Comptroller of the Currency, Treasury

§ 4.5 District and field offices.

(a) District offices. Each district office of the OCC is responsible for the direct supervision of the national banks and Federal branches and agencies of foreign banks in its district, with the exception of the national banks supervised by the Washington office. The six district offices cover the United States, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, and the Northern Mariana Islands. The office address and the geographical composition of each district follows:

(b) Field offices and duty stations. Field offices and duty stations support the bank supervisory responsibilities of the district offices.

§ 4.6 Frequency of examination of national banks.

(a) General. The OCC examines national banks pursuant to authority conferred by 12 U.S.C. 481 and the requirements of 12 U.S.C. 1820(d). The OCC is required to conduct a full-scope, on-site examination of every national bank at least once during each 12-month period.

(b) 18-month rule for certain small institutions. The OCC may conduct a full-scope, on-site examination of a national bank at least once during each 18-month period provided as paragraph (a) of this section, if the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) The bank has total assets of less than $500 million;

(ii) The bank is well capitalized as defined in part 6 of this chapter;

(iii) At the most recent examination, the OCC:

(i) Assigned the bank a rating of 1 or 2 for management as part of the bank’s rating under the Uniform Financial Institutions Rating System; and

(ii) Assigned the bank a composite rating of 1 or 2 under the Uniform Financial Institutions Rating System;

(iv) The bank currently is not subject to a formal enforcement proceeding or order by the FDIC, OCC or the Federal Reserve System; and

(v) No person acquired control of the bank during the preceding 12-month period in which a full-scope, on-site examination would have been required but for this section.

(c) Authority to conduct more frequent examinations. This section does not limit the authority of the OCC to examine any national bank as frequently as the agency deems necessary.

§ 4.7 Frequency of examination of Federal agencies and branches.

(a) General. The OCC examines Federal agencies and Federal branches (as these entities are defined in § 28.11 of this chapter) pursuant to the authority conferred by
