Federal Reserve System § 230.11

(e) Exemption for certain advertisements. — (1) Certain media. If an advertisement is made through one of the following media, it need not contain the information in paragraphs (c)(1), (c)(2), (c)(4), (c)(5), (c)(6)(ii), (d)(4), and (d)(5) of this section:
   (i) Broadcast or electronic media, such as television or radio;
   (ii) Outdoor media, such as billboards; or
   (iii) Telephone response machines.

(2) Indoor signs. (i) Signs inside the premises of a depository institution (or the premises of a deposit broker) are not subject to paragraphs (b), (c), (d) or (e)(1) of this section.

   (ii) If a sign exempt by paragraph (e)(2) of this section states a rate of return, it shall:
      (A) State the rate as an “annual percentage yield,” using that term or the term “APY.” The sign shall not state any other rate, except that the interest rate may be stated in conjunction with the annual percentage yield to which it relates.
      (B) Contain a statement advising consumers to contact an employee for further information about applicable fees and terms.

(f) Additional disclosures in connection with the payment of overdrafts. Institutions that promote the payment of overdrafts in an advertisement shall include in the advertisement the disclosures required by § 230.11(b) of this part.

§ 230.10 [Reserved]

§ 230.11 Additional disclosure requirements for overdraft services.

(a) Disclosure of total fees on periodic statements. — (1) General. A depository institution must separately disclose on each periodic statement, as applicable:
   (i) The total dollar amount for all fees or charges imposed on the account for paying checks or other items when there are insufficient or unavailable funds and the account becomes overdrawn; and
   (ii) The total dollar amount for all fees or charges imposed on the account for returning items unpaid.

   (2) Totals required. The disclosures required by paragraph (a)(1) of this section must be provided for the statement period and for the calendar year-to-date;

   (3) Format requirements. The aggregate fee disclosures required by paragraph (a) of this section must be disclosed in close proximity to fees identified under § 230.6(a)(3), using a format substantially similar to Sample Form B-10 in Appendix B to this part.

(b) Advertising disclosures for overdraft services. — (1) Disclosures. Except as provided in paragraphs (b)(2),(b)(3), and (b)(4) of this section, any advertisement promoting the payment of overdrafts shall disclose in a clear and conspicuous manner:
   (i) The fee or fees for the payment of each overdraft;
   (ii) The categories of transactions for which a fee for paying an overdraft may be imposed;
   (iii) The time period by which the consumer must repay or cover any overdraft; and

§ 230.9 Enforcement and record retention.

(a) Administrative enforcement. Section 270 of the act contains the provisions relating to administrative sanctions for failure to comply with the requirements of the act and this part. Compliance is enforced by the agencies listed in that section.

(b) Civil liability. Section 271 of the Act contains the provisions relating to civil liability for failure to comply with the requirements of the act and this part; Section 271 is repealed effective September 30, 2001.

(c) Record retention. A depository institution shall retain evidence of compliance with this part for a minimum of two years after the date disclosures are required to be made or action is required to be taken. The administrative agencies responsible for enforcing this part may require depository institutions under their jurisdiction to retain records for a longer period if necessary to carry out their enforcement responsibilities under section 270 of the act.
