in separate governing tariffs to the extent authorized and in the manner required by subpart G.

(g) Rules of limited application. A rule affecting only a particular fare or other provision in the tariff shall be specifically referred to in connection with such fare or other provision, and such rule shall indicate that it is applicable only in connection with such fare or other provision. Such rule shall not be published in a separate governing rules tariff.

(h) Conflicting or duplicating rules prohibited. The publication of rules or regulations which duplicate or conflict with other rules or regulations published in the same or any other tariff for account of the same carrier or carriers and applicable to or in connection with the same transportation is prohibited.

(i) Each tariff shall include:
1. A prominent D.O.T. or other number identifying the tariff in the sequence of tariffs published by the carrier or issuing agent;
2. The name of the issuing carrier or agent;
3. The cancellation of any tariffs superseded by the tariff;
4. A description of the tariff contents, including geographic coverage;
5. Identification by number of any governing tariffs;
6. The date on which the tariff is issued;
7. The date on which the tariff provisions will become effective; and
8. The expiration date, if applicable to the entire tariff.

Subpart D—Manner of Filing Tariffs

§ 221.30 Passenger fares and charges.
(a) Fares tariffs, including associated data, shall be filed electronically in conformity with subpart R. Associated data includes arbitraries, footnotes, routing numbers and fare class explanations. See §221.202(b)(8).

(b) Upon application by a carrier, the Department’s Office of International Aviation shall have the authority to waive the electronic filing requirement in this paragraph and in Subpart R in whole or in part, for a period up to one year, and to permit, under such terms and conditions as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this part, the applicant carrier to file fare tariffs in a paper format. Such waivers shall only be considered where electronic filing, compared to paper filing, is impractical and will produce a significant economic hardship for the carrier due to the limited nature of the carrier’s operations subject to the requirements of this part, or other unusual circumstances. Paper filings pursuant to this paragraph shall normally conform to the requirements of §221.195 and other applicable requirements of this part.

§ 221.31 Rules and regulations governing passenger fares and services.

(a) Tariff rules and regulations governing passenger fares and services other than those subject to §221.30 may be filed electronically in conformity with subpart R. Such filings shall conform to criteria approved by the Department’s Office of International Aviation as provided in §221.180 and shall contain at a minimum the information required by §221.202(b)(9).

(b) Applications for special tariff permission may be filed electronically, as provided in §221.212.

(c) Tariff publications and applications for special tariff permission covered by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section may be filed in a paper format, subject to the requirements of this part and Department orders.

Subpart E—Contents of Tariff

§ 221.40 Specific requirements.
(a) In addition to the general requirements in §221.20, the rules and regulations of each tariff shall contain:
1. Aircraft and seating. For individually ticketed passenger service, the name of each type of aircraft used in rendering such service by manufacturer model designation and a description of the seating configuration (or configurations if there are variations) of each type of aircraft. Where fares are provided for different classes or types of passenger service (that is, first class, coach, day coach, night coach, tourist, economy or whatever other class or type of service is provided...
