

Screening agency means an organization acting pursuant to a contract with the Job Corps that performs outreach, screens, and enrolls youth into Job Corps.

Secretary means the Secretary of Labor (the chief official of DOL) or the Secretary's designee.

Site survey means a survey of a potential location for a center that includes a preliminary engineering evaluation of the condition and capacity of existing buildings, pavements, utility systems, installed equipment, and all other real property components as well as a preliminary cost estimate for acquisition of facilities, necessary rehabilitation, modification, and new construction required that would, among other considerations, take into account structural accessibility for persons with handicaps.

State means one of the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau/Trust Territory.

Student means an individual who is enrolled in Job Corps.

Student handbook means the document developed by the center operator and given to each student during orientation that outlines center services, rules, and regulations and student rights and responsibilities. See § 638.501 of this part.

Termination means the act of officially ending a student's enrollment in Job Corps for any reason.

Transfer means the reassignment of a student from one center to another.

Unauthorized goods means firearms and ammunition; explosives and incendiaries; knives with blades longer than 2" (two inches); homemade weapons; all other weapons and instruments used primarily to inflict personal injury; stolen property; drugs, including alcohol, marijuana, depressants, stimulants, hallucinogens, tranquilizers, and drug paraphernalia except for drugs and/or paraphernalia that are prescribed for medical reasons; and any other goods prohibited by the center operator in the student handbook.

Utilization study means an architectural/engineering report which is developed subsequent to a site survey or assessment after the regional and national offices have agreed, on the basis of the site survey, that the site is potentially favorable for a center. After the utilization study is approved by the Job Corps Director it becomes the basis for scope of work, budget, design, rehabilitation, and construction of facilities for the center.

Vocational skills training (VST) means activities that provide vocational instruction to students through actual construction or improvement of permanent facilities or other approved projects.

Work experience program means a program for assignment of a student to an actual job situation, either on-center or off-center, for the purpose of enhancing a student's employability. Work experience requiring the student to work over 25 hours per week is subject to the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act and State and local minimum wage laws for hours worked in excess of 25 hours per week.
