otherwise not be appropriate to carry out the purposes of title III. The Governor will give good faith consideration to all such requests by a consortium of SDAs to be a substate area. In denying a consortium's request for substate area designation, the Governor shall set forth the basis and rationale for the denial (section 312(a)(5)).

(f) In the case where the service delivery area is the State, the entire State shall be designated as a single substate area.

(g)(1) Entities described in paragraphs (c)(1) and (3) of this section may appeal the Governor's denial of substate area designation to the Secretary of Labor. The procedures that apply to such appeals shall be those set forth at § 628.405(g) for appeals of the Governor's denial of SDA designation.

(2) An entity described in paragraph (c)(2) of this section that has been denied substate area designation may utilize the State-level grievance procedures required by section 144(a) of the Act and subpart E of part 627 of this chapter for the resolution of disputes arising from such a denial.

(h) Designation of substate areas shall not be revised more frequently than once every two years. All such designations must be completed no later than four months prior to the beginning of any program year (section 312(a)(6)).

§ 631.35 Designation of substate grantees.

The Governor may establish procedures for the designation of substate grantees.

(a) Designation of the substate grantee for each substate area shall be made on a biennial basis.

(b) Entities eligible for designation as substate grantees include:

(1) Private industry councils in the substate area;

(2) Service delivery area grant recipients or administrative entities designated under Title II of the Act;

(3) Private non-profit organizations;

(4) Units of general local government in the substate area, or agencies thereof;

(5) Local offices of State agencies; and

(6) Other public agencies, such as community colleges and area vocational schools.

(c) Substate grantees shall be designated in accordance with an agreement among the Governor, the local elected official or officials of such area, and the private industry council or councils of such area. Whenever a substate area is represented by more than one such official or council, the respective officials and councils shall each designate representatives, in accordance with procedures established by the Governor (after consultation with the SJTCC or HRIC), to negotiate such agreement.

(d) The agreement specified in paragraph (c) of this section shall set forth the conditions, considerations, and other factors related to the selection of substate grantees in accordance with section 312(b) of the Act.

(e) The Governor shall negotiate in good faith with the parties identified in paragraph (c) of this section and shall make a good faith effort to reach agreement. In the event agreement

§ 631.36

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

cannot be reached on the selection of a substate grantee, the Governor shall select the substate grantee.

(f) Decisions under paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of this section are not appealable to the Secretary (section 312(b) and (c)).

§ 631.36 Biennial State plan.

(a) In order to receive an allotment of funds under §§ 631.11 and 631.12 of this part, the State shall submit to the Secretary, in accordance with instructions issued by the Secretary, on a biennial basis, a biennial State plan (section 311). Such plan shall include:

(1) Assurances that—

(i) The State will comply with the requirements of Title III of the Act and this part;

(ii) Services will be provided only to eligible displaced workers, except as provided in paragraph (a)(2) of this section;

(iii) Services will not be denied on the basis of State of residence to eligible dislocated workers displaced by a permanent closure or substantial layoff within the State; and may be provided to other eligible dislocated workers regardless of the State of residence of such workers;

(2) Provision that the State will provide services under this part to displaced homemakers only if the Governor determines that the services may be provided to such workers without adversely affecting the delivery of services to eligible dislocated workers;

(3) A description of the substate allotment and reallocation procedures and assurance that they meet the requirements of the Act and this part;

(4) A description of the State procurement system and procedures to be used under Title III of the Act and this part which are consistent with the provisions in subpart D of part 627 of this chapter; and

(5) Assurance that the State will not prescribe any performance standard which is inconsistent with § 627.470 of this chapter.

(b) The State biennial plan shall be submitted to the Secretary on or before the May 1 immediately preceding the first of the two program years for which the funds are to be made available.

(c) Any plan submitted under paragraph (a) of this section may be modified to describe changes in or additions to the programs and activities set forth in the plan. No plan modification shall be effective unless reviewed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section and approved pursuant to paragraph (e) of this section.

(d) The Secretary shall review State biennial plans and plan modifications, including any comments thereon submitted by the SJTCC or HRIC, for overall compliance with the provisions of the Act, this part, and the instructions issued by the Secretary.

(e) A State biennial plan or plan modification is submitted on the date of its receipt by the Secretary. The Secretary shall approve a plan or plan modification within 45 days of submission unless, within 30 days of submission, the Secretary notifies the Governor in writing of any deficiencies in such plan or plan modification.

(f) The Secretary shall not finally disapprove the State biennial plan or plan modification of any State except after written notice and an opportunity to request and to receive a hearing before an administrative law judge pursuant to the provisions of subpart H of part 627 of this chapter.

§ 631.37 Coordination activities.

(a) Services under this part shall be integrated or coordinated with services and payments made available under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2271, et seq.) and part 617 of this chapter and programs provided by any State or local agencies designated under section 239 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2311) or part 617 of this chapter (section 311(b)(10)). Such coordination shall be effected under provisions of an interagency agreement when the State agency responsible for administering programs under this part is different from the State agency administering Trade Act programs.

(b) States may use funds allotted under §§ 631.11 and 631.12 of this part for coordination of worker readjustment programs, (i.e., programs under this part and trade adjustment assistance under part 617 of this chapter) and the unemployment compensation system

§ 631.41

consistent with the limitation on administrative expenses (see § 631.14(a)(1) of this part). Each State shall be responsible for coordinating the unemployment compensation system and worker readjustment programs (section 314(f)).

(c) Services under this part shall be coordinated with dislocated worker services under Title III of the Carl D. Perkins Vocational Education Act (20 U.S.C. 2351, et seq.) (section 311(b)(5)).

(d) In promoting labor management cooperation, including the formation of labor-management committees under this part, the dislocated worker unit shall consider cooperation and coordination with labor-management committees established under other authorities (section 311(b)(3)(B)).

(e) In accordance with section 402 of the Veterans' Benefits and Programs Improvement Act of 1988 (29 U.S.C. 1751 note) services under this part shall be coordinated with programs administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs and with other veterans' programs such as the Veterans' Job Training Act (29 U.S.C. 1721 note), title IV-C of the Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. 1721, et seq.), part 635 of this chapter, and the Transition Assistance Program.

§ 631.38 State by-pass authority.

(a)(1) In the event that a substate grantee fails to submit a plan, or submits a plan which is not approved by the Governor (see § 631.50(f) of this part), the Governor may direct the expenditure of funds allocated to the substate area.

(2) The Governor's authority under this paragraph (a) to direct the expenditure of funds remains in effect only until such time as a plan is submitted and approved, or a new substate grantee is designated (section 313(c)).

(3) The Governor shall not direct the expenditure of funds under this paragraph (a) until after the affected substate grantee has been afforded advance written notice of the Governor's intent to exercise such authority and an opportunity to appeal to the Secretary pursuant to the provisions of § 628.426(e) of this chapter.

(b)(1) If a substate grantee fails to expend funds allocated to it in accordance with its plan, the Governor, subject to appropriate notice and opportunity for comment in the manner required by section 105(b)(1), (2), and (3) of the Act, may direct the expenditure of funds only in accordance with the substate plan.

(2) The Governor's authority under this paragraph (b) to direct the expenditure of funds shall remain in effect only until:

(i) The substate grantee corrects the failure;

(ii) The substate grantee submits an acceptable modification; or

(iii) A new substate grantee is designated (section 313(a) and (d)).

(3) The Governor shall not direct the expenditure of funds under this paragraph (b) until after the affected substate grantee has been afforded advance written notice of the Governor's intent to exercise such authority and an opportunity to appeal to the Secretary pursuant to the provisions of § 628.426(e) of this chapter.

(c) When the substate area is the State, the Secretary shall have the same authority as the Governor under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

Subpart E—State Programs

§ 631.40 State program operational plan.

(a) The Governor shall submit to the Secretary biennially, in accordance with instructions issued by the Secretary, a State program operational plan describing the specific activities, programs and projects to be undertaken with the funds reserved by the Governor under § 631.32(c) of this part.

(b) The State program operational plan shall include a description of the mechanisms established between the Federal-State Unemployment Compensation System, the Trade Adjustment Assistance Program, the State Employment service and programs authorized under title III of the Act and this part to coordinate the identification and referral of dislocated workers and the exchange of information.

§ 631.41 Allowable State activities.

(a) States may use funds reserved under § 631.32(c) of this part, subject to

§ 631.50

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

the provisions of the State biennial and program operational plans, for:

- (1) Rapid response assistance;
  - (2) Basic readjustment services when undertaken in Statewide, regional or industrywide projects, or, initially, as part of rapid response assistance;
  - (3) Retraining services, including (but not limited to) those in section 314(d) of the Act when undertaken in Statewide, industrywide and regional programs;
  - (4) Coordination with the unemployment compensation system, in accordance with § 631.37(b) of this part;
  - (5) Discretionary allocation for basic readjustment and retraining services to provide additional assistance to substate areas that experience substantial increases in the number of dislocated workers, to be expended in accordance with the substate plan or a modification thereof;
  - (6) Incentives to provide training of greater duration for those who require it; and
  - (7) Needs-related payments in accordance with section 315(b) of the Act.
- (b) Activities shall be coordinated with other programs serving dislocated workers, including training under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2271, et seq.) and part 617 of this chapter.
- (c) Where appropriate, State-level activities should be coordinated with activities and services provided by substate grantees.
- (d) Retraining services provided to individuals with funds available to a State should be limited to those individuals who can most benefit from and are in need of such services.
- (e) Other than basic and remedial education, literacy and English for non-English speakers training, retraining services provided with funds available to a State shall be limited to those for occupations in demand in the area or another area to which the participant is willing to relocate, or in sectors of the economy with a high potential for sustained demand or growth.
- (f) Services provided to displaced homemakers should be part of ongoing programs and activities under Title III and this part and not separate and discrete programs.

(g) Basic readjustment services described in § 631.3(b)(1), provided to individuals who have not received a specific notice of termination or layoff and who work at a facility at which the employer has made a public announcement that such facility will close shall, to the extent practicable be funded by the State with funds reserved under § 631.32(c) (section 314(h)).

(h) The provisions of section 107(a), (b) and (e) of the Act (but not subsections (c) and (d) of section 107) and § 627.422 of this chapter apply to State selection of service providers for funded activities authorized in § 631.32(c) of this part.

Subpart F—Substate Programs

§ 631.50 Substate plan.

(a) In order to receive an allocation of funds under § 631.32 of this part, the substate grantee shall submit to the Governor a substate plan, in accordance with instructions issued by the Governor. Such plan shall meet the requirements of this section and shall be approved by the Governor prior to funds being allocated to a substate grantee.

(b) The Governor shall issue instructions and schedules that assure that substate plans and plan modifications conform to all requirements of the Act and this part and contain the statement required by section 313(b) of the Act.

(c) Substate plans shall provide for compliance with the cost limitation provisions of § 631.14 of this part.

(d) The SJTCC or HRIC shall review and submit to the Governor written comments on substate plans.

(e) Prior to the submission of the substate plan to the Governor, the substate grantee shall submit the plan to the parties to the agreement described in § 631.35(c) of this part for review and comment (section 313(a)).

(f) The Governor's review and approval (or disapproval) of a substate plan or plan modification, and appeals to the Secretary from disapprovals thereof, shall be conducted according to the provisions of section 105 of the Act and § 628.426 of this chapter (section 313(c)).

(g) If a substate grantee fails to meet the requirements for plan submission and approval found in this section, the Governor may exercise the by-pass authority set forth at §631.38 of this part.

(h) When the substate area is the State, the substate plan (and plan modification(s)) shall be submitted by the Governor to the Secretary. The dates for submission and consideration and the Secretary's review and approval (or disapproval) of the plan or plan modification, and appeals to administrative law judges from disapproval thereof, shall be conducted according to the provisions of §628.430 of this chapter.

§631.51 Allowable substate program activities.

(a) The substate grantee may use JTPA section 302(c)(1), (c)(2), and (d) funds allocated by the Governor under §631.32 of this part for basic readjustment services, retraining services, supportive services and needs-related payments.

(b) The provisions of §§627.420 and 627.435 of this chapter (Procurement, Cost principles and allowable costs) apply to funds allocated to substate grantees under this part unless otherwise specifically provided for.

(c) Other than basic and remedial education, literacy and English for non-English speakers training, retraining services provided with funds available to a substate area shall be limited to those for occupations in demand in the area or another area to which the participant is willing to relocate, or in sectors of the economy with a high potential for sustained demand or growth.

(d) Retraining services provided to individuals with funds available to a substate area should be limited to those individuals who can most benefit from and are in need of such services (sections 312(e) and 141(a)).

§631.52 Selection of service providers.

(a) The substate grantee shall provide authorized JTPA Title III services within the substate area, pursuant to an agreement with the Governor and in accordance with the approved State plan and substate plan, including the selection of service providers.

(b) The substate grantee may provide authorized JTPA Title III services directly or through contract, grant, or agreement with service providers (section 312(d)).

(c) Services provided to displaced homemakers should be part of ongoing programs and activities under Title III of the Act and this part and not separate and discrete programs.

(d) The provisions of section 107(a), (b), (c) and (e) of the Act and §627.422 of this chapter apply to substate grantee selection of service providers as specified in this section.

§631.53 Certificates of continuing eligibility.

(a) A substate grantee may issue to any eligible dislocated worker who has applied for the program authorized in this part a certificate of continuing eligibility. Such a certificate of continuing eligibility:

- (1) May be effective for periods not to exceed 104 weeks;
- (2) Shall not include any reference to any specific amount of funds;
- (3) Shall state that it is subject to the availability of funds at the time any such training services are to be provided; and
- (4) Shall be non-transferable.

(b) Acceptance of a certificate of continuing eligibility shall not be deemed to be enrollment in training.

(c) Certificates of continuing eligibility may be used, subject to the conditions included on the face of the certificate, in two distinct ways:

- (1) To defer the beginning of retraining: any individual to whom a certificate of continuing eligibility has been issued under paragraph (a) of this section shall remain eligible for retraining and education services authorized under this part for the period specified in the certificate, notwithstanding the definition of "eligible dislocated worker" in section 301(a) of the Act or the participant eligibility provisions in §631.3 of this part, and may use the certificate in order to receive retraining services, subject to the limitations contained in the certificate; or
- (2) To permit eligible dislocated workers to seek out and arrange their own retraining with service providers approved by the substate grantee; retraining provided pursuant to the certificate shall be in accord with requirements and procedures established by the substate grantee and shall be conducted under a grant, contract, or other arrangement between the substate grantee and the service provider.

(d) Substate grantees shall ensure that records are maintained showing to whom such certificates of continuing eligibility have been issued, the dates of issuance, and the number redeemed by substate grantees.

Subpart G—Federal Delivery of Dislocated Worker Services Through National Reserve Account Funds

§ 631.60 General.

This subpart provides for the use of funds reserved to the Secretary for use under part B of title III of the Act. These funds may be used for the allowable activities, described in section 323 of the Act; demonstration programs, described in section 324 of the Act; the Defense Conversion Adjustment Program (DCAP), described in section 325 of the Act; the Defense Diversification Program (DDP), described in section 325A of the Act; Clean Air Employment Transition Assistance (CAETA), described in section 326 of the Act; and similar uses and programs which may be added to part B of title III of the Act.

§ 631.61 Application for funding and selection criteria.

To qualify for consideration for funds reserved by the Secretary for activities under section 323 of the Act, applications shall be submitted to the Secretary pursuant to instructions issued by the Secretary specifying application procedures, selection criteria, and approval process. Separate instructions will be issued for each category of grant awards, as determined by the Secretary.

§ 631.62 Cost limitations.

The expenditure of funds provided to grantees under this subpart shall be consistent with the cost limitations specified in the grant. Applicants for grants under this subpart may propose, in their grant applications, reasonable costs to be incorporated into the grant. The Grant Officer may accept or modify such proposals at his/her discretion. Where proposals do not adequately justify to the Grant Officer's satisfaction the costs to be incorporated into the grant, the cost limitations that shall be applied shall be those specified in section 315 of the Act and described in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of § 631.14 of this part.

20 CFR Ch. V (4–1–03 Edition)

§ 631.63 Reporting.

(a) Grantees under part B of title III of the Act shall submit reports as prescribed by the Secretary.

(b) Significant developments. Grantees shall notify the Secretary of developments that have a significant impact on the grant or subgrant supported activities, including problems, delays, or adverse conditions which may materially impair the ability to meet the objectives of the project. This notification shall include a statement of the action taken, or contemplated, and any assistance needed to resolve the situation.

§ 631.64 General administrative requirements.

(a) Activities under this subpart may be carried out and funding provided directly to grantees other than States.

(b) All grantees and subgrantees under this subpart that are States or substate grantees are subject to the provisions in part 627 of this chapter.

(c) For grantees other than States and substate grantees, the following provisions shall apply to grants under this subpart.

(1) Grievance procedures. (i) Each grantee shall establish and maintain a grievance procedure for grievances or complaints about its programs and activities from participants, subgrantees, subcontractors, and other interested persons. Hearings on any grievance shall be conducted within 30 days of filing of a grievance and decisions shall be made not later than 60 days after the filing of a grievance. Except for complaints alleging fraud or criminal activity, complaints shall be made within one year of the alleged occurrence.

(ii) Grantees shall be subject to the provisions of section 144 of the Act, and 29 CFR part 95 or 97, as appropriate.

(iii) If the grantee is already subject to the grievance procedure process and requirements established by the Governor (i.e., through another JTPA grant, subgrant, or contract), its adherence to that procedure shall meet the requirements of this paragraph (c)(1).

(2) Uniform Administrative Standards. Grantees shall be subject to the standards and requirements described in 29 CFR part 95 or 97, as appropriate, as well as any additional standards prescribed in grant documents or Secretarial guidelines. If the grantee/ subgrantee is already subject to additional standards established by the Governor (i.e., through another JTPA grant, subgrant, or contract), its adherence to those standards shall meet the requirements of this paragraph (c)(2).

§ 631.65 Special provisions for CAETA and DDP.

(a) Allowances for Job Search Outside the Commuting Area under CAETA. Allowances for job search outside the commuting area shall be an allowable activity under CAETA, only where it has been determined that the dislocated worker cannot reasonably be expected to secure suitable employment within the commuting area in which the worker resides. Procedures for determining whether a dislocated worker cannot reasonably be expected to secure suitable employment within the commuting area in which the dislocated worker resides shall be described in the grant application and shall be subject to approval by the Grant Officer. The cost of job search outside the commuting area shall be an allowable cost, but shall not provide for more than 90 percent of the cost of necessary job search expenses, and may not exceed a total of $800, unless the need for a greater amount is justified in the grant application and approved by the Grant Officer.

(b) Relocation Allowances under CAETA. Relocation allowances under CAETA shall be allowable only where the eligible dislocated worker cannot reasonably be expected to secure suitable employment in the commuting area in which the worker resides and has obtained suitable employment affording a reasonable expectation of long-term duration in the area in which the worker wishes to relocate, or has obtained a bona fide offer of such employment, provided that the worker is totally separated from employment at the time relocation commences. The cost of relocation for an eligible dislocated worker shall not exceed an amount which is equal to the sum of the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in transporting the dislocated worker and the dislocated worker's family, if any, and household effects, and a lump sum relocation allowance, equivalent to three times such worker's average weekly wage. The maximum relocation allowance, however, shall not exceed $800, unless a greater amount is justified in the grant application and approved by the Grant Officer. Necessary expenses shall be travel expenses for the dislocated worker and the dislocated worker's family and for the transfer of household effects. Reasonable costs for such travel and transfer expenses shall be by the least expensive, most reasonable form of transportation.

(c) Needs-related payments under CAETA and DDP. Funds from grants for CAETA and DDP shall be available for needs-related payments to enable participants to participate in and complete training or education programs under those grants, subject to the following:

(1) Needs-related payments shall be provided to the participant only if the participant:

(i) Does not qualify or has ceased to qualify for unemployment compensation;

(ii) Has been enrolled in training programs by the end of the 13th week of an individual's initial unemployment benefit period following the layoff or termination, or, if later, the end of the 8th week after an individual is informed that a short-term layoff will exceed six months;

(iii) Is making satisfactory progress in training or education programs

under this section, except that an individual shall not be disqualified pursuant to this clause for a failure to participate that is not the fault of the individual; and

(iv) Currently receives, or is a member of a family which currently receives, a total family income (exclusive of unemployment compensation, child support payments, and welfare payments) which, in relation to family size, is not in excess of the lower living standard income level.

(2) Needs-related payments shall be equal to the higher of:

(i) The applicable level of unemployment compensation; or

(ii) The poverty level determined in accordance with the criteria established by the Director of the Office of Management and Budget.

(3) Total family income shall be reviewed periodically, based upon information obtained from participants with respect to such income and changes therein, to determine continued eligibility, or to begin payments to individuals previously found ineligible for needs-related payments under this section.

Subpart H [Reserved]

Subpart I—Disaster Relief Employment Assistance

§ 631.80 Scope and purpose.

This subpart establishes a Disaster Relief Employment Assistance program under title IV, part J of JTPA which shall be administered in conjunction with the title III National Reserve Grants Programs.

§ 631.81 Availability of funds.

Funds appropriated to carry out this subpart may be made available by grant to the Governor of any State within which is located an area that has suffered an emergency or a major disaster as defined in paragraphs (1) and (2), respectively, of section 102 of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5122(1) and (2)) (referred to in this subpart as the “disaster area”). The Secretary shall prescribe procedures for applying for funds.

§ 631.82 Substate allocation.

(a) Not less than 80 percent of the grant funds available to any Governor under § 631.81 of this part shall be allocated by the Governor to units of general local government located, in whole or in part, within such disaster areas. The remainder of such funds may be reserved by the Governor for use, in concert with State agencies, in cleanup, rescue, repair, renovation, and rebuilding activities associated with such major disaster.

(b) The JTPA title III program substate grantee for the disaster area shall be the designated local entity for administration of the grant funds under this subpart.

§ 631.83 Coordination.

Funds made available under this subpart to Governors and units of general local government shall be expended in consultation with—

(a) Agencies administering programs for disaster relief provided under the Disaster Relief Act of 1974; and

(b) The JTPA title II administrative entity and the private industry council in each service delivery area within which disaster employment programs will be conducted under this subpart.

§ 631.84 Allowable projects.

Funds made available under this subpart to any unit of general local government in a disaster area—

(a) Shall be used exclusively to provide employment on projects that provide food, clothing, shelter and other humanitarian assistance for disaster victims; and on projects involving demolition, cleanup, repair, renovation, and reconstruction of damaged and destroyed structures, facilities, and lands located within the disaster area; and

(b) May be expended through public and private non-profit agencies and organizations engaged in such projects.

§ 631.85 Participant eligibility.

An individual shall be eligible for disaster employment under this subpart if such individual is—

(a)(1) Eligible to participate or enroll, or is a participant or enrolled, under Title III of the Act, other than an individual who is actively engaged in a training program; or

(2) Eligible to participate in programs or activities assisted under Native American and Migrant Programs; and

(3) Unemployed as a consequence of the disaster.

(b) [Reserved]

§ 631.86 Limitations on disaster relief employment.

No individual shall be employed under this subpart for more than 6 months for work related to recovery from a single natural disaster (described in § 631.3(f) of this part).

§ 631.87 Definitions.

As used in this subpart, the term unit of general local government includes:

(a) In the case of a community conducting a project in an Indian reservation or Alaska Native village, the grantee designated under the JTPA section 401 Indian and Native American Program (see part 632 of this chapter), or a consortium of such grantees and the State; and

(b) In the case of a community conducting a project in a migrant or seasonal farmworker community, the grantee designated under the JTPA section 402 Migrant and Seasonal Farmworker Program (see part 633 of this chapter), or a consortium of such grantees and the State.

Subpart A—Introduction

§ 632.1 [Reserved]

§ 632.2 Scope and purpose.

It is the purpose of Native American programs to provide job training and employment activities consistent with the intent of title IV, part A, section

401. Such programs shall be administered in such a manner as to maximize the Federal commitment to support growth and development as determined by representatives of the communities and groups served by this section including furtherance of the policy of Indian Self-Determination.

§ 632.3 Format for these regulations.

Regulations promulgated by the Department of Labor to implement the provisions of title IV, section 401 and Indian programs under title II-B of the Act are set forth in 20 CFR part 632. This part in conjunction with part 636 contains all the regulations under the Act applicable to Indian and Native American programs.

§ 632.4 Definitions.

Act— means the Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. section 1501 et seq.).

Capital Improvement— means any modification, addition, restoration or other improvement:

(a) Which increases the usefulness, productivity, or serviceable life of an existing building, structure, or major item of equipment;

(b) Which is classified for accounting purposes as a “fixed asset;” and

(c) The cost of which increases the recorded value of the existing building, structure, or major item of equipment and is subject to depreciation.

Community Based Organization— means a private nonprofit organization which is representative of the Indian and Native American community or significant segments of the community and which provides employment and training services or activities.

Comprehensive Annual Plan (CAP)— means the annual update to the Master Plan. The CAP will identify the work plan and budget for the annual 401 and title II, part B funding allocations.

Construction— means the erection, installation, assembly or painting of a new structure or a major addition, expansion or extension of an existing structure and the related site preparation, excavation, filling and landscaping or other land improvements.

Contract— means a procurement instrument, other than a grant, by which the Department, a Native American

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 632.4

grantee or a subgrantee acquires and pays for property, services, supplies, materials or equipment.

Contractor— means any person, corporation, partnership, public agency, or other entity which enters into a contract with the DOL, a Native American grantee or subgrantee under the Act.

Department— means the United States Department of Labor (DOL) including its agencies and organizational units.

Dependent— means any person for whom, both currently and during the previous 12 months, the participant has assumed 50 percent of the person's support.

DINAP—means the Division of Indian and Native American Programs of the Department of Labor.

DOL—means the U.S. Department of Labor.

Economically Disadvantaged—means an individual who (a) receives, or is a member of a family which receives, cash welfare payments under a Federal, State, or local welfare program; (b) has, or is a member of a family which has, received a total family income for the six-month period prior to application for the program involved (exclusive of unemployment compensation, child support payments, and welfare payments) which, in relation to family size, was not in excess of the higher of (1) the poverty level determined in accordance with criteria established by the Department of Health and Human Services, or (2) 70 percent of the lower living standard income level; (c) is receiving food stamps pursuant to the Food Stamp Act of 1977; (d) is a foster child on behalf of whom State or local government payments are made; or (e) is a handicapped individual whose own income meets the requirements of paragraph (a) or (b) of this definition, but who is a member of a family whose income does not meet such requirements.

Entered Employment—means the act of securing unsubsidized employment for or by a participant.

Entry Level—means the lowest position in any promotional line, as defined locally by collective bargaining agreements, past practice, or applicable personnel rules.

Family—(a) means one or more persons living in a single residence who are related to each other by blood, marriage, or adoption. A step-child or a step-parent is considered to be related by marriage.

(b) (1) For purposes of paragraph (a) of this definition, one or more persons not living in the single residence but who are claimed as a dependent on another person's Federal Income Tax return for the previous year is presumed, unless otherwise demonstrated, to be part of the other person's family.

(2) A handicapped individual may be considered a family of one when applying for programs under the Act.

(3) An individual 18 years of age or older, except as provided in (b) (1) or (2) of this definition, who receives less than 50 percent of support from the family, and who is not the principal earner nor the spouse of the principal earner shall not be considered a member of the family. Such an individual shall be considered a family of one.

Family Income—means all income actually received from all sources by all members of the family for the six-month period prior to application. Family size is the maximum number of family members during the six-month period prior to application. When computing family income, income of a spouse and other family members is counted for the portion of the six-month period prior to application that the person was actually a part of the family unit.

(a) For the purposes of determining participant eligibility (and not for grantee allocations), family income includes:

(1) Gross wages, including CSE, Work Experience and OJT paid from JTPA funds, and salaries (before deductions);

(2) Net self-employment income (gross receipts minus operating expenses); and

(3) Other money income received from sources such as interest, net rents, OASI (Old Age and Survivors Insurance) social security benefits, pensions, alimony, and periodic income from insurance policy annuities, and other sources of income.

(b) Family income does not include:

§ 632.4

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(1) Non-cash income such as food stamps, or compensation received in the form of food or housing;

(2) Imputed value of owner-occupied property, i.e., rental value;

(3) Public assistance payments;

(4) Cash payments received pursuant to a State plan approved under titles I, IV, X or XVI of the Social Security Act, or disability insurance payments received under title II of the Social Security Act;

(5) Federal, State or local unemployment benefits;

(6) Capital gains and losses;

(7) One time unearned income, such as, but not limited to:

(i) Payments received for a limited fixed term under income maintenance programs and supplemental (private) unemployment benefits plans;

(ii) One-time or fixed-term scholarship and fellowship grants;

(iii) Accident, health, and casualty insurance proceeds;

(iv) Disability and death payments, including fixed term (but not lifetime) life insurance annuities and death benefits;

(v) One-time awards and gifts;

(vi) Inheritance, including fixed term annuities;

(vii) Fixed term workers' compensation awards;

(viii) Terminal leave pay;

(ix) Soil bank payments; and

(x) Agriculture crop stabilization payments;

(8) Pay or allowances which were previously received by any veteran while serving on active duty in the Armed Forces;

(9) Educational assistance and compensation payments to veterans and other eligible persons under chapters 11, 13, 31, 34, 35, and 36, of title 38, United States Code;

(10) Payments received under the Trade Act of 1974;

(11) Black Lung payments received under the Benefits Reform Act of 1977, Pub. L. 95-239, 30 U.S.C. 901;

(12) Child support payments; and

(13) Any income directly or indirectly derived from, or arising out of, any property held by the United States in trust for any Indian tribe, band or group or any individual; per capita payments; and services, compensation or funds provided by the United States in accordance with, or generated by, the exercise of any right guaranteed or protected by treaty; and any property distributed or income derived therefrom, or any amounts paid to or for any individual member, or distributed to or for the legatees or next of kin of any member, derived from or arising out of the settlement of an Indian claim.

Financial Assistance— means any grant, loan, or any other arrangement by which the Department or Native American grantee provides or otherwise makes available assistance in the form of:

(a) Funds;

(b) Services of Federal or Native American grantee personnel; or

(c) Real and personal property or any interest in or use of such property, including:

(1) Transfers or leases of such property for less than fair market value or for reduced consideration and

(2) Proceeds from a subsequent transfer or lease of such property if the Federal or Native American grantee share of its fair market value is not returned to the Federal Government or Native American grantee.

Governing Body— means a body consisting of duly elected or designated representatives, a body appointed by duly elected officials, or a body selected in accordance with traditional tribal means which has the authority to provide services to, and to enter into contracts, agreements and grants under this part on behalf of the organization or individuals who elected or designated them, elected the appointing official, or recognize the body selected in accordance with traditional tribal means.

JTPA—means the Job Training Partnership Act.

Local Educational Agency (LEA)—means such an agency as defined in section 195(10) of the Vocational Educational Act of 1963. It shall further mean the governing bodies of any Bureau of Indian Affairs, tribal or reservation run agencies or school districts, or any nonprofit agency or tribally chartered entity providing educational services to Indian and Native American persons as determined by the Native American grantee.

Low Income Housing— means: (a) For weatherization or winterization projects, those dwellings occupied by persons whose family income does not exceed 125 percent of the poverty level and which are:

- (1) Owned by the occupant;
- (2) Publicly owned;
- (3) Owned by a private nonprofit organization;
- (4) Cooperatively owned; or
- (5) For projects funded and approved by the Federal Energy Administration, privately owned rental housing.

(b) For rehabilitation as part of community revitalization or stabilization, housing built or improved with the assistance of Federal, State or tribal programs, and those dwellings occupied by persons whose family income does not exceed 80 percent of the median income for the area, in accordance with section 8(f)(1) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437f) and which are:

- (1) Owned by the occupant;
- (2) Publicly owned;
- (3) Owned by a private nonprofit organization; or
- (4) Cooperatively owned.

Lower Living Standard Income Level— means that income level (adjusted for regional, metropolitan, urban, and rural differences and family size) determined annually by the Secretary based on the most recent “lower living family budget” issued by the Secretary.

Master Plan— means the basic long term agreement between the Department and the Native American grantee. The master plan contains all basic eligibility determination and administrative information.

Native American Community Benefit— means the outcome of allowable activities undertaken for the advancement of economic and social development in the Indian, Alaskan Native, and Hawaiian Native communities consistent with their goals and life styles as determined by representatives of the community.

Older Worker— means a person who is 55 years of age or older.

Participant— means an individual who has:

- (a) Been determined eligible for participation; and
- (b) Started receiving employment, training or services (except post-termination services) funded under the Act, within 45 days of such determination.

Poverty Level— means the annual income level at or below which families are considered to live in poverty, as annually determined by the Department of Health and Human Services.

Program Income— means net income earned from grant or agreement supported activities. Such earnings include but are not limited to: income from service fees, sale of commodities, usage or rental fees, and royalties on patents or copyrights.

Program year— means that 12-month period of time during which job training activities and services and provided to participants.

Public Assistance— means Federal, State, tribal, or local government cash payments for which eligibility is determined by a need or income test.

Secretary— means the Secretary of Labor.

Similarly Employed— means that status of a person who is working for the same employer as the JTPA participant, is doing the same type of work, and is similarly classified with respect to employment status (e.g., full-time, permanent, or temporary).

State— means the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, the Northern Marianas Islands, American Samoa, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

State Employment Security Agency (SESA)— means the State agency which exercises control over the Unemployment Insurance Service and the Employment Service.

Subgrantee— means any person, corporation, partnership, public agency, or other entity, excluding private for profits concerns, which enters into a grant with the Native American Grantee.

Underemployed Persons— means:

(a) Persons who are working part-time but seeking full-time work; or

(b) Persons who are working full-time but whose current annualized wage rate (for a family of one), or whose family's current annualized income, is not in excess of:

(1) The poverty level, or

(2) 70 percent of the lower living standard income level.

Unemployed Persons— means individuals who are without jobs and who want and are available for work. The determination of whether individuals are without jobs shall be made in accordance with the criteria used by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the Department of Labor in defining individuals as unemployed.

Subpart B—Designation Procedures for Native American Grantees

§ 632.10 Eligibility requirements for designation as a Native American grantee.

(a) All funds specifically identified in the Act as reserved for the benefit of Indian and Native American participants shall be disbursed by the Department only to Native American grantees designated pursuant to this subpart. Except for FY 1984, designation will be for a period of two years.

(b) To be designated as a Native American grantee, an applicant must have:

(1) A governing body;

(2) For new grantees, an Indian or Native American population within its designated service area of at least 1,000 persons;

(3) The capability to administer an Indian and Native American employment and training program. For purposes of this paragraph, "capability to administer" means that the applicant can demonstrate that it possesses, or can acquire the managerial, technical, or administrative staff with the ability to properly administer government funds, develop employment and training opportunities, evaluate program performance and comply with the provisions of the Act and the regulations. In judging the applicant's request for designation, consideration shall be given to factors such as:

(i) Previous experience in operating an effective employment and training program serving Indians or Native Americans;

(ii) The number and kind of activities of similar magnitude and complexity that the applicant has successfully completed;

(iii) Information from other Federal agencies regarding program performance or financial and management capability.

(c) The Department will not designate an organization in cases where it is established that:

(1) The agency's efforts to recover debts (for which three demand letters have been sent) established by final agency action have been unsuccessful, or

(2) Fraud or criminal activity has been proven to exist within the organization, or

(3) The amount under the funding formulas will not total at least $120,000 in all JTPA funds for the first year of the two-year designation period. In the event that this amount cannot be determined at the time of the Department's decision on the request for designation, the amount shall be estimated in part by reference to the funding levels for Native American programs for the prior fiscal or program year. An applicant for designation shall be designated notwithstanding the limitation in this paragraph of this subsection if it demonstrates that:

(i) It has or expects to receive a combined total of $120,000 in funds or services for the first year of the 2-year designation period from JTPA and other human resource development programs, including but not limited to those providing for employment, education, vocational education, health, social or similar services; or

(ii) It is recognized and directly funded by Federal agencies, such as the Indian-serving agencies within the Departments of the Interior, Health and Human Services or Education as the primary service delivery organization for the provision of human resource development services to Indians or Native Americans within the organization's customary service area. This provision shall be interpreted consistent with the Federal policy established in Pub. L. 96-638, the Indian Self-Determination Act; or

(iii) It has demonstrated successful operation of an employment and training program at a level below $120,000 within the previous two years. For this purpose, success is the ability to adequately meet planned goals and stay within the grant's cost limits.

(4) For a consortium to be designated, it must submit the consortium agreement which meets the requirements of this subpart.

(d) Types of eligible Native American grantees:

(1) Indian tribe, band or group. The Department shall designate as a Native American grantee an Indian tribe, band or group which meets the requirements in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(2) Alaskan Native entity. The Department shall designate as a Native American grantee an Alaskan Native entity as defined in the Alaskan Native Claims Settlement Act which meets the requirements in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(3) Hawaiian Native grantee. The Department may designate as a Native American grantee any private nonprofit organization or public agency representative of the Native Hawaiian community which meets the requirements in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section and which the Department determines will best meet the needs of Native Hawaiians.

(4) Public or private agencies. The Department may designate as a section 401 grantee a private nonprofit organization or public agency which meets the requirements in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section to serve areas where there are significant numbers of Indians or Native Americans, but where there are no Indian tribes, bands or groups, Alaskan Native entities or Hawaiian sponsors or consortia of such sponsors eligible for designation.

(5) Consortium grantees. The Department may designate as a Native American grantee a consortium of any of the types of grantees described in paragraphs (c), (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section which may or may not be independently eligible. All such consortia shall meet the following requirements, in addition to the requirements in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section:

(i) All the members shall be in geographic proximity to one another. A consortium may operate in more than one State.

(ii) An administrative unit shall be designated for operating the program, which may be a member of the consortium or an agency formed by the members. The administrative unit shall be delegated all powers necessary to administer the program effectively, including the power to enter into contracts and subgrants and other necessary agreements, to receive and expend funds, to employ personnel, to organize and train staff, to develop procedures for program planning, to monitor financial and program performance, and to modify the grant agreement through agreement with the Secretary. The right of reallocating funds within the consortium area shall be reserved to the consortium's members.

(iii) The consortium shall be the Native American grantee. The consortium agreement shall be signed by an official or officials of each member of the consortium authorized to enter into a binding consortium and shall specify that each member shall be liable jointly or separately for claims established against the grantee. Additional standardized requirements for consortium agreements will be communicated to grantees under separate order.

(e) In the situation where the Department does not designate Indian tribes, bands or groups or Alaska Native groups to serve such groups, the Department shall, to the maximum extent feasible, enter into arrangements for the provision of services to such groups with other types of section 401 grantees which meet with the approval of the Indian tribes, bands, groups or Alaska Native groups to be served (section 401(d)). In such cases, the Department shall consult with the governing body of such Indian tribes, bands, groups or Alaska Native groups prior to the designation of a Native American grantee.

(f) In designating Native American grantees to serve groups other than those in paragraph (e) of this section, such as nonreservation Indians and Native Hawaiians, the Department shall, whenever feasible, designate grantees which are directly controlled by Indian or Native American people. Where it is not feasible to designate such types of grantees, DINAP shall consult with Indian or Native American-controlled organizations in the area with respect to the designation of a Native American grantee. Where a private nonprofit organization is designated, DINAP shall require any such grantees not directly controlled by Indian or Native American people to establish a Native American Employment and Training Planning Council and to implement an Indian preference policy with respect to hiring of staff and contracting for services with regard to all funds provided pursuant to this part (sec. 7(b) of the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act).

§ 632.11 Designation of Native American grantees.

(a) When designations are required and the potential grantee is not under a Master Plan agreement, an applicant for designation as a Native American grantee shall submit a notice of intent to apply for funds. Such notices of intent shall be postmarked by January 1 and be submitted to the Division of Indian and Native American Programs (DINAP), Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 601 D Street NW., Washington, DC. 20213. Notices of intent may also be delivered to that office in person not later than the close of business on January 2 or the first business day of the designation year. Such notices of intent to apply shall be submitted on Standard Form 424 as a preapplication for Federal assistance. For applicants not under an active Master Plan agreement or the Master Plan agreement is due to expire during the year of designation, the following information shall be included in the notice of intent:

(1) Evidence that the applicant meets the requirements for a Native American grantee contained in § 632.10.

(2) A description of the geographic area or areas which the applicant proposes to serve, together with the Indian and Native American population in such areas, to the extent known. The description must include a list of States (if more than one), in alphabetical order, and under each State, a list of counties in alphabetical order, followed by a list of tribes, bands or groups (if any) in alphabetical order. If the applicant was a Native American grantee for the period prior to the one which is being applied for, the applicant must also list any counties and tribes, bands or groups which are being added to, or deleted from, the previous fiscal year's service area;

(3) A description of the applicant's organization, including the legal status of the applicant, the process of selection of the governing body, the duties and responsibilities of the governing body, and in the case of private nonprofit organizations, a copy of the articles of incorporation;

(4) Evidence of the applicant's capability to operate an Indian or Native American employment and training program, including a statement of the applicant's past successes in operating programs for Indians or other Native Americans and a statement of the applicant's experience in managing the types of programs and activities allowable under the Act;

(5) A description of the planning process including employer involvement which the applicant proposes to undertake in developing a plan for the use of funds;

(6) Information related to a grantee's administrative responsibility. The DOL will conduct an independent review to determine whether each applicant is currently delinquent in repaying any DOL claims or has any outstanding administrative problems. Applicants are, therefore, encouraged to submit any documents related to these factors including documents and correspondence previously submitted to DOL. Submittal of such materials will enable

§ 632.11

DOL to move rapidly to complete the Notice of Intent and grantee designation review process.

(7) If the applicant is applying as a consortium, evidence that the consortium meets the requirements for a consortium in this part and a consortium agreement as specified in § 632.10(d)(5)(iii).

(b) If more than one organization submits a Notice of Intent for a geographic area, the Department will notify the organizations involved and conduct a special review for the area in question. The notice to the organizations will indicate any additional information needed and the review process to be followed.

(c) If the applicant for designation is a current grantee, under a master plan agreement, and there is no change in the service area requested, only the Standard Form 424 and a statement(s) indicating that to the best of the applicant's knowledge, it meets the requirements of § 632.10(c)(4) will be necessary and shall be submitted within the timeframe established in § 632.11(a).

(d) Responsibility Review. Prior to finally designating, conditionally designating or nondesignating the Department will conduct a review of the available records to determine whether or not the organization has failed any responsibility test. This review is intended to establish overall responsibility to administer Federal funds. With the exception of § 632.11 (c)(1) and (c)(3), the failure to meet any one of the following responsibility test factors would not establish that the organization is irresponsible unless the failure is substantial or persistent. The responsibility tests are as follows:

(1) The agency's efforts to recover debts (for which three demand letters have been sent) established by final agency action have been unsuccessful, or failure to comply with an approved repayment plan.

(2) Serious administrative deficiencies have been identified in final findings and determination—such as failure to maintain a financial management system as required by Federal regulations.

(3) Established fraud or criminal activity exists within the organization.

(4) Wilful obstruction of the audit process.

(5) Substantial failure to provide services to applicants as agreed to in a current or recent grant or to meet performance standards requirements as provided for and developed pursuant to § 632.89.

(6) Failure to correct deficiencies brought to the grantee's attention in writing as a result of monitoring activities, reviews, assessments, etc.

(7) Failure to return a grant closeout package on outstanding advances within 90 days of expiration date or receipt of closeout package, whichever is later, unless an extension has been requested and granted; final billings reflecting serious cost category or total budget cost overrun.

(8) Failure to submit required reports.

(9) Failure to properly report and dispose of government property as instructed by DOL.

(10) Failure to have maintained cost controls resulting in excess cash on hand.

(11) Failure to procure or arrange for audit coverage for any two year period when required by DOL.

(12) Failure to audit subrecipient within the required period when applicable.

(13) Final disallowed costs in excess of five percent of the grant or contract award.

(14) Failure to establish a mechanism to resolve subrecipient's audit within established time frames.

(e) On March 1 of each designation year, the Department shall designate or conditionally designate Native American grantees for the coming two program years. Each applicant shall be notified in writing of the determination. Those applicants that are not designated in whole or in part as Native American grantees may appeal under the complaint procedures available for this part. Conditional designations will include the nature of the conditions and the actions required to be finally designated.

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget and assigned OMB control number 1205-0213)

§ 632.12 Alternative arrangements for the provision of services, nondesignation.

(a) If no application for Native American grantee designation for an area is filed, or if the Department has denied such application for that area, the Department may designate and fund an entity to serve that area, pending the final resolution of any Petitions for Reconsideration or other actions taken pursuant to § 632.13. An organization not designated in whole or in part may also appeal to an ALJ under the provisions of part 636. This further appeal will not in any way interfere with the Department's designation and funding of another organization to serve the area in question. The available remedy under such an appeal will be the right to be designated in the future rather than a retroactive or immediately effective designation status. Therefore, in the event the ALJ rules that the organization should have been designated and the organization continues to meet the requirements at §§ 632.10 and 632.11, the Department will designate the successful appellant organization and fund within 90 days of the ALJ decision unless the end of the 90 day period is within six months of the end of the two year designation period. Any organization designated or funded for the area in question would be affected by this remedial action and undesignated. All parties must agree to this arrangement prior to funding. The alternate organization which loses its designation as a result of the application of this remedy may not appeal the undesignation.

(b) If the grant officer finally disapproves a CAP pursuant to § 632.21 he/she may withdraw the Native American grantee's designation and immediately designate another entity to serve the area, pending the final resolution of any Petitions for Reconsideration or other actions taken pursuant to part 636.

(c) If a Native American grantee's CAP is terminated or suspended in whole or in part, the Department (after an opportunity for a hearing except in emergency situations as described in section 164(f) of the Act) may designate another entity to serve the area.

(d) If it is not feasible for the Department to designate another entity to serve the area under the conditions described in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section, the funds involved may be distributed at the Secretary's discretion to Native American grantees serving other areas.

§ 632.13 Review of denial of designation as a Native American grantee, or rejection of a Comprehensive Annual Plan.

(a) An applicant for designation as a Native American grantee which is refused such designation in whole or in part may file a Petition for Reconsideration with the Grant Officer within 14 days of receipt of a letter from the Department indicating its failure to be designated as a Native American grantee.

(1) A Petition for Reconsideration shall be in writing, shall be signed by a responsible official of the applicant entity, and shall enumerate the factors which the applicant entity asserts should be reviewed by the Grant Officer in reconsidering the denial of its application.

(2) Upon receipt of the Petition for Reconsideration, the Grant Officer shall, within 30 days, make one of the following determinations:

(i) That based on the available information from the original request for designation and information supplied in the Petition for Reconsideration, the applicant entity should be designated as a Native American grantee;

(ii) That the original determination made was correct; or

(iii) That an informal conference between representatives of the applicant entity and the Grant Officer shall be held at a specified time and place to discuss the Petition for Reconsideration.

(3) If an informal conference is held, the applicant entity shall have the opportunity to present any pertinent information which may further substantiate its petition. The Grant Officer shall notify the applicant entity of its final decision within 14 days after the informal conference is held.

(4) All final determinations of the Grant Officer, which deny a Petition for Reconsideration, shall be in writing, shall state the reasons for the denial, shall be sent to the applicant by certified mail, return receipt requested, and shall notify the applicant entity that, within 21 days of its receipt of the notice, it may request a hearing pursuant to part 636.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 632.20

(b) A designated Native American grantee whose CAP has been rejected may file a Petition for Reconsideration pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section. Such petitions shall be handled under the procedures described in paragraph (a) of this section.

Subpart C—Program Planning, Application and Modification Procedures

§ 632.17 Planning process.

(a) Each Native American grantee shall establish a planning process for the development of its Master Plan and Comprehensive Annual Plan. This planning process shall involve consideration of the need for job training and employment services, appropriate means of providing needed services and methods of monitoring and assessing the services provided. Recognizing the importance of employer involvement in designing and implementing programs, each Native American grantee shall involve employers in program planning.

(b) (1) Each Native American grantee's planning process shall involve consultation with major employers or organizations representing employers inside the grantee's designated service or surrounding labor market area. Such consultation shall include consideration of the opportunities for placement of program participants and the design of training activities and related services.

(2) A description of the procedures used for this consultation shall be included in the grantee's Master Plan. The results of the consultation shall be described in the grantee's Comprehensive Annual Plan.

(3) Native American grantees are encouraged to establish or to use existing formal advisory councils, such as Private Industry Councils, as vehicles for such consultation. Grantees are also encouraged to use all appropriate mechanisms, including Tribal Employment Rights Offices (TEROs), to insure maximum opportunity for the placement of participants in unsubsidized employment.

(4) A Native American grantee will not be held responsible for the refusal of any employer or organization representing employers to engage in the consultation process described in this section.

(c) In addition to the requirement in paragraph (b) of this section, the planning process shall provide the opportunity for the involvement of the client community, service providers (such as appropriate community-based organizations) and educational agencies, tribal agencies or other Indian and Native American organizations whose programs are relevant to the provision of job training services within the grantee's service area.

§ 632.18 Regional and national planning meetings.

Grant funds may be used for holding regional and national planning meetings, subject to restrictions of allowable costs.

§ 632.19 Grant application content.

The basic document will be a four year Master Plan which will be supplemented each fiscal year by submission and approval of a Comprehensive Annual Plan (CAP). The Master Plan and CAP system will be implemented for 1985 or the first designation period following the FY 1984 designations. Each designated grantee will be informed of and provided the necessary documents and requirements in sufficient time to complete grant actions without interrupting services to participants.

§ 632.20 Submission of grant application.

(a) Beginning with 1985 or the first designation period after 1984, a Master Plan must be submitted by a date and pursuant to instructions issued by the Department. The approved Master Plan will remain in effect for four years unless terminated. During the fourth year of the Master Plan a new Master Plan must be submitted by a date and pursuant to instructions issued by the Department.

(b) Each year a completed CAP is to be submitted for approval by registered mail to the Chief, DINAP by a date and pursuant to instructions announced by the Department. The CAP will be approved by DINAP if it is consistent with the basic provisions or the Master Plan and applicable regulations and formal directives.

§ 632.21

§ 632.21 Application disapproval.

(a) A CAP shall be disapproved by the Grant Officer if it fails to meet the requirements of the Act or the regulations.

(b) No CAP shall be finally disapproved until the designated Native American grantee is provided with a description by the Chief, DINAP in writing of the CAP's defects and has been provided with at least 30 days to remedy such defect(s), but has failed to do so.

(c) When a CAP is finally disapproved a notice of disapproval shall be transmitted by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the applicant, accompanied by a statement of the grounds of the disapproval and a statement that the applicant may file a Petition for Reconsideration with respect to the disapproval.

§ 632.22 Modification of a Comprehensive Annual Plan (CAP) and/or Master Plan.

(a) The requirements for modifying a Master Plan and/or CAP will be included in administrative instructions issued by the Grant Officer upon final implementation of the Master Plan/CAP system.

(b) Prior to implementing the Master Plan/CAP system, a formal modification will be required when:

(1) There is a change of at least 25 percent or $25,000 (whichever is greater) in any cost category; or

(2) There is a change of at least 25 percent or 25 individuals (whichever is greater) in the number of individuals to be served in any category of program activity.

(c) The documentation to be submitted to the DINAP Federal Representative requesting such a modification shall consist of a letter explaining the need for the change and four copies of the proposed modification.

(d) The Grant Officer should notify the Native American grantee of tentative approval or disapproval within

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

10 calendar days of receipt of the proposed modifications. The Grant Officer should notify the Native American grantee in writing of final approval or disapproval within 30 calendar days of the receipt of the proposed modification.

(e) A Native American grantee may make any change in its Program Planning Summary and Budget Information Summary without prior approval, except as provided in this section.

(f) Native American grantees shall notify DINAP by submitting a modification whenever there is a change in a name, address, or other similar information.

(g) The Department will unilaterally modify a grant when a simple funding or performance period increase is required and it is consistent with the approved plan.

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget and assigned OMB control number 1205-0213)

§ 632.23 Termination and corrective action of a CAP and/or Master Plan.

(a) Emergency Termination. The Department may terminate or suspend a CAP designation or Master Plan under emergency termination procedures in accordance with section 164(f) of the Act. The provisions in part 636 shall not apply in instances of emergency termination.

(1) Instances under which emergency termination can occur include but are not limited to: Audit reports identifying numerous adverse findings in the area of financial control and management; information gathered through onsite monitoring which substantiates serious management, fiscal and/or performance problems, information from the Inspector General or gained through incident reports of poor performance, serious administrative problems and/or inability to protect and account for Federal funds.

(2) Within 30 days of written termination notification to a grantee, the Department will secure applicable documents onsite, seize bank accounts relating to the program, arrange for the payment of legitimate bills and debts and arrange, to the degree feasible, for the continued provision of services to program enrollees.

(b) Termination for Cause. Termination for cause can occur whenever there is a substantial or persistent violation of the governing rules and regulations or failure to comply with the grant terms and conditions. The following factors will be considered for termination:

(1) Poor performance and inability to meet Federal standards related to such debt collection requirements as:

(i) Failure to respond to demand letters from DOL for repayment of debts within the stated timeframe;

(ii) Failure to comply with an approved repayment agreement revealed through monitoring or subsequent audit;

(iii) Failure to take necessary corrective action to improve underperformance and to plan for more effective subsequent operations.

(2) Nonperformance related to such requirements as:

(i) Failure to submit required quarterly financial reports for two successive periods within 45 days after they are due;

(ii) Failure to submit required quarterly performance reports for two successive periods within 45 days after they are due;

(iii) Failure to develop a plan of action to correct deficiencies identified in an audit report or by an onsite monitoring review.

(3) Nonperformance related to such requirements as:

(i) Failure to comply with formal corrective action after due notice;

(ii) Failure to comply with the requirements of the Act related to a grievance procedure and other requirements;

(iii) Failure to submit a required modification within 10 days to adjust the grant award due to reduction in available funds, reductions due to debt collection action, etc.

(c) In addition, the Department, by written notice, may terminate a grant in whole or in part in the event of a reduction in the funds available or a change in provisions for JTPA title IV, section 401 programs by reason of congressional action.

Subpart D—Administrative Standards and Procedures

§ 632.31 General.

(a) This subpart describes requirements relating to the administration of grants by Native American grantees. Administrative requirements found in this subpart apply to all programs under the Act unless stated to the contrary for any specific program.

(b) As referenced in this subpart, the requirements set forth in 41 CFR parts 29–70, “Administrative requirements governing all grants and agreements by which Department of Labor agencies award funds to State and local governments, Indian and Native American entities, public and private institutions of higher education and hospitals, and other quasi-public and private non-profit organizations,” shall apply to grants under JTPA. Whenever the provisions of 41 CFR part 29–70 conflict with the provisions of part 632, the provisions of part 632 shall prevail.

(1) The requirements in 41 CFR 29–70.1 set forth the policies which apply to all basic grants and agreements.

(2) The requirements in 41 CFR 29–70.2 implement OMB Circular Nos. A–102 and A–110, and apply to all JTPA grants and agreements unless otherwise indicated in these regulations.

§ 632.32 Financial management systems.

(a) Each Native American grantee, subgrantee and contractor shall maintain a financial management system which will provide accurate, current and complete disclosure of the financial transactions under each grant, subgrant or contract activity, and will enable each Native American grantee, subgrantee or contractor to evaluate the effectiveness of program activities and meet the reporting requirements of this subpart.

(b) Each Native American grantee, subgrantee and contractor shall maintain its financial accounts so that the reports required by the Department may be prepared therefrom.

(c) To be acceptable for audit under this subpart, a Financial Status Report shall be:

(1) Current as of the cut-off date of the audit;

§ 632.33

(2) Taken directly from or linked by worksheet to the Native American grantee's books of original entry; and

(3) Traceable to source documentation of the unit transaction.

§ 632.33 Audits.

(a) General. The audit provisions of 41 CFR part 29-70 shall apply to Native American grantees. Until unified or single audit procedures are promulgated and implemented for nonprofit entities, the Office of the Inspector General shall be responsible for arranging and conducting audits of Native American grantees that are not Indian tribal governments.

(b) Audit reports. Upon receipt of a final audit report the Inspector General will promptly transmit the audit report to the grantee for a comment period not to exceed 30 days.

(c) Initial Determination. After the conclusion of the comment period for audits provided the grantee, the Grant Officer shall make an initial determination of the allowability of questioned costs or activities. Such determination should be based on the Act, regulations grants or other agreements under the Act.

(d) Informal resolution. Except as provided in section 164(f) of the Act, the Grant Officer shall not revoke a grant, in whole or in part, nor institute corrective action or sanctions against a grantee without first providing the grantee with an opportunity to informally resolve those matters contained in the Grant Officer's initial determination. If the matters are informally resolved the Grant Officer shall notify the parties in writing of the nature of the resolution, which shall constitute the final determination, and may close the file.

(e) Final determination. The Grant Officer shall, not later than 180 days from the time the Inspector General issues the final approved audit report, issue a final determination that:

(1) Indicates that efforts to informally resolve matters contained in the initial determination pursuant to paragraph (a) of the section have been unsuccessful.

(2) Lists those matters upon which the parties continue to disagree.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(3) Lists any modifications to the factual findings and conclusions set forth in the initial determination.

(4) Lists any sanctions, and required corrective actions, including any other alteration or modification of the plan, grant, agreement or program intended by the Grant Officer.

(5) Sets forth any appeal rights.

§ 632.34 Program income.

(a) General. The provisions of 41 CFR 29-70.205, program income and interest earned, shall apply to Native American grantee programs.

(b) Income generated under any program may be retained by the recipient to continue to carry out the program, notwithstanding the expiration of DOL financial assistance for that program.

(c) Special provisions. Income earned as a result of activities of JTPA participants by an income generating enterprise, which is owned by an Indian tribe, band or group or an Alaskan native entity, and the profits of which are used exclusively for governmental, charitable, educational, civic, social or other similar purposes, may be retained by such enterprise and used in the same manner as other income of such enterprise.

§ 632.35 Native American grantee contracts and subgrants.

(a) Contracts may be entered into between the Native American grantee and any party, public or private, for purposes set forth in the JTPA.

(b) Subgrants may be entered into between the Native American grantee and units of State and local general government, Indian tribal government, public agencies or nonprofit organizations.

(c) The Native American grantee is responsible for the development, approval and operation of all contracts and subgrants and shall require that its contractors and subgrantees adhere to the requirements of the Act, the regulations under the Act, and other applicable law. It shall also require contractors and subgrantees to maintain effective control and accountability over all funds, property and other assets covered by the contract or subgrant.

(d) Each Native American grantee shall take action against its contractors and subgrantees to prevent or eliminate violations of the regulations, and to prevent misuse of JTPA funds.

(e) Subgrantees are entitled to funding for administrative costs. The amount of such funding will be determined during the development of subgrants subject to the overall administrative costs of the grant.

(f) If a contract or subgrant is cancelled in whole or in part, the Native American grantee shall develop procedures for ensuring continuity of service to affected participants to the extent feasible.

(g) The Native American grantee may enter into contracts or subgrants which extend past the expiration date of the CAP but such extension shall not exceed 6 months. In such cases, the grantee shall continue to be responsible for the administration of such contracts and subgrants.

(h) To the extent feasible, Native American Indian grantees shall give preference in the award of contracts and subgrants to Indian organizations and to Indian-owned economic enterprises as defined in section 3 of the Indian Financing Act of 1974 (25 U.S.C. 1452). Any contract or subgrant made by a Native American grantee shall require that, to the greatest extent feasible, preference and opportunities for training and employment in connection with such contract or subgrant shall be given to qualified Indians regardless of age, religion or sex and that the contractor or subgrantee shall comply with any Indian preference requirements established by the Native American grantee. All grantees, subgrantees and contractors shall include the requirements of this paragraph in all subcontracts and subgrants made by them (sec. 7(b) of the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act, Public Law 93-638 (25 U.S.C. 450 et seq)).

(i) The Native American grantee shall ensure that contractors and subgrantees maintain and make available for review by the grantee and the Department of Labor all records pertaining to the operations of programs under such contracts and subgrants consistent with the maintenance and retention of record requirements in 41 CFR parts 29-70.

§ 632.36 Procurement standards.

(a) Native American grantees shall comply with the procurement systems and procedures found in 41 CFR 29-70.216, Procurement standards.

(b) Subject to the Indian preference provisions of § 632.35(h), small and minority-owned businesses, including small businesses owned by women, within the service area of the Native American grantee, shall be provided maximum reasonable opportunity to compete for contracts for supplies and services. One means to provide for this is the use of set-asides.

(c) No funds shall be paid by the Native American grantee to any organization for the conduct of programs under the Act unless:

(1) It has submitted an acceptable proposal;

(2) Selection is performed on a merit basis;

(3) It has not been seriously deficient in its conduct of, or participation in, any Department of Labor program in the past, or is not a successor organization to one that was seriously deficient in the past, unless the organization satisfactorily demonstrates that the deficiency has been or will be corrected and performance substantially improved; and

(4) It has the administrative capability to perform effectively.

§ 632.37 Allowable costs.

(a) General. To be allowable, a cost must be necessary and reasonable for proper and efficient administration of the grantee's program, be allocable thereto under these principles, and, except as provided herein, not be a general expense required to carry out the overall responsibilities of the grantee. Costs charged to the program shall be consistent with those normally allowed in like circumstances and, with applicable State and local law, rules or regulations as determined by the Native American grantee.

(b) Unless otherwise indicated below, direct and indirect costs shall be charged in accordance with 41 CFR 29-70 and 41 CFR 1-15.7.

(c) Costs associated with repairs, maintenance, and capital improvements of existing facilities used primarily for programs under the Act are allowable. Additionally, the costs of home repair, weatherization and rehabilitation are allowable when the work is performed on low income housing as defined in § 632.4.

(d) Section 401 funds may be used to pay the cost of incorporating a PIC, other planning body or consortium administrative entity for the purpose of carrying out programs under the Act. These costs are chargeable to administration.

(e) Costs which are billed as a single unit charge do not have to be allocated or prorated among the several cost categories but may be charged entirely to training when the agreement:

- (1) Is for classroom training;
- (2) Is fixed unit price; and

(3) Stipulates that full payment for the full unit price will be made only upon completion of training by a participant and placement of the participant into unsubsidized employment in the occupation trained for and at not less than the wage specified in the agreement.

§ 632.38 Classification of costs.

Allowable costs shall be charged against the following four cost categories: Administration; training, employment and other (including supportive services).

(a) Costs are allocable to a particular cost category to the extent that benefits are received by such category.

(b) The Native American grantee is required to plan, control and charge expenditures against the aforementioned cost categories.

(c) The Native American grantee is responsible for ensuring that, at a minimum, subgrant or subcontract recipients plan, control, and charge expenditures against the aforementioned cost categories.

(d) Administrative costs consist of all direct and indirect costs associated with the management of the grantee's program. These costs include but are not limited to: the salaries and fringe benefits of personnel engaged in executive, fiscal, data collection, personnel, legal, audit, procurement, data processing, communications, maintenance, and similar functions; and related materials, supplies, equipment, office space costs, and staff training. Also included are salaries and fringe benefits of direct program administrative positions such as supervisors, program analysts, labor market analysts, and project directors. Additionally, all costs of clerical personnel, materials, supplies, equipment, space, utilities, and travel which are identifiable with these program administration positions are charged to administration.

(e) Training costs consist of goods and services which directly affect program participants in a training activity. Training costs include, but are not limited to, the following: the costs associated with on-the-job training, salaries, fringe benefits, equipment and supplies of personnel engaged in providing training; books and other teaching aids; equipment and materials used in providing training to participants; classroom space and utility costs; employability assessment; job related counseling for participants; job search assistance and labor market orientation; participant allowances, and tuition and entrance fees which represent instructional costs which have a direct and immediate impact on participants. In addition, 250 hours of youth try-out employment is considered an allowable training cost. Youth try-out employment is that which meets the requirements of § 632.78.

(f) The compensation of individuals who both instruct participants and supervise other instructors must be prorated among the training and administration cost categories on the basis of time records or other equitable means. Similarly, tuition fees, and the costs of supplies used in the course of both participant instruction and other activities should be prorated among the benefitting uses.

(g) Employment costs consist of those costs associated with community service employment and work experience as described in § 632.79.

(h) Other costs include supportive services, services which are necessary to enable an individual to participate in training and assistance under this part, and those described in § 632.80.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 632.40

(i) Costs which are not readily assignable to the training or employment cost category should be charged to either the administration or other category as appropriate.

(j) Unemployment compensation costs are allowable for administrative staff hired in accordance with the administrative provisions of this part, and for CSE participants. Unemployment compensation costs are allowed for work experience only where required by State law.

(k) Travel costs. (1) The cost of participant travel and staff travel necessary for the administration of programs under the Act are allowable costs, chargeable to the proper cost category, and must follow standard Federal travel requirements.

(2) Travel costs of Native American grantee officials, including staff, board members, and advisory council members are allowable if the travel and costs specifically relate to programs under the Act. These costs will be charged to administration. Travel costs for officials of tribes or organizations belonging to a consortium require advance written approval from the Chief, DINAP, unless they are also officials of the Native American grantee organization.

(3) Travel costs for participants using their personal vehicles in the performance of their jobs are allowable if the employing agency normally reimburses its other employees in this way. These costs shall be charged to supportive services.

(4) Travel costs to enable participants to obtain employment or to participate in programs under the Act are allowable as supportive services.

(1) Allocation of fixed unit charge. (1) When contractors or subgrantees bill the Native American grantee with a single unit charge containing costs which are chargeable to more than one cost category, the Native American grantee shall charge these costs to the cost categories in §632.38. For unit charges such as tuition fees for which the necessary detail cannot be provided, a reasonable estimate of the breakdown of the single unit charge among cost categories in §632.38 will be sufficient, including for audit purposes. When such unit charges are normally billed as a single charge and the cumulative amount of such charges to a service provider does not exceed $25,000 within the grant year, proration will not be required. These costs may be charged to the category receiving the most benefit.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to vendors selling or leasing equipment and attendant service at a commercially established rate to Native American grantees or subgrantees.

(3) In the case of multiuse equipment there must be a proration of costs or, if there is a predominant usage relating to one cost category, a charge shall be made to that category.

(4) Any single cost, such as staff salaries or fringe benefits, which is properly chargeable to more than one cost category shall be prorated among the affected categories.

§ 632.39 Administrative cost plan.

(a) All administrative funds for all programs operated under separate sections of the Act by a Native American grantee may be accounted for separately and be allocated by title and program activity or may be pooled into one fund. Planned expenditures from the fund shall be described in a separate section of the CAP.

(b) The administrative cost plan may be modified during the program year.

§ 632.40 Administrative staff and personnel standards.

(a) Staffing. Members of the population to be served shall be provided maximum employment opportunities at all levels of the JTPA grantee administration. Native American grantees shall establish systems to enhance the recruitment and hiring of qualified Indian and Native Americans and to provide opportunities for their further occupational training and career advancement.

(b) Compensation. Compensation for administrative staff shall be at levels consistent with generally accepted business practices in the area. Such administrative wages, salaries, and fringe benefits are allowable administrative costs under JTPA.

(c) Basic personnel standards. All grantee employees, including participants, engaged in the administration of programs under the Act shall be subject to the policies and methods of personnel administration as formally established by the Native American grantee.

(d) Bonding. Native American grantees shall comply with the bonding requirements at 41 CFR 29-70.202b.

§ 632.41 Reporting requirements.

Within 45 days of the end of each quarter, a Native American grantee shall submit to the Chief, DINAP by registered mail, financial and program reports. Accuracy of all reports must be verified by the chief executive officer or financial officer. When estimates are used the verification statement will so state. The exact reports to be submitted and reporting instructions as approved by the Office of Management and Budget will be announced to Native American grantees under separate order.

§ 632.42 Grant closeout procedures.

Grant closeout will conform to the requirements at 41 CFR part 29-70. As necessary, the Secretary shall issue supplementary closeout requirements.

§ 632.43 Reallocation of funds.

When the DINAP determines that reallocation is appropriate, it shall give the Native American grantee 30-day notice of proposed action to remove funds from the grant. Such notice shall include specific reasons for the action being taken, and shall give the Native American grantee the opportunity to submit comments on the proposed reallocation of funds. These comments shall be submitted to DINAP within 30 days from the date of the notice. DINAP shall notify affected Native American grantees on any decision to reallocate funds. The Grant Officer shall finally reallocate by modifying the CAP.

§ 632.44 Sanctions for violation of the Act.

(a) Pursuant to sections 164 (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) of the Act, the Secretary may impose appropriate sanctions and corrective actions for violations of the Act, Regulations, or grant terms and conditions. Additionally, sanctions may include the following:

(1) Offsetting debts, arising from misexpenditure of grant funds, against amounts to which the grantee is or may be entitled under the Act, except as provided in section 164(e)(1) of the Act. The debt shall be fully satisfied when the Secretary reduces amounts allotted to the grantee by the amount of the misexpenditure; and

(2) Determining the amount of Federal cash maintained by the grantee or its subgrantee or contract or in excess of reasonable grant needs, establishing a debt for the amount of such excessive cash, and charging interest on that debt.

(b) Except for actions under section 164(f) and 167 of the Act, to establish a debt or violation subject to sanction and/or corrective action, the Secretary shall utilize initial and final determination procedures outlined in part 636.

(c) To impose a sanction or corrective action regarding a violation of section 167 of the Act, the Secretary shall utilize the procedures of 29 CFR part 31.

(d) (1) The Secretary shall hold the grantee responsible for all funds under the grant. The grantee shall hold its subgrantees and contractors responsible for JTPA funds received through the grant.

(2) The Secretary shall determine the liability of the grantee for misexpenditures of grant funds in accordance with section 164(e) of the Act, including the requirement that the grantee shall have taken prompt and appropriate corrective actions for misexpenditures by a subgrantee or contractor.

(3) Prompt, appropriate, and aggressive debt collection action to recover any funds misspent by subgrantees or contractors ordinarily shall be considered a part of the corrective action required by section 164(e)(2)(D) of the Act.

(4) In making the determination required by section 164(e)(2) of the Act, the Secretary may determine, based on a request from the grantee, that the grantee may forego certain collection actions against a subgrantee or contractor where that subgrantee or contractor was not at fault with respect to the liability criteria set forth in section 164(e)(2)(A) through section 164(e)(2)(D) of the Act. The Secretary shall consider such requests in assessing whether the grantee's corrective action was appropriate in light of section 164(e)(2)(D) of the Act.

(5) The grantee shall not be released from liability for misspent funds under the determination required by section 164(e) of the Act until the Secretary determines that further collection action, either by the grantee or subgrantee or contractor, would be inappropriate or would prove futile.

(e) Nothing in this section shall preclude the Secretary from imposing a sanction directly against a subgrantee or contractor as authorized in section 164(e)(3) of the Act. In such a case, the Secretary shall inform the grantee of the Secretary's action.

Subpart E—Program Design and Management

§ 632.70 Waiver of regulations under Parts 632 and 636.

(a) A Native American section 401 grantee may request, and the Assistant Secretary of Labor for Employment and Training may grant, a waiver of specific provisions of 20 CFR Parts 632 and 636, or of any applicable administrative issuance, to the extent that such request is consistent with the provision of the Act.

(b)(1) In requesting a waiver under this section, the Native American section 401 grantee shall demonstrate how it will enhance the provision of services or outcomes to participants, which may include, but are not limited to, the following purposes: improving the targeting of services to the hard-to-serve; increasing the level of basic and occupational skills training provided by the JTPA program; contributing to the provisions of academic enrichment services to youth; promoting coordination of JTPA programs with other human resources programs; or substantially improving the job placement outcomes of the JTPA program.

(2) The request shall describe the regulatory requirements to be waived and demonstrate how such requirements impede the enhancement of the services and outcomes described in paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

(3) The waiver request shall indicate how the grantee will modify its planning documents as a result of the waiver.

(c) A waiver shall not be granted for:

(1) Any statutory requirement;

(2) The formula for allocation of funds;

(3) Eligibility requirements for services as provided in this part;

(4) Requirements for public health or safety, labor standards, civil rights, occupational safety or health, or environmental protection; or

(5) Prohibitions or restrictions relating to construction of buildings or facilities.

(d) Waivers granted shall be effective for no more than four years from the date the waiver is granted.

[60 FR 58229, Nov. 27, 1995]

§ 632.75 General responsibilities of Native American grantees.

This subpart sets out program operation requirements for Native American grantees including program management, linkages, coordination and consultation, allowable activities, participant benefits and duration of participation provisions. It also sets forth the responsibilities of Native American grantees with respect to non-discrimination and equitable provision of services.

§ 632.76 Program management systems.

(a) All Native American grantees shall establish management information systems to control and assess all programs. Native American grantees must institute and maintain effective systems for the overall management of all programs including:

(1) Eligibility verification systems as described in § 632.77;

(2) Complaint and hearing procedures as described in part 636; and

(3) Mechanisms for taking immediate corrective action where problems have been identified and for restitution of JTPA funds for improper expenditures.

(b) All Native American grantees shall establish and maintain financial management and participant tracking systems in accordance with § 632.32 and § 632.77. The principal objectives of such systems shall be to provide the Native American grantee with systems necessary to effectively manage its program and to provide information necessary to design program activities and delivery mechanisms and complete Federal required reports.

(c) Each Native American grantee shall establish and use procedures for the continuous, systematic assessment of program performance in relation to the performance standards and goals contained in its CAP.

(d) Native American grantees shall establish and use procedures whereby the information collected and assessments conducted shall be considered in subsequent program planning and in the selection of service deliverers.

§ 632.77 Participant eligibility determination.

(a) Each Native American grantee, and any subgrantees or contractors assigned responsibility for the determination of participant eligibility, shall be responsible for developing and maintaining a system which reasonably ensures an accurate determination and subsequent verification of eligibility based on the information presented at the time of application.

(b) The ultimate responsibility for the selection of participants and the maintenance of participant records rests with the Native American grantee. However, the Native American grantee may assign the administration of this responsibility to subgrantees or contractors. The selected agency must provide adequate documentation of each participant's eligibility and retain in the participant's folder the information on which this determination is based.

(c) The eligibility determination shall be based upon a signed, completed, application form which records all information necessary to determine eligibility, which attests that the information on the application is true to the best of the applicant's knowledge and acknowledging that such information is subject to verification and that falsification of the application shall be grounds for the participant's termination and may subject the applicant to prosecution under law. In the case of an applicant who is a minor (except minors who are emancipated or heads of households), the signature of the parent, responsible adult or guardian is also required.

(d) Native American grantees shall maintain documentation to ensure the credibility of the eligibility determination, which shall at a minimum:

(1) Include a completed application for participation;

(2) Include records of all actions taken to correct deficiencies in the eligibility determination procedures; and

(3) Show compliance with section 504 of the Act.

(e) A participant determined to be ineligible shall immediately be terminated.

(f) A Native American grantee may enter into an agreement with a State employment security agency (SESA) or other independent agency or organization as may be approved by the Department, for the verification of applicant eligibility within 45 days of enrollment. The Native American grantee shall monitor such verification procedures to ensure that erroneous verifications are not made deliberately or with insufficient care.

(g) Participants may be transferred from one JTPA program to another, from one Native American grantee to another, from a Native American grantee to a SDA grant recipient, from a SDA grant recipient to a Native American grantee, or concurrently enrolled in programs sponsored by Native American grantees or SDA grant recipients, provided, except for age requirements, they were eligible for the subsequent or concurrent program when they were first enrolled.

(h) Eligibility determinations for each program shall be made at the time of application. Applicants determined eligible may be enrolled as participants within 45 days of the date of the application without an update of the information on the application provided they did not obtain full-time permanent unsubsidized employment in the interim. This provision does not apply to the title II-B program.

(i) Aliens described in section 167(a)(5) of the Act and who otherwise meet the eligibility requirements for programs under this part, may participate in a program if this is permitted by Indian law or the Native American grantee.

§ 632.78 Training activities.

Native American grantees shall design and operate programs funded under the Act which support growth and development as determined by representatives of the Indian and Native American communities and groups served (sec. 401(a)). Training shall be only for occupations for which there is a demand in the area served or in another area to which the participant is willing to relocate, and consideration in the selection of training programs may be given to training in occupations determined to be in sectors of the economy which have a potential for sustained demand or growth. The CAP will provide evidence based on local labor market information that occupational demand exists for planned training. The basic types of training activities available to Native American grantees, subgrantees and contractors include, but are not limited, to the following:

(a) Classroom training. This program activity is any training of the type normally conducted in an institutional setting, including vocational education, and designed to provide individuals with the technical skills and information required to perform a specific job or group of jobs. It may be coupled with other employment and training activities and may also include training designed to enhance the employability of individuals by upgrading basic skills, through the provision of courses such as remedial education, GED, training in the primary language of persons with limited English-speaking proficiency, or English-as-a-second-language training.

(b) On-the-job training. (1) On-the-job training (OJT) is training in the private or public sector given to a participant, who has been hired first by the employer, and which occurs while the participant is engaged in productive work which provides knowledge or skills essential to the full and adequate performance of the job. This does not preclude a participant who has been hired by and received OJT from one employer from being ultimately placed with another employer. Innovative approaches to financing, particularly involving the sharing of training costs by the private sector are to be encouraged.

(2) OJT may be coupled with other JTPA employment and training activities. As needed, OJT participants may receive any of the employment and training services or supportive services through the system, through community resources, or through employer resources.

(3) Reimbursement. Payments to employers for OJT which shall not, during the period of such training, average more than 50 percent of the wages excluding fringe benefits paid by the employer to such participants, and payments in such amount shall be deemed to be in compensation for the extraordinary costs associated with the training costs and lower productivity of such participants. No direct wage payments will be made to OJT participants by the Native American Grantee.

(4) OJT agreements. Employers will be held responsible with respect to JTPA costs only in accordance with the provisions of their OJT agreements. At a minimum, the OJT agreement shall contain the elements listed below. Native American grantees may place additional provisions in the OJT agreement only after a careful assessment is made of the additional burdens imposed on participating employers. Agreements may be entered into only with employers which have not been seriously deficient in their conduct of or participation in any DOL program. Each OJT agreement shall contain:

(i) A brief training outline, including the length of training and the nature of the training;

(ii) The method and maximum amount of reimbursement for OJT training costs;

(iii) The number of participants to be trained;

(iv) Job descriptions and specification of participant wage rates;

(v) Reporting requirements;

(vi) An assurance that payroll records, time and attendance records,

§ 632.79

job duties and documentation of classroom training, employment and training services, or supportive services, costs for which the employer is being reimbursed will be subject to review;

(vii) A termination clause for non-performance; and (viii) An assurance that the employer will comply with the Act and regulations.

(c) Tryout employment. Tryout employment in private-for-profit worksites may be conducted in accordance with section 205(d)(3)(B) of the Act (sec. 141(K)).

(d) Training assistance. Such assistance includes:

(1) Orientation to the world of work;

(2) Counseling. This includes employment and training related counseling and testing;

(3) Job development;

(4) Job search assistance. This includes transition services, such as job seeking skills instruction, individualized job search plan, labor market information, and other special activities for transition to unsubsidized employment;

(5) Job referral and placement; and

(6) Vocational Exploration Program (VEP). A Native American grantee may conduct a VEP program to expose participants to jobs available in the private sector through observation of such jobs, instruction, and, if appropriate, limited practical experience.

(e) Combined activities. (1) A participant may be simultaneously or sequentially enrolled in two or more activities.

(2) (i) Reimbursement may be up to 100 percent to employers, including private-for-profit employers, for expenditures for the costs of classroom training, employment and training assistance or supportive services for participants in combined activities including the costs of participants' wages paid by the employer for time spent in these activities during working hours.

(ii) Reimbursement may be made on a cost reimbursement or fixed cost basis and shall be supported by business receipts, payroll, or other records normally kept by the employer.

(iii) Nothing in this paragraph (b)(1) shall allow reimbursement to private-for-profit employers for the costs of

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

OJT to exceed the amounts allowable in § 632.78.

§ 632.79 Employment activities.

(a) Community service employment (CSE). Community Service Employment is the type of work normally provided by government and includes, but is not limited to, work (including part-time work) in such fields as environmental quality, child care, health care, education, crime prevention and control, prisoner rehabilitation, transportation, recreation, maintenance of parks, streets and other public facilities, solid waste removal, pollution control, housing and neighborhood improvement, rural development, conservation, beautification, veterans outreach, development of alternative energy technologies, and other fields of human betterment and community improvement. It includes work performed by tribally sponsored or owned income generating enterprises owned by Indian tribes, bands, or groups, or Native Alaskan entities, provided the profits from such enterprises are used exclusively for functions normally performed by the governing body of such entities.

(b) Work experience. (1) Work experience is a short-term or part-time work assignment with an employing agency or an organization authorized to employ CSE participants. It is otherwise prohibited in the private-for-profit sector.

(2) Participation in work experience shall be for a reasonable length of time, based on the needs of the participant, and subject to the restrictions set forth in § 632.85.

§ 632.80 Other activities.

(a) General. Native American grantees may conduct employment and training activities not described in this subpart. The CAP shall describe the basic design of activities undertaken as "other activities" and their objectives. These activities may include, but are not limited to:

(1) Removal of artificial barriers to employment;

(2) Job restructuring;

(3) Revision or establishment of merit systems;

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 632.81

(4) Development and implementation of affirmative action plans, including Indian preference plans and Tribal Employment Rights Office (TERO) programs.

(5) Post termination services in § 632.80 for up to 30 days following termination; and

(6) Employment generating services.

(b) Supportive services. Supportive services are those which are necessary to enable an individual eligible under this part, but who cannot afford to pay for such services, participate in the program. Such supportive services may include but are not limited to transportation, health care, special services and materials for the handicapped, child care, meals, temporary shelter, financial counseling, and other reasonable expenses required for participation in the training program and may be provided in-kind or through cash assistance.

§ 632.81 Payments to participants.

(a) General. Each participant paid wages for employment activities, allowances for classroom training or reimbursed for OJT or tryout employment will be provided such benefits pursuant to section 142 of the Act.

(b) Maximum wage rates for CSE. (1) The wages (including those received from overtime work and leave taken during the period of employment) paid to any CSE participant from funds under the Act shall be limited to a full-time rate of $10,000 per year (or the hourly, weekly, or monthly rate which, if full-time and annualized, would equal a rate of $10,000 per year). Approved rates above $10,000 are fixed at the CETA approved rate as of September 30, 1982, unless adjusted by the Secretary.

(2) Fringe benefits payable from funds under the Act to any CSE participant may not exceed those regularly afforded to similarly employed non-JTPA workers.

(3) Davis-Bacon wages. All laborers and mechanics employed by contractors or subcontractors in any construction, alteration, or repair, including painting and decorating, of projects, buildings, and works which are federally assisted under this Act, shall be paid wages at rates not less than those prevailing on similar construction in the locality as determined by the Secretary in accordance with the Act of March 3, 1931, popularly known as the Davis-Bacon Act, and the implementing regulations in 29 CFR parts 1, 3, 5, and 7.

(c) Payment of allowances. (1) A basic hourly allowance for regularly enrolled classroom training or services participants shall not exceed the higher of the State or Federal minimum hourly wage.

(2) Native American grantees are encouraged to submit allowance payment designs which are less than in paragraph (c) (1) of this section. Through innovative reimbursement systems the number of participants should be maximized. The allowance payment system will be described in the Master Plan and as an option may include dependent allowances.

(3) Repayments. Native American grantees shall require participants to repay the amount of any overpayment of allowances under this part, except if the overpayment was made in the absence of fault on the part of the participant. Where the Native American grantee requires repayment, any overpayment not repaid may be set off against any future allowance or other payments under the Act to which the participant may become entitled.

(d) Combined activities. A primary activity is one in which a participant is enrolled for more than 50 percent of scheduled time. Participants enrolled in a primary activity for which wages are payable and simultaneously in an activity for which allowances are payable may, at the Native American grantee's option, be paid wages for all hours of participation. A participant enrolled in a primary activity for which allowances are payable may, at the Native American grantee's option, be paid allowances for all hours of participation, except when OJT is the non-primary component. However, in the latter case, before placing an individual in such an activity, the Native American grantee shall request a determination from the Internal Revenue Service as to whether income from the non-primary component is taxable.

§ 632.82 Benefits and working conditions for participants.

The provisions of sections 142 and 143 of the Act shall apply to benefits and working conditions.

§ 632.83 FICA.

Expenditures may be made from JTPA funds for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contribution Act (FICA), 26 U.S.C. 3101, et seq.

§ 632.84 Non-Federal status of participants.

Participants shall not be deemed Federal employees and shall not be subject to the provisions of law relating to Federal employment.

§ 632.85 Participant limitations.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section and for participants in programs that have other statutory limits, participation in work experience shall be limited to a maximum of 1,000 hours during any one year beginning with the day of enrollment in either CETA or JTPA.

(b) No participant may receive wages for CSE for more than 78 weeks during a 2-year period from the participant's initial enrollment in either JTPA or in a program supported by the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act.

(c) The limitation on work experience participation in JTPA set forth in paragraph (a) of this section:

(1) Shall not apply to time spent by in-school youth or title II-B participants enrolled in a work experience program under the Act, nor shall such time be included in determining if an individual has reached such limitations; and

(2) May be waived by the Chief, DINAP and the waiver justification described in the Master Plan or CAP.

§ 632.86 Nondiscrimination and non-sectarian activities.

Pursuant to section 167(a) of the Act:

(a) Subject to the restriction that services under section 401 of JTPA are legally available only to Indian and Native American persons, nondiscrimination and equal opportunity requirements and procedures, including complaint processing compliance reviews, will be governed by the provisions of 29 CFR parts 31 and 32 and will be administered by the Office of Civil Rights.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) The employment or training of participants in sectarian activities is prohibited.

§ 632.87 Equitable provision of services to the eligible population and significant segments.

Native American grantees shall ensure and provide evidence in the Master Plan that a system is in place to afford all members of the eligible population within the service area for which the grantee was designated are afforded an equitable opportunity for employment and training activities and services.

§ 632.88 General responsibilities of the Department.

The Department of Labor shall be responsible for:

(a) Providing prompt notification to all Native American grantees of allocations of funds, proposed and final rules and program directives and procedures.

(b) The development, after consultation with Native American grantees, of regulations, performance standards and program policies governing Native American programs. Such regulations and program policies shall take into account the special circumstances under which Native American programs operate (sec. 401 (h)(1)).

(c) Providing Native American grantees with technical assistance, as the Secretary deems necessary, related to the administration and operation of JTPA programs (sec. 401(i)).

(d) Taking appropriate action to establish administrative procedures and machinery within the Department, including the retention of personnel having particular competence in the field of Indian and Native American employment and training programs, for the selection, administration, monitoring and evaluation of such programs (sec. 401(e)).

§ 632.89 Performance standards.

The Department of Labor shall establish performance standards for all Native American grantees (section 401(h)(1)). Performance results, as judged against these standards, will not be used for grantee designation purposes for the Program Years 1985–1986. Performance results will be a factor in grantee designations for Program Years 1987–1988, and beyond.

Subpart F—Prevention of Fraud and Program Abuse

§ 632.115 General.

(a) To ensure the integrity of the JTPA programs special efforts by grantees are necessary to prevent fraud and other program abuses. While any violation of the Act or regulations may constitute fraud or program abuse, this subpart F identifies and addresses those specific program problems of most concern to the Department.

(b) This subpart sets forth specific responsibilities of Native American grantees, subgrantees and contractors and of the Secretary to prevent fraud and program abuse in JTPA programs.

§ 632.116 Conflict of interest.

(a) No member of any advisory, planning, private industry council or governing body under the Act shall cast a vote on any matter which has a direct bearing on services to be provided by that member or any organization which such member directly represents or on any matter which would financially benefit such member or any organization such member represents.

(b) Each Native American grantee, subgrantee or contractor shall avoid personal and organizational conflict of interest in awarding financial assistance and in the conduct of procurement activities involving funds under the Act in accordance with the code of conduct requirements set forth in 41 CFR 29-70.216-4.

(c) Neither the Secretary nor any Native American grantee, subgrantee or contractor shall pay funds under the Act to any nongovernmental individual, institution or organization to conduct an evaluation of any program under the Act if such individual, institution or organization is associated with that program as a consultant or technical advisor.

§ 632.117 Kickbacks.

No officer, employee or agent of any Native American grantee, subgrantee of contractor shall solicit or accept gratuities, favors or anything of monetary value from any actual or potential subgrantee, contractor or supplier.

§ 632.118 Nepotism.

(a) No Native American grantee, subgrantee, contractor or employing agency shall permit the hiring of any person in a staff position or as a participant if that person or a member of that person's immediate family is employed in an administrative capacity by the Native American grantee, subgrantee or contractor. The Native American grantee may waive this requirement if adequate justification is documented. The following are examples where the nepotism provision may be waived:

(1) If there are no other persons eligible and available for participation or employment by the Native American grantee;

(2) Where the Native American grantee's total service population is 2,000 or less, or where the geographical situation of an Indian or Native American community is rural and isolated from other communities within the designated service area; or

(3) Where the potential participant has a history of unemployment or dependence on public assistance.

(b) A Native American grantee may develop its own nepotism policy in lieu of the policy in paragraph (a) of this section. The Chief, DINAP, shall review any such policy before its implementation and shall approve or disapprove it. Any such policy shall be described in the Master Plan and have adequate safeguards to prevent persons employed in an administrative capacity for the Native American grantee, its subgrantees or contractors from using such position to secure JTPA services or other benefits for a member of his or her immediate family. A satisfactory policy shall include the following minimum criteria:

(1) All formal personnel procedures shall be followed;

(2) There shall be full written disclosure to the governing body describing

§ 632.119

all advantages, conflicts and/or disadvantages which may result from the specific personnel action; and

(3) No member of the immediate family of the applicant shall participate in the applicant's selection.

(c) For purposes of this section, the term "immediate family" means wife, husband, son, daughter, mother, father, brother, and sister. The term "staff position" includes all JTPA staff positions funded under the Act such as instructors, counselors, and other staff involved in administrative, training or service activities. The term "employed in an administrative capacity" includes those persons who have overall administrative responsibility for a program including: All elected and appointed officials who have any responsibility for the obtaining of or approval of any grant funded under this part as well as other officials who have any influence or control over the administration of the program, such as the project director, deputy director and unit chiefs; and persons who have selection, hiring, placement or supervisory responsibilities for participants in a Native American employment and training program. The term excludes officials of entities belonging to a consortium who are not at the same time officials of the consortium. Persons serving on a Native American grantee's advisory councils or PIC shall not be considered to be in an administrative capacity.

§ 632.119 Political patronage.

(a) No Native American grantee, sub-grantee or contractor may select, reject, or promote a participant based on that individual's political affiliation or beliefs. The selection or advance of employees as a reward for political services or as a form of political patronage, whether or not the political service or patronage is partisan in nature, is prohibited.

(b) There shall be no selection of sub-grantees or contractors based on political affiliation.

§ 632.120 Political activities.

(a) No program under the Act may involve political activities.

(b) No participant may engage in partisan or nonpartisan political activities

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

during hours for which the participant is paid with JTPA funds.

(c) No participant may, at any time, engage in partisan or nonpartisan political activities in which such participant represents himself or herself as a spokesperson for the JTPA program.

§ 632.121 Lobbying activities.

No funds provided under the Act may be used in any way:

(a) To attempt to influence in any manner a member of Congress to favor or oppose any legislative or appropriation by Congress; or

(b) To attempt to influence in any manner State or local legislators to favor or oppose any legislation or appropriation by such legislators.

§ 632.122 Unionization and antiunionization activities; work stoppages.

(a) No funds under the Act shall be used in any way to either promote or oppose unionization (sec. 143(c)(1)).

(b) No participant in work experience or community service employment may be placed into, or remain working in, any position which is affected by labor disputes involving a work stoppage. If such a work stoppage occurs during the grant period, participants in affected positions must:

(1) Be relocated to positions not affected by the dispute; or

(2) Be suspended through administrative leave or other means; or

(3) Where participants belong to the labor union involved in the work stoppage, they shall be treated in the same manner as other members of the union except that they may not remain in the affected positions. The grantee shall make every effort to relocate participants who wish to remain working into suitable positions unaffected by the work stoppage.

(c) No person shall be referred to or placed in an on-the-job training position affected by a labor dispute involving a work stoppage and no payments may be made to employers for the training and employment of participants in on-the-job training during the periods of work stoppage.

§ 632.123 Maintenance of effort.

(a) Funds provided under this Act shall only be used for activities which are in addition to those which would otherwise be available in the area in the absence of such funds.

(b) Funds provided under this Act shall not be used to duplicate facilities or services available in the area (with or without reimbursement) from Federal, State, or local sources, unless the plan establishes that alternative services or facilities would be more effective or more likely to achieve performance goals.

§ 632.124 Theft or embezzlement from employment and training funds; improper inducement; obstruction of investigations and other criminal provisions.

The criminal provision of 18 U.S.C. 665 states:

(a) Whoever, being an officer, director, agent or employee of, or connected in any capacity with, any agency receiving financial assistance under the JTPA knowingly hires an ineligible individual or individuals; embezzles, willfully misapplies, steals, or obtains by fraud any of the money, funds, assets, or property which are the subject of a grant or contract of assistance pursuant to such Act shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than 2 years, or both; but if the amount so embezzled, misapplied, stolen, or obtained by fraud does not exceed $100, such person shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than 1 year, or both.

(b) Any person who willfully obstructs or impedes, or endeavors to obstruct or impede, an investigation or inquiry under the JTPA or the regulations thereunder, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than 1 year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(c) In addition to the criminal provisions set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, individuals may be held criminally liable under other Federal laws. For example, 18 U.S.C. sections 600 and 601 hold them liable if they:

(1) Directly or indirectly promise any employment position, compensation, contract, appointment, or other benefit, provided for or made possible in whole or in part by funds under the Act, or any special consideration in obtaining any such benefit, to any person as consideration, favor, or regard for any political activity or for the support of, or opposition to, any candidate or any political party in connection with any general or special election to any political office, or in connection with any primary election or political convention or caucus held to select candidates for any political office (18 U.S.C. 600); or

(2) Directly or indirectly knowingly cause or attempt to cause any person to make a contribution of a thing of value (including services) for the benefit of any candidate or any political party, by means of the denial or deprivation, or the threat of the denial or deprivation, of any employment or benefits funded under the Act (18 U.S.C. 601).

§ 632.125 Responsibilities of Native American grantees, subgrantees and contractors for preventing fraud and program abuse and for general program management.

(a) Each Native American grantee shall establish and use internal program management procedures sufficient to prevent fraud and program abuse, including subgrantee and contractor fraud and abuse. The procedures to be used shall be identified in the Native American grantee's Master Plan.

(b) Each Native American grantee, subgrantee and contractor shall ensure that sufficient, auditable, and otherwise adequate records are maintained which support the expenditure of all funds under the Act. Such records shall be sufficient to allow the Secretary to audit and monitor the Native American grantees', subgrantees', and contractors' programs and shall include the maintenance of a management information system in accordance with the requirements of § 632.32.

(c) Any person having knowledge of fraud, criminal activity or other abuse shall report such information directly and immediately to the Secretary. Similarly, all complaints involving such matters should also be reported to the Secretary directly and immediately.

Subpart G [Reserved]Subpart H—Job Training Partnership Act Programs Under Title IV, Section 401§ 632.170 Eligibility for funds.

The Department shall provide funds under section 401 of the Act only to Native American grantees designated in accordance with § 632.10.

§ 632.171 Allocation of funds.

(a) One hundred percent, except as provided in § 632.171(c), of the amount available for section 401 will be distributed by formula as follows:

(1) Twenty-five percent of the available funds shall be allocated on the basis of the relative number of unemployed Indians and other Native Americans within the Native American grantee's geographic service area compared to the total number of unemployed Indians and other Native Americans in the United States.

(2) Seventy-five percent of the available funds shall be allocated on the basis of the relative number of members of Indian and other Native Americans households, whose income is at or below the poverty level, within the Native American grantee's geographic service area compared to the total number of members of Indians and Native American households in poverty in the United States.

(b) Commencing with Program Year 1985 and after consultation with Indian groups, the Department may reserve up to one percent of section 401 funds. These funds may be used for technical assistance to improve the program's overall performance.

(c) In situations when the Department determines that the formula allocation will result in severe disruption from one year to the next, a hold harmless or other factor to minimize such disruptions may be used.

§ 632.172 Eligibility for participation in title IV, section 401.

(a) An Indian, Native Alaskan, or Native Hawaiian, as determined by the Native American Grantee, who is economically disadvantaged, or unemployed or underemployed is eligible to participate in a program under this subpart. For income eligibility purposes, the NAG may use either 6-months annualized or 12-months actual income.

(b) Indians and other persons of Native American descent who meet the requirements of subsection (a) of this section and who are identified by the Federal or State government as "landless" or "terminated" or "non-federally recognized" are included among those eligible to participate. These terms shall be broadly construed for the specific purpose of including, among others, terminated, State-recognized, or other groups or individuals previously determined to be eligible for Indian services under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act.

(c) A Native American grantee may enroll Indian and Native American participants in upgrading and retraining programs who are not unemployed, underemployed or economically disadvantaged where such participants meet the following eligibility requirements:

(1) For upgrading, a person must be operating at less than full skill potential, and working for at least the prior 6 months with the same employer in either an entry level, unskilled or semi-skilled position or a paid position with little or no advancement opportunity in a normal promotional line. Priority consideration shall be given to the workers who have been in entry level positions for the longest time.

(2) For retraining a person must have received a bona fide notice of impending layoff and have been determined by the grantee as having little opportunity to be reemployed in the same or equivalent occupation or skill level within the labor market area.

§ 632.173 Allowable program activities.

(a) Native American grantees may undertake programs and activities consistent with the purposes of the Act including, but not limited to, programs and activities described in §§ 632.78 through 632.81.

(b) Native American grantees are encouraged to develop innovative means of addressing the needs of unemployed, underemployed and economically disadvantaged members of their communities and of contributing to the permanent economic self-sufficiency of such communities.

(c) Training and placement in the private sector will be emphasized. CSE and work experience are permitted when consistent over the long term with increasing earnings in unsubsidized employment. Expenditures for CSE are limited to 10 percent or the unemployment rate, based on data collected by an appropriate Federal or State agency including BIA, of a NAG's total section 401 allocation. For non-reservation grantees, the official BLS unemployment rate or State job service rate for the area will be used.

(d) Wages and allowances are to be kept to a minimum to maximize funds to be used for training.

(e) Innovative approaches to the private sector are encouraged.

(f) Other activities described in § 632.80 should use no more than 25 percent of the funds. This limitation may be increased to accommodate the extraordinary costs associated with special training projects where it is clear the benefits support the additional cost. An increase to this limitation shall be approved in instances such as, but not limited to, rural participants needing relocation for training, when the costs of housing, transportation, etc., for training participants cannot be met within a 25 percent limitation, and for TERO activities.

§ 632.174 Administrative costs.

Administrative costs for this subpart are limited to and shall not exceed 20 percent of the funds available.

Subpart I—Summer Youth Employment and Training Programs

§ 632.250 General.

This subpart contains the policies, rules, and regulations of the Department in implementing and administering a Summer Youth Employment and Training Program for Indians and other Native Americans authorized by title II, part B of the Act.

§ 632.251 Eligibility for funds.

Only Native American grantees described in section 401(c)(1) of the Act are eligible for summer youth program funds.

§ 632.252 Allocation of funds.

(a) For this program the Secretary shall reserve the same percentage of JTPA 3(b) funds as were available in the CETA, IV-C Fiscal Year 1983 program.

(b) Allocations shall be made to eligible Native American grantees on the basis of a formula using the best available data as determined by the Department in consultation with Native American groups and shall be published by the Secretary.

§ 632.253 Special operating provisions.

Native American grantees shall:

(a) Provide services to youths most in need;

(b) Develop outreach and recruitment techniques aimed at all segments of the economically disadvantage youth population, especially school dropouts, youth not likely to return to school without assistance from the summer program, and youth who remain in school but are likely to be confronted with significant employment barriers relating to work attitude, aptitude, social adjustment, and other such factors;

(c) Provide labor market orientation to participants. This orientation may include, as appropriate: vocational exposure, counseling, testing, resume preparation, job interview preparation, providing labor market information, providing information about other training programs available in the area, including apprenticeship programs, and similar activities. It may be provided on a group or individual basis. In providing labor market orientation, skill training and remedial education, each grantee shall make maximum efforts to develop cooperative relationships with other community resources so that these activities are provided in the summer program at no cost, or at minimum cost, to the summer program;

(d) Assure that adequate supervision from skilled supervisors is provided to participants at each worksite;

§ 632.254

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(e) Make appropriate efforts to encourage educational agencies and post-secondary institutions to award academic credit for the competencies participants gain from their participation in the summer program;

(f) Ensure that appropriate efforts are made to closely monitor the performance of the summer program and measure program results against established goals;

(g) Ensure that enrollee applications are widely available and that jobs are awarded among individuals most severely disadvantaged in an equitable fashion. Enrollment applications shall require the signature of the applicant or (in the case of minors) the parent or guardian attesting to the accuracy of the information, including income data, provided on the application; and

(h) Provide participants with an orientation to the program which shall include, but not be limited to: purposes of the program and the conditions and standards (including such items as hours of work, pay provisions and complaint procedures) for such activities in the program.

§ 632.254 Program startup.

During the planning and design phase of the program and prior to the close of the school year, only those activities outlined in § 632.255(b) are permissible. These activities shall be charged as administrative costs. Individuals may not begin participation in the program before the close of school.

§ 632.255 Program planning.

(a)(1) In developing the summer program, the Native American grantee shall coordinate the summer plan with its title IV program.

(2) Native American grantees shall use the planning process described in § 632.17.

(b) The following planning and design activities shall be allowable beginning October 1 of each year;

(1) Hiring of staff (planners, worksite developers, intake specialists, etc.), provided, prior to the close of school all staff salaries and benefits shall be charged as administrative expenses, except that 45 days prior to the beginning of the summer program and 45 days after the summer program, all staff costs and other program development costs may be charged pursuant to § 632.38;

(2) Development of the summer plan;

(3) Worksite development;

(4) Recruitment, intake and selection of participants;

(5) Arrangements for supportive services;

(6) Dissemination of program information;

(7) Development of coordination between schools and other services;

(8) Staff training; and

(9) Other activities that may be characterized as planning and design but not program operation.

(c) Expenses incurred in such planning and design activities may, pursuant to § 632.38, be paid from administrative funds received under other titles of the Act.

§ 632.256 Submission of applications.

To the extent possible, Native American grantees will be notified of their summer youth allocation at the same time section 401 allocations are announced. The summer plan will be a separate part of the CAP and follow the same format as the CAP.

§ 632.257 Eligibility for participation.

(a) An individual shall be eligible for participation if, at time of application, he or she is an Indian or Native American youth who is:

(1) At the time of application, economically disadvantaged;

(2) At the time of enrollment, age 14 through 21 inclusive; and

(3) For income eligibility purposes, the NAG may use either six months annualized or 12 months actual income.

(b) The nepotism provisions of this part shall not apply to this program,

§ 632.258 Allowable activities.

Allowable activities are those listed in § 632.78-80 except that community service employment is not permitted.

§ 632.259 Vocational exploration program.

A Native American grantee may conduct a vocational exploration program for the purpose of exposing youth to the operation and types of jobs and instruction including, where appropriate, limited and short term practical experience.

§ 632.260 Worksite standards.

(a)(1) Each Native American grantee shall develop a written agreement with worksite employers which complies with sections 142 and 143 of the Act and which assures:

(i) Adequate supervision of each participant;

(ii) Adequate accountability for participant time and attendance; and

(iii) Adherence to the rules and regulations governing the summer program.

(2) Such written agreements may be memoranda of understanding, simple work statements or other documents which indicate an estimate of the number of participants at the worksite and any operational conditions governing the program at the worksite.

(b) Each Native American grantee shall establish procedures for the monitoring and evaluation of each worksite to insure compliance with the worksite agreements and the terms and conditions of subgrants and contracts.

(c) No participant shall be required to work, or be compensated for work with JTPA funds, for more than 40 hours of work per week.

§ 632.261 Reporting requirements.

(a) Each Native American grantee shall submit an end of summer report which will include both financial and characteristics information. The report format will be issued to grantees under separate instructions.

(b) The report in this section is to be submitted to Chief, DINAP by registered mail no later than 45 days after the end of the summer program.

§ 632.262 Termination date for the summer program.

Participants may not be enrolled in the summer program beyond September 30, or beyond the date they resume school full-time, whichever occurs earlier. Allowable activities after September 30 include report and record preparation and submittal, completion of evaluations and assessments of worksite employers and the overall program or other elements of the summer program.

§ 632.263 Administrative costs.

Administrative costs for this subpart are limited to and shall not exceed 20 percent of the funds available.

AUTHORITY: Job Training Partnership Act, sec.169 (29 U.S.C. 1501 et seq., Pub. L. 97-300, 96 Stat. 1322), unless otherwise noted.

SOURCE: 48 FR 48771, Oct. 20, 1983, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart A—Introductory Provisions

§ 633.102 Scope and purpose of title IV, section 402 programs.

(a) It is the purpose of title IV, section 402, of the Act to provide job training, employment opportunities, and other services for those individuals who suffer chronic seasonal unemployment and underemployment in the agriculture industry. These conditions have been substantially aggravated by continual advancements in technology and mechanization resulting in displacement and contribute significantly to the Nation's rural employment problem. These factors substantially affect the entire national economy.

(b) Because of farmworker employment and training problems, such programs shall be centrally administered at the national level. Programs and activities supported under this section shall in accordance with section 402(c)(3) of the Act:

- (1) Enable farmworkers and their dependents to obtain or retain employment;
- (2) Allow participation in other program activities leading to their eventual placement in unsubsidized agricultural or nonagricultural employment;
- (3) Allow activities leading to stabilization in agricultural employment; and
- (4) Include related assistance and supportive services.

§ 633.103 Format for these regulations.

(a) Regulations promulgated by the Department to implement the provisions of title IV section 402 of the Act are set forth in 20 CFR part 633 and part 636. These parts contain all the regulations under the Act applicable to migrant and other seasonally employed farmworker programs.

(b) Should the regulations at this part conflict with regulations at other parts of this title of the Code of Federal Regulations, the regulations at this part shall prevail with respect to programs and activities governed by this part.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 633.104 Definitions.

The following definitions are applicable to section 402 programs.

Accrued expenditures shall mean total costs incurred during the reporting period for: (a) Goods and other tangible property received; (b) services performed by employees, contractors, subgrantees and other payees; and (c) other amounts becoming owed under programs for which no current services or performance is required such as annuities, insurance claims, and other benefit payments.

Act shall mean the Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. 1501 et seq.).

Allocation shall mean the amount of funds calculated in accordance with § 633.105(b)(1) for section 402 programs in each State and distributed in accordance with the requirements of this part.

Chief, DFREP shall mean the Chief of the Division of Farmworker and Rural Employment Programs in the Employment and Training Administration, Department of Labor.

Construction shall mean the erection, installation, assembly, or painting of a new structure or a major addition, expansion, or extension of an existing structure, and the related site preparation, excavation, filling and landscaping or other land improvements.

Department shall mean the United States Department of Labor (DOL), including its agencies and organizational units.

DOL shall mean the United States Department of Labor.

Employment shall mean the situation wherein a person(s) provides work or services for an employer for wages or salary. This includes self-employment. The satisfaction of workfare requirements does not constitute employment.

Entered employment shall mean the act of securing unsubsidized employment for or by a participant. Seasonal agricultural placements will not be considered as unsubsidized employment secured for or by a participant for purposes of this definition unless it can be substantiated that the placement represents an upgraded position within agriculture and will not result in the continued underemployment of the individual.

§ 633.104

Entered employment, direct shall mean unsubsidized employment secured for or by a participant after receiving direct placement services not associated with training or subsidized employment.

Entered employment, indirect shall mean unsubsidized employment secured for or by a participant after participation in training or subsidized employment.

Family (a) shall mean one or more persons related by blood, marriage, or adoption. A step-child or a step-parent is considered to be related by marriage.

(b) (1) For purposes of paragraph (a) of this definition, a person claimed as a dependent on another person's Federal Income Tax return for the previous year is presumed to be part of the other person's family.

(2) A handicapped individual may be considered a family of one when applying for programs under the Act.

(3) An individual 18 years of age or older, except as provided in (a) or (b) above, who receives less than 50 percent of support from the family, and who is not the principal earner nor the spouse of the principal earner, is not considered a member of the family. Such an individual is considered a family of one.

Family income shall mean all income received from all sources for the eligibility determination period by persons who are family members at the time of eligibility determination.

(a) For the purpose of determining eligibility (and not for allocations), family income includes:

(1) Gross wages and salaries (before deductions);

(2) Net self-employment income (gross receipts minus operating expenses); and

(3) Other money income received from sources such as net rents, Old Age and Survivors Insurance, Social Security benefits, pensions, alimony, periodic income from insurance policy annuities, and other sources of income.

(b) Earned family income does not include:

(1) Non-cash income such as food stamps, or compensation received in the form of food or housing;

(2) Rental value of owner-occupied property;

(3) Public assistance payments;

(4) Cash payments received pursuant to a State plan approved under titles I, IV, X or XVI of the Social Security Act, or disability insurance payments received under title II of the Social Security Act;

(5) Federal, State or local unemployment benefits;

(6) Payments made to participants in employment and training programs;

(7) Capital gains and losses;

(8) One-time unearned income, such as, but not limited to:

(i) Payments received for a limited fixed term under income maintenance programs and supplemental (private) unemployment benefits plans;

(ii) One-time or fixed-term scholarship and fellowship grants;

(iii) Accident, health, and casualty insurance proceeds;

(iv) Disability and death payments, including fixed term (but not lifetime) life insurance annuities and death benefits;

(v) One-time awards and gifts;

(vi) Inheritance, including fixed term annuities;

(vii) Fixed-term workers' compensation awards;

(viii) Terminal leave pay;

(ix) Soil bank payments; and

(x) Agriculture crop stabilization payments.

(9) Pay or allowances received by any veteran while he/she was serving on active duty in the Armed Forces;

(10) Educational assistance and compensation payments to veterans and other eligible persons under chapters 11, 13, 31, 34, 35, and 36 of title 38, United States Code;

(11) Payments received under the Trade Act of 1974 as amended;

(12) Black Lung payments received under the Benefits Reform Act of 1977, Pub. L. 95-239, 30 USC 901; and

(13) Child support payments.

Farmwork shall mean, for eligibility purposes, work performed for wages in agricultural production or agricultural services as defined in the most recent edition of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Code definitions included in industries 01—Agricultural Production—Crops; 02—Agricultural Production—Livestock excluding 027—Animal Specialties; 07—Agricultural Services excluding 074—Veterinary Services, 0752—Animal Speciality Services, and 078—Landscape and Horticultural Services.

Grantee shall mean any person, organization or other entity which receives JTPA funds directly from the Department.

JTPA shall mean the Job Training Partnership Act.

Migrant farmworker shall mean a seasonal farmworker who performs or has performed farmwork during the eligibility determination period (any consecutive 12-month period within the 24-month period preceding application for enrollment) which requires travel such that the worker is unable to return to his/her domicile (permanent place of residence) within the same day.

Participant shall mean an individual who is:

- (a) Eligible for participation; and
- (b) Enrolled within 45 days of eligibility determination; and
- (c) Enrolled and receiving employment, training or services (except post-termination services) funded under the Act.

Planning estimates shall mean the preliminary allocations announced for the purpose of providing target funding levels for each State.

Program income shall mean net income earned from grant or agreement supported activities. Such earnings include, but are not limited to: income from service fees, sale of commodities, usage or rental fees, and royalties on patents or copyrights.

Poverty level shall mean the annual income level at, or below which families are considered to live in poverty, as annually determined by HHS.

Seasonal farmworker shall mean a person who during the eligibility determination period (any consecutive 12-month period within the 24-month period preceding application for enrollment) was employed at least 25 days in farmwork or earned at least $400 in farmwork; and who has been primarily employed in farmwork on a seasonal basis, without a constant year round salary.

Section 402 programs shall mean the Migrant and Seasonal Farmworker Program, under section 402 of title IV of the Job Training Partnership Act.

The term subsidized employment shall mean employment created in the private or public sector and in private nonprofit agencies financed by the recipient's program funds or by other DOL funded programs, e.g., work experience and tryout employment.

Supplemental funds shall mean any funds allocated in excess of that amount announced as a "planning estimate."

Target area shall mean a geographic area to be served by a section 402 grantee. Such an area may be a county, multicounty area, a State, or a multistate area.

Target population shall mean farmworkers and their dependents who meet the requirements of § 633.107.

Underemployed persons shall mean:

- (a) Persons who are working part-time but seeking full-time work; or
- (b) Persons who are working full-time but whose current annualized wage rate (for a family of one), or whose family's current annualized income, is not in excess of:
  - (1) The poverty level, or
  - (2) 70 percent of the lower living standard income level.

Unemployed individuals shall mean individuals who are without jobs and who want and are available for work. The determination of whether individuals are without jobs shall be made in accordance with the criteria used by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the Department in defining individuals as unemployed.

§ 633.105 Allocation of funds.

(a) National Account. (1) Up to 6 percent of the statutory reserves for section 402 activities may be set aside for the National Account to be used for technical assistance and for special projects funded at the discretion of the Department.

(2) Funds from the National Account may be obligated by the Department by means of either contracts or grants to private nonprofit agencies, to private profitmaking organizations, to

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 633.107

States and local units of government, or public agencies.

(b) State allocations (allocable funds).

(1) No less than 94 percent of the funds received for section 402 activities shall be allocated for farmworker programs in individual States in an equitable manner using the best data available as to the farmworker population as determined by the Department. The formula used to determine State allocations will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for review and comment, along with the rationale for such formula and proposed allocations, no later than 30 days prior to the publication of the final allocations of available funds in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(2) Allocation Exceptions. (i) The Department reserves the right not to allocate any funds for use in a State whose allocation is less than $120,000.

(ii) Those funds not allocated will be available for technical assistance and special projects funded at the discretion of the Department.

(iii) Current grantees which are unsuccessful applicants for new grant funds shall be given notice that funds will expire and that a reasonable period will be given to phase out their operations. Such notice will not bind the Department to obligate additional funds. The notification of nonselection shall be the notice of termination of funds and departmental closeout requirements are to be followed.

(3) Allocation Adjustment. In situations where the Department determines that the formula allocation will result in severe disruption of funding levels from one year to the next, a hold harmless or other factor to minimize such disruption may be used.

(4) Funding cycle. Projects will be funded in accordance with a schedule to be specified by the Department in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

(i) Announcement of State planning estimates and an invitation to submit applications for State(s) or area(s) open for competition as provided in the Solicitation for Grant Application (SGA).

(ii) Deadline for submission of Preapplication for Federal Assistance Forms.

(iii) Deadline for submission of applications.

§ 633.106 Eligibility for allocable funds.

The following organizations and units of government shall be eligible to receive funds under section 402.

(a) A public agency;

(b) A private nonprofit organization authorized by its charter or articles of incorporation to provide employment and training or such other services as are permitted by this subpart.

§ 633.107 Eligibility for participation in section 402 programs.

(a) Eligibility for participation in section 402 programs is limited to those individuals who have, during any consecutive 12-month period within the 24-month period preceding their application for enrollment:

(1) Been a seasonal farmworker or migrant farmworker as defined in § 633.104; and,

(2) Received at least 50 percent of their total earned income or been employed at least 50 percent of their total work time in farmwork; and,

(3) Been identified as a member of a family which receives public assistance or whose annual family income does not exceed the higher of either the poverty level or 70 percent of the lower living standard income level.

(4) Dependents of the above individuals are also eligible.

(b) The 24-month period preceding application for enrollment shall be extended for persons who have been in the armed forces, incarcerated, hospitalized, or physically or mentally disabled. The extended period of time shall be not more than 24 months plus the amount of time the person was in the armed forces, incarcerated, detained at any Federal or State facility, hospitalized, or physically or mentally disabled. Such conditions shall be positively demonstrated by the applicant. This can be done by producing documentary evidence satisfactory to the grantee.

(c) To be eligible for participation, individuals shall meet the requirements of sections 167(a)(5) and 504 of the Act.

(d) A participant in another program or title under JTPA who met the eligibility criteria for section 402 at the time of enrollment into such other program or title may be transferred into, or enrolled concurrently, in the section 402 program. A section 402 participant who met the eligibility criteria for another program or title under JTPA at the time of enrollment into the section 402 program may also be transferred into or enrolled concurrently in such other program or title.

(e) The grantee shall establish the necessary procedures for identifying and selecting participants and for eligibility determination and verification.

(f) The provisions of section 181(k) of the Act are applicable to section 402 programs.

Subpart B—Grant Planning and Application Procedures

§ 633.201 Grant planning and application procedures in general.

Precondition for grant application: The Department will not consider an application for funding from any applicant in cases where it is established that:

(a) The agency's efforts to recover debts (for which three demand letters have been sent) established by final agency action have been unsuccessful; or

(b) Fraud or criminal activity has been proven to exist within the organization.

§ 633.202 Announcement of State planning estimates and invitation to submit a grant application.

(a) Announcements. The Department, through a notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, will announce State Planning estimates of section 402 funds and will publish an SGA for all areas open to competition. The SGA will contain all information needed by an applicant to apply for funding; i.e., general program description, rating criteria, and dates for submission of applications.

(b) Intention to apply. Any eligible applicant intending to apply for funds shall submit a Preapplication for Federal Assistance to DOL by a specified date as announced in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(c) Applications for statewide programs are encouraged; however, the Department reserves the right to award grant funds to less than state-wide areas.

(d) Executive Order 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs," and the implementing regulations at 30 CFR part 46 generally apply to this program. Pursuant to these requirements, in States which have established a consultation process expressly covering this program, applications shall be provided to the State for comment. Since States may also participate as competitors for this program, applications shall be submitted to the State upon the deadline for submission to the Department, instead of the usual 30-day period for review.

§ 633.203 Review of funding request.

The SGA will identify all review standards including:

(a) An understanding of the problems of migrant and seasonal farmworkers;

(b) A familiarity with the area to be served;

(c) A previously demonstrated capability to administer effectively a diversified employability development program for migrant and seasonal farmworkers.

(d) General administrative and financial management capability.

(e) Prior performance with respect to financial management, audit and program outcomes.

§ 633.204 Responsibility review.

(a) Prior to final selection as a potential grantee the Department will conduct a review of the available records to determine whether or not the organization has failed any responsibility test. This review is intended to establish overall responsibility to administer Federal funds. With the exceptions of paragraphs (a)(1) and (a)(3) of this section, the failure to meet any one of the tests would not establish that the organization is irresponsible unless the failure is substantial or persistent. The responsibility tests are as follows:

(1) The agency's efforts to recover debts (for which three demand letters have been sent) established by final agency action have been unsuccessful, or failure to comply with an approved repayment plan.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 633.205

(2) Serious administrative deficiencies identified in final findings and determinations—such as failure to maintain a financial management system as required by Federal regulations.

(3) Established fraud or criminal activity within the organization.

(4) Wilful obstruction of the audit process.

(5) Substantial failure to provide services to applicants as agreed to in a current or recent grant or to meet performance standard requirements as provided at § 633.321 of this subpart.

(6) Failure to correct deficiencies brought to the grantees' attention in writing as a result of monitoring activities, reviews, assessments, etc.

(7) Failure to return a grant closeout package or outstanding advances within 90 days of expiration date or receipt of closeout package, whichever is later, unless an extension has been requested and granted; final billings reflecting serious cost category or total budget cost overrun.

(8) Failure to submit required reports.

(9) Failure to properly report and dispose of government property as instructed by DOL.

(10) Failure to have maintained cost controls resulting in excess cash on hand.

(11) Failure to procure or arrange for audit coverage for any two year period when required by DOL.

(12) Failure to audit a subrecipient within the required period when applicable.

(13) Final disallowed costs in excess of five percent of the grant or contract award.

(14) Failure to establish a mechanism to resolve subrecipient's audit within established time frames.

(b) This responsibility review is independent of the competitive process. Applicants failing to meet the requirements of this section will not be selected as potential grantees irrespective of their standing in the competition.

§ 633.205 Notification of selection.

(a) Respondents to the SGA which are selected as potential grantees shall be so notified by the Department. The notification shall invite each potential grantee to negotiate the final terms and conditions of the grant, shall establish a reasonable time and place for the negotiation, and shall indicate the State or area to be covered by the grant. Funds may be awarded for two program years.

(b) In the event that no grant applications are received for a specific State or area or that those received are deemed to be unacceptable, or where a grant agreement is not successfully negotiated, the Department may give the Governor first right to submit an acceptable application pursuant to § 633.201. Should the Governor not accept the offer within fifteen days, the Department may then (1) designate another organization or organizations, (2) reopen the area for competitive bidding, or (3) use the funds for national-account activities.

(c) An applicant whose grant application is not selected by the Department to receive section 402 funds shall be notified in writing.

(d) Applicants who submit grant applications which have been rejected may not resubmit a new grant application for the State(s) or area(s) in which they are interested in providing services until the area(s) is announced by the Department as reopened for competition.

(e) Any applicant whose grant application is denied in whole or in part by the Department may request an administrative review as provided in part 636, with respect to whether there is a basis in the record to support the Department's decision. This appeal will not in any way interfere with the Department's designation and funding of another organization to service the area in question during the appeal period. The available remedy under such an appeal will be the right to be designated in the future rather than a retroactive or immediately effective selection status. Therefore, in the event the ALJ rules that the organization should have been selected and the organization continues to meet the requirements of this part, the Department will select and fund the organization within 90 days of the ALJ's decision unless the end of the 90-day period is within 6 months of the end of the funding period. Any organization selected and/or funded prior to the ALJ's decision will be affected in a manner prescribed by the Department. All parties will agree to the provisions of this paragraph as a condition for funding.

§ 633.301

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

Subpart C—Program Design and Administrative Procedures

§ 633.301 General responsibilities.

(a) This subpart sets forth the program operation requirements for grantees under section 402, including program and fiscal management, coordination and consultation, allowable activities, participant benefits, and duration of participation. Unless otherwise indicated, grantees shall follow procedures as prescribed in DOL administrative regulations a 41 CFR part 29-70 and OMB Circular A-122.

(b) Basic program design responsibilities of grantees. A grantee shall be responsible for:

(1) Designing training which, to the maximum extent feasible, is consistent with every participant's fullest capabilities and will lead to employment opportunities enabling every participant to become economically self-sufficient.

(2) Designing program activities which will, to the maximum extent feasible, contribute to the occupational development and upward mobility of every participant;

(3) Providing training only to participants who are legally able to accept gainful employment in the occupation for which training is being provided; and

(4) Making maximum efforts to achieve the goals and the performance standards set forth in the grant.

§ 633.302 Training activities and services.

(a) A grantee may provide assistance to eligible individuals to obtain or retain employment, to participate in other program activities leading to their eventual placement in unsubsidized agricultural or nonagricultural employment, and to participate in activities leading to stabilization in agricultural employment through training and supportive services which may include, but are not limited to:

(1) Job search assistance, including job clubs;

(2) Job development;

(3) Training, such as classroom, on-the-job, work experience, and tryout employment, in jobs skills for which demand exceeds supply;

(4) Training related and non-training related supportive services, including commuting assistance and financial and personal counseling;

(5) Relocation assistance; and

(6) Programs conducted in cooperation with employers or labor organizations to provide early intervention in the event of the disruption of employment opportunities.

(b) Public service employment is not an allowable activity under section 402 programs.

(c) Tryout employment shall conform to section 205(d)(3)(B) and section 141(k) of the Act.

(d) A participant's enrollment in work experience shall not exceed 1,000 hours in a one-year period.

§ 633.303 Allowable costs.

(a) General. To be allowable, a cost must be necessary and reasonable for proper and efficient administration of the program, be allocable thereto under these principles, and, except as specifically provided herein, not be a general expense required to carry out the overall responsibilities of the recipient.

(b) Unless otherwise indicated below, direct and indirect costs shall be charged in accordance with 41 CFR part 29-70 and OMB Circular A-122.

(c) Funds may be used for construction activities only to:

(1) Provide compensation to participants employed by public or private nonprofit agencies;

(2) Reimburse OJT costs to private-for-profit employers;

(3) Purchase equipment, materials, and supplies for use in the training of such participants; and

(4) Cover costs of a training program in a construction occupation, including costs such as instructors' salaries, training tools, books, and needs-based payments and compensation to participants.

(d) Costs associated with capital improvements (as defined in OMB Circular A-122, attachment B, sections 13 and 22) of existing facilities used primarily for programs under the Act are allowable with prior approval of the Department.

(e) Unemployment compensation costs are allowable for administrative and program staff hired in accordance with the administrative provisions of the regulations, and for participants required by State law to be covered for unemployment compensation purposes.

(f) Costs which are billed as a single unit charge do not have to be allocated or prorated among the several cost categories but may be charged entirely to training when the agreement:

(1) Is for classroom training;

(2) Is fixed unit price; and

(3) Stipulates that full payment for the full unit price will be made only upon completion of training by a participant and placement of the participant into unsubsidized employment in the occupation trained for and at not less than the wage specified in the agreement.

(g) Travel costs. (1) The cost of participant and staff travel necessary for the operation or administration of programs under the Act is allowable as provided herein.

(2) Travel costs of section 402 administrative staff or members of governing boards of grantee organizations are allowable without the prior approval of the Department if the travel specifically relates to programs under section 402. All other travel to be charged to JTPA section 402 grants shall require the prior approval of the Department. These costs shall be charged to administration.

(3) Travel costs of other grantee officials of multifunded programs changed with overall grantee responsibilities are allowable only if costs specifically relate to programs under section 402.

(4) Travel costs to enable participants to obtain or retain employment, access other services or to participate in programs under this Act are allowable as direct costs but shall be limited to the grantee's jurisdiction or within daily commuting distance, unless part of an approved component of the grantee's program. These costs shall be charged to training-related supportive services.

(5) Travel costs for participants in administrative or programmatic positions using their personal or other forms of transportation in the performance of their jobs are allowable and shall be charged appropriately.

(6) Travel policies of all grantees, subgrantees and contractors shall be generally consistent with those set forth in the Department's Travel and Transportation Manual.

(h) Association membership. Grantees are permitted to use grant funds to join those associations which provide technical and administrative services in support of section 402 program efforts. The activities of such associations must be designed to contribute to the enhancement of professional and technical program knowledge. No financial assistance in the form of membership dues or other membership-related costs can involve political or lobbying activities.

(1) The cost shall be for a section 402 grantee's membership rather than an individual person's membership.

(2) The cost of a membership shall be reasonably related to the value of the services or benefits received and shall not exceed $850 annually.

(3) Association-related costs shall be incorporated in the grantee's section 402 grant budget, charged to the administrative category, and as such, shall be subject to the overall administrative cost ceiling.

(i) Allowances and reimbursements for board and advisory council members—(1) General. A reasonable allowance to members who attend meetings of any board, council, or committee for section 402 program purposes, and reimbursement of actual expenses connected with those meetings, are allowable costs, and may be paid for attendance at no more than six meeting days per grantee per quarter.

(2) Allowances and loss of wages. Any individual or family member who is a member of a private nonprofit grantee or subgrantee policymaking body or of a public agency grantee or subgrantee farmworker advisory council is eligible to be paid an allowance provided:

(i) such individual's family income does not exceed either 70 percent of the lower living standard income level or the poverty level as established by HHS.

(ii) Allowances may not be paid for attendance in excess of ten dollars per meeting, unless approved in advance by the Department.

(3) Reimbursement for expenses. (i) All board members shall be eligible for receiving reimbursement for actual expenses of travel, meals, and lodging incurred in attending board meetings, or a per diem in lieu of actual expenses.

(ii) Any individual or family member where family income does not exceed 70 percent of the lower living standard income level and who is a member of a private nonprofit grantee or subgrantee policymaking body or of a public agency grantee or subgrantee farmworker advisory council shall also be eligible for reimbursement of actual wages lost, if supported by a statement from the employer.

(iii) The grantee shall define which expenses may be reimbursed, whether incurred as the result of actual meeting attendances or in performance of other official duties and responsibilities in connection with the program, and shall establish procedures for the reimbursement of such expenses.

§ 633.304 Section 402 cost allocation.

(a) General. Allowable costs for section 402 programs shall be charged against the following four cost categories: Administration; training; training-related supportive services; and nontraining-related supportive services.

(1) Costs are allocable to a particular cost category to the extent that benefits are received by such category.

(2) All grantees are required to plan, control, and report expenditures against the aforementioned cost categories.

(3) All grantees are responsible for ensuring that subgrantees and contractors plan, control, and report expenditures against the aforementioned cost categories.

(b) Limitation on certain costs. (1) Costs for administration of the grant shall not exceed 20 percent of the total amount of the grant.

(2) Costs for nontraining-related supportive services shall not exceed 15 percent of the total amount of the grant.

(3) Costs for training shall be no less than 50 percent of the total amount of the grant.

(c) Classification of costs by category. All grant costs shall be charged to the four cost categories listed above. Within each category costs shall be assigned and accounted for as follows:

(1) Administration. Administration costs consist of all direct and indirect costs associated with the management of the program. Administrative costs shall be limited to those necessary to effectively operate the program. These costs include but are not limited to: the salaries and fringe benefits of personnel engaged in executive, fiscal, data collection, personnel, legal, audit, procurement, data processing, communications, maintenance, and similar functions; and related materials, supplies, equipment, office-space costs, and staff training.

(i) Also included are salaries and fringe benefits of direct program administrative positions such as supervisors, program analysts, labor market analysts, and project directors. Additionally, all costs of clerical personnel, materials, supplies, equipment, space, utilities, and travel that are identifiable with these program-administration positions are charged to administration.

(ii) Allowances and reimbursement costs for governing boards and advisory councils shall be prorated wherever applicable as administrative costs among all the grants, from whatever source, administered by the grantee.

(2) Training. (i) Instruction and related costs consist of goods and services which affect those program participants who are in either a work environment, or classroom setting (including classroom training in conjunction with Vocational Exploration or Job Readiness or tryout employment) and shall be charged to training, i.e., salaries, fringe benefits, space, utility, travel and equipment. Training costs include, but are not limited to, the following: The costs associated with on-the-job training services; employer outreach necessary to obtain job listings or job-training opportunities, salaries; fringe benefits; equipment and supplies of personnel engaged in providing training, including remedial education; job-related counseling for participants; employability assessment and job development; tuition fees, books and other teaching aids; equipment and materials used in providing training to participants, classroom space and utility costs; job search assistance, labor market orientation, and job referral costs. In addition:

(ii) Wages and fringe benefits for participants in work experience, tryout employment, classroom training, shall be charged to training. Cost-of-living increases are considered wages.

(iii) Allowances shall be charged to training.

(iv) Any single cost which is properly chargeable to training and to one or more other categories shall be prorated among training and other appropriate cost categories.

(3) Training-related supportive services. Costs of services which are necessary to enable an eligible individual to participate in training or subsidized employment under section 402 and to obtain subsequent unsubsidized employment shall be charged to training-related supportive services. Such supportive services may include but are not limited to transportation, health care, special services and materials for the handicapped, child care, meals, temporary shelter, financial counseling, and other reasonable expenses required for participation in the program and may be provided in-kind or through cash assistance. Training-related supportive services costs and related costs shall be charged to this cost category.

(4) Nontraining-related supportive services. "Services only" are the costs of the goods and services provided to participants who are not engaged in work experience, tryout employment or training activities, including but not limited to such goods and services as: transportation, health care, temporary shelter, meals and other nutritional assistance, legal or paralegal assistance and emergency assistance.

(d) Cost categories assignable to program activities. (1) Classroom training.

Cost categories are: Training and training-related supportive services.

(2) On-the-job training. Cost categories are: Training and training-related supportive services.

(3) Work Experience: Cost categories are: Training and training-related supportive services.

(4) Tryout employment: Cost categories are: Training and training-related supportive services.

(5) Training assistance: Cost categories are: Training and training-related supportive services.

(6) Services only (no referral to employment): Cost category is: Non-training-related supportive services.

§ 633.305 General benefits and working conditions for program participants.

(a) Payments for on-the-job training (OJT) shall be made in accordance with sections 141(g) and 142(a)(2) of the Act.

(b) Participants employed in work experience activities shall be paid wages in accordance with section 142(a)(3) of the Act.

(c) Payments to individuals participating in programs under section 402 shall conform to the provisions of section 142(b) of the Act.

(d) Section 402 grantees shall not assist any activity under the Act unless the activity conforms to provisions of sections 142 and 143 of the Act.

(e) A basic hourly allowance for regularly enrolled classroom training participants shall not exceed the higher of the State or Federal minimum hourly wage.

§ 633.306 Retirement benefits.

No funds available under this Act may be used for contributions on behalf of any participant to retirement systems or plans (sec. 143(a)(5)).

§ 633.307 Packages of benefits.

(a) Where non-JTPA, similarly employed employees are covered under a benefits package which includes retirement, JTPA participants shall receive the non-retirement benefits (e.g., health, death, and disability-benefit coverage), at the same level and to the same extent as other employees. JTPA funds may be used to pay for those benefits.

§ 633.308

(b) JTPA funds may be used to purchase a package of benefits including retirement, provided the retirement portion of the package can be factored out of the package and adjusted accordingly.

§ 633.308 Non-Federal status of participants.

Except where specifically provided to the contrary, participants in a program under the Act shall not be deemed Federal employees and shall not be subject to the provisions of law relating to Federal employment, including those related to hours of work, rates of compensation, leave, unemployment compensation, and Federal employment benefits.

§ 633.309 Recordkeeping requirements.

(a) Each grantee shall ensure maintenance of systems whose financial management and participant data components provide federally-required records and reports that are accurate, uniform in definition, accessible to authorized Federal staff, and verifiable for monitoring, reporting, and evaluation purposes.

(b) The grantee shall ensure that systems:

(1) Maintain data elements used in required Federal reports in accordance with established program definitions contained in the Act and these regulations;

(2) Follow consistent rules for aggregation of detailed data to summary levels;

(3) Are able to track data from detailed records to summary reports;

(4) Maintain procedures to ensure that information is current, complete, consistent, and accurate;

(5) Meet generally accepted accounting principles as prescribed in 41 CFR part 29-70;

(6) Provide for adequate control of Federal funds and other assets;

(7) Trace the funds to a level of expenditures adequate to demonstrate that funds have been spent lawfully;

(8) Maintain internal controls to avoid conflict-of-interest situations and prevent irregular transactions or activities;

(9) Support accounting records with source documentation such as can-

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

celled checks, paid bills, contracts, grants, and agreements; and

(10) Establish procedures that will minimize the time elapsing between the receipt of advanced funds and their disbursement.

§ 633.310 Bonding.

The grantee and all subgrantees shall ensure that every officer, director, agent, or employee authorized to act on their behalf in receiving or depositing funds into program accounts or in issuing financial documents, checks, or other instruments of payment for program costs shall be bonded to provide protection against loss. Those costs are chargeable to administration.

§ 633.311 Management information systems.

All grantees shall establish and maintain a program and financial management system which meets Departmental standards and the requirements of § 633.314.

§ 633.312 Grantees contracts and subgrants.

(a) Grantee responsibility. (1) The grantee is responsible for development, approval and operation of all contracts and subgrants and shall require that its contractors and subgrantees adhere to the requirements of the Act, regulations promulgated under the Act, and other applicable laws as required by DOL.

(2) The grantee shall require contractors and subgrantees to maintain effective control and accountability over all funds, property and other assets covered by the contract or subgrant.

(3) Each grantee, subgrantee and contractor shall establish and use internal program management procedures sufficient to prevent fraud and abuse.

(4) The grantee shall ensure that contractors and subgrantees maintain and make available for review by the grantee and the Department of Labor all records pertaining to the operations of programs under such contracts and subgrants, consistent with the maintenance and retention of record requirements.

(5) Subgrantees are entitled to funding for administrative costs. The amount of such funding will be determined during the development of subgrants.

(b) In the event an agreement or subgrant is cancelled, in whole or in part, the grantee may be required to develop procedures for ensuring continuity of service to participants.

(c) Grantees are authorized to enter into classroom training or on-the-job training contracts or subgrants which extend past the expiration date of the grant, but such extension shall not exceed six months. In such cases, the grantee shall continue to be responsible for the administration of such contracts and subgrants, unless, should the grant be terminated, such contract or subgrant is transferred to a successor grantee.

§ 633.313 Administrative staff and personnel standards.

The following provisions shall be applicable only to private nonprofit grantees and to private nonprofit subgrantees receiving section 402 funds:

(a) Personnel policies of grantees and subgrantees shall be stated in written form and available to the Department upon request.

(b) Each grantee and subgrantee shall insure that its staff recruiting procedures afford adequate opportunity for the hiring and promotion of persons in the target population.

(c) Grantees and subgrantees shall include the following provisions in their published personnel policies relating to outside employment of their employees in section 402 programs.

(1) Such employment shall not interfere with the efficient performance of the employee's duties in the DOL-assisted programs;

(2) Such employment shall not involve conflict of interest or conflict with the employee's duties in the DOL-assisted program;

(3) Such employment shall not involve the performance of duties which the employee should perform as part of employment in the DOL-assisted program; and

(4) Such employment shall not occur during the employee's regular or assigned working hours in the DOL-assisted program, unless the employee during the entire day on which such employment occurs is on annual leave, compensatory leave, or leave without pay.

(d) Salaries and wages. (1) Administrative and staff employees in section 402 programs shall be paid at a rate no lower than the applicable Federal, State, or local minimum wage rate, whichever is highest. The salary for each position shall be justified and documented by the grantee to the satisfaction of the Department.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph(d)(1) of this section, where a grantee or subgrantee has an established system, it may compensate its section 402 program employees at existing rates in effect for comparable positions under such merit system. However, in order to use this methodology, the section 402 program employees must be filling types of positions in existence before the grantee or subgrantee received financial assistance under the section 402 program, and the salary scale must not have been changed as a result of such financial assistance.

(e) Prorating salaries. Where an individual performs functions under several grants, his or her time shall be prorated among the different grants and the portion of the salary charged to the section 402 grant shall not exceed the percentage of time spent performing section 402 functions.

(f) Employee benefits. Employee benefits shall be at the same level and to the same extent as those positions in public or private nonprofit agencies in the area where the program is carried out.

(g) Position responsibilities. (1) Each grantee and subgrantee shall maintain a written detailed job description identifying job functions and responsibilities for each administrative and staff position under its section 402 program.

(2) Each position shall have specific hiring qualifications. Positions requiring higher salaries or wages shall include higher level of responsibilities commensurate with the salary.

(h) Personnel procedures. (1) Each grantee and subgrantee shall maintain a personnel manual containing detailed procedures for hiring new employees, promoting present employees and granting salary increases.

§ 633.314

(2) Each grantee and subgrantee shall maintain documentation as to any personnel action (including hiring, promotion, and salary increases) involving its section 402 program employees.

§ 633.314 Reports required.

Grantees shall report pursuant to instructions issued by the Department. Reports shall be submitted quarterly within 45 days after the end of the report period (sec. 165(a)(2)). Accuracy of all reports must be verified by the chief executive officer or financial officer. When estimates are used, the verification statement will so state.

§ 633.315 Replacement, corrective action, termination.

(a) The Department may replace any grantee who during the grant period has been terminated by first offering the Governor the opportunity to submit an acceptable application. When such an offer is made and should the Governor decline, within 15 days, or should the Governor or his agent have been the terminated grantee, the Department may replace the grantee by (1) designating another organization or organizations, or (2) opening the area for competitive bidding.

(b) The Department may also require appropriate corrective action as a condition of continued funding of a grantee whose performance has been found deficient, but not sufficient to warrant termination for cause or emergency treatment. Such appropriate corrective actions may include but are not limited to termination of subrecipient agreements, development of and compliance with corrective action plans, etc.

(c) In cases where deficiencies are identified and efforts at corrective action have failed, the Department may apply sanctions, e.g., suspension of Letter of Credit, incremental funding, etc.

(d) Termination for cause can occur whenever there is a violation of the governing rules and regulations, failure to comply with the grant terms and conditions and in such cases as:

(1) Inability to meet Federal standards related to such debt collection requirements as:

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(i) Failure to respond to demand letters from DOL for repayment of debts within the stated timeframe;

(ii) Failure to comply with approved repayment agreement;

(2) Nonperformance related to such requirements as:

(i) Failure to submit required quarterly financial reports for two successive periods within 30 days after they are due;

(ii) Failure to submit required quarterly performance report for two successive periods within 30 days after they are due;

(iii) Failure to develop a plan of action to correct deficiencies identified in a final audit finding and determination or by an onsite monitoring review;

(3) Nonperformance related to such requirements as:

(i) Failure to comply with formal corrective action after due notice;

(ii) Failure to comply with the requirements of the Act related to a grievance procedure and other requirements;

(e) In addition, the Department, by written notice, may terminate a grant in whole or in part in the event of reduction in the funds available for JTPA title IV, section 402 programs by reason of congressional action, whether by authorization, appropriation, deferral, rescission or otherwise, or by reason of other legislative action, such as changes in service deliverers, program content or services to be provided, which makes it impracticable to continue the agreement under its original terms. In the event of a congressional reduction in funds, the reduction shall be apportioned on an equitable basis among section 402 grantees. In the case of termination pursuant to this provision, the Department shall be liable for payment, in accordance with the payment provisions of this agreement, for services rendered and noncancellable obligations properly incurred prior to the effective date of termination.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of part 636 the Department may terminate a grantee under emergency termination procedures in accordance with section 164(f) of the Act.

(i) Instances under which emergency termination can occur include but are not limited to: Final audit findings and determinations identifying numerous adverse findings in the area of financial management; information gathered through onsite monitoring which substantiates serious management, fiscal and/or performance problems; documented information from the Inspector General or gained through incident reports of poor performance, serious administrative problems and/or inability to protect and account for Federal funds.

(ii) Within 30 days of written termination notification to a grantee, the Department will secure applicable documents onsite, seize bank accounts relating to the program, arrange for the payment of legitimate bills and debts and arrange, to the degree feasible, for the continued provision of services to program enrollees.

§ 633.316 Closeout procedures.

Grant closeout will conform to the requirements at 41 CFR part 29-70. As necessary, the Department shall issue supplementary closeout requirements.

§ 633.317 Reallocation of funds.

(a) In a limited number of circumstances, the Department may reduce a portion of a grant when it can be reasonably projected that the funds will not be used during the grant performance period or that they will not be used for DOL authorized carryover purposes. Such reduction of funds will only be undertaken after 30-days advance notice to the grantee.

(b) Funds recaptured as a result of these grant reductions will be available for technical assistance or special projects funded at the discretion of the Department .

§ 633.318 Nondiscrimination and non-sectarian activities.

Pursuant to section 167(a) of the Act:

(a) Nondiscrimination and equal opportunity requirements and procedures, including complaint processing and compliance reviews, will be governed by the provisions of 29 CFR parts 31 and 32 and will be administered by the Office of Civil Rights.

(b) The employment or training of participants in sectarian activities is prohibited.

§ 633.319 Lobbying, political activities and unionization.

No funds provided under the Act may be used in any way:

(a) To attempt to influence in any manner a member of Congress to favor or oppose any legislation or appropriation by Congress.

(b) To attempt to influence in any manner State or local legislators to favor or oppose any legislation or appropriation by such legislators.

(c) Which involves political activities (sec. 141(a)).

(d) Which will assist, promote, or deter union organizing (sec. 143(c)(1)).

§ 633.320 Nepotism.

(a) No grantee, subgrantee, or employing agency may hire a person in an administrative capacity, staff position, or on-the-job training position funded under the Act if a member of that person's immediate family is engaged in an administrative capacity for that grantee, subgrantee, or employing agency.

(b) No subgrantee or employing agency may hire a person in an administrative capacity, staff position or on-the-job training position funded under the Act, if a member of that person's immediate family is engaged in an administrative capacity for the grantee from which that subgrantee or employing agency obtains its funds. To the extent that an applicable State or local legal requirement regarding nepotism is more restrictive than this provision, such State or local requirement shall be followed.

(c) For purposes of this section the term "immediate family" means wife, husband, son, daughter, mother, father, brother, brother-in-law, sister, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, stepparent, and stepchild.

§ 633.321 Performance standards for section 402 programs.

(a) The Secretary shall issue performance standards for section 402 programs.

(b) To issue performance standards, the Secretary shall:

(1) Select the measures against which the standards will be set.

§ 633.322

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(2) Prescribe the pre- and post-program measurement periods.

(3) Determine standards for each of the measures, from which specific grantee standards can be determined in accordance with the parameters established by the Secretary.

(c) No grantee shall be penalized for not meeting performance standards for the program years 1984-1986.

§ 633.322 Sanctions for violation of the Act.

(a) Pursuant to sections 164 (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) of the Act, the Secretary may impose appropriate sanctions and corrective actions for violations of the Act, regulations, or grant terms and conditions. Additionally, sanctions may include the following:

(1) Offsetting debts, arising from misexpenditure of grant funds, against amounts to which the grantee is or may be entitled under the Act, except as provided in section (e)(1) of the Act. The debt shall be fully satisfied when the Secretary reduces amounts allotted to the grantee by the amount of the misexpenditure; and

(2) Determining the amount of Federal cash maintained by the grantee or its subgrantee or contractor in excess of reasonable grant needs, establishing a debt for the amount of such excessive cash, and charging interest on that debt.

(b) Except for actions under section 164(f) and 167 of the Act, to establish a debt or violation subject to sanction and/or corrective action, the Secretary shall utilize initial and final determination procedures outlined in 20 CFR part 636.

(c) To impose a sanction or corrective action regarding a violation of section 167 of the Act, the Secretary shall utilize the procedures of 29 CFR part 31.

(d) (1) The Secretary shall hold the grantee responsible for all funds under the grant. The grantee shall hold its subgrantees and contractors responsible for JTPA funds received through the grant.

(2) The Secretary shall determine the liability of the grantee for misexpenditures of grant funds in accordance with section 164(e) of the Act, including the requirement that the grantee shall have taken prompt and appropriate corrective actions for misexpenditures by a subgrantee or contractor.

(3) Prompt, appropriate, and aggressive debt collection action to recover any funds misspent by subgrantees or contractors ordinarily shall be considered a part of the corrective action required by section 164(e)(2)(D) of the Act.

(4) In making the determination required by section 164(e)(2) of the Act, the Secretary may determine, based on a request from the grantee, that the grantee may forego certain collection actions against a subgrantee or contractor where that subgrantee or contractor was not at fault with respect to the liability criteria set forth in section 164(e)(2)(A) through section 164(e)(2)(D) of the Act. The Secretary shall consider such requests in assessing whether the grantee's corrective action was appropriate in light of section 164(e)(2)(D) of the Act.

(5) The grantee shall not be released from liability for misspent funds under the determination required by section 164(e) of the Act until the Secretary determines that further collection action, either by the grantee or subgrantee or contractor, would be inappropriate or would prove futile.

(e) Nothing in this section shall preclude the Secretary from imposing a sanction directly against a subgrantee or contractor as authorized in section 164(e)(3) of the Act. In such a case, the Secretary shall inform the grantee of the Secretary's action.

COMPREHENSIVE LABOR MARKET
INFORMATION SYSTEM

§ 634.1 General.

Pursuant to title IV, part E of the Job Training Partnership Act, the Secretary, in cooperation with the States, shall maintain a comprehensive system of Labor Market Information (LMI). This subpart contains regulations governing the comprehensive LMI system.

§ 634.2 Availability of funds.

(a) The Secretary shall make available, from the amounts appropriated pursuant to section 461(a) of the Act and sections 3(a) and 14 of the Wagner-Peyser Act, funds to support LMI activities and Federal-State cooperative statistical programs.

(b) LMI programs may be funded through reimbursable agreements between the Secretary and the States.

§ 634.3 Eligible recipients.

(a) For funds appropriated pursuant to JTPA title IV, part E, eligible recipients shall be the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

(b) For funds appropriated pursuant to the Wagner-Peyser Act, as amended, eligible recipients shall be the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Guam, and the Virgin Islands.

§ 634.4 Statistical standards.

Recipients shall agree to provide required data following the statistical standards prescribed by the Bureau of Labor Statistics for cooperative statistical programs.

§ 634.5 Federal oversight.

The Secretary shall take such action as necessary to ensure satisfactory recipient performance.

636.11 Final action.

AUTHORITY: 29 U.S.C. 1579(a).

SOURCE: 48 FR 48780, Oct. 20, 1983, unless otherwise noted.

§ 636.1 Scope and purpose.

(a) General. This part establishes the procedures to receive, investigate and resolve complaints, and conduct hearings to adjudicate disputes under title IV (except part B) of the Act. It governs grievance procedures at the recipient or subrecipient level, the receipt and investigation of complaints at the Federal level, the procedures for resolving investigative findings, the rules of practice for adjudicative hearings, and the rendering of decisions pursuant to the Act. Judicial review of final action of the Department after opportunity for an administrative hearing has been exclusively established in the United States Courts of Appeals for the Circuits in which the affected parties reside or transact business.

(b) Initiation of investigations. JTPA investigations may be initiated upon the request of any person or organization or by the Department on its own initiative.

(c) Non-JTPA remedies. Whenever any person, organization or agency believes that a recipient or subrecipient has engaged in conduct that violates the Act and that such conduct also violates a Federal statute other than JTPA, or a State or local law, that person, organization or agency may, with respect to the non-JTPA cause of action, institute a civil action or pursue other remedies authorized under other Federal, State, or local law against the recipient or subrecipient without first exhausting the remedies in this subpart. For example, if a subrecipient believes that a grantee has breached the subgrant agreement between the grantee and itself, the subrecipient may institute a civil action for breach of contract in a State court if so authorized by State law. Nothing in the Act or this paragraph, shall:

§ 636.2

(1) Allow any person or organization to join or sue the Secretary with respect to his or her responsibilities under JTPA except after exhausting the remedies in this subpart.

(2) Allow any person or organization to file a suit which alleges a violation of JTPA or these regulations without first exhausting the administrative remedies described in this subpart, or

(3) Be construed to create a private right of action with respect to alleged violations of JTPA or the regulations.

(d) Complaints of discrimination pursuant to section 167(a) of the Act will be handled under 29 CFR parts 31 and 32.

[48 FR 48780, Oct. 20, 1983, as amended at 55 FR 13007, Apr. 6, 1990]

§ 636.2 Protection of informants.

(a) Informants. Where possible the identity of any person who has furnished information relating to, or assisted in an investigation of a possible violation of the Act will be held in confidence. Where disclosure of the person's identity is essential to assure a fair determination of the issues, or where necessary to effectively accomplish responsibilities under the Act, the Department may disclose such identity upon such conditions as will promote the continued receipt of confidential information by the Department and effectuate the protections and policies stated in paragraph (b) of this section. Any such disclosure shall be consistent with the Freedom of Information Act, the Privacy Act and other applicable law.

(b) Retaliation prohibited. No person or agency may discharge, or in any other manner discriminate or retaliate against any person, or deny to any person a benefit to which that person is entitled under the provisions of the Act or the regulations because such person has filed any complaint, instituted or caused to be instituted any proceeding under or related to the Act, has testified or is about to testify in any such proceeding or investigation, or has provided information or assisted in an investigation.

§ 636.3 Complaint and hearing procedures at the grantee level.

(a) Policy. (1) Each grantee shall establish and maintain a procedure for resolving any complaint alleging a violation of the Act, regulations, grant or other agreements under the Act, including any complaint arising in connection with the JTPA programs operated by the grantee or its subrecipients. Such complaint procedures must meet the requirements of this section. The complaint procedure shall provide for final resolution of complaints within 60 days after filing the complaint. Where existing complaints or grievance procedures include the elements set forth in this section, grantees may adopt such mechanism as, or as part of, their JTPA procedure.

(2) Participants shall be provided, upon enrollment into employment or training, with a written description of the complaint procedures including notification of their right to file a complaint and instructions on how to do so. Grantees should designate an individual to monitor the operation of the complaint procedures, to ensure that complaints and related correspondence are logged and filed, to ensure that assistance is available for properly filling complaints, and to ensure the availability, coordination, and promptness of all elements of the procedures. Upon filing a complaint, and at each stage thereafter, each complaint shall be notified in writing of the next step in the procedure.

(3) Complaints may be brought by any individual or organization including, but not limited to, program participants, subrecipients, contractors, staff of the grantee or subrecipient, applicants for participation or financial assistance, labor unions, and community-based organizations.

(4) With the exception of complaints alleging fraud or criminal activity, the filing of a complaint pursuant to this section must be made within one year of the alleged occurrence.

(5) The grantee may delegate the authority to operate and maintain the complaint and hearing procedure to its subrecipients except for complaints between the grantee and its subrecipients (e.g., audit disallowances), complaints involving more than one of its subrecipients, or complaints directly involving the operations or responsibilities of the grantee. Where the procedure is delegated, the grantee may provide for an appeal to itself from the decision of the subrecipient or the grantee may provide that the subrecipient's decision is the final decision of the grantee. Where the procedure is delegated, the grantee shall ensure that the procedures specified in this section are followed and a decision issued promptly within 60 days after a complaint is filed.

(6) When a participant is an employee of a grantee or subrecipient and alleges that an occurrence constitutes a violation of the Act, regulations, grant, or other agreements under the Act, as well as a violation of the terms and conditions of employment under a State or local law or a collective bargaining agreement, the participant may pursue the complaint and hearing procedures under the State or local law or the collective bargaining agreement, pursuant to §636.4. A participant who selects the procedures provided in this section is not precluded from filing a complaint under §636.4, unless otherwise prohibited by State or local law, or applicable collective bargaining agreement.

(b) Complaint procedures. The complaint resolution procedure shall include:

(1) Opportunity to file a complaint. All complaints shall be in writing.

(2) Opportunity for informal resolution of the complaint.

(3) Written notification of an opportunity for a hearing when an informal resolution has not been accomplished. The notice shall state the procedures for requesting a hearing and shall describe the elements in the hearing procedures including those set forth in paragraph (c) of this section.

(4) Opportunity to amend the complaint prior to a hearing.

(5) Opportunity for a hearing pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section within 30 days of filing the complaint.

(6) A final written decision to the complainant which shall be made within 60 days of the filing of the complaint and provided to the parties by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. The decision shall include:

(i) A statement of facts and reason(s) for the decision.

(ii) A statement that the procedures delineated in this section have been completed.

(iii) A statement of any remedies to be applied.

(iv) Notice of the right to file a complaint with the Grant Officer pursuant to §636.6 where any party disagrees with the decision.

(c) Hearing procedure. A hearing shall be provided within 30 days after filing a complaint. The hearing procedure shall include:

(1) Written notice of the date, time and place of the hearing, the manner in which it will be conducted, and the issues to be decided. Other interested parties may apply for notice. Such other interested party is a person or organization potentially affected by the outcome. The notice to other interested parties shall include the same information furnished to the complainant and shall further state whether such interested parties may participate in the hearing and if applicable, the method by which they may request such participation.

(2) Opportunity to withdraw the request for hearing in writing before the hearing.

(3) Opportunity to request rescheduling of the hearing for good cause.

(4) Opportunity to be represented by an attorney or other representative of the complainant's choice.

(5) Opportunity to call witnesses and introduce documentary evidence. Recipients or subrecipients shall cooperate in making available any persons under their control or employ to testify, if such persons are requested to testify by the complainant.

§ 636.4

(6) Opportunity to have records or documents relevant to the issues produced by their custodian when such records or documents are kept by or for the grantee or its subrecipient in the ordinary course of business.

(7) Opportunity to question any witnesses or parties.

(8) The right to an impartial hearing officer.

(9) A verbatim record of the proceeding.

(10) A written decision from the hearing officer to the complainant(s) and any other interested parties within 60 days of the filing of the complaint. This period may be extended with the written consent of all of the parties for good cause. The written decision shall include a statement of facts, a statement of reasons for the decision and a statement of any remedies to be applied. Where the hearing officer's decision is the grantee's final decision it shall be provided to the parties by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.

(11) Where a complaint procedure provides for a grantee's review of the hearing officer's decision, the grantee shall complete its review and provide a final written decision to the complainant(s), and any other parties, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, as provided in paragraph (c)(10) of this section within 60 days after the complaint is filed.

(12) Where local law, personnel rules or other applicable requirements specify procedures in addition to those specified above, similarly employed JTPA participants shall be notified of their right to use the same procedures.

§ 636.4 Grievance procedures at the employer level.

(a) Policy. (1) Whenever the grantee or subrecipient is an employer, it shall continue to operate or shall establish and maintain for its participants a grievance procedure relating to the terms and conditions of JTPA employment. The employer who does not have a grievance procedure may use the complaint procedure established under § 636.3. Employers shall inform participants of the procedures they are to follow.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(2) A participant who elects the grievance procedure in this section, may also pursue a complaint under § 636.3 where there is an alleged violation of the Act, regulations, grant or other agreement under the Act.

(b) Equal benefits. Where local law, personnel rules, or other applicable requirements specify procedures (including procedures for any adverse action or for termination of employment), similarly employed JTPA participants shall be notified of their right to use the same procedures, as well as JTPA procedures.

§ 636.5 Exhaustion of grantee level procedure.

(a) Exhaustion required. No complainant may file a complaint with the Department until the grantee level procedures specified in § 636.3 have been exhausted.

(b) Exhaustion exceptions. Complainants who have not exhausted the procedures at the grantee level may file the complaint at the Federal level, and the Department may accept such complaint if it determines that:

(1) The grantee or subrecipient has not acted within the time frames specified in § 636.3; or

(2) The grantee's or subrecipient's procedures are not in compliance with § 636.3; or

(3) An emergency situation exists.

§ 636.6 Complaints and investigations at the Federal level.

(a) General; final determination of reliable and probative evidence. Where local administrative remedies have been exhausted, section 144(c) of the Act requires that a final determination of the complaint shall be made within 120 days after the Department receives the complaint. The Department's resolution of non-criminal matters pursuant to section 144(c) of the Act consists of the final determination under § 636.8(e) of whether there is reliable and probative evidence to support the allegation or belief that a grantee or subrecipient is failing to comply with the requirements of the Act, regulations, grant or other agreement under the Act.

(b) Complaints. (1) Every complaint shall be filed in writing before the commencement of any investigation or corrective action shall be required. Complaints alleging discrimination under section 167, will be filed with the Regional Director, Office of Civil Rights (OCR). All other JTPA complaints will be filed with the appropriate Grant Officer. However, a complaint timely filed with either the Grant Officer or the Regional OCR Director shall be deemed properly filed and shall be referred (as necessary) to the appropriate office. The complaint shall be filed only after the grantee level procedures in §636.3 have been exhausted and no later than 30 days from the date of receipt of the written decision or notice required by §636.3. The complaint should contain the following:

(i) The full name, telephone number (if any), and address of the person making the complaint.

(ii) The full name and address of the respondent (the grantee or subrecipient or person against whom the complaint is made).

(iii) A clear and concise statement of the facts, including pertinent dates, constituting the alleged violation.

(iv) Where known, the provisions of the Act, regulations, grant or other agreements under the Act believed to have been violated.

(v) A statement disclosing whether proceedings involving the subject of the complaint have been commenced or concluded before any Federal, State or local authority, and, if so, the date of such commencement or conclusion, the name and address of the authority and the style of the case.

(vi) A copy of the final decision of the recipient or subrecipient issued pursuant to §636.3.

(2) A complaint will be considered to have been received upon receipt by the appropriate Grant Officer. To be acceptable, the complaint must be a written statement sufficiently precise to both identify those against whom the allegations are made and to fairly afford the respondent an opportunity to prepare a defense. A complaint may be amended to cure defects or omissions, or to clarify and amplify allegations made therein, and such amendments relate back to the original filing date for purposes of timely filing.

(3) A complaint once filed may be withdrawn only with the consent of the Grant Officer. If the complainant fails to cooperate or is unavailable, the complaint may be dismissed upon reasonable notice to the last known address of the complainant.

(c) Investigation of complaints. Whenever the Grant Officer receives a complaint filed in accordance with paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the complaint shall be investigated if it alleges that any person, grantee or subrecipient has failed to comply with the requirements of the Act, regulations, grant or other agreements under the Act. The Grant Officer shall promptly issue a notice to the grantee or subrecipient which shall include a copy or summary of the complaint and which shall direct the grantee or subrecipient to forward a copy of the complete administrative file, including a copy of the certified verbatim transcript of the hearing, within 15 days of receipt of such notice to the Grant Officer. Such investigation shall be completed and a conclusion made pursuant to §636.8(e) within 120 days of the filing of the complaint, except that the time may be extended with the written consent of all the parties.

(d) Onsite review and other bases for investigation. If after an onsite review, monitoring visit, review of reports, data or other information, the Grant Officer has reason to believe that a grantee or subrecipient is failing to comply with the requirements of the Act, regulations, grant or other agreements under the Act, the Grant Officer or other designated authority shall inquire into the matter.

(e) Utilizing other services. With the consent and cooperation of State agencies charged with the administration or enforcement of State laws, the Secretary may elect for the purpose of carrying out this part, to utilize the services of State, local and Tribal agencies and their employees, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, may reimburse, in whole or in part, such State and local agencies and their employees for services rendered for such purposes.

§ 636.7

(f) Criminal investigation. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, investigation by the Department of any matter concerning a potential Federal criminal violation shall be conducted as the Inspector General shall direct pursuant to the powers granted by the Inspector General Act of 1978, Pub. L. 95-452, 92 Stat. 1101.

§ 636.7 Subpoenas.

(a) Subpoenas in non-Inspector General investigations. (1) The Department, through the appropriate Assistant Secretary, may issue a subpoena directing the person named therein to appear before a designated representative at a designated time and place to verify or to produce documentary evidence, or both, relating to any matter arising under the Act being investigated. The Assistant Secretary, Solicitor or the Associate Solicitor for Employment and Training Legal Services, for good cause shown, may extend the time prescribed for compliance with such subpoenas.

(2) Any motion to limit or quash any investigational subpoena shall be filed with the Chief Administrative Law Judge within 10 days after service of the subpoena, or, if the return date is less than 10 days after service of the subpoena, within such other time as may be allowed by the assigned Administrative Law Judge.

(3) The timely filing of a motion to limit or quash an investigational subpoena shall stay the requirement of a return on the portion challenged. If the Administrative Law Judge rules subsequent to the return date, and the ruling denies the motion in whole or in part, the Administrative Law Judge shall specify a new return date.

(4) All motions to limit or quash subpoenas, and the responses thereto, shall be part of the public record of the Office of the Administrative Law Judges except as otherwise ordered or provided under these regulations.

(b) Noncompliance. (1) In cases of failure to comply with compulsory processes, appropriate action may be initiated including actions for enforcement, forfeiture, penalties or criminal actions.

(2) The Solicitor of Labor, with the consent of the Attorney General, may:

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(i) Institute in the appropriate district court on behalf of the Department an enforcement proceeding in connection with the failure or refusal of a person, partnership, corporation, recipient or other entity to comply with or to obey a subpoena if the return date or any extension thereof has passed; or

(ii) Request on behalf of the Department the institution of civil actions, as appropriate, if the return date or any extension thereof has passed including seeking civil contempt in cases where a court order enforcing compulsory process has been violated.

§ 636.8 Initial and final determination; request for hearing at the Federal level.

(a) Initial determination. Upon the conclusion of a review of the entire administrative record of an investigation conducted pursuant to § 636.6 or after the conclusion of the comment period for audits, the Grant Officer shall make an initial determination of the matter in controversy including the allowability of questioned costs or activities. Such determination shall be based upon the requirements of the Act, regulations, grants or other agreements, under the Act. The determination may conclude either:

(1) That based upon the entire record there is no violation of the Act, regulations, grants or other agreements under the Act; or

(2) That there is evidence to support the allegation, or finding of questioned costs or activities.

(b) Contents of initial determination. (1) In the event that the Grant Officer makes a finding that there is evidence to support the allegation of a violation the initial determination shall:

(i) Be in writing;

(ii) State the basis of the determination, including factual findings and conclusions;

(iii) Specify the costs or activities disallowed;

(iv) Specify the corrective actions required and/or that sanctions may be imposed; and

(v) Give notice of an opportunity for informal resolution of the matters as necessary to the appropriate parties, which should include all interested parties specified by the Grant Officer.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 636.10

(2) In the event that the Grant Officer makes a finding of no violation the initial determination shall:

- (i) Be in writing;
- (ii) State the bases of the determination (factual findings and conclusions); and
- (iii) Give notice of the opportunity to present additional information within 30 days of receipt of the initial determination.

(3) The initial determination shall be mailed by certified mail return receipt requested to the parties and interested parties.

(c) Allowability of certain questioned costs. In any case in which the Grant Officer determines that the recipient meets the requirements of section 164(e)(2)(A)–(D) of the Act, the Grant Officer may waive the imposition of sanctions (sec. 164(e)(3)). It is the responsibility of the grantee to request such waiver by the Grant Officer and to submit the evidence to be used to make the finding.

(d) Informal resolution. Except as provided by section 164(f) of the Act, the Grant Officer shall not revoke a grant, in whole or in part, nor institute corrective action or sanctions against a grantee without first providing the grantee with an opportunity to informally resolve those matters contained in the Grant Officer's initial determination. If all matters are informally resolved, the Grant Officer shall notify the parties in writing of the nature of the resolution, which shall constitute final agency action, not subject to appeal, and shall close the file.

(e) Final determination. (1) If all the parties and the Grant Officer cannot informally resolve any matter pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, the Grant Officer shall provide each party with a final written determination by certified mail, return receipt requested. In the case of audits, the final determination shall be issued not later than 180 days after the receipt by the Grant Officer of the final approved audit report.

(2) The final determination shall:

- (i) Indicate that efforts to informally resolve matters contained in the initial determination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section have been unsuccessful;

- (ii) List those matters upon which the parties continue to disagree;

- (iii) List any modifications to the factual findings and conclusions set in the initial determination;

- (iv) List any sanctions, and required corrective actions, including any other alteration or modification of the plan, grant, agreement or program ordered by the Grant Officer; and

- (v) Inform the parties of their opportunity to request a hearing pursuant to these regulations.

(3) If it is determined in the final notice that the complaint does not allege and/or the evidence does not indicate that there is reason to believe there may have been a violation of the Act, regulations, grants or other agreements under the Act, the Grant Officer shall dismiss the complaint without an offer of a hearing. Such dismissal shall constitute final agency action.

§ 636.9 Opportunity for informal review.

(a) Parties to a complaint under § 636.10 may choose to waive their rights to an administrative hearing before the Office of Administrative Law Judges (OALJ) by choosing to transfer the settlement of their dispute to an individual acceptable to all parties for the purpose of conducting an informal review of the stipulated facts and rendering a decision in accordance with applicable law. A written decision will be issued within 60 days after the matter is submitted for informal review.

(b) The waiver of the right to request a hearing before the OALJ will automatically be revoked if a settlement has not been reached within the 60 days provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) The decision rendered under this informal review process shall be treated as a final decision of an Administrative Law Judge pursuant to section 166(b) of the Act.

§ 636.10 Hearings before the Office of Administrative Law Judges.

(a) Jurisdiction. (1) Within 21 days of receipt of the Grant Officer's final determination, except for determinations under § 636.8(e)(3) dismissing the complaint without an opportunity to request a hearing, or on the expiration of 120 days of the filing of a complaint with the Grant Officer upon which no extensions have been mutually agreed, any affected grantee, subrecipient of complainant may transmit by certified mail, return receipt requested, a request for hearing to the Chief Administrative Law Judge, United States Department of Labor, 800 K Street, NW., suite 400, Washington, DC 20001-8002 with a copy to the Grant Officer.

(2) The request for hearing shall be accompanied by a copy of the Grant Officer's final determination, if issued, and shall specifically state those issues of the determination upon which review is requested. Those provisions of the determination not specified for review, or the entire determination when no hearing has been requested, shall be considered resolved and not subject to further review.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by these regulations, only alleged violations of the Act, regulations, grants or other agreements under the Act fairly raised in grantee level proceedings under § 636.3, alleged violations of recipient level procedures fairly raised before the Grant Officer, or complaints identified in sections 164(f) and 166(a) of the Act are subject to review.

(4) The same procedure set forth in paragraphs (a) (1) through (3) of this section applies in the case of a complainant who has not had a dispute adjudicated by the informal review process of § 636.9 within the 60 days, except that the request for hearing before the OALJ must be filed within 15 days of the conclusion of the 60-day period. In addition to including the determination upon which review is requested, the complainant must include a copy of any Stipulation of Facts and a brief summary of proceedings.

(5) Discretionary hearing. An opportunity for a hearing may also be extended when the appropriate Assistant Secretary determines that fairness and the effective operation of JTPA programs would be furthered.

(b) Service and filing. Copies of all papers required to be served on a party or filed with the OALJ shall be filed simultaneously with the OALJ and served upon the parties of record or their representatives, and shall contain proof of such service.

(c) Rules of Procedure. The rules of practice and procedure promulgated by the OALJ shall govern the conduct of hearings under this section.

(d) Prehearing procedures. In all cases, the OALJ should encourage the use of prehearing procedures to simplify and clarify facts and issues.

(e) Subpoenas. Subpoenas necessary to secure the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents or things at hearings shall be obtained from the OALJ and shall be issued pursuant to the authority contained in section 163(b) of the Act, incorporating 15 U.S.C. section 49.

(f) Timely submission of evidence. The OALJ shall not permit the introduction at the hearing of documentation relating to the allowability of costs if such documentation has not been made available for review either at the time ordered for any prehearing conference, or, in the absence of such an order, at least three weeks prior to the hearing date.

(g) Burden of production. The Department shall have the burden of production to support the Grant Officer's decision. To this end, the Grant Officer shall prepare and file an administrative file in support of the decision. Thereafter, the party or parties seeking to overturn the Grant Officer's decision shall have the burden of persuasion.

(h) Review. (1) In all cases proceeding under § 636.6, the Administrative Law Judge shall review the Administrative File and the request for hearing and shall determine whether there has been a full and fair hearing at the grantee level and whether there are no material factual issues unresolved. If the Administrative Law Judge determines that these two conditions are met, the case shall be decided upon the record and upon such briefs as the parties may submit. The Administrative Law Judge shall determine from the record whether there exists reliable and probative evidence to uphold the decision of the Grant Officer and shall, as appropriate, either affirm or remand the decision.

(2) If the Administrative Law Judge determines that either of the two conditions is not met, he or she shall hold a hearing. In such cases, the Office of Administrative Law Judges shall have the full authority of the Secretary under section 164 of the Act, except with respect to the provisions of subsection (e) of that section.

(3) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to limit the right of the parties to seek a dismissal of the request for hearing or to seek summary judgment.

(i) Termination of grant. When the decision terminates the grant in whole or in part after hearing pursuant to this subpart, the decision shall specify the extent of termination and the date upon which such termination becomes effective. Upon receipt of this notice, the grantee shall:

(1) Discontinue further commitments of grant funds to the extent that they relate to the terminated portion of the grant.

(2) Promptly cancel all subgrants, agreements and contracts utilizing funds under this grant to the extent that they relate to the terminated portion of the grant.

(3) Settle, with the approval of the Secretary, all outstanding claims arising from such termination.

(4) Submit, within a reasonable period of time, after the receipt of the notice of termination, a termination settlement proposal which shall include a final statement of all unreimbursed costs related to the terminated portion of the grant.

(j) Alternative provision of services. If the final decision specifies suspension or termination of the grant, the Grant Officer shall determine how services shall be maintained in the grantee's area. As part of the determination, the Grant Officer shall determine whether any funds shall be reallocated to another recipient to serve the area formerly served by the terminated or suspended grant. The Grant Officer may also consider the desirability of providing direct Federal services to the area through appropriate means.

(k) Timing of decisions. The Office of Administrative Law Judges should render a written decision not later than 90 days after the closing of the record.

§ 636.11 Final action.

The final decision of the Secretary pursuant to section 166(b) of the Act in cases heard by the Administrative Law Judges or decided by an informal reviewer, or the Grant Officer's final determination where there has been no such hearing, constitutes final agency action within the meaning of the Act and the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 704.

Subpart A—General Provisions

§ 637.100 Scope and purpose.

(a) This part implements Title V of the Act which creates a program to provide incentive bonuses to States for providing certain employable dependent individuals with job training to reduce welfare dependency, to promote self-sufficiency, to increase child support payments, and to increase employment and earnings (section 501).

§ 637.105

(b) This part applies to programs operated with funds under Title V of the Job Training Partnership Act.

§ 637.105 Definitions.

In addition to the definitions contained in sections 4, 301, 303(e), and in § 626.4 of this chapter, the following definitions apply to the administration of Title V of the Act and this part:

Absent parent means an individual who is continuously absent from the household and who is a non-custodial parent of a dependent child receiving aid to families with dependent children (AFDC) under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 601, et seq.).

Disability assistance means benefits offered pursuant to Title XVI of the Social Security Act, relating to the supplemental security income program.

Federal contribution means the amount of the Federal component of cash payments to individuals within the participating State under welfare and/or disability assistance programs, including Part A of Title IV of the Social Security Act.

Subpart B—Program Planning and Operation

§ 637.200 Allotments to States.

(a) For each program year for which funds are appropriated to carry out programs under this part, the Secretary shall pay to each participating State the amount the State is eligible to receive in accordance with this part. No payments shall be made for any years for which funds are not appropriated and/or not available (section 502(a)).

(b) If the appropriation is not sufficient to pay to each State the amount it is eligible to receive in accordance with this part, the State shall receive a percentage of the total available funds equal to the percentage of its bonus compared to the national total of bonuses (section 502(b)).

(c) If an additional amount is made available after the application of paragraph (b) of this section, such additional amount shall be allocated among the States by increasing payment in the same manner as was used to reduce payment, except that no State shall be paid an amount which exceeds the amount to which it is eligible (section 502(c)).

§ 637.205 Notice of intent to participate.

(a) Any State seeking to participate in the incentive bonus program shall notify the Secretary of its intent to do so no later than 30 days before the beginning of its first program year of participation (i.e., June 1) (section 505(a)).

(b) Pursuant to instructions issued by the Secretary, the notification referenced in paragraph (a) of this section shall be in the form of a letter from the Governor to the Secretary advising the Secretary of the State's intention to apply for, receive and expend bonuses under this program in a manner consistent with this part (section 505(b)).

(c) After the State's submission of a notice of intent to participate, incentive bonuses may be claimed by a State for any individual who:

(1)(i) Was an absent parent of any child receiving AFDC at the time such individual was determined to be eligible for participation in programs under the Act;

(ii) Has participated in education, training, or other activities (including the Job Corps) funded under the Act; and

(iii) Pays child support for a child specified in paragraph (c)(1) of this section following termination from activities funded under the Act; or

(2)(i) Is blind or disabled;

(ii) Was receiving disability assistance at the time such individual was determined to be eligible for participation in programs under the Act;

(iii) Has participated in education, training, or other activities (including the Job Corps) funded under the Act; and

(iv) Earns from employment a wage or an income (section 506).

(d) A Governor may withdraw the State's participation in the incentive bonus program in any program year by submitting a written notice of withdrawal.

§ 637.210 Incentive bonus program applications.

(a) Any State seeking to receive an incentive bonus under this title shall submit an Incentive Bonus Program application pursuant to instructions issued by the Secretary that will contain the criteria for approval of such application. Each application shall contain, at a minimum, the following information:

(1) A list of eligible individuals who met the requirements of § 637.220 of this part during the program year;

(2) The amount of the incentive bonus attributable to each eligible individual who is claimed by the State; and

(3) A statement certifying the availability of documentation to verify the eligibility of participants and the amount of the incentive bonus claimed by the State (section 505(b)).

(b) The application for any program year shall be submitted by the State to the Secretary no later than August 31 following the end of the program year for which the bonus is being claimed. A copy of such application shall also be submitted at the same time to the appropriate DOL Employment and Training Administration Regional Office.

§ 637.215 Review and approval of applications for incentive bonus payments.

(a) The Secretary shall review all applications for overall compliance with JTPA, the requirements of this part, and the instructions issued by the Secretary.

(b) The Secretary shall inform a State within 30 days after receipt of the application whether or not its application has been approved.

(c) If the application is not approved, the Department shall issue an initial notice of denial of payment indicating the reasons for such denial. The Governor will then have 30 days to respond to the reasons for the denial before a final decision is made.

(d) If the Department determines that the additional information provided does not adequately respond to the questions raised in the initial review process, a final denial of payment shall be issued. The Governor may then appeal the decision in accordance with the procedures at subpart H of part 627 of this chapter (sections 504(c) and 505(c)).

§ 637.220 Eligibility criteria for individuals to be counted in determining incentive bonuses.

An individual shall be eligible to be counted as part of the State's request for an incentive bonus payment under this part if the individual:

(a)(1) Was an absent parent of any child receiving AFDC at the time such individual was determined to be eligible for participation in programs under the Act;

(2) Has participated in education, training, or other activities (including the Job Corps) funded under the Act; and

(3) Pays child support for a child specified in paragraph (a)(1) of this section following termination from activities funded under the Act; or

(b)(1) Is blind or disabled;

(2) Was receiving disability assistance at the time such individual was determined to be eligible for participation in programs under the Act;

(3) Has participated in education, training, or other activities (including the Job Corps) funded under the Act; and

(4) Earns a wage or an income from employment (section 506).

§ 637.225 Determination of incentive bonus.

The amount of the incentive bonus to be paid to each State shall be the total of the incentive bonuses claimed for each eligible individual within the State. The amount of the incentive bonus to be paid each State shall be determined by the sum of:

(a) An amount equal to the total of the amounts of child support paid by each individual who is eligible under § 637.220(a) of this part, for up to 2 years after such individual's termination from JTPA; and

(b) An amount equal to the total reduction in the Federal contribution to the amounts received under title XVI of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1381, et seq.) by each individual who is eligible under § 637.220(b) of this part, for up to 2 years after such individual's termination from JTPA (section 503).

§ 637.230 Use of incentive bonuses.

(a) During any program year, the Governor may use an amount not to exceed 5 percent of the State's total bonus payment for the administrative costs incurred under this program, including data and information collection and compilation, recordkeeping, or the preparation of applications for incentive bonuses (section 504(a)(1)(A)).

(b) The remainder, not less than 95 percent of the incentive bonuses received, shall be distributed to SDAs and Job Corps Centers within the State in a manner consistent with an agreement between the Governor and these SDA's and centers. This agreement shall reflect an equitable method of distribution which is based on the degree to which the effort of the SDA and/or Center contributed to the State's qualification for incentive bonus funds under title V (section 504(a)(1)(B)).

(c) Not more than 10 percent of the incentive bonus received in any program year by each SDA and/or Job Corps Center may be used for the administrative costs of establishing and maintaining systems necessary for operation of programs under title V, including the costs of providing incentive payments described in paragraph (d) of this section, technical assistance, data and information collection and compilation, management information systems, post-program followup activities, and research and evaluation activities (section 504(a)(2)).

(d) Each SDA and/or Job Corps Center may make incentive payments to service providers, including participating State and local agencies, and community-based organizations, that demonstrate effectiveness in delivering employment and training services to eligible individuals under this title (section 504(b)).

(e) All remaining funds received by each SDA shall be used for activities described in sections 204 and 264 of JTPA and shall be subject to the regulations governing the operation of programs under titles II-A and II-C of JTPA. All remaining funds received by each Job Corps Center shall be used for activities authorized under part B of title IV (section 504(a)(2)).

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

Subpart C—Additional Title V Administrative Standards and Procedures

§ 637.300 Management systems, reporting and recordkeeping.

(a) The Governor shall ensure that the State's financial management system and recordkeeping system comply with subpart D of part 627 of this chapter.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of § 629.455 of this chapter, the Governor shall report to the Secretary pursuant to instructions issued by the Secretary regarding activities funded under this part. Reports shall be required semi-annually and annually. Reports shall be provided to the Secretary within 45 calendar days after the end of the report period.

(c) The Governor shall assure that appropriate and adequate records are maintained for the required time period to support all incentive bonus payment applications. Such records shall include documentation to support individuals' eligibility under this part.

§ 637.305 Federal monitoring and oversight.

The Secretary shall conduct oversight of the programs and activities conducted in accordance with this part.

§ 637.310 Audits.

The Governor shall ensure that the State complies with the audit provisions at § 629.480 of this chapter.

Subpart A—Purpose and Scope

§ 638.100 General.

(a) Purpose and Scope. The purpose of this part is to delineate the policies, rules, and regulations that govern the operation of the Job Corps program, authorized under title IV-B of the Job Training Partnership Act (Act). Job Corps is one of the broad range of programs for youth authorized by the Act. Job Corps centers are located in both rural and urban areas and provide training, education, residential and a variety of other support services necessary to prepare students to become more responsible, productive, and employable. (Section 421)

(b) Job Corps Policy and Requirements Handbook. The policies and procedures required in this part which are to be established by the Job Corps Director shall be contained in a policy and requirements handbook which shall be incorporated by reference in each contract or agreement to operate a Job Corps center, program, or entity.

(c) Definitions. Definitions for terms used in this part are found in section 4 of the Act and in subpart B of this part. Statutory authority for the regulations in this part is found in section 169(a) of the Act (29 U.S.C. 1579(a)). Applicable statutory provisions, including sections of the Act other than section 169(a), are noted parenthetically in this part.

Subpart B—Definitions

§ 638.200 Definitions.

In addition to the definitions contained in section 4 of the Act, the following definitions apply to programs under title IV-B of the Act and under this part:

Absent Without Official Leave (AWOL) means the absence of a student without official leave. For purposes of tort claims, federal employees' compensation, pay status and leave accrual, a residential student is considered AWOL if AWOL for 24 continuous hours. A non-resident student is considered AWOL if AWOL for one full day of center training.

Act means the Job Training Partnership Act.

Allotment means:

(1) A portion of the readjustment allowance prescribed by this part, which portion is paid monthly during the period of service of a student directly to a spouse of the student, to the child(ren) of the student, or to any other relative of the student who draws substantial support from the student; and

(2) A supplement to the portion allotted by the student, made by the payment of an equal amount by DOL. (Section 429(d))

Allowance means a benefit provided by DOL to students by cash, check, credit, voucher, direct provision, or otherwise for such personal travel, leave, quarters, subsistence, transportation, equipment, clothing, recreational services, and other expenses as the Job Corps Director may deem necessary or appropriate to the students' needs. (Section 429)

Capital improvement means any modification, addition, restoration or other improvement:

(1) Which increases the usefulness, productivity, or serviceable life of an existing site, facility, building, structure, or major item of equipment;

(2) Which is classified for accounting purposes as a "fixed asset"; and

(3) The cost of which increases the recorded value of the existing building, site, facility, structure, or major item of equipment and is subject to depreciation.

Center means an organizational entity, including all of its subparts, providing Job Corps training and designated as a Job Corps center by the Job Corps Director.

Center Director means a center's chief official or the Center Director's designee.

Center operator means an agency or contractor that runs a center under an agreement or contract with DOL.

Center review board means the group at a center consisting of representatives from staff and students that reviews charges brought against students for infractions of center rules for which the penalty of termination might be imposed.

Civilian Conservation Center (CCC) means a center operated on public land under an agreement between DOL and another federal agency, which shall provide, in addition to other training and assistance, programs of work experience to conserve, develop, or manage public natural resources or public recreational areas or to develop community projects in the public interest.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 638.200

Contract center means a center administered under a contract between Job Corps and a corporation, partnership, public agency, or similar legal entity.

Contracting officer means a DOL official authorized to enter into contracts or agreements on behalf of DOL.

Deliverer means any individual or organization that receives federal funds directly from DOL to establish, operate, or provide service to any Job Corps program or activity.

Department of Labor (DOL) means the United States Department of Labor, including its agencies and organizational units.

Disruptive home life means a home life characterized by such conditions as:

(1) The youth is living in an orphanage or other protective institution;

(2) The youth is suffering from serious parental or familial neglect or abuse; or

(3) The youth's father, mother, or legal guardian is a chronic invalid, alcoholic, narcotics addict, or has any other serious health condition.

Economically disadvantaged means an individual who:

(1) Receives, or is a member of a family which receives, cash welfare payments under a Federal, State, or local welfare program;

(2) Has, or is a member of a family which has received a total income for the 6-month (annualized) period prior to application to the program which, in relation to family size or for an individual, was not in excess of the higher of:

(i) The poverty level determined in accordance with criteria established by the Department of Health and Human Services; or

(ii) 70 percent of the lower living standard income level;

(3) Is receiving (or has been determined within the 6-month period prior to the application for the program involved to be eligible to receive) food stamps pursuant to the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as administered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture;

(4) Is a foster child on behalf of whom State or local government payments are made; or

(5) Is an individual with handicaps whose own income meets the requirements of paragraphs (1) or (2) of this definition, but who may be a member of a family whose income does not meet such requirements.

Employment and Training Administration (ETA) means the agency within DOL which includes the Job Corps.

Enrollee means a student.

Enrollment means:

(1) For resident students, the period of time from the date the student leaves home to begin government-authorized travel to the assigned center to the date of the scheduled arrival at the official travel destination authorized by the Center Director upon termination from Job Corps; and

(2) For nonresident students, the period of time from the time the student arrives at any center activity or program until he or she physically leaves such activity or program.

Environmental health program means the center program of health, safety, and prevention of environmental hazards for staff and students.

Facility survey means a review of center facilities conducted by professional architects and/or engineers to establish the condition of a facility and determine repairs, alterations, or replacement, if any, necessary to meet health and safety, building code or programmatic requirements.

Family means persons living in a single residence who are related by blood, marriage, or decrees of court and are included in one or more the following categories:

(1) A husband, wife and dependent children,

(2) A parent or guardian and dependent children, and

(3) A husband and wife. A step-child or step-parent is considered to be related by marriage.

Finance center means the agency or contractor which handles the payment of student allowances, allotments, and transportation charges.

Imprest fund means a cash fund of a fixed amount established by an advance of funds, without charge to an appropriation, from an agency finance or disbursing officer to a duly appointed cashier, for disbursement as needed from time to time in making payment in cash for relatively small purchases. Imprest funds occur only at

CCCs. (For contract centers, see definition of “petty cash fund”.)

Income means all income actually received from all sources by an individual or, in the case of a family, by all members of the family for the 6-month (annualized) period prior to application. Family size is the maximum number of family members during the 6-month period prior to application. When computing family income, income of a spouse and other family members is counted for the portion of the 6-month (annualized) period prior to application that the person was actually a member of the family.

(1) For the purpose of determining an individual’s eligibility for participation in the Job Corps program, family income includes:

(i) Gross wages, including wages from community service employment (CSE), work experience, and on-the-job training (OJT) paid from Job Training Partnership Act funds, and salaries (before deductions);

(ii) Net self-employment income (gross receipts minus operating expenses); and

(iii) Other money income received from sources such as interest, net rents, OASI (Old Age and Survivors Insurance) social security benefits, pensions, alimony, and periodic income from insurance policy annuities, and other sources of income.

(2) Family income does not include:

(i) Non-cash income such as food stamps or compensation received in the form of food or housing;

(ii) Imputed value of owner-occupied property, i.e., rental value;

(iii) Public assistance payments;

(iv) Cash payments received pursuant to a State plan approved under title I, IV, X, or XVI of the Social Security Act, or disability insurance payments received under title II of the Social Security Act;

(v) Federal, State, or local unemployment benefits;

(vi) Capital gains and losses;

(vii) One-time unearned income, such as, but not limited to:

(A) Payments received for a limited fixed term under income maintenance programs and supplemental (private) unemployment benefits plans;

(B) One-time or fixed-term scholarship or fellowship grants;

(C) Accident, health, and casualty insurance proceeds;

(D) Disability and death payments including fixed-term (but not lifetime) life insurance annuities and death benefits;

(E) One-time award and gifts;

(F) Inheritance, including fixed-term annuities;

(G) Fixed-term workers compensation awards;

(H) Soil bank payments; and

(I) Agricultural crop stabilization payments;

(viii) Pay or allowance which were previously received by any veteran while serving on active duty in the Armed Forces;

(ix) Educational assistance and compensation payments to veterans and other eligible persons under chapters 11, 13, 31, 34, 35, and 36, of title 38, U.S. Code;

(x) Payments made under the Trade Act of 1974;

(xi) Payments received under the Black Lung Benefits Act (30 U.S.C. 901 et seq.);

(xii) Any income directly or indirectly derived from, or arising out of, any property held by the United States in trust for any Indian tribe, band, or group or any individual; per capita payments; and services, compensation or funds provided by the United States in accordance with, or generated by, the exercise of any right guaranteed or protected by treaty; and any property distributed or income derived therefrom, or any amounts paid to or for the legatees or next of kin of any member, derived from or arising out of the settlement of an Indian claim; and (xiii) Child support payments.

Individual means a person who lives alone, or who lives with unrelated individuals, or who lives in a single residence where no family member claims that person as a dependent. An individual with disabilities has an option of applying and being considered as a member of a family or as an individual.

Individual with disabilities means any person within the definition at 29 CFR part 33 or 34 or 41 CFR part 60-741 as applicable. Although the definition employs the plural form “disabilities,” and individual with a single impairment is covered within the definition. See §§ 638.539(g) and 638.811(a).

Interagency Agreement means that formal agreement between DOL and another Federal agency administering and operating centers. This agreement establishes procedures for the funding, administration, operation, and review of those centers as well as the resolution of any disputes.

Job Corps means the agency of the Department of Labor established by section 422 of the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA) (29 U.S.C. 1692) to perform those functions of the Secretary of Labor set forth in title IV-B of JTPA (29 U.S.C. 1691 et seq.).

Job Corps Director means the chief official of the Job Corps or the Job Corps Director's designee.

Leisure-time employment means part-time paid employment of students.

Lower living standard income level means the income level (adjusted for regional, metropolitan, urban, and rural differences and family size) determined annually by the Secretary based on the most recent "lower living family budget" issued by the Secretary.

Maximum benefits means the apportioning of various segments of Job Corps training so that individual needs of each student are met and the student achieves as much benefit from the Job Corps as his or her abilities allow.

National office means the national office of Job Corps.

National training contractor means a labor union, union-affiliated organization, business organization, or a combination thereof, having contracts with the national office (or in the case of CCCs, a Federal agency at the national level) to provide vocational training, placement, or other services under a single contract including multi-area operations.

Occupational exploration program means the center program whereby a student is made aware of the vocational training opportunities made available by the center in order for the student to make an informed vocational selection.

Operational support services means activities or services required for the operation of Job Corps, such as outreach and screening services, contracted voational training and off-center educational training, placement services, certain health services, and miscellaneous logistical services.

Petty cash fund means a cash fund of a fixed amount from a contract center finance or disbursing officer to a contract center's duly appointed cashier, for disbursement as needed from time to time in making payment in cash for relatively small purchases. Petty cash funds occur at contract centers. (For CCCs, see definition of "imprest fund".)

Placement means student employment, entry into the Armed Forces, or enrollment in other training or education programs, within six months following termination from Job Corps (or such other period as may be announced by the Job Corps Director by notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER).

Placement agency means an organization acting pursuant to a contract with Job Corps that provides placement services to students.

Poverty level means the annual income level at or below which families are considered to live in poverty, as annually determined by the Department of Health and Human Services.

Readjustment allowance means the money accumulated by and reserved for each student on a monthly basis during tenure in Job Corps that is paid in a lump sum after termination.

Readmission means re-enrollment of a student who has previously been enrolled in Job Corps for less than 24 months and applies for reenrollment to the basic program and can be expected to complete a program within the remaining portion of the youth's 24-month enrollment period.

Regional appeal board means the board designated by the Regional Director in a regional office that considers student appeals of disciplinary discharges.

Regional Director means the chief official of a regional office or the Regional Director's designee.

Regional office means a regional office of Job Corps.

Regional Solicitor means the chief official of a regional office of the DOL Office of the Solicitor or the Regional Solicitor's designee.

Screening agency means an organization acting pursuant to a contract with the Job Corps that performs outreach, screens, and enrolls youth into Job Corps.

Secretary means the Secretary of Labor (the chief official of DOL) or the Secretary's designee.

Site survey means a survey of a potential location for a center that includes a preliminary engineering evaluation of the condition and capacity of existing buildings, pavements, utility systems, installed equipment, and all other real property components as well as a preliminary cost estimate for acquisition of facilities, necessary rehabilitation, modification, and new construction required that would, among other considerations, take into account structural accessibility for persons with handicaps.

State means one of the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau/Trust Territory.

Student means an individual who is enrolled in Job Corps.

Student handbook means the document developed by the center operator and given to each student during orientation that outlines center services, rules, and regulations and student rights and responsibilities. See § 638.501 of this part.

Termination means the act of officially ending a student's enrollment in Job Corps for any reason.

Transfer means the reassignment of a student from one center to another.

Unauthorized goods means firearms and ammunition; explosives and incendiaries; knives with blades longer than 2" (two inches); homemade weapons; all other weapons and instruments used primarily to inflict personal injury; stolen property; drugs, including alcohol, marijuana, depressants, stimulants, hallucinogens, tranquilizers, and drug paraphernalia except for drugs and/or paraphernalia that are prescribed for medical reasons; and any other goods prohibited by the center operator in the student handbook.

Utilization study means an architectural/engineering report which is developed subsequent to a site survey or assessment after the regional and national offices have agreed, on the basis of the site survey, that the site is potentially favorable for a center. After the utilization study is approved by the Job Corps Director it becomes the basis for scope of work, budget, design, rehabilitation, and construction of facilities for the center.

Vocational skills training (VST) means activities that provide vocational instruction to students through actual construction or improvement of permanent facilities or other approved projects.

Work experience program means a program for assignment of a student to an actual job situation, either on-center or off-center, for the purpose of enhancing a student's employability. Work experience requiring the student to work over 25 hours per week is subject to the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act and State and local minimum wage laws for hours worked in excess of 25 hours per week.

Subpart C—Funding, Site Selection, and Facilities Management

§ 638.300 Eligibility for funds and eligible deliverers.

(a) Funds shall be made available by the Secretary to eligible deliverers for the operation of centers and for the provision of Job Corps operational support services.

(b) Eligible deliverers for the operation of centers and for the operational support services necessary to center operation shall be units of Federal, State, and local government, State and local public agencies, private-for-profit and nonprofit organizations, Indian tribes and organizations, and labor unions, union-affiliated, and union/management organizations.

§ 638.301 Funding procedures.

(a) Contracting officers shall request proposals for the operation of all contract centers and for provision of operational support services, pursuant to the Federal Acquisition Regulation (48 CFR chapter 1) and the DOL Acquisition Regulation (48 CFR chapter 29) for work to be done under contract. The requests for proposal for each contract center and for each operational support service contract shall describe specifications and standards unique to the operation of the center and for the provision of operational support services.

(b) Job Corps contract center operators shall be selected and funded on the basis of proposals received, according to criteria established by the Job Corps Director. Such criteria shall be listed in the request for proposals.

(c) The contracting officer shall negotiate with eligible deliverers for operational support services on the basis of the criteria developed for each specific service to be rendered. Such criteria shall be listed in the request for proposals.

(d) The Secretary may enter into interagency agreements with eligible deliverers that are Federal agencies for the funding, establishment, and operation of CCCs. Such interagency agreements shall ensure compliance by such Federal agencies with the regulations under this part.

(e) Job Corps payments to Federal agencies that operate CCCs shall be made by a transfer of obligational authority from DOL to the respective operating agency on a quarterly basis.

(f) The Secretary is authorized to expend funds made available for Job Corps for the purpose of printing, binding, and disseminating data and other information related to Job Corps to public agencies, private organizations, and the general public. (Section 438(3)(A))

(g) Notwithstanding the limitations of titles II, III, and IV of the Act, funds made available under those titles and transferred to the Job Corps program pursuant to § 638.541 of this part may be used for the Job Corps program in accordance with the provisions of this part. (Sections 427(b) and 439)

(h) (1) In accordance with this section and procedures established by the Job

Corps Director, the contracting officers shall enter into contracts with public or private (including nonprofit) entities for the provision of outreach and screening services, which shall be performed in accordance with § 638.402 of this part and procedures established by the Job Corps Director. (Sections 424 and 425)

(2) In accordance with this section and procedures established by the Job Corps Director, the contracting officers shall enter into contracts with public or private (including nonprofit) entities for the provision of placement services, which shall be performed in accordance with § 638.409 of this part and procedures established by the Job Corps Director.

(i) All agreements and contracts pursuant to this section shall be made pursuant to the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended; the Federal Grant and Cooperative Agreement Act of 1977; and the Federal Acquisition Regulation (48 CFR chapter 1) and the DOL Acquisition Regulation (48 CFR chapter 29).

(j) All Job Corps contractors shall be provided with an equitable and negotiated management fee of not less than 1 percent of the contract amount.

[55 FR 12996, Apr. 6, 1990, as amended at 58 FR 69100, Dec. 29, 1993]

§ 638.302 Performance measurement.

The Job Corps Director shall establish a national performance measurement system for centers and other program components which shall include annual performance standards.

[58 FR 69100, Dec. 29, 1993]

§ 638.303 Site selection and facilities management.

(a) The Job Corps Director shall approve the location and size of all centers.

(b) Contract centers shall be established, relocated or expanded in accordance with procedures established by the Job Corps Director.

(c) For federally-operated centers, either the Job Corps Director or a Federal agency may propose a site on public lands and if discussions between them establish the advisability of such, the Job Corps Director may require that the agency submit a site survey and utilization study. If the Job Corps Director decides to establish a center, facilities engineering and real estate management will be conducted by the Job Corps Director or by the Federal agency pursuant to an interagency agreement and this part.

§ 638.304 Historical preservation.

The Job Corps Director shall review the "National Register of Historic Places," issued by the National Park Service, to identify sites, buildings, structures, and objects of archeological, architectural, or historic significance which could be destroyed or adversely affected by any proposed project or site selection. Procedures for review are included in the "National Register of Historic Places" at 36 CFR part 800.

§ 638.305 Capital improvements.

Capital improvement projects and new construction on Job Corps Centers shall be requested and performed in accordance with procedures established by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.306 Protection and maintenance of contract center facilities owned or leased by Job Corps.

The Job Corps Director shall establish procedures for the protection and maintenance of contract center facilities owned or leased by Job Corps which shall be consistent with Federal Property Management Regulations at 41 CFR chapter 101.

§ 638.307 Facility surveys.

The Job Corps Director shall issue procedures to conduct periodic facility surveys of centers.

Subpart D—Enrollment, Transfers, Terminations, and Placements in the Job Corps

§ 638.400 Eligibility for participation.

To participate in the Job Corps, a young man or woman must be an eligible youth who:

(a) Is at least 16 and not yet 25 years of age at the time of enrollment, with the following exceptions:

(1) In the case of an otherwise eligible individual with disabilities, there is no upper age limit;

(2) Not more than 20 percent of the individuals enrolled by Job Corps may be ages 22 through 24; and

(3) Youths 14 to 15 years of age may be eligible for enrollment upon a specific determination by the Job Corps Director to enroll them;

(b) Is a United States citizen, United States national, a lawfully admitted permanent resident alien, a lawfully admitted refugee or parolee, or other alien who has been permitted to accept permanent employment in the United States by the Attorney General or the Immigration and Naturalization Service;

(c) Requires additional education, training, or intensive counseling and related assistance in order to secure and hold meaningful employment, participate successfully in regular school work, qualify for other suitable training programs, satisfy Armed Forces entry requirements, or qualify for a job where prior skill or training is a prerequisite;

(d) Is economically disadvantaged;

(e) Has sufficient ability to benefit from the program;

(f) Demonstrates an interest in obtaining the maximum benefit from the program, as evidenced by a voluntary desire to enroll and the youth's signature on the application form;

(g) Has a signed consent for enrollment from a responsible parent or guardian if the applicant is unemancipated and under the age of majority (unless the parent or guardian cannot be located), pursuant to applicable laws on age of majority and emancipation of minors;

(h) Has established suitable arrangements for the care of any dependent children for the proposed period of enrollment;

(i) Is not on probation, parole, or under a suspended sentence, or under the supervision of any agency as a result of court action or institutionalization, unless the court or other appropriate agency certifies in writing that release from the supervision of the agency is satisfactory to the agency and does not violate applicable laws and regulations;

(j) To qualify for residential training, is currently living in an environment so characterized by cultural deprivations, a disruptive homelife, or other disorienting conditions as to substantially impair prospects for successful participation in a nonresidential program providing appropriate training, education, or assistance;

(k) Is physically and emotionally able to participate in normal Job Corps duties without costly or extensive medical treatment;

(l) Is free of any behavioral problem that would potentially prevent other enrollees from receiving the benefit of the program, or impede satisfactory relationships between the center to which the enrollee is assigned and surrounding communities; and

(m) Has a background, characteristics, and physical and mental capabilities which provide reasonable expectations of employment after training.

[55 FR 12996, Apr. 6, 1990, as amended at 58 FR 69100, Dec. 29, 1993]

§ 638.401 Outreach and screening of participants.

In accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director:

(a) The Regional Director, as contracting officer, shall contract with screening agencies, which shall perform Job Corps outreach and screening functions.

(b) Screening agencies shall develop outreach and referral sources, actively seek out potential applicants, conduct personal interviews with all applicants, and determine who are interested and likely Job Corps participants. See also § 638.541 of this part.

(c) Screening agencies shall complete all Job Corps application forms.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (c)(2) of this section, screening agencies shall determine whether applicants meet the eligibility criteria in § 638.400 of this part for participation in the Job Corps.

(2) The Job Corps Director may provide that determinations with respect to one or more of the eligibility criteria set forth in § 638.400 of this part shall be made by the Regional Director on the basis of information and recommendations supplied by the screening agency.

(3) An applicant for participation in the Job Corps who has been determined ineligible may appeal that determination pursuant to § 638.539 of this part. (Sections 423, 424, 425, and 144(a))

(d) In enrolling individuals who are to be nonresidential participants, priority shall be given to those eligible individuals who are single parents with dependent children.

[55 FR 12996, Apr. 6, 1990, as amended at 58 FR 69100, Dec. 29, 1993]

§ 638.402 Enrollment by readmission.

Procedures for screening and selection of applicants for readmission shall be issued by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.403 Selective Service.

The Job Corps Director shall develop procedures to ensure that as a condition of enrollment and continued enrollment:

(a) Each male applicant 18 years of age or older has evidence that he has complied with section 3 of the Military Selective Service Act (50 U.S.C. App. 453), by presenting and submitting to registration if required pursuant to such section; and

(b) When a male student turns 18 years of age after enrollment, he submits to the center operator evidence that he has complied with section 3 of the Military Selective Service Act (50 U.S.C. App. 453), by presenting and submitting to registration if required pursuant to such section. (Section 504)

§ 638.404 Transfers.

Transfer of a student from one center of assignment to another center shall be made only in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.405 Extensions of enrollment.

The center operator shall see that the total length of enrollment of a student does not exceed two years (section 426(a)) except that an extension of enrollment may be authorized in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director. Students enrolled in advanced career training programs may be enrolled up to one additional year. (Section 428(d)(1))

§ 638.406

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 638.406 Federal status of students.

Students shall not be deemed Federal employees and shall not be subject to the provisions of law relating to Federal employment, including those relating to hours of work, rates of employment, leave, unemployment compensation, and Federal employee benefits, except as provided by 5 U.S.C. 8143(a) (Federal employees' compensation) and by §§ 638.526 and 638.527 of this part. (Section 436(a))

§ 638.407 Terminations.

The Job Corps Director shall issue procedures for the termination of students.

§ 638.408 Transportation.

The transportation of students to and from centers shall occur in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.409 Placement and job development.

The overall objective of all Job Corps activities shall be to enhance each student's employability and to effect the successful placement of each student. Placement efforts shall concentrate on jobs related to a student's vocational training, on military service when this is the student's choice, or on acceptance and placement in other educational and/or training programs. The placement of students shall be performed in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

(a) The Regional Director, as contracting officer, shall contract with placement agencies, which shall perform placement functions.

(b) Placement agencies shall complete all Job Corps placement forms.

Subpart E—Center Operations

§ 638.500 Orientation program.

The center operator shall design and implement a reception and orientation program in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.501 Student handbook.

Each center operator shall develop a student handbook which provides essential information to students for distribution to all students in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.502 Job Corps basic education program.

The Job Corps Director shall prescribe or provide for basic education curricula to be used at centers. Students are considered to be in-school youths. The Job Corps Director, in coordination with regional offices, shall review and approve the basic education program at each center. Center operators shall provide the following educational programs at a minimum:

(a) Reading and language skills;

(b) Mathematics;

(c) A program to prepare eligible students for the American Council on Education Tests of General Educational Development (GED);

(d) World of work;

(e) Health education;

(f) Driver education; and

(g) English as a second language (ESL) programs for selected center operators (regional offices shall arrange for the assignment of selected applicants needing ESL programs to the centers where such programs are available).

§ 638.503 Vocational training.

(a) Each center shall provide enrollees with competency-based or individualized training in an area which will best contribute to the student's opportunities for permanent long-term employment. Specific vocational training programs offered at individual centers will be subject to the approval of the Job Corps Director in accordance with policies issued by the Job Corps Director.

(b) The Job Corps Director may determine that it is appropriate to contract for vocational training programs at specific centers with national business, union, or union-affiliated organizations in order to facilitate entry of students into the workforce. All agreements with these national training contractors will be contracted at the national level in accordance with policies issued by the Job Corps Director; the Federal Acquisition Regulation (48 CFR chapter 1); the DOL Acquisition

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 638.511

Regulation (48 CFR chapter 29); and, if CCCs, interagency agreements.

§ 638.504 Occupational exploration program.

An occupational exploration program shall be provided by all centers in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.505 Scheduling of training.

The amount of time for each student's education and vocational training shall be apportioned to the individual needs of each student pursuant to procedures developed by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.506 Purchase of vocational supplies and equipment.

The Job Corps Director shall develop procedures for the low-cost sale to students of vocational tools, clothing, and other equipment that are prerequisites to employment.

§ 638.507 Work experience.

(a) The center operator shall emphasize and implement programs of work experience for students through center program activities or through arrangement with employers. Work experience shall be under actual working conditions and should enhance the employability, responsibility, and confidence of the students.

(b) The following limitations shall be observed in establishing work experience programs:

(1) Students shall only be assigned to work meeting the safety standards of § 638.803 of this part.

(2) Any work experience arranged for employment not covered by a Federal, State, or local minimum wage law shall have prior regional office approval.

(3) When work experience with pay is arranged, the student, for applicable wage provisions of the Davis-Bacon Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Service Contract Act, and other applicable minimum wage laws, shall be considered a joint employee of the Job Corps and the work experience employer.

(i) The wages paid by Job Corps (including the reasonable cost to Job Corps of room, board, and other facilities, as well as clothing and living allowances) shall be no less than the federal minimum wage rate set forth in section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) for up to 25 hours a week. The work experience employer shall pay the student, in cash, any wages above the FLSA minimum whenever such additional amounts are required by the Davis-Bacon Act, the Service Contract Act, the State or local minimum wage law, or other applicable minimum wage law. For any time in excess of 25 hours per week, the work experience employer shall pay the student, in cash, no less than the entire wage at the wage rate required by applicable law.

(ii) In addition to the cash wages required to be paid by work experience employers by paragraph (b)(3)(i) of this section, work experience employers, after the first six weeks of work by a student, shall also pay additional cash wages to the student at an hourly rate of 25 percent of the wage set forth in section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

§ 638.508 Sale of services or objects.

The services rendered or objects produced at the center may be sold at cost to students or center employees, but shall not be sold in the community unless such services or products do not displace workers in the local community or result in the sale of products which compete with local merchants.

§ 638.509 Leisure-time employment.

A center operator may authorize gainful leisure time employment of students as long as such employment does not interfere with required scheduled activities.

§ 638.510 Health care and services.

The center operator shall provide a health program, including basic medical, dental, and mental health services, for all students from admission until termination from the Job Corps. The program shall be developed in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.511 Drug use and abuse.

The Job Corps Director shall develop procedures to ensure that each center operator offers students counseling and education programs related to drug and alcohol use and abuse.

§ 638.512

§ 638.512 Sexual behavior and harassment.

The Job Corps Director shall develop procedures to ensure that center operators establish rules concerning sexual behavior and harassment. See also §§ 638.539(g) and 638.813(a) of this part.

§ 638.513 Death.

In each case of student death, the center operator shall follow procedures established by the Job Corps Director, including notification of next of kin and for disposition of remains. See also § 638.524(d) of this part.

§ 638.514 Residential support services.

The center operator shall provide for residential support services structured as an integral part of the overall training program. This service shall include a secure, attractive physical and social environment, seven days a week, 24 hours a day, designed to enhance learning and personal development. All students, including nonresidents while they are on-center, shall be provided with the full program of applicable services in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.515 Recreation/avocational program.

The center operator shall develop a recreation/avocational program in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.516 Laundry, mail, and telephone service.

(a) The center operator shall provide adequate laundry services and supplies at no cost to students. Students shall be encouraged to launder, iron, and repair their personal clothing.

(b) The center operator shall establish a system for prompt delivery of mail received by students in a manner that protects the confidentiality of such mail, and shall arrange for a sufficient number of conveniently located pay telephones for student use.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 638.517 Counseling.

The center operator shall establish and conduct an ongoing structured counseling program in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.518 Intergroup relations program.

The center operator shall conduct a structured intergroup relations program designed to reduce prejudice, prevent discriminatory behavior by staff and students, and increase understanding among racial/ethnic groups and between men and women. The program shall be developed in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.519 Incentives system.

The center operator shall establish and maintain its own incentives system for students in accordance with procedures established by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.520 Student government and leadership programs.

The center operator shall establish an elected student government and student leadership program in accordance with procedures established by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.521 Student welfare association.

The center operator shall develop a plan for the organization and operation of a student welfare association, to be run by an elected student government for the benefit of all students and with the help of a center staff advisor. This plan shall be developed in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

(a) Student welfare association revenues may be derived from such sources as snack bars, vending machines, disciplinary fines, etc.

(b) Student welfare association activities shall be funded from student welfare association revenues.

§ 638.522 Evaluation of student progress.

The center operator shall implement a system to evaluate the progress of each student in receiving the maximum benefit from the program. The system shall be developed in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 638.526

§ 638.523 Food service.

(a) The center operator shall ensure that meals for students are nutritionally well-balanced, of good quality, and sufficient in quantity, in accordance with procedures issued by the Job Corps Director. Food shall be prepared and served in a sanitary manner.

(b) Non-students shall be charged for food provided for them unless prior regional office approval has been obtained. Such charges shall be sufficient to cover the cost of the food and its preparation.

§ 638.524 Allowances and allotments.

(a) The Secretary shall periodically establish rates of allowances and allotments to be paid students pursuant to section 429 (a), (c), and (d) of the Act, and the Job Corps Director shall publish these rates as a notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(b) The Job Corps Director shall ensure that each student receives a readjustment allowance for each paid day of satisfactory participation in Job Corps after termination from the program if he/she terminates after 210 days in pay status or after 180 days if he/she is a maximum benefits or vocational completer. In the event that a student receives a medical termination, he/she shall be eligible for the accrued readjustment allowance, regardless of length of stay or other considerations. See also paragraph (d) of this section. (Section 429(c)).

(c) The Job Corps Director shall establish procedures to allow students to authorize deductions from their readjustment allowance, which shall be matched by an equal amount from Job Corps funds and sent biweekly as an allotment by the SPAMIS Data Center to the student's spouse, child(ren) or other dependent, if such spouse, child(ren) or other dependent resides in any State in the United States.

(d) In the event of a student's death, any amount due, including the amount of any unpaid readjustment allowance, shall be paid in accordance with provisions of 5 U.S.C. 5582 (designation of beneficiary; order of precedence). (Section 429(c))

§ 638.525 Clothing.

The Job Corps Director shall establish procedures to provide clothing for all students by means of a clothing purchase allowance and by center issue.

§ 638.526 Tort and other claims.

(a) Students shall be considered federal employees for purposes of the Tort Claims Act (28 U.S.C. 2671 et seq.). (Section 436(a)(3)). In the event a student is alleged to be involved in the damage, loss, or destruction of the property of others, or of causing personal injury to or the death of other individual(s), claims may be filed with the Center Director by the owner(s) of the property, the injured person(s), or by a duly authorized agent or legal representative of the claimant. The Center Director shall collect all of the facts, including accident and medical reports and the names and addresses of witnesses, and submit the claim for a decision to the DOL Regional Solicitor's Office. All tort claims for $25,000 or more shall be sent to the Associate Solicitor for Employee Benefits, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210.

(b) Whenever there is loss or damage to persons or property, which is believed to have resulted from operation of a Job Corps center and to be a proper charge against the Federal Government, a claim for such damage may be submitted by the owner(s) of the property, the injured person(s), or by a duly authorized agent or legal representative of the claimant to the Regional Solicitor, who shall determine if the claim is cognizable under the Tort Claims Act. Claims shall be filed no later than two years from the date of such loss or damage. If it is determined not to be cognizable, the Regional Solicitor shall consider the facts and may settle the claim pursuant to section 436(b) of the Act in an amount not to exceed $1,500.

(c) The Job Corps may pay claims to students for lost, damaged, or stolen property, up to a maximum set by the

§ 638.527

Job Corps Director when such loss is not due to the negligence of the student. Students shall file claims no later than two years from the date of such loss. Students shall be compensated for losses when they are the result of a natural disaster or when the student's property is in the protective custody of the Job Corps, which shall be the case when the student is AWOL. The Job Corps Director shall provide for claims to be filed with regional offices for a determination on the claim. The regional office shall promptly notify the student and the center of its determination.

§ 638.527 Federal employees' compensation.

(a) Students shall be considered federal employees for purposes of Federal employees' compensation (FEC). (Section 436(a)(2))

(b) Resident students shall be considered to be in the "performance of duty" as Federal employees from the date they leave their homes and begin authorized travel to their center of assignment until the date of their scheduled arrival at the official travel destination upon the termination from Job Corps. During this period the youths shall be known as students, and this period shall constitute their period of enrollment. During this period, resident students shall be considered as in performance of duty at all times, during any and all of their activities, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, except as described in paragraph (d) of this section.

(c) Non-resident students shall be considered to be "in performance of duty" as Federal employees from the time they arrive at any scheduled center activity or program until they physically leave such activity or program.

(d) No student shall be considered as being in performance of duty status if he/she is absent without official leave (AWOL) or after arrival home on administrative leave without allowances.

(e) In computing compensation benefits for disability or death, the monthly pay of a student shall be deemed that received under the entrance salary for a grade GS-2 Federal employee, and

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

5 U.S.C. 8113 (a) and (b) shall apply to students.

(f) Compensation for disability shall not begin to accrue until the day following the date on which the injured student completes his or her Job Corps termination.

(g) Whenever a student is injured, develops an occupationally related illness, or dies while in the performance of duty, the Job Corps Director shall ensure that procedures set forth in the DOL Employment Standards Administration regulations at 20 CFR chapter I are followed. The Job Corps Director shall ensure that a thorough investigation of the circumstances and a medical evaluation are completed and that required forms are filed with the DOL Office of Workers' Compensation Programs.

§ 638.528 Social Security.

The Act provides that students are covered by title II of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 401 et seq.) and shall pay applicable employment taxes (e.g., the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) tax) on their living and readjustment allowances. (Section 436(a)(1))

§ 638.529 Income taxes.

The Act provides that students are Federal employees for the purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (title 26, U.S. Code). The Job Corps Director may obtain from tax authorities information regarding taxation of student income and provide this to center operators and to the finance center.

§ 638.530 Emergency use of personnel, equipment and facilities.

The Job Corps Director may provide emergency assistance when there is a threat of natural disaster. Students may be asked to volunteer their services to help in such cases. The center operator shall arrange that any expenses consequent to such assistance shall be borne, to the extent possible, by the benefiting organization.

§ 638.531 Limitation on the use of students in emergency projects.

The Job Corps Director shall develop procedures, when necessary, to safeguard the rights and safety of students who volunteer to be used in emergency situations.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 638.536

§ 638.532 Annual leave.

The Job Corps Director shall issue procedures to administer the accrual and use of student leave. Such procedures shall provide that:

(a) Except for the initial pay period, students shall accrue annual leave at the rate of one calendar day for each pay period provided that the student was not AWOL or on administrative leave without pay during that pay period. For the initial pay period, a student shall accrue one day of annual leave regardless of the date of enrollment provided that the student was not AWOL or on administrative leave without pay from the date of enrollment. Accrual time shall begin on the day the student departs for a center and end on the date of his or her scheduled arrival home or at a place of employment.

(b) Annual leave shall continue to accrue during periods of home, emergency, and administrative leave with pay and shall be suspended only when the student is AWOL or on administrative leave without allowances.

(c) Students shall not be paid at termination for unused accrued leave.

(d) Students may use accrued annual leave at any time subject to approval by the Center Director. Annual leave with transportation at government expense shall be allowed only after the student has spent 180 days in pay status in Job Corps, and only once per year of enrollment.

(e) Students shall not be charged annual leave for travel time to and from home and center by the most direct route. Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays that are officially recognized at the center shall not be charged as annual leave.

§ 638.533 Other student absences.

The Job Corps Director shall develop procedures for authorized student absences and to account for all absences whether authorized or unauthorized.

§ 638.534 Legal services to students.

(a) The Job Corps Director shall develop procedures to afford students effective and competent legal representation in criminal and certain civil cases. This shall include assisting students in obtaining free or low cost legal assistance or obtaining local attorneys or public defenders to represent students, and paying for such legal services (provided that attorney fees in criminal cases shall not be paid by Job Corps except in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section), in accordance with guidelines issued by the Job Corps Director.

(b) Job Corps shall not pay the expenses of legal counsel or representation in any criminal case or proceeding for a student, unless the Center Director has certified to the Regional Director, and the Regional Director has approved, that a public defender is not available. With such approval of the Regional Director, Job Corps may compensate attorneys obtained pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section in criminal cases for reasonable expenses. Compensation shall be at the rates no higher than those set forth in the Criminal Justice Act of 1964, as amended (18 U.S.C. 3006A(d)).

§ 638.535 Voting rights.

The Job Corps Director shall develop procedures to enable eligible students and staff to vote either locally or by absentee ballot. See also § 638.814 (a) through (c) of this part.

§ 638.536 Religious rights.

The right to worship or not worship as he/she chooses shall not be denied to any student. Religious services may not be held on-center unless the center is so isolated as to make transportation to and from community religious facilities impractical. If religious services are held on-center, no federal funds shall be paid to those who conduct such services. Services shall not be confined to one religious denomination. The center operator shall instruct students that students are not obligated by Job Corps to attend such services. See also §§ 638.539(g) and 638.813 of this part.

§ 638.537

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 638.537 Disclosure of information.

(a) Requests for information. The Job Corps Director shall develop administrative procedures to respond to requests for information or records pertaining to students and such other disclosures as may be necessary.

(b) Freedom of Information Act—(1) Disclosure. Disclosure of Job Corps information shall be in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act and shall be handled according to DOL regulations at 29 CFR part 70.

(2) Contractors. Job Corps contractors are not “agencies” for Freedom of Information Act purposes. Therefore, their records are not subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act or 29 CFR part 70.

(c) Privacy Act of 1974. When DOL maintains a system of records covered by the Privacy Act of 1974, or provides by contract for a contractor, such as a screening agency or a contract center operator, to operate by or on behalf of the Job Corps such a system of records to accomplish a Job Corps function, the requirements of the DOL regulations at 29 CFR part 70a apply to such system or records.

§ 638.538 Disciplinary procedures and appeals.

(a) The center operator shall establish reasonable rules and regulations for student behavior, in accordance with procedures developed by the Job Corps Director. Such rules shall be established to ensure high standards of behavior and conduct.

(b) The center operator shall develop reasonable sanctions for breaking established rules, in accordance with procedures developed by the Job Corps Director.

(c) The center operator shall ensure that all students have the opportunity for due process in disciplinary proceedings, in accordance with procedures developed by the Job Corps Director. Such center procedures, at a minimum, shall include center review boards where the penalty of termination might be imposed, and procedures for appealing, to a regional appeal board designated by the Regional Director, center decisions to terminate a student. See § 638.407 of this part. The decision of the regional appeal board shall be final agency action.

[55 FR 12996, Apr. 6, 1990; 55 FR 23634, June 11, 1990]

§ 638.539 Complaints and disputes.

(a) Center and other deliverer grievance procedures. Each center operator or other Job Corps deliverer shall establish and maintain a grievance procedure for complaints about its programs and activities from students and other interested parties. A hearing on each complaint shall be conducted, using the established grievance procedure, within 30 days of filing of the complaint and a decision on the complaint shall be made by the Center Director or with the knowledge of the Center Director not later than 60 days after the filing of the complaint. Except for a complaint alleging fraud or criminal activity, complaints shall be made within one year of the alleged occurrence. (Section 144(a))

(b) Federal review of student grievances. Where a student or a person denied enrollment has exhausted the center or other deliverer grievance procedure established pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, the student may appeal the decision to the regional appeal board. The regional appeal board shall review the appeal and determine within 120 days after receiving the appeal whether to reverse, affirm, or remand the decision. The decision of the regional appeal board shall be final agency action. (Section 144(c))

(c) Federal review of non-student grievances. (1) Where the grievance or complaint is made by an interested party other than a student, should the deliverer fail to provide a decision as required in paragraph (a) of this section, the complainant may then request from the Regional Director a determination whether reasonable cause exists to believe that the Act or this part has been violated. The request shall be filed no later than 10 days from the date on which the complainant should have received a decision pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, and shall describe with specificity the facts and the proceedings (if any) below.

(2) The Regional Director shall act within 90 days of receipt of the request and where there is reasonable cause to believe the Act or this part has been violated shall direct the deliverer to issue a decision adjudicating the dispute pursuant to the deliverer's grievance procedures. The Regional Director's action is not final agency action on the merits of the dispute and therefore is not appealable under the Act. See sections 144(c) and 166(a) of the Act. If the deliverer does not comply with the Regional Director's order within 60 days, the Regional Director may impose a sanction on the deliverer for failing to issue a decision.

(d) Failures to comply with the Act. Where DOL has reason to believe that the center operator or other deliverer is failing to comply with the requirements of the Act, the Regional Director shall investigate the allegation or belief and determine within 120 days after receiving the complaint whether such allegation or complaint is true. As the result of such a determination, the Regional Director may:

(1) Direct the deliverer to handle a complaint through the grievance procedures established under paragraph (a) of this section; or

(2) Investigate and determine whether the deliverer is in compliance with the Act and this part. If the Regional Director determines that the deliverer is not in compliance with the Act or this part, the appropriate sanctions set forth in section 164 of the Act shall be applied, subject to paragraph (e) or (f) of this section, as appropriate. (Section 163 (b) and (c))

(e) Contract disputes. A dispute between DOL and a Job Corps contractor shall be handled only pursuant to the Contract Disputes Act and 41 CFR part 29-60.

(f) Inter-agency disputes. A dispute between DOL and a federal agency operating a center shall be handled only pursuant to the interagency agreement with that agency for the operation of the center.

(g) Nondiscrimination. Nondiscrimination requirements, procedures, complaint processing, and compliance reviews are governed by, as applicable, provisions of the following Department of Labor regulations:

(1) 29 CFR part 34 and subparts B and C and Appendix A of 29 CFR part 32 for programs receiving financial assistance under JTPA.

(2) 29 CFR part 33 for programs conducted by the Department of Labor; and

(3) 41 CFR chapter 60 for entities that have a federal "government contract" as that term is defined in the applicable regulations.

See also §638.813(a) of this part, regarding discrimination.

§ 638.540 Cooperation with agencies and institutions.

The Job Corps Director shall develop guidelines for the national office's, the regional offices', and for deliverers' maintenance of cooperative relationships with other agencies and institutions, including law enforcement, educational institutions, communities, and other employment and training agencies.

§ 638.541 Job Corps training opportunities.

The Job Corps Director shall develop policies and requirements which will ensure linkages, where feasible, with other Federal, State and local programs to enhance the provision of services to disadvantaged youth. These shall include, where appropriate: Referrals of enrollees; participant assessment; services accompanying pre-employment and work maturity skills training, work experience, job search skills training, basic skills training, and occupational skills training authorized under the Job Training Partnership Act for youth programs; and services supporting participants in the Job Opportunities and Basic Skills Training Program (JOBS) (section 427(b)). Such services may be provided sequentially or concurrently. Nothing in this part shall be construed to prohibit an individual who has been a participant in Job Corps from concurrently or subsequently participating in programs under title II of JTPA, or to prohibit an individual who has been a participant in programs under title II of JTPA from concurrently or subsequently participating in Job Corps.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 638.542 Child care services.

(a) Job Corps centers shall, where practicable, arrange for the provision of child care for students with dependent children.

(b) Center operators may propose and, with the approval of the Job Corps Director, establish child care facilities.

§ 638.543 Community relations program.

Each center operator shall establish a community relations program, which shall include establishment of a community relations council which includes student representation. (Section 431)

Subpart F—Applied Vocational Skills Training (VST)

§ 638.600 Applied vocational skills training (VST) through work projects.

(a)(1) The Job Corps Director shall establish procedures for administering applied vocational skills training (VST) projects; such procedures shall include funding and reporting requirements, criteria to be used for granting approvals, and reviewing requirements.

(2) Each applied VST project shall be submitted to the Regional Director for approval. The annual applied VST plan described in paragraph (c) of this section shall be submitted to the Regional Director for approval.

(b) Applied VST may be provided in an actual working setting for training students in the construction and related trades. This shall involve authorized construction or other projects that result in finished facilities or products. This shall include conservation projects on Federal, State, and public lands, and projects performed for other organizations in accordance with policies established by the Job Corps Director. Centers may also perform applied VST public service projects for nearby communities and capital improvements for other Job Corps centers.

(c) Applied VST shall be the major vehicle for the training of students in the construction and related trades. In each year, each center operator shall develop an annual applied VST plan for the coming year. In order to ensure that maximum training opportunities are available to students, the center vocational instructor (and/or the national training contractor, when applicable) shall participate in the planning and shall approve each project which involves his/her particular trade. Applied VST projects shall be planned in such a manner as to give priority to on-center rehabilitation and construction needs. The Job Corps Director shall establish annual funding levels to support applied VST programs and shall establish specific policies on limitation, documentation, and reporting requirements relating to applied VST programs.

§ 638.601 Applied VST budgeting.

The Job Corps Director shall establish procedures to ensure that center operators maintain applied VST project funds as a separate center budget line item and maintain strict accountability for the use or nonuse of such funds. The approval of the Job Corps national office is necessary to transfer applied VST project funds to any other center budget category or program activity. In the case of civilian conservation centers, the use of VST project funds shall be governed by the interagency agreements.

Subpart G—Experimental, Research, and Demonstration Projects

§ 638.700 Experimental, research, and demonstration projects.

(a) The Job Corps Director, at his or her discretion, may undertake experimental, research, or demonstration projects for the purpose of promoting greater efficiency and effectiveness in the Job Corps program in accordance with section 433 of the Act.

(b) The Job Corps Director may arrange for projects under this section to be undertaken jointly with other Federal or federally assisted programs.

(c) The Secretary may waive any provision of this part that the Secretary finds would prevent the implementation of experimental, research, or demonstration project elements essential to a determination of their feasibility and usefulness.

Subpart H—Administrative Provisions

§ 638.800 Program management.

(a) The Job Corps Director shall establish and use internal program management procedures sufficient to prevent fraud or program abuse. The Job Corps Director shall ensure that sufficient auditable and otherwise adequate records are maintained to support the expenditure of all funds under the Act.

(b) The Job Corps Director shall provide guidelines for center staffing levels and qualifications. The guidelines shall adhere to standard levels of professional education and experience which are accepted generally within the fields of education and counseling.

§ 638.801 Staff training.

The Job Corps Director shall establish guidelines for necessary training for national office, regional office, and deliverer staff.

§ 638.802 Student records management.

The Job Corps Director shall develop guidelines for a system of maintaining records for each student during enrollment and for the disposition of such records after termination.

§ 638.803 Safety.

(a) The Job Corps Director shall establish procedures to ensure that students are not required or permitted to work, to be trained, to reside, or to receive services in buildings or surroundings or under conditions that are unsanitary, hazardous, or lack proper ventilation. Whenever students are employed or trained for jobs, they shall be assigned to such jobs or training in accordance with appropriate health and safety practices.

(b) The Job Corps Director shall develop a procedure to provide appropriate protective clothing for students in work or training.

(c) The Job Corps Director shall develop procedures to ensure compliance with applicable DOL Occupational Safety and Health Administration regulations.

§ 638.804 Environmental health.

The Job Corps Director shall provide guidelines for proper environmental health conditions.

§ 638.805 Security and law enforcement.

(a) The Job Corps Director shall provide guidelines to protect the security of students, staff, and property on-center on a 24-hours-a-day, 7-days-a-week basis.

(b)(1) All property which would otherwise be under exclusive federal legislative jurisdiction shall be considered under concurrent jurisdiction with the appropriate State and locality with respect to criminal law enforcement as long as a center is operated on such property. This extends to portions of the property (e.g., housing and recreational facilities) in addition to the portions of the property used as the center or training facility.

(2) The Job Corps Director shall ensure that centers on property under concurrent federal-State jurisdiction establish agreements with federal, State and local law enforcement agencies to enforce criminal laws on such property. (Section 435(d))

(c) The Job Corps Director shall develop procedures to ensure that any searches of a student's personal area or belongings for unauthorized goods follow applicable right-to-privacy laws.

§ 638.806 Property management and procurement.

The Job Corps Director shall develop procedures to establish and maintain a system for acquisition, protection, preservation, maintenance, and disposition of Job Corps real and personal property, and services so as to maximize its usefulness and to minimize operating, repair, and replacement costs.

§ 638.807 Imprest and petty cash funds.

Federally operated centers shall establish auditable imprest funds. Contract centers shall establish auditable petty cash funds. The Job Corps Director shall develop procedures to ensure the security of and accountability for imprest and petty cash funds.

§ 638.808

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 638.808 Center financial management and reporting.

The Job Corps Director shall establish procedures to ensure that each center operator and each subcontractor maintain a financial management system that will provide accurate, complete, and current disclosures of the financial results of Job Corps operations, and will provide sufficient data for effective evaluation of program activities. Fiscal accounts shall be maintained in a manner that ensures timely and accurate reporting as required by the Job Corps Director.

§ 638.809 Audit.

(a) The Secretary of Labor, the DOL Office of Inspector General, the Comptroller General of the United States, and any of their duly authorized representatives, shall have access to any books, documents, papers, and records of the Job Corps deliverers and their subcontractors that are pertinent to the Job Corps program for the purpose of making surveys, audits, examinations, excerpts, and transcripts.

(b) The Secretary shall, with reasonable frequency, survey, audit, or examine, or arrange for the survey, audit, or examination of Job Corps deliverers, or their subcontractors using Federal auditors or independent public accountants. Such surveys, audits, or examinations normally shall be conducted annually but not less than once every two years.

§ 638.810 Reporting requirements.

The Job Corps Director shall establish procedures to ensure timely and complete reporting of such program information as is necessary to maintain accountability for the Job Corps program and funding.

§ 638.811 Review and evaluation.

The Job Corps Director shall establish adequate program management to provide continuous examination of the performance of the components of the program.

§ 638.812 State and local taxation of Job Corps deliverers.

The Act provides that transactions conducted by a private for-profit deliverer or a nonprofit deliverer in connection with the deliverer's operation of a center or other Job Corps program or activity shall not be considered as generating gross receipts. Such deliverer shall not be liable, directly or indirectly, to any State or subdivision thereof (nor to any person acting on behalf thereof) for any gross receipts taxes, business privilege taxes measured by gross receipts, or any similar taxes imposed on, or measured by, gross receipts in connection with any payments made to or by such deliverer for operating a center or other Job Corps program, or activity. Such deliverer shall not be liable to any State or subdivision thereof to collect or pay any sales, excise, use, or similar tax imposed upon the sale to or use by such deliverer of any property, service, or other item in connection with the operation of a center or other Job Corps program or activity. (Section 437(c))

§ 638.813 Nondiscrimination; nonsectarian activities.

(a) Nondiscrimination. Center operators and other deliverers, and subcontractors and/or subrecipients of center operators and other deliverers shall comply with the nondiscrimination provisions of section 167 of the Act and its implementing regulations, and with, as applicable, 29 CFR parts 31 and 32, part 33, and 41 CFR chapter 60. For the purposes of section 167 of the Act, students shall be considered as the ultimate beneficiaries of Federal financial assistance. (Section 167)

(b) Nonsectarian activities. Students shall not be employed or trained on the construction, operation, or maintenance of so much of any facility as is used or to be used for sectarian instruction or as a place for religious worship. (Section 167(a)(3))

§ 638.814 Lobbying; political activities; unionization.

No funds provided under the Act may be used in any way:

(a) To attempt to influence in any manner a member of Congress to favor or oppose any legislation or appropriation by Congress;

(b) To attempt to influence in any manner a member of a State or local legislature to favor or oppose any legislation or appropriation by such legislature;

(c) For any activity which involves political activities; or

(d) For any activity which will assist, promote, or deter union organizing. (Sections 141(1) and 143(c)(1))

§ 638.815 Charging fees.

No person or organization shall charge an individual a fee for the placement or referral of such individual in or to a training program under the Act. (Section 141(j))

- 639.3 Definitions.
- 639.4 Who must give notice?
- 639.5 When must notice be given?
- 639.6 Who must receive notice?
- 639.7 What must the notice contain?
- 639.8 How is the notice served?
- 639.9 When may notice be given less than 60 days in advance?
- 639.10 When may notice be extended?

AUTHORITY: 29 U.S.C. 2107(a).

SOURCE: 54 FR 16064, Apr. 20, 1989, unless otherwise noted.

§ 639.1 Purpose and scope.

(a) Purpose of WARN. The Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act (WARN or the Act) provides protection to workers, their families and communities by requiring employers to provide notification 60 calendar days in advance of plant closings and mass layoffs. Advance notice provides workers and their families some transition time to adjust to the prospective loss of employment, to seek and obtain alternative jobs and, if necessary, to enter skill training or retraining that will allow these workers to successfully compete in the job market. WARN also provides for notice to State dislocated worker units so that dislocated worker assistance can be promptly provided.

(b) Scope of these regulations. These regulations establish basic definitions and rules for giving notice, implementing the provisions of WARN. The Department's objective is to establish clear principles and broad guidelines which can be applied in specific circumstances. However, the Department recognizes that Federal rulemaking cannot address the multitude of industry and company-specific situations in which advance notice will be given.

(c) Notice encouraged where not required. Section 7 of the Act states:

It is the sense of Congress that an employer who is not required to comply with the notice requirements of section 3 should, to the extent possible, provide notice to its employees about a proposal to close a plant or permanently reduce its workforce.

(d) WARN enforcement. Enforcement of WARN will be through the courts, as provided in section 5 of the statute. Employees, their representatives and units of local government may initiate civil actions against employers believed to be in violation of §3 of the Act. The Department of Labor has no legal standing in any enforcement action and, therefore, will not be in a position to issue advisory opinions of specific cases. The Department will provide assistance in understanding these regulations and may revise them from time to time as may be necessary.

(e) Notice in ambiguous situations. It is civically desirable and it would appear to be good business practice for an employer to provide advance notice to its workers or unions, local government and the State when terminating a significant number of employees. In practical terms, there are some questions and ambiguities of interpretation inherent in the application of WARN to business practices in the market economy that cannot be addressed in these regulations. It is therefore prudent for employers to weigh the desirability of advance notice against the possibility of expensive and time-consuming litigation to resolve disputes where notice has not been given. The Department encourages employers to give notice in all circumstances.

(f) Coordination with job placement and retraining programs. The Department, through these regulations and through the Trade Adjustment Assistance Program (TAA) and Economic Dislocation and Worker Adjustment Assistance Act (EDWAA) regulations, encourages maximum coordination of the actions and activities of these programs to assure that the negative impact of dislocation on workers is lessened to the extent possible. By providing for notice to the State dislocated worker unit, WARN notice begins the process of assisting workers who will be dislocated.

(g) WARN not to supersede other laws and contracts. The provisions of WARN do not supersede any laws or collective bargaining agreements that provide for additional notice or additional rights and remedies. If such law or agreement provides for a longer notice period, WARN notice shall run concurrently with that additional notice period. Collective bargaining agreements may be used to clarify or amplify the terms and conditions of WARN, but may not reduce WARN rights.

§ 639.2 What does WARN require?

WARN requires employers who are planning a plant closing or a mass layoff to give affected employees at least 60 days' notice of such an employment action. While the 60-day period is the minimum for advance notice, this provision is not intended to discourage employers from voluntarily providing longer periods of advance notice. Not all plant closings and layoffs are subject to the Act, and certain employment thresholds must be reached before the Act applies. WARN sets out specific exemptions, and provides for a reduction in the notification period in particular circumstances. Damages and civil penalties can be assessed against employers who violate the Act.

§ 639.3 Definitions.

(a) Employer. (1) The term "employer" means any business enterprise that employs—

(i) 100 or more employees, excluding part-time employees; or

(ii) 100 or more employees, including part-time employees, who in the aggregate work at least 4,000 hours per week, exclusive of hours of overtime.

Workers on temporary layoff or on leave who have a reasonable expectation of recall are counted as employees. An employee has a "reasonable expectation of recall" when he/she understands, through notification or through industry practice, that his/her employment with the employer has been temporarily interrupted and that he/she will be recalled to the same or to a similar job. The term "employer" includes non-profit organizations of the requisite size. Regular Federal, State, local and federally recognized Indian tribal governments are not covered. However, the term "employer" includes public and quasi-public entities which engage in business (i.e., take part in a commercial or industrial enterprise, supply a service or good on a mercantile basis, or provide independent management of public assets, raising revenue and making desired investments), and which are separately organized from the regular government, which have their own governing bodies and which have independent authority to manage their personnel and assets.

(2) Under existing legal rules, independent contractors and subsidiaries which are wholly or partially owned by a parent company are treated as separate employers or as a part of the parent or contracting company depending upon the degree of their independence from the parent. Some of the factors to be considered in making this determination are (i) common ownership, (ii) common directors and/or officers, (iii) de facto exercise of control, (iv) unity of personnel policies emanating from a common source, and (v) the dependency of operations.

(3) Workers, other than part-time workers, who are exempt from notice under section 4 of WARN are nonetheless counted as employees for purposes of determining coverage as an employer.

(4) An employer may have one or more sites of employment under common ownership or control. An example would be a major auto maker which has dozens of automobile plants throughout the country. Each plant would be considered a site of employment, but there is only one "employer", the auto maker.

(b) Plant closing. The term "plant closing" means the permanent or temporary shutdown of a "single site of employment", or one or more "facilities or operating units" within a single site of employment, if the shutdown results in an "employment loss" during any 30-day period at the single site of employment for 50 or more employees, excluding any part-time employees. An employment action that results in the effective cessation of production or the work performed by a unit, even if a few employees remain, is a shutdown. A “temporary shutdown” triggers the notice requirement only if there are a sufficient number of terminations, layoffs exceeding 6 months, or reductions in hours of work as specified under the definition of “employment loss.”

(c) Mass layoff. (1) The term “mass layoff” means a reduction in force which first, is not the result of a plant closing, and second, results in an employment loss at the single site of employment during any 30-day period for:

(i) At least 33 percent of the active employees, excluding part-time employees, and

(ii) At least 50 employees, excluding part-time employees.

Where 500 or more employees (excluding part-time employees) are affected, the 33% requirement does not apply, and notice is required if the other criteria are met. Plant closings involve employment loss which results from the shutdown of one or more distinct units within a single site or the entire site. A mass layoff involves employment loss, regardless of whether one or more units are shut down at the site.

(2) Workers, other than part-time workers, who are exempt from notice under section 4 of WARN are nonetheless counted as employees for purposes of determining coverage as a plant closing or mass layoff. For example, if an employer closes a temporary project on which 10 permanent and 40 temporary workers are employed, a covered plant closing has occurred although only 10 workers are entitled to notice.

(d) Representative. The term “representative” means an exclusive representative of employees within the meaning of section 9(a) or 8(f) of the National Labor Relations Act or section 2 of the Railway Labor Act.

(e) Affected employees. The term “affected employees” means employees who may reasonably be expected to experience an employment loss as a consequence of a proposed plant closing or mass layoff by their employer. This includes individually identifiable employees who will likely lose their jobs because of bumping rights or other factors, to the extent that such individual workers reasonably can be identified at the time notice is required to be given. The term “affected employees” includes managerial and supervisory employees, but does not include business partners. Consultant or contract employees who have a separate employment relationship with another employer and are paid by that other employer, or who are self-employed, are not “affected employees” of the business to which they are assigned. In addition, for purposes of determining whether coverage thresholds are met, either incumbent workers in jobs being eliminated or, if known 60 days in advance, the actual employees who suffer an employment loss may be counted.

(f) Employment loss. (1) The term “employment loss” means (i) an employment termination, other than a discharge for cause, voluntary departure, or retirement, (ii) a layoff exceeding 6 months, or (iii) a reduction in hours of work of individual employees of more than 50% during each month of any 6-month period.

(2) Where a termination or a layoff (see paragraphs (f)(1)(i) and (ii) of this section) is involved, an employment loss does not occur when an employee is reassigned or transferred to employer-sponsored programs, such as retraining or job search activities, as long as the reassignment does not constitute a constructive discharge or other involuntary termination.

(3) An employee is not considered to have experienced an employment loss if the closing or layoff is the result of the relocation or consolidation of part or all of the employer’s business and, prior to the closing or layoff—

(i) The employer offers to transfer the employee to a different site of employment within a reasonable commuting distance with no more than a 6-month break in employment, or

(ii) The employer offers to transfer the employee to any other site of employment regardless of distance with no more than a 6-month break in employment, and the employee accepts within 30 days of the offer or of the closing or layoff, whichever is later.

(4) A “relocation or consolidation” of part or all of an employer’s business, for purposes of paragraph § 639.3(h)(4), means that some definable business, whether customer orders, product lines, or operations, is transferred to a different site of employment and that transfer results in a plant closing or mass layoff.

(g) Unit of local government. The term “unit of local government” means any general purpose political subdivision of a State, which has the power to levy taxes and spend funds and which also has general corporate and police powers. When a covered employment site is located in more than one unit of local government, the employer must give notice to the unit to which it determines it directly paid the highest taxes for the year preceding the year for which the determination is made. All local taxes directly paid to the local government should be aggregated for this purpose.

(h) Part-time employee. The term “part-time” employee means an employee who is employed for an average of fewer than 20 hours per week or who has been employed for fewer than 6 of the 12 months preceding the date on which notice is required, including workers who work full-time. This term may include workers who would traditionally be understood as “seasonal” employees. The period to be used for calculating whether a worker has worked “an average of fewer than 20 hours per week” is the shorter of the actual time the worker has been employed or the most recent 90 days.

(i) Single site of employment. (1) A single site of employment can refer to either a single location or a group of contiguous locations. Groups of structures which form a campus or industrial park, or separate facilities across the street from one another, may be considered a single site of employment.

(2) There may be several single sites of employment within a single building, such as an office building, if separate employers conduct activities within such a building. For example, an office building housing 50 different businesses will contain 50 single sites of employment. The offices of each employer will be its single site of employment.

(3) Separate buildings or areas which are not directly connected or in immediately proximate may be considered a single site of employment if they are in reasonable geographic proximity, used for the same purpose, and share the same staff and equipment. An example is an employer who manages a number of warehouses in an area but who regularly shifts or rotates the same employees from one building to another.

(4) Non-contiguous sites in the same geographic area which do not share the same staff or operational purpose should not be considered a single site. For example, assembly plants which are located on opposite sides of a town and which are managed by a single employer are separate sites if they employ different workers.

(5) Contiguous buildings owned by the same employer which have separate management, produce different products, and have separate workforces are considered separate single sites of employment.

(6) For workers whose primary duties require travel from point to point, who are outstationed, or whose primary duties involve work outside any of the employer’s regular employment sites (e.g., railroad workers, bus drivers, salespersons), the single site of employment to which they are assigned as their home base, from which their work is assigned, or to which they report will be the single site in which they are covered for WARN purposes.

(7) Foreign sites of employment are not covered under WARN. U.S. workers at such sites are counted to determine whether an employer is covered as an employer under § 639.3(a).

(8) The term “single site of employment” may also apply to truly unusual organizational situations where the above criteria do not reasonably apply. The application of this definition with the intent to evade the purpose of the Act to provide notice is not acceptable.

(j) Facility or operating unit. The term “facility” refers to a building or buildings. The term “operating unit” refers to an organizationally or operationally distinct product, operation, or specific work function within or across facilities at the single site.

(k) State dislocated worker unit. The term “State dislocated worker unit” means a unit designated or created in each State by the Governor under title

III of the Job Training Partnership Act, as amended by EDWAA.

(1) State. For the purpose of WARN, the term "State" includes the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

§ 639.4 Who must give notice?

Section 3(a) of WARN states that "an employer shall not order a plant closing or mass layoff until the end of a 60-day period after the employer serves written notice of such an order * * *." Therefore, an employer who is anticipating carrying out a plant closing or mass layoff is required to give notice to affected employees or their representative(s), the State dislocated worker unit and the chief elected official of a unit of local government. (See definitions in § 639.3 of this part.)

(a) It is the responsibility of the employer to decide the most appropriate person within the employer's organization to prepare and deliver the notice to affected employees or their representative(s), the State dislocated worker unit and the chief elected official of a unit of local government. In most instances, this may be the local site plant manager, the local personnel director or a labor relations officer.

(b) An employer who has previously announced and carried out a short-term layoff (6 months or less) which is being extended beyond 6 months due to business circumstances (including unforeseeable changes in price or cost) not reasonably foreseeable at the time of the initial layoff is required to give notice when it becomes reasonably foreseeable that the extension is required. A layoff extending beyond 6 months from the date the layoff commenced for any other reason shall be treated as an employment loss from the date of its commencement.

(c) In the case of the sale of part or all of a business, section 2(b)(1) of WARN defines who the "employer" is. The seller is responsible for providing notice of any plant closing or mass layoff which takes place up to and including the effective date (time) of the sale, and the buyer is responsible for providing notice of any plant closing or mass layoff that takes place thereafter. Affected employees are always entitled to notice; at all times the employer is responsible for providing notice.

(1) If the seller is made aware of any definite plans on the part of the buyer to carry out a plant closing or mass layoff within 60 days of purchase, the seller may give notice to affected employees as an agent of the buyer, if so empowered. If the seller does not give notice, the buyer is, nevertheless, responsible to give notice. If the seller gives notice as the buyer's agent, the responsibility for notice still remains with the buyer.

(2) It may be prudent for the buyer and seller to determine the impacts of the sale on workers, and to arrange between them for advance notice to be given to affected employees or their representative(s), if a mass layoff or plant closing is planned.

§ 639.5 When must notice be given?

(a) General rule. (1) With certain exceptions discussed in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this section and in § 639.9 of this part, notice must be given at least 60 calendar days prior to any planned plant closing or mass layoff, as defined in these regulations. When all employees are not terminated on the same date, the date of the first individual termination within the statutory 30-day or 90-day period triggers the 60-day notice requirement. A worker's last day of employment is considered the date of that worker's layoff. The first and each subsequent group of terminatees are entitled to a full 60 days' notice. In order for an employer to decide whether issuing notice is required, the employer should—

(i) Look ahead 30 days and behind 30 days to determine whether employment actions both taken and planned will, in the aggregate for any 30-day period, reach the minimum numbers for a plant closing or a mass layoff and thus trigger the notice requirement; and

(ii) Look ahead 90 days and behind 90 days to determine whether employment actions both taken and planned each of which separately is not of sufficient size to trigger WARN coverage will, in the aggregate for any 90-day period, reach the minimum numbers for a plant closing or a mass layoff and thus trigger the notice requirement. An employer is not, however, required under section 3(d) to give notice if the employer demonstrates that the separate employment losses are the result of separate and distinct actions and causes, and are not an attempt to evade the requirements of WARN.

(2) The point in time at which the number of employees is to be measured for the purpose of determining coverage is the date the first notice is required to be given. If this “snapshot” of the number of employees employed on that date is clearly unrepresentative of the ordinary or average employment level, then a more representative number can be used to determine coverage. Examples of unrepresentative employment levels include cases when the level is near the peak or trough of an employment cycle or when large upward or downward shifts in the number of employees occur around the time notice is to be given. A more representative number may be an average number of employees over a recent period of time or the number of employees on an alternative date which is more representative of normal employment levels. Alternative methods cannot be used to evade the purpose of WARN, and should only be used in unusual circumstances.

(b) Transfers. (1) Notice is not required in certain cases involving transfers, as described under the definition of “employment loss” at § 639.3(f) of this part.

(2) An offer of reassignment to a different site of employment should not be deemed to be a “transfer” if the new job constitutes a constructive discharge.

(3) The meaning of the term “reasonable commuting distance” will vary with local and industry conditions. In determining what is a “reasonable commuting distance”, consideration should be given to the following factors: geographic accessibility of the place of work, the quality of the roads, customarily available transportation, and the usual travel time.

(4) In cases where the transfer is beyond reasonable commuting distance, the employer may become liable for failure to give notice if an offer to transfer is not accepted within 30 days of the offer or of the closing or layoff (whichever is later). Depending upon when the offer of transfer was made by the employer, the normal 60-day notice period may have expired and the plant closing or mass layoff may have occurred. An employer is, therefore, well advised to provide 60-day advance notice as part of the transfer offer.

(c) Temporary employment. (1) No notice is required if the closing is of a temporary facility, or if the closing or layoff is the result of the completion of a particular project or undertaking, and the affected employees were hired with the understanding that their employment was limited to the duration of the facility or the project or undertaking.

(2) Employees must clearly understand at the time of hire that their employment is temporary. When such understandings exist will be determined by reference to employment contracts, collective bargaining agreements, or employment practices of an industry or a locality, but the burden of proof will lie with the employer to show that the temporary nature of the project or facility was clearly communicated should questions arise regarding the temporary employment understandings.

(3) Employers in agriculture and construction frequently hire workers for harvesting, processing, or for work on a particular building or project. Such work may be seasonal but recurring. Such work falls under this exemption if the workers understood at the time they were hired that their work was temporary. In uncertain situations, it may be prudent for employers to clarify temporary work understandings in writing when workers are hired. The same employers may also have permanent employees who work on a variety of jobs and tasks continuously through most of the calendar year. Such employees are not included under this exemption. Giving written notice that a project is temporary will not convert permanent employment into temporary work, making jobs exempt from WARN.

(4) Certain jobs may be related to a specific contract or order. Whether such jobs are temporary depends on whether the contract or order is part of a long-term relationship. For example, an aircraft manufacturer hires workers to produce a standard airplane for the U.S. fleet under a contract with the U.S. Air Force with the expectation that its contract will continue to be renewed during the foreseeable future. The employees of this manufacturer would not be considered temporary.

(d) Strikes or lockouts. The statute provides an exemption for strikes and lockouts which are not intended to evade the requirements of the Act. A lockout occurs when, for tactical or defensive reasons during the course of collective bargaining or during a labor dispute, an employer lawfully refuses to utilize some or all of its employees for the performance of available work. A lockout not related to collective bargaining which is intended as a subterfuge to evade the Act does not qualify for this exemption. A plant closing or mass layoff at a site of employment where a strike or lockout is taking place, which occurs for reasons unrelated to a strike or lockout, is not covered by this exemption. An employer need not give notice when permanently replacing a person who is deemed to be an economic striker under the National Labor Relations Act. Non-striking employees at the same single site of employment who experience a covered employment loss as a result of a strike are entitled to notice; however, situations in which a strike or lockout affects non-striking employees at the same plant may constitute an unforeseeable business circumstance, as discussed in §639.9, and reduced notice may apply. Similarly, the "faltering company" exception, also discussed in §639.9 may apply in strike situations. Where a union which is on strike represents more than one bargaining unit at the single site, non-strikers includes the non-striking bargaining unit(s). Notice also is due to those workers who are not a part of the bargaining unit(s) which is involved in the labor negotiations that led to the lockout. Employees at other plants which have not been struck, but at which covered plant closings or mass layoffs occur as a direct or indirect result of a strike or lockout are not covered by the strike/lockout exemption. The unforeseeable business circumstances exception to 60 days' notice also may apply to these closings or layoffs at other plants.

§ 639.6 Who must receive notice?

Section 3(a) of WARN provides for notice to each representative of the affected employees as of the time notice is required to be given or, if there is no such representative at that time, to each affected employee. Notice also must be served on the State dislocated worker unit and the chief elected official of the unit of local government within which a closing or layoff is to occur. Section 2(b)(1) of the Act states that "any person who is an employee of the seller (other than a parttime employee) as of the effective date [time] of the sale shall be considered an employee of the purchaser immediately after the effective date [time] of the sale." This provision preserves the notice rights of the employees of a business that has been sold, but creates no other employment rights. Although a technical termination of the seller's employees may be deemed to have occurred when a sale becomes effective, WARN notice is only required where the employees, in fact, experience a covered employment loss.

(a) Representative(s) of affected employees. Written notice is to be served upon the chief elected officer of the exclusive representative(s) or bargaining agent(s) of affected employees at the time of the notice. If this person is not the same as the officer of the local union(s) representing affected employees, it is recommended that a copy also be given to the local union official(s).

(b) Affected employees. Notice is required to be given to employees who may reasonably be expected to experience an employment loss. This includes employees who will likely lose their jobs because of bumping rights or other factors, to the extent that such workers can be identified at the time notice is required to be given. If, at the time notice is required to be given, the employer cannot identify the employee who may reasonably be expected to experience an employment loss due to the elimination of a particular position, the employer must provide notice to the incumbent in that position. While part-time employees are not counted in determining whether plant closing or mass layoff thresholds are reached, such workers are due notice.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(c) State dislocated worker unit. Notice is to be served upon the State dislocated worker unit. Since the States are restructuring to implement training under EDWAA, service of notice upon the State Governor constitutes service upon the State dislocated worker unit until such time as the Governor makes public State procedures for serving notice to this unit.

(d) Chief elected official of the unit of local government. The identity of the chief elected official will vary according to the local government structure. In the case of elected boards, the notice is to be served upon the board's chairperson.

§ 639.7 What must the notice contain?

(a) Notice must be specific. (1) All notice must be specific.

(2) Where voluntary notice has been given more than 60 days in advance, but does not contain all of the required elements set out in this section, the employer must ensure that all of the information required by this section is provided in writing to the parties listed in § 639.6 at least 60 days in advance of a covered employment action.

(3) Notice may be given conditional upon the occurrence or nonoccurrence of an event, such as the renewal of a major contract, only when the event is definite and the consequences of its occurrence or nonoccurrence will necessarily, in the normal course of business, lead to a covered plant closing or mass layoff less than 60 days after the event. For example, if the non-renewal of a major contract will lead to the closing of the plant that produces the articles supplied under the contract 30 days after the contract expires, the employer may give notice at least 60 days in advance of the projected closing date which states that if the contract is not renewed, the plant closing will occur on the projected date. The notice must contain each of the elements set out in this section.

(4) The information provided in the notice shall be based on the best information available to the employer at the time the notice is served. It is not the intent of the regulations, that errors in the information provided in a notice that occur because events subsequently change or that are minor, in-advertent errors are to be the basis for finding a violation of WARN.

(b) As used in this section, the term "date" refers to a specific date or to a 14-day period during which a separation or separations are expected to occur. If separations are planned according to a schedule, the schedule should indicate the specific dates on which or the beginning date of each 14-day period during which any separations are expected to occur. Where a 14-day period is used, notice must be given at least 60 days in advance of the first day of the period.

(c) Notice to each representative of affected employees is to contain:

(1) The name and address of the employment site where the plant closing or mass layoff will occur, and the name and telephone number of a company official to contact for further information;

(2) A statement as to whether the planned action is expected to be permanent or temporary and, if the entire plant is to be closed, a statement to that effect;

(3) The expected date of the first separation and the anticipated schedule for making separations;

(4) The job titles of positions to be affected and the names of the workers currently holding affected jobs.

The notice may include additional information useful to the employees such as information on available dislocated worker assistance, and, if the planned action is expected to be temporary, the estimated duration, if known.

(d) Notice to each affected employee who does not have a representative is to be written in language understandable to the employees and is to contain:

(1) A statement as to whether the planned action is expected to be permanent or temporary and, if the entire plant is to be closed, a statement to that effect;

(2) The expected date when the plant closing or mass layoff will commence and the expected date when the individual employee will be separated;

(3) An indication whether or not bumping rights exist;

(4) The name and telephone number of a company official to contact for further information.

The notice may include additional information useful to the employees such as information on available dislocated worker assistance, and, if the planned action is expected to be temporary, the estimated duration, if known.

(e) The notices separately provided to the State dislocated worker unit and to the chief elected official of the unit of local government are to contain:

(1) The name and address of the employment site where the plant closing or mass layoff will occur, and the name and telephone number of a company official to contact for further information;

(2) A statement as to whether the planned action is expected to be permanent or temporary and, if the entire plant is to be closed, a statement to that effect;

(3) The expected date of the first separation, and the anticipated schedule for making separations;

(4) The job titles of positions to be affected, and the number of affected employees in each job classification;

(5) An indication as to whether or not bumping rights exist;

(6) The name of each union representing affected employees, and the name and address of the chief elected officer of each union.

The notice may include additional information useful to the employees such as a statement of whether the planned action is expected to be temporary and, if so, its expected duration.

(f) As an alternative to the notices outlined in paragraph (e) above, an employer may give notice to the State dislocated worker unit and to the unit of local government by providing them with a written notice stating the name of address of the employment site where the plant closing or mass layoff will occur; the name and telephone number of a company official to contact for further information; the expected date of the first separation; and the number of affected employees. The employer is required to maintain the other information listed in § 639.7(e) on site and readily accessible to the State dislocated worker unit and to the unit of general local government. Should this information not be available when requested, it will be deemed a failure to give required notice.

§ 639.8 How is the notice served?

Any reasonable method of delivery to the parties listed under § 639.6 of this part which is designed to ensure receipt of notice of least 60 days before separation is acceptable (e.g., first class mail, personal delivery with optional signed receipt). In the case of notification directly to affected employees, insertion of notice into pay envelopes is another viable option. A ticketed notice, i.e., preprinted notice regularly included in each employee's pay check or pay envelope, does not meet the requirements of WARN.

§ 639.9 When may notice be given less than 60 days in advance?

Section 3(b) of WARN sets forth three conditions under which the notification period may be reduced to less than 60 days. The employer bears the burden of proof that conditions for the exceptions have been met. If one of the exceptions is applicable, the employer must give as much notice as is practicable to the union, non-represented employees, the State dislocated worker unit, and the unit of local government and this may, in some circumstances, be notice after the fact. The employer must, at the time notice actually is given, provide a brief statement of the reason for reducing the notice period, in addition to the other elements set out in § 639.7.

(a) The exception under section 3(b)(1) of WARN, termed "faltering company", applies to plant closings but not to mass layoffs and should be narrowly construed. To qualify for reduced notice under this exception:

(1) An employer must have been actively seeking capital or business at the time that 60-day notice would have been required. That is, the employer must have been seeking financing or refinancing through the arrangement of loans, the issuance of stocks, bonds, or other methods of internally generated financing; or the employer must have been seeking additional money, credit, or business through any other commercially reasonable method. The employer must be able to identify specific actions taken to obtain capital or business.

(2) There must have been a realistic opportunity to obtain the financing or business sought.

(3) The financing or business sought must have been sufficient, if obtained, to have enabled the employer to avoid or postpone the shutdown. The employer must be able to objectively demonstrate that the amount of capital or the volume of new business sought would have enabled the employer to keep the facility, operating unit, or site open for a reasonable period of time.

(4) The employer reasonably and in good faith must have believed that giving the required notice would have precluded the employer from obtaining the needed capital or business. The employer must be able to objectively demonstrate that it reasonably thought that a potential customer or source of financing would have been unwilling to provide the new business or capital if notice were given, that is, if the employees, customers, or the public were aware that the facility, operating unit, or site might have to close. This condition may be satisfied if the employer can show that the financing or business source would not choose to do business with a troubled company or with a company whose workforce would be looking for other jobs. The actions of an employer relying on the “faltering company” exception will be viewed in a company-wide context. Thus, a company with access to capital markets or with cash reserves may not avail itself of this exception by looking solely at the financial condition of the facility, operating unit, or site to be closed.

(b) The “unforeseeable business circumstances” exception under section 3(b)(2)(A) of WARN applies to plant closings and mass layoffs caused by business circumstances that were not reasonably foreseeable at the time that 60-day notice would have been required.

(1) An important indicator of a business circumstance that is not reasonably foreseeable is that the circumstance is caused by some sudden, dramatic, and unexpected action or condition outside the employer’s control. A principal client’s sudden and unexpected termination of a major contract with the employer, a strike at a major supplier of the employer, and an unanticipated and dramatic major economic downturn might each be considered a business circumstance that is not reasonably foreseeable. A government ordered closing of an employment site that occurs without prior notice also may be an unforeseeable business circumstance.

(2) The test for determining when business circumstances are not reasonably foreseeable focuses on an employer’s business judgment. The employer must exercise such commercially reasonable business judgment as would a similarly situated employer in predicting the demands of its particular market. The employer is not required, however, to accurately predict general economic conditions that also may affect demand for its products or services.

(c) The “natural disaster” exception in section 3(b)(2)(B) of WARN applies to plant closings and mass layoffs due to any form of a natural disaster.

(1) Floods, earthquakes, droughts, storms, tidal waves or tsunamis and similar effects of nature are natural disasters under this provision.

(2) To qualify for this exception, an employer must be able to demonstrate that its plant closing or mass layoff is a direct result of a natural disaster.

(3) While a disaster may preclude full or any advance notice, such notice as is practicable, containing as much of the information required in § 639.7 as is available in the circumstances of the disaster still must be given, whether in advance or after the fact of an employment loss caused by a natural disaster.

(4) Where a plant closing or mass layoff occurs as an indirect result of a natural disaster, the exception does not apply but the “unforeseeable business circumstance” exception described in paragraph (b) of this section may be applicable.

§ 639.10 When may notice be extended?

Additional notice is required when the date or schedule of dates of a planned plant closing or mass layoff is extended beyond the date or the ending date of any 14-day period announced in the original notice as follows:

(a) If the postponement is for less than 60 days, the additional notice should be given as soon as possible to the parties identified in § 639.6 and should include reference to the earlier notice, the date (or 14-day period) to which the planned action is postponed, and the reasons for the postponement. The notice should be given in a manner which will provide the information to all affected employees.

(b) If the postponement is for 60 days or more, the additional notice should be treated as new notice subject to the provisions of §§ 639.5, 639.6 and 639.7 of this part. Rolling notice, in the sense of routine periodic notice, given whether or not a plant closing or mass layoff is impending, and with the intent to evade the purpose of the Act rather than give specific notice as required by WARN, is not acceptable.

§ 640.1 Purpose and scope.

(a) Purpose. (1) Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act requires, for the purposes of title III of that act, that a State unemployment compensation law include provision for methods of administration of the law that are reasonably calculated to insure the full payment of unemployment compensation when determined under the State law to be due to claimants. The standard in this part is issued to implement section 303(a)(1) in regard to promptness in the payment of unemployment benefits to eligible claimants.

(2) Although the standard applies to the promptness of all benefit payments and the criteria apply directly to the promptness of first benefit payments, it is recognized that adequate performance is contingent upon the prompt determination of eligibility by the State as a condition for the payment or denial of benefits. Accordingly, implicit in prompt performance with respect to benefit payments is the corresponding need for promptness by the State in making determinations of eligibility. However, applicable Federal laws provide no authority for the Secretary of Labor to determine the eligibility of individuals under a State law.

(b) Scope. (1) The standard in this part applies to all State laws approved by the Secretary of Labor under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 26 U.S.C. 3304), and to the administration of the State laws.

(2) The standard specified in § 640.4 applies to all claims for unemployment compensation. The criteria for State compliance in § 640.5 apply to first payments of unemployment compensation under the State law to eligible claimants following the filing of initial claims and first compensable claims.

§ 640.2 Federal law requirements.

(a) Conformity. Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 503(a)(1), requires that a State law include provision for:

Such methods of administration * * * as are found by the Secretary of Labor to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due.

(b) Compliance. Section 303(b)(2) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 503(b)(2), provides in part that:

Whenever the Secretary of Labor, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the State agency charged with the administration of the State law, finds that in the administration of the law there is:

(1) * * *

(2) a failure to comply substantially with any provision specified in subsection (a) of this section;

the Secretary of Labor shall notify such State agency that further payments will not be made to the State until the Secretary of Labor is satisfied that there is no longer any such * * * failure to comply.

§ 640.3

Until he is so satisfied, he shall make no further certification to the Secretary of the Treasury with respect to such State * * *.

§ 640.3 Interpretation of Federal law requirements.

(a) Section 303(a)(1). The Secretary interprets section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act to require that a State law include provision for such methods of administration as will reasonably insure the full payment of unemployment benefits to eligible claimants with the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible.

(b) Section 303(b)(2). (1) The Secretary interprets section 303(b)(2) of the Social Security Act to require that, in the administration of a State law, there shall be substantial compliance with the provision required by section 303(a)(1).

(2) The greatest promptness that is administratively feasible will depend upon the circumstances in each State that impacts upon its performance in paying benefits. Factors reasonably beyond a State's control may cause its performance to drop below the level of adequacy expressed in the table below as criteria for substantial compliance applicable to all States. Where it is demonstrated that failure to meet the criteria of adequacy is attributable to factors reasonably beyond the State's control and, in light of those factors, the State has performed at the highest level administratively feasible, it will be considered that the State is in substantial compliance with the Standard for conformity. Whether or not the State is in substantial compliance, the remedial provisions of §§ 640.7 and 640.8 will be applicable when the pertinent criteria are not met.

§ 640.4 Standard for conformity.

A State law will satisfy the requirement of section 303(a)(1), if it contains a provision requiring, or which is construed to require, such methods of administration as will reasonably insure the full payment of unemployment benefits to eligible claimants with the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 640.5 Criteria for compliance.

The criteria in the schedule below shall apply in determining whether, in the administration of a State law, there has been substantial compliance with the provision required by section 303(a)(1) in the issuance of benefit payments to eligible claimants for the first compensable weeks of unemployment in their benefit years:

	Percentage of first payments issued—days following end of first compensable week
	14 days, waiting week States	21 days, non-waiting week States <sup>1</sup>	35 days, all States
INTRASTATE CLAIMS
Performance to be achieved for the 12-mo. period ending:
Mar. 31, 1978 .....	80	80	.....
Mar. 31, 1979 .....	<sup>2</sup> 83	<sup>2</sup> 83	<sup>2</sup> 90
Mar. 31, 1980, and thereafter .....	87	87	93
INTERSTATE CLAIMS
Performance to be achieved for the 12-mo. period ending:
Mar. 31, 1978 .....	60	60	.....
Mar. 31, 1979 .....	<sup>2</sup> 65	<sup>2</sup> 65	<sup>2</sup> 75
Mar. 31, 1980, and thereafter .....	70	70	78

<sup>1</sup> A nonwaiting week State is any State whose law does not require that a non-compensable period of unemployment be served before the payment of benefits commences.
<sup>2</sup> Beginning with the month following the effective date of this revised regulation.

A State will be deemed to comply substantially, as set out in §§ 640.2(b) and 640.3(b), if its average performance, for the period of review, meets or exceeds the applicable criteria set forth above.

§ 640.6 Review of State compliance.

(a) Annual reviews. The administration of each State law shall be reviewed annually for compliance, as set out in §§ 640.2(b) and 640.3(b). Annual reviews shall be for the 12-month period ending on March 31 of each year. An annual review with respect to any State shall be based upon the monthly reports of performance submitted to the Department by the State agency, any special reports of performance submitted to the Department by the State agency, any benefit payment performance plan applicable to the period being reviewed, any study or analysis of performance relevant to the period being reviewed, and any other audit, study, or analysis as directed by the Department of Labor.

§ 640.8

(b) Periodic review. The administration of any State law may be reviewed at any other time, when there is reason to believe that there may be failure of compliance as set out in §§ 640.2(b) and 640.3(b). Such a review shall be based upon the same elements as may be required for an annual review.

§ 640.7 Benefit payment performance plans.

(a) Annual plan. An annual benefit payment performance plan shall be submitted by a State agency to the Department of Labor when average performance over a 12-month period ending on March 31 of any year does not meet the criteria specified in § 640.5. An annual plan shall be submitted by July 31 following the applicable March 31, and shall be a plan for the fiscal year that begins on the succeeding October 1. An annual plan shall be subject to continuing appraisal during the period it is in effect, and shall be subject to modification from time to time as may be directed by the Department of Labor after consultation with the State agency.

(b) Periodic plan. A periodic benefit payment performance plan shall be submitted by a State agency when directed by the Department of Labor. A periodic plan may be in addition to, or a modification of an annual plan and may be required even though an annual plan covering the same period is not required. A periodic plan shall be subject to continuing appraisal during the period it is in effect, and shall be subject to modification from time to time as may be directed by the Department of Labor.

(c) Content of plan. An annual plan or periodic plan shall set forth such corrective actions, performance and evaluation plans, and other matters as the Department of Labor directs, after consultation with the State agency.

§ 640.8 Enforcement of the standard.

(a) Action by the Department of Labor. When a State agency fails, for an extended period, to meet the standard set forth in § 640.4 or the criteria specified in § 640.5, or fails to show satisfactory improvement after having submitted a benefit payment performance plan of action, the Department of Labor shall pursue any of the following remedial steps that it deems necessary before considering application of the provisions of § 640.2:

(1) Initiate informal discussion with State agency officials pursuant to § 601.5(b) of this chapter.

(2) Conduct an evaluation of the State's benefit payment processes and analyze the reasons for the State's failure to meet the standard.

(3) Recommend specific actions for the State to take to improve its benefit payment performance.

(4) Request the State to submit a plan for complying with the standard by a prescribed date.

(5) Initiate special reporting requirements for a specified period of time.

(6) Consult with the Governor of the State regarding the consequences of the State's noncompliance with the standard.

(7) Propose to the Governor of the State and on an agreed upon basis arrange for the use of expert Federal staff to furnish technical assistance to the State agency with respect to its payment operations.

(b) Action by the Assistant Secretary. If, after all remedial steps have been exhausted, a State fails to take appropriate action, or otherwise fails to meet the standard specified in § 640.4, the Assistant Secretary for Employment and Training shall, after taking all factors into consideration, recommend to the Secretary of Labor that appropriate notice be sent to the State agency and that an opportunity for a hearing be extended in accordance with section 303(b) of the Social Security Act.

§ 640.9

§ 640.9 Information, reports and studies.

A State shall furnish to the Secretary of Labor such information and reports and make such studies as the Secretary decides are necessary or appropriate to carry out this part.

Subpart A—Introductory Provisions

§ 641.101 Scope and purpose.

Part 641 contains the regulations of the Department of Labor for the Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP) under title V of the OAA. The dual purposes of a SCSEP project are to provide useful part-time community service assignments for persons with low incomes who are 55 years old or older while promoting transition to unsubsidized employment. This part, and other pertinent regulations expressly incorporated by reference, set forth all regulations applicable to the SCSEP.

§ 641.102 Definitions.

The following definitions apply to this part:

OAA means the Older Americans Act of 1965, as amended (42 U.S.C. 3001 et seq.).

Area agency on aging means an area agency on aging designated under section 305(a)(2)(A) of the OAA or a State agency performing the functions of an area agency on aging under section 305(b)(5) of the OAA.

Authorized position means an enrollment opportunity during a program year. The number of authorized positions is derived by dividing the total amount of funds appropriated during a program year by the national average unit cost per enrollee for that program year as determined by the Department. The national average unit cost includes all administration costs, other enrollee costs, and enrollee wage and fringe benefit costs. An allotment of the total dollars for the grantee is divided by the national unit cost to determine the total number of authorized positions for each grant agreement.

Community service means social, health, welfare, and educational services (particularly literacy tutoring); legal assistance, and other counseling services, including tax counseling and assistance and financial counseling; library, recreational, day care and other similar services; conservation, maintenance, or restoration of natural resources; community betterment or beautification; pollution control and environmental quality efforts; weatherization activities; and includes intergenerational projects; but is not limited to the above. It excludes building and highway construction (except that which normally is performed by the project sponsor) and work which primarily benefits private, profitmaking organizations. [Section 507(2) of the OAA.]

Department and DOL mean the United States Department of Labor, including its agencies and organizational units.

Disability means a physical or mental impairment of an individual that substantially limits one or more major life activities; a record of such impairment; or being regarded as having such an impairment. [29 CFR parts 32 and 34.]

Dual eligibility means individuals eligible under title V who are enrolled in a joint program established under a written financial or non-financial agreement to jointly operate programs with JTPA are deemed to satisfy the requirements of all JTPA programs funded under Title II-A of the JTPA.

Eligible individual means a person who is 55 years of age, or older, and who has a low income as defined in this section. [Section 507(1) of the OAA.]

Eligible organization means an organization which is legally capable of receiving and using Federal funds under the OAA and entering into a grant or other agreement with the Department to carry out the provisions of title V of the OAA. [Section 502(b)(1) of the OAA.]

Employment and training program(s) means publicly funded efforts designed to offer employment, training and/or placement services which enhance an individual's employability. The term is used in this part to include, but is not limited to, the JTPA or similar legislation and State or local programs of a similar nature.

Enrollee means an individual who is eligible, receives services, and is paid wages for engaging in community service assignments under a project.

Grantee means an eligible organization which has entered into a grant agreement with the Department under this part.

Greatest economic need means the need resulting from an income level at or below the poverty line based on guidelines provided by the Department.

Greatest social need, as defined at section 102(a)(30) of the OAA, means the need caused by noneconomic factors which include:

- (1) Physical and mental disabilities;
- (2) Language barriers; and
- (3) Cultural, social, or geographical isolation, including isolation caused by racial or ethnic status.

Host agency means a public agency or a private non-profit organization, other than a political party or any facility used or to be used as a place for sectarian religious instruction or worship, exempt from taxation under the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, which provides a work site and supervision for an enrollee.

Individual development plan means a plan for an enrollee which shall include an employment goal, achievement objectives, and appropriate sequence of services for the enrollee based on an assessment conducted by the grantee or subgrantee and jointly agreed upon by the enrollee.

JTPA means the Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. 1501 et seq.).

Low income means an income of the family which, during the preceding six months on an annualized basis or the actual income during the preceding 12 months, whichever is more beneficial to the applicant, is not more than 125 percent of the poverty levels established and periodically updated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. In addition, an individual who receives, or is a member of a family which receives, regular cash welfare payments shall be deemed to have a low income for purposes of this part.

Poor employment prospects means the unlikelihood of an otherwise eligible individual obtaining employment without the assistance of this or other employment and training programs. Persons with poor employment prospects include, but are not limited to, those without a substantial employment history, basic skills, English-language proficiency, or displaced homemakers, school dropouts, disabled veterans, homeless or residing in socially and economically isolated rural or urban areas where employment opportunities are limited.

Program year means the one-year period covered by a grant agreement beginning July 1 and ending on June 30.

Project means an undertaking by a grantee or subgrantee, pursuant to a grant agreement between the Department and the grantee, which provides for community service opportunities for eligible individuals and the delivery of associated services.

Reallocation means a redistribution of funds by a grantee.

Reallotment means the redistribution of allotted title V funds by the Department from one State to another State(s) or from one grantee to another grantee.

Residence means an individual's declared dwelling place or address. No requirement pertaining to length of residency prior to enrollment shall be imposed.

SCSEP means the Senior Community Service Employment Program as authorized under title V of the OAA.

State agency on aging means the sole agency designated by the State, in accordance with regulations of the Assistant Secretary on Aging, pursuant to section 305(a)(1) of the OAA.

Subgrantee means the legal entity to which a subgrant is awarded by a grantee and which is accountable to the grantee (or higher tier subgrantee) for the use of the funds provided.

Title V of the OAA means 42 U.S.C. 3056 et seq.

Subpart B—Grant Planning and Application Procedures

§ 641.201 Allotment and allocation of title V funds.

(a) Allotment. The Secretary shall allot funds for projects in each State in accordance with the distribution requirements contained in section 506(a) of the OAA.

(b) Within-State apportionment. The amount allotted for projects within a State shall be apportioned among areas within the State in an equitable manner, taking into consideration:

(1) The proportion which eligible individuals in each such area bears to the total number of such persons, respectively, in that State;

(2) The relative distribution of such individuals residing in rural and urban areas within the State; and

(3) The relative distribution of such individuals who are individuals with the greatest economic need, such individuals who are minority individuals, and such individuals with greatest social need.

(c) Annual report of funds allocated by state. The State agency for each State receiving funds or a sponsor designated by the Department shall report at the beginning of each fiscal year on such State's status relative to section 506(c) of the OAA. Each State's report shall include names and geographic locations of all projects receiving title V funds for projects in the State. All grantees and subgrantees operating in a State shall provide information necessary to compile the report. [Section 506(d) of the OAA.]

§ 641.202 Eligibility for title V funds.

Agencies and organizations eligible to receive title V funds shall be those specified in sections 502(b) and 506(a) of the OAA.

§ 641.203 Soliciting applications for title V funds.

The Department may solicit or request organizations to submit applications for funds.

§ 641.204 Grant application requirements.

(a) Schedules. The Department shall establish, by administrative directive, schedules for submittal of grant preapplications and applications; the contents of grant applications, including goals and objectives; amounts of grants; and grant budget and narrative formats.

(b) Intergovernmental reviews. Grant applicants shall comply with the requirements of the Department's regulation, at 29 CFR part 17, which implements the intergovernmental review of Department programs and activities. A Preapplication for Federal Assistance form (SF-424) filed as a result of the intergovernment review system shall contain an attachment which, at a minimum, lists the proposed number of authorized community service positions in each county, or other appropriate jurisdiction within the affected State. Whenever a national organization or other program grantee or subgrantee proposes to conduct projects within a planning and service area in a State, such organization or program grantee is responsible for sharing their applications with area agencies on aging and other SCSEP sponsors in the area prior to the award of the funds in accord with guidelines issued by the Department.

(c) Subgrants. A grant applicant planning to award funds by subgrant shall:

- (1) Outline the nature and extent of the planned use of such funds; and
- (2) Assure that in the event that a subgrant agreement is canceled in whole or in part, the grantee will provide continuity of services to enrollees.

§ 641.205 Responsibility review.

(a) In order to enter into and continue a grant relationship with DOL, an organization (applicant) shall be responsible. To determine responsibility, DOL conducts a preaward review of all grant applicants. As part of this review, DOL applies 13 basic responsibility tests to each applicant, included in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) If a grant applicant fails either of the following two responsibility tests, it shall not be designated as a grantee:

(1) The Department's efforts to recover debts from the applicant (for which three demand letters have been sent) established by final Department action have been unsuccessful, or the applicant has failed to comply with an approved repayment plan.

(2) Fraud or criminal activity has been determined to exist within the organization.

(c) Eleven additional basic responsibility tests are applied to each grant applicant. Failure to meet any one of these tests does not establish that the applicant is not responsible, unless the failure is substantial or persistent. These tests are as follows:

(1) Serious administrative deficiencies have been identified, such as failure to maintain a financial management system as required by Federal regulations.

(2) Willful obstruction of the monitoring process.

(3) Failure to meet performance requirements.

(4) Failure to correct deficiencies brought to the grantee's attention in writing as a result of monitoring activities, reviews, assessments, etc.

(5) Failure to submit correct grant closeout documents within 90 days after expiration of the grant, unless an extension has been requested and granted.

(6) Failure to return outstanding cash advances within 90 days of the expiration date of the grant, unless an extension has been requested and granted, or the funds have been authorized to be retained for use on other grants.

§ 641.206

(7) Failure to submit correct required reports by established due dates.

(8) Failure to properly report and dispose of government property as instructed by DOL.

(9) Failure to maintain cost controls resulting in excess cash on hand.

(10) Failure to timely comply with the audit requirements of 29 CFR part 96.

(11) Final disallowed costs in excess of five percent of the grant award.

§ 641.206 Grant application review.

(a) The Department shall review each timely grant application submitted by an eligible organization.

(b) In reviewing and considering an application, the Department shall determine the following:

(1) The availability of funds for the proposed grant;

(2) Whether the application is in accordance with the Department's instructions;

(3) Whether the application complies with the requirements of the OAA and this part;

(4) Whether the application offers the best prospect of serving appropriate geographic areas; and

(5) Whether the application demonstrates the effective use of funds.

§ 641.207 Negotiation.

(a) The Department may negotiate with an eligible organization to arrive at a grant agreement if the application generally meets requirements set forth in this part.

(b) The subjects of negotiation may include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Project components, including community service assignments and geographic locations of authorized positions;

(2) Subproject(s), if any;

(3) Funding level, including all budget line items; and

(4) Performance goals.

§ 641.208 Rejection of grant application or project components.

(a) The Department may question any proposed project component if it believes that the component will not serve the purposes of the OAA; if negotiation does not produce a mutually acceptable conclusion, it may reject this grant application.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) If the Department rejects an application, as set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, the Department may solicit applications from other eligible organizations in order to arrive at a grant agreement.

(c) When an application is not approved, the Department shall notify the applicant within a reasonable time in writing and state the reason(s) for rejection.

(d) Rejection of a proposal or application is a final Departmental action which is not subject to further administrative review. Rejection will not affect future consideration of the applicant for other projects as long as the organization meets the eligibility criteria.

§ 641.209 Award of funds.

When the applicant is a unit of State government or a public or private non-profit organization, the award of funds to a grantee shall be accomplished through the execution of a grant agreement prepared by the Department. When the applicant is a unit of the Federal Government, other than the Department, the award of funds shall be accomplished through an inter-agency agreement.

Subpart C—Grant Operations

§ 641.301 General.

(a) This subpart establishes basic grant operation standards and procedures to be followed by all organizations receiving title V funds for the purpose of operating SCSEP grant agreements and projects.

(b) The dual purposes of an SCSEP project are to provide useful part-time community service assignments for persons with low incomes who are 55 years old or older while promoting transition to unsubsidized employment. Grantees and subgrantees shall develop appropriate work assignments for eligible individuals which will result in the provision of community services as defined in sections 502(b) and 507(2) of the OAA, and § 641.102 and will promote unsubsidized employment opportunities.

§ 641.302 Grantee responsibilities.

The grantee shall remit to eligible individuals wages, for community service assignments, and provide skill enhancement opportunities, periodic physical examinations, personal and employment-related counseling, assistance in transition to unsubsidized employment where feasible, and other benefits as approved by the Department.

(a) grantees are responsible for:

(1) Following and enforcing the requirements set forth in the OAA and this part;

(2) Implementing and carrying out projects in accordance with the provisions of the grant agreement; and

(3) Assuring that, to the extent feasible, such projects will serve the needs of minority, limited English-speaking, and Indian eligible individuals, and eligible individuals who have the greatest economic need, at least in proportion to their numbers in the State, and take into consideration their rates of poverty and unemployment based on the best available information.

(b) The grantee periodically shall monitor the performance of grant-supported activities to assure that project goals are being achieved and that the requirements of the OAA and this part are being met.

(c) The grantee or subgrantee shall obtain and record the personal information necessary for a proper determination of eligibility for each individual and maintain documentation supporting the eligibility of enrollees.

(d) Each grantee or subgrantee shall make efforts to provide equitable services among substantial segments of the population eligible for participation in SCSEP. Such efforts shall include, but not be limited to: outreach efforts to broaden the composition of the pool of those considered for participation, to include members of both sexes, various race/ethnic groups and individuals with disabilities.

§ 641.303 Cooperative relationships.

(a) Each grantee or subgrantee shall, to the maximum extent feasible, cooperate with other agencies, including agencies conducting programs under the JTPA, to provide services to elderly persons, to persons with low incomes, and with agencies providing employment and training services.

(b) The cooperation described in paragraph (a) of this section shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) Selection of community service assignment occupational categories, work assignments, and host agencies to provide a variety of community service opportunities for enrollees and to produce a variety of federally funded services which respond to the community's total needs and initiatives.

(2) Establishment of cooperative relations with the State agency on aging designated under section 305(a)(1) of the OAA and with area agencies on aging designated under section 305(a)(2) of the OAA for the purpose of obtaining services as authorized under titles III, IV, and VI of the OAA to increase the likelihood of receipt of unsubsidized employment opportunities and supportive services that are available. Existing services provided under the authority of section 321(a) of the OAA shall be used first by grantee or subgrantee.

(3) Establishment of cooperative relations with other employment and training organizations including the State and local JTPA and the Carl D. Perkins Act programs to insure that project enrollees can benefit from such cooperative activities as dual eligibility, shared assessments, training and referral.

(4) Establishment of cooperative relations with State employment security agencies to insure that enrollees are made aware of services available from these agencies.

(c) Whenever a national organization or other program sponsor conducts a project within a planning and service area in a State, such an organization or program sponsor shall conduct such a project in consultation with the area agency on aging of the planning and service area and shall submit to the State agency and the area agency on aging a description of such project to be conducted in the State including the location of the project, 30 days prior to undertaking the project, for review and comment to assure efficient and effective coordination of programs under this part.

§ 641.304

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 641.304 Recruitment and selection of enrollees.

Grantees and subgrantees shall use methods of recruitment and selection (including notifying the State employment security agency when vacancies occur) which will assure that the maximum number of eligible individuals will have an opportunity to participate in the program. Recruitment efforts shall be designed, to the extent feasible, to assure equitable distribution of services to groups described in § 641.302(e). [Section 502(b)(1)(H) of the OAA.]

§ 641.305 Enrollment eligibility.

(a) General. Eligibility criteria set forth in this section apply to all SCSEP applicants and enrollees, including the following individuals:

(1) Each individual seeking initial enrollment;

(2) Each individual seeking reenrollment after termination from the SCSEP because of loss of unsubsidized employment through no fault of their own, including illness; and

(3) Each enrollee seeking recertification for continued enrollment.

(b) Eligibility criteria. To be eligible for initial enrollment, each individual shall meet the following criteria for age, income, and place of residence:

(1) Age. Each individual shall be no less than 55 years of age. No person whose age is 55 years or more shall be determined ineligible because of age, and no upper age limit shall be imposed for initial or continued enrollment. [Section 502 of the OAA.]

(2) Income. The income of the family of which the individual is a member shall not exceed the low-income standards defined in § 641.102 and issued by the Department. In addition, a disabled person may be treated as a “family of one” for income eligibility purposes.

(3) Residence. Each individual, upon initial enrollment, shall reside in the State in which the project is authorized.

(c) No additional eligibility requirement. Grantees and subgrantees shall not impose any additional condition or requirement for enrollment eligibility unless required by Federal law.

(d) Dual Eligibility. Individuals eligible under title V of the OAA who are enrolled in a joint program established under a written financial or non-financial agreement to jointly operate programs with JTPA shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of JTPA Title II-A.

(e) Special responsibilities of the grantee and subgrantee(s) relating to eligibility.

(1) Each grantee or subgrantee shall recertify the income of each enrollee under its grant or subgrant, respectively, once each project year, according to the schedule set forth in the grant agreement and shall maintain documentation to support the recertification. Enrollees found to be ineligible for continued enrollment because of income shall be given, by the grantee or subgrantee, a written notice of termination and shall be terminated 30 days after the notice. No enrollee shall participate in a community service position for more than 12 months without having his or her income recertified.

(2) If, at any time, the grantee or a subgrantee determines that an enrollee was incorrectly declared eligible as a direct result of false information given by that individual, the individual shall be given a written notice explaining the reason or reasons for the determination and shall be terminated immediately.

(3) If, at any time, the grantee or subgrantee determines that an enrollee was incorrectly declared eligible through no fault of the enrollee, the grantee or subgrantee shall give the enrollee immediate written notice explaining the reason or reasons for termination, and the enrollee shall be terminated 30 days after the notice.

(4) When a grantee or subgrantee makes an unfavorable determination on continued eligibility, it shall explain in writing to the enrollee the reason(s) for the determination and shall provide notice of the right of appeal in accordance with the required procedures set forth in § 641.324.

(5) When a grantee or subgrantee terminates an enrollee for cause, it shall inform the enrollee, in writing, of the reason(s) for termination and of the right of appeal in accordance with the required procedures set forth in § 641.324.

(6) When a grantee or subgrantee makes an unfavorable determination of enrollment eligibility pursuant to paragraph (e) (1) or (3) of this section, it should assure that the individual is given a reason for non-enrollment and, when feasible, should refer the individual to other potential sources of assistance.

§ 641.306 Enrollment priorities.

(a) As set forth in sections 502(b)(1)(M) and 507(1) of the OAA, enrollment priorities for filling all positions shall be as follows:

- (1) Eligible individuals with the greatest economic need;
- (2) Eligible individuals who are 60 years old or older; and
- (3) Eligible individuals who seek re-enrollment following termination of an unsubsidized job through no fault of their own or due to illness, provided that re-enrollment is sought within one year of termination.

(b) Within all enrollment priorities, those persons with poor employment prospects shall be given preference.

(c) Enrollment priorities established in this section shall apply to all vacant community service positions, but shall not be interpreted to require the termination of any eligible enrollee. The priorities do not apply to the experimental private sector projects authorized by section 502(e) of the OAA.

§ 641.307 [Reserved]

§ 641.308 Orientation.

(a) Enrollee. The grantee or subgrantee shall provide orientation to eligible individuals who are enrolled as soon as practicable after a determination of eligibility. The orientation shall provide, as appropriate, information related to: project objectives; community service assignments; training; supportive services; responsibilities, rights, and duties of the enrollee; permitted and prohibited political activities; plans for transition to unsubsidized employment and a discussion of safe working conditions at the host agencies.

(b) Host agency. The grantee or a subgrantee shall provide to those individuals who will supervise enrollees at the host agencies, an orientation similar to the one described in paragraph (a) of this section. This is to assure that enrollees will receive adequate supervision and opportunities for transitioning to the host agency staff or other unsubsidized employment.

(c) Supervision. The grantee or subgrantee shall ensure that host agencies provide adequate supervision, adequate orientation and instruction regarding, among other things, job duties and safe working procedures.

§ 641.309 Assessment and reassessment of enrollees.

(a) General. The grantee or subgrantee shall assess each enrollee under the grant or subgrant, respectively, to determine the most suitable community service assignment and to identify appropriate employment, training, and community service objectives for each individual. The assessment shall be made in partnership with the new enrollee and should consider the individual's preference of occupational category, work history, skills, interests, talents, physical capabilities, need for supportive services, aptitudes, potential for performing proposed community service assignment duties, and potential for transition to unsubsidized employment.

(b) Assessment of physical capabilities. The assessment of each enrollee shall take into consideration his or her physical capabilities. Assessments of physical ability shall be consistent with section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (section 504), and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA).

(c) Assignment. The grantee or subgrantee shall seek a community service assignment which will permit the most effective use of each enrollee's skills, interests, and aptitudes.

(d) Individual development plans. The grantee and subgrantee shall use the assessment or reassessment as a basis for developing or amending an individual development plan (IDP). The IDP shall be developed in partnership with the enrollee to reflect the needs of the enrollee as indicated by the assessment, as well as the expressed interests and desires of the enrollee.

(e) Review of IDP plan. The grantee and subgrantee shall review the IDP at least once in a 12 month period for the following purposes: to evaluate the progress of each enrollee in meeting the objectives of the IDP; to determine each enrollee's potential for transition to unsubsidized employment; to determine the appropriateness of each enrollee's current community service assignment; and to review progress made toward meeting their training and employment objectives.

(f) Alternative assignment. The sponsor may develop an alternative assignment for an enrollee, when feasible, should there be one of the following determinations:

(1) That a different community service assignment will provide greater opportunity for the use of an enrollee's skills and aptitudes;

(2) That an alternative assignment will provide work experience which will enhance the potential for unsubsidized employment; or

(3) That an alternative assignment will otherwise serve the best interests of the enrollee.

(g) Minimum requirements. The assessments and reassessments required by this section shall meet minimum requirements issued by the Department on assessment, and subsequent determinations are to be recorded in the enrollee's IDP, to become a part of each enrollee's permanent record.

(h) Recent assessments. Assessments of an enrollee, prepared by another employment or training program (such as a program under the JTPA or the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Applied Technology Act) may be substituted for one prepared by the grantee or subgrantee if the training program prepared the assessment within the last year prior to applying for SCSEP. [section 502(b)(1)(M) of the OAA.]

§ 641.310 Community service assignments.

(a) Assignment to community service. After the completion of an enrollee's orientation and initial training, if any, the grantee or subgrantee shall refer the enrollee, as soon as possible, to a useful part-time community service assignment, if appropriate, according to the IDP.

(1) Each enrollee shall be placed in a community service assignment which contributes to the general welfare of the community and provides services related to publicly-owned and operated facilities and projects, or projects sponsored by organizations other than political parties, exempt from taxation under the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Project sponsors may provide enrollees with opportunities to assist in the administration of the SCSEP.

(2) The enrollee shall not be assigned to work involving the construction, operation, or maintenance of any facility used or to be used as a place for sectarian religious instruction or worship, or to work which primarily benefits private, profit-making organizations. [Sections 502(b)(1)(A), (C), and (D) and 507(2) of the OAA.]

(b) Hours of community service assignments. (1) Each enrollee's community service assignment shall not exceed 1,300 hours during a 12-month period specified in the grantee's agreement. The 1,300 hours includes paid hours of orientation, training, sick leave, and vacation and hours of enrollment provided by all grantees and subgrantees. No enrollee shall be paid for more than 1,300 hours in any 12-month period. [Section 508(a)(2) of the OAA.]

(2) The grantee or subgrantee shall not require an enrollee to participate more than 20 hours during one week; however, hours may be extended with the consent of the enrollee.

(3) The grantee or subgrantee shall not offer an enrollee an average of fewer than 20 hours of paid participation per week. Shorter periods may be authorized by the grant agreement, in writing by the Department, or by written agreement between an enrollee and a grantee or subgrantee. [Section 508(a)(2) of the OAA.]

(4) The grantee or subgrantee shall, to the extent possible, ensure that the enrollee works during normal business hours, if the enrollee so desires.

(c) Location. The enrollee shall be employed at work sites in or near the community where the enrollee resides. [Section 502(b)(1)(B) of the OAA.]

(d) Working conditions for enrollees. Enrollees shall not be permitted to work in a building or surroundings or under conditions which are unsanitary, hazardous, or dangerous to the enrollees' health or safety. The grantee or subgrantee shall make periodic visits to the enrollees' work site(s) to assure that the working conditions and treatment of the enrollee are consistent with the OAA and this part. [Section 502(b)(1)(J) of the OAA.]

§ 641.311 Enrollee wages and fringe benefits.

(a) Wages. Upon engaging in part-time community service assignments, including orientation and training in preparation for community service assignments, each enrollee shall receive wages at a rate no less than the highest applicable rate:

- (1) The minimum wage which would be applicable to the enrollee under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938;
- (2) The State or local minimum wage for the most nearly comparable covered employment; or
- (3) The prevailing rates of pay for persons employed in similar public occupations by the same employer.

(b) Fringe benefits. (1) The grantee or subgrantee shall ensure that enrollees receive all fringe benefits required by law.

(2) Within a project or subproject, fringe benefits shall be provided uniformly to all enrollees, unless the Department agrees to waive this provision due to a determination that such a waiver is in the best interests of applicants, enrollees, and the project administration.

(3) Physical examination. (i) Each enrollee shall be offered the opportunity to take a physical examination annually. A physical is a fringe benefit, and is not an eligibility criterion. The examining physician shall provide, to the enrollee only, a written report of the results of the examination. The enrollee may, at his or her option, provide the grantee or subgrantee a copy of the report. The results of the physical examination shall not be taken into consideration in determining placement into a community service assignment.

(ii) An enrollee may refuse the physical examination offered. In such a case, the grantee or subgrantee should document this refusal, through a signed waiver or other means, within 60 work days after commencement of the community service assignment. Thereafter, grantees or subgrantees shall document an enrollee's refusal of the annual physical examination.

(c) Retirement. Expenditures of grant funds for contributions into a retirement system or plan are prohibited, unless the grantee has documentation on hand showing that:

(1) The costs are allowable under the appropriate cost principles indicated at § 641.403(b); and

(2) Such contributions bear a reasonable relationship to the cost of providing such benefits to enrollees because:

- (i) the benefits vest at the time contributions are made on behalf of the enrollees; or
- (ii) the charges to SCSEP funds are for contributions on behalf of enrollees to a "defined benefit" type of plan which do not exceed the amounts reasonably necessary to provide the specified benefit to enrollees, as determined under a separate actuarial determination.

(d) Workers' compensation. Where an enrollee is not covered by the State workers' compensation law, the grantee or subgrantee shall provide the enrollee with workers' compensation benefits equal to that provided by law for covered employment. [Section 504(b) of the OAA.]

(e) Unemployment compensation. The grantee is authorized to pay the cost of unemployment insurance for covered enrollees, where required by law. [Section 502(b)(1)(O) of the OAA.]

§ 641.312 Enrollee supportive services.

(a) The grantee or subgrantee shall provide supportive services designed to assist the enrollee in participating successfully in community service assignments and, where appropriate, to prepare and assist the enrollee in obtaining unsubsidized employment. To the extent feasible, the grantee or subgrantee shall utilize supportive services available from other titles of the OAA, particularly those administered by area agencies on aging and other funding sources.

(b) Supportive services may include, but need not be limited to, all or some of the following:

§ 641.313

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(1) Counseling or instruction designed to assist the enrollee to participate successfully in community service assignments or to obtain unsubsidized employment.

(2) Counseling designed to assist the enrollee personally in areas such as health, nutrition, social security benefits, Medicare benefits, and retirement laws.

(3) Incidentals, including, but not limited to: work shoes, badges, uniforms, safety glasses, eyeglasses, and hand tools, may be provided if necessary for successful participation in community service assignments and if not available from other sources.

(4) Periodic meetings on topics of general interest, including matters related to health, job seeking skills, safety, and consumer affairs.

(5) Enrollee transportation. (i) Enrollee transportation may be paid if transportation from other sources at no cost to the project is unavailable and such unavailability is documented. When authorized in the grant agreement, transportation may be provided for enrollees from home to work, to training or to supportive services. [Section 502(b)(1)(L) of the OAA.]

(ii) Grant funds may not be expended to support the transportation costs of host agencies or programs funded by other than title V of the OAA, except where provided by Federal law.

§ 641.313 Training.

(a) The grantee or subgrantee shall provide or arrange for training specific to an enrollee's community service assignment. Training may be provided through lectures, seminars, classroom instruction, individual instruction or other arrangements including, but not limited to, arrangements with employment and training programs. The grantee or the subgrantee is encouraged to obtain such services through locally available resources, including employment and training programs, as defined in § 641.103, and through host agencies, at no cost or reduced cost to the project. [Section 502(b)(1)(I) of the OAA.]

(b) Training shall consist of up to 500 hours per grant year and shall be consistent with the enrollee's IDP. Such training may cover all aspects of training; e.g., skill, job search, etc. Enrollees shall not be enrolled solely for the purpose of receiving job search and job referral services. Waivers for additional hours of training will be considered on an exception basis.

(c) In addition to training in preparation for community service assignments, as described in this section, a grantee or subgrantee is encouraged to arrange for, or directly provide, skills-training opportunities beyond the SCSEP community service training activities which will permit the enrollee to acquire or improve skills, including literacy training, applicable in community service assignment or for unsubsidized employment.

(d) A grantee or subgrantee, to the extent feasible, shall arrange skill-training for the enrollee which is realistic and consistent with his or her IDP. A grantee or subgrantee shall place major emphasis on the training available through on-the-job experience at SCSEP work sites, thereby retaining the community service focus of the SCSEP.

(e) An enrollee engaging in skills-related training, as described in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, may be reimbursed for the documented travel costs and room and board necessary to engage in such training. [Section 502(b)(1)(I) of the OAA.]

(f) Whenever possible a grantee or subgrantee shall seek to obtain all training for enrollees reduced or no cost to title V from such sources as the JTPA and the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Applied Technology Education Act. Where training is not available from other sources, title V funds may be used for training.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to prevent or limit an enrollee from engaging in self-development training available from sources other than title V of the OAA during hours other than hours of community service assignment.

(h) Joint programming, including co-enrollment when appropriate, between title V programs and programs authorized by the Job Training Partnership Act, the Community Services Block Grant Act, or the Carl D. Perkins Act is strongly encouraged.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 641.321

§ 641.314 Placement into unsubsidized employment.

(a) In order to ensure that the maximum number of eligible individuals have an opportunity to participate in community service assignments, the grantee or subgrantee shall employ reasonable means to place each enrollee into unsubsidized employment.

(b) To encourage the placement of the enrollee into an unsubsidized job, the Department has established a goal of placing into unsubsidized employment the number of enrollees which equals at least 20 percent of the project's annual authorized positions. Whenever this goal is not achieved, the grantee shall develop and submit a plan of action for addressing this shortfall.

(c) The grantee or subgrantee may contact private and public employers directly or through the State employment security agencies to develop or identify suitable unsubsidized employment opportunities; and should encourage host agencies to employ enrollees in their regular work forces.

(d) The grantee or subgrantee shall follow-up on each enrollee who is placed into unsubsidized employment and shall document such follow-up at least once within 3 months of unsubsidized placement.

§ 641.315 Maximum duration of enrollment.

A maximum duration of enrollment may be established by the grantee in the grant agreement, when authorized by the Department. Time limits on enrollment shall be reasonable and IDPs shall provide for transition to unsubsidized employment or other assistance before the maximum enrollment duration has expired.

§ 641.316 Individual development plan-related terminations.

When an enrollee refuses to accept a reasonable number of referrals or job offers to unsubsidized employment consistent with his or her IDP and there are no extenuating circumstances, the enrollee may be terminated from the SCSEP. Such a termination shall be consistent with administrative guidelines issued by the Department and the termination shall be subject to the applicable appeal rights and procedures described in § 641.324.

§ 641.317 Status of enrollees.

Enrollees who are employed in any project funded under the OAA are not deemed to be Federal employees as a result of such employment. [Section 504(a) of the OAA.]

§ 641.318 Over-enrollment.

Should attrition or funding adjustments prevent a portion of project funds from being fully utilized, the grantee may use those funds during the period of the agreement to over-enroll additional eligible individuals. The number over-enrolled may not exceed 20 percent of the total number of authorized positions established under the grant agreement without the written approval of the Department. Payments to or on behalf of enrollees in such positions shall not exceed the amount of the unused funds available. Each individual enrolled in such a position shall be informed in writing that the assignment is temporary in nature and may be terminated. The grantee shall first seek to maintain full enrollment in authorized positions and shall seek to schedule all enrollments and terminations to avoid excessive terminations at the end of the grant period.

§ 6541.319 [Reserved]

§ 641.320 Political patronage.

(a) No grantee may select, reject, promote, or terminate an individual based on that individual's political affiliations or beliefs. The selection or advancement of enrollees as a reward for political services, or as a form of political patronage, is prohibited.

(b) There shall be no selection of subgrantees or host agencies based on political affiliation.

§ 641.321 Political activities.

(a) General. No project under title V of the OAA or this part may involve political activities.

(1) No enrollee or staff person may be permitted to engage in partisan or non-partisan political activities during hours for which they are paid with SCSEP funds.

§ 641.322

(2) No enrollee or staff person, at any time, may be permitted to engage in partisan political activities in which such enrollee or staff person represents himself or herself as a spokesperson of the SCSEP program.

(3) No enrollee may be employed or out-stationed in the office of a Member of Congress, a State or local legislator, or on any staff of a legislative committee.

(4) No enrollee may be employed or out-stationed in the immediate office of any elected chief executive officer(s) of a State or unit of general government, except that:

(i) Units of local government may serve as host-agencies for enrollees in such positions, provided that such assignments are nonpolitical; and

(ii) Where assignments are technically in such offices, such assignments actually are program activities not in any way involved in political functions.

(5) No enrollee may be assigned to perform political activities in the offices of other elected officials. However, placement of enrollees in such nonpolitical assignments within the offices of such elected officials is permissible, provided that grantees develop safeguards to ensure that enrollees placed in these assignments are not involved in political activities. These safeguards shall be described in the grant agreement and shall be subject to review and monitoring by the grantee and the Department.

(b) Hatch Act. (1) State and local employees governed by 5 U.S.C. chapter 15 shall comply with the Hatch Act provisions as interpreted and applied by the Office of the Special Counsel.

(2) Each project subject to 5 U.S.C. chapter 15 shall display a notice and shall make available to each person associated with such project a written explanation, clarifying the law with respect to allowable and unallowable political activities under 5 U.S.C. chapter 15 which are applicable to the project and each category of individuals associated with such project. This notice, which shall have the approval of the Department, shall contain the telephone number and address of the DOL Inspector General. [Section 502(b)(1)(P) of the OAA.] Enforcement of the Hatch

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

Act shall be as provided at 5 U.S.C. chapter 15.

§ 641.322 Unionization.

No funds provided under title V of the OAA or this part may be used in any way to assist, promote, or deter union organizing.

§ 641.323 Nepotism.

(a) No grantee or subgrantee may hire, and no host agency may be a work site for a person who works in an administrative capacity, staff position, or community service position funded under title V of the OAA or this part if a member of that person's immediate family is engaged in a decision-making capacity (whether compensated or not) for that project, subproject, grantee, subgrantee or host agency. This provision may be waived by the Department at work sites on Native American reservations and rural areas provided that adequate justification can be documented, such as that no other persons are eligible for participation.

(b) To the extent that an applicable State or local legal requirement regarding nepotism is more restrictive than this provision, that requirement shall be followed.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) Immediate family means wife, husband, son, daughter, mother, father, brother, sister, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, stepparent, stepchild, grandparent, and grandchild.

(2) Engaged in an administrative capacity includes those persons who, in the administration of projects, or host agencies, have responsibility for, or authority over those with responsibility for, the selection of enrollees from among eligible applicants.

§ 641.324 Enrollee and applicant complaint resolution.

(a) Each grantee shall establish and describe in the grant agreement procedures for resolving complaints, other than those described by paragraph (c) of this section, arising between the grantee and an enrollee.

(b) Allegations of violations of federal law, other than those described in paragraph (c) of this section, which cannot be resolved within 60 days as a result of the grantee's procedures, may be filed with the Chief, Division of Older Worker Programs, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, DC 20210.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 641.401

(c) Grantees that do not receive any funds under the JTPA shall process complaints of discrimination in accordance with 29 CFR parts 31 and 32. Grantees that receive any funds under JTPA shall process complaints of discrimination in accordance with 29 CFR part 34.

(d) Except for complaints described in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, the Department shall limit its review to determining whether the grantee's appeal procedures were followed.

§ 641.325 Maintenance of effort.

(a) Employment of an enrollee funded under title V of the OAA or this part shall be only in addition to budgeted employment which would otherwise be funded by the grantee, subgrantee and the host agency(ies) without assistance under the OAA. [Section 502(b)(1)(F) of the OAA.]

(b) Each project funded under title V of the OAA or this part:

(1) Should result in an increase in employment opportunities in addition to those which would otherwise be available;

(2) Shall not result in the displacement of currently employed workers, including partial displacement such as a reduction in hours of non-overtime work, wages, or employment benefits;

(3) Shall not impair existing contracts for service or result in the substitution of Federal funds for other funds in connection with work that would otherwise be performed;

(4) Shall not substitute project jobs for existing federally-assisted jobs; and

(5) Shall not employ or continue to employ any enrollee to perform work which is the same or substantially the same as that performed by any other person who is on layoff. [Section 502(b)(1)(G) of the OAA.]

§ 641.326 Experimental private sector training projects.

(a) The Department may authorize a grantee to develop an experimental job training project(s) designed to provide second career training and the placement of eligible individuals in employment opportunities with private business concerns. [Section 502(e) of the OAA.]

(b) Experimental project agreements for training may be with States, public agencies, non-profit private organizations, and private business concerns.

(c) The geographic location of these projects shall be determined by the Department to insure an equitable distribution of such projects.

(d) To the extent feasible, experimental projects shall emphasize second-career training, and innovative work modes, including those with reduced physical exertion, and placement into growth industries and jobs reflecting new technologies.

(e) The Department shall establish by administrative guidelines the application schedule, content, format, allocation levels and reporting requirements for experimental projects.

(f) Current title V eligibility standards shall be used for experimental projects unless the Department permits, in writing, the use of another approved income index.

(g) Projects funded under section 502(e) of the OAA shall seek to be coordinated with projects carried out under title II-A of the JTPA to the extent feasible.

(h) National grantees shall distribute funds for experimental projects in accordance with the State allocation in their title V grant.

(i) A grantee may exclude a project, permitted under section 502(e) of the OAA, from meeting the non-federal share requirement set forth in § 641.407; however, this exclusion does not relieve the grantee from the matching requirement, under § 641.407, which applies to the entire grant.

Subpart D—Administrative Standards and Procedures for Grantees and Limitations on Federal Funds

§ 641.401 General.

This subpart establishes limitations on title V funds to be used for community service activities and describes, or incorporates by reference, requirements for the administration of grants by the SCSEP grantee.

§ 641.402

§ 641.402 Administrative requirements.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this part, title V funds shall be administered in accordance with, and subject to, the Department's regulations at 29 CFR parts 31, 32, 34, 93, 96, and 98. In addition, projects and activities administered by State, local or Indian tribal governments are also subject to the Department's administrative requirements regulations at 29 CFR part 97; projects and activities administered by institutions of higher education, hospitals, or other non-profit organizations are subject to the Department's administrative requirements regulations at 29 CFR part 95. Grantees of title V funds shall be subject to any revisions of any implementing regulations cited in this paragraph (a) on the effective date of such revisions.

(b) The administration of inter-agency agreements set forth in subpart E of this part is not subject to paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 641.403 Allowable costs.

(a) General. The allowability of costs shall be determined in accordance with the cost principles indicated in paragraph (b) of this section, except as otherwise provided in this part.

(b) Applicable Cost Principles. (1) The cost principles set forth in paragraphs (b)(1) through (4) of this section apply to the organization incurring the costs:

(i) OMB Circular A-87—State, local or Indian tribal government;

(ii) OMB Circular A-122—Private, non-profit organization other than:

and Budget, Office of Administration, Publications Unit, Room G-236, New Executive Office Building, Washington, DC 20503, or by calling 202-395-7332.

(c) Lobbying costs. In addition to the prohibition contained in 29 CFR part 93 and in accordance with limitations on the use of appropriated funds in Department of Labor Appropriation Acts, title V funds shall not be used to pay any salaries or expenses related to any activity designed to influence legislation or appropriations pending before the Congress of the United States.

(d) Building repairs and acquisition costs. No federal grant funds provided to a grantee or subgrantee under title V of the OAA or this part may be expended directly or indirectly for the purchase, erection, or repair of any building except for the labor involved in:

(1) Minor remodeling of a public building necessary to make it suitable for use by project administrators;

(2) Minor repair and rehabilitation of publicly used facilities for the general benefit of the community; and

(3) Minor repair and rehabilitation by enrollees of housing occupied by persons with low incomes who are declared eligible for such services by authorized local agencies.

(4) Accessibility and Reasonable Accommodation. Funds may be used to meet a grantee or subgrantee's obligations to provide physical and programmatic accessibility and reasonable accommodation as required by section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

(e) Allowable fringe benefit costs. The cost of the following fringe benefits are allowable: initial and annual physical assessments, annual leave, sick leave, holidays, health insurance, social security, worker's compensation and any other fringe benefits approved in the grant agreement and permitted by the appropriate Federal cost principles found in OMB Circulars A-87 and A-122, except as limited for retirement costs by § 641.311(c).

§ 641.404 Classification of costs.

All costs must be charged to one of the following three cost categories:

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 641.406

(a) Administration. The cost category of Administration shall include, but need not be limited to, the direct and indirect costs of providing:

- (1) Administration, management, and direction of a program or project;
- (2) Reports on evaluation, management, community benefits, and other aspects of project activity;
- (3) Assistance of an advisory council, if any;
- (4) Accounting and management information systems;
- (5) Training and technical assistance for grantee or subgrantee staff;
- (6) Bonding; and
- (7) Audits.

(b) Enrollee wages and fringe benefits. The cost category of Enrollee Wages and Fringe Benefits shall include wages paid to enrollees for hours of community service assignments, as described in § 641.311, including hours of training related to a community service assignment, and the costs of fringe benefits provided in accordance with § 641.311.

(c) Other enrollee costs. The cost category of Other enrollee costs shall include all costs of functions, services, and benefits not categorized as administration or enrollee wages and fringe benefits. Other enrollee costs shall include, but shall not be limited to, the direct and indirect costs of providing:

- (1) Recruitment and selection of eligible enrollees as provided in §§ 641.304 and 641.305;
- (2) Orientation of enrollees and host agencies as provided in § 641.308;
- (3) Assessment of enrollees for participation in community service assignments and evaluation of enrollees for continued participation or transition to unsubsidized employment as provided in § 641.309;
- (4) Development of appropriate community service assignments as provided in § 641.310;
- (5) Supportive services for enrollees, including transportation, as provided in § 641.312;
- (6) Training for enrollees, including tuition; and
- (7) Development of unsubsidized employment opportunities for enrollees as provided in § 641.314.

(d) Cost reductions. Grantees may lower administration costs or other enrollee costs by assigning enrollees to activities which normally would be charged to either of these cost categories. In such instances, the costs of enrollees' wages and fringe benefits shall be charged to the cost category of enrollee wages and fringe benefits. [Section 502(b)(1)(A) of the OAA.]

§ 641.405 Limitations on federal funds.

(a) The limitations on federal funds set forth in this section shall apply to SCSEP funds allotted to grantees for community service activities. Cost categories, limitations, and periods during which different limitations shall apply are set forth in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) The cost categories and the limitations which apply to them shall be:

(1) Administration. The amount of federal funds expended for the cost of administration during the program year shall be no more than 13.5 percent of the grant. The Department may increase the amount available for the cost of administration to no more than 15 percent of the project in accordance with section 502(c)(3) of the OAA.

(2) Enrollee wages and fringe benefits. The amount of federal funds budgeted for enrollee wages and fringe benefits shall be no less than 75 percent of the grant.

§ 641.406 Administrative cost waiver.

(a) Based upon information submitted by a public or private nonprofit agency or organization with which the Department has or proposes to have an agreement, as set forth under section 502(b) of the OAA, the Department may waive § 641.405(b)(1) and increase the amount available for paying the costs of administration to an amount not to exceed 15 percent of the proposed federal costs of the grant. Each waiver shall be in writing. The Department shall administer this section in accordance with section 502(c)(3) (A) and (B) of the OAA.

(b) The waiver may be provided to grantees that demonstrate and document reasonable and necessary:

- (1) Major administrative cost increases;
- (2) Operational requirements imposed by the Department;
- (3) Increased costs associated with unsubsidized placement;

§ 641.407

(4) Increased costs of providing specialized services to minority groups; and

(5) The minimum amount necessary to administer the grant relative to the available funds.

§ 641.407 Non-federal share of project costs.

The non-federal share of costs may be in cash or in-kind, or a combination of the two, and shall be calculated in accordance with 29 CFR 97.24 or 29 CFR 95.23, as appropriate. The Department shall pay not more than 90 percent of the cost of any project which is the subject of an agreement entered into under the OAA, except that the Department is authorized to pay all of the costs of any such project which is:

- (a) An emergency or disaster project;
- (b) A project located in an economically depressed area as determined by the Secretary of Labor in consultation with the Secretary of Commerce and the Director of the Office of Community Services of the Department of Health and Human Services;
- (c) A project which is exempted by law; or
- (d) A project serving an Indian reservation that can demonstrate it cannot provide adequate non-federal resources. [Sections 502(c) and 502(e) of the OAA.]

§ 641.408 Budget changes.

As an exception to 29 CFR 97.30(c)(1), Budget changes, 29 CFR 95.25, Revision of budget and program plans, the movement of Enrollee wages and fringe benefits to any other budget category shall not be permitted without prior written approval of the awarding agency. The Department shall not approve any budget change which would result in non-compliance with § 641.405(b)(2).

§ 641.409 Grantee fiscal and performance reporting requirements.

(a) In accordance with 29 CFR 97.40 or 29 CFR 95.51, as appropriate, each grantee shall submit a Senior Community Service Employment Program Quarterly Progress Report (QPR). This report shall be prepared to coincide with the ending dates for Federal fiscal year quarters and shall be submitted to the Department no later than 30 days after the end of the quarterly reporting period unless a waiver is provided. If the grant period ends on a date other than the last day of a federal fiscal year quarter, the last quarterly report covering the entire grant period shall be submitted no later than 30 days after the ending date unless a waiver is provided. The Department shall provide instructions for the preparation of this report.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) In accordance with 29 CFR 97.41 or 29 CFR 95.52, as appropriate, the following financial reporting requirements apply to title V grants:

(1) An SF-269, Financial Status Report (FSR), shall be submitted to the Department within 30 days after the ending of each quarter of the program year unless a waiver is provided. A final FSR shall be submitted within 90 days after the end of the grant unless a waiver is provided.

(2) All FSR's shall be prepared on an accrual basis.

(c) In accordance with Departmental instructions, an equitable distribution report of SCSEP positions by all grantees in each State shall be submitted annually by the State agency receiving title V funds or another project sponsor designated by the Department. (Approved under the Office of Management and Budget Control No. 1205-0040)

§ 641.410 Subgrant agreements.

(a) The grantee is responsible for the performance of all activities implemented under subgrant agreements and for compliance by the subgrantee with the OAA and this part.

(b) No subgrant or other subagreement may provide for any expenditure of funds beyond the ending date of the grant agreement.

(c) For purposes of this part, procurement, as described in 29 CFR part 97 and 29 CFR 95.40 through 95.48, does not include the award or administration of subgrant agreements.

§ 641.411 Program income accountability.

Any of the methods described at 29 CFR 97.25 or 29 CFR 95.24, as appropriate, may be used to account for program income.

§ 641.412 Equipment.

Equipment purchased by a State grantee with title V funds prior to July 1, 1989, shall be subject to 29 CFR 97.32.

§ 641.413 Audits.

Each grantee is responsible for complying with the Single Audit Act of 1984 (31 U.S.C. 7501 et seq.) and 29 CFR part 96, the Department of Labor regulation which implements Office of Management and Budget Circular A-128, "Audits of State and Local Governments"; or OMB Circular 133, "Audits of Institutions of Higher Education and Other Nonprofit Institutions", as appropriate.

§ 641.414 Grant closeout procedures.

Grantees shall follow the grant closeout procedures at 29 CFR 97.50 or 29 CFR 95.71, as appropriate. As necessary, the Department shall issue supplementary closeout instructions for all title V grantees.

§ 641.415 Department of Labor appeals procedures for grantees.

(a) This section sets forth the procedures by which the grantee may appeal a SCSEP final determination by the Department relating to costs, payments, notices of suspension, and notices of termination other than those resulting from an audit. Appeals of suspensions and terminations for discrimination shall be processed under 29 CFR part 31, 32, or 34, as appropriate.

(b) Appeals from a final disallowance of cost as a result of an audit shall be made pursuant to 29 CFR part 96, subpart 96.6.

(c) Upon a grantee's receipt of the Department's final determination relating to costs (except final disallowance of cost as a result of an audit), payments, suspension or termination, the grantee may appeal the final determination to the Department's Office of Administrative Law Judges, as follows:

(1) Within 21 days of receipt of the Department's final determination, the grantee may transmit by certified mail, return receipt requested, a request for a hearing to the Chief Administrative Law Judge, United States Department of Labor, 800 K Street, NW., room 400 N, Washington, DC 20001 with a copy to the Department official who signed the final determination. The Chief Administrative Law Judge shall designate an administrative law judge to hear the appeal.

(2) The request for hearing shall be accompanied by a copy of the final determination, if issued, and shall state specifically those issues of the determination upon which review is requested. Those provisions of the determination not specified for review, or the entire determination when no hearing has been requested, shall be considered resolved and not subject to further review.

(3) The Rules of Practice and Procedures for Administrative Hearings Before the Office of Administrative Law Judges, set forth at 29 CFR part 18, shall govern the conduct of hearings under this section, except that:

(i) The appeal shall not be considered a complaint; and

(ii) Technical rules of evidence, such as the Federal Rules of Evidence and subpart B of 29 CFR part 18, shall not apply to any hearing conducted pursuant to this section. However, rules designed to assure production of the most credible evidence available and to subject testimony to test by cross-examination shall be applied where reasonably necessary by the administrative law judge conducting the hearing. The certified copy of the administrative file transmitted to the administrative law judge by the official issuing the final determination shall be part of the evidentiary record of the case and need not be moved into evidence.

(4) The administrative law judge should render a written decision no later than 90 days after the closing of the record.

(5) The decision of the administrative law judge shall constitute final action by the Secretary of Labor unless, within 21 days after receipt of the decision of the administrative law judge, a party dissatisfied with the decision, or any part thereof, has filed exceptions with the Secretary of Labor specifically identifying the procedures, fact, law, or policy to which exception is taken. Any exception not specifically urged shall be deemed to have been waived. Thereafter, the decision of the administrative law judge shall become the decision of the Secretary unless the

§ 641.501

Secretary of Labor, within 30 days of such filing, has notified the parties that the case has been accepted for review.

(6) Any case accepted for review by the Secretary of Labor shall be decided within 180 days of such acceptance. If not so decided, the decision of the administrative law judge shall become the final decision of the Secretary of Labor.

Subpart E—Interagency Agreements

§ 641.501 Administration.

(a) Federal establishments other than the Department of Labor which receive and use funds under title V of the OAA or this part shall submit to DOL project fiscal and progress reports as described in § 641.409.

(b) Non-DOL federal establishments which receive and use funds under title V shall maintain the standard records on individual enrollees and enrollee activities, in accordance with this part.

(c) The Department may provide title V funds to another federal agency by a non-expenditure transfer authorization or by payments on an advance or reimbursement basis.

(d) In aspects of project administration other than those described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, federal establishments which receive and use funds under title V of the OAA may use their normal administrative procedures.

Subpart F—Assessment and Evaluation

§ 641.601 General.

The Department shall assess each grantee and subgrantee to determine whether it is carrying out the purposes and provisions of title V of the OAA and this part in accordance with the OAA, this part and the grant or other agreements. The Department also shall evaluate the overall program conducted under title V of the OAA or this part to aid in the administration of the SCSEP. The Department and individuals designated by the Department may make site visits and conduct such other monitoring activities as determined by SCSEP needs.

20 CFR Ch. V (4–1–03 Edition)

§ 641.602 Limitation.

In arranging for the assessment of a grantee, or the evaluation of a subgrantee, or the evaluation of the overall program under title V of the OAA or this part, the Department shall not use any individual, institution, or organization associated with any project under title V of the OAA.

Subpart A—Scope and Purpose

§ 645.100 What does this part cover?

(a) Subpart A establishes regulatory provisions that apply to the Welfare-to-Work (WtW) programs conducted at the State and at the local area levels.

(b) Subpart B provides general program requirements applicable to all WtW formula and competitive funds. The provisions of this subpart govern how WtW funds must be spent, who is eligible to participate in the program, allowable activities and their relationship to TANF, Governor's projects for long-term recipients, administrative and fiscal provisions, and program oversight requirements. This subpart also addresses worker protections and the establishment of a State grievance system.

(c) Subpart C sets forth additional administrative standards and procedures for WtW Formula Grants, such as matching requirements and reallocation procedures.

(d) Subpart D sets forth the conditions under which the Governor may request a waiver to designate an alternate administering agency, sets forth the formula elements that must be included in the within-State distribution formula, the submission of a State annual plan, the factors for measuring State performance, and the roles and responsibilities of the States and the local boards or alternate administering agencies.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(e) Subpart E outlines general conditions and requirements for the WtW Competitive Grants.

(f) Subpart F sets forth the administrative appeals process.

(g) Regulatory provisions applicable to the Indian and Native American Welfare-to-Work Program (INA WtW) are found at 20 CFR part 646.

§ 645.110 What are the purposes of the Welfare-to-Work Program?

The purposes of the WtW program are:

(a) To facilitate the placement of hard-to-employ welfare recipients and certain noncustodial parents into transitional employment opportunities which will lead to lasting unsubsidized employment and self-sufficiency;

(b) To provide a variety of activities, grounded in TANF's "work first" philosophy, to prepare individuals for, and to place them in, lasting unsubsidized employment;

(c) To provide for a variety of post-employment and job retention services which will assist the hard-to-employ welfare recipient and certain noncustodial parents to secure lasting unsubsidized employment;

(d) To provide targeted WtW funds to high poverty areas with large numbers of hard-to-employ welfare recipients.

§ 645.120 What definitions apply to this part?

The following definitions apply under this part:

Act means Title IV, Part A of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 601-619.

Adult means an individual who is not a minor child.

Chief Elected Official(s) (CEOs) means:

(1) The chief elected official of the sole unit of general local government in the service delivery area.

(2) The individual or individuals selected by the chief elected officials of all units of general local government in such area as their authorized representative, or

(3) In the case of a service delivery area designated under section 101(a)(4)(A)(iii) of JTPA, the representative of the chief elected official for such area (as defined in section 4(4)(C) of JTPA) or as defined in section 101 of the Workforce Investment Act of 1988.

Competitive grants means those grants in which WtW funds have been awarded by the Department under a competitive application process to local governments, PICs, and private entities (such as community development corporations, community-based and faith-based organizations, disability community organizations, and community action agencies) who apply in conjunction with a PIC or local government.

Department or DOL means the U.S. Department of Labor.

Employment activities means the activities enumerated at § 645.220(b).

ETA means the Employment and Training Administration of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Fiscal year (FY) means any 12-month period ending on September 30 of a calendar year.

Formula grants means those grants in which WtW funds have been allotted to each Welfare-to-Work State, based on a formula prescribed by the Act, which equally considers States' shares of the national number of poor individuals and of adult recipients of assistance under TANF. The State is required to distribute not less than 85 percent of the allotted formula grant funds to service delivery areas in the State; and the State may retain not more than 15 percent for projects to help long-term recipients of assistance enter unsubsidized employment. Unless otherwise specified, the term "formula grant" refers to the 85 percent and 15 percent funds.

Governor means the Chief Executive Officer of a State.

IV-D Agency (Child Support Enforcement) means the organizational unit in the State that has the responsibility for administering or supervising the administration of the State plan under title IV-D of the Act (SSA).

Job Training Partnership Act or JTPA means Public Law (Pub. L.) 97-300, as amended, 29 U.S.C. 1501, et seq.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 645.125

Local area means a local workforce investment area designated under section 116 of the Workforce investment Act of 1998, or a service delivery area designated under section 101 of the Job Training partnership Act, as appropriate.

Local workforce investment board (local board) means a local board established under section 117 of the Workforce Investment Act, or a Private Industry Council established under section 102 of the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA), which performs the functions authorized at section 103 of the JTPA, or an alternate administering agency designated under section 405(a)(5)(A)(vii)(II) of the Act and § 645.400 of this part.

Minor child means an individual who has not attained 18 years of age, or has not attained 19 years of age and is a full-time student in a secondary school (or in the equivalent level of vocational or technical training).

MOE means maintenance of effort. Under TANF, States are required to maintain a certain level of spending on welfare based on "historic" FY 1994 expenditure levels (Section 409(a)(7) of the Act).

PIC means a Private Industry Council established under Section 102 of the Job Training Partnership Act, which performs the functions authorized at Section 103 of the JTPA.

Political subdivision of a State means a unit of general purpose local government, as provided for in State laws and/or Constitution, which has the power to levy taxes and spend funds and which also has general corporate and police powers.

Private entity means any organization, public or private, which is not a local board, PIC or alternate administering agency or a political subdivision of a State.

PRWORA means the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law (Pub. L.) 104-193, which established the TANF program.

SDA means a service delivery area designated under section 101 of the Job Training Partnership Act or a local area designated under section 116 of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998, as appropriate.

Secretary means the Secretary of Labor.

Separate State program means a program operated outside of TANF in which the expenditures of State funds may count for TANF MOE purposes.

State means the 50 States of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the US Virgin Islands, Guam, and American Samoa, unless otherwise specified.

State TANF Program means those funds expended under the State Family Assistance Grant (SFAG), the basic block grant allocated to the States under Section 403(a)(1) of the Act.

TANF means Temporary Assistance for Needy Families Program established under PRWORA.

TANF MOE means the expenditure of State funds that must be made in order to meet the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families Maintenance of Effort requirement.

Unemployed means the individual is without a job and wants and is available for work.

WIA means the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (Pub. L. 105-220)(29 U.S.C. 2801 et seq.).

WtW means Welfare-to-Work.

WtW State means those States that the Secretary of Labor determines have met the five conditions established at Section 403(a)(5)(A)(ii) of the Act. Only States that are determined to be WtW States can receive WtW grant funds.

WtW statute means those provisions of the Balanced Budget Act of 1997 containing certain amendments to PRWORA and establishing the new Welfare-to-Work program, amending Title IV of the Social Security Act, (codified at 42 U.S.C. 601-619).

§ 645.125 What are the roles of the local and State governmental partners in the governance of the WtW program?

(a) Local boards or alternate administering agencies, in coordination with CEO's should establish policies, interpretations, guidelines and definitions to implement provisions of the WtW statute to the extent that such policies, interpretations, guidelines and definitions are not inconsistent with the WtW statute or regulations or with State policies.

§ 645.130

(b) States should establish policies, interpretations, guidelines and definitions to implement provisions of the WtW statute to the extent that such policies, interpretations, guidelines and definitions are not inconsistent with the WtW statute or regulations.

(c) The Secretary, in consultation with other Federal Agencies, as appropriate, may publish guidance on interpretations of statutory and regulatory provisions. State and local policies, interpretations, guidelines and definitions that are consistent with interpretations contained in such guidance will be considered to be consistent with the WtW statute for purposes of this section.

§ 645.130 What are the effective dates for the Welfare-to-Work 1999 Amendments?

The legislative changes made by the 1999 amendments:

(a) Are effective on November 29, 1999, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section;

(b) Provisions relating to the eligibility of participants for WtW competitive grants are effective on January 1, 2000;

(c)(1) Provisions relating to the eligibility of participants for WtW formula grants are effective on July 1, 2000, except that expenditures from allotments to the States, as discussed in § 645.135 of this subpart, must not have been made before October 1, 2000, for individuals who would not have been eligible under the criteria in effect before the changes made by the 1999 Amendments;

(2) Provisions authorizing pre-placement vocational educational training and job training for WtW formula grants, at § 645.220(b) of this part, are effective on July 1, 2000, except that expenditures from allotments to the States, as discussed in § 645.135 of this subpart, must not have been made before October 1, 2000.

§ 645.135 What is the effective date for spending Federal Welfare-to-Work formula funds on newly eligible participants and newly authorized services?

States and local areas may expend matching funds beginning July 1, 2000.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

States and local areas may incur unpaid obligations within the normal course of business, beginning July 1, 2000, provided that the timing of those transactions ensures that drawdown of federal Welfare-to-Work formula funds to liquidate the obligations did not occur until October 1, 2000.

Subpart B—General Program and Administrative Requirements

§ 645.200 What does this subpart cover?

This subpart provides general program and administrative requirements for WtW formula funds, including Governors' funds for long-term recipients of assistance, and for competitive grant funding (section 403(a)(5)).

§ 645.210 What is meant by the terms “entity” and “project” in the statutory phrase “an entity that operates a project” with Welfare-to-Work funds?

The terms “entity” and “project”, in the statutory phrase “an entity that operates a project”, means:

(a) For WtW substate formula funds:

(1) “Entity” means the PIC, local board (or the alternate administering agency designated by the Governor and approved by the Secretary pursuant to § 645.400 of this part) which administers the WtW substate formula funds in a local area(s). This entity is referred to in §§ 645.211 through 645.225 of this part as the “operating entity.”

(2) “Project” means all activities, administrative and programmatic, supported by the total amount of the WtW substate formula funds allotted to the entity described in section (a)(1) of this paragraph.

(b) For WtW Governors' funds for long-term recipients of assistance:

(1) “Entity” means the agency, group, or organization to which the Governor has distributed any of the funds for long-term recipients of assistance, as described in § 645.410 (b) and (c) of this part. This entity is referred to in §§ 645.211 through 645.225 of this part as the “operating entity.”

(2) “Project” means all activities, administrative and programmatic, supported by the total amount of one discrete award of WtW Governors' funds for long-term recipients of assistance awarded to the entity described in section (b)(1) of this paragraph.

(c) For competitive WtW funds:

(1) "Entity" means an eligible applicant, as described in §645.500 of this part, which is awarded a competitive WtW grant. This entity is referred to in §§ 645.211 through 645.225 of this part as the "operating entity."

(2) "Project" means all of the activities, administrative and programmatic, supported by the total amount of one discrete WtW competitive grant awarded to the entity described in section (c)(1) of this paragraph (section 403(a)(5)(C)).

§ 645.211 How must Welfare-to-Work funds be spent by the operating entity?

An operating entity, as described in §645.210 of this subpart, may spend not more than 30 percent of the WtW funds allotted to or awarded to the operating entity to assist individuals who meet the "other eligibles" eligibility requirements under §645.213 of this subpart. The remaining funds allotted to or awarded to the operating entity are to be spent to benefit individuals who meet the "general eligibility" and/or "noncustodial parents" eligibility requirements, under §645.212 of this subpart. (section 403(a)(5)(C) of the Act).

§ 645.212 Who may be served under the general eligibility and noncustodial parent eligibility (primary eligibility) provision?

An individual may be served under this provision if:

(a)(1) (S)he is currently receiving TANF assistance under a State TANF program, and/or its predecessor program, for at least 30 months, although the months do not have to be consecutive; or

(2) (S)he will become ineligible for assistance within 12 months due to either Federal or State-imposed time limits on the receipt of TANF assistance. This criterion includes individuals (as well as children of noncustodial parents) exempted from the time limits due to hardship under section 408(a)(7)(C) of the Act or due to a waiver because of domestic violence under section 402(a)(7) of the Act, who would become ineligible for assistance within 12 months without the exemption or waiver;

(b) (S)he is no longer receiving TANF assistance because (s)he has reached either the Federal five-year limit or a State-imposed time limit on receipt of TANF assistance (section 403(a)(5)(C) of the Act); or

(c) (S)he is a noncustodial parent of a minor child if:

(1) The noncustodial parent is:

(i) "Unemployed," as defined in §645.120 of this part,

(ii) "Underemployed," as defined by the State in consultation with local boards and WtW competitive grantees, or

(iii) "Having difficulty paying child support obligations," as defined by the State in consultation with local boards and WtW competitive grantees and the State Child Support Enforcement (IV-D) Agency, and

(2) At least one of the following applies:

(i) The minor child, or the custodial parent of the minor child, meets the long-term recipient of TANF requirements of paragraph (a) of this section;

(ii) The minor child is receiving or is eligible for TANF benefits and services;

(iii) The minor child received TANF benefits and services during the preceding year; or

(iv) The minor child is receiving or eligible for assistance under the Food Stamp program, the Supplemental Security Income program, Medicaid, or the Children's Health Insurance Program; and

(3) The noncustodial parent is in compliance with the terms of a written or oral personal responsibility contract meeting the requirements of §645.215 of this subpart.

(d) For purposes of determining whether an individual is receiving TANF assistance in paragraphs (a)(1) of this section and §645.213(a), TANF assistance means any TANF benefits and services for the financially needy according to the appropriate income and resource criteria (if applicable) specified in the State TANF plan.

§ 645.213

§ 645.213 Who may be served as an individual in the “other eligibles” (30 percent) provision?

Any individual may be served under this provision if (s)he:

(a) Is currently receiving TANF assistance (as described in § 645.212(d)) and either:

(1) Has characteristics associated with, or predictive of, long-term welfare dependence, such as having dropped out of school, teenage pregnancy, or having a poor work history. States, in consultation with the operating entity, may designate additional characteristics associated with, or predictive, of long term-welfare dependence; or

(2) Has significant barriers to self-sufficiency, under criteria established by the local board or alternate administering agency.

(b) Was in foster care under the responsibility of the State before s(he) attained 18 years of age and is at least 18 but not 25 years of age or older at the time of application for WtW. Eligible individuals include those who were recipients of foster care maintenance payments as defined in section 475(4) under part E of the Social Security Act, or

(c)(1) Is a custodial parent with income below 100 percent of the poverty line, determined in accordance with the most recent HHS Poverty Guidelines established under section 673(2) of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981 (Pub. L. 97-35), including any revisions required by such section, applicable to a family of the size involved.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (c)(1) of this section, income is defined as total family income for the last six months, exclusive of unemployment compensation, child support payments, and old-age and survivors benefits received under section 202 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 402).

(3) A custodial parent with a disability whose own income meets the requirements of a program described in paragraph (c)(1) or (c)(3)(i) but who is a member of a family whose income does not meet such requirements is considered to have met the requirements of paragraph (c)(1) of this section.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 645.214 How will Welfare-to-Work participant eligibility be determined?

(a) The operating entity, as described in § 645.210(a)(1), (b)(1), and (c)(1) of this subpart, is accountable for ensuring that WtW funds are spent only on individuals eligible for WtW projects.

(b) The operating entity must ensure that there are mechanisms in place to determine WtW eligibility for individuals who are receiving TANF assistance. These mechanisms:

(1) Must include arrangements with the TANF agency to ensure that a WtW eligibility determination is based on information, current at the time of the WtW eligibility determination, about whether an individual is receiving TANF assistance, the length of receipt of TANF assistance, and when an individual may become ineligible for assistance, pursuant to §§ 645.212 and 645.213 of this part (section 403(a)(5)(I)(A)(ii)(dd)).

(2) May include a determination of WtW eligibility for characteristics of long-term welfare dependence and for significant barriers to self-sufficiency under § 645.213(a) of this subpart, based on information collected by the operating entity and/or the TANF agency up to six months prior to the WtW eligibility determination.

(c) The operating entity must ensure that there are mechanisms in place to determine WtW eligibility for individuals who have reached the time limit on receipt of TANF, under § 645.212(b) of this subpart; individuals who are not receiving TANF assistance (i.e., non-custodial parents under § 645.212(c) of this subpart; individuals who are former foster care recipients under § 645.213(b) of this subpart, and low-income custodial parents under § 645.213(c) of this subpart). The mechanisms for establishing noncustodial parent eligibility must include a process for applying the preference required under § 645.215(a) of this subpart, and may include an objective standard to be used as a presumptive determination for establishing the eligibility of the minor child for the programs specified in § 645.212(c)(2)(iv) of this subpart.

§ 645.215 What must a WtW operating entity that serves noncustodial parent participants do?

(a) In programs that serve noncustodial parents, the operating entity must give preference to those noncustodial parents who qualify under § 645.212(c)(2)(i) of this subpart over other noncustodial parents. The preference for admission into the program applies only to noncustodial parents and not to any other group eligible under the “general eligibility” provisions of § 645.212(a) or (b) or the “other eligibles” provisions of § 645.213. The preference does not require that the category of noncustodial parents eligible under § 645.212(c)(2)(i) must be exhausted before any other category of eligible noncustodial parents may be served. The operating entity may establish a process that gives preference to noncustodial parents eligible under § 645.212(c)(2)(i) and that also provides WtW services to noncustodial parents eligible under the other provisions of § 645.212(c)(2).

(b) In order to protect custodial parents and children who may be at risk of domestic violence, the operating entity must consult with domestic violence prevention and intervention organizations in the development of its WtW project serving noncustodial parents; and must not require the cooperation of the custodial parent as a condition of participation in the WtW program for either parent; and

(c) The operating entity must ensure that personal responsibility contracts:

(1) Take into account the employment and child support status of the noncustodial parent;

(2) Include all of the following parties:

(i) The noncustodial parent,

(ii) The operating entity, and

(iii) The agency responsible for administering the State Child Support Enforcement program as described under Title IV–D of the Act, unless the operating entity demonstrates to the Secretary of Labor with written documentation that it is not able to coordinate with the State IV–D agency;

(3) Include the following elements:

(i) A commitment by the noncustodial parent to cooperate:

(A) In the establishment of paternity (if the participant is male) of the minor child at the earliest opportunity, through voluntary acknowledgment or other procedures, and

(B) In the establishment of a child support order;

(ii) A commitment by the noncustodial parent to cooperate in the payment of child support for the minor child. This commitment may include a modification of an existing support order to take into account:

(A) The ability of the noncustodial parent to pay such support; and

(B) The participation of the noncustodial parent in the WtW program, and

(iii) A commitment by the noncustodial parent to participate in employment or related activities that will enable the noncustodial parent to make regular child support payments. For noncustodial parents who have not reached 20 years of age, such activities may include:

(A) Completion of high school,

(B) Earning a general equivalency degree, or

(C) Participating in other education directly related to employment;

(iv) A description of the services to be provided to the noncustodial parent under the WtW program;

(4) Contain a commitment by the noncustodial parent to participate in the services that are described in the personal responsibility contract under paragraph (c)(3)(iv) of this section; and

(5) Be entered into no later than thirty (30) days after the individual is enrolled in and is receiving services through a WtW project funded under this part, unless the operating entity has determined that good cause exists to extend this period. This extension may not extend to a date more than ninety (90) days after the individual is enrolled in and receiving services through a WtW project funded under this part.

§ 645.220 What activities are allowable under this part?

Entities operating WtW projects may use WtW funds for the following:

(a) Job readiness activities, subject to the requirements of § 645.221 of this subpart.

§ 645.221

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) Vocational educational training or job training. A participant is limited to six calendar months of such training if (s)he is not also employed or participating in an employment activity, as described in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Employment activities which consist of any of the following:

- (1) Community service programs;
- (2) Work experience programs;
- (3) Job creation through public or private sector employment wage subsidies; and
- (4) On-the-job training.

(d) Job placement services subject to the requirements of § 645.221 of this subpart.

(e) Post-employment services which are provided after an individual is placed in one of the employment activities listed in paragraph (c) of this section, or in any other subsidized or unsubsidized job, subject to the requirements of § 645.221 of this subpart. Post-employment services include such services as:

- (1) Basic educational skills training;
- (2) Occupational skills training;
- (3) English as a second language training; and
- (4) Mentoring.

(f) Job retention services and support services that are provided after an individual is placed in a job readiness activity, as specified in paragraph (a) of this section; in vocational education or job training, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section; in one of the employment activities, as specified in paragraph (c) of this section, or in any other subsidized or unsubsidized job. WtW participants who are enrolled in Workforce Investment Act (WIA) or JTPA activities, such as occupational skills training, may also receive job retention and support services funded with WtW monies while they are participating in WIA activities. Job retention and support services can be provided with WtW funds only if they are not otherwise available to the participant. Job retention and support services include such services as:

- (1) Transportation assistance;
- (2) Substance abuse treatment (except that WtW funds may not be used to provide medical treatment);
- (3) Child care assistance;

(4) Emergency or short term housing assistance; and

(5) Other supportive services.

(g) Individual development accounts which are established in accordance with the Act.

(h) Outreach, recruitment, intake, assessment, eligibility determination, development of an individualized service strategy, and case management may be incorporated in the design of any of the allowable activities listed in paragraphs (a) through (g) of this section (section 403(a)(5)(C) of the Act).

§ 645.221 For what activities and services must local boards use contracts or vouchers?

(a) Local boards and PIC's must provide the following activities and services through vouchers or contracts with public or private providers: the job readiness activities described in § 645.220(a) of this subpart, the job placement services described in § 645.220(d) of this subpart, and the post-employment services described in § 645.220(e) of this subpart. Job placement services provided with contracts or vouchers are subject to the payment requirements at § 645.230(a)(3) of this subpart. If an operating entity is not a local board or a PIC, it may provide such services directly.

(b) Local boards and PIC's which are directly providing job readiness activities or job placement and/or post-employment services must conform to the requirement in paragraph (a) of this section, to provide such services through contract or voucher, by February 12, 2001.

§ 645.225 How do Welfare-to-Work activities relate to activities provided through TANF and other related programs?

(a) Activities provided through WtW must be coordinated effectively at the State and local levels with activities being provided through TANF (section 403(a)(5)(A)(vii)(II)).

(b) The operating entity must ensure that there is an assessment of skills, prior work experience, employability, and other relevant information in place for each WtW participant. Where appropriate, the assessment performed by the TANF agency or JTPA should be used for this purpose.

(c) The operating entity must ensure that there is an individualized strategy for transition to unsubsidized employment in place for each participant which takes into account participant assessments, including the TANF assessment and any JTPA assessment. Where appropriate, the TANF individual responsibility plan (IRP), a WIA individual employment plan, or a JTPA individual service strategy should be used for this purpose.

(d) Coordination of resources should include not only those available through WtW and TANF grant funds, and the Child Care and Development Block Grant, but also those available through other related activities and programs such as the WIA or JTPA programs (One-Stop systems), the State employment service, private sector employers, labor organizations, business and trade associations, education agencies, housing agencies, community development corporations, transportation agencies, community-based and faith-based organizations, disability community organizations, community action agencies, and colleges and universities which provide some of the assistance needed by the targeted population (section 402(a)(5)(A)).

§ 645.230 What general fiscal and administrative rules apply to the use of Federal funds?

(a) Uniform fiscal and administrative requirements.

(1) State, local, and Indian tribal government organizations are required to follow the common rule “Uniform Administrative Requirements for Grants and Cooperative Agreements to State and Local Governments” which is codified in the DOL regulations at 29 CFR part 97.

(2) Institutions of higher education, hospitals, and other non-profit organizations and other commercial organizations are required to follow OMB Circular A-110 which is codified in the DOL regulations at 29 CFR part 95.

(3) In addition to the requirements at 29 CFR 95.48 and 29 CFR 97.36(i), contracts or vouchers for job placement services supported by funds provided for this program must include a provision to require that at least one-half

(½) of the payment occur after an eligible individual placed into the workforce has been in the workforce for six (6) months. This provision applies only to placement in unsubsidized jobs (section 403(a)(5)(C)(i)).

(4) In addition to the requirements at 29 CFR 95.42 and 29 CFR 97.36(b)(3) which address codes of conduct and conflict of interest issues related to employees, it is also required that:

(i) A local board or alternate administering agency member shall neither cast a vote on, nor participate in, any decision making capacity on the provision of services by such member (or any organization which that member directly represents), nor on any matter which would provide any direct financial benefit to that member or a member of his immediate family; and

(ii) Neither membership on the local board or alternate administering agency nor the receipt of WtW funds to provide training and related services shall be construed, by itself, to violate these conflict of interest provisions.

(5) The addition method, described at 29 CFR 97.25(g)(2), is required for the use of all program income earned under WtW grants. When the cost of generating program income has been charged to the program, the gross amount earned must be added to the WtW program. However, the cost of generating program income must be subtracted from the amount earned to establish the net amount of program income available for use under the grants when these costs have not been charged to the WtW program.

(6) Any excess revenue over costs incurred for services provided by a governmental or non-profit entity must be included in program income earned.

(b) Audit requirements. All recipients and subrecipients of Department of Labor WtW awards must comply with the audit requirements codified at 29 CFR part 96.

(1) All governmental and non-profit organizations must follow the audit requirements of OMB Circular A-133 which is codified at 29 CFR part 99. This requirement is imposed at 29 CFR 97.26 for governmental organizations and at 29 CFR 95.26 for institutions of higher education, hospitals, and other non-profit organizations.

(2) The Department is responsible for audits of commercial organizations which are direct recipients of WtW grants.

(3) Commercial organizations which are WtW subrecipients and which expend more than the minimum level specified in OMB Circular A-133 ($300,000 as of April 15, 1999) must have either an organization-wide audit conducted in accordance with 29 CFR part 99 or a program specific financial and compliance audit.

(c) Allowable costs/cost principles. The DOL regulations at 29 CFR 95.27 and 29 CFR 97.22 identify the Federal principles for determining allowable costs which each kind of recipient and subrecipient must follow. For those selected items of cost requiring prior approval, the authority to grant or deny approval is delegated to the Governor.

(1) State, local, and Indian tribal government organizations must determine allowability of costs in accordance with the provisions of OMB Circular A-87, "Cost Principles for State and Local Governments."

(2) Non-profit organizations must determine allowability of costs in accordance with OMB Circular A-122, "Cost Principles for Non-Profit Organizations."

(3) Institutions of higher education must determine allowability of costs in accordance with OMB Circular A-21, "Cost Principles for Education Institutions."

(4) Hospitals must determine allowability of costs in accordance with the provisions of Appendix E of 45 CFR Part 74, "Principles for Determining Costs Applicable to Research and Development Under Grants and Contracts with Hospitals."

(5) Commercial organizations and those non-profit organizations listed in Attachment C to OMB Circular A-122 must determine allowability of costs in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) at 48 CFR Part 31.

(d) Information technology costs. In addition to the allowable cost provisions identified in § 645.235 of this subpart, the costs of information technology—computer hardware and software—will only be allowable under WtW grants when such computer technology is

"Year 2000 compliant." To meet this requirement, information technology must be able to accurately process date/time data (including, but not limited to, calculating, comparing and sequencing) from, into and between the twentieth and twenty-first centuries, and the years 1999 and 2000. The information technology must also be able to make leap year calculations. Furthermore, "Year 2000 compliant" information technology when used in combination with other technology shall accurately process date/time data if the other information technology properly exchanges date/time data with it.

(e) Prohibition on Construction or Purchase of Facilities. WtW federal funds may not be used to pay for the construction or purchase of facilities or buildings.

(f) Prohibition on Business Start-up Costs. WtW federal funds may not be used to cover the costs of business start-up and/or capital ventures.

(g) Government-wide debarment and suspension, and government-wide drug-free workplace requirements. All WtW grant recipients and subrecipients are required to comply with:

(1) Government-wide requirements for debarment and suspension which are codified at 29 CFR part 98, subparts A through E; and

(2) The government-wide requirements for a drug-free workplace. Recipients and subrecipients are required to comply with 29 CFR part 98, subpart F, except that the definition of "grantee" shall be read to include recipients and subrecipients.

(h) Restrictions on Lobbying. All WtW grant recipients and subrecipients are required to comply with the restrictions on lobbying which are codified in the DOL regulations at 29 CFR Part 93.

(i) Nondiscrimination. All WtW grant recipients and subrecipients are required to comply with the nondiscrimination provisions codified in the DOL regulations at 29 CFR parts 31 and 32. In addition, 29 CFR part 37 applies to recipients of WtW financial assistance who are also WIA recipients and applies to recipients of WtW financial assistance who operate programs that are part of the One-Stop system established under the Workforce Investment Act, to the extent that the WtW programs and activities are being conducted as part of the One-Stop delivery system. Furthermore, WtW programs that are part of larger State agencies that are recipients of WIA title I financial assistance must also comply with the provisions of 29 CFR part 37. For purposes of this paragraph, the term “recipient” has the same meaning as the term is defined in 29 CFR part 37. That part also contains participant rights related to non-discrimination.

(j) Nepotism. (1) No individual may be placed in a WtW employment activity if a member of that person’s immediate family is engaged in an administrative capacity for the employing agency.

(2) To the extent that an applicable State or local legal requirement regarding nepotism is more restrictive than this provision, such State or local requirement shall be followed.

§ 645.233 What are the time limitations on the expenditure of Welfare-to-Work grant funds?

(a) Formula grant funds: The maximum time limit for the expenditure of a given fiscal year allotment is three years from the effective date of the Federal grant award to the State. The maximum time limit will be allowed and will be specified in the Department’s formula grant document for each fiscal year of funds provided to the State. Any remaining funds that have not been expended at the end of the expenditure period must be returned to the Department in accordance with the applicable closeout procedures for formula grants.

(b) Competitive grant funds: The maximum time limit for the expenditure of these funds is three years from the effective date of award, but will, in all cases, be determined by the grant period and the terms and conditions specified in the Federal grant award agreement (including any applicable grant modification documents). Any remaining funds that have not been expended at the end of the approved grant period must be returned to the Department in accordance with the applicable closeout procedures for competitive grants (section 503(a)(5)(C)(vii)).

§ 645.235 What types of activities are subject to the administrative cost limit on Welfare-to-Work grants?

(a) Administrative cost limitation (section 404(b)(1)).—(1) Formula grants to states. Expenditures for administrative purposes under WtW formula grants to States are limited to fifteen percent (15%) of the grant award.

(2) Competitive grants. The limitation on expenditures for administrative purposes under WtW competitive grants will be specified in the grant agreement but in no case shall the limitation be more than fifteen percent (15%) of the grant award.

(3) Although administrative in nature, costs of information technology—computer hardware and software—needed for tracking and monitoring of WtW program, participant, or performance requirements, are excluded from the administrative cost limit calculation.

(b) The costs of administration are that allocable portion of necessary and allowable costs associated with those specific functions identified in paragraph (c) of this section for the administration of the WtW program and which are not related to the direct provision of services to participants. These costs can be both personnel and non-personnel and both direct and indirect.

(c) The costs of administration are the costs associated with performing the following functions:

(1) Performing overall general administrative functions and coordination of those functions under WtW including:

(i) Accounting, budgeting, financial and cash management functions;

(ii) Procurement and purchasing functions;

(iii) Property management functions;

(iv) Personnel management functions;

(v) Payroll functions;

(vi) Coordinating the resolution of findings arising from audits, reviews, investigations and incident reports;

(vii) Audit functions;

(viii) General legal services functions; and

(ix) Developing systems and procedures, including information systems, required for these administrative functions;

§ 645.240

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(2) Performing oversight and monitoring responsibilities related to WtW administrative functions,

(3) Costs of goods and services required for administrative functions of the program, including goods and services such as rental or purchase of equipment, utilities, office supplies, postage, and rental and maintenance of office space;

(4) Travel costs incurred for official business in carrying out administrative activities or the overall management of the WtW system; and

(5) Costs of information systems related to administrative functions (for example, personnel, procurement, purchasing, property management, accounting and payroll systems) including the purchase, systems development and operating costs of such systems.

(d)(1) Only that portion of the costs of WtW grantees that are associated with the performance of the administrative functions described in paragraph (c) of this section and awards to subrecipients or vendors that are solely for the performance of these administrative functions are classified as administrative costs. All other costs are considered to be for the direct provision of WtW activities and are classified as program costs.

(2) Personnel and related non-personnel costs of staff who perform both administrative functions specified in paragraph (c) of this section and programmatic services or activities are to be allocated as administrative or program costs to the benefitting cost objectives/categories based on documented distributions of actual time worked or other equitable cost allocation methods.

(3) Specific costs charged to an overhead or indirect cost pool that can be identified directly as a program cost may be charged as a program cost. Documentation of such charges must be maintained.

(4) Except as provided at paragraph (d)(1) of this section, all costs incurred for functions and activities of subrecipients and vendors are program costs.

(5) Costs of the following information systems including the purchase, systems development and operating (e.g., data entry) costs are charged to the program category.

(i) Tracking or monitoring of participant and performance information;

(ii) Employment statistics information, including job listing information, job skills information, and demand occupation information; and

(iii) Local area performance information.

§ 645.240 What are the reporting requirements for Welfare-to-Work programs?

(a) General. State formula and other direct competitive grant recipients must report financial and participant data in accordance with revised instructions that will be issued by the Department after consultation with the Secretary of Health and Human Services, States, and organizations that represent State or local governments. Reports must be submitted to the Department quarterly. Existing WtW financial reporting instructions and formats are available on the WtW web site at <http://wtw.doleta.gov/linkpages/tegltein.htm>. The Internet reporting system for WtW grantees is accessible at <http://www.etareports.doleta.gov>.

(b) Subrecipient reporting. A State formula or other direct competitive grant recipient may impose different forms or formats, shorter due dates, and more frequent reporting requirements on subrecipients. However, the recipient is required to meet the reporting requirements imposed by the Department.

(c) Financial reports. Each grant recipient must submit financial reports to the Department. Reported expenditures and program income must be on the accrual basis of accounting and cumulative by fiscal year of appropriation. If the recipient's accounting records are not normally kept on the accrual basis of accounting, the recipient must develop accrual information through an analysis of the documentation on hand.

(d) Participant reports. Each grant recipient must submit participant reports to the Department. Participant data must be aggregate data, and, for most data elements, must be cumulative by fiscal year of appropriation.

(e) Due dates. Financial and participant reports are due no later than 45 days after the end of each quarter. A final financial and participant report is required 90 days after the expiration of a funding period or the termination of grant support.

§ 645.245 Who is responsible for oversight and monitoring of Welfare-to-Work grants?

(a) The Secretary may monitor all recipients and subrecipients of all grants awarded and funds expended under WtW. Federal oversight will be conducted primarily at the State level for formula grants and at the recipient level for competitive grants.

(b) The Governor must monitor local boards (or other approved administrative entities) funded under the State's formula allocated grants on a periodic basis for compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The Governor must develop and make available for review a State monitoring plan.

§ 645.250 What procedures apply to the resolution of findings arising from audits, investigations, monitoring and oversight reviews?

(a) Resolution of subrecipient level findings.

(1) The WtW grantee is responsible for the resolution of findings that arise from its monitoring reviews, investigations and audits (including OMB Circular A-133 audits) of subrecipients.

(2) A State or competitive grantee, as appropriate, must use the audit resolution, debt collection and appeal procedures that it uses for other Federal grant programs.

(3) If a State or competitive grantee, as appropriate, does not have such procedures, it must prescribe standards and procedures for the WtW grant program.

(b) Resolution of State level findings.

(1) The Secretary is responsible for the resolution of findings that arise from Federal audits, monitoring reviews, investigations, incident reports, and recipient level OMB Circular A-133 audits.

(2) The Secretary will use the DOL audit resolution process, consistent with the Single Audit Act of 1996 and OMB Circular A-133.

(3) A final determination issued by a grant officer pursuant to this process may be appealed to the DOL Office of Administrative Law Judges under the procedures at § 645.800.

(c) Resolution of nondiscrimination findings. Findings arising from investigations or reviews conducted under nondiscrimination laws shall be resolved in accordance with those laws and the applicable implementing regulations.

§ 645.255 What nondiscrimination protections apply to participants in Welfare-to-Work programs?

(a) All participants in WtW programs under this part shall have such rights as are available under all applicable Federal, State and local laws prohibiting discrimination, and their implementing regulations, including:

(1) The Age Discrimination Act of 1975 (42 U.S.C. 6101 et seq.);

(2) Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. 794);

(3) The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq.); and

(4) Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000d et seq.).

(b) Participants in work activities, as defined in section 407(a) of the Social Security Act, operated with WtW funds, shall not be discriminated against because of gender. Participants alleging gender discrimination may file a complaint using the State's grievance system procedures as described in § 645.270 of this subpart (section 403(a)(5)(J)(iii) of the Act). Participants alleging gender discrimination in WtW programs conducted by One-Stop partners as part of the One-Stop delivery system may file a complaint using the complaint processing procedures developed and published by the State in accordance with the requirements of 29 CFR 37.70-37.80.

(c) Complaints alleging discrimination in violation of any applicable Federal, State or local law, such as Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000e et seq.), Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), the Pregnancy Discrimination Act (42 U.S.C. 2000e (paragraph k)), or Section 188 of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (29 U.S.C.

§ 645.260

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

2938), as well as those listed in paragraph (a) of this section, shall be processed in accordance with those laws and the implementing regulations.

(d) Questions about or complaints alleging a violation of the non-discrimination laws in paragraph (a) of this section may be directed or mailed to the Director, Civil Rights Center, U.S. Department of Labor, Room N-4123, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20210 for processing.

§ 645.260 What health and safety provisions apply to participants in Welfare-to-Work programs?

(a) Participants in an employment activity operated with WtW funds, as defined in § 645.220 of this part, are subject to the same health and safety standards established under State and Federal law which are applicable to similarly employed employees, of the same employer, who are not participants in programs under WtW.

(b) Participants alleging a violation of these health and safety standards may file a complaint pursuant to the procedures contained in § 645.270 of this part (section 403(a)(5)(J)(ii)).

§ 645.265 What safeguards are there to ensure that participants in Welfare-to-Work employment activities do not displace other employees?

(a) An adult participating in an employment activity operated with WtW funds, as described in § 645.220 (b) and (c) of this subpart, may fill an established position vacancy subject to the limitations in paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) An employment activity operated with WtW funds, as described in § 645.220(c) of this subpart, must not violate existing contracts for services or collective bargaining agreements. Where such an employment activity would violate a collective bargaining agreement, the appropriate labor organization and employer must provide written concurrence before the employment activity is undertaken.

(c) An adult participating in an employment activity operated with WtW funds, as described in § 645.220(c) of this subpart, must not be employed or assigned:

(1) When any other individual is on layoff from the same or any substantially equivalent job within the same organizational unit;

(2) If the employer has terminated the employment of any regular, unsubsidized employee or otherwise caused an involuntary reduction in its workforce with the intention of filling the vacancy so created with the WtW participant; and,

(3) If the employer has caused an involuntary reduction to less than full time in hours of any employee in the same or substantially equivalent job within the same organizational unit.

(d) Regular employees and program participants alleging displacement may file a complaint pursuant to § 645.270 of this part (section 403(a)(5)(J)(i)).

§ 645.270 What procedures are there to ensure that currently employed workers may file grievances regarding displacement and that Welfare-to-Work participants in employment activities may file grievances regarding displacement, health and safety standards and gender discrimination?

(a) The State shall establish and maintain a grievance procedure for resolving complaints from:

(1) Regular employees that the placement of a participant in an employment activity operated with WtW funds, as described in § 645.220 of this part, violates any of the prohibitions described in § 645.265 of this part; and

(2) Program participants in an employment activity operated with WtW funds, as described in § 645.220 of this part, that any employment activity violates any of the prohibitions described in §§ 645.255(d), 645.260, or 645.265 of this part.

(b) Such grievance procedure should include an opportunity for informal resolution.

(c) If no informal resolution can be reached within the specified time as established by the State as part of its grievance procedure, such procedure shall provide an opportunity for the dissatisfied party to receive a hearing upon request.

(d) The State shall specify the time period and format for the hearing portion of the grievance procedure, as well as the time period by which the complainant will be provided the written decision by the State.

(e) A decision by the State under paragraph (d) of this section may be appealed by any dissatisfied party within 30 days of the receipt of the State's written decision, according to the time period and format for the appeals portion of the grievance procedure as specified by the State.

(f) The State shall designate the State agency which will be responsible for hearing appeals. This agency shall be independent of the State or local agency which is administering, or supervising the administration of the State TANF and WtW programs.

(g) No later than 120 days of receipt of an individual's original grievance, the State agency, as designated in paragraph (f) of this section, shall provide a written final determination of the individual's appeal.

(h) The grievance procedure shall include remedies for violations of §§ 645.255(d), 645.260, and 645.265 of this part which may continue during the grievance process and which may include:

(1) Suspension or termination of payments from funds provided under this part;

(2) Prohibition of placement of a WtW participant with an employer that has violated §§ 645.255(b), 645.260, and 645.265 of this part;

(3) Where applicable, reinstatement of an employee, payment of lost wages and benefits, and reestablishment of other relevant terms, conditions, and privileges of employment; and,

(4) Where appropriate, other equitable relief (section 403(a)(5)(J)(iv)).

(i) Participants alleging gender discrimination by WtW programs that are not part of the One-Stop system may file a complaint using the grievance system procedures described above. Participants alleging gender discrimination by WtW programs that are part of the One-Stop system may file a complaint using the procedures developed by the State under the WIA non-discrimination regulations at 29 CFR 37.70–37.80.

Subpart C—Additional Formula Grant Administrative Standards and Procedures

§ 645.300 What constitutes an allowable match?

(a) A State is entitled to receive two (2) dollars of Federal funds for every one (1) dollar of State match expenditures, up to the amount available for allotment to the State based on the State's percentage for WtW formula grant for the fiscal year. The State is not required to provide a level of match necessary to support the total amount available to it based on the State's percentage for WtW formula grant. However, if the proposed match is less than the amount required to support the full level of Federal funds, the grant amount will be reduced accordingly (section 403(a)(5)(A)(i)(I)).

(b) States shall follow the match or cost-sharing requirements of the "Common Rule" Uniform Administrative Requirements for Grants and Cooperative Agreements to State and Local Governments (codified for DOL at 29 CFR 97.24). Paragraphs (b)(1)(i) and (ii), (b)(3), and (b)(4) and (c)(1) of this section are in addition to the common rule requirements. Also, paragraphs included in the common rule which relate to the use of donated buildings and other real property as match have been excluded from this provision.

(1) Only costs that would be allowable if paid for with WtW grant funds will be accepted as match.

(i) Because the use of Federal funds is prohibited for construction or purchase of facilities or buildings except where there is explicit statutory authority permitting it, costs incurred for the construction or purchase of facilities or buildings shall not be acceptable as match for a WtW grant.

(ii) Because the costs of construction or purchase of facilities or buildings are unallowable as match, the donation of a building or property as a third party in-kind contribution is also unallowable as a match for a WtW grant.

(2) A match or cost-sharing requirement may be satisfied by either or both of the following:

(i) Allowable costs incurred by the grantee, subgrantee or a cost type contractor under the assistance agreement. This includes allowable cost borne by non-Federal grants or by others and cash donations from non-Federal third parties.

(ii) The value of third party in-kind contributions applicable to the FY period to which the cost-sharing or matching requirement applies.

(3) No more than seventy-five percent (75%) of the total match expenditures may be in the form of third party in-kind contributions.

(4) Match expenditures must be recorded in the books of account of the entity that incurred the cost or received the contribution. These amounts may be rolled up and reported as aggregate State level match.

(c) Qualifications and exceptions—

(1) The matching requirements may not be met by the use of an employer's share of participant wage payments (e.g., employer share of OJT wages).

(2) Costs borne by other Federal grant agreements. A cost-sharing or matching requirement may not be met by costs borne by another Federal grant. This prohibition does not apply to income earned by a grantee or subgrantee from a contract awarded under another Federal grant.

(3) General revenue sharing. For the purpose of this section, general revenue sharing funds distributed under 31 U.S.C. 6702 are not considered Federal grant funds.

(4) Cost or contributions counted towards other Federal cost-sharing requirements. Neither costs nor the values of third party in-kind contributions may count towards satisfying a cost-sharing or matching requirement of a grant agreement if they have been or will be counted towards satisfying a cost-sharing or matching requirement of another Federal grant agreement, a Federal procurement contract, or any other award of Federal funds.

(5) Costs financed by program income. Costs financed by program income, as defined in 29 CFR 97.25, shall not count towards satisfying a cost-sharing or matching requirement unless they are expressly permitted in the terms of the assistance agreement.

(This use of general program income is described in 29 CFR 97.25(g)).

(6) Services or property financed by income earned by contractors. Contractors under a grant may earn income from the activities carried out under the contract in addition to the amounts earned from the party awarding the contract. No costs of services or property supported by this income may count toward satisfying a cost-sharing or matching requirement unless other provisions of the grant agreement expressly permit this kind of income to be used to meet the requirement.

(7) Records. Costs and third party in-kind contributions counting towards satisfying a cost-sharing or matching requirement must be verifiable from the records of grantees and subgrantee or cost-type contractors. These records must show how the value placed on third party in-kind contributions was derived. To the extent feasible, volunteer services will be supported by the same methods that the organization uses to support the allocability of regular personnel costs.

(8) Special standards for third party in-kind contributions.

(i) Third party in-kind contributions count towards satisfying a cost-sharing or matching requirement only where, if the party receiving the contributions were to pay for them, the payments would be allowable costs.

(ii) Some third party in-kind contributions are goods and services that, if the grantee, subgrantee, or contractor receiving the contribution had to pay for them, the payments would have been an indirect costs. Cost sharing or matching credit for such contributions shall be given only if the grantee, subgrantee, or contractor has established, along with its regular indirect cost rate, a special rate for allocating to individual projects or programs the value of the contributions.

(iii) A third party in-kind contribution to a fixed-price contract may count towards satisfying a cost-sharing or matching requirement only if it results in:

(A) An increase in the services or property provided under the contract (without additional cost to the grantee or subgrantee) or

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 645.400

(B) A cost savings to the grantee or subgrantee.

(iv) The values placed on third party in-kind contributions for cost-sharing or matching purposes must conform to the rules in the succeeding sections of this part. If a third party in-kind contribution is a type not treated in those sections, the value placed upon it must be fair and reasonable.

(d) Valuation of donated services.

(1) Volunteer services. Unpaid services provided to a grantee or subgrantee by individuals must be valued at rates consistent with those ordinarily paid for similar work in the grantee's or subgrantee's organization. If the grantee or subgrantee does not have employees performing similar work, the rates must be consistent with those ordinarily paid by other employers for similar work in the same labor market. In either case, a reasonable amount for fringe benefits may be included in the valuation.

(2) Employees of other organizations. When an employer other than a grantee, subgrantee, or cost-type contractor furnishes free of charge the services of an employee in the employee's normal line of work, the services must be valued at the employee's regular rate of pay exclusive of the employee's fringe benefits and overhead costs. If the services are in a different line of work, paragraph (d)(1) of this section applies.

(e) Valuation of third party donated supplies and loaned equipment or space.

(1) If a third party donates supplies, the contribution must be valued at the market value of the supplies at the time of donation.

(2) If a third party donates the use of equipment or space in a building but retains title, the contribution must be valued at:

(i) the fair rental rate of the equipment or space for property donated by non-governmental entities, or

(ii) a depreciation or use-allowance based on the property's market value at the time it was donated for property donated by governmental entities.

§ 645.310 What assurance must a State provide that it will make the required matching expenditures?

In its State plan, a State must provide a written estimate of planned matching expenditures and describe the process by which the funds will be tracked and reported to ensure that the State meets its projected match (section 403(a)(5)(A)(i)(I)).

§ 645.315 What actions are to be taken if a State fails to make the required matching expenditures?

(a) If State match expenditures do not satisfy the requirements of the FY grant award by the end of the three year fund availability period, the grant award amount will be reduced by the appropriate corresponding amount (i.e., the grant will be reduced by two (2) dollars for each one (1) dollar shortfall in State matching funds) when the grant is closed out.

(b) Compliance with the fifteen percent (15%) administrative cost limit will be recalculated based on the FY formula grant award amount, as reduced under paragraph (a) of this section.

Subpart D—State Formula Grants Administration

§ 645.400 Under what conditions may the Governor request a waiver to designate an alternate local administering agency?

(a)(1) The Governor may include in the State's WtW Plan a waiver request to select an agency other than the local board or PIC to administer the program for one or more local areas or SDA's in a State; or

(2) When the Governor determines the local board or alternate administering agency has not coordinated its expenditures with the expenditure of funds provided to the State under TANF, pursuant to section 403(a)(5)(A)(vii)(II) of the Act, the Governor must request a waiver.

(b) The Governor shall bear the burden of proving that the designated alternate administering agency, rather than the local board or other alternate administering agency, would improve the effectiveness or efficiency of the administration of WtW funds in the SDA. The Governor's waiver request shall include information to meet that burden. The Governor shall provide a copy of the waiver request and any supporting information submitted to the Secretary to the local board and CEO of the local area for which an alternate administering agency is requested.

(c) The local board and CEO shall have fifteen (15) days in which to submit his or her written response to the Department. The local board and CEO shall provide a copy of such response to the Governor.

(d) The Secretary will assess the waiver information submitted by the Governor, including input from the local board and CEO in reaching the decision whether to permit the use of an alternate administering agency.

(e) The Secretary shall approve a waiver request if she determines that the Governor has established that the designated alternate administering agency, rather than the local board or other administering agency, will improve the effectiveness or efficiency of the administration of WtW funds provided for the benefit of the local area.

(f) Where an alternate administering agency is approved by the Secretary, such administrative entity shall coordinate with the CEO for the applicable local area(s) regarding the expenditure of WtW grant funds in the local area(s).

(g) The decision of the Secretary to approve or deny a waiver request will be issued promptly and shall constitute final agency action.

§ 645.410 What elements will the State use in distributing funds within the State?

(a) Of the WtW funds allotted to the State, not less than 85 percent of the State allotment must be distributed to the local areas or SDA's in the State.

(1) The State shall prescribe a formula for determining the amount of funds to be distributed to each local area or SDA in the State using no factors other than the three factors described in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph;

(2) The formula prescribed by the Governor must include as one of the formula factors for distributing funds the provision at section 403(a)(5)(A)(vi)(I)(aa) of the Act. The Governor is to distribute funds to a local area or SDA based on the number by which the population of the area with an income that is less than the poverty line exceeds 7.5 percent of the total population of the area, compared to all such numbers in all such areas in the State. The Governor must assign a weight of not less than 50 percent to this factor;

(3) The Governor shall distribute the remaining funds, if any, to the local area or SDA's utilizing only one or both of the following factors:

(i) the local area or SDA's share of the number of adults receiving assistance under TANF or the predecessor program in the local area or SDA for 30 months or more (whether consecutive or not), relative to the number of such adults residing in the State;

(ii) the local area or SDA's share of the number of unemployed individuals residing in the local area or SDA, relative to the number of such individuals residing in the State.

(4) If the amount to be distributed to a local area or SDA by the Governor's formula is less than $100,000, the funds shall be available to be used by the Governor to fund projects described at paragraph (b) of this section.

(5) States shall use the guidance provided at section 403(a)(5)(D) of the Act in determining the number of individuals with an income that is less than the poverty line.

(6) Local Boards (or alternate administering agency) shall determine, pursuant to section 403(a)(5)(A)(vii)(I) of the Act, on which individual(s) and on which allowable activities to expend its WtW fund allocation.

(7) The State must distribute the local boards' or SDAs' allocations in a timely manner, but not longer than 30 days from receipt of the State's fund allotment.

(b) Of the funds allocated to the State, up to 15 percent of the funds may be retained at the State level to fund projects that appear likely to help long-term recipients of assistance enter unsubsidized employment. Any additional funds available as a result of the process described at paragraph (a)(4) of this section, shall also be available to be used to fund projects to help long-term recipients of assistance enter unsubsidized jobs.

(c) The Governors may distribute the funds retained pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section to a variety of work-force organizations, in addition to local boards or alternate administering agencies, and other entities such as One-Stop systems, private sector employers, labor organizations, business and trade associations, education agencies, housing agencies, community development corporations, transportation agencies, community-based and faith-based organizations, disability community organizations, community action agencies, and colleges and universities which provide some of the assistance needed by the targeted population.

§ 645.415 What planning information must a State submit in order to receive a formula grant?

(a) Each State seeking financial assistance under the formula grant portion of the WtW legislation must submit an annual plan meeting the requirements prescribed by the Secretary. This plan shall be in the form of an addendum to the TANF State plan and shall be submitted to the Secretaries of Labor and Health and Human Services.

(b) The Secretary shall review the State plan for compliance with the statutory and regulatory provisions of the WtW program. The Secretary's decision whether to accept a State plan as in compliance with the Act shall constitute final agency action.

(c) If the Governor has requested a waiver to permit the selection of an alternate administering agency in the State plan, the provisions of § 645.400 of this part shall apply (section 403(a)(5)(A)(ii)).

§ 645.420 What factors will be used in measuring State performance?

(a) The Department will use the following factors to measure State performance:

(1) Job entry rate as measured by the proportion of WtW participants who enter either subsidized employment or unsubsidized employment,

(2) Substantive job entry rate as measured by the proportion of WtW participants who are placed in or who have moved into subsidized or unsubsidized employment of 30 hours or more per week,

(3) Retention as measured by the proportion of WtW participants who remain in unsubsidized employment six months in the second subsequent quarter after the quarter in which placement occurred after initial placement, and

(4) Measured earnings gains of WtW participants who remain in unsubsidized employment six months after initial placement.

(b) The formula for calculating the performance bonus is weighted as follows:

- (1) 30 percent on job entry rate,
- (2) 30 percent on substantive job entry rate,
- (3) 20 percent on retention in unsubsidized employment,
- (4) 20 percent on earnings gains in unsubsidized employment.

The formula will reflect general economic conditions on a State-by-State basis.

(c) The formula shall serve as the basis for the award of FY 2000 bonus grants based on successful performance to be made in FY 2001 (section 403(a)(5)(E)).

§ 645.425 What are the roles and responsibilities of the State(s) and local boards or alternate administering agencies?

(a) State roles and responsibilities. A State:

- (1) Designates State WtW administering agency;
- (2) Provides overall administration of WtW funds, consistent with the WtW statute, WtW regulations and the State's WtW Plan;
- (3) Develops the State WtW Plan in consultation and coordination with appropriate entities in substate areas, such as One-Stop systems, private sector employers, labor organizations, business and trade associations, education agencies, housing agencies, community development corporations, transportation agencies, community-based and faith-based organizations,

§ 645.430

20 CFR Ch. V (4–1–03 Edition)

disability community organizations, community action agencies, and colleges and universities which provide some of the assistance needed by the targeted population (section 403(a)(5)(A)(ii)(I)(cc));

(4) Distributes funds to SDAs, consistent with the provisions described at § 645.410(a) (section 403(a)(5)(A)(ii)(I)(bb));

(5) Conducts oversight and monitoring of WtW activities and fund expenditures at the State and local levels for compliance with applicable laws and regulations, consistent with the provisions at § 645.245 and provides technical assistance as appropriate;

(6) Ensures coordination of local board or alternate administering agency fund expenditures with the State TANF expenditures and other programs (section 403(a)(5)(A)(ii)(I)(dd));

(7) Determines whether to request waivers to select an alternate administering agency consistent with the provisions described at § 645.400 of this part (sections 403(a)(5)(A)(ii)(I)(ee) and 403(a)(5)(A)(vii)(III));

(8) Manages and distributes State level WtW funds (15 percent), consistent with the provisions at § 645.410(b) and (c) (section 403(a)(5)(A)(vi)(III));

(9) Ensures that the 15 percent administration limitation and the match requirement are met;

(10) Ensures that worker protections provisions are observed and establishes an appropriate grievance process, consistent with §§ 645.255 through 645.270 of this part (section 403(a)(5)(J));

(11) Provides comments on Competitive Grant Application(s) from eligible entities within the State, consistent with § 645.510 of this part (section 403(a)(5)(B)(ii));

(12) Cooperates with the Department of Health and Human Services on the evaluation of WtW programs (section 403(a)(5)(A)(ii)(III));

(13) Provides technical assistance to PIC's, local boards or alternate administering agencies; and

(14) Establishes internal reporting requirements to ensure Federal reports are accurate, complete and are submitted on a timely basis, consistent with § 645.240 of this part.

(b) Local Boards (or alternate administering agency) roles and responsibilities. A local board:

(1) Has sole authority, in coordination with CEOs, to expend formula funds (section 403(a)(5)(A)(vii)(I));

(2) Has authority to determine the individuals to be served in the local area (section 403(a)(5)(A)(vii)(I));

(3) Has authority to determine the services to be provided in the local area (section 403(a)(5)(A)(vii)(I));

(4) Ensures funds are expended on eligible recipients and on allowable activities, consistent with § 645.410(a)(5) of this part;

(5) Coordinates WtW fund expenditures with State TANF expenditures and other programs (section 403(a)(5)(A)(ii)(dd));

(6) Ensures that there is an assessment and an individual service strategy in place for each WtW participant, consistent with § 645.225(a) and (b) of this part;

(7) Conducts oversight and monitoring of subrecipients, consistent with the provisions at § 645.245 of this part;

(8) Ensures worker protection provisions and grievance process are observed, consistent with State guidelines (section 403(a)(5)(J)); and

(9) Consults with and provides comments on private entity Competitive Grant Application(s), consistent with the provisions at § 645.500(b)(1)(i) of this part.

§ 645.430 How does the Welfare-to-Work program relate to the One-Stop system and Workforce Investment Act (WIA) programs?

(a) As provided in the Workforce Investment Act regulations at 20 CFR 663.620, the local WtW formula grant program operator is a required partner in the One-Stop system. 20 CFR part 662 describes the roles of such partners in the One-Stop system and applies to the WtW formula grant program operators. A Memorandum of Understanding must be developed between the Local Workforce Investment Board and the WtW program that meets the requirements of 20 CFR 662.300, such as containing provisions relating to the services to be provided through the One-Stop system and methods for referring individuals between the One-Stop operator and the partner WtW program.

(b) WtW participants may also be served by the WIA programs and, through appropriate linkages and referrals, these individuals will have access to a broader range of activities and services through the cooperation of the WtW and WIA programs in the One-Stop system. For example, WtW participants, who are also determined eligible for WIA, and who need occupational skills training, may be referred through the One-Stop system to receive WIA training. These participants are also eligible to receive services available under WtW, such as transportation and child care while participating in the WIA activity.

(c) WIA participants, who are determined to be eligible for WtW, may also be served by the WtW programs through cooperation with the WIA programs in the One-Stop system. For example, WIA participants, who are also determined eligible for WtW, may be referred to the WtW program for job placement and other WtW assistance.

(d) 29 CFR part 37 applies to recipients of WtW financial assistance who operate programs that are part of the One-Stop system established under WIA to the extent that the WtW programs and activities are being conducted as part of the One-Stop delivery system.

Subpart E—Welfare-To-Work Competitive Grants

§ 645.500 Who are eligible applicants for competitive grants?

(a) Eligible applicants for competitive grants are:

(1) Local boards or alternate administering agencies

(2) Political subdivisions of a State; and

(3) Private entities, as defined in § 645.120 of this part, including nonprofit organizations such as community development corporations, community-based and faith-based organizations, disability community organizations, community action agencies, and public and private colleges and universities, and other qualified private organizations.

(b) Entities other than a local board or alternate administering agency or a political subdivision of the State must submit an application for competitive grant funds in conjunction with the applicable local board or alternate administering agency or political subdivision.

(1) The term “in conjunction with” shall mean that the application submitted by such an entity must include a signed certification by both the applicant and either the applicable local board or alternate administering agency or political subdivision that:

(i) The applicant has consulted with the applicable local board or alternate administering agency or political subdivision during the development of the application; and

(ii) The activities proposed in the application are consistent with, and will be coordinated with, WtW efforts of the local board or alternate administering agency or political subdivision.

(2) If the applicant is unable to include such a certification in its application, the applicant will be required to certify, and provide information indicating that efforts were undertaken to consult with the local board or alternate administering agency or political subdivision and that the local board or alternate administering agency or political subdivision was provided a sufficient opportunity to cooperate in the development of the project plan and to review and comment on the application prior to its submission to the Secretary. “Sufficient opportunity for local Board or alternate administering agency or political subdivision review and comment” shall mean at least 30 calendar days.

(3) The certification described in paragraph (b)(1) of this section, or the evidence of efforts to consult described in paragraph (b)(2), must be with each local board or alternate administering agency or political subdivision included in the geographic area in which the project proposed in the application is to operate (section 403(a)(5)(B)(ii)).

§ 645.510 What is the required consultation with the Governor?

(a) All applicants for competitive grants, including local boards or alternate administering agencies and political subdivisions, must consult with the Governor by submitting their application to the Governor or the designated State administrative entity for the WtW program for review and comment prior to submission of the application to the Secretary. The application submitted to the Secretary must include:

(1) Comments on the application from the State; or

(2) Information indicating that the State was provided a sufficient opportunity for review and comment prior to submission to the Secretary. "Sufficient opportunity for State review and comment" shall mean at least 15 calendar days.

(b) For private entity applicants, the submission of the application for State review and comment must follow the 30 day period provided for local board or alternate administering agency/political subdivision review. Evidence of local board or alternate administering agency or political subdivision review should be included in the submission to the State (section 403(a)(5)(B)(ii)).

§ 645.515 What are the program and administrative requirements that apply to both the formula grants and competitive grants?

(a) All of the general program requirements and administrative standards set by 29 CFR Part 645 Subpart B apply (section 403(a)(5)(C) and section 404(b)).

(b) In addition, competitive grants will be subject to:

(1) Supplemental reporting requirements; and

(2) Additional monitoring and oversight requirements based on the negotiated scope-of-work of individual grant awards (section 403(a)(5)(B)(iii) and (v)).

§ 645.520 What are the application procedures and timeframes for competitive grant funds?

(a) The Secretary shall establish appropriate application procedures, selection criteria and an approval process to ensure that grant awards accomplish the purpose of the competitive grant funds and that available funds are used in an effective manner.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) The Secretary shall publish such procedures in the FEDERAL REGISTER and establish submission timeframes in a manner that allows eligible applicants sufficient time to develop and submit quality project plans (section 403(a)(5)(B)(i) and (iii)).

§ 645.525 What special consideration will be given to rural areas and cities with large concentrations of poverty?

(a) Competitive grant awards will be targeted to geographic areas of significant need. In developing application procedures, special consideration will be given to rural areas and cities with large concentrations of residents living in poverty.

(b) Grant application guidelines will clarify specific requirements for documenting need in the local area (section 403(a)(5)(B)(iv)).

Subpart F—Administrative Appeal Process

§ 645.800 What administrative remedies are available under this Part?

(a) Within 21 days of receipt of a final determination that has directly imposed a sanction or corrective action pursuant to § 645.250(b) of this part, a recipient, subrecipient, or a vendor directly against which the Grant Officer has imposed a sanction or corrective action, may request a hearing before the Department of Labor Office of Administrative Law Judges, pursuant to the provisions of 29 CFR part 96 subpart 96.6.

(b) In accordance with 29 CFR 96.603(b)(2), the rules of practice and procedure published at 29 CFR part 18 shall govern the conduct of hearings under this section, except that a request for hearing under this section shall not be considered a complaint to which the filing of an answer by DOL or a DOL agency is required. Technical rules of evidence shall not apply to a hearing conducted pursuant to this part; however, rules or principles designed to assure production of the most credible evidence available and to subject testimony to cross-examination shall apply.

(c) The decision of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) shall constitute final agency action unless, within 20 days of the decision, a party dissatisfied with the decision of the ALJ has filed a petition for review with the Administrative Review Board (ARB) (established pursuant to the provisions of Secretary's Order No. 2-96, published at 61 FR 19977 (May 3, 1996)), specifically identifying the procedure, fact, law or policy to which exception is taken. Any exception not specifically urged shall be deemed to have been waived. A copy of the petition for review must be sent to the opposing party at that time. Thereafter, the decision of the ALJ shall constitute final agency action unless the ARB, within 30 days of the filing of the petition for review, has notified the parties that the case has been accepted for review. Any case accepted by the ARB shall be decided within 120 days of such acceptance. If not so decided, the decision of the ALJ shall constitute final agency action.

Subpart A—Introduction to Indian and Native American Welfare to Work Programs

§ 646.100 What is the purpose of the Indian and Native American Welfare-to-Work (INA WtW) Program?

The INA WtW Program, authorized by title V, section 5001(c) of the Balanced Budget Act of 1997, is a program to complement the Indian provisions of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (PRWORA—commonly called the “Welfare Reform Act”) [Pub. L. 104-193, 42 U.S.C. 601 et seq.] by providing additional funds to eligible federally-recognized Indian tribes to facilitate the transition of public assistance recipients from welfare dependency to self-sufficiency by helping recipients to obtain lasting unsubsidized employment. The INA WtW Program is authorized by title V, section 5001(c) of the Balanced Budget Act of 1997 (Pub. L. 105-33), which amended title IV-A of the Social Security Act by adding section 412(a)(3) [42 U.S.C. 612(a)(3)].

§ 646.105 What are the purposes of these regulations?

These regulations are designed to provide INA WtW program operators with the basic rules and guidelines needed to operate a Welfare-to-Work program which helps Native American public assistance recipients secure unsubsidized employment. Where applicable, these regulations also establish definitions and parameters not defined in the amended Social Security Act. These regulations cross-reference title V of the Balanced Budget Act of 1997, title IV of the amended Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and appropriate sections of the “Welfare Reform Act”.

§ 646.110 What are the administrative requirements for the INA WtW Program?

Tribes and tribal consortia who are participating in the INA WtW Program shall follow the common rule, Uniform Administrative Requirements for Grants and Cooperative Agreements to State and Local Governments, which is codified in DOL regulations at 29 CFR part 97. Alaska Native regional nonprofit corporations shall follow OMB Circular A-110, as codified by the Department at 29 CFR part 95. General principles of cost allowability may be found in OMB Circulars A-87 (for tribes) and A-122 (for nonprofits). The audit requirements of OMB Circular A-133 [issued in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 30, 1997] shall apply to both tribes and nonprofits.

§ 646.115 What are the definitions which apply uniquely to the INA WtW program?

The definition of “substantial services” is only applicable to Indian and Native American Welfare-to-Work programs (see § 646.215 of this part).

Subpart B—Eligibility to Receive INA WtW Grants

§ 646.200 What entities are eligible to receive INA WtW grants?

The three categories of Federally-recognized Indian tribes or Alaska Native regional nonprofit corporations eligible to receive INA WtW funds, as described at section 412(a)(3)(B) of the amended Social Security Act, are those which: Operate a tribal TANF program; operate a NEW program; or operate an employment program funded through other sources under which substantial services are provided to recipients of assistance under a program funded under Part A of title IV of the Social Security Act. The term “substantial services” is defined at § 646.215 of this part.

§ 646.205 What entities are eligible to receive INA WtW grants in Alaska?

The twelve Alaska Native regional nonprofit corporations, along with the Metlakatla Indian Community of the Annette Islands Reserve, are the only entities in Alaska eligible to apply for INA WtW grants. These nonprofit corporations are listed in section 419(4)(B) of the amended Social Security Act [42 U.S.C. 619(4)(B)].

§ 646.210 Can a consortium composed of tribes which do not operate TANF or NEW programs still receive an INA WtW grant?

Yes, although the consortium must collectively meet the “substantial services” criteria outlined at § 646.215 below. Refer to subpart C of this part for more information on consortium requirements.

§ 646.215 How does a tribe document that it is currently providing “substantial services” to public assistance recipients?

Tribes which currently operate employment programs funded through other sources, such as those under the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA) or Employment Assistance (EA) under the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA), must provide verifiable documentation that: At least twenty percent (20%) of those served in such an employment program were public assistance recipients during the most recent program or fiscal year; and employment services have been provided to a minimum of fifty (50) public assistance recipients over the last two program or fiscal years.

§ 646.220 What criteria apply to TANF/NEW tribes regarding the provision of “substantial services”?

None. Tribes which operate TANF or NEW programs do not need to meet the criteria for providing “substantial services” to public assistance recipients.

§ 646.225 If a tribe is awarded an INA WtW grant, is the tribe required to participate in an evaluation of the program?

Yes. The Act specifies that each INA WtW grantee “must agree to negotiate in good faith with the Secretary of Health and Human Services with respect to the substance and funding of any evaluation * * * and to cooperate with the conduct of any such evaluation.” [42 U.S.C. 612(a)(3)(B)(iv)]

Subpart C—Application for INA WtW Grants

§ 646.300 How does my tribe apply for an INA WtW grant?

Each eligible tribe must submit an INA WtW plan to the Department of Labor in accordance with the planning instructions issued by the Department of Labor. For those tribes with an approved tribal family assistance plan (TANF plan), the application for an INA WtW grant must take the form of an addendum to that TANF plan. Tribes already participating in the demonstration project under Public Law 102-477 [25 U.S.C. 3401 et seq.], The Indian Employment, Training and Related Services Demonstration Act of 1992, should reference § 646.900 of this part. Planning information is also available on the INA WtW web site at www.wdsc.org/dinap.

§ 646.305 Can a consortium of Federally-recognized tribes apply for an INA WtW grant on behalf of consortium member tribes approved to operate a TANF or NEW program?

Yes. Consortium member tribes which operate approved TANF or NEW programs are by law eligible to apply for an INA WtW grant. Their consortium may apply for the INA WtW grant on their behalf, under the following circumstances: if an established consortium exists for one purpose, such as operating a JTPA grant, this established consortium may apply for an INA WtW grant on behalf of those member tribes authorized to receive NEW funding.

§ 646.310 Some of our consortium members operate their own TANF/NEW programs, and some do not. Can we still apply for an INA WtW grant as a consortium?

Yes. For those consortium member tribes which DO NOT operate TANF or NEW programs, they must collectively meet the “substantial services” criteria.

§ 646.315 If our consortium members not operating TANF or NEW programs meet the “substantial services” criteria, do we then have to submit two separate INA WtW plans?

Yes. Because of the different funding formulas involved for FY 1998, such a “mixed consortium” (composed of tribes which operate TANF/NEW programs and those which do not) shall submit two plans for providing WtW services across the consortium, one plan for the TANF/NEW tribes and the other for those tribes eligible under the “substantial services” criteria. However, once both plans have been funded, the consortium may administer one program across the consortium.

§ 646.320 If we choose to operate a single INA WtW program for our “mixed consortium” for FY 1998, must we submit a single plan to the Department for FY 1999?

Yes. All FY 1998 INA WtW grantees must submit AFDC/TANF counts to the Department so that a single funding formula may be utilized for FY 1999.

§ 646.325 What unique documentation is required of a tribal consortium?

Consortium tribes must submit a legally-binding consortium agreement signed by all the tribes in the consortium with the grant application.

§ 646.330 If our tribe did not receive an INA WtW grant for FY 1998, can we still receive funding for FY 1999?

Yes, provided the tribe or consortium is eligible under the criteria cited at § 646.200 of this part. Tribes or consortia having to meet the “substantial services” criteria may use verifiable data from any employment program operated by the tribe, as was the case for FY 1998. Refer to section 646.215 for these criteria. Tribes or consortia are encouraged to submit State-negotiated AFDC/TANF counts for their area prior to applying for FY 1999 INA WtW funds.

Subpart D—Participant Eligibility, Limits, and Allowable Activities

§ 646.400 What TANF recipients are eligible for services under INA WtW grants?

Individual TANF clients must meet the conditions outlined at section 403(a)(5)(C), clauses (ii), or (iii), or (iv) of the amended Social Security Act. For INA WtW purposes, an individual determined to have low skills in reading or mathematics must be proficient at the 8.9 grade level or below. An individual determined to have a poor work history must have worked no more than three (3) consecutive months in the past twelve (12) calendar months.

§ 646.405 What activities are allowable under the Welfare-to-Work program?

All allowable activities are described at section 403(a)(5)(C)(i) of the Social Security Act. INA WtW funds shall be used to “move individuals into and keep individuals in lasting unsubsidized employment by means of any of the following:”

- (a) The conduct and administration of community service or work experience programs;
- (b) Job creation through public or private sector employment wage subsidies;
- (c) On-the-job training;
- (d) Contracts with public or private providers of readiness, placement, and post-employment services;
- (e) Job vouchers for placement, readiness, and post-employment services; and
- (f) Job retention or support services if such services are not otherwise available.

§ 646.410 Are there any special rules governing the use of job vouchers?

In addition to the requirements at 29 CFR 97.36(i) and 29 CFR 95.48, contracts or vouchers for job placement services supported by INA WtW funds must include a provision to require that at least one-half (½) of the payment occur after an eligible individual placed into the workforce has been in the workforce for six (6) months. This provision applies only to placement in unsubsidized jobs.

§ 646.415 What kind of “job readiness” services are allowable under the INA WtW Program?

Job readiness services include activities necessary to prepare an individual for employment. Such activities include, but are not limited to: Intake; eligibility determination; testing; assessment; orientation to the world of work; job search skills; job search assistance; job clubs; and employment counseling.

§ 646.420 What assistance can be provided under the “supportive services” category?

The provision of supportive services must be directly related to retaining employment, and not otherwise available to the client. Supportive services include, but are not limited to: Day care; transportation; work or protective clothing or equipment; tools; medical devices such as eyeglasses or braces; food; shelter; special services or equipment for the disabled; and financial counseling. Supportive services may be provided in-kind or through cash assistance. In cases where severe substance abuse or chemical dependency is a significant barrier to employment, substance abuse treatment may be undertaken as a “supportive services” activity, to the extent that such services do not constitute medical services.

§ 646.425 Are any education or training activities allowable under the INA WtW grant?

Although the Act does not authorize the use of grant funds for independent or stand-alone training activities, the Department recognizes that basic education and skills development as part of an employment experience will be needed by some recipients in order to achieve the ultimate objective of INA WtW assistance, which is self-sufficiency. Therefore, basic education and vocational skills training where needed, based on an assessment of the recipient’s needs, may be provided as a post-employment service where the recipient is employed in either a subsidized or unsubsidized job.

§ 646.430 Are there any time limits on client participation under the INA WtW program?

There are no specific participant time limitations for the INA WtW program. However, grantees should keep in mind the purpose of WtW, which is to provide transitional assistance to hard-to-employ welfare recipients to help them secure lasting, unsubsidized employment.

Subpart E—Tribal Service Areas and Populations

§ 646.500 We're a TANF/NEW tribe. What is my tribe's service area and/or population under an INA WtW grant?

NEW tribes will have the same service area and service population as they have under the NEW program. TANF tribes may elect to serve only their own tribal members in their service area, in accordance with their TANF funding.

§ 646.505 My tribe (or consortium) must qualify for an INA WtW grant under the "substantial services" criteria. How will our service area be determined?

Tribes qualifying for the INA WtW program under the "substantial services" criteria (i.e., not operating their own TANF or NEW programs) may use the service area(s) established for the tribe under the JTPA or BIA Employment Assistance programs. INA WtW grantees funded under the "substantial services" criteria shall ensure that all AFDC/TANF recipients within the service area for which the grantee was designated are afforded an equitable opportunity for INA WtW services, because their funding is predicated on 1990 Census data for all Native Americans residing in their service area, regardless of tribal affiliation. While there is no individual entitlement to INA WtW services, all eligible AFDC/TANF recipients shall be afforded equal consideration in the decision to provide INA WtW services. Service areas differing from those outlined above may be negotiated with the Department of Labor.

§ 646.510 Are there any special service area provisions made for Indians residing in Oklahoma?

Yes. With the exception of the Osage reservation in Oklahoma, service areas will be determined by reference to the "tribal jurisdiction statistical areas" (TJSAs). TJSAs are defined by the Bureau of the Census as being areas, delineated by Federally-recognized tribes in Oklahoma without a reservation, for which the Census Bureau tabulates data. TJSAs represent areas generally containing the American Indian population over which one or more tribal governments have jurisdiction. Service areas for Oklahoma Indian residents differing from those outlined under the TJSAs may also be negotiated with the Department of Labor.

Subpart F—Funding and Spending Requirements

§ 646.600 How will the INA WtW grant funding allotments be determined?

Funds will be allotted to INA WtW grantees on a formula basis. To determine the FY 1998 allotments, poverty data from the 1990 Decennial Census will be used to determine the "split" between TANF/NEW tribes and all other tribes. The percentage of the annual appropriation reserved for TANF and NEW tribes will then be allocated using 1995 AFDC counts previously published by DHHS. For FY 1999, a single funding formula will be employed utilizing AFDC/TANF counts.

§ 646.605 What spending limitations are imposed on the INA WtW program?

No less than seventy percent (70%) of INA WtW funds must be spent directly on assistance for the benefit of TANF recipients who meet the eligibility requirements of section 403(a)(5)(C)(ii) of the Social Security Act. Up to thirty percent (30%) of INA WtW funds can be spent to provide assistance to individuals who meet the eligibility requirements of section 403(a)(5)(C)(iii) of the Social Security Act. No more than twenty percent (20%) of INA WtW grant funds may be spent for administration. Refer to § 646.400 for the definitions of "low skills in reading or mathematics" and "poor work history".

§ 646.610 What definition of “administration” is applicable to the INA WtW program?

Administrative costs consist of all direct and indirect costs associated with the management of the grantee’s program. These costs include but are not limited to: the salaries and fringe benefits of personnel engaged in executive, fiscal, data collection, personnel, legal, audit, procurement, data processing, communications, maintenance, and similar functions; and related materials, supplies, equipment, office space costs, and staff training. Also included are salaries and fringe benefits of direct program administrative positions such as supervisors, program analysts, labor market analysts, and project directors. Additionally, all costs of clerical personnel, materials, supplies, equipment, space, utilities, and travel which are identifiable with these program administration positions are charged to administration.

§ 646.615 How long does the tribe have to spend INA WtW funds?

INA WtW grantees must expend all allotted funds within three years after the effective date of each fiscal year grant agreement signed by the Grant Officer, pursuant to section 403(a)(5)(C)(vii) of the Social Security Act. Unexpended funds must be returned to the Department in accordance with the closeout provisions at 29 CFR parts 97 or 95, as applicable.

§ 646.620 Are there any other restrictions on the use of INA WtW funds?

Yes. INA WtW funds may not be used for any other fund matching requirements under this Act or other Federal law, pursuant to section 403(a)(5)(C)(vi) of the Social Security Act.

Subpart G—Recordkeeping and Reporting Requirements*§ 646.700 What are the recordkeeping requirements for the INA WtW program?

Tribes must meet the recordkeeping and retention requirements of the Department’s regulations at 29 CFR 97.42. Alaska Native regional nonprofit corporations must follow the requirements of 29 CFR 95.53. Tribes receiving INA WtW grants may follow the recordkeeping requirements of section 411 of the Social Security Act, as applicable.

§ 646.705 What are the reporting requirements for the INA WtW program?

Grantees are required to submit both quarterly and annual reports covering program activity and financial expenditures. Two forms have been approved by OMB for INA WtW reporting. A modified version of the Standard Form (SF) 269A (ETA 9069–1) shall be used to report financial expenditures. A Participation and Characteristics Report (PCR) (ETA 9069) shall be used to report program activity and participant characteristics.

§ 646.710 Are tribes operating a TANF program required to report INA WtW activities under TANF as well?

Yes. Pursuant to the requirements of section 411 of the Social Security Act, INA WtW grantees who are TANF tribes shall report INA WtW activities under the TANF program, in addition to submitting the INA WtW reports cited above. However, tribes operating a NEW program and an INA WtW program, but not their own TANF program, are exempt from the reporting requirements described in section 411 of the Social Security Act.

Subpart H—Waivers and Performance Standards*§ 646.800 Are statutory waivers allowable under the INA WtW program?

Yes. The Secretary of Labor may waive or modify any provision of section 403(a)(5)(C) [except for clause (vii) thereof, related to the deadline for expenditure of funds] of the Social Security Act, which are otherwise applicable to INA WtW grantees. Accordingly, the Secretary may waive the statutory requirements relating to client eligibility for services, allowable activities, and spending limits. Any waiver(s) requested must demonstrate how the waiver, if granted, will increase the efficiency or effectiveness of the program. Waivers may be requested at any time, and shall be effective as of the date indicated in the approval letter.

§ 646.805

Grantees must specify and support each provision to be waived.

§ 646.805 What are the performance measures tribes have to meet under the INA WtW program?

The Secretary has determined that the most important measures of the tribe's performance are the number of participants entering unsubsidized employment, the duration of that employment, and the increase in their earnings. Grant applicants will be required to submit planned outcome figures with their INA WtW plans. These planned outcomes will be compared against reported outcomes in the tribe's annual report. In addition, INA WtW grantees must negotiate in good faith with the Secretary of DHHS with respect to the substance and funding of any evaluation under section 413(j) of the Social Security Act, and must cooperate with the conduct of any such evaluation.

Subpart I—Miscellaneous Provisions and Requirements

§ 646.900 May a tribe combine its INA WtW grant with other employment and training programs under Pub. L. 102-477, the Indian Employment, Training and Related Services Demonstration Act of 1992?

Yes. All grants awarded under the INA WtW program are formula-funded, so any INA WtW grant funds awarded to a tribe can therefore be included in a consolidated plan authorized by Public Law 102-477. For those tribes already participating in the "477" demonstration effort, application for an INA WtW grant will take the form of a "477 plan" modification submitted to the lead agency responsible for the "477" program.

§ 646.905 What are the other Federal laws which must be followed by INA WtW grantees?

All otherwise applicable Federal statutes, including those dealing with equal employment opportunity, workplace safety, employment standards, treatment of individuals with disabilities, age discrimination, and civil rights, must be followed by all INA WtW fund recipients.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 646.910 What are a tribe's appeal rights under the INA WtW program?

The administrative procedures in proceedings initiated by grantees funded under section 401 of the Job Training Partnership Act, as codified at 20 CFR part 636, shall apply to appeals of agency action by INA WtW grantees. These appeal procedures include the following provisions:

(a) Within twenty-one (21) days of the receipt of a denial of a request for a statutory waiver under § 646.800 of this part, or within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of a final determination imposing a sanction or corrective action issued pursuant to 20 CFR 636.8, an INA WtW grantee whose request for a statutory waiver has been denied, or who seeks review of a Grant Officer's Final Determination, may request a hearing before the Department's Office of Administrative Law Judges pursuant to 20 CFR 636.10.

(b) The decision of an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) shall be final unless, within twenty (20) days of the decision, a party dissatisfied with that ALJ decision has filed a petition for review with the Administrative Review Board (ARB), established pursuant to the provisions of Secretary's Order No. 2-96, published at 61 FR 19977 (May 3, 1996). This petition shall specifically identify the procedure, fact, law, and/or policy to which exception is taken. Those provisions of the determination not specified for review, or the entire determination when no hearing has been requested, shall be considered resolved and not subject to further review. A copy of the petition for review must be sent to the opposing party at that time. Thereafter, the decision of the ALJ shall constitute final agency action unless the ARB, within thirty (30) days of the filing of the petition for review, notifies the parties that the case has been accepted for review. Any case accepted by the ARB shall be decided within 120 days of such acceptance. If no decision is reached in that time, then the decision of the ALJ shall constitute final Departmental action.

§ 646.915 What administrative requirements must be met when the INA WtW program ends?

In accordance with the Department's regulations at 29 CFR 97.50 for tribes and 29 CFR 95.71 for nonprofits, all expiring grants will be closed out. This means that all funds drawn down under the INA WtW grant must be accounted for as allowable expenditures or returned to the Department. The Department will issue appropriate closeout forms and instructions to all INA WtW grantees after the program ends.

PART 650—STANDARD FOR APPEALS PROMPTNESS—UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION

Sec.

650.1 Nature and purpose of the standard.

650.2 Federal law requirements.

650.3 Secretary's interpretation of Federal law requirements.

650.4 Review of State law and criteria for review of State compliance.

650.5 Annual appeals performance plan.

AUTHORITY: Sec. 1102 of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1302; Secretary's Order No. 4-75, dated April 16, 1975. Interpret and apply secs. 303(a)(1), 303(a)(3), and 303(b)(2) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 503(a)(1), 503(a)(3), 503(b)(2)).

SOURCE: 37 FR 16173, Aug. 11, 1972, unless otherwise noted.

§ 650.1 Nature and purpose of the standard.

(a) This standard is responsive to the overriding concern of the U.S. Supreme Court in California Department of Human Resources v. Java, 402 U.S. 121 (1971), and that of other courts with delay in payment of unemployment compensation to eligible individuals, including delays caused specifically by the adjudication process. The standard seeks to assure that all administrative appeals affecting benefit rights are heard and decided with the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible.

(b) Sections 303(a)(1) and (3) of the Social Security Act require, as a condition for the receipt of granted funds, that State laws include provisions for methods of administration reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due, and opportunity for a fair hearing for all individuals whose claims for unemployment compensation are denied. The Secretary has construed these provisions to require, as a condition for receipt of granted funds, that State laws include provisions for hearing and deciding appeals for all unemployment insurance claimants who are parties to an administrative benefit appeal with the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible. What is the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible in an individual case depends on the facts and circumstances of that case. For example, the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible will be longer in cases that involve interstate appeals, complex issues of fact or law, reasonable requests by parties for continuances or rescheduling of hearings or other unforeseen and uncontrollable factors than it will be for other cases.

(c) In addition, the Secretary has construed section 303(b)(2) of the Social Security Act as requiring States to comply substantially with the required provisions of State law. The Secretary considers as substantial compliance the issuance of minimum percentages of first level benefit appeal decisions within the periods of time specified in § 650.4.

(d) Although the interpretation of Federal law requirements in § 650.3 below applies to both first and second level administrative benefit appeals, the criteria for review of State compliance in § 650.3(b) apply only to first level benefit appeals.

§ 650.2 Federal law requirements.

(a) Section 303(a)(1) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for:

Such methods of administration * * * as are found by the Secretary of Labor to be reasonably calculated to insure full payment of unemployment compensation when due.

(b) Section 303(a)(3) of the Social Security Act requires that a State law include provision for:

Opportunity for a fair hearing, before an impartial tribunal, for all individuals whose claims for unemployment compensation are denied.

§ 650.3

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(c) Section 303(b)(2) of the Social Security Act provides that:

Whenever the Secretary of Labor, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the State agency charged with the administration of the State law, finds that in the administration of the law there is—

(1) * * *

(2) A failure to comply substantially with any provision specified in subsection (a) [303(a)]; the Secretary of Labor shall notify such State agency that further payments will not be made to the State until he is satisfied that there is no longer any such denial or failure to comply. Until the Secretary of Labor is so satisfied, he shall make no further certification to the Secretary of the Treasury with respect to such State * * *

§ 650.3 Secretary's interpretation of Federal law requirements.

(a) The Secretary interprets sections 303(a)(1) and 303(a)(3) above to require that a State law include provision for—

(1) Hearing and decision for claimants who are parties to an appeal from a benefit determination to an administrative tribunal with the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible, and

(2) Such methods of administration of the appeals process as will reasonably assure hearing and decision with the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible.

(b) The Secretary interprets section 303(b)(2) above to require a State to comply substantially with provisions specified in paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 650.4 Review of State law and criteria for review of State compliance.

(a) A State law will satisfy the requirements of § 650.3(a) if after calendar year 1973 it contains a provision requiring, or is construed to require, hearing and decision for claimants who are parties to an administrative appeal affecting benefit rights with the greatest promptness that is administratively feasible.

(b) A State will be deemed to comply substantially with the State law requirements set forth in § 650.3(a) with respect to first level appeals, if for the calendar year 1975 and ensuing years, the State has issued at least 60 percent of all first level benefit appeal decisions within 30 days of the date of appeal, and at least 80 percent of all first level benefit appeal decisions within 45 days. These computations will be derived from the State's regular reports required pursuant to the Employment Security Manual, part III, sections 4400-4450.<sup>1</sup>

(c) To afford the States a reasonable opportunity to make the changes necessary to meet these criteria, the Secretary will not evaluate substantial compliance until calendar year 1974 and for that year he will apply less stringent criteria than for future years. A State law will be deemed to comply substantially with the State law promptness requirement for calendar year 1974 if the State has issued at least 50 percent of all first level benefit appeal decisions within 30 days of the date of appeal; at least 75 percent of its first level benefit appeal decisions within 45 days; and at least 90 percent of its first level benefit appeal decisions within 75 days. These computations also will be derived from the aforementioned reports required pursuant to the Employment Security Manual.

[37 FR 16173, Aug. 11, 1972, as amended at 41 FR 6757, Feb. 13, 1976]

§ 650.5 Annual appeals performance plan.

No later than December 15, 1974, and the 15th of December of each ensuing year, each State shall submit an appeals performance plan showing how it will operate during the following calendar year so as to achieve or maintain the issuance of at least 60 percent of all first level benefit appeals decisions within 30 days of the date of appeal, and 80 percent within 45 days.

PART 651—GENERAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING THE FEDERAL-STATE
EMPLOYMENT SERVICE SYSTEM

§ 651.10 Definitions of terms used in parts 651-658.

Administrator, United States Employment Service (Administrator) means the chief official of the United States Employment Service (USES) or the Administrator's designee.

Affirmative action means positive, result-oriented action imposed on or assumed by an employer pursuant to legislation, court order, consent decree, directive of a fair employment practice authority, government contract, grant or loan, or voluntary affirmative action plan adopted pursuant to the Affirmative Action Guidelines of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to provide equal employment opportunities for members of a specified group which for reasons of past custom, historical practice, or other nonoccupationally valid purposes has been discouraged from entering certain occupational fields.

Agricultural worker means a worker, whose primary work experience has been in farmwork in industries with a Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) of 01-07, except 027, 074, 0752, and 078, whether alien or citizen, who is legally allowed to work in the United States.

Applicant means a person who files an application for services with a local office of a State agency, with outstationed staff or with an outreach worker.

Application card means the basic local office record for an applicant.

A Bona Fide Occupational Qualification (BFOQ) means that an employment decision or request based on age, sex, national origin or religion is based on a finding that such characteristic is necessary to the individual's ability to perform the job in question. Since a BFOQ is an exception to the general prohibition against discrimination on the basis of age, sex, national origin or religion, it must be interpreted narrowly in accordance with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission regulations set forth at 29 CFR parts 1604, 1605 and 1627.

Clearance means activities in the placement process involving joint action of local offices in different labor market areas and/or States in the location, selection and the job referral of an applicant.

Complaint means a representation made or referred to a State or local JS office of a violation of the JS regulations and/or other federal, State or local employment related law.

Complainant means the individual, employer, organization, association, or other entity filing a complaint.

Day-haul means the assembly of workers at a pick-up point waiting to be employed, transportation of them to farm employment, and the return of the workers to the pick-up point on the same day. For the purposes of this definition "day-haul" shall exclude transportation and return of workers employed under regularly scheduled job orders such as corn detasseling jobs for youth.

Decertification means the rescission by the Secretary of the year end certification made under Section 7 of the Wagner-Peyser Act to the Secretary of the Treasury that the State agency may receive funds authorized by the Wagner-Peyser Act.

Dictionary of Occupational Titles (DOT) means the Dictionary of Occupational Titles, the reference work published by the USES which contains brief, non-technical definitions of U.S. job titles, distinguishing number codes, and worker trait data.

DOL means the Department of Labor.

D.O.T. means the Dictionary of Occupational Titles, the reference work published by the USES which contains brief, non-technical definitions of U.S. job titles, distinguishing number codes, and worker trait data.

Employment and Training Administration (ETA) means the component of the Department of Labor containing the United States Employment Service (USES).

Employer means a person, firm, corporation or other association or organization (1) which currently has a location within the United States to which U.S. workers may be referred for employment, and which proposes to employ a worker at a place within the United States and (2) which has an employer relationship with respect to employees under this subpart as indicated by the fact that it hires, pays, fires, supervises and otherwise controls the work of such employee. An association of employers shall be considered an employer if it has all of the indicia of an employer set forth in this definition. Such an association, however, shall be considered as a joint employer with the employer member if either shares in exercising one or more of the definitional indicia.

Establishment means a public or private economic employing unit generally at a single physical location which produces and/or sells goods or services, for example, a mine, factory, store, farm orchard or ranch. It is usually engaged in one, or predominantly one, type of commercial or governmental activity. Each branch or subsidiary unit of a large employer in a geographical area or community should be considered an individual establishment, except that all such units in the same physical location shall be considered a single establishment. A component of an establishment which may not be located in the same physical structure (such as the warehouse of a department store) should also be considered as part of the parent establishment. For the purpose of the "seasonal farmworker" definition, farm labor contractors and crew leaders are not considered establishments; it is the organizations to which they supply the workers that are the establishments.

Farmwork means work performed for wages in agricultural production or agricultural services in establishments included in industries 01—Agricultural Production-Crops; 02—Agricultural Production-Livestock excluding 027—Animal Specialties; 07—Agricultural Services excluding 074—Veterinary Services, 0752—Animal Speciality Services, and 078—Landscape and Horticultural Services, as defined in the most recent edition of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Code definitions.

Farmworker, see Agricultural worker.

Full application means an application for an applicant who has participated in an application interview and which includes the applicant's personal characteristics, work history and an occupational classification and DOT code.

Hearing Officer means a Department of Labor Administrative Law Judge, designated to preside at DOL administrative hearings.

Identification card (applicant identification card) means a card given to the applicant on which are recorded identifying information and the dates of the applicant's visits to the local employment office.

Intrastate job order means a job order describing one or more hard-to-fill job openings, which a local office uses to request recruitment assistance from other local offices within the State.

JS regulations means the Federal regulations at 20 CFR parts 601-604, 620, 621, and 651-658, and at 29 CFR parts 8, 26, and 75.

Job bank means a computer assisted system which provides listings of current job openings in the area, on a regular basis, for distribution to JS and WIN offices and to cooperating agencies.

Job development means the process of securing a job interview with a public or private employer for a specific applicant for whom the local office has no suitable opening on file.

Job information means information derived from data compiled in the normal course of employment service activities from reports, job orders, applications and the like.

Job opening means a single job opportunity for which the local office has on file a request to select and refer on applicant or applicants.

Job Information Service (JIS) means a unit or an area within a JS local office where applicants primarily, on a self-service basis or with minimum professional help, can obtain specific and general information on where and how to get a job.

Job referral means (1) the act of bringing to the attention of an employer an applicant or group of applicants who are available for specific job openings and (2) the record of such referral. "Job referral" means the same as "referral to a job."

Job Service (JS) means the nationwide system of public employment offices, funded through the United States Employment Service (USES) as grantee

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 651.10

State agencies, and the various offices of the State agencies.

Labor market area means a geographic area consisting of a central city (or cities) and the surrounding territory within a reasonable commuting distance.

Labor Market Information (LMI) means that body of knowledge pertaining to the socio-economic forces influencing the employment process in specific labor market areas. These forces, which affect labor demand-supply relationships and define the content of the LMI program, include population and growth characteristics, trends in industrial and occupational structure, technological developments, shifts in consumer demands, unionization, trade disputes, retirement practices, wage levels, conditions of employment, training opportunities, job vacancies, and job search information.

Local office manager means the JS official in charge of all JS activities in a local office of a State agency.

LMI means labor market information.

Migrant farmworker is a seasonal farmworker who had to travel to do the farmwork so that he/she was unable to return to his/her permanent residence within the same day. Full-time students traveling in organized groups rather than with their families are excluded.

Migrant food processing worker means a person who during the preceding 12 months has worked at least an aggregate of 25 or more days or parts of days in which some work was performed in food processing (as classified in the 1972 Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) definitions 201, 2033, 2035, and 2037 for food processing establishments), earned at least half of his/her earned income from processing work and was not employed in food processing year round by the same employer, provided that the food processing required travel such that the worker was unable to return to his/her permanent residence in the same day. Migrant food processing workers who are full-time students but who travel in organized groups rather than with their families are excluded.

MSFW means a migrant farmworker, a migrant food processing worker, or a seasonal farmworker.

Partial application means the application of an applicant who has not participated in an application interview and which does not include an occupational classification of DOT code. Partial applications prepared for Migrants and Seasonal Farmworkers must include a signed waiver for full services at that time in accordance with 20 CFR 653.103.

Placement means the hiring by a public or private employer of an individual referred by the employment office for a job or an interview, provided that the employment office completed all of the following steps:

(a) Prepared a job order form prior to referral, except in the case of a job development contact on behalf of a specific applicant;

(b) Made prior arrangements with the employer for the referral of an individual or individuals;

(c) Referred an individual who had not been specifically designated by the employer, except for referrals on agricultural job orders for a specific crew leader or worker;

(d) Verified from a reliable source, preferably the employer, that the individual had entered on a job; and

(e) Appropriately recorded the placement.

Program Budget Plan (PBP) means the annual planning document for the SESA required by Sec. 8 of the Wagner-Peyser Act containing the SESA's detailed planning, programming and budget for carrying out employment security activities. For the purpose of JS regulations, this definition shall be restricted to the employment service portion of the PBP.

Public housing means housing operated by or on behalf of any public agency.

RA; see Regional Administrator.

Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration (RA) means the chief DOL Employment and Training Administration (ETA) official in each DOL regional office.

Respondent means the employer or State agency (including a State agency official) who is alleged to have committed the violation described in a complaint.

Rural area means an area which is not included in the urban area of a Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area and which has a population of less than 10,000.

Seasonal farmworker means a person who during the preceding 12 months worked at least an aggregate of 25 or more days or parts of days in which some work was performed in farmwork, earned at least half of his/her earned income from farmwork, and was not employed in farmwork year round by the same employer. For the purposes of this definition only, a farm labor contractor is not considered an employer. Non-migrant individuals who are full-time students are excluded.

Secretary means the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Labor or the Secretary's designee.

SESA; see State Employment Service Agency.

Significant MSFW States shall be those States designated annually by ETA and shall include the twenty (20) States with the highest number of MSFW applicants.

Significant MSFW local offices shall be those designated annually by ETA and include those local offices where MSFWs account for 10% or more of annual applicants and those local offices which the Administrator determines should be included due to special circumstances such as an estimated large number of MSFWs in the local office service area. In no event shall the number of significant MSFW local offices be less than 100 offices on a nationwide basis.

Significant bilingual MSFW local offices shall be those designated annually by ETA and include those significant MSFW offices where 10% or more of MSFW applicants are estimated to require service provisions in Spanish unless the Administrator determines other local offices also should be included due to special circumstances.

Solicitor means the chief legal officer of the U.S. Department of Labor or the Solicitor's designee.

Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area (SMSA) means a metropolitan area designated by the Bureau of Census which contains (1) at least one city of 50,000 inhabitants or more, or (2) twin cities with a combined population of at least 50,000.

State shall include the fifty States, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

State Administrator means the chief official of the State Employment Security Agency (SESA).

State agency means the State job service agency designated under section 4 of the Wagner-Peyser Act to cooperate with the USES in the operation of the job service system.

State Employment Security Agency (SESA) means the State agency which, under the State Administrator, contains both the State Employment service agency (State agency) and the State unemployment compensation agency.

State hearing official means a State official designated to preside at State administrative hearings convened to resolve JS-related complaints pursuant to subpart E of part 658 of this chapter.

Supportive services means services other than employment or training that are needed to enable individuals to obtain or retain employment, or to participate in employment and training programs.

Tests means a standardized method of measuring an individual's possession of, interest in, or ability to acquire, job skills and knowledge. Use of tests by employment service staff must be in accordance with the provisions of:

(1) 41 CFR part 60-3, Uniform Guidelines on Employee Selection Procedures;

(2) 29 CFR part 1627, Records To Be Made or Kept Relating to Age; Notices To Be Posted; Administrative Exemptions; and

(3) The Department of Labor's regulations on Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Handicap in Programs and Activities Receiving or Benefiting from Federal Financial Assistance, which have been published as 29 CFR part 32 at 45 FR 66706 (Oct. 7, 1980).

Training means a planned, systematic sequence of instruction or other learning experience on an individual or group basis under competent supervision, which is designed to impart skills, knowledge, or abilities to prepare individuals for employment.

Transaction means a single ES activity performed on behalf of an individual seeking assistance and/or the result of such an activity, e.g., applicant registration referral to a job, referral to a supportive service, counseling interview, testing, job development, job placement, enrollment in training, and inactivation of an applicant registration.

United States Employment Service (USES) means the component of the Employment and Training Administration of DOL which was established under the Wagner-Peyser Act of 1933 to promote and develop a national system of public job service offices.

Vocational Plan means a plan developed jointly by a counselor or counselor trainee and the applicant which describes: (1) The applicant's short-range and long-range occupational goals and (2) the actions to be taken to place the plan into effect.

Work Incentive Program (WIN) means the employment and training program under part C of title IV of the Social Security Act, administered by a State agency (such as the State employment service) or another public or nonprofit private agency.

(Wagner-Peyser Act of 1933, as amended, 29 U.S.C. 49 et seq.; 5 U.S.C. 301; and 38 U.S.C. chapters 41 and 42) known hereafter as the Act, as amended by the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA). Congress intended that the States exercise broad authority in implementing provisions of the Act.

(b) Except as otherwise provided the definitions contained in section 2 of the Act apply to these regulations.

Act means the Wagner-Peyser Act (29 U.S.C. 49 et seq.).

Department means the United States Department of Labor (DOL), including its agencies and organizational units.

Governor means the chief executive of any State.

JTPA means the Job Training Partnership Act of 1982 (29 U.S.C. 1501 et seq.).

State means any of the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and Guam.

State Agency means the State governmental unit designated under section 4 of the Act to cooperate with the Secretary in the operation of the public employment service system.

State Workforce Investment Board (State Board) means the entity within a State appointed by the Governor under section 111 of the Workforce Investment Act.

WIA means the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (29 U.S.C. 2801 et seq.).

§ 652.2 Scope and purpose of the employment service system.

The basic purpose of the employment service system is to improve the functioning of the nation's labor markets by bringing together individuals who are seeking employment and employers who are seeking workers.

§ 652.3 Basic labor exchange system.

At a minimum, each State shall administer a labor exchange system which has the capacity:

- (a) To assist jobseekers in finding employment;
- (b) To assist employers in filling jobs;
- (c) To facilitate the match between jobseekers and employers;
- (d) To participate in a system for clearing labor between the States, including the use of standardized classification systems issued by the Secretary, under section 15 of the Act; and.

(e) To meet the work test requirements of the State unemployment compensation system.

[48 FR 50665, Nov. 2, 1983, as amended at 64 FR 18762, Apr. 15, 1999]

§ 652.4 Allotment of funds and grant agreement.

(a) Allotments. The Secretary shall provide planning estimates in accordance with section 6(b)(5) of the Act. Within 30 days of receipt of planning estimates from the Secretary, the State shall make public the substate resource distributions, and describe the process and schedule under which these resources will be issued, planned and committed. This notification shall include a description of the procedures by which the public may review and comment on the substate distributions, including a process by which the State will resolve any complaints.

(b) Grant Agreement. To establish a continuing relationship under the Act, the Governor and the Secretary shall sign a Governor/Secretary Agreement, including a statement assuring that the State shall comply with the Act and all applicable rules and regulations. Consistent with this Agreement and section 6 of the Act, State allotments will be obligated through a Notification of Obligation.

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1205-0209)

§ 652.5 Services authorized.

The sums allotted to each State under section 6 of the Act must be expended consistent with an approved plan under 20 CFR 661.220 through 661.240 and §§ 652.211 through 652.214. At a minimum, each State shall provide the basic labor exchange elements at § 652.3.

§ 652.6-652.7 [Reserved]

§ 652.8 Administrative provisions.

(a) Administrative Requirements. The Employment Security Manual shall not be applicable to funds appropriated under the Wagner-Peyser Act. Except as provided for in paragraph (f) of this section, administrative requirements and cost principles applicable to grants under this part 652 are as specified in 29 CFR part 97, Uniform Administrative Requirements for Grants and Cooperative Agreements to State and Local Governments, and OMB Circular A-87 (Revised).

(b) Management systems, reporting and recordkeeping. (1) The State shall ensure that financial systems provide fiscal control and accounting procedures sufficient to permit preparation of required reports, and the tracing of funds to a level of expenditure adequate to establish that funds have not been expended in violation of the restrictions on the use of such funds (section 10(a)).

(2) The financial management system and the program information system shall provide federally required records and reports that are uniform in definition, accessible to authorized Federal and State staff, and verifiable for monitoring, reporting, audit and evaluation purposes (section 10(c)).

(c) Reports Required. (1) Each State shall make reports pursuant to instructions issued by the Secretary and in such format as the Secretary shall prescribe.

(2) The Secretary is authorized to monitor and investigate pursuant to section 10 of the Act.

(d) Special Administrative and Cost Provisions. (1) Neither the Department nor the State is a guarantor of the accuracy or truthfulness of information obtained from employers or applicants in the process of operating a labor exchange activity.

(2) Prior approval authority, as described in various sections of 29 CFR part 97, Uniform Administrative Requirements for Grants and Cooperative Agreements to State and Local Governments, and OMB Circular A-87 (Revised), is delegated to the State except that the Secretary reserves the right to require transfer of title on non-expendable Automated Data Processing Equipment (ADPE), in accordance with provisions contained in 29 CFR 97.32(g). The Secretary reserves the right to exercise prior approval authority in other areas, after providing advance notice to the State.

(3) Application for financial assistance and modification requirements shall be as specified under this part.

(4) Cost of promotional and informational activities consistent with the provisions of the Act, describing services offered by employment security agencies, job openings, labor market information, and similar items are allowable.

(5) Each State shall retain basic documents for the minimum period specified below:

(i) Work Application: One year.

(ii) Job Order: One Year.

(6) Costs of employer contributions and expenses incurred for State agency fringe benefit plans that do not meet the requirements in OMB Circular A-87 (Revised) are allowable, provided that:

(i) For retirement plans, on behalf of individuals employed before the effective date of this part, the plan is authorized by State law and previously approved by the Secretary; the plan is insured by a private insurance carrier which is licensed to operate this type of plan; and any dividends or similar credits due to participation in the plan are credited against the next premium falling due under the contract;

(ii) For retirement plans on behalf of individuals employed after the effective date of this part, and for fringe benefit plans other than retirement, the Secretary grants a time extension to cover an interim period if State legislative action is required for such employees to be covered by plans which meet the requirements of OMB Circular A-87 (Revised). During this interim period, State agency employees may be enrolled in plans open to State agency employees only. No such extension may continue beyond the 60th day following the completion of the next full session of the State legislature which begins after the effective date of this part;

(iii) For fringe benefit plans other than retirement, the Secretary grants a time extension which may continue until such time as they are comparable in cost to those fringe benefit plans available to other similarly employed employees of the State on the condition that there are no benefit improvements. The Secretary may grant this time extension if the State agency can demonstrate that the extension is necessary to prevent loss of benefits to current States agency employees, retirees and/or their fringe benefit plan beneficiaries, or that it is necessary to avoid unreasonable expenditures on behalf of the employee or employer to maintain such fringe benefits for current employees and retirees. At such time as the cost of these fringe benefit plans becomes equitable with those available to other similarly employed State employees, the time extension will cease and the requirements of OMB Circular A-87 (Revised) will apply;

(iv) Requests for time extensions under this section will include an opinion of the State Attorney General, that either legislative action is required to accomplish compliance with OMB Circular A-87 (Revised) or, for (d)(6)(iii) of this section that such compliance would result in either loss of current benefits to State agency employees and retirees or unreasonable expenditures to maintain these benefits. Such requests will be filed with the Secretary no later than 30 days after the effective date of this part; and

(v) Time extensions granted relative to (d)(6)(iii) of this section require a signed statement by the State agency Administrator, that no improvements have been made to fringe benefits under the extension and that the plan(s) is (are) not consistent with those available to other similarly employed State employees, for each year of the extension. Documentation supporting the affidavit shall be maintained for audit purposes.

(7) Payments from the State's Wagner-Peyser allotment made into a State's account in the Unemployment Trust Fund for the purpose of reducing charges against Reed Act funds (section 903(c) of the Social Security Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 1103(c)) are allowable costs, provided that:

(i) The charges against Reed Act funds were for amounts appropriated, obligated, and expended for the acquisition of automatic data processing installations or for the acquisition or major renovation of State owned office building; and

(ii) With respect to each acquisition of improvement of property pursuant to paragraph (d)(7)(i) of this section, the payments are accounted for in the State's records as credits against equivalent amounts of Reed Act Funds used for administrative expenditures.

(e) Disclosure of Information. (1) The State shall assure the proper disclosure of information pursuant to section 3(b) of the Act.

(2) The information specified in section 3(b) and other sections of the Act, shall also be provided to officers or any employee of the Federal Government of a State government lawfully charged with administration of unemployment compensation laws, employment service activities under the Act or other related legislation, but only for purposes reasonably necessary for the proper administration of such laws.

(f) Audits. (1) At least once every 2 years, the State shall prepare or have prepared an independent financial and compliance audit covering each full program year not covered in the previous audit, except that funds expended pursuant to section 7(b) of the Act shall be audited annually.

(2) The Comptroller General and the Inspector General of the Department shall have the authority to conduct audits, evaluations or investigations necessary to meet their responsibilities under sections 9(b)(1) and 9(b)(2), respectively, of the Act.

(3) The audit, conducted pursuant to paragraph (f)(1) or (f)(2) of this section, shall be submitted to the Secretary who shall make an initial determination. Such determinations shall be based on the requirements of the Act, regulations, and State plan.

(i) The initial determination shall identify the audit findings, state the Secretary's proposed determination of the allowability of questioned costs and activities, and provide for informal resolution of those matters in controversy contained in the initial determination.

(ii) The Secretary shall not impose sanctions and corrective actions without first providing the State with an opportunity to present documentation or arguments to resolve informally those matters in controversy contained in the Secretary's initial determination. The informal resolution period shall be at least 60 days from issuance of the initial determination and no more than 170 days from the receipt by the Secretary of the final approved audit report. If the matters are resolved informally, the Secretary shall issue a final determination pursuant to paragraph (f)(3)(iii) of this section which notifies the parties in writing of the nature of the resolution and may close the file.

(iii) If the matter is not resolved informally, the Secretary shall provide each party with a final written determination by certified mail, return receipt requested. In the case of audits, the final determination shall be issued not later than 180 days after the receipt by the Secretary of the final approved audit report. The final determination shall:

(A) Indicate that efforts to resolve informally matters contained in the initial determination have been unsuccessful;

(B) List those matters upon which the parties continue to disagree;

(C) List any modifications to the factual findings and conclusions set forth in the initial determination;

(D) Establish a debt if appropriate;

(E) Determine liability, method of restitution of funds and sanctions;

(F) Offer an opportunity for a hearing in accordance with 20 CFR 658.707 through 658.711 in the case of a final determination imposing a sanction or corrective action; and

(G) Constitute final agency action unless a hearing is requested.

(g) Sanctions for Violation of the Act.

(1) The Secretary may impose appropriate sanctions and corrective actions for violation of the Act, regulations, or State plan, including the following:

(i) Requiring repayment, for debts owed the Government under the grant, from non-Federal funds;

(ii) Offsetting debts arising from the misexpenditure of grant funds, against amounts to which the State is or may be entitled under the Act, provided that debts arising from gross negligence or willful misuse of funds shall not be offset against future grants. When the Secretary reduces amounts allotted to the State by the amount of the misexpenditure, the debt shall be fully satisfied;

(iii) Determining the amount of Federal cash maintained by the State or a subrecipient in excess of reasonable grant needs, establishing a debt for the amount of such excessive cash, and charging interest on that debt;

(iv) Imposing other appropriate sanctions or corrective actions, except where specifically prohibited by the Act or regulations.

(2) To impose a sanction or corrective action, the Secretary shall utilize the initial and final determination procedures outlined in (f)(3) of this section.

(h) Other violations. Violations or alleged violations of the Act, regulations, or grant terms and conditions except those pertaining to audits or discrimination shall be determined and handled in accordance with 20 CFR part 658, subpart H.

(i) Fraud and abuse. Any persons having knowledge of fraud, criminal activity or other abuse shall report such information directly and immediately to the Secretary. Similarly, all complaints involving such matters should also be reported to the Secretary directly and immediately.

(j) Nondiscrimination and Affirmative Action Requirements. States shall:

(1) Assure that no individual be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, subjected to discrimination under, or denied employment in the administration or in connection with any services or activities authorized under the Act in violation of any applicable nondiscrimination law, including laws prohibiting discrimination on the basis of age, race, sex, color, religion, national origin, disability, political affiliation or belief. All complaints alleging discrimination shall be filed and processed according to the procedures in the applicable DOL nondiscrimination regulations.

(2) Assure that discriminatory job orders will not be accepted, except where the stated requirement is a bona fide occupational qualification (BFOQ). See, generally, 42 U.S.C. 2000(e)-2(e), 29 CFR parts 1604, 1606, 1625.

(3) Assure that employers' valid affirmative action requests will be accepted and a significant number of qualified applicants from the target group(s) will be included to enable the employer to meet its affirmative action obligations.

§ 652.9

(4) Assure that employment testing programs will comply with 41 CFR part 60-3 and 29 CFR part 32 and 29 CFR 1627.3(b)(iv).

(5) Nondiscrimination and equal opportunity requirements and procedures, including complaint processing and compliance reviews, will be governed by the applicable DOL non-discrimination regulations.

§ 652.9 Labor disputes.

(a) State agencies shall make no job referral on job orders which will aid directly or indirectly in the filling of a job opening which is vacant because the former occupant is on strike, or is being locked out in the course of a labor dispute, or the filling of which is otherwise an issue in a labor dispute involving a work stoppage.

(b) Written notification shall be provided to all applicants referred to jobs not at issue in the labor dispute that a labor dispute exists in the employing establishment and that the job to which the applicant is being referred is not at issue in the dispute.

(c) When a job order is received from an employer reportedly involved in a labor dispute involving a work stoppage, State agencies shall:

(1) Verify the existence of the labor dispute and determine its significance with respect to each vacancy involved in the job order; and

(2) Notify all potentially affected staff concerning the labor dispute.

(d) State agencies shall resume full referral services when they have been notified of, and verified with the employer and workers' representative(s), that the labor dispute has been terminated.

(e) State agencies shall notify the regional office in writing of the existence of labor disputes which:

(1) Result in a work stoppage at an establishment involving a significant number of workers; or

(2) Involve multi-establishment employers with other establishments outside the reporting State.

Subpart B—Services for Veterans

§ 652.100 Services for veterans.

Services for veterans are administered by the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Veterans' Employment and Training (OASVET). OASVET's general regulations are located in chapter IX of this title.

[54 FR 39354, Sept. 26, 1989]

Subpart C—Wagner-Peyser Act Services in a One-Stop Delivery System Environment

SOURCE: 65 FR 49462, Aug. 11, 2000, unless otherwise noted.

§ 652.200 What is the purpose of this subpart?

(a) This subpart provides guidance to States to implement the services provided under the Act, as amended by WIA, in a One-Stop delivery system environment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided, the definitions contained at subpart A of this part and section 2 of the Act apply to this subpart.

§ 652.201 What is the role of the State agency in the One-Stop delivery system?

(a) The role of the State agency in the One-Stop delivery system is to ensure the delivery of services authorized under section 7(a) of the Act. The State agency is a required One-Stop partner in each local One-Stop delivery system and is subject to the provisions relating to such partners that are described at 20 CFR part 662.

(b) Consistent with those provisions, the State agency must:

(1) Participate in the One-Stop delivery system in accordance with section 7(e) of the Act;

(2) Be represented on the Workforce Investment Boards that oversee the local and State One-Stop delivery system and be a party to the Memorandum of Understanding, described at 20 CFR 662.300, addressing the operation of the One-Stop delivery system; and

(3) Provide these services as part of the One-Stop delivery system.

§ 652.202 May local Employment Service Offices exist outside of the One-Stop service delivery system?

(a) No, local Employment Service Offices may not exist outside of the One-Stop service delivery system.

(b) However, local Employment Service Offices may operate as affiliated sites, or through electronically or technologically linked access points as part of the One-Stop delivery system, provided the following conditions are met:

(1) All labor exchange services are delivered as a part of the local One-Stop delivery system in accordance with section 7(e) of the Act and § 652.207(b);

(2) The services described in paragraph (b)(1) of this section are available in at least one comprehensive physical center, as specified in 20 CFR 662.100, from which job seekers and employers can access them; and

(3) The Memorandum of Understanding between the State agency local One-Stop partner and the Local Workforce Investment Board meets the requirements of 20 CFR 662.300.

§ 652.203 Who is responsible for funds authorized under the Act in the workforce investment system?

The State agency retains responsibility for all funds authorized under the Act, including those funds authorized under section 7(a) required for providing the services and activities delivered as part of the One-Stop delivery system.

§ 652.204 Must funds authorized under section 7(b) of the Act (the Governor's reserve) flow through the One-Stop delivery system?

No, these funds are reserved for use by the Governor for the three categories of activities specified in section 7(b) of the Act. However, these funds may flow through the One-Stop delivery system.

§ 652.205 May funds authorized under the Act be used to supplement funding for labor exchange programs authorized under separate legislation?

(a) Section 7(c) of the Act enables States to use funds authorized under sections 7(a) or 7(b) of the Act to supplement funding of any workforce activity carried out under WIA.

(b) Funds authorized under the Act may be used under section 7(c) to provide additional funding to other activities authorized under WIA if:

(1) The activity meets the requirements of the Act, and its own requirements;

(2) The activity serves the same individuals as are served under the Act;

(3) The activity provides services that are coordinated with services under the Act; and

(4) The funds supplement, rather than supplant, funds provided from non-Federal sources.

§ 652.206 May a State use funds authorized under the Act to provide "core services" and "intensive services" as defined in WIA?

Yes, funds authorized under section 7(a) of the Act must be used to provide core services, as defined at section 134(d)(2) of WIA and discussed at 20 CFR 663.150, and may be used to provide intensive services as defined at WIA section 134(d)(3)(C) and discussed at 20 CFR 663.200. Funds authorized under section 7(b) of the Act may be used to provide core or intensive services. Core and intensive services must be provided consistent with the requirements of the Act.

§ 652.207 How does a State meet the requirement for universal access to services provided under the Act?

(a) A State has discretion in how it meets the requirement for universal access to services provided under the Act. In exercising this discretion, a State must meet the Act's requirements.

(b) These requirements are:

(1) Labor exchange services must be available to all employers and job seekers, including unemployment insurance (UI) claimants, veterans, migrant and seasonal farmworkers, and individuals with disabilities;

(2) The State must have the capacity to deliver labor exchange services to employers and job seekers, as described in the Act, on a Statewide basis through:

- (i) Self-service;
- (ii) Facilitated self-help service; and
- (iii) Staff-assisted service;

§ 652.208

(3) In each local workforce investment area, in at least one comprehensive physical center, staff funded under the Act must provide core and applicable intensive services including staff-assisted labor exchange services; and

(4) Those labor exchange services provided under the Act in a local workforce investment area must be described in the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU).

§ 652.208 How are core services and intensive services related to the methods of service delivery described in § 652.207(b)(2)?

Core services and intensive services may be delivered through any of the applicable three methods of service delivery described in § 652.207(b)(2). These methods are:

- (a) Self-service;
- (b) Facilitated self-help service; and
- (c) Staff-assisted service.

§ 652.209 What are the requirements under the Act for providing reemployment services and other activities to referred UI claimants?

(a) In accordance with section 3(c)(3) of the Act, the State agency, as part of the One-Stop delivery system, must provide reemployment services to UI claimants for whom such services are required as a condition for receipt of UI benefits. Services must be provided to the extent that funds are available and must be appropriate to the needs of UI claimants who are referred to reemployment services under any Federal or State UI law.

(b) The State agency must also provide other activities, including:

(1) Coordination of labor exchange services with the provision of UI eligibility services as required by section 5(b)(2) of the Act;

(2) Administration of the work test and provision of job finding and placement services as required by section 7(a)(3)(F) of the Act.

§ 652.210 What are the Act's requirements for administration of the work test and assistance to UI claimants?

(a) State UI law or rules establish the requirements under which UI claimants must register and search for work in order to fulfill the UI work test requirements.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) Staff funded under the Act must assure that:

(1) UI claimants receive the full range of labor exchange services available under the Act that are necessary and appropriate to facilitate their earliest return to work;

(2) UI claimants requiring assistance in seeking work receive the necessary guidance and counseling to ensure they make a meaningful and realistic work search; and

(3) UI program staff receive information about UI claimants' ability or availability for work, or the suitability of work offered to them.

§ 652.211 What are State planning requirements under the Act?

The State agency designated to administer funds authorized under the Act must prepare for submission by the Governor, the portion of the five-year State Workforce Investment Plan describing the delivery of services provided under the Act in accordance with WIA regulations at 20 CFR 661.220. The State Plan must contain a detailed description of services that will be provided under the Act, which are adequate and reasonably appropriate for carrying out the provisions of the Act, including the requirements of section 8(b) of the Act.

§ 652.212 When should a State submit modifications to the five-year plan?

(a) A State may submit modifications to the five-year plan as necessary during the five-year period, and must do so in accordance with the same collaboration, notification, and other requirements that apply to the original plan. Modifications are likely to be needed to keep the strategic plan a viable and living document over its five-year life.

(b) That portion of the plan addressing the Act must be updated to reflect any reorganization of the State agency designated to deliver services under the Act, any change in service delivery strategy, any change in levels of performance when performance goals are not met, or any change in services delivered by State merit-staff employees.

§ 652.213 What information must a State include when the plan is modified?

A State must follow the instructions for modifying the strategic five-year plan in 20 CFR 661.230.

§ 652.214 How often may a State submit modifications to the plan?

A State may modify its plan, as often as needed, as changes occur in Federal or State law or policies, Statewide vision or strategy, or if changes in economic conditions occur.

§ 652.215 Do any provisions in WIA change the requirement that State merit-staff employees must deliver services provided under the Act?

No, the Secretary requires that labor exchange services provided under the authority of the Act, including services to veterans, be provided by State merit-staff employees. This interpretation is authorized by and consistent with the provisions in sections 3(a) and 5(b) of the Act and the Intergovernmental Personnel Act (42 U.S.C. 4701 et seq.). The Secretary has and has exercised the legal authority under section 3(a) of the Act to set additional staffing standards and requirements and to conduct demonstrations to ensure the effective delivery of services provided under the Act. No additional demonstrations will be authorized.

§ 652.216 May the One-Stop operator provide guidance to State merit-staff employees in accordance with the Act?

Yes, the One-Stop delivery system envisions a partnership in which Wagner-Peyser Act labor exchange services are coordinated with other activities provided by other partners in a One-Stop setting. As part of the local Memorandum of Understanding, the State agency, as a One-Stop partner, may agree to have staff receive guidance from the One-Stop operator regarding the provision of labor exchange services. Personnel matters, including compensation, personnel actions, terms and conditions of employment, performance appraisals, and accountability of State merit-staff employees funded under the Act, remain under the authority of the State agency. The guidance given to employees must be consistent with the provisions of the Act, the local Memorandum of Understanding, and applicable collective bargaining agreements.

Subpart B—Services for Migrant and Seasonal Farmworkers (MSFWs)

SOURCE: 45 FR 39459, June 10, 1980, unless otherwise noted.

§ 653.100 Purpose and scope of subpart.

This subpart sets forth the principal regulations of the United States Employment Service (USES) for counseling, testing, and job and training referral services for migrant and seasonal farmworkers (MSFWs) on a basis which is qualitatively equivalent and quantitatively proportionate to services provided to non-MSFWs. It also contains requirements that State agencies establish a system to monitor their own compliance with USES regulations governing services to MSFWs, including the regulations under this subpart. Special services to ensure that MSFWs receive the full range of employment related services are established under this subpart.

§ 653.101 Provision of services to migrant and seasonal farmworkers (MSFWs).

(a) Each State agency and each local office shall offer to migrant and seasonal farmworkers (MSFWs) the full range of employment services, benefits and protections, including the full range of counseling, testing, and job and training referral services as are provided to non-MSFWs. In providing such services, the State agency shall consider and be sensitive to the preferences, needs, and skills of individual MSFWs and the availability of job and training opportunities.

(b) Each State agency shall assure that, in a local area, the same local offices, including itinerant and satellite offices, but exclusive of day-haul operations, offer services to both non-MSFWs and MSFWs. Separate farm labor service local offices, which offer only farmwork to agricultural workers while another local office serving the same geographical area offers other JS services to other applicants, are prohibited so that all applicants receive employment services on the same basis.

§ 653.102 Job information.

All State agencies shall make job order information conspicuous and available to MSFWs in all local offices. This information shall include Job Bank information in local offices where it is available. Such information shall be made available either by computer terminal, microfiche, hard copy, or other equally effective means. Each significant MSFW local office shall provide adequate staff assistance to each MSFW to use the job order information effectively. In those offices designated as significant MSFW bilingual offices, such assistance shall be provided to MSFWs in Spanish and English, wherever requested or necessary, during any period of substantial MSFW activity.

§ 653.103 MSFW job applications.

(a) Every local office shall determine whether or not applicants are MSFWs as defined at § 651.10 of this chapter.

(b) Except as provided in § 653.105, when an MSFW applies for JS services at a local office or is contacted by an Outreach worker, the services available through the JS shall be explained to the MSFW. In local offices which have been designated as significant MSFW bilingual offices by ETA, this explanation shall be made in Spanish, if necessary or requested during any period of substantial MSFW activity. Other local offices shall provide bilingual explanations wherever feasible.

(c) The local office staff member shall provide the MSFW a list of those services. The list shall be written in English and Spanish and shall specify those services which are available after completion of a full application and those services which are available after completion of a partial application. The JS staff member shall explain to each MSFW the advantages of completing a full application.

Applications shall be reviewed periodically by the local office manager or a member of his/her staff to ensure their accuracy and quality. Applications and the application-taking process shall also be reviewed during State and Federal onsite reviews by the State and Regional MSFW Monitor Advocates and/or review staff, who shall check overall accuracy and quality, and offer technical advice on corrections or improvements.

(d) If the MSFW wishes to complete a full application, the staff shall provide all assistance necessary to complete the application and shall ensure that the form includes complete information. It shall include, to the extent possible, the significant history of the MSFW's prior employment, training and educational background and a statement of any desired employment and any training needs in order to permit a thorough assessment of the applicant's skills, abilities and preferences. All applicable items shall be completed according to the ETA instructions for preparation of the application card (ES-511). Additional Dictionary of Occupational Titles codes or keywords shall be assigned, where appropriate, based on the MSFW's work history, training, and skills, knowledges, and abilities. Secondary cards shall be completed and separately filed when keywords are not used. In extremely small local offices where the limited applicant load and file size does not require completion of secondary cards, additional D.O.T. codes shall be noted on the primary application card.

(e) If an MSFW wishes any JS service, and does not wish or is unable to file a full application, the interviewer shall try to obtain as much information as possible for a partial application. The interviewer shall enter the information on the partial application. The interviewer shall offer to refer the applicant to any available jobs for which the MSFW may be qualified, and any JS services permitted by the limited information available. He/she shall advise the MSFW that he/she may file a full application at any time.

(f) Partial applications shall be completed according to ETA instructions.

(g) Partial applications for MSFWs shall be filed in accordance with local office procedures for filing other partial applications.

(h) To minimize the need for additional applications in other offices, States shall issue JS cards to MSFWs at the initial visit under the following conditions:

(1) When automated data retrieval systems are available in the State. In this instance, JS staff shall advise the MSFW that the JS card may be presented at any other JS office in the State and that services will be provided without completion of an additional application unless the services requested require additional information for adequate service delivery.

(2) When an MSFW is referred on an interstate or intrastate order. In this instance, when it is known to the order-holding local office (through the presentation of an JS card or otherwise) that the MSFW has completed a full application or partial application in the applicant holding office or elsewhere, an additional application shall not be taken by the order-holding office unless the MSFW requests JS services in addition to referral on the clearance order.

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1205-0039)

§ 653.104 Services to MSFW family members, farm labor contractors, and crew members.

(a) In addition to other requirements in this subpart, the following special requirements are established for services to MSFW family members, farm labor contractors and crew members. Except as provided at §§ 653.103(e) and 653.105, no local office shall refer an MSFW family or crew unless each working member of the family or crew being referred, has filed either a full or partial application pursuant to § 653.103(b) at a local office or has been issued a JS card in instances set forth in § 653.103(h). Local offices may, upon request, provide general information, e.g., the types of crops in other areas, to farm labor contractors and family heads prior to the registration of all working members.

(b) No local office shall accept an application from an individual for employment as a farm labor contractor or fill an agricultural job order submitted by a farm labor contractor ("FLC") or farm labor contractor employee ("FLCE") unless the FLC or FLCE shows or obtains a valid FLC certificate, or FLCE identification card where required by Federal law, and a valid State certification where required by State law. If a FLC or FLCE is temporarily without his or her valid FLC certificate or FLCE identification card the local office shall try to verify the existence of the valid certificate or identification card by telephoning the State central office and/or the Department of Labor's Employment Standards Administration regional office. The local office, however, shall not serve the FLC or FLCE until the existence of the valid certificate or identification card is verified.

(c) Local offices may refer workers to registered farm labor contractors who are employers provided that a valid job order has been placed with the local office which clearly specifies all the terms and conditions of employment with the farm labor contractor shown as employer of record. Before a local office may refer workers to a farm labor contractor offering employment in another area of the State or in another State, one of two requirements must be met: Either a valid interstate clearance order from another State agency is on file in the office, or an intrastate order has been received from an office in another area of the State which is not within commuting distance of the office where the farm labor contractor is recruiting workers. Unless one of these conditions exists, the local office may only refer workers to a registered farm labor contractor who is an employer placing a local job order. Whenever the job order includes the provision of transportation, a FLC certificate authorizing transportation must be shown before workers are referred on the order.

§ 653.105 Job applications at day-haul facilities.

If the State agency is operating a day-haul facility under the exceptional circumstances provisions described in § 653.106(a), a list of JS services shall be distributed and a full application shall be completed whenever an MSFW requests the opportunity to file a full application unless this is impractical at that time. In such cases, a full application shall be taken at the earliest practical time. In all other cases, a list of JS services shall be distributed.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 653.106 JS day-haul responsibilities.

(a) State agencies shall not establish, operate, or supervise any agricultural day-haul facilities unless exceptional circumstances warrant such action and prior approval of the Regional Administrator is obtained.

(b) No JS applicants shall be referred to non-JS operated day-haul facilities, unless the applicant is referred on a specific job order and is provided with a checklist summarizing wages, working conditions, and other material specifications on the job order. Such checklists, where necessary, shall be in English and Spanish. State agencies shall use a standard checklist format provided by ETA unless a variance has been approved by the Regional Administrator. However, general labor market information on the availability of jobs, the level of activity of agricultural and nonagricultural employment, and crop conditions shall be provided, upon request, to applicants where specific referrals to employment cannot be made.

(c) JS outreach workers shall visit all JS and non-JS operated day-haul facilities with substantial activity during their operation for purposes of providing MSFWs with information and assistance pursuant to § 653.107(j). Monitoring of such activity shall be conducted pursuant to § 653.108(p).

§ 653.107 Outreach.

(a) Each State agency shall operate an outreach program in order to locate and to contact MSFWs who are not being reached by the normal intake activities conducted by the local offices. Upon receipt of planning instructions and resource guidance from ETA, each State agency shall develop an annual outreach plan, setting forth numerical goals, policies and objectives. This plan shall be subject to the approval of the Regional Administrator as part of the program budget plan (PBP) process. Wherever feasible, State agencies shall coordinate their outreach efforts with those of public and private community service agencies and MSFW groups.

(b) In determining the extent of their outreach program, States shall be guided by the following statement of ETA policy:

(1) State agencies should make sufficient penetration in the farmworker community so that a large number of MSFWs are aware of the full range of JS services.

(2) Significant MSFW Local offices should conduct especially vigorous outreach in their service areas.

(3) State agencies in supply States should conduct particularly thorough outreach efforts with extensive follow-up activities which capitalize on the relatively long duration of MSFW residence in the State.

(c) The plan shall be based on the actual conditions which exist in the particular State, taking into account the State agency's history of providing outreach services, the estimated number of MSFWs in the State, and the need for outreach services in that State. The approval of the Regional Administrator shall be based upon his/her consideration of the following features of the outreach plan:

(1) Assessment of need. This assessment of need shall include:

(i) A review of the previous year's agricultural activity in the State.

(ii) A review of the previous year's MSFW activity in the State.

(iii) A projected level of agricultural activity in the State for the coming year.

(iv) A projected number of MSFWs in the State for the coming year, which shall take into account data supplied by CETA 303 grantees, other MSFW organizations, employer organizations and federal and/or State agency data sources such as the Department of Agriculture and the United States Employment Service.

(v) A statement of the consideration given to the State Monitor Advocate's recommendation as set forth in the annual summary developed under § 653.108(t).

(2) Assessment of available resources. This assessment of the resources available for outreach shall include:

(i) The level of funds available from all sources, including the funds specifically made available to the State agency for outreach.

(ii) Resources made available through existing cooperative agreements with public and private community service agencies and MSFW groups.

(iii) Where fewer resources are available for outreach than in a prior year, a statement of why fewer resources are available.

(3) Proposed outreach activities. The proposed outreach activities shall be designed to meet the needs determined under paragraph (c)(1) of this section with the available resources determined under paragraph (c)(2) of this section. The plan for the proposed outreach activities shall include:

(i) Numerical goals for the number of MSFWs to be contacted during the fiscal year by JS staff. The number of MSFWs planned to be contacted by other agencies under cooperative arrangements during the fiscal year also should be included in the plan. These numerical goals shall be based on the number of MSFWs estimated to be in the State in the coming year, taking into account the varying concentration of MSFWs during the seasons in each geographic area, the range of services needed in each area and the number of JS and/or cooperating agency staff who will conduct outreach.

(ii) Numerical goals for the staff years to be utilized for outreach during the fiscal year.

(iii) The level of funding to be utilized for outreach during the fiscal year.

(iv) The tools which will be used to conduct outreach contacts, including personal contact, printed matter, videotapes, slides, and/or cassette recordings.

(v) The records to be maintained by the JS outreach staff—logs of daily contacts to include the number of MSFWs contacted and assistance provided. The name of the individual contacted should be recorded when:

(A) An application for work is taken by an outreach worker,

(B) A referral to a job is made by an outreach worker, and/or

(C) A complaint is taken by an outreach worker.

(d) In developing the outreach plan, the State agency shall solicit information and suggestions from CETA 303 grantees, other appropriate MSFW groups, public agencies, agricultural employer organizations, and other interested organizations. In addition, at least 45 days before submitting its final outreach plan to the Regional Administrator, the State agency shall provide a proposed plan to CETA 303 grantees, public agencies, agricultural employer organizations, and other organizations expressing an interest and allow at least 30 days for review and comment. The State agency shall:

(1) Consider any comments received in formulating its final proposed plan.

(2) Inform all commenting parties in writing whether their comments have been incorporated and, if not, the reasons therefore.

(3) Transmit the comments and recommendations received and its responses to the Regional Administrator with the submission of the plan. (If the comments are received after the submission of the plan, they may be sent separately to the Regional Administrator.)

(e) The outreach plan shall be submitted as an essential part of the State's annual PBP. The resource requirement of the plan shall be reflected in the PBP budget request. The plan, including the resource requirement, shall be reviewed by the Regional Administrator during the annual PBP approval process. The State agency shall be required to implement the approved outreach plan as part of its compliance with the PBP.

(f) The Regional Administrator shall review and evaluate the outreach plan, including the assessments of needs and resources, in light of the history of the State's outreach efforts and the statements of policy set forth in § 653.107(b). He/she shall approve the plan only if it demonstrates that adequate outreach will be conducted. The approved outreach plan shall be available for review by interested parties.

(g) As part of the annual PBP process, funding of State agencies shall be contingent upon the substantial and timely compliance of the State agency with its prior year outreach plan. However, if the Regional Administrator makes a finding of good faith efforts, he/she may fund a State agency even though it did not achieve substantial and timely compliance.

(h) For purposes of hiring and assigning staff to outreach duties, State agencies shall seek, through merit system procedures, qualified candidates:

(1) Who are from MSFW backgrounds, and/or

(2) Who speak Spanish, and/or

(3) Who are racially or ethnically representative of the MSFWs in the service area.

(i) The five States with the highest estimated year round MSFW activity shall assign, in accordance with State merit staff requirements, full-time, year round staff to outreach duties. The remainder of the significant MSFW states shall make maximum efforts to hire outreach staff with MSFW experience for year round positions and shall assign outreach staff to work full-time during the period of the highest MSFW activity. Such outreach staff shall be bilingual if warranted by the characteristics of the MSFW population in the State, and shall spend a majority of their time in the field. The Regional Administrator may grant approval for a deviation from the requirements of this section if the State agency provides adequate evidence that outreach activities and service delivery to MSFWs would be improved through other staffing arrangements.

(j) For purposes of this subpart, an outreach "contact" shall include either the presentation of information and offer of assistance specified in paragraphs (j)(1) and (j)(2) of this section, or the followup activity specified in paragraph (j)(3) of this section.

(1) Outreach workers shall explain to MSFWs at their working, living or gathering areas, including day-haul sites, by means of written and oral presentations either spontaneous or recorded, in a language readily understood by them, the following:

(i) The services available from the local office, including the availability of referrals to agricultural and non-agricultural employment, to training, to supportive services, as well as the availability of testing, counseling and other job development services;

(ii) Types of specific employment opportunities which are currently available in the JS system;

(iii) Information on the JS complaint system and other organizations serving MSFWs;

(iv) A basic summary of farmworker rights with respect to the terms and conditions of employment;

(v) Provided, however, That outreach workers shall not enter work areas to perform outreach duties described in this section on an employer's property without permission of the employer, unless otherwise authorized to enter by law, shall not enter workers' living areas without the permission of the workers, and shall comply with appropriate State laws regarding access.

(2) After making the presentation, outreach workers shall urge the MSFWs to go to the local office to obtain the full range of JS services. If an MSFW cannot or does not wish to visit the local JS office, the outreach workers shall offer to provide on-site the following:

(i) Assistance in the preparation of applications;

(ii) If an unemployed MSFW, assistance in obtaining referral to specific employment opportunities currently available; if an employed MSFW, information regarding the types of employment opportunities which will become available upon the date on which the MSFW indicates that he/she will be available following his/her current employment.

(iii) Assistance in the preparation of either JS or non-JS related complaints;

(iv) Receipt and subsequent referral of complaints to the local office complaint specialist or local officer manager;

(v) Referral to supportive services for which the individual or a family member may be eligible;

(vi) As needed, assistance in making appointments and arranging transportation for individual MSFWs or members of their family to and from local offices or other appropriate agencies.

(3) Outreach workers shall make follow-up contacts as are necessary and appropriate to provide to the maximum extent possible the assistance specified in paragraphs (j)(1) and (j)(2) of this section.

(4) In addition to the foregoing outreach contacts, the State agency shall publicize the availability of JS services through such means as newspaper and electronic media publicity. Contacts with public and private community agencies, employers and/or employer organizations, and MSFW groups also shall be utilized to facilitate the widest possible distribution of information concerning JS services.

(k) Outreach workers shall be alert to observe the working and living conditions of MSFWs and, upon observation, or upon receipt of information regarding a suspected violation of federal or State employment-related law, document and refer information to the local office manager for processing in accordance with §653.113.

(l) Outreach workers shall be trained in local office procedures and in the services, benefits, and protections afforded MSFWs by the JS. They shall also be trained in the procedure for informal resolution of complaints. The program for such training shall be formulated by the State Administrator, pursuant to uniform guidelines developed by ETA, and each State's program shall be reviewed and commented upon in advance by the State MSFW Monitor Advocate.

(m) During months when outreach activities are conducted, outreach workers shall maintain complete records of their contacts with MSFWs and the services they perform in accordance with a format developed by ETA. These records shall include a daily log, a copy of which shall be sent monthly to the local office manager and maintained on file for at least two years. These records shall include the number of contacts and names of contacts (where applicable), the services provided (e.g., whether a complaint was received, whether an application was taken, and whether a referral was made). Outreach workers also shall maintain records of each possible violation or complaint of which they have knowledge, and their actions in ascertaining the facts and referring the matters as provided herein. These records shall include a description of the circumstances and names of any employers who have refused outreach workers access to MSFWs pursuant to § 653.107(1).

(n) During months when outreach activities are conducted, each local office manager shall file with the State MSFW Monitor Advocate a monthly summary report of outreach efforts. These reports shall summarize information collected, pursuant to paragraph (m) of this section. The local office manager and/or other appropriate State office staff members shall assess the performance of outreach workers by examining the overall quality and productivity of their work, including the services provided and the methods and tools used to offer services. Performance shall not be judged solely by the number of contacts made by the worker. The monthly reports and daily outreach logs shall be made available to the State MSFW Monitor Advocate and federal On-Site Review Teams. In addition, the distribution of any special funds for outreach, should funds become available, shall be based on the effectiveness and need of the State's outreach program as monitored by ETA.

(o) Outreach workers shall not engage in political, unionization or antiunionization activities during the performance of their duties.

(p) Outreach workers shall be provided with, carry and display, upon request, identification cards or other material identifying them as employees of the State agency.

§ 653.108 State agency self-monitoring.

(a) State Administrators shall assure that their State agencies monitor their own compliance with JS regulations in serving MSFWs on an ongoing basis. The State Administrator shall have overall responsibility for State agency self-monitoring.

(b) The State Administrator shall appoint a State MSFW Monitor Advocate. The State Administrator shall inform farmworker organizations and other organizations with expertise concerning MSFWs of the opening and encourage them to refer qualified applicants to apply through the State merit system prior to appointing a State MSFW Monitor Advocate. Among qualified candidates determined through State merit system procedures, the State agencies shall seek persons (1) who are from MSFW backgrounds, or (2) who speak Spanish or other languages of a significant proportion of the State MSFW population, or (3) who are racially or ethnically similar to the MSFWs in the State, or (4) who have substantial work experience in farmworker activities.

(c) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall have direct, personal access, whenever he/she finds it necessary, to the State Administrator and shall work in the State central office. The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall have status and compensation as approved by the civil service classification system and be comparable to other State positions assigned similar levels of tasks, complexity and responsibility.

(d) The State MSFW Monitor Advocates shall be assigned staff necessary to fulfill effectively all of his/her duties as set forth in this subpart. The number of staff positions shall be determined by reference to:

(1) The number of MSFWs in the State, as measured at the time of the peak MSFW population (MSFW activity), and (2) the need for monitoring activity in the State. The MSFW Monitor Advocates shall devote full time to Monitor Advocate functions, except that the USES Administrator may re-allocate positions from States of low MSFW activity to States of higher MSFW activity and may approve a plan for less than full-time work in States of low MSFW activity. Any such plan must demonstrate that the State MSFW Monitor Advocate function can be effectively performed with part-time staffing.

(e) All State MSFW Monitor Advocates and Assistant MSFW Monitor Advocates shall attend within the first three months of their tenure a training session conducted by the Regional MSFW Monitor Advocate. They shall

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 653.108

also attend whatever additional training sessions are required by the Regional or National MSFW Monitor Advocate.

(f) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall provide any relevant documentation requested from the State agency by the Regional MSFW Monitor Advocate.

(g) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall:

(1) Conduct an ongoing review of the delivery of services and protections afforded by JS regulations to MSFWs by the State agency and local offices. The State MSFW Monitor Advocate, without delay, shall advise the State agency and local offices of (i) problems, deficiencies, or improper practices in the delivery of services and protections afforded by these regulations (including progress made in achieving affirmative action goals and timetables), and (ii) means to improve such delivery.

(2) Participate in onsite local office MSFW formal monitoring reviews on a regular basis.

(3) Assure that all significant MSFW local offices not reviewed onsite by Federal staff, are reviewed at least once a year by State staff, and that, if necessary, those local offices in which significant problems are revealed by required reports, management information, the JS complaint system or otherwise are reviewed as soon as possible.

(4) Assure that the monitoring review format, developed by ETA, is used as a guideline in the conduct of local office MSFW onsite formal monitoring reviews. This format will ensure that applications and the application-taking process are reviewed during State onsite reviews by State MSFW Monitor Advocates and/or review staff, who shall check overall accuracy and quality, and offer technical advice on corrections or improvements.

(5) Review the State agency's outreach plan, and on a random basis, the outreach workers' daily logs and other reports including those showing or reflecting the workers' activities, to ensure that they comply with the outreach plan.

(h) Formal onsite MSFW monitoring reviews of local offices shall be conducted using the following procedures:

(1) Before beginning such a review, the State MSFW Monitor Advocate and/or review staff shall study:

- (i) Program performance data,
- (ii) Reports of previous reviews,
- (iii) Corrective action plans developed as a result of previous reviews,
- (iv) Complaint logs, and
- (v) Complaints elevated from the office or concerning the office.

(2) Upon completion of a local office onsite formal monitoring review, the State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall hold one or more wrap-up sessions with the local office manager and staff to discuss any obvious findings and offer initial recommendations and appropriate technical assistance.

(3) After each review the State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall conduct an indepth analysis of the review data. The conclusions and recommendations of the State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall be put in writing, shall be sent to the State Administrator, to the official of the State agency with line authority over the local office, and other appropriate State agency officials.

(4) The state MSFW Monitor Advocate may recommend that the review responsibility set forth in this subsection be delegated to a responsible professional member of the administrative staff of the State agency, if and when the State Administrator finds such delegation necessary. In such event, the State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall be responsible for and shall approve the written report of the review.

(5) The local office manager shall develop and propose a written corrective action plan. The plan shall be approved, or appropriately revised, by appropriate superior officials and the State MSFW Monitor Advocate. The plan shall include actions required to correct or to take major steps to correct any problems within 30 days or if the plan allows for more than 30 days for full compliance, the length of, and the reasons for, the extended period shall be specifically stated.

(6) State agencies, through line supervisory staff, shall be responsible for assuring and documenting that the local office is in compliance within the time period designated in the plan.

State agencies shall submit to the appropriate ETA regional offices copies of the onsite local office formal monitoring review reports and corrective action plans for significant local offices.

(i) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall participate in federal reviews conducted pursuant to subpart G.

(j) At the discretion of the State Administrator, the State MSFW Monitor Advocate may be assigned the responsibility as the complaint specialist. The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall participate in and monitor the performance of the complaint system, as set forth at 20 CFR 658.400 et seq. The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall review the local office managers' informal resolution of complaints relating to MSFWs and shall ensure that the State agency transmits copies of the logs of MSFW complaints to the regional office quarterly.

(k) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate also shall serve as an advocate to improve services for MSFWs within JS. The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall establish ongoing liaison with CETA 303 and other organizations serving farmworkers, and employers and/or employer organizations, in the State. The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall meet frequently with representatives of these organizations to receive complaints, assist in referrals of alleged violations to enforcement agencies, receive input on improving coordination with JS or improving JS services to MSFWs.

(l) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall conduct frequent field visits to the working and living areas of MSFWs, and shall discuss JS services and other employment-related programs with MSFWs, crew leaders, and employers. Records shall be kept of each such visit.

(m) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall participate in the appropriate regional public meeting(s) held by the Department of Labor Regional Farm Labor Coordinated Enforcement Committee.

(n) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall ensure that outreach efforts in all significant MSFW local offices are reviewed at least yearly to ensure that there is continuing compliance with 20 CFR 653.107. This review will include accompanying at least one outreach worker from each significant MSFW local office on his/her visits to MSFWs' working and living areas. The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall review findings from these reviews.

(o) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall review and assess the adequacy of the annual State affirmative action plan for MSFWs, and shall report such findings to the State Administrator.

(p) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall ensure that JS outreach activities are reviewed periodically at day-haul sites at which these activities are conducted. Complete records of such visits shall be kept. The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall ensure that local offices and the State Administrator are advised of any deficiencies.

(q) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall review on at least a quarterly basis all statistical and other MSFW-related data reported by significant MSFW local offices in order (1) to determine the extent to which the State agency has complied with regulations at § 653.100 et seq., and (2) to identify the areas of inadequate compliance.

(r) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall have full access to all statistical and other MSFW-related information gathered by State agencies and local offices and may interview State and local office staffs with respect to reporting methods. Subsequent to each review, the State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall consult, as necessary, with State and local offices and provide technical assistance to ensure accurate reporting.

(s) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall review and comment on proposed State JS directives, manuals, and operating instructions relating to MSFWs and shall ensure (1) that they accurately reflect the requirements of the regulations, and (2) that they are clear and workable. The State MSFW Monitor Advocate also shall explain and make available at the requestor's cost, pertinent directives and procedures to employers, employer organizations, farmworkers, farmworker organizations and other parties expressing an interest in a readily identifiable directive or procedure issued and receive suggestions on how these documents can be improved.

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 653.110

(t) The State MSFW Monitor Advocate shall prepare for the State Administrator an annual summary of JS services to MSFWs within his/her State based on statistical data and his/her reviews and activities set forth in these regulations. The summary shall include an assessment of the State agency's activities related to MSFWs such as those covered in the State agency's PBP, outreach plan, and affirmative action plan, and the other matters with respect to which the State MSFW Monitor Advocate has responsibilities under these regulations. A copy of this summary shall be forwarded to the Regional Administrator by the State Administrator.

§ 653.109 Data collection.

State agencies shall: (a) Collect data on MSFWs, including data on the number (1) contacted through outreach activities, (2) registering for service, (3) referred to agricultural jobs, (4) referred to non-agricultural jobs, (5) placed in agricultural jobs, (6) placed in non-agricultural jobs, (7) referred to training, (8) receiving counseling, (9) receiving job development, (10) receiving testing, (11) referred to supportive service, (12) receiving some service, (13) placed according to wage rates, and (14) placed according to duration. The State agencies also shall collect data on agricultural clearance orders (including field checks), MSFW complaints, and monitoring activities, as directed by ETA. These data shall be collected in accordance with the ESARS Handbook and applicable ETA Reports and Analysis Letters.

(b) Collect data on the number of MSFWs who were served as to whether they were male, female, black, Hispanic, American Indian, Asian, or Pacific Islander.

(c) Provide necessary training to State agency, including local office personnel, to assure accurate reporting of data;

(d) Collect and submit to ETA as directed by ETA, data on MSFWs required by the PBP, and

(e) Periodically collect and verify data required under this subsection, take necessary steps to ensure its validity, and collect and submit data for verification to ETA, as directed by ETA; and

(f) Submit additional reports to the ETA at such times and containing such items as ETA directs.

§ 653.110 Disclosure of data.

(a) State agencies shall disclose to the public, on written request, in conformance with applicable State and Federal law, the data collected by State and local offices pursuant to § 653.109, if possible within 10 working days after receipt of the request.

(b) If a request for data held by a State agency is made to the ETA national or regional office, the ETA shall forward the request to the State agency for response.

(c) If the requested data cannot be supplied within 10 working days of receipt by the State agency of the request, the State agency shall respond to the requestor in writing, giving the reason for the delay and specifying the date by which it expects to be able to comply.

(d) State agency intra-agency memoranda and reports (or parts thereof) and memoranda and reports (or parts thereof) between the State agency and the ETA, however, to the extent that they contain statements of opinion rather than facts, may be withheld from public disclosure provided this reason for withholding is given to the requestor in writing. Similarly, documents or parts thereof, which, if disclosed, would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal or employer privacy, may also be withheld provided the reason is given to the requester in writing.

§ 653.111

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 653.111 State agency staffing requirements.

(a) On a statewide basis, staff representative of the racial and ethnic characteristics in the work force shall be distributed in substantially the same proportion among (1) all "job groups" (as that term is defined by the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs), and (2) all offices in the plan(s).

(b)(1) As part of the PBP, each State agency shall develop and submit to the Regional Administrator affirmative action plans for all significant local offices within its jurisdiction (which, for the purposes of this provision, means those local offices representing the top 20 per cent of MSFW activity nationally). These affirmative action plans shall include goals and timetables and shall ensure that sufficient numbers of qualified, permanent minority staff are hired. Where qualified minority applicants are not available to be hired as permanent staff, qualified minority part-time, provisional, or temporary staff shall be hired in accordance with State merit system procedures, where applicable. These affirmative action plans shall be prepared on an individual office basis.

(2) The affirmative action plans shall include an analysis of the racial and ethnic characteristics of the work force in the local office service area. To determine the "work force" for the purpose of this paragraph, the State agency shall include the racial and ethnic characteristics of any MSFW population which is not a part of the permanent work force by computing an estimate of the total work years MSFWs collectively spend in the area and including a number of workers equivalent to this estimate as part of the permanent work force. This computation shall be made by calculating the average length of time, as a fractional part of a year, MSFWs stay in the area and then multiplying this figure by the total estimated MSFW population in the area during the previous year.

(3) The affirmative action plan also shall include an analysis of the local office staffing characteristics. The plan shall provide a comparison between the characteristics of the staff and the work force and determine if the composition of the local office staff(s) is representative of the racial and ethnic characteristics of the work force in the local office service area(s).

(4) If the staff under-represents any of these characteristics, the State agency shall establish a staffing goal at a level equivalent to the percentage of the characteristics in the work force in the local office service areas. The State agency also shall establish a reasonable timetable for achieving the staffing goal by hiring or promoting available, qualified staff in the under-represented categories. In establishing timetables, the State agency shall consider the vacancies anticipated through expansion, contraction, and turnover in the office(s) and available funds, and all affirmative action plans shall establish timetables that are designed to achieve the staffing goal no later than December 31, 1983.

(c) In addition, each State agency which has significant local offices, shall undertake special efforts to recruit MSFWs and persons from MSFW backgrounds for its staff, shall document achievements, and shall include in the affirmative action plan(s) a complete description of specific actions which the agency will take and time frames within which these actions will be taken.

(d) In developing the affirmative action plan for significant local offices, the State agency shall solicit from CETA 303 and other appropriate MSFW groups, employer organizations and other interested organizations, estimates of the total MSFW population in each local office service area, and the average length of time the MSFWs stay in the area. In addition, State agencies shall solicit, consider, incorporate as appropriate, respond to and include copies of comments from CETA 303, other appropriate MSFW groups, employer organizations, and other interested organizations, following procedures set forth for the annual outreach plan at § 653.107(d).

funding of State agencies which are required to develop and implement affirmative action plans for significant local offices shall be contingent upon the timely submittal of adequate affirmative action plans and the substantial and timely attainment of the goals and timetables contained in those plans. However, if the Regional Administrator makes a finding of good faith efforts, he/she may fund a State agency even though it did not achieve substantial and timely compliance.

(f) All State Employment Security Agencies (SESAs) required to develop affirmative action plans for significant local offices shall keep accurate records of their employment practices for those offices, including information on all applications. These records shall be maintained in accordance with the recordkeeping requirements concerning affirmative action which are established by ETA and distributed to the SESAs. All records shall be made available to the State MSFW Monitor Advocate, EEO staff and Federal On-Site Review Teams.

(g) Affirmative action plans shall contain a description of specific steps to be taken for the adequate recruitment of MSFWs for all vacant positions in significant local offices and the central office. These steps shall include advertisements in newspapers, radio or other media, in a manner calculated to best reach the MSFW population, and contacts by outreach workers and the State MSFW Monitor Advocate with groups serving the MSFW population.

(h) State EEO staff shall have the responsibility for developing affirmative action plans. The State MSFW Monitor Advocate(s) shall comment on the plan to the State Administrator. Upon submission of the affirmative action plan as part of the State agency's PBP submittal, the Regional MSFW Monitor Advocate shall review the affirmative action plan(s) as it pertains to MSFWs and comment to the Regional Administrator. As part of his/her regular reviews of State agency compliance, the Regional MSFW Monitor Advocate shall monitor the extent to which the State has complied with its affirmative action plan(s) as it pertains to MSFWs. The Regional MSFW Monitor Advocate's finding as to the adequacy of the plan(s) and as to the State's compliance with the plan(s) shall be considered in PBP decisions involving future funding of the State agency.

§ 653.112 State agency program budget plans.

(a) Each State agency, in its annual program budget plan, shall describe its plan to carry out the requirements of this subpart in the following year. The plan shall include, where applicable, the outreach and affirmative action plans required by §§ 653.107 and 653.111, respectively. For significant MSFW States, ETA shall establish program performance indicators reflecting equity indicators and indicators measuring minimum levels of service to MSFWs which the significant MSFW State agencies will be required to meet. These program performance indicator requirements shall be contained in the PBP Guidelines which ETA promulgates on an annual basis.

(b) Equity indicators shall address JS controllable services and shall include, at a minimum, individuals referred to a job; receiving counselling; receiving job development; receiving some service; and referred to supportive service.

(c) Minimum level of service indicators shall address other services to MSFWs and shall include, at a minimum, individuals placed in a job; placed in a job with a wage exceeding the Federal minimum wage by at least 50 cents/hour; placed long-term (150 days or more) in a non-agricultural job; review of significant MSFW local offices; field checks on agricultural clearance orders; outreach contacts per staff day; and processing of complaints. The determination of the minimum service levels required of significant MSFW States for each year shall be based on the following:

(1) Past State agency performance in serving MSFWs, as reflected in on-site reviews and data collected under § 653.109;

§ 653.113

(2) The need for services to MSFWs in the following year, comparing prior and projected levels of MSFW activity;

(3) The ETA program priorities for the following year; and

(4) Special circumstances and external factors existing in the particular State.

(d) The Regional Administrator shall review this portion of the PBP, and approve it upon making a written determination that it is acceptable in light of the requirements of this subpart. The Regional Administrator's written determination shall be available to the public upon request.

§ 653.113 Processing apparent violations.

(a) If a State agency employee observes, has reason to believe, or is in receipt of information regarding a suspected violation of employment related laws or JS regulations by an employer, except as provided at §653.503 (field checks) or §658.400 of this chapter (complaints), the employee shall document the suspected violation and refer this information to the local office manager.

(b) If the employer has filed a job order with the JS office within the past 12 months, the local office shall attempt informal resolution. If the employer does not remedy the suspected violation within 5 working days, procedures at part 658, subpart F of this chapter shall be initiated and, if a violation of an employment related law is involved, the violation shall be referred to the appropriate enforcement agency in writing.

(c) If the employer has not filed a job order with the local office during the past 12 months, the suspected violation of an employment related law shall be referred to the appropriate enforcement agency in writing.

§ 653.500 Purpose and scope of subpart.

This section contains the requirements for acceptance and handling of intrastate and interstate job clearance orders seeking workers to perform agricultural or food processing work on a less than year round basis. Orders seeking workers to perform agricultural or food processing work on a year round basis which involves permanent relocation are not subject to the requirements of this subpart. This section, therefore, contains requirements which affect not only applicants who are categorized as MSFWs based on their past employment, but all workers who are recruited through the JS intrastate and interstate clearance systems for less than year round agricultural or food processing work.

§ 653.501 Requirements for accepting and processing clearance orders.

(a) In view of the statutorily established basic function of the job service as a no-fee labor exchange, that is, as a forum for bringing together employers and job seekers, neither the ETA nor the State agencies are guarantors of the accuracy or truthfulness of information contained on job orders submitted by employers. Nor does any job order accepted or recruited upon by the JS constitute a contractual job offer to which the ETA or a State agency is in any way a party. Nevertheless, if the ETA or a State agency discovers that an employer's job order contains a material misrepresentation, the procedures of subpart F of part 658 of this chapter shall be followed.

(b) Intrastate and interstate job orders shall include the language of the first two sentences of paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) No local office or State agency shall place into intrastate or interstate clearance any job order seeking workers to perform agricultural or food processing work before reviewing it pursuant to paragraphs (d) or (e) of this section, as applicable.

(d) No local office shall place a job order seeking workers to perform agricultural or food processing work into intrastate clearance unless:

(1) The job order does not contain an unlawful discriminatory specification by race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, or mental or physical status unrelated to job performance (handicap);

(2) The employer has signed the job order and the job order states all the material terms and conditions of the employment, including:

- (i) The crop;
- (ii) The nature of the work;
- (iii) The anticipated period and hours of employment;
- (iv) The anticipated starting and ending date of employment and the anticipated number of days and hours per week for which work will be available;
- (v) An assurance that:

(A) The employer will provide to workers referred through the clearance system the number of hours of work cited in paragraph (d)(2)(iv) of this section for the week beginning with the anticipated date of need, unless the employer has amended the date of need at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need (pursuant to paragraph (d)(2)(xiii) of this section) by so notifying the order-holding office. The State agency shall make a record of this notification and shall attempt to inform referred migrant workers of the change in accordance with the following procedure:

(B) All workers referred through the clearance system, farm labor contractors on behalf of migrant workers or family heads on behalf of migrant family members referred through the clearance system shall be notified to contact a local job service office, preferably the order-holding office, to verify the date of need cited no sooner than 9 working days and no later than 5 working days prior to the original date of need cited on the job order; and that failure to do so will disqualify the referred migrant worker from the assurance provided in paragraphs (a) and (d) of this section.

(C) If the worker referred through the clearance system contacts a local office (in any State) other than the order holding office, that local office shall assist the referred worker in contacting the order holding office on a timely basis. Such assistance shall include, if necessary, contacting the order holding office by telephone or other timely means on behalf of the worker referred through the clearance system.

(D) If the employer fails to notify the order-holding office at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need the employer shall pay eligible (pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section) workers referred through the clearance system the specified hourly rate of pay, or in the absence of a specified hourly rate of pay, the higher of the Federal or State minimum wage for the first week starting with the originally anticipated date of need.

(E) Employers may require workers to perform alternative work if the guarantee in this section is invoked and if such alternative work is stated on the job order.

(F) For the purposes of this assurance, "working days" shall mean those days that the order-holding local office is open for public business.

(vi) The hourly wage rate or the piece rate estimated in hourly wage rate equivalents for each activity and unit size;

(vii) Any deductions to be made from wages;

(viii) A specification of any non-monetary benefits to be provided by the employer;

(ix) Any hours, days or weeks for which work is guaranteed, and, for each guaranteed week of work except as provided in paragraph (d)(2)(v) of this section, the exclusive manner in which the guarantee may be abated due to weather conditions or other acts of God beyond the employer's control;

(x) Any bonus or work incentive payments or other expenses which will be paid by the employer in addition to the basic wage rate, including the anticipated time period(s) within which such payments will be made. No such payments, however, shall be made contingent upon the worker continuing employment beyond the period of employment specified in the job order or, in the case of any worker with children, beyond the time needed to return home for the beginning of the school year;

(xi) An assurance that no extension of employment beyond the period of employment specified in the job order shall relieve the employer from paying the wages already earned, or if specified in the job order as a term of employment, providing transportation or paying transportation expenses to the worker's home;

(xii) Assurances that the working conditions comply with applicable Federal and State minimum wage, child labor, social security, health and safety, farm labor contractor registration and other employment-related laws;

(xiii) An assurance that the employer will expeditiously notify the order-holding local office or State agency by telephone immediately upon learning that a crop is maturing earlier or later, or that weather conditions, over-recruitment or other factors have changed the terms and conditions of employment. For orders submitted in conjunction with requests for foreign workers, an assurance that the employer will follow-up the telephone notification in writing.

(xiv) An assurance that the employer, if acting as a farm labor contractor ("FLC") or farm labor contractor employee ("FLCE") on the order, has a valid FLC certificate or FLCE identification card; and

(xv) An assurance of the availability of no cost or public housing which meets the Federal standards and which is sufficient to house the specified number of workers requested through the clearance system. This assurance shall cover the availability of housing for only those workers, and, when applicable, family members who are unable to return to their residence in the same day.

(xvi) An assurance that outreach workers shall have reasonable access to the workers in the conduct of outreach activities pursuant to § 653.107.

(3) The job order contains all the material terms and conditions of the job, and the employer assures that all items therein are actual conditions of the job by signing the following statement: "This job order describes the actual terms and conditions of the employment being offered by me and contains all the material terms and conditions of the job";

(4) The wages and working conditions offered are not less than the prevailing wages and working conditions among similarly employed agricultural workers in the area of intended employment or the applicable Federal or State minimum wage, whichever is higher. If the wages offered are expressed as piece rates or as base rates and bonuses, the employer shall make the method of calculating the wage and supporting materials available to JS staff who shall check if the employer's calculation of the estimated hourly wage rate is reasonably accurate and is not less than the prevailing wage rate or applicable Federal or State minimum wage, whichever is higher;

(5) The employer has agreed to provide or pay for the transportation of the workers and their families on at least the same terms as transportation is commonly provided by employers in the area of intended employment to agricultural workers and their families recruited from the same area of supply;

(6) JS staff have determined, through a preoccupancy housing inspection performed by JS staff or other appropriate public agencies, that the housing assured by the employer is in fact available, and meets the full set of standards set forth at 20 CFR part 654, subpart E which details applicable housing standards and contains provisions for conditional access to the clearance system; except that mobile range housing for sheepherders shall meet existing Departmental guidelines; and

(7) The local office and employer have attempted and have not been able to obtain sufficient workers within the local labor market area, or the local office anticipates a shortage of local workers.

(e) No state agency shall place a job order seeking workers to perform agricultural or food processing work with interstate clearance unless:

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 653.501

(1) The job order meets the requirements set forth at paragraphs (d)(1) through (d)(6) of this section;

(2) The State agency and the employer have attempted and have not been able to locate sufficient workers within the state, or the State agency anticipates a shortage of workers within the State; and

(3) The order has been reviewed and approved by the ETA regional office within 10 working days after receipt from the State agency, and the Regional Administrator has approved the areas of supply to which the order shall be extended. Any denial by the Regional Administrator shall be in writing and set forth the reasons for the denial.

(f) (1) The local office shall use the agricultural clearance form prescribed by ETA, and shall see that all necessary items on the form are completed, including items on attachments to the form prescribed by ETA.

(2) (i) The original of an interstate agricultural clearance form shall be retained for the order-holding local office files. If the clearance order is submitted in conjunction with a request for certification of temporary alien agricultural workers, the procedures at 20 CFR 655.204(a) shall be followed. For other clearance orders, the order-holding local office shall transmit a complete copy to the State office. The State office shall distribute additional copies of the form with all attachments except that the State agency may, at its discretion, delegate this distribution to the local office, as follows:

(A) At least one clear copy to each of the State agencies selected for recruitment (areas of supply);

(B) One copy to each applicant-holding ETA regional office;

(C) One copy to the order-holding ETA regional office; and

(D) One copy to the Regional Farm Labor Coordinated Enforcement Committee in the area of employment, Attn: ESA Regional Administrator.

(ii) Applicant-holding offices shall provide workers referred on clearance orders with a checklist summarizing wages, working conditions and other material specifications on the job order. Such checklists, where necessary, shall be in English and Spanish.

The checklist shall include language notifying the worker that a copy of the complete order is available for inspection. One copy of the form with all attachments shall be available for inspection in the applicant-holding office and the order-holding office. State agencies shall use a standard checklist format provided by ETA unless a variance has been approved by the Regional Administrator.

(iii) The applicant-holding office shall give each referred worker a copy of a description of worker's rights developed by the National Farm Labor Coordinated Enforcement Committee.

(g) The local office may place an intrastate or interstate order seeking workers to perform agricultural or food processing work for a specific farm labor contractor or worker preferred by the employer provided the order meets JS nondiscrimination criteria. The order would not meet such criteria, for example, if it requested a "white male crew leader" or "any white male crew leader."

(h) In local offices which have been designated significant MSFW bilingual offices by ETA, and in any other local office with bilingual staff, bilingual (English-Spanish) staff shall assist all agricultural workers, upon request, to understand the terms and conditions of employment set forth in intrastate and interstate job orders and shall provide such workers with checklists in Spanish showing wage payment schedules, working conditions and other material specifications of the job order.

(i) No agricultural or food processing order shall be included in job bank listings available outside the local office commuting area unless the order has been processed according to requirements for intrastate or interstate clearance contained in this subpart. If the job bank for the local office area incorporates offices beyond the local office commuting area, the order may be included in the listing but must be clearly designated as prohibiting referral from outside the community area, unless the requirements of this subpart are met.

(j) If the labor supply State agency accepts a clearance order, the State agency shall actively recruit workers for referral. In the event a potential labor supply State agency rejects a clearance order, the reasons for rejection shall be documented and submitted to the Regional Administrator having jurisdiction over the State agency. The Regional Administrator will examine the reasons for rejection, and, if the Regional Administrator agrees, will inform the Regional Administrator with jurisdiction over the order-holding State agency of the rejection and the justifiable reasons. If the Regional Administrator who receives the notification of rejection does not concur with the reasons for rejection, that Regional Administrator will so inform the USES Administrator, who will make a final determination on the acceptance or rejection of the order.

§ 653.502

§ 653.502 Changes in crop and recruitment situations.

(a) If a labor demand State agency learns that a crop is maturing earlier than expected or that other material factors, including weather conditions and recruitment levels, have changed, the agency shall immediately contact the labor supply State agency, who shall in turn immediately inform crews and families scheduled through the JS clearance system of the changed circumstances and adjust arrangements on behalf of such crews of families.

(b) When there is a delay in the date of need, procedures required of employers and workers at § 653.501(d)(2)(v) shall be followed. State agencies shall document notifications by employers and contacts by individual migrant workers or crew leaders on behalf of migrant workers or family heads on behalf of migrant family members to verify the date of need.

(c) In addition, if weather conditions, overrecruitment or other conditions have eliminated the scheduled job opportunities, the State agencies involved shall make every effort to place the workers in alternate job opportunities as soon as possible, especially if the worker(s) is already enroute or at the job site. JS staff shall keep records of actions under this section.

§ 653.503 Field checks.

(a) The State agency, through its local offices or otherwise, shall conduct random, unannounced field checks at a significant number of agricultural worksites to which JS placements have been made through the intrastate or interstate clearance system. These field checks shall include visit(s) to the worksite at a time when workers are there. Both the employees and the employer shall be consulted, and JS shall determine and document whether wages, hours, working and housing conditions are as specified in job orders. JS staff shall keep records of all field checks. If State agency personnel observe or receive information, or otherwise have reason to believe that conditions are not as stated on the job order or that an employer is violating an employment related law, the State agency shall document the finding and attempt informal resolution. If the matter has not been resolved within 5 working days, the State agency shall follow the procedures set forth at subpart F of part 658 of this chapter. Violations of employment related laws shall be referred to appropriate enforcement agencies in writing.

(b) State agencies, to the maximum extent possible, shall make formal or informal arrangements with appropriate State and Federal enforcement agencies pursuant to which such agencies will agree to conduct compliance reviews in their areas of enforcement responsibility at agricultural worksites where the State agency has placed workers through the agricultural clearance system and to inform the State agency if violations are found. An enforcement agency compliance review shall satisfy the requirement for State agency field checks where all aspects of wages, hours, working and housing conditions have been reviewed by the enforcement agency reviews. The State agency shall supplement enforcement agency efforts with field checks focusing on areas not addressed by enforcement agencies. State agencies shall report difficulties in making such formal or informal arrangements with State

§ 654.3 Description of Executive Order 12073.

Executive Order 12073 requires executive agencies to emphasize procurement set-asides in labor surplus areas. The Secretary of Labor is responsible under this order for classifying and designating labor surplus areas.

[44 FR 1689, Jan. 5, 1979, as amended at 48 FR 15616, Apr. 12, 1983]

§ 654.4 Definitions.

(a) Assistant Secretary shall mean Assistant Secretary for Employment and Training, U.S. Department of Labor.

(b) Civil jurisdiction shall mean:

(1) Cities of 25,000 or more population on the basis of the most recently available Bureau of the Census estimates; or

(2) Towns and townships in the States of New Jersey, New York, Michigan, and Pennsylvania of 25,000 or more population and which possess powers and functions similar to cities; or

(3) All counties, except those counties which contain any of the types of political jurisdictions defined in paragraphs (b) (1) and (2) of this section; or

(4) All other counties are defined as “balance of county” (i.e., total county less component cities and townships identified in paragraphs (b) (1) and (2) of this section); or

§ 654.5

(5) County equivalents which are towns in the States of Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

(c) Labor surplus area shall mean a civil jurisdiction that, in accordance with the criteria specified in § 654.5, has been classified as a labor surplus area.

(d) Reference period shall mean the two year period ending December 31 of the year prior to the October 1 annual date of eligibility determination.

[44 FR 1689, Jan. 5, 1979, as amended at 44 FR 26071, May 5, 1979; 48 FR 15616, Apr. 12, 1983; 53 FR 23347, June 21, 1988]

§ 654.5 Classification of labor surplus areas.

(a) Basic criteria. The Assistant Secretary shall classify a civil jurisdiction as a labor surplus area whenever, as determined by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the average unemployment rate for all civilian workers in the civil jurisdiction for the reference period is (1) 120 percent of the national average unemployment rate for civilian workers or higher for the reference period as determined by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, or (2) 10 percent or higher. No civil jurisdiction shall be classified as a labor surplus area if the average unemployment rate for all civilian workers for the reference period is less than 6.0 percent.

(b) Criteria for exceptional circumstances. The Assistant Secretary, upon petition submitted by the appropriate State employment security agency, may classify a civil jurisdiction, a Metropolitan Statistical Area, or a Primary Metropolitan Statistical Area as a labor surplus area whenever such an area meets or is expected to meet the unemployment tests established under § 654.5(a) as a result of exceptional circumstances. For purposes of this paragraph "exceptional circumstances" shall mean catastrophic events, such as natural disasters, plant closings, and contract cancellations expected to have a long-term impact on labor market area conditions, discounting temporary or seasonal factors. For purposes of this paragraph, "Metropolitan Statistical Area" and "Primary Metropolitan Statistical

[48 FR 15616, Apr. 12, 1983, as amended at 53 FR 23347, June 21, 1988]

§ 654.6 Termination of classification.

(a) Basic procedure. The Assistant Secretary shall terminate the classification of a civil jurisdiction as a labor surplus area after any year in which the Assistant Secretary determines that the criteria established under § 654.5 (a) are no longer met.

(b) Procedure for exceptional circumstances. The Assistant Secretary shall terminate the classification of a civil jurisdiction classified as a labor surplus area pursuant to the provisions of § 654.5(b) after any year in which the Assistant Secretary determines that the exceptional circumstances criteria of that paragraph are no longer met.

[44 FR 1689, Jan. 5, 1979, as amended at 48 FR 15616, Apr. 12, 1983]

§ 654.7 Publication of area classifications.

The Assistant Secretary shall publish annually a list of labor surplus areas together with geographic descriptions thereof. The Assistant Secretary periodically may cause these lists to be published in the Federal Register.

[44 FR 1689, Jan. 5, 1979, as amended at 48 FR 15616, Apr. 12, 1983]

§ 654.8 Services to firms and individuals in labor surplus areas.

To carry out the purposes and policy objectives of Executive Order 12073 and Executive Order 10582, the Assistant Secretary shall cooperate with and assist the State employment service agencies and the Secretary of Commerce, as appropriate, to:

(a) Provide relevant labor market data and related economic information to assist in the initiation of industrial expansion programs in labor surplus areas;

(b) Identify upon request the skills and numbers of unemployed persons available for work in labor surplus areas, providing such information to firms interested in establishing new plants and facilities or expanding existing plants and facilities in such areas;

(c) Identify the occupational composition and skill requirements of industries contemplating locating in labor surplus areas and make such information available to training and apprenticeship agencies and resources in the community for purposes of appropriate training and skill development;

(d) Identify unemployed individuals in need of, and having the potential for, training in occupations and skills required by new or expanding industries and refer such individuals to appropriate training opportunities;

(e) Receive job openings on a voluntary basis and/or under the mandatory listing program provided by 38 U.S.C. 2012 and Executive Order 11701 and refer qualified unemployed workers to such openings, making appropriate efforts to refer to such openings qualified individuals who reside in the labor surplus area.

[44 FR 1689, Jan. 5, 1979, as amended at 48 FR 15616, Apr. 12, 1983]

§ 654.9 Filing of complaints.

Complaints alleging that the Department of Labor has violated the labor surplus area regulations should be mailed to the Assistant Secretary for Employment and Training, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, DC 20210. Such complaints should include: (a) The allegations of wrongdoing; (b) the date of the incident; and (c) any other relevant information available to the complainant. The Assistant Secretary shall make a determination and respond to the complainant after investigation of the incident. If the complaint is not resolved following this investigation, the Assistant Secretary, at his discretion, may offer, in writing by certified mail, the complainant a hearing before a Department of Labor Administrative Law Judge, provided that the complainant requests such a hearing from the Assistant Secretary within 20 working days of the certified date of receipt of the Assistant Secretary's offer of a hearing.

[48 FR 15616, Apr. 12, 1983]

§ 654.10 Transition provisions.

The annual list of labor surplus areas for the period June 1, 1982, through May 31, 1983, shall be extended through September 30, 1983.

Subpart B—Responsibilities Under Executive Order 10582

AUTHORITY: 41 U.S.C. 10a et seq.; 29 U.S.C. 49 et seq.; 15 U.S.C. 644(n); E.O. 12073, E.O. 10582 as amended by E.O. 11051 and 12148.

§ 654.11 Purpose of subpart.

This subpart implements the responsibilities of the Secretary of Labor in determining areas of substantial unemployment in accordance with Executive Order 10582 issued pursuant to the Buy American Act, 41 U.S.C. 10a et seq.

§ 654.12 Description of Executive Order 10582.

(a) Under the Buy American Act, heads of executive agencies are required to determine, as a condition precedent to the purchase by their agencies of materials of foreign origin for public use within the United States, (1) that the price of like materials of domestic origin is unreasonable, or (2) that the purchase of like materials of domestic origin is inconsistent with the public interest.

(b) Section 3(c) of Executive Order 10582 issued pursuant to the Buy American Act permits executive agencies to reject a bid or offer to furnish materials of foreign origin in any situation in which the domestic supplier, offering the lowest price for furnishing the desired materials, undertakes to produce substantially all of the materials in areas of substantial unemployment, as determined by the Secretary of Labor.

§ 654.13 Determination of areas of substantial unemployment.

An area of substantial unemployment, for purposes of Executive Order 10582, shall be any area classified as a labor surplus area at § 654.5 of this part pursuant to the procedures set forth at subpart A of this part.

§ 654.14

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

§ 654.14 Filing of complaints.

Complaints arising under subpart B of this part alleging that the Department of Labor has violated the labor surplus area regulations shall be made pursuant to the procedures set forth at § 654.9 of this part.

Subparts C-D [Reserved]

Subpart E—Housing for Agricultural Workers

AUTHORITY: 29 U.S.C. 49k; 8 U.S.C. 1188(c)(4); 41 Op.A.G. 406 (1959).

SOURCE: 45 FR 14182, Mar. 4, 1980, unless otherwise noted.

PURPOSE AND APPLICABILITY

§ 654.400 Scope and purpose.

(a) This subpart sets forth the Employment and Training Administration standards for agricultural housing. Local Job Service offices, as part of the State employment service agencies and in cooperation with the United States Employment Service, assist employers in recruiting agricultural workers from places outside the area of intended employment. The experiences of the employment service indicate that employees so referred have on many occasions been provided with inadequate, unsafe, and unsanitary housing conditions. To discourage this practice, it is the policy of the Federal-State employment service system, as set forth in § 653.108 of this chapter, to deny its intrastate and interstate recruitment services to employers until the State employment service agency has ascertained that the employer's housing meets certain standards.

(b) To implement this policy, § 653.108 of this chapter provides that recruitment services shall be denied unless the employer has signed an assurance, a preoccupancy inspection has been conducted and the ES staff has ascertained that, with respect to intrastate clearance, if the workers are to be housed, the employer's housing meets or, with respect to interstate clearance, that the employer will provide housing for the workers which meets either the full set of standards set forth at 29 CFR 1910.142 or the full set of standards set forth in this subpart. Whichever is applicable under the criteria set forth in § 654.401; except that for mobile range housing for sheepherders, the housing shall meet existing Departmental guidelines.

[45 FR 14182, Mar. 4, 1980; 45 FR 22901, Apr. 4, 1980]

§ 654.401 Applicability; transitional provisions.

(a) Employers whose housing was constructed in accordance with the ETA housing standards may continue to follow the full set of ETA standards set forth in this subpart only where prior to April 3, 1980 the housing was completed or under construction, or where prior to March 4, 1980 a contract for the construction of the specific housing was signed.

(b) To effectuate these transitional provisions, agricultural housing to which this subpart applies and which complies with the full set of standards set forth in this subpart shall be considered to be in compliance with the Occupational Safety and Health Administration temporary labor camp standards at 29 CFR 1910.142.

§ 654.402 Variances.

(a) An employer may apply for a permanent, structural variance from a specific standard(s) in this subpart by filing a written application for such a variance with the local Job Service office serving the area in which the housing is located. This application must be filed by June 2, 1980 and must:

(1) Clearly specify the standard(s) from which the variance is desired;

(2) Provide adequate justification that the variance is necessary to obtain a beneficial use of an existing facility, and to prevent a practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship; and

(3) Clearly set forth the specific alternative measures which the employer has taken to protect the health and safety of workers and adequately show that such alternative measures have achieved the same result as the standard(s) from which the employer desires the variance.

(b) Upon receipt of a written request for a variance under paragraph (a) of this section, the local Job Service office shall send the request to the State office which, in turn, shall forward it to the Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration (RA). The RA shall review the matter and, after consultation with OSHA, shall either grant or deny the request for a variance.

(c) The variance granted by the RA shall be in writing, shall state the particular standard(s) involved, and shall state as conditions of the variance the specific alternative measures which have been taken to protect the health and safety of the workers. The RA shall send the approved variance to the employer and shall send copies to the Regional Administrator of the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, the Regional Administrator of the Employment Standards Administration, and the appropriate State agency and the local Job Service office. The employer shall submit and the local Job Service office shall attach copies of the approved variance to each of the employer's job orders which is placed into intrastate or interstate clearance.

(d) If the RA denies the request for a variance, the RA shall provide written notice stating the reasons for the denial to the employer, the appropriate State agency and the local Job Service office. The notice shall also offer the employer an opportunity to request a hearing before a DOL Hearing Officer, provided the employer requests such a hearing from the RA within 30 calendar days of the date of the notice. The request for a hearing shall be handled in accordance with the employment service complaint procedures set forth at §§ 658.421 (i) and (j), 658.422 and 658.423 of this chapter.

(e) The procedures of paragraphs (a) through (d) of this section shall only apply to an employer who has chosen, as evidenced by its written request for a variance, to comply with the ETA housing standards at §§ 654.404—654.417 of this subpart.

§ 654.403 Conditional access to the intrastate or interstate clearance system.

(a) Filing requests for conditional access—(1) “Noncriteria” employers. Except as provided in paragraph (a)(2) of this section, an employer whose housing does not meet applicable standards may file with the local Job Service office serving the area in which its housing is located, a written request that its job orders be conditionally allowed into the intrastate or interstate clearance system, provided that the employer's request assures that its housing will be in full compliance with the requirements of the applicable housing standards at least 20 calendar days (giving the specific date) before the housing is to be occupied.

(2) “Criteria” employers. If the request for conditional access described in paragraph (a)(1) of this section is from an employer filing a job order pursuant to an application for temporary alien agricultural labor certification for H-2A alien agricultural workers or H-2 alien workers under subpart B or subpart C, respectively, of part 655 of this chapter, the request shall be filed with the RA as an attachment to the application for temporary alien agricultural labor certification.

(3) Assurance. The employer's request pursuant to paragraphs (a)(1) or (a)(2) of this section shall contain an assurance that the housing will be in full compliance with the applicable housing standards at least 20 calendar days (stating the specific date) before the housing is to be occupied.

(b) Processing requests—(1) State agency processing. Upon receipt of a written request for conditional access to the intrastate or interstate clearance system under paragraph (a)(1) of this section, the local Job Service office shall send the request to the State office, which, in turn, shall forward it to the Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, (RA).

(2) Regional office processing and determination. Upon receipt of a request for conditional access pursuant to paragraph (a)(2) or paragraph (b)(1) of this section, the RA shall review the matter and, as appropriate, shall either grant or deny the request.

(c) Authorization. The authorization for conditional access to the intrastate or interstate clearance system shall be in writing, and shall state that although the housing does not comply with the applicable standards, the employer's job order may be placed into intrastate or interstate clearance until a specified date. The RA shall send the authorization to the employer and shall send copies to the appropriate State agency and local Job Service office. The employer shall submit and the local Job Service shall attach copies of the authorization to each of the employer's job orders which is placed into intrastate or interstate clearance.

(d) Notice of denial. If the RA denies the request for conditional access to the intrastate or interstate clearance system, the RA shall provide written notice to the employer, the appropriate State agency, and the local Job Service office, stating the reasons for the denial.

(e) Inspection. (1) The local Job Service office serving the area containing the housing of any employer granted conditional access to the intrastate or interstate clearance system shall assure that the housing is inspected no later than the date by which the employer has promised to have its housing in compliance with the requirements of this subpart. An employer, however, may request an earlier preliminary inspection. If, on the date set forth in the authorization, the housing is not in full compliance with the applicable housing standards as assured in the request for conditional access, the local Job Service office shall afford the employer five calendar days to bring the housing into full compliance. After the five-calendar-day period, if the housing is not in full compliance with the applicable housing standards as assured in the request for conditional access, the local Job Service office immediately:

(i) Shall notify the RA;

(ii) Shall remove the employer's job orders from intrastate and interstate clearance; and

(iii) Shall, if workers have been recruited against these orders, in cooperation with the employment service agencies in other States, make every reasonable attempt to locate and notify the appropriate crew leaders or workers, and to find alternative and comparable employment for the workers.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

HOUSING STANDARDS

§ 654.404 Housing site.

(a) Housing sites shall be well drained and free from depressions in which water may stagnate. They shall be located where the disposal of sewage is provided in a manner which neither creates nor is likely to create a nuisance, or a hazard to health.

(b) Housing shall not be subject to, or in proximity to conditions that create or are likely to create offensive odors, flies, noise, traffic, or any similar hazards.

(c) Grounds within the housing site shall be free from debris, noxious plants (poison ivy, etc.) and uncontrolled weeds or brush.

(d) The housing site shall provide a space for recreation reasonably related to the size of the facility and the type of occupancy.

§ 654.405 Water supply.

(a) An adequate and convenient supply of water that meets the standards of the State health authority shall be provided.

(b) A cold water tap shall be available within 100 feet of each individual living unit when water is not provided in the unit. Adequate drainage facilities shall be provided for overflow and spillage.

(c) Common drinking cups shall not be permitted.

§ 654.406 Excreta and liquid waste disposal.

(a) Facilities shall be provided and maintained for effective disposal of excreta and liquid waste. Raw or treated liquid waste shall not be discharged or allowed to accumulate on the ground surface.

(b) Where public sewer systems are available, all facilities for disposal of excreta and liquid wastes shall be connected thereto.

(c) Where public sewers are not available, a subsurface septic tank-seepage system or other type of liquid waste treatment and disposal system, privies or portable toilets shall be provided. Any requirements of the State health authority shall be complied with.

§ 654.407 Housing.

(a) Housing shall be structurally sound, in good repair, in a sanitary condition and shall provide protection to the occupants against the elements.

(b) Housing shall have flooring constructed of rigid materials, smooth finished, readily cleanable, and so located as to prevent the entrance of ground and surface water.

(c) The following space requirements shall be provided:

(1) For sleeping purposes only in family units and in dormitory accommodations using single beds, not less than 50 square feet of floor space per occupant;

(2) For sleeping purposes in dormitory accommodations using double bunk beds only, not less than 40 square feet per occupant;

(3) For combined cooking, eating, and sleeping purposes not less than 60 square feet of floor space per occupant.

(d) Housing used for families with one or more children over 6 years of age shall have a room or partitioned sleeping area for the husband and wife. The partition shall be of rigid materials and installed so as to provide reasonable privacy.

(e) Separate sleeping accommodations shall be provided for each sex or each family.

(f) Adequate and separate arrangements for hanging clothing and storing personal effects for each person or family shall be provided.

(g) At least one-half of the floor area in each living unit shall have a minimum ceiling height of 7 feet. No floor space shall be counted toward minimum requirements where the ceiling height is less than 5 feet.

(h) Each habitable room (not including partitioned areas) shall have at least one window or skylight opening directly to the out-of-doors. The minimum total window or skylight area, including windows in doors, shall equal at least 10 percent of the usable floor area. The total openable area shall equal at least 45 percent of the minimum window or skylight area required, except where comparably adequate ventilation is supplied by mechanical or some other method.

§ 654.408 Screening.

(a) All outside openings shall be protected with screening of not less than 16 mesh.

(b) All screen doors shall be tight fitting, in good repair, and equipped with self-closing devices.

§ 654.409 Heating.

(a) All living quarters and service rooms shall be provided with properly installed, operable heating equipment capable of maintaining a temperature of at least 68° F. if during the period of normal occupancy the temperature in such quarters falls below 68°.

(b) Any stoves or other sources of heat utilizing combustible fuel shall be installed and vented in such a manner as to prevent fire hazards and a dangerous concentration of gases. No portable heaters other than those operated by electricity shall be provided. If a solid or liquid fuel stove is used in a room with wooden or other combustible flooring, there shall be a concrete slab, insulated metal sheet, or other fireproof material on the floor under each stove, extending at least 18 inches beyond the perimeter of the base of the stove.

(c) Any wall or ceiling within 18 inches of a solid or liquid fuel stove or a stovepipe shall be of fireproof material. A vented metal collar shall be installed around a stovepipe, or vent passing through a wall, ceiling, floor or roof.

(d) When a heating system has automatic controls, the controls shall be of the type which cut off the fuel supply upon the failure or interruption of the flame or ignition, or whenever a predetermined safe temperature or pressure is exceeded.

[45 FR 14182, Mar. 4, 1980; 45 FR 22901, Apr. 4, 1980]

§ 654.410 Electricity and lighting.

(a) All housing sites shall be provided with electric service.

(b) Each habitable room and all common use rooms, and areas such as: Laundry rooms, toilets, privies, hallways, stairways, etc., shall contain adequate ceiling or wall-type light fixtures. At least one wall-type electrical convenience outlet shall be provided in each individual living room.

(c) Adequate lighting shall be provided for the yard area, and pathways to common use facilities.

(d) All wiring and lighting fixtures shall be installed and maintained in a safe condition.

§ 654.411 Toilets.

(a) Toilets shall be constructed, located and maintained so as to prevent any nuisance or public health hazard.

(b) Water closets or privy seats for each sex shall be in the ratio of not less than one such unit for each 15 occupants, with a minimum of one unit for each sex in common use facilities.

(c) Urinals, constructed of non-absorbent materials, may be substituted for men's toilet seats on the basis of one urinal or 24 inches of trough-type urinal for one toilet seat up to a maximum of one-third of the required toilet seats.

(d) Except in individual family units, separate toilet accommodations for men and women shall be provided. If toilet facilities for men and women are in the same building, they shall be separated by a solid wall from floor to roof or ceiling. Toilets shall be distinctly marked "men" and "women" in English and in the native language of the persons expected to occupy the housing.

(e) Where common use toilet facilities are provided, an adequate and accessible supply of toilet tissue, with holders, shall be furnished.

(f) Common use toilets and privies shall be well lighted and ventilated and shall be clean and sanitary.

(g) Toilet facilities shall be located within 200 feet of each living unit.

(h) Privies shall not be located closer than 50 feet from any living unit or any facility where food is prepared or served.

(i) Privy structures and pits shall be fly tight. Privy pits shall have adequate capacity for the required seats.

§ 654.412 Bathing, laundry, and handwashing.

(a) Bathing and handwashing facilities, supplied with hot and cold water under pressure, shall be provided for the use of all occupants. These facilities shall be clean and sanitary and located within 200 feet of each living unit.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) There shall be a minimum of 1 showerhead per 15 persons. Showerheads shall be spaced at least 3 feet apart, with a minimum of 9 square feet of floor space per unit. Adequate, dry dressing space shall be provided in common use facilities. Shower floors shall be constructed of nonabsorbent nonskid materials and sloped to properly constructed floor drains. Except in individual family units, separate shower facilities shall be provided each sex. When common use shower facilities for both sexes are in the same building they shall be separated by a solid non-absorbent wall extending from the floor to ceiling, or roof, and shall be plainly designated "men" or "women" in English and in the native language of the persons expected to occupy the housing.

(c) Lavatories or equivalent units shall be provided in a ratio of 1 per 15 persons.

(d) Laundry facilities, supplied with hot and cold water under pressure, shall be provided for the use of all occupants. Laundry trays or tubs shall be provided in the ratio of 1 per 25 persons. Mechanical washers may be provided in the ratio of 1 per 50 persons in lieu of laundry trays, although a minimum of 1 laundry tray per 100 persons shall be provided in addition to the mechanical washers.

§ 654.413 Cooking and eating facilities.

(a) When workers or their families are permitted or required to cook in their individual unit, a space shall be provided and equipped for cooking and eating. Such space shall be provided with:

(1) A cookstove or hot plate with a minimum of two burners; and (2) adequate food storage shelves and a counter for food preparation; and (3) provisions for mechanical refrigeration of food at a temperature of not more than 45° F.; and (4) a table and chairs or equivalent seating and eating arrangements, all commensurate with the capacity of the unit; and (5) adequate lighting and ventilation.

(b) When workers or their families are permitted or required to cook and eat in a common facility, a room or building separate from the sleeping facilities shall be provided for cooking and eating. Such room or building shall be provided with:

(1) Stoves or hot plates, with a minimum equivalent of two burners, in a ratio of 1 stove or hot plate to 10 persons, or 1 stove or hot plate to 2 families; and (2) adequate food storage shelves and a counter for food preparation; and (3) mechanical refrigeration for food at a temperature of not more than 45° F.; and (4) tables and chairs or equivalent seating adequate for the intended use of the facility; and (5) adequate sinks with hot and cold water under pressure; and (6) adequate lighting and ventilation; and (7) floors shall be of nonabsorbent, easily cleaned materials.

(c) When central mess facilities are provided, the kitchen and mess hall shall be in proper proportion to the capacity of the housing and shall be separate from the sleeping quarters. The physical facilities, equipment and operation shall be in accordance with provisions of applicable State codes.

(d) Wall surface adjacent to all food preparation and cooking areas shall be of nonabsorbent, easily cleaned material. In addition, the wall surface adjacent to cooking areas shall be of fire-resistant material.

§ 654.414 Garbage and other refuse.

(a) Durable, fly-tight, clean containers in good condition of a minimum capacity of 20 gallons, shall be provided adjacent to each housing unit for the storage of garbage and other refuse. Such containers shall be provided in a minimum ratio of 1 per 15 persons.

(b) Provisions shall be made for collection of refuse at least twice a week, or more often if necessary. The disposal of refuse, which includes garbage, shall be in accordance with State and local law.

§ 654.415 Insect and rodent control.

Housing and facilities shall be free of insects, rodents, and other vermin.

§ 654.416 Sleeping facilities.

(a) Sleeping facilities shall be provided for each person. Such facilities shall consist of comfortable beds, cots, or bunks, provided with clean mattresses.

(b) Any bedding provided by the housing operator shall be clean and sanitary.

(c) Triple deck bunks shall not be provided.

(d) The clear space above the top of the lower mattress of a double deck bunk and the bottom of the upper bunk shall be a minimum of 27 inches. The distance from the top of the upper mattress to the ceiling shall be a minimum of 36 inches.

(e) Beds used for double occupancy may be provided only in family accommodations.

§ 654.417 Fire, safety, and first aid.

(a) All buildings in which people sleep or eat shall be constructed and maintained in accordance with applicable State or local fire and safety laws.

(b) In family housing and housing units for less than 10 persons, of one story construction, two means of escape shall be provided. One of the two required means of escape may be a readily accessible window with an openable space of not less than 24x24 inches.

(c) All sleeping quarters intended for use by 10 or more persons, central dining facilities, and common assembly rooms shall have at least two doors remotely separated so as to provide alternate means of escape to the outside or to an interior hall.

(d) Sleeping quarters and common assembly rooms on the second story shall have a stairway, and a permanent, affixed exterior ladder or a second stairway.

(e) Sleeping and common assembly rooms located above the second story shall comply with the State and local fire and building codes relative to multiple story dwellings.

(f) Fire extinguishing equipment shall be provided in a readily accessible place located not more than 100 feet from each housing unit. Such equipment shall provide protection equal to a 2½ gallon stored pressure or 5-gallon pump-type water extinguisher.

(g) First aid facilities shall be provided and readily accessible for use at all time. Such facilities shall be equivalent to the 16 unit first aid kit recommended by the American Red Cross, and provided in a ratio of 1 per 50 persons.

Pt. 655

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(h) No flammable or volatile liquids or materials shall be stored in or adjacent to rooms used for living purposes, except for those needed for current household use.

(i) Agricultural pesticides and toxic chemicals shall not be stored in the housing area.

§ 655.0 Scope and purpose of part.

(a) Subparts A, B, and C. (1) General. Subparts A, B, and C of this part set out the procedures adopted by the Secretary to secure information sufficient to make factual determinations of: (i) Whether U.S. workers are available to perform temporary employment in the United States, for which an employer desires to employ nonimmigrant foreign workers, and (ii) whether the employment of aliens for such temporary work will adversely affect the wages or working conditions of similarly employed U.S. workers. These factual determinations (or a determination that there are not sufficient facts to make one or both of these determinations) are required to carry out the policies of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), that a nonimmigrant alien worker not be admitted to fill a particular temporary job opportunity unless no qualified U.S. worker is available to fill the job opportunity, and unless the employment of the foreign worker in the job opportunity will not adversely affect the wages or working conditions of similarly employed U.S. workers.

§ 655.00

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(2) The Secretary's determinations. Before any factual determination can be made concerning the availability of U.S. workers to perform particular job opportunities, two steps must be taken. First, the minimum level of wages, terms, benefits, and conditions for the particular job opportunities, below which similarly employed U.S. workers would be adversely affected, must be established. (The regulations in this part establish such minimum levels for wages, terms, benefits, and conditions of employment.) Second, the wages, terms, benefits, and conditions offered and afforded to the aliens must be compared to the established minimum levels. If it is concluded that adverse effect would result, the ultimate determination of availability within the meaning of the INA cannot be made since U.S. workers cannot be expected to accept employment under conditions below the established minimum levels. Florida Sugar Cane League, Inc. v. Usery, 531 F. 2d 299 (5th Cir. 1976).

Once a determination of no adverse effect has been made, the availability of U.S. workers can be tested only if U.S. workers are actively recruited through the offer of wages, terms, benefits, and conditions at least at the minimum level or the level offered to the aliens, whichever is higher. The regulations in this part set forth requirements for recruiting U.S. workers in accordance with this principle.

(3) Construction. This part and its subparts shall be construed to effectuate the purpose of the INA that U.S. workers rather than aliens be employed wherever possible. Elton Orchards, Inc. v. Brennan, 508 F. 2d 493, 500 (1st Cir. 1974), Flecha v. Quiros, 567 F. 2d 1154 (1st Cir. 1977). Where temporary alien workers are admitted, the terms and conditions of their employment must not result in a lowering of the terms and conditions of domestic workers similarly employed, Williams v. Usery, 531 F. 2d 305 (5th Cir. 1976); Florida Sugar Cane League, Inc. v. Usery, 531 F. 2d 299 (5th Cir. 1976), and the job benefits extended to any U.S. workers shall be at least those extended to the alien workers.

(b) Subparts D and E. Subparts D and E of this part set forth the process by which health care facilities can file attestations with the Department of Labor for the purpose of employing or otherwise using nonimmigrant registered nurses under H-1A visas.

(c) Subparts F and G. Subparts F and G of this part set forth the process by which employers can file attestations with the Department of Labor for the purpose of employing alien crewmembers in longshore work under D-visas and enforcement provisions relating thereto.

(d) Subparts H and I of this part. Subparts H and I of this part set forth the process by which employers can file with, and the requirements for obtaining approval from, the Department of Labor of labor condition applications necessary for the purpose of petitioning INS for H-1B visas for aliens to be employed in specialty occupations or as fashion models of distinguished merit and ability, and the enforcement provisions relating thereto.

(e) Subparts J and K of this part. Subparts J and K of this part set forth the process by which employers can file attestations with the Department of Labor for the purpose of employing nonimmigrant alien students on F-visas in off-campus employment and enforcement provisions relating thereto.

§ 655.00 Authority of the Regional Administrator under subparts A, B, and C.

Pursuant to the regulations under this part, temporary labor certification determinations under subparts A, B, and C of this part are ordinarily made by the Regional Administrator of an Employment and Training Administration region. The Director, however, may direct that certain types of applications or certain applications shall be handled by, and the determinations made by, the United States Employment Service (USES) in Washington, DC. In those cases the Regional Administrator will informally advise the employer or agent of the name of the official who will make determinations with respect to the application.

Subpart A—Labor Certification Process for Temporary Employment in Occupations Other Than Agriculture, Logging, or Registered Nursing in the United States (H-2B Workers)

§ 655.1 Scope and purpose of subpart A.

This subpart sets forth the procedures governing the labor certification process for the temporary employment of nonimmigrant aliens in the United States in occupations other than agriculture, logging, or registered nursing.

[55 FR 50510, Dec. 6, 1990]

§ 655.2 Applications.

Application forms for certification of temporary employment of nonimmigrant aliens may be obtained from and should be filed in duplicate with the local office of the State employment service serving the area of proposed employment.

§ 655.3 Determinations.

(a) When received, applications for certification shall be forwarded by the local office of the State employment service to the appropriate Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, who will issue them if he or she finds that qualified persons in the United States are not available and that the terms of employment will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of workers in the United States similarly employed.

(b) In making this finding, such matter as the employer's attempts to recruit workers and the appropriateness of the wages and working conditions offered, will be considered. The policies of the United States Employment Service set forth in part 652 of this chapter and subparts B and C of this part shall be followed in making the findings.

(c) In any case in which the Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, determines after examination of all the pertinent facts before him or her that certification should not be issued, he or she shall promptly so notify the employer requesting the certification. Such notification shall contain a statement of the reasons on which the refusal to issue a certification is based.

(d) The certification or notice of denial thereof is to be used by the employer to support its visa petition, filed with the District Director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

[33 FR 7570, May 22, 1968, as amended at 43 FR 10311, Mar. 10, 1978. Redesignated and amended at 55 FR 50510, Dec. 6, 1990]

§ 655.4 Territory of Guam.

Subpart A of this part does not apply to temporary employment in the Territory of Guam, and the Department of Labor does not certify to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) the temporary employment of nonimmigrant aliens under H-2B visas in the Territory of Guam. Pursuant to INS regulations, that function is performed by the Governor of Guam, or the Governor's designated representative within the Territorial Government.

Subpart B—Labor Certification Process for Temporary Agricultural Employment in the United States (H-2A Workers)

SOURCE: 52 FR 20507, June 1, 1987, unless otherwise noted.

§ 655.90 Scope and purpose of subpart B.

(a) General. This subpart sets out the procedures established by the Secretary of Labor to acquire information sufficient to make factual determinations of: (1) Whether there are sufficient able, willing, and qualified U.S. workers available to perform the temporary and seasonal agricultural employment for which an employer desires to import nonimmigrant foreign workers (H-2A workers); and (2) whether the employment of H-2A workers will adversely affect the wages and working conditions of workers in the U.S. similarly employed. Under the authority of the INA, the Secretary of Labor has promulgated the regulations in this subpart. This subpart sets forth the requirements and procedures applicable to requests for certification by employers seeking the services of temporary foreign workers in agriculture. This subpart provides the Secretary's methodology for the two-fold determination of availability of domestic workers and of any adverse effect which would be occasioned by the use of foreign workers, for particular temporary and seasonal agricultural jobs in the United States.

(b) The statutory standard. (1) A petitioner for H-2A workers must apply to the Secretary of Labor for a certification that, as stated in the INA:

(A) There are not sufficient workers who are able, willing, and qualified, and who will be available at the time and place needed, to perform the labor or services involved in the petition, and

(B) The employment of the alien in such labor or services will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of workers in the United States similarly employed.

(2) Section 216(b) of the INA further requires that the Secretary may not issue a certification if the conditions regarding U.S. worker availability and adverse effect are not met, and may not issue a certification if, as stated in the INA:

(1) There is a strike or lockout in the course of a labor dispute which, under the regulations, precludes such certification.

(2)(A) The employer during the previous two-year period employed H-2A workers and the Secretary has determined, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, that the employer at any time during that period substantially violated a material term or condition of the labor certification with respect to the employment of domestic or non-immigrant workers.

(B) No employer may be denied certification under subparagraph (A) for more than three years for any violation described in such subparagraph.

(3) The employer has not provided the Secretary with satisfactory assurances that if the employment for which the certification is sought is not covered by State workers' compensation law, the employer will provide, at no cost to the worker, insurance covering injury and disease arising out of and in the course of the worker's employment which will provide benefits at least equal to those provided under the State workers' compensation law for comparable employment.

(4) The Secretary determines that the employer has not made positive recruitment efforts within a multistate region of traditional or expected labor supply where the Secretary finds that there are a significant number of qualified United States workers who, if recruited, would be willing to make themselves available for work at the time and place needed. Positive recruitment under this paragraph is in addition to, and shall be conducted within the same time period as, the circulation through the interstate employment service system of the employer's job offer. The obligation to engage in positive recruitment . . . shall terminate on the date the H-2A workers depart for the employer's place of employment.

(3) Regarding the labor certification determination itself, section 216(c)(3) of the INA, as quoted in the following, specifically directs the Secretary to make the certification if:

(i) The employer has complied with the criteria for certification (including criteria for the recruitment of eligible individuals as prescribed by the Secretary), and

(ii) The employer does not actually have, or has not been provided with referrals of, qualified individuals who have indicated their availability to perform such labor or services on the terms and conditions of a job offer which meets the requirements of the Secretary.

(c) The Secretary's determinations. Before any factual determination can be made concerning the availability of U.S. workers to perform particular job opportunities, two steps must be taken. First, the minimum level of wages, terms, benefits, and conditions for the particular job opportunities below which similarly employed U.S.

workers would be adversely affected must be established. (The regulations in this subpart establish such minimum levels for wages, terms, benefits, and conditions of employment). Second, the wages, terms, benefits, and conditions offered and afforded to the aliens must be compared to the established minimum levels. If it is concluded that adverse effect would result, the ultimate determination of availability within the meaning of the INA cannot be made since U.S. workers cannot be expected to accept employment under conditions below the established minimum levels. Florida Sugar Cane League, Inc. v. Uery, 531 F. 2d 299 (5th Cir. 1976). Once a determination of no adverse effect has been made, the availability of U.S. workers can be tested only if U.S. workers are actively recruited through the offer of wages, terms, benefits, and conditions at least at the minimum level or the level offered to the aliens, whichever is higher. The regulations in this subpart set forth requirements for recruiting U.S. workers in accordance with this principle.

(d) Construction. This subpart shall be construed to effectuate the purpose of the INA that U.S. workers rather than aliens be employed wherever possible. Elton Orchards, Inc. v. Brennan, 508 F. 2d 493, 500 (1st Cir. 1974); Flecha v. Quiros, 567 F.2d 1154, 1156 (1st Cir. 1977). Where temporary alien workers are admitted, the terms and conditions of their employment must not result in a lowering of the wages, terms, and conditions of domestic workers similarly employed. Williams v. Uery, 531 F. 2d 305, 306 (5th Cir. 1976), cert. denied, 429 U.S. 1000, and the job benefits extended to any U.S. workers shall be at least those extended to the alien workers.

§ 655.92 Authority of the Regional Administrator.

Under this subpart, the accepting for consideration and the making of temporary alien agricultural labor certification determinations are ordinarily performed by the Regional Administrator (RA) of an Employment and Training Administration region, who, in turn, may delegate this responsibility to a designated staff member. The Director of the United States Employment Service, however, may direct that certain types of applications or certain applications shall be handled by, and the determinations made by USES in Washington, DC. In those cases, the RA will informally advise the employer or agent of the name of the official who will make determinations with respect to the application.

§ 655.93 Special circumstances.

(a) Systematic process. The regulations under this subpart are designed to provide a systematic process for handling applications from the kinds of employers who have historically utilized non-immigrant alien workers in agriculture, usually in relation to the production or harvesting of a particular agricultural crop for market, and which normally share such characteristics as:

(1) A fixed-site farm, ranch, or similar establishment;

(2) A need for workers to come to their establishment from other areas to perform services or labor in and around their establishment;

(3) Labor needs which will normally be controlled by environmental conditions, particularly weather and sunshine; and

(4) A reasonably regular workday or workweek.

(b) Establishment of special procedures. In order to provide for a limited degree of flexibility in carrying out the Secretary's responsibilities under the INA, while not deviating from the statutory requirements to determine U.S. worker availability and make a determination as to adverse effect, the Director has the authority to establish special procedures for processing H-2A applications when employers can demonstrate upon written application to and consultation with the Director that special procedures are necessary. In a like manner, for work in occupations characterized by other than a reasonably regular workday or workweek, such as the range production of sheep or other livestock, the Director has the authority to establish monthly, weekly, or bi-weekly adverse effect wage rates for those occupations, for a Statewide or other geographical area, other than the rates established pursuant to § 655.107 of this part, provided that the Director uses a methodology to establish such adverse effect wage rates which is consistent with the methodology in § 655.107(a). Prior to making determinations under this paragraph (b), the Director may consult with employer representatives, appropriate RAs, and worker representatives.

(c) Construction. This subpart shall be construed to permit the Director to continue and, where the Director deems appropriate, to revise the special procedures previously in effect for the handling of applications for sheepherders in the Western States (and to adapt such procedures to occupations in the range production of other livestock) and for custom combine crews.

§ 655.100 Overview of this subpart and definition of terms.

(a) Overview—(1) Filing applications. This subpart provides guidance to an employer who desires to apply for temporary alien agricultural labor certification for the employment of H-2A workers to perform agricultural employment of a temporary or seasonal nature. The regulations in this subpart provide that such employer shall file an H-2A application, including a job offer, on forms prescribed by the Employment and Training Administration (ETA), which describes the material terms and conditions of employment to be offered and afforded to U.S. workers and H-2A workers, with the Regional Administrator (RA) having jurisdiction over the geographical area in which the work will be performed. The entire application shall be filed with the RA no less than 45 calendar days before the first date of need for workers, and a copy of the job offer shall be submitted at the same time to the local office of the State employment service agency which serves the area of intended employment. Under the regulations, the RA will promptly review the application and notify the applicant in writing if there are deficiencies which render the application not acceptable for consideration, and afford the applicant a five-calendar-day period for resubmittal of an amended application or an appeal of the RA's refusal to approve the application as acceptable for consideration. Employers are encouraged to file their applications in advance of the 45-calendar-day period mentioned above in this paragraph (a)(1). Sufficient time should be allowed for delays that might arise due to the need for amendments in order to make the application acceptable for consideration.

(2) Amendment of applications. This subpart provides for the amendment of applications, at any time prior to the RA's certification determination, to increase the number of workers requested in the initial application; without requiring, under certain circumstances, an additional recruitment period for U.S. workers.

(3) Untimely applications. If an H-2A application does not satisfy the specified time requirements, this subpart provides for the RA's advice to the employer in writing that the certification cannot be granted because there is not sufficient time to test the availability of U.S. workers; and provides for the employer's right to an administrative review or a de novo hearing before an administrative law judge. Emergency situations are provided for, wherein the RA may waive the specified time periods.

(4) Recruitment of U.S. workers; determinations—(1) Recruitment. This subpart provides that, where the application is accepted for consideration and meets the regulatory standards, the State agency and the employer begin to recruit U.S. workers. If the employer has complied with the criteria for certification, including recruitment of U.S. workers, by 20 calendar days before the date of need specified in the application (except as provided in certain cases), the RA makes a determination to grant or deny, in whole or in part, the application for certification.

(ii) Granted applications. This subpart provides that the application for temporary alien agricultural labor certification is granted if the RA finds that the employer has not offered foreign workers higher wages or better working conditions (or has imposed less restrictions on foreign workers) than those offered and afforded to U.S. workers; that sufficient U.S. workers who are able, willing, and qualified will not be available at the time and place needed to perform the work for which H-2A workers are being requested; and that the employment of such aliens will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of similarly employed U.S. workers.

(iii) Fees—(A) Amount. This subpart provides that each employer (except joint employer associations) of H-2A workers shall pay to the RA fees for each temporary alien agricultural labor certification received. The fee for each employer receiving a temporary alien agricultural labor certification is $100 plus $10 for each job opportunity for H-2A workers certified, provided that the fee to an employer for each temporary alien agricultural labor certification received shall be no greater than $1,000. In the case of a joint employer association receiving a temporary alien agricultural labor certification, each employer-member receiving a temporary alien agricultural labor certification shall pay a fee of $100 plus $10 for each job opportunity for H-2A workers certified, provided that the fee to an employer for each temporary alien agricultural labor certification received shall be no greater than $1,000. The joint employer association will not be charged a separate fee.

(B) Timeliness of payment. The fee must be received by the RA no later than 30 calendar days after the granting a each temporary alien agricultural labor certification. Fees received any later are untimely. Failure to pay fees in a timely manner is a substantial violation which may result in the denial of future temporary alien agricultural labor certifications.

(iv) Denied applications. This subpart provides that if the application for temporary alien agricultural labor certification is denied, in whole or in part, the employer may seek review of the denial, or a de novo hearing, by an administrative law judge as provided in this subpart.

(b) Definitions of terms used in this subpart. For the purposes of this subpart:

Accept for consideration means, with respect to an application for temporary alien agricultural labor certification, the action by the RA to notify the employer that a filed temporary alien agricultural labor certification application meets the adverse effect criteria necessary for processing. An application accepted for consideration ultimately will be approved or denied in a temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination.

Administrative law judge means a person within the Department of Labor Office of Administrative Law Judges appointed pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 3105; or a panel of such persons designated by the Chief Administrative Law Judge from the Board of Alien Labor Certification Appeals established by part 656 of this chapter, but which shall hear and decide appeals as set forth in §655.112 of this part. “Chief Administrative Law Judge” means the chief official of the Department of Labor Office of Administrative Law Judges or the Chief Administrative Law Judge’s designee.

Adverse effect wage rate (AEWR) means the wage rate which the Director has determined must be offered and paid, as a minimum, to every H-2A worker and every U.S. worker for a particular occupation and/or area in which an employer employs or seeks to employ an H-2A worker so that the wages of similarly employed U.S. workers will not be adversely affected.

Agent means a legal entity or person, such as an association of agricultural employers, or an attorney for an association, which (1) is authorized to act on behalf of the employer for temporary alien agricultural labor certification purposes, and (2) is not itself an employer, or a joint employer, as defined in this paragraph (b).

Director means the chief official of the United States Employment Service (USES) or the Director’s designee.

DOL means the United States Department of Labor.

Eligible worker means a U.S. worker, as defined in this section.

Employer means a person, firm, corporation or other association or organization which suffers or permits a person to work and (1) which has a location within the United States to which U.S. workers may be referred for employment, and which proposes to employ workers at a place within the United States and (2) which has an employer relationship with respect to employees under this subpart as indicated by the fact that it may hire, pay, fire, supervise or otherwise control the work of any such employee. An association of employers shall be considered the sole employer if it has the indicia of an employer set forth in this definition. Such an association, however, shall be considered as a joint employer with an employer member if it shares with the employer member one or more of the definitional indicia.

Employment Service (ES) and Employment Service (ES) System mean, collectively, the USES, the State agencies, the local offices, and the ETA regional offices.

Employment Standards Administration means the agency within the Department of Labor (DOL), which includes the Wage and Hour Division, and which is charged with the carrying out of certain functions of the Secretary under the INA.

Employment and Training Administration (ETA) means the agency within the Department of Labor (DOL) which includes the United States Employment Service (USES).

Federal holiday means a legal public holiday as defined at 5 U.S.C. 6103.

H-2A worker means any non-immigrant alien admitted to the United States for agricultural labor or services of a temporary or seasonal nature under section 101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a)).

Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) means the component of the U.S. Department of Justice which makes the determination under the INA on whether or not to grant visa petitions to employers seeking H-2A workers to perform temporary agricultural work in the United States.

INA means the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended (8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq.).

Job offer means the offer made by an employer or potential employer of H-2A workers to both U.S. and H-2A workers describing all the material terms and conditions of employment, including those relating to wages, working conditions, and other benefits.

Job opportunity means a job opening for temporary, full-time employment at a place in the United States to which U.S. workers can be referred.

Local office means the State agency's office which serves a particular geographic area within a State.

Positive recruitment means the active participation of an employer or its authorized hiring agent in locating and interviewing applicants in other potential labor supply areas and in the area where the employer's establishment is located in an effort to fill specific job openings with U.S. workers.

Prevailing means, with respect to certain benefits other than wages provided by employers and certain practices engaged in by employers, that:

(i) Fifty percent or more of employers in an area and for an occupation engage in the practice or offer the benefit; and

(ii) This 50 percent or more of employers also employs 50 percent or more of U.S. workers in the occupation and area (including H-2A and non-H-2A employers for purposes of determinations concerning the provision of family housing, frequency of wage payments, and workers supplying their own bedding, but non-H-2A employers only for determinations concerning the provision of advance transportation and the utilization of farm labor contractors).

Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration (RA) means the chief ETA official of a DOL regional office or the RA's designee.

Secretary means the Secretary of Labor or the Secretary's designee.

Solicitor of Labor means the Solicitor, United States Department of Labor, and includes employees of the Office of the Solicitor of Labor designated by the Solicitor to perform functions of the Solicitor under this subpart.

State agency means the State employment service agency designated under § 4 of the Wagner-Peyser Act to cooperate with the USES in the operation of the ES System.

Temporary alien agricultural labor certification means the certification made by the Secretary of Labor with respect to an employer seeking to file with INS a visa petition to import an alien as an H-2A worker, pursuant to sections 101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a), 214(a) and (c), and 216 of the INA that (1) there are not sufficient workers who are able, willing, and qualified, and who will be available at the time and place needed, to perform the agricultural labor or services involved in the petition, and

(2) the employment of the alien in such agricultural labor or services will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of workers in the United States similarly employed (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a), 1184 (a) and (c), and 1186).

Temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination means the written determination made by the RA to approve or deny, in whole or in part, an application for temporary alien agricultural labor certification.

United States Employment Service (USES) means the agency of the U.S. Department of Labor, established under the Wagner-Peyser Act, which is charged with administering the national system of public employment offices and carrying out certain functions of the Secretary under the INA.

United States (U.S.) worker means any worker who, whether a U.S. national, a U.S. citizen, or an alien, is legally permitted to work in the job opportunity within the United States (as defined at §101(a)(38) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(38))).

Wages means all forms of cash remuneration to a worker by an employer in payment for personal services.

(c) Definition of agricultural labor or services of a temporary or seasonal nature. For the purposes of this subpart, “agricultural labor or services of a temporary or seasonal nature” means the following:

(1) “Agricultural labor or services”. Pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a)), “agricultural labor or services” is defined for the purposes of this subpart as either “agricultural labor” as defined and applied in section 3121(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 3121(g)) or “agriculture” as defined and applied in section 3(f) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 203(f)). An occupation included in either statutory definition shall be “agricultural labor or services”, notwithstanding the exclusion of that occupation from the other statutory definition. For informational purposes, the statutory provisions are quoted below:

(i) “Agricultural labor”. Section 3121(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 3121(g)), quoted as follows, defines the term “agricultural labor” to include all service performed:

(1) On a farm, in the employ of any person, in connection with cultivating the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, bees, poultry, and furbearing animals and wildlife;

(2) Services performed in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm, in connection with the operation, or maintenance of such farm and its tools and equipment, or in salvaging timber or clearing land of brush and other debris left by a hurricane, if the major part of such service is performed on a farm;

(3) In connection with the production or harvesting of any commodity defined as an agricultural commodity in section 15(g) of the Agricultural Marketing Act, as amended (12 U.S.C. 1141j), or in connection with the ginning of cotton, or in connection with the operation or maintenance of ditches, canals, reservoirs, or waterways, not owned or operated for profit, used exclusively for supplying and storing water for farming purposes;

(4)(A) In the employ of the operator of a farm in handling, planting, drying, packing, packaging, processing, freezing, grading, storing, or delivering to storage or to market or to a carrier for transportation to market, in its unmanufactured state, any agricultural or horticultural commodity; but only if such operator produced more than one-half of the commodity with respect to which such service is performed;

(B) In the employ of a group of operators of farms (other than a cooperative organization) in the performance of service described in subparagraph (A), but only if such operators produced all of the commodity with respect to which such service is performed. For purposes of this subparagraph, any unincorporated group of operators shall be deemed a cooperative organization if the number of operators comprising such group is more than 20 at any time during the calendar quarter in which such service is performed;

(C) The provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) shall not be deemed to be applicable with respect to service performed in connection with commercial canning or commercial freezing or in connection with any agricultural or horticultural commodity after its delivery to a terminal market for distribution for consumption; or

(5) On a farm operated for profit if such service is not in the course of the employer’s trade or business or is domestic service in a private home of the employer.

As used in this subsection, the term “farm” includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, fur-bearing animal, and truck farms, plantations, ranches, nurseries, ranges, greenhouses or other similar structures used primarily for the raising of agricultural or horticultural commodities, and orchards.

(ii) "Agriculture" Section 203(f) of title 29, United States Code, (section 3(f) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as codified), quoted as follows, defines "agriculture" to include:

(f) * * * farming in all its branches and among other things includes the cultivation and tillage of the soil, dairying, the production, cultivation, growing, and harvesting of any agricultural or horticultural commodities (including commodities as defined as agricultural commodities in section 1141j(g) of Title 12), the raising of livestock, bees, fur-bearing animals, or poultry, and any practices (including any forestry or lumbering operations) performed by a farmer or on a farm as an incident to or in conjunction with such farming operations, including preparation for market, delivery to storage or to market or to carriers for transportation to market.

(iii) "Agricultural commodity". Section 1141j(g) of title 12, United States Code, (section 15(g) of the Agricultural Marketing Act, as amended), quoted as follows, defines "agricultural commodity" to include:

(g) * * * in addition to other agricultural commodities, crude gum (oleoresin) from a living tree, and the following products as processed by the original producer of the crude gum (oleoresin) from which derived: Gum spirits of turpentine, and gum rosin, as defined in section 92 of Title 7.

(iv) "Gum rosin". Section 92 of title 7, United States Code, quoted as follows, defines "gum spirits of turpentine" and "gum rosin" as—

(c) "Gum spirits of turpentine" means spirits of turpentine made from gum (oleoresin) from a living tree.

* * * * *

(h) "Gum rosin" means rosin remaining after the distillation of gum spirits of turpentine.

(2) "Of a temporary or seasonal nature"—(i) "On a seasonal or other temporary basis". For the purposes of this subpart, "of a temporary or seasonal nature" means "on a seasonal or other temporary basis", as defined in the Employment Standards Administration's Wage and Hour Division's regulation at 29 CFR 500.20 under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act (MSPA).

(ii) MSPA definition. For informational purposes, the definition of "on a seasonal or other temporary basis", as set forth at 29 CFR 500.20, is provided below:

"On a seasonal or other temporary basis" means:

* * * * *

Labor is performed on a seasonal basis, where, ordinarily, the employment pertains to or is of the kind exclusively performed at certain seasons or periods of the year and which, from its nature, may not be continuous or carried on throughout the year. A worker who moves from one seasonal activity to another, while employed in agriculture or performing agricultural labor, is employed on a seasonal basis even though he may continue to be employed during a major portion of the year.

* * * * *

A worker is employed on "other temporary basis" where he is employed for a limited time only or his performance is contemplated for a particular piece of work, usually of short duration. Generally, employment, which is contemplated to continue indefinitely, is not temporary.

* * * * *

"On a seasonal or other temporary basis" does not include the employment of any foreman or other supervisory employee who is employed by a specific agricultural employer or agricultural association essentially on a year round basis.

* * * * *

"On a seasonal or other temporary basis" does not include the employment of any worker who is living at his permanent place of residence, when that worker is employed by a specific agricultural employer or agricultural association on essentially a year round basis to perform a variety of tasks for his employer and is not primarily employed to do field work.

(iii) "Temporary". For the purposes of this subpart, the definition of "temporary" in paragraph (c)(2)(ii) of this section refers to any job opportunity covered by this subpart where the employer needs a worker for a position, either temporary or permanent, for a limited period of time, which shall be for less than one year, unless the original temporary alien agricultural labor certification is extended based on unforeseen circumstances, pursuant to § 655.106(c)(3) of this part.

[52 FR 20507, June 1, 1987, as amended at 57 FR 43123, Sept. 17, 1992; 64 FR 34966, June 29, 1999]

§ 655.101 Temporary alien agricultural labor certification applications.

(a) General—(1) Filing of application. An employer who anticipates a shortage of U.S. workers needed to perform agricultural labor or services of a temporary or seasonal nature may apply to the RA in whose region the area of intended employment is located, for a temporary alien agricultural labor certification for temporary foreign workers (H-2A workers). A signed application for temporary alien agricultural worker certification shall be filed by the employer, or by an agent of the employer, with the RA. At the same time, a duplicate application shall be submitted to the local office serving the area of intended employment.

(2) Applications filed by agents. If the temporary alien agricultural labor certification application is filed by an agent on behalf of an employer, the agent may sign the application if the application is accompanied by a signed statement from the employer which authorizes the agent to act on the employer's behalf. The employer may authorize the agent to accept for interview workers being referred to the job and to make hiring commitments on behalf of the employer. The statement shall specify that the employer assumes full responsibility for the accuracy of the application, for all representations made by the agent on the employer's behalf, and for compliance with all regulatory and other legal requirements.

(3) Applications filed by associations. If an association of agricultural producers which uses agricultural labor or services files the application, the association shall identify whether it is: (i) The sole employer; (ii) a joint employer with its employer-member employers; or (iii) the agent of its employer-members. The association shall submit documentation sufficient to enable the RA to verify the employer or agency status of the association; and shall identify by name and address each member which will be an employer of H-2A workers.

(b) Application form. Each H-2A application shall be on a form or forms prescribed by ETA. The application shall state the total number of workers the employer anticipates employing in the agricultural labor or service activity during the covered period of employment. The application shall include:

(1) A copy of the job offer which will be used by each employer for the recruitment of U.S. and H-2A workers. The job offer shall state the number of workers needed by the employer, based upon the employer's anticipation of a shortage of U.S. workers needed to perform the agricultural labor or services, and the specific estimated date on which the workers are needed. The job offer shall comply with the requirements of §§ 655.102 and 653.501 of this chapter, and shall be signed by the employer or the employer's agent on behalf of the employer; and

(2) An agreement to abide by the assurances required by § 655.103 of this part.

(c) Timeliness. Applications for temporary alien agricultural labor certification are not required to be filed more than 45 calendar days before the first day of need. The employer shall be notified by the RA in writing within seven calendar days of filing the application if the application is not approved as acceptable for consideration. The RA's temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination on the approved application shall be made no later than 20 calendar days before the date of need if the employer has complied with the criteria for certification. To allow for the availability of U.S. workers to be tested, the following process applies:

(1) Application filing date. The entire H-2A application, including the job offer, shall be filed with the RA, in duplicate, no less than 45 calendar days before the first date on which the employer estimates that the workers are needed. Applications may be filed in person; may be mailed to the RA (Attention: H-2A Certifying Officer) by certified mail, return receipt requested; or delivered by guaranteed commercial delivery which will ensure delivery to the RA and provide the employer with a documented acknowledgment of receipt of the application by the RA. Any application received 45 calendar days before the date of need will have met the minimum timeliness of filing requirement as long as the application is eventually approved by the RA as being acceptable for processing.

(2) Review of application; recruitment; certification determination period. Section 655.104 of this part requires the RA to promptly review the application, and to notify the applicant in writing within seven calendar days of any deficiencies which render the application not acceptable for consideration and to afford an opportunity for resubmittal of an amended application. The employer shall have five calendar days in which to file an amended application. Section 655.106 of this part requires the RA to grant or deny the temporary alien agricultural labor certification application no later than 20 calendar days before the date on which the workers are needed, provided that the employer has complied with the criteria for certification, including recruitment of eligible individuals. Such recruitment, for the employer, the State agencies, and DOL to attempt to locate U.S. workers locally and through the circulation of intrastate and interstate agricultural clearance job orders acceptable under §653.501 of this chapter and under this subpart, shall begin on the date that an acceptable application is filed, except that the local office shall begin to recruit workers locally beginning on the date it first receives the application. The time needed to obtain an application acceptable for consideration (including the job offer) after the five-calendar-day period allowed for an amended application will postpone day-for-day the certification determination beyond the 20 calendar days before the date of need, provided that the RA notifies the applicant of any deficiencies within seven calendar days after receipt of the application. Delays in obtaining an application acceptable for consideration which are directly attributable to the RA will not postpone the certification determination beyond the 20 calendar days before the date of need. When an employer resubmits to the RA (with a copy to the local office) an application with modifications required by the RA, and the RA approves the modified application as meeting necessary adverse effect standards, the modified application will not be rejected solely because it now does not meet the 45-calendar-day filing requirement. If an application is approved as being acceptable for processing without need for any amendment within the seven-calendar-day review period after initial filing, recruitment of U.S. workers will be considered to have begun on the date the application was received by the RA; and the RA shall make the temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination required by §655.106 of this part no later than 20 calendar days before the date of need provided that other regulatory conditions are met.

(3) Early filing. Employers are encouraged, but not required, to file their applications in advance of the 45-calendar-day minimum period specified in paragraph (c)(1) of this section, to afford more time for review and discussion of the applications and to consider amendments, should they be necessary. This is particularly true for employers submitting H-2A applications for the first time who may not be familiar with the Secretary's requirements for an acceptable application or U.S. worker recruitment. Such employers particularly are encouraged to consult with DOL and local office staff for guidance and assistance well in advance of the minimum 45-calendar-day filing period.

(4) Local recruitment; preparation of clearance orders. At the same time the employer files the H-2A application with the RA, a copy of the application shall be submitted to the local office which will use the job offer portion—of the application to prepare a local job order and begin to recruit U.S. workers in the area of intended employment. The local office also shall begin preparing an agricultural clearance order, but such order will not be used to recruit workers in other geographical areas until the employer's H-2A application is accepted for consideration and the clearance order is approved by the RA and the local office is so notified by the RA.

(5) First-time employers of H-2A workers. With respect only to those applications filed on or before May 31, 1989, and notwithstanding the time requirements in paragraphs (c)(1) through (c)(4) of this section, under the following circumstances the RA shall make the certification determination required by §655.106 of this part no later than 10 calendar days before the date of need:

(i) The employer would be a first-time employer of H-2A workers (and, prior to June 1, 1987, did not use or apply for certification to use H-2 agricultural workers under the INA as then in effect) and has not previously applied for a temporary alien agricultural labor certification to use H-2A workers;

(ii) The RA, the employer, and the ES System have had a reasonable opportunity to test the availability of U.S. workers under the conditions of a job offer which has been determined to be acceptable by the RA in accordance with the provisions of §§655.102 and 655.103 of this part at least 30 calendar days before the date of need; and

(iii) The RA has determined that the employer has otherwise made good faith efforts to comply with the requirements of this subpart.

(d) Amendments to application to increase number of workers. Applications may be amended at any time, prior to an RA certification determination, to increase the number of workers requested in the initial application by not more than 20 percent (50 percent for employers of less than ten workers) without requiring an additional recruitment period for U.S. workers. Requests for increases above the percent prescribed, without additional recruitment, may be approved only when the need for additional workers could not have been foreseen, and that crops or commodities will be in jeopardy prior to the expiration of an additional recruitment period.

(e) Minor amendments to applications. Minor technical amendments may be requested by the employer and made to the application and job offer prior to the certification determination if the RA determines they are justified and will have no significant effect upon the RA's ability to make the labor certification determination required by §655.106 of this part. Amendments described at paragraph (d) of this section are not "minor technical amendments".

(f) Untimely applications—(1) Notices of denial. If an H-2A application, or any part thereof, does not satisfy the time requirements specified in paragraph (c) of this section, and if the exception in paragraph (d) of this section does not apply, the RA may then advise the employer in writing that the certification cannot be granted because, pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, there is not sufficient time to test the availability of U.S. workers. The notice of denial shall inform the employer of its right to an administrative review or de novo hearing before an administrative law judge.

(2) Emergency situations. Notwithstanding paragraph (f)(1) of this section, in emergency situations the RA may waive the time period specified in this section on behalf of employers who have not made use of temporary alien agricultural workers (H-2 or H-2A) for the prior year's agricultural season or for any employer which has other good and substantial cause (which may include unforeseen changes in market conditions), provided that the RA has an opportunity to obtain sufficient labor market information on an expedited basis to make the labor certification determination required by §216 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1186). In making this determination, the RA will accept information offered by and may consult with representatives of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

(g) Length of job opportunity. The employer shall set forth on the application sufficient information concerning the job opportunity to demonstrate to the RA that the need for the worker is "of a temporary or seasonal nature", as defined at §655.100(c)(2) of this part. Job opportunities of 12 months or more are presumed to be permanent in nature. Therefore, the RA shall not grant a temporary alien agricultural labor certification where the job opportunity has been or would be filled by an H-2A worker for a cumulative period, including temporary alien agricultural labor certifications and extensions, of 12 months or more, except in extraordinary circumstances.

[52 FR 20507, June 1, 1987, as amended at 64 FR 34966, June 29, 1999]

§ 655.102 Contents of job offers.

(a) Preferential treatment of aliens prohibited. The employer's job offer to U.S. workers shall offer the U.S. workers no less than the same benefits, wages, and working conditions which the employer is offering, intends to offer, or will provide to H-2A workers. Conversely, no job offer may impose on U.S. workers any restrictions or obligations which will not be imposed on the employer's H-2A workers. This does not relieve the employer from providing to H-2A workers at least the same level of minimum benefits, wages, and working conditions which must be offered to U.S. workers consistent with this section.

(b) Minimum benefits, wages, and working conditions. Except when higher benefits, wages or working conditions are required by the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, DOL has determined that in order to protect similarly employed U.S. workers from adverse effect with respect to benefits, wages, and working conditions, every job offer which must accompany an H-2A application always shall include each of the following minimum benefit, wage, and working condition provisions:

(1) Housing. The employer shall provide to those workers who are not reasonably able to return to their residence within the same day housing, without charge to the worker, which may be, at the employer's option, rental or public accommodation type housing.

(i) Standards for employer-provided housing. Housing provided by the employer shall meet the full set of DOL Occupational Safety and Health Administration standards set forth at 29 CFR 1910.142, or the full set of standards at §§ 654.404-654.417 of this chapter, whichever are applicable, except as provided for under paragraph (b)(1)(iii) of this section. Requests by employers, whose housing does not meet the applicable standards, for conditional access to the intrastate or interstate clearance system, shall be processed under the procedures set forth at § 654.403 of this chapter.

(ii) Standards for range housing. Housing for workers principally engaged in the range production of livestock shall meet standards of the DOL Occupational Safety and Health Administration for such housing. In the absence of such standards, range housing for sheepherders and other workers engaged in the range production of livestock shall meet guidelines issued by ETA.

(iii) Standards for other habitation. Rental, public accommodation, or other substantially similar class of habitation must meet local standards for such housing. In the absence of applicable local standards, State standards shall apply. In the absence of applicable local or State standards, Occupational Safety and Health Administration standards at 29 CFR 1910.142 shall apply. Any charges for rental housing shall be paid directly by the employer to the owner or operator of the housing. When such housing is to be supplied by an employer, the employer shall document to the satisfaction of the RA that the housing complies with the local, State, or federal housing standards applicable under this paragraph (b)(1)(iii).

(iv) Charges for public housing. If public housing provided for migrant agricultural workers under the auspices of a local, county, or State government is secured by an employer, and use of the public housing unit normally requires charges from migrant workers, such charges shall be paid by the employer directly to the appropriate individual or entity affiliated with the housing's management.

(v) Deposit charges. Charges in the form of deposits for bedding or other similar incidentals related to housing shall not be levied upon workers by employers who provide housing for their workers. However, employers may require workers to reimburse them for damage caused to housing by the individual workers found to have been responsible for damage which is not the result of normal wear and tear related to habitation.

(vi) Family housing. When it is the prevailing practice in the area of intended employment and the occupation to provide family housing, family housing shall be provided to workers with families who request it.

(2) Workers' compensation. The employer shall provide, at no cost to the worker, insurance, under a State workers' compensation law or otherwise, covering injury and disease arising out of and in the course of the worker's employment which will provide benefits at least equal to those provided under the State workers' compensation law, if any, for comparable employment. The employer shall furnish the name of the insurance carrier and the insurance policy number, or, if appropriate, proof of State law coverage, to the RA prior to the issuance of a labor certification.

(3) Employer-provided items. Except as provided below, the employer shall provide, without charge including deposit charge, to the worker all tools, supplies, and equipment required to perform the duties assigned; the employer may charge the worker for reasonable costs related to the worker's refusal or negligent failure to return any property furnished by the employer or due to such worker's willful damage or destruction of such property. Where it is a common practice in the particular area, crop activity and occupation for workers to provide tools and equipment, with or without the employer reimbursing the workers for the cost of providing them, such an arrangement is permissible if approved in advance by the RA.

(4) Meals. Where the employer has centralized cooking and eating facilities designed to feed workers, the employer shall provide each worker with three meals a day. When such facilities are not available, the employer either shall provide each worker with three meals a day or shall furnish free and convenient cooking and kitchen facilities to the workers which will enable the workers to prepare their own meals. Where the employer provides the meals, the job offer shall state the charge, if any, to the worker for such meals. Until a new amount is set pursuant to this paragraph (b)(4), the charge shall not be more than $5.26 per day unless the RA has approved a higher charge pursuant to §655.111 of this part. Each year the charge allowed by this paragraph (b)(4) will be changed by the same percentage as the 12-month percent change in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for Food between December of the year just concluded and December of the year prior to that. The annual adjustments shall be effective on the date of their publication by the Director as a notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(5) Transportation; daily subsistence—
(i) Transportation to place of employment. The employer shall advance transportation and subsistence costs (or otherwise provide them) to workers when it is the prevailing practice of non-H-2A agricultural employers in the occupation in the area to do so, or when such benefits are extended to H-2A workers. The amount of the transportation payment shall be no less (and shall not be required to be more) than the most economical and reasonable similar common carrier transportation charges for the distances involved. If the employer has not previously advanced such transportation and subsistence costs to the worker or otherwise provided such transportation or subsistence directly to the worker by other means and if the worker completes 50 percent of the work contract period, the employer shall pay the worker for costs incurred by the worker for transportation and daily subsistence from the place from which the worker has come to work for the employer to the place of employment. The amount of the daily subsistence payment shall be at least as much as the employer will charge the worker for providing the worker with three meals a day during employment. If no charges will be made for meals and free and convenient cooking and kitchen facilities will be provided, the amount of the subsistence payment shall be no less than the amount permitted under paragraph (b)(4) of this section.

(ii) Transportation from place of employment. If the worker completes the work contract period, the employer shall provide or pay for the worker's transportation and daily subsistence from the place of employment to the place from which the worker, disregarding intervening employment, came to work for the employer, or, if the worker has contracted with a subsequent employer who has not agreed in that contract to provide or pay for the worker's transportation and daily subsistence expenses from the employer's worksite to such subsequent employer's worksite, the employer shall provide or pay for such expenses; except that, if the worker has contracted for employment with a subsequent employer who, in that contract, has agreed to pay for the worker's transportation and daily subsistence expenses from the employer's worksite to such subsequent employer's worksite, the employer is not required to provide or pay for such expenses.

(iii) Transportation between living quarters and worksite. The employer shall provide transportation between the worker's living quarters (i.e., housing provided by the employer pursuant to paragraph (b)(1) of this section) and the employer's worksite without cost to the worker, and such transportation will be in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. This paragraph (b)(5)(iii) is applicable to the transportation of workers eligible for housing, pursuant to paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

(6) Three-fourths guarantee—(i) Offer to worker. The employer shall guarantee to offer the worker employment for at least three-fourths of the workdays of the total periods during which the work contract and all extensions thereof are in effect, beginning with the first workday after the arrival of the worker at the place of employment and ending on the expiration date specified in the work contract or in its extensions, if any. If the employer affords the U.S. or H-2A worker during the total work contract period less employment than that required under this paragraph (b)(6), the employer shall pay such worker the amount which the worker would have earned had the worker, in fact, worked for the guaranteed number of days. For purposes of this paragraph (b)(6), a workday shall mean the number of hours in a workday as stated in the job order and shall exclude the worker's Sabbath and federal holidays. An employer shall not be considered to have met the work guarantee if the employer has merely offered work on three-fourths of the workdays if each workday did not consist of a full number of hours of work time specified in the job order. The work shall be offered for at least three-fourths of the workdays (that is,  $3/4 \times$  (number of days)  $\times$  (specified hours)). Therefore, if, for example, the contract contains 20 eight-hour workdays, the worker shall be offered employment for 120 hours during the 20 workdays. A worker may be offered more than the specified hours of work on a single workday. For purposes of meeting the guarantee, however, the worker shall not be required to work for more than the number hours specified in the job order for a workday, or on the worker's Sabbath or Federal holidays.

(ii) Guarantee for piece-rate-paid worker. If the worker will be paid on a piece rate basis, the employer shall use the worker's average hourly piece rate earnings or the AEW, whichever is higher, to calculate the amount due under the guarantee.

(iii) Failure to work. Any hours which the worker fails to work, up to a maximum of the number of hours specified in the job order for a workday, when the worker has been offered an opportunity to do so pursuant to paragraph (b)(6)(i) of this section and all hours of work actually performed (including voluntary work over 8 hours in a workday or on the worker's Sabbath or federal holidays) may be counted by the employer in calculating whether the period of guaranteed employment has been met.

(iv) Displaced H-2A worker. The employer shall not be liable for payment under this paragraph (b)(6) with respect to an H-2A worker whom the RA certifies is displaced because of the employer's compliance with § 655.103(e) of this part.

(7) Records. (i) The employer shall keep accurate and adequate records with respect to the workers' earnings including field tally records, supporting summary payroll records and records showing the nature and amount of the work performed; the number of hours of work offered each day by the employer (broken out by hours offered both in accordance with and over and above the three-fourths guarantee at paragraph (b)(6) of this section); the hours actually worked each day by the worker; the time the worker began and ended each workday; the rate of pay (both piece rate and hourly, if applicable); the worker's earnings per pay period; the worker's home address; and the amount of and reasons for any and all deductions made from the worker's wages;

(ii) If the number of hours worked by the worker is less than the number offered in accordance with the three-fourths guarantee at paragraph (b)(6) of this section, the records shall state the reason or reasons therefore.

(iii) Upon reasonable notice, the employer shall make available the records, including field tally records and supporting summary payroll records for inspection and copying by representatives of the Secretary of Labor, and by the worker and representatives designated by the worker; and

(iv) The employer shall retain the records for not less than three years after the completion of the work contract.

(8) Hours and earnings statements. The employer shall furnish to the worker on or before each payday in one or more written statements the following information:

(i) The worker's total earnings for the pay period;

(ii) The worker's hourly rate and/or piece rate of pay;

(iii) The hours of employment which have been offered to the worker (broken out by offers in accordance with and over and above the guarantee);

(iv) The hours actually worked by the worker;

(v) An itemization of all deductions made from the worker's wages; and

(vi) If piece rates are used, the units produced daily.

(9) Rates of pay. (i) If the worker will be paid by the hour, the employer shall pay the worker at least the adverse effect wage rate in effect at the time the work is performed, the prevailing hourly wage rate, or the legal federal or State minimum wage rate, whichever is highest, for every hour or portion thereof worked during a pay period; or

(ii)(A) If the worker will be paid on a piece rate basis and the piece rate does not result at the end of the pay period in average hourly piece rate earnings during the pay period at least equal to the amount the worker would have earned had the worker been paid at the appropriate hourly rate, the worker's pay shall be supplemented at that time so that the worker's earnings are at least as much as the worker would have earned during the pay period if the worker had been paid at the appropriate hourly wage rate for each hour worked; and the piece rate shall be no less than the piece rate prevailing for the activity in the area of intended employment; and

(B) If the employer who pays by the piece rate requires one or more minimum productivity standards of workers as a condition of job retention,

(1) Such standards shall be specified in the job offer and be no more than those required by the employer in 1977, unless the RA approves a higher minimum; or

(2) If the employer first applied for H-2 agricultural or H-2A temporary alien agricultural labor certification after 1977, such standards shall be no more than those normally required (at the time of the first application) by other employers for the activity in the area of intended employment, unless the RA approves a higher minimum.

(10) Frequency of pay. The employer shall state the frequency with which the worker will be paid (in accordance with the prevailing practice in the area of intended employment, or at least twice monthly whichever is more frequent).

(11) Abandonment of employment; or termination for cause. If the worker voluntarily abandons employment before the end of the contract period, or is terminated for cause, and the employer notifies the local office of such abandonment or termination, the employer will not be responsible for providing or paying for the subsequent transportation and subsistence expenses of any worker for whom the employer would have otherwise been required to pay such expenses under paragraph (b)(5)(ii) of this section, and that worker is not entitled to the “three-fourths guarantee” (see paragraph (b)(6) of this section).

(12) Contract impossibility. If, before the expiration date specified in the work contract, the services of the worker are no longer required for reasons beyond the control of the employer due to fire, hurricane, or other Act of God which makes the fulfillment of the contract impossible the employer may terminate the work contract. In the event of such termination of a contract, the employer shall fulfill the three-fourths guarantee at paragraph (b)(6) of this section for the time that has elapsed from the start of the work contract to its termination. In such cases the employer will make efforts to transfer the worker to other comparable employment acceptable to the worker. If such transfer is not effected, the employer shall:

(i) Offer to return the worker, at the employer’s expense, to the place from which the worker disregarding intervening employment came to work for the employer,

(ii) Reimburse the worker the full amount of any deductions made from the worker’s pay by the employer for transportation and subsistence expenses to the place of employment, and

(iii) Notwithstanding whether the employment has been terminated prior to completion of 50 percent of the work contract period originally offered by the employer, pay the worker for costs incurred by the worker for transportation and daily subsistence from the place from which the worker, without intervening employment, has come to work for the employer to the place of employment. Daily subsistence shall be computed as set forth in paragraph (b)(5)(i) of this section. The amount of the transportation payment shall be no less (and shall not be required to be more) than the most economical and reasonable similar common carrier transportation charges for the distances involved.

(13) Deductions. The employer shall make those deductions from the worker’s paycheck which are required by law. The job offer shall specify all deductions not required by law which the employer will make from the worker’s paycheck. All deductions shall be reasonable. The employer may deduct the cost of the worker’s transportation and daily subsistence expenses to the place of employment which were borne directly by the employer. In such cases, the job offer shall state that the worker will be reimbursed the full amount of such deductions upon the worker’s completion of 50 percent of the worker’s contract period. However, an employer subject to the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) may not make deductions which will result in payments to workers of less than the federal minimum wage permitted by the FLSA as determined by the Secretary at 29 CFR part 531.

(14) Copy of work contract. The employer shall provide to the worker, no later than on the day the work commences, a copy of the work contract between the employer and the worker. The work contract shall contain all of the provisions required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section. In the absence of a separate, written work contract entered into between the employer and the worker, the required terms of the job order and application for temporary alien agricultural labor certification shall be the work contract.

(c) Appropriateness of required qualifications. Bona fide occupational qualifications specified by an employer in a job offer shall be consistent with the normal and accepted qualifications required by non-H-2A employers in the same or comparable occupations and crops, and shall be reviewed by the RA for their appropriateness. The RA may require the employer to submit documentation to substantiate the appropriateness of the qualification specified in the job offer; and shall consider information offered by and may consult with representatives of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

(d) Positive recruitment plan. The employer shall submit in writing, as a part of the application, the employer’s plan for conducting independent, positive recruitment of U.S. workers as required by §§ 655.103 and 655.105(a) of this part. Such a plan shall include a description of recruitment efforts (if any) made prior to the actual submittal of the application. The plan shall describe how the employer will engage in positive recruitment of U.S. workers to an extent (with respect to both effort and location(s)) no less than that of non-H-2A agricultural employers of comparable or smaller size in the area of employment. When it is the prevailing practice in the area of employment and for the occupation for non-H-2A agricultural employers to secure U.S. workers through farm labor contractors and to compensate farm labor contractors with an override for their services, the employer shall describe how it will make the same level of effort as non-H-2A agricultural employers and provide an override which is no less than that being provided by non-H-2A agricultural employers.

§ 655.103 Assurances.

As part of the temporary alien agricultural labor certification application, the employer shall include in the job offer a statement agreeing to abide by the conditions of this subpart. By so doing, the employer makes each of the following assurances:

(a) Labor disputes. The specific job opportunity for which the employer is requesting H-2A certification is not vacant because the former occupant is on strike or being locked out in the course of a labor dispute.

(b) Employment-related laws. During the period for which the temporary alien agricultural labor certification is granted, the employer shall comply with applicable federal, State, and local employment-related laws and regulations, including employment-related health and safety laws.

(c) Rejections and terminations of U.S. workers. No U.S. worker will be rejected for or terminated from employment for other than a lawful job-related reason, and notification of all rejections or terminations shall be made to the local office.

(d) Recruitment of U.S. workers. The employer shall independently engage in positive recruitment until the foreign workers have departed for the employer's place of employment and shall cooperate with the ES System in the active recruitment of U.S. workers by:

(1) Assisting the ES System to prepare local, intrastate, and interstate job orders using the information supplied on the employer's job offer;

(2) Placing advertisements (in a language other than English, where the RA determines appropriate) for the job opportunities in newspapers of general circulation and/or on the radio, as required by the RA:

(i) Each such advertisement shall describe the nature and anticipated duration of the job opportunity; offer at least the adverse effect wage rate; give the ¾ guarantee; state that work tools, supplies and equipment will be provided by the employer; state that housing will also be provided, and that transportation and subsistence expenses to the worksite will be provided or paid by the employer upon completion of 50% of the work contract, or earlier, if appropriate; and

(ii) Each such advertisement shall direct interested workers to apply for the job opportunity at a local employment service office in their area;

(3) Cooperating with the ES System and independently contacting farm labor contractors, migrant workers and other potential workers in other areas of the State and/or Nation by letter and/or telephone; and

(4) Cooperating with the ES System in contacting schools, business and labor organizations, fraternal and veterans' organizations, and nonprofit organizations and public agencies such as sponsors of programs under the Job Training Partnership Act throughout the area of intended employment and in other potential labor supply areas in order to enlist them in helping to find U.S. workers.

(e) Fifty-percent rule. From the time the foreign workers depart for the employer's place of employment, the employer, except as provided for by §655.106(e)(1) of this part, shall provide employment to any qualified, eligible U.S. worker who applies to the employer until 50% of the period of the work contract, under which the foreign worker who is in the job was hired, has elapsed. In addition, the employer shall offer to provide housing and the other benefits, wages, and working conditions required by §655.102 of this part to any such U.S. worker and shall not treat less favorably than H-2A workers any U.S. worker referred or transferred pursuant to this assurance.

(f) Other recruitment. The employer shall perform the other specific recruitment and reporting activities specified in the notice from the RA required by § 655.105(a) of this part, and shall engage in positive recruitment of U.S. workers to an extent (with respect to both effort and location) no less than that of non-H-2A agricultural employers of comparable or smaller size in the area of employment. When it is the prevailing practice in the area of employment and for the occupation for non-H-2A agricultural employers to secure U.S. workers through farm labor contractors and to compensate farm labor contractors with an override for their services, the employer shall make the same level of effort as non-H-2A agricultural employers and shall provide an override which is no less than that being provided by non-H-2A agricultural employers. Where the employer has centralized cooking and eating facilities designed to feed workers, the employer shall not be required to provide meals through an override. The employer shall not be required to provide for housing through an override.

(g) Retaliation prohibited. The employer shall not intimidate, threaten, restrain, coerce, blacklist, discharge, or in any manner discriminate against, and shall not cause any person to intimidate, threaten, restrain, coerce, blacklist, discharge, or in any manner discriminate against, any person who has with just cause:

(1) Filed a complaint under or related to § 216 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1186), or this subpart or any other DOL regulation promulgated pursuant to § 216 of the INA;

(2) Instituted or caused to be instituted any proceeding under or related to § 216 of the INA, or this subpart or any other DOL regulation promulgated pursuant to § 216 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1186);

(3) Testified or is about to testify in any proceeding under or related to § 216 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1186), or this subpart or any other DOL regulation promulgated pursuant to § 216 of the INA;

(4) Consulted with an employee of a legal assistance program or an attorney on matters related to § 216 of the

INA (8 U.S.C. 1186), or this subpart or any other DOL regulation promulgated pursuant to § 216 of the INA; or

(5) Exercised or asserted on behalf of himself/herself or others any right or protection afforded by § 216 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1186), or this subpart or any other DOL regulation promulgated pursuant to § 216 of the INA.

(h) Fees. The application shall include the assurance that fees will be paid in a timely manner, as follows:

(1) Amount. The fee for each employer receiving a temporary alien agricultural labor certification is $100 plus $10 for each job opportunity for H-2A workers certified, provided that the fee for an employer for each temporary alien agricultural labor certification received shall be no greater than $1,000. In the case of a joint employer association receiving a temporary alien agricultural labor certification, the fee for each employer-member receiving a temporary alien agricultural labor certification shall be $100 plus $10 for each job opportunity for H-2A workers certified, provided that the fee for an employer for each temporary alien agricultural labor certification received shall be no greater than $1,000. The joint employer association will not be charged a separate fee. Fees shall be paid by a check or money order made payable to "Department of Labor", and are nonrefundable. In the case of employers of H-2A workers which are members of a joint employer association applying on their behalf, the aggregate fees for all employers of H-2A workers under the application may be paid by one check or money order.

(2) Timeliness. Fees received by the RA within 30 calendar days after the date of the temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination are timely.

[52 FR 20507, June 1, 1987, as amended by 55 FR 29358, July 19, 1990]

§ 655.104 Determinations based on acceptability of H-2A applications.

(a) Local office activities. The local office, using the job offer portion of the H-2A application, shall promptly prepare a local job order and shall begin to recruit U.S. workers in the area of intended employment. The RA should notify the State or local office by telephone no later than seven calendar days after the application was received by the RA if the application has been accepted for consideration. Upon receiving such notice or seven calendar days after the application is received by the local office, whichever is earlier, the local office shall promptly prepare an agricultural clearance order which will permit the recruitment of U.S. workers by the Employment Service System on an intrastate and interstate basis.

(b) Regional office activities. The RA, upon receipt of the H-2A application, shall promptly review the application to determine whether it is acceptable for consideration under the timeliness and adverse effect criteria of §§ 655.101-655.103 of this part. If the RA determines that the application does not meet the requirements of §§ 655.101-655.103, the RA shall not accept the application for consideration on the grounds that the availability of U.S. workers cannot be adequately tested because the benefits, wages and working conditions do not meet the adverse effect criteria; however, if the RA determines that the application is not timely in accordance with § 655.101 of this part and that neither the first-year employer provisions of § 655.101(c)(5) nor the emergency provisions of § 655.101(f) apply, the RA may determine not to accept the application for consideration because there is not sufficient time to test the availability of U.S. workers.

(c) Rejected applications. If the application is not accepted for consideration, the RA shall notify the applicant in writing (by means normally assuring next-day delivery) within seven calendar days of the date the application was received by the RA with a copy to the local office. The notice shall:

(1) State all the reasons the application is not accepted for consideration, citing the relevant regulatory standards;

(2) Offer the applicant an opportunity for the resubmission within five calendar days of a modified application, stating the modifications needed in order for the RA to accept the application for consideration;

(3) Offer the applicant an opportunity to request an expedited administrative review of or a de novo administrative hearing before an administrative law judge of the nonacceptance; the notice shall state that in order to obtain such a review or hearing, the employer, within seven calendar days of the date of the notice, shall file by facsimile (fax), telegram, or other means normally assuring next day delivery a written request to the Chief Administrative Law Judge of the Department of Labor (giving the address) and simultaneously serve a copy on the RA; the notice shall also state that the employer may submit any legal arguments which the employer believes will rebut the basis of the RA's action; and

(4) State that if the employer does not request an expedited administrative-judicial review or a de novo hearing before an administrative law judge within the seven calendar days no further consideration of the employer's application for temporary alien agricultural labor certification will be made by any DOL official.

(d) Appeal procedures. If the employer timely requests an expedited administrative review or de novo hearing before an administrative law judge pursuant to paragraph (c)(3) of this section, the procedures at § 655.112 of this part shall be followed.

(e) Required modifications. If the application is not accepted for consideration by the RA, but the RA's written notification to the applicant is not timely as required by § 655.101 of this part, the certification determination will not be extended beyond 20 calendar days before the date of need. The notice will specify that the RA's temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination will be made no later than 20 calendar days before the date of need, provided that the applicant submits the modifications to the application which are required by the RA within five calendar days and in a manner specified by the RA which will enable the test of U.S. worker availability to be made as required by § 655.101 of this part within the time available for such purposes.

§ 655.105

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

[42 FR 45899, Sept. 13, 1977, as amended at 59 FR 41875, Aug. 15, 1994]

§ 655.105 Recruitment period.

(a) Notice of acceptance of application for consideration; required recruitment. If the RA determines that the H-2A application meets the requirements of §§ 655.101-655.103 of this part, the RA shall promptly notify the employer (by means normally assuring next-day delivery) in writing with copies to the State agency. The notice shall inform the employer and the State agency of the specific efforts which will be expected from them during the following weeks to carry out the assurances contained in § 655.103 with respect to the recruitment of U.S. workers. The notice shall require that the job order be placed into intrastate clearance and into interstate clearance to such States as the RA shall determine to be potential sources of U.S. workers. The notice may require the employer to engage in positive recruitment efforts within a multi-State region of traditional or expected labor supply where the RA finds, based on current information provided by a State agency and such information as may be offered and provided by other sources, that there are a significant number of able and qualified U.S. workers who, if recruited, would likely be willing to make themselves available for work at the time and place needed. In making such a finding, the RA shall take into account other recent recruiting efforts in those areas and will attempt to avoid requiring employers to futilely recruit in areas where there are a significant number of local employers recruiting for U.S. workers for the same types of occupations. Positive recruitment is in addition to, and shall be conducted within the same time period as, the circulation through the interstate clearance system of an agricultural clearance order. The obligation to engage in such positive recruitment shall terminate on the date H-2A workers depart for the employer's place of work. In determining what positive recruitment shall be required, the RA will ascertain the normal recruitment practices of non-H-2A agricultural employers in the area and the kind and degree of recruitment efforts which the potential H-2A employer made to obtain H-2A workers. The RA shall ensure that the effort, including the location(s) of the positive recruitment required of the potential H-2A employer, during the period after filing the application and before the date the H-2A workers depart their prior location to come to the place of employment, shall be no less than: (1) The recruitment efforts of non-H-2A agricultural employers of comparable or smaller size in the area of employment; and (2) the kind and degree of recruitment efforts which the potential H-2A employer made to obtain H-2A workers.

(b) Recruitment of U.S. workers. After an application for temporary alien agricultural labor certification is accepted for processing pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, the RA, under the direction of the ETA national office and with the assistance of other RAs with respect to areas outside the region, shall provide overall direction to the employer and the State agency with respect to the recruitment of U.S. workers.

(c) Modifications. At any time during the recruitment effort, the RA, with the Director's concurrence, may require modifications to a job offer when the RA determines that the job offer does not contain all the provisions relating to minimum benefits, wages, and working conditions, required by § 655.102(b) of this part. If any such modifications are required after an application has been accepted for consideration by the RA, the modifications must be made; however, the certification determination shall not be delayed beyond the 20 calendar days prior to the date of need as a result of such modification.

(d) Final determination. By 20 calendar days before the date of need specified in the application, except as provided for under §§ 655.101(c)(2) and 655.104(e) of this part for untimely modified applications, the RA, when making a determination of the availability of U.S. workers, shall also make a determination as to whether the employer has satisfied the recruitment assurances in §655.103 of this part. If the RA concludes that the employer has not satisfied the requirements for recruitment of U.S. workers, the RA shall deny the temporary alien agricultural labor certification, and shall immediately notify the employer in writing with a copy to the State agency and local office. The notice shall contain the statements specified in §655.104(d) of this part.

(e) Appeal procedure. With respect to determinations by the RA pursuant to this section, if the employer timely requests an expedited administrative review or a de novo hearing before an administrative law judge, the procedures in §655.112 of this part shall be followed.

§655.106 Referral of U.S. workers; determinations based on U.S. worker availability and adverse effect; activities after receipt of the temporary alien agricultural labor certification.

(a) Referral of able, willing, and qualified eligible U.S. workers. With respect to the referral of U.S. workers to job openings listed on a job order accompanying an application for temporary alien agricultural labor certification, no U.S. worker-applicant shall be referred unless such U.S. worker has been made aware of the terms and conditions of and qualifications for the job, and has indicated, by accepting referral to the job, that she or he meets the qualifications required and is able, willing, and eligible to take such a job.

(b) (1) Determinations. If the RA, in accordance with §655.105 of this part, has determined that the employer has complied with the recruitment assurances and the adverse effect criteria of §655.102 of this part, by the date specified pursuant to §655.101(c)(2) of this part for untimely modified applications or 20 calendar days before the date of need specified in the application, whichever is applicable, the RA shall grant the temporary alien agricultural labor certification request for enough H-2A workers to fill the employer's job opportunities for which U.S. workers are not available. In making the temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination, the RA shall consider as available any U.S. worker who has made a firm commitment to work for the employer, including those workers committed by other authorized persons such as farm labor contractors and family heads. Such a firm commitment shall be considered to have been made not only by workers who have signed work contracts with the employer, but also by those whom the RA determines are likely to sign a work contract. The RA shall count as available any U.S. worker who has applied to the employer (or on whose behalf an application has been made), but who was rejected by the employer for other than lawful job-related reasons or who has not been provided with a lawful job-related reason for rejection by the employer, as determined by the RA. The RA shall not grant a temporary alien agricultural labor certification request for any H-2A workers if the RA determines that:

(i) Enough able, willing, and qualified U.S. workers have been identified as being available to fill all the employer's job opportunities;

(ii) The employer, since the time the application was accepted for consideration under §655.104 of this part, has adversely affected U.S. workers by offering to, or agreeing to provide to, H-2A workers better wages, working conditions or benefits (or by offering to, or agreeing to impose on alien workers less obligations and restrictions) than those offered to U.S. workers;

(iii) The employer during the previous two-year period employed H-2A workers and the RA has determined, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, that the employer at any time during that period substantially violated a material term or condition of a temporary alien agricultural labor certification with respect to the employment of U.S. or H-2A workers;

(iv) The employer has not complied with the workers' compensation requirements at §655.102(b)(2) of this part; or

(v) The employer has not satisfactorily complied with the positive recruitment requirements specified by this subpart.

Further, the RA, in making the temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination, will subtract from any temporary alien agricultural labor certification the specific verified number of job opportunities involved which are vacant because of a strike or other labor dispute involving a work stoppage, or a lockout, in the occupation at the place of employment (and for which H-2A workers have been requested). Upon receipt by the RA of such labor dispute information from any source, the RA shall verify the existence of the strike, labor dispute, or lockout and the vacancies directly attributable through the receipt by the RA of a written report from the State agency written following an investigation by the State agency (made under the oversight of the RA) of the situation and after the RA has consulted with the Director prior to making such a determination.

(2) Fees. A temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination granting an application shall include a bill for the required fees. Each employer (except joint employer associations) of H-2A workers under the application for temporary alien agricultural labor certification shall pay in a timely manner a nonrefundable fee upon issuance of the temporary alien agricultural labor certification granting the application (in whole or in part), as follows:

(i) Amount. The fee for each employer receiving a temporary alien agricultural labor certification is $100 plus $10 for each job opportunity for H-2A workers certified, provided that the fee to an employer for each temporary alien agricultural labor certification received shall be no greater than $1,000. In the case of a joint employer association receiving a temporary alien agricultural labor certification, each employer-member receiving a temporary alien agricultural labor certification shall pay a fee of $100 plus $10 for each job opportunity for H-2A workers certified, provided that the fee to an employer for each temporary alien agricultural labor certification received shall be no greater than $1,000. The joint employer association will not be charged a separate fee. The fees shall be paid by check or money order made payable to "Department of Labor". In the case of employers of H-2A workers which are members of a joint employer association applying on their behalf, the aggregate fees for all employers of H-2A workers under the application may be paid by one check or money order.

(ii) Timeliness. Fees received by the RA no more than 30 calendar days after the date of the temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination are timely.

(c) Changes to temporary alien agricultural labor certifications; temporary alien agricultural labor certifications involving employer associations—(1) Changes. Temporary alien agricultural labor certifications are subject to the conditions and assurances made during the application process. Any changes in the level of benefits, wages, and working conditions an employer may wish to make at any time during the work contract period must be approved by the RA after written application by the employer, even if such changes have been agreed to by an employee. Temporary alien agricultural labor certifications shall be for the specific period of time specified in the employer's job offer, which shall be less than twelve months; shall be limited to the employer's specific job opportunities; and may not be transferred from one employer to another, except as provided for by paragraph (c)(2) of this section.

(2) Associations—(i) Applications. If an association is requesting a temporary alien agricultural labor certification as a joint employer, the temporary alien agricultural labor certification granted under this section shall be made jointly to the association and to its employer members. Except as provided in paragraph (c)(2)(iii) of this section, such workers may be transferred among its producer members to perform work for which the temporary alien agricultural labor certification was granted, provided the association controls the assignment of such workers and maintains a record of such assignments. All temporary alien agricultural labor certifications to associations may be used for the certified job opportunities of any of its members. If an association is requesting a temporary alien agricultural labor certification as a sole employer, the temporary alien agricultural labor certification granted pursuant to this section shall be made to the association only.

(ii) Referrals and transfers. For the purposes of complying with the “fifty-percent rule” at § 655.103(e) of this part, any association shall be allowed to refer or transfer workers among its members (except as provided in paragraph (c)(2)(iii) of this section), and an association acting as an agent for its members shall not be considered a joint employer merely because of such referral or transfer.

(iii) Ineligible employer-members. Workers shall not be transferred or referred to an association’s member, if that member is ineligible to obtain any or any additional workers, pursuant to § 655.110 of this part.

(3) Extension of temporary alien agricultural labor certification—(1) Short-term extension. An employer who seeks an extension of two weeks or less of the temporary alien agricultural labor certification shall apply for such extension to INS. If INS grants such an extension, the temporary alien agricultural labor certification shall be deemed extended for such period as is approved by INS. No extension granted under this paragraph (c)(3)(i) shall be for a period longer than the original work contract period of the temporary alien agricultural labor certification.

(ii) Long-term extension. For extensions beyond the period which may be granted by INS pursuant to paragraph (c)(3)(i) of this section, an employer, after 50 percent of the work contract period has elapsed, may apply to the RA for an extension of the period of the temporary alien agricultural labor certification, for reasons related to weather conditions or other external factors beyond the control of the employer (which may include unforeseen changes in market conditions), provided that the employer’s need for an extension is supported in writing by the employer, with documentation showing that the extension is needed and could not have been reasonably foreseen by the employer. The RA shall grant or deny the request for extension of the temporary alien agricultural labor certification based on available information, and shall notify the employer of the decision on the request in writing. The RA shall not grant an extension where the total work contract period, including past temporary alien labor certifications for the job opportunity and extensions, would be 12 months or more, except in extraordinary circumstances. The RA shall not grant an extension where the temporary alien agricultural labor certification has already been extended by INS pursuant to paragraph (c)(3)(i) of this section.

(d) Denials of applications. If the RA does not grant the temporary alien agricultural labor certification (in whole or in part) the RA shall notify the employer by means reasonably calculated to assure next-day delivery. The notification shall contain all the statements required in § 655.104(c) of this part. If a timely request is made for an administrative-judicial review or a de novo hearing by an administrative law judge, the procedures of § 655.112 of this part shall be followed.

(e) Approvals of applications—(1) Continued recruitment of U.S. workers. After a temporary agricultural labor certification has been granted, the employer shall continue its efforts to recruit U.S. workers until the actual date the H-2A workers depart for the employer’s place of employment.

(i) Unless the local employment office is informed in writing of a different date, the local office shall deem the third day immediately preceding the employer’s first date of need to be the date the H-2A workers depart for the employer’s place of employment. The employer may notify the local office in writing if the workers depart prior to that date.

(ii)(A) If the H-2A workers do not depart for the place of employment on or before the first date of need (or by the stated date of departure, if the local office has been advised of a different date), the employer shall notify the local employment office in writing (or orally, confirmed in writing) as soon as the employer knows that the workers will not depart by the first date of need, and in no event later than such date of need. At the same time, the employer shall notify the local office of the workers’ expected departure date, if known. No further notice is necessary if the workers depart by the stated date of departure.

(B) If the employer did not notify the local office of the expected departure date pursuant to paragraph (e)(1)(ii)(A) of this section, or if the H-2A workers do not leave for the place of employment on or before the stated date of departure, the employer shall notify the local employment office in writing (or orally, confirmed in writing) as soon as the employer becomes aware of the expected departure date, or that the workers did not depart by the stated date and the new expected departure date, as appropriate.

(2) Requirement for Active Job Order. The employer shall keep an active job order on file until the “50-percent rule” assurance at §655.103(e) of this part is met, except as provided by paragraph (f) of this section.

(3) Referrals by ES System. The ES system shall continue to refer to the employer U.S. workers who apply as long as there is an active job order on file.

(f) Exceptions. (1) “Fifty-percent rule” inapplicable to small employers. The assurance requirement at §655.103(e) of this part does not apply to any employer who:

(i) Did not, during any calendar quarter during the preceding calendar year, use more than 500 “man-days” of agricultural labor, as defined in section 3(u) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 203(u)), and so certifies to the RA in the H-2A application; and

(ii) Is not a member of an association which has applied for a temporary alien agricultural labor certification under this subpart for its members; and

(iii) Has not otherwise “associated” with other employers who are applying for H-2A workers under this subpart, and so certifies to the RA.

(2) Displaced H-2A workers. An employer shall not be liable for payment under §655.102(b)(6) of this part with respect to an H-2A worker whom the RA certifies is displaced due to compliance with §655.103(e) of this part.

(g) Withholding of U.S. workers prohibited. (1) Complaints. Any employer who has reason to believe that a person or entity has willfully and knowingly withheld U.S. workers prior to the arrival at the job site of H-2A workers in order to force the hiring of U.S. workers under §655.103(e) of this part may submit a written complaint to the local office. The complaint shall clearly identify the person or entity whom the employer believes has withheld the U.S. workers, and shall specify sufficient facts to support the allegation (e.g., dates, places, numbers and names of U.S. workers) which will permit an investigation to be conducted by the local office.

(2) Investigations. The local office shall inform the RA by telephone that a complaint under the provisions of paragraph (g) of this section has been filed and shall immediately investigate the complaint. Such investigation shall include interviews with the employer who has submitted the complaint, the person or entity named as responsible for withholding the U.S. workers, and the individual U.S. workers whose availability has purportedly been withheld. In the event the local office fails to conduct such interviews, the RA shall do so.

(3) Reports of findings. Within five working days after receipt of the complaint, the local office shall prepare a report of its findings, and shall submit such report (including recommendations) and the original copy of the employer’s complaint to the RA.

(4) Written findings. The RA shall immediately review the employer’s complaint and the report of findings submitted by the local office, and shall conduct any additional investigation the RA deems appropriate. No later than 36 working hours after receipt of the employer’s complaint and the local office’s report, the RA shall issue written findings to the local office and the employer. Where the RA determines that the employer’s complaint is valid and justified, the RA shall immediately suspend the application of §655.103(e) of this part to the employer. Such suspension of §655.103(e) of this part under these circumstances shall not take place, however, until the interviews required by paragraph (g)(2) of this section have been conducted. The RA’s determination under the provisions of this paragraph (g)(4) shall be the final decision of the Secretary, and no further review by any DOL official shall be given to it.

(h) Requests for new temporary alien agricultural labor certification determinations based on nonavailability of able, willing, and qualified U.S. workers—(1) Standards for requests. If a temporary alien agricultural labor certification application has been denied (in whole or in part) based on the RA's determination of the availability of able, willing, and qualified U.S. workers, and, on or after 20 calendar days before the date of need specified in the temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination, such U.S. workers identified as being able, willing, qualified, and available are, in fact, not able, willing, qualified, or available at the time and place needed, the employer may request a new temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination from the RA. The RA shall expeditiously, but in no case later than 72 hours after the time a request is received, make a determination on the request.

(2) Filing requests. The employer's request for a new determination shall be made directly to the RA. The request may be made to the RA by telephone, but shall be confirmed by the employer in writing as required by paragraphs (h)(2)(i) or (ii) of this section.

(i) Workers not able, willing, qualified, or eligible. If the employer asserts that any worker who has been referred by the ES System or by any other person or entity is not an eligible worker or is not able, willing, or qualified for the job opportunity for which the employer has requested H-2A workers, the burden of proof is on the employer to establish that the individual referred is not able, willing, qualified, or eligible because of lawful job-related reasons. The employer's burden of proof shall be met by the employer's submission to the RA, within 72 hours of the RA's receipt of the request for a new determination, of a signed statement of the employer's assertions, which shall identify each rejected worker by name and shall state each lawful job-related reason for rejecting that worker.

(ii) U.S. workers not available. If the employer telephonically requests the new determination, asserting solely that U.S. workers are not available, the employer shall submit to the RA a signed statement confirming such assertion. If such signed statement is not received by the RA within 72 hours of the RA's receipt of the telephonic request for a new determination, the RA may make the determination based solely on the information provided telephonically and the information (if any) from the local office.

(3) Regional office review—(i) Expeditious review. The RA expeditiously shall review the request for a new determination. The RA may request a signed statement from the local office in support of the employer's assertion of U.S. worker nonavailability or referred U.S. workers not being able, willing, or qualified because of lawful job-related reasons.

(ii) New determination. If the RA determines that the employer's assertion of nonavailability is accurate and that no able, willing, or qualified U.S. worker has been refused or is being refused employment for other than lawful job-related reasons, the RA shall, within 72 hours after receipt of the employer's request, render a new determination. Prior to making a new determination, the RA promptly shall ascertain (which may be through the ES System or other sources of information on U.S. worker availability) whether able, willing, and qualified replacement U.S. workers are available or can be reasonably expected to be present at the employer's establishment within 72 hours from the date the employer's request was received.

(iii) Notification of new determination. If the RA cannot identify sufficient able, willing, and qualified U.S. workers who are or who are likely to be available, the RA shall grant the employer's new determination request (in whole or in part) based on available information as to replacement U.S. worker availability. The RA's notification to the employer on the new determination shall be in writing (by means normally assuring next-day delivery), and the RA's determination under the provisions of this paragraph (h)(3) shall be the final decision of the Secretary, and no further review shall be given to an employer's request for a new H-2A determination by any DOL official. However, this does not preclude an employer from submitting subsequent requests for new determinations, if warranted, based on subsequent facts concerning purported nonavailability of U.S. workers or referred workers not being eligible workers or not able, willing, or qualified because of lawful job-related reasons.

§ 655.107 Adverse effect wage rates (AEWRs).

(a) Computation and publication of AEWRs. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the AEWRs for all agricultural employment (except for those occupations deemed inappropriate under the special circumstances provisions of § 655.93 of this part) for which temporary alien agricultural labor certification is being sought shall be equal to the annual weighted average hourly wage rate for field and livestock workers (combined) for the region as published annually by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) based on the USDA quarterly wage survey. The Director shall publish, at least once in each calendar year, on a date or dates to be determined by the Director, AEWRs for each State (for which USDA publishes regional data), calculated pursuant to this paragraph (a) as a notice or notices in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(b) Higher prevailing wage rates. If, as the result of a State agency prevailing wage survey determination, the prevailing wage rate in an area and agricultural activity (as determined by the State agency survey and verified by the Director) is found to be higher than the AEWR computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, the higher prevailing wage rate shall be offered and paid to all workers by employers seeking temporary alien agricultural labor certification for that agricultural activity and area.

(c) Federal minimum wage rate. In no event shall an AEWR computed pursuant to this section be lower than the hourly wage rate published in 29 U.S.C. 206(a)(1) and currently in effect.

§ 655.108 H-2A applications involving fraud or willful misrepresentation.

(a) Referral for investigation. If possible fraud or willful misrepresentation involving a temporary alien agricultural labor certification application is discovered prior to a final temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination or if it is learned that the employer or agent (with respect to an application) is the subject of a criminal indictment or information filed in a court, the RA shall refer the matter to the INS and DOL Office of the Inspector General for investigation. The RA shall continue to process the application and may issue a temporary alien agricultural labor certification.

20 CFR Ch. V (4-1-03 Edition)

(b) Continued processing. If a court finds an employer or agent not guilty of fraud or willful misrepresentation, or if the Department of Justice decides not to prosecute an employer or agent, the RA shall not deny the temporary alien agricultural labor certification application on the grounds of fraud or willful misrepresentation. The application, of course, may be denied for other reasons pursuant to this subpart.

(c) Terminated processing. If a court or the INS determines that there was fraud or willful misrepresentation involving a temporary alien agricultural labor certification application, the application is thereafter invalid, consideration of the application shall be terminated and the RA shall return the application to the employer or agent with the reasons therefor stated in writing.

§ 655.110 Employer penalties for non-compliance with terms and conditions of temporary alien agricultural labor certifications.

(a) Investigation of violations. If, during the period of two years after a temporary alien agricultural labor certification has been granted (in whole or in part), the RA has reason to believe that an employer violated a material term or condition of the temporary alien agricultural labor certification, the RA shall, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, investigate the matter. If, after the investigation, the RA determines that a substantial violation has occurred, the RA, after consultation with the Director, shall notify the employer that a temporary alien agricultural certification request will not be granted for the next period of time in a calendar year during which the employer would normally be expected to request a temporary alien agricultural labor certification, and any application subsequently submitted by the employer for that time period will not be accepted by the RA. If multiple or repeated substantial violations are involved, the RA's notice to the employer shall specify that the prospective denial of the temporary alien agricultural labor certification will apply not only to the next anticipated period for which a temporary alien agricultural labor certification would normally be requested, but also to any periods within the coming two or three years; two years for two violations, or repetitions of the same violations, and three years for three or more violations, or repetitions thereof. The RA's notice shall be in writing, shall state the reasons for the determinations, and shall offer the employer an opportunity to request an expedited administrative review or a de novo hearing before an administrative law judge of the determination within seven calendar days of the date of the notice. If the employer requests an expedited administrative review or a de novo hearing before an administrative law judge, the procedures in §655.112 of this part shall be followed.

(b) Employment Standards Administration investigations. The RA may make the determination described in paragraph (a) of this section based on information and recommendations provided by the Employment Standards Administration, after an Employment Standards Administration investigation has been conducted in accordance with the Employment Standards Administration procedures, that an employer has not complied with the terms and conditions of employment prescribed as a condition for a temporary alien agricultural labor certification. In such instances, the RA need not conduct any investigation of his/her own, and the subsequent notification to the employer and other procedures contained in paragraph (a) of this section will apply. Penalties invoked by the Employment Standards Administration for violations of temporary alien agricultural labor certification terms and conditions shall be treated and handled separately from sanctions available to the RA, and an employer's obligations for compliance with the Employment Standards Administration's enforcement penalties shall not absolve an employer from sanctions applied by ETA under this section (except as noted in paragraph (a) of this section).

(c) Less than substantial violations—(1) Requirement of special procedures. If, after investigation as provided for under paragraph (a) of this section, or an Employment Standards Administration notification as provided under paragraph (b) of this section, the RA determines that a less than substantial violation has occurred, but the RA has reason to believe that past actions on the part of the employer may have had and may continue to have a chilling or otherwise negative effect on the recruitment, employment, and retention of U.S. workers, the RA may require the employer to conform to special procedures before and after the temporary alien labor certification determination (including special on-site positive recruitment and streamlined interviewing and referral techniques) designed to enhance U.S. worker recruitment and retention in the next year as a condition for receiving a temporary alien agricultural labor certification. Such requirements shall be reasonable, and shall not require the employer to offer better wages, working conditions and benefits than those specified in §655.102 of this part, and shall be no more than deemed necessary to assure employer compliance with the test of U.S. worker availability and adverse effect criteria of this subpart. The RA shall notify the employer in writing of the special procedures which will be required in the coming year. The notification shall state the reasons for the imposition of the requirements, state that the employer's agreement to accept the conditions will constitute inclusion of them as bona fide conditions and terms of a temporary alien agricultural labor certification, and shall offer the employer an opportunity to request an administrative review or a de novo hearing before an administrative law judge. If an administrative review or de novo hearing is requested, the procedures prescribed in §655.112 of this part shall apply.

(2) Failure to comply with special procedures. If the RA determines that the employer has failed to comply with special procedures required pursuant to paragraph (c)(1) of this section, the RA shall send a written notice to the employer, stating that the employer's otherwise affirmative temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination will be reduced by twenty-five percent of the total number of H-2A aliens requested (which cannot be more than those requested in the previous year) for a period of one year. Notice of such a reduction in the number of workers requested shall be conveyed to the employer by the RA in the RA's written temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination required by § 655.101 of this part (with the concurrence of the Director). The notice shall offer the employer an opportunity to request an administrative review or a de novo hearing before an administrative law judge. If an administrative review or de novo hearing is requested, the procedures prescribed in § 655.112 of this part shall apply, provided that if the administrative law judge affirms the RA's determination that the employer has failed to comply with special procedures required by paragraph (c)(1) of this section, the reduction in the number of workers requested shall be twenty-five percent of the total number of H-2A aliens requested (which cannot be more than those requested in the previous year) for a period of one year.

(d) Penalties involving members of associations. If, after investigation as provided for under paragraph (a) of this section, or notification from the Employment Standards Administration under paragraph (b) of this section, the RA determines that a substantial violation has occurred, and if an individual producer member of a joint employer association is determined to have committed the violation, the denial of temporary alien agricultural labor certification penalty prescribed in paragraph (a) shall apply only to that member of the association unless the RA determines that the association or other association member participated in, had knowledge of, or had reason to know of the violation, in which case the penalty shall be invoked against the association or other association member as well.

(e) Penalties involving associations acting as joint employers. If, after investigation as provided for under paragraph (a) of this section, or notification from the Employment Standards Administration under paragraph (b) of this section, the RA determines that a substantial violation has occurred, and if an association acting as a joint employer with its members is determined to have committed the violation, the denial of temporary alien agricultural labor certification penalty prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section shall apply only to the association, and shall not be applied to any individual producer member of the association unless the RA determines that the member participated in, had knowledge of, or reason to know of the violation, in which case the penalty shall be invoked against the association member as well.

(f) Penalties involving associations acting as sole employers. If, after investigation as provided for under paragraph (a) of this section, or notification from the Employment Standards Administration under paragraph (b) of this section, the RA determines that a substantial violation has occurred, and if an association acting as a sole employer is determined to have committed the violation, no individual producer member of the association shall be permitted to employ certified H-2A workers in the crop and occupation for which the H-2A workers had been previously certified for the sole employer association unless the producer member applies for temporary alien agricultural labor certification under the provisions of this subpart in the capacity of an individual employer/applicant or as a member of a joint employer association, and is granted temporary alien agricultural labor certification by the RA.

(g) Types of violations—(1) Substantial violation. For the purposes of this subpart, a substantial violation is one or more actions of commission or omission on the part of the employer or the employer's agent, with respect to which the RA determines:

(i)(A) That the action(s) is/are significantly injurious to the wages, benefits, or working conditions of 10 percent or more of an employer's U.S. and/or H-2A workforce; and that:

(1) With respect to the action(s), the employer has failed to comply with one or more penalties imposed by the Employment Standards Administration for violation(s) of contractual obligations found by that agency (if applicable), or with one or more decisions or orders of the Secretary or a court pursuant to §216 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1186), this subpart, or 29 CFR part 501 (Employment Standards Administration enforcement of contractual obligations); or

(2) The employer has engaged in a pattern or practice of actions which are significantly injurious to the wages, benefits, or working conditions of 10 percent or more of an employer's U.S. and/or H-2A workforce;

(B) That the action(s) involve(s) impeding an investigation of an employer pursuant to §216 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1186), this subpart, or 29 CFR part 501 (Employment Standards Administration enforcement of contractual obligations);

(C) That the employer has not paid the necessary fee in a timely manner;

(D) That the employer is not currently eligible to apply for a temporary alien agricultural labor certification pursuant to §655.210 of this part (failure of an employer to comply with the terms of a temporary alien agricultural labor certification in which the application was filed under subpart C of this part prior to June 1, 1987); or

(E) That there was fraud involving the application for temporary alien agricultural labor certification of that the employer made a material misrepresentation of fact during the application process; and

(ii) That there are no extenuating circumstances involved with the action(s) described in paragraph (g)(1)(i) of this section (as determined by the RA).

(2) Less than substantial violation. For the purposes of this subpart, a less than substantial violation is an action of commission or omission on the part of the employer or the employer's agent which violates a requirement of this subpart, but is not a substantial violation.

§ 655.111 Petition for higher meal charges.

(a) Filing petitions. Until a new amount is set pursuant to this paragraph (a), the RA may permit an employer to charge workers up to $6.58 for providing them with three meals per day, if the employer justifies the charge and submits to the RA the documentation required by paragraph (b) of this section. In the event the employer's petition for a higher meal charge is denied in whole or in part, the employer may appeal such denial. Such appeals shall be filed with the Chief Administrative Law Judge. Administrative law judges shall hear such appeals according to the procedures in 29 CFR part 18, except that the appeal shall not be considered as a complaint to which an answer is required. The decision of the administrative law judge shall be the final decision of the Secretary. Each year the maximum charge allowed by this paragraph (a) will be changed by the same percentage as the twelve-month percent change for the Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers for Food between December of the year just concluded and December of the year prior to that. The annual adjustments shall be effective on the date of their publication by the Director as a notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. However, an employer may not impose such a charge on a worker prior to the effective date contained in the RA's written confirmation of the amount to be charged.

(b) Required documentation. Documentation submitted shall include the cost of goods and services directly related to the preparation and serving of meals, the number of workers fed, the number of meals served and the number of days meals were provided. The cost of the following items may be included: Food; kitchen supplies other than food, such as lunch bags and soap; labor costs which have a direct relation to food service operations, such as wages of cooks and restaurant supervisors; fuel, water, electricity, and other utilities used for the food service operation; and other costs directly related to the food service operation.

Charges for transportation, depreciation, overhead and similar charges may not be included. Receipts and other cost records for a representative pay period shall be available for inspection by the RA for a period of one year.

§ 655.112 Administrative review and de novo hearing before an administrative law judge.

(a) Administrative review—(1) Consideration. Whenever an employer has requested an administrative review before an administrative law judge of a decision not to accept for consideration a temporary alien agricultural labor certification application, of the denial of a temporary alien agricultural labor certification, or of a penalty under § 655.110 of this part, the RA shall send a certified copy of the ETA case file to the Chief Administrative Law Judge by means normally assuring next-day delivery. The Chief Administrative Law Judge shall immediately assign an administrative law judge (which may be a panel of such persons designated by the Chief Administrative Law Judge from the Board of Alien Labor Certification Appeals established by part 656 of this chapter, but which shall hear and decide the appeal as set forth in this section) to review the record for legal sufficiency. The administrative law judge shall not remand the case and shall not receive additional evidence.

(2) Decision. Within five working days after receipt of the case file the administrative law judge shall, on the basis of the written record and after due consideration of any written submissions submitted from the parties involved or amici curiae, either affirm, reverse, or modify the RA's denial by written decision. The decision of the administrative law judge shall specify the reasons for the action taken and shall be immediately provided to the employer, RA, the Director, and INS by means normally assuring next-day delivery. The administrative law judge's decision shall be the final decision of the Secretary and no further review shall be given to the temporary alien agricultural labor certification application or the temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination by any DOL official.

(b) De novo hearing—(1) Request for hearing; conduct of hearing. Whenever an employer has requested a de novo hearing before an administrative law judge of a decision not to accept for consideration a temporary alien agricultural labor certification application, of the denial of a temporary alien agricultural labor certification, or of a penalty under § 655.110 of this part, the RA shall send a certified copy of the case file to the Chief Administrative Law Judge by means normally assuring next-day delivery. The Chief Administrative Law Judge shall immediately assign an administrative law judge (which may be a panel of such persons designated by the Chief Administrative Law Judge from the Board of Alien Labor Certification Appeals established by part 656 of this chapter, but which shall hear and decide the appeal as set forth in this section) to conduct the de novo hearing. The procedures contained in 29 CFR part 18 shall apply to such hearings, except that:

(i) The appeal shall not be considered to be a complaint to which an answer is required,

(ii) The administrative law judge shall ensure that, at the request of the employer, the hearing is scheduled to take place within five working days after the administrative law judge's receipt of the case file, and

(iii) The administrative law judge's decision shall be rendered within ten working days after the hearing.

(2) Decision. After a de novo hearing, the administrative law judge shall either affirm, reverse, or modify the RA's determination, and the administrative law judge's decision shall be provided immediately to the employer, RA, Director, and INS by means normally assuring next-day delivery. The administrative law judge's decision shall be the final decision of the Secretary, and no further review shall be given to the temporary alien agricultural labor certification application or the temporary alien agricultural labor certification determination by any DOL official.
