found in parts 3280 and 3282 of this chapter;
(4) Licensing requirements applicable to installers;
(5) Installer responsibilities for correction of improper installation, including installer obligations under applicable state and HUD manufactured housing dispute resolution programs;
(6) Inspection requirements and procedures;
(7) Problem-reporting mechanisms;
(8) Operational checks and adjustments; and
(9) Penalties for any person’s failure to comply with the requirements of this part 3286 and parts 3285 and 3288 of this chapter.

§ 3286.309 Continuing education-trainers and curriculum.

(a) HUD-mandated elements. Only qualified trainers are permitted to provide any training on particular subject areas that are required by HUD to be an element of the continuing education requirement set out in § 3286.205(b)(2) for the renewal of an installer’s license. In implementing this requirement, HUD will:
(1) Establish the minimum number of hours and the required curriculum for such subject areas, according to experience with the program and changes in program requirements; and
(2) Provide information about the hours and curriculum directly to qualified trainers and licensed installers, or through general publication of the information.

(b) Other training. (1) The remainder of the 8 hours required to meet the continuing education requirement may be met through training provided either by qualified trainers or by any combination of the following:
(i) Accredited educational institutions, including community colleges and universities;
(ii) A provider of continuing education units who is certified by the International Association for Continuing Education and Training;
(iii) Agencies at any level of government; and
(iv) State or national professional associations.
(2) The curriculum for the remainder of the 8 hours of continuing education training must relate to any aspect of manufactured home installation or construction, or to the general fields of building construction or contracting.

§ 3286.311 Suspension or revocation of trainer’s qualification.

(a) Oversight. The Secretary may make a continuing evaluation of the manner in which each qualified trainer is carrying out the trainer’s responsibilities under this subpart D.

(b) Suspension or revocation of qualification. After notice and an opportunity for a presentation of views in accordance with subpart D of part 3282 of this chapter, the Secretary may suspend or revoke a trainer’s qualification under this part. A trainer’s qualification may be suspended or revoked for cause, which may include:
(1) Providing false records or information to HUD;
(2) Refusing to submit information required to be submitted by the Secretary in accordance with the Act;
(3) Certifying, or improperly assisting certification of, a person as having met the training requirements established in this part when that person has not completed the required training;
(4) Failing to appropriately supervise installation training that is used to meet the requirements of this part and that is provided by other persons; and
(5) Any other failures to comply with the requirements of this part.

(c) Other criteria. In deciding whether to suspend or revoke a trainer’s qualification, the Secretary will consider the impact of the suspension or revocation on other affected parties and will seek to assure that the sales and siting of manufactured homes are not unduly disrupted.

(d) Reinstating qualification. A trainer whose qualification has been suspended or revoked may submit a new application to be qualified in accordance with this subpart D no sooner than 6 months after the suspension or revocation.
