(8) Limitation on recharacterized income. The amount of gross income from an activity that is treated as not from a passive activity for the taxable year under subparagraphs (f) (2) through (4) of this paragraph (f) shall not exceed the greatest amount of gross income treated as not from a passive activity under any one of such subparagraphs.

(9) Meaning of certain terms. For purposes of this paragraph (f), the terms set forth below shall have the following meanings:

(i) The net passive income from an activity for a taxable year is the amount by which the taxpayer’s passive activity gross income from the activity for the taxable year (determined without regard to paragraphs (f) (2) through (4) of this section) exceeds the taxpayer’s passive activity deductions from the activity for such year;

(ii) The net passive loss from an activity for a taxable year is the amount by which the taxpayer’s passive activity deductions from the activity for the taxable year exceeds the taxpayer’s passive activity gross income from the activity for such year (determined without regard to paragraphs (f) (2) through (4) of this section).

(iii) [Reserved]. See §1.469–2(f)(9)(iii) for rules relating to this paragraph.

(iv) [Reserved]. See §1.469–2(f)(9)(iv) for rules relating to this paragraph.

(10) Coordination with section 163(d). [Reserved]. See paragraph 1.469–2(f)(10) for rules relating to this paragraph.

(11) Effective date. For the effective date of the rules in this paragraph (f), see §1.469–11T (relating to effective date and transition rules).

§ 1.469–3T Passive activity credit (temporary).

(a) Computation of passive activity credit. The taxpayer’s passive activity credit for the taxable year is the amount (if any) by which—

(1) The sum of all of the taxpayer’s credits that are subject to section 469 for such year; exceeds

(2) The taxpayer’s regular tax liability allocable to all passive activities for such year.

(b) Credits subject to section 469—(1) In general. Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph (b), a credit is subject to section 469 for a taxable year if and only if—

(i) Such credit—

(A) Is attributable to such taxable year and arises in connection with the conduct of an activity that is a passive activity for such taxable year; and

(B) Is described in—

(1) Section 38(b) (1) through (5) (relating to general business credits);

(2) Section 27(b) (relating to corporations described in section 936);

(3) Section 28 (relating to clinical testing of certain drugs); or

(4) Section 29 (relating to fuel from nonconventional sources); or

(ii) Such credit is allocable to an activity for such taxable year under §1.469–1T(f)(4).

(2) Treatment of credits attributable to qualified progress expenditures. Any credit attributable to an increase in qualified investment under section 46(d)(1)(A) (relating to qualified progress expenditures) with respect to progress expenditure property (as defined in section 46(d)(2)) is subject to section 469 for a taxable year if—

(i) Such credit is attributable to such taxable year;

(ii) Such credit is described in paragraph (b)(1)(i)(B) of this section; and

§ 1.469–3 Passive activity credit.

(a)–(d) [Reserved]

(e) Coordination with section 38(b). Any credit described in section 38(b) (1) through (5) is taken into account in computing the current year business credit for the first taxable year in which the credit is subject to section 469 and is not disallowed by section 469 and the regulations thereunder.

(f) Coordination with section 50. In the case of any cessation described in section 50(a) (1) or (2), the credits allocable to the taxpayer’s activities under §1.469–1(f)(4) shall be adjusted by reason of the cessation.

(g) [Reserved]
§ 1.469–3T

(iii) It is reasonable to believe that such progress expenditure property will be used in a passive activity of the taxpayer when it is placed in service.

(3) Special rule for partners and S corporation shareholders. The character of a credit of a taxpayer arising in connection with an activity conducted by a partnership or S corporation (as a credit subject to section 469) shall be determined, in any case in which participation is relevant, by reference to the participation of the taxpayer in such activity. Such participation is determined for the taxable year of the partnership or S corporation (and not the taxable year of the taxpayer). See §1.469–2T(e)(1).

(4) Exception for pre-1987 credits. A credit is not subject to section 469 if it is attributable to a taxable year of the taxpayer beginning prior to January 1, 1987.

(c) Taxable year to which credit is attributable. A credit is attributable to the taxable year in which such credit would be (or would have been) allowed if the credits are used in a passive activity of the taxpayer. See §1.469–2T(e)(1).

(d) Regular tax liability allocable to passive activities—(1) In general. For purposes of paragraph (a)(2) of this section, the taxpayer’s regular tax liability allocable to all passive activities for the taxable year is the excess (if any) of—

(i) The taxpayer’s regular tax liability for such taxable year; over

(ii) The amount of such regular tax liability determined by reducing the taxpayer’s taxable income for such year by the excess (if any) of the taxpayer’s passive activity gross income for such year over the taxpayer’s passive activity deductions for such year.

(2) Regular tax liability. For purposes of this section, the term “regular tax liability” has the meaning given such term in section 26(b).

(e) Coordination with section 38(b). [Reserved]. See §1.469–3(e) for rules relating to this paragraph.

(f) Coordination with section 50. [Reserved]. See §1.469–3(f) for rules relating to this paragraph.

(g) Examples. The following examples illustrate the application of this section:

Example 1. (i) A, a calendar year individual, is a general partner in calendar year partnership P. P purchases a building in 1987 and, in 1987, 1988, and 1989, incurs rehabilitation costs with respect to the building. The building is placed in service in the rental activity in 1989. P’s rehabilitation costs are qualified rehabilitation expenditures (within the meaning of section 46(d)). The expenditures are attributable to the taxable year in which such credit is allowable for the taxable year in which the rehabilitation property is placed in service, the credit allowable for P’s qualified rehabilitation expenditures arises in connection with the activity in which the property is placed in service. In addition, the credit is attributable to 1989, the year in which the property is placed in service, because it would be allowed for such year if A’s credits allowed for all taxable years were determined without regard to the limitations contained in sections 26(a), 28(d)(2), 29(b)(5), 38(c), and 469. Accordingly, under paragraph (b)(1) of this section, A’s distributive share of the credit is subject to section 469 for 1989 because the credit arises in connection with a rental activity for such year.

Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1, except that the rehabilitation costs are incurred in anticipation of placing the building in service in a rental activity, the qualified rehabilitation expenditures in 1987 and 1988 are qualified progress expenditures (“QPPEs”) (within the meaning of section 46(d)(3)), the improvements resulting from the expenditures are progress expenditure property (within the meaning of paragraph (d)(2) of this section), and it is reasonable to expect that such property will be transition property (within the meaning of section 46(e)) when the property is placed in service. Therefore, under section 46(d)(1)(A), the qualified investment for 1987 and 1988 is increased by an amount equal to the aggregate of the applicable percentage of the qualified rehabilitation expenditures incurred in such years. The credits that are based on these expenditures are attributable (under paragraph (c) of this section) to 1987 and 1988, respectively. It is reasonable to believe in 1987 and 1988 that the progress expenditure property will be used in a rental activity when it is placed in service. Accordingly, under paragraph (b)(2) of this section, A’s distributive share of the credit for 1987 and 1988 is subject to section 469. Under paragraph (b)(1) of this section (as in Example 1), A’s distributive share of the credit for 1989 is also subject to section 469.

Example 3. (i) B, a single individual, acquires an interest in a partnership that, in 1988, rehabilitates a building and places it in service in 1989. The building is placed in service in the rental activity in 1989. B’s rehabilitation costs are qualified rehabilitation expenditures (within the meaning of section 46(d)). The expenditures are attributable to the taxable year in which such credit is allowable for the taxable year in which the rehabilitation property is placed in service, the credit allowable for B’s qualified rehabilitation expenditures arises in connection with the activity in which the property is placed in service. In addition, the credit is attributable to 1989, the year in which the property is placed in service, because it would be allowed for such year if B’s credits allowed for all taxable years were determined without regard to the limitations contained in sections 26(a), 28(d)(2), 29(b)(5), 38(c), and 469. Accordingly, under paragraph (b)(1) of this section, B’s distributive share of the credit is subject to section 469 for 1989 because the credit arises in connection with a rental activity for such year.

Rehabilitation credit from the passive activity deduction: $8,000.

(ii) For 1988, the amount by which B's passive activity gross income exceeds B's passive activity deductions (B's net passive income) is $2,000. Under paragraph (d) of this section, B's regular tax liability allocable to passive activities for 1988 is determined as follows:

(A) Taxable income: $88,050
(B) Regular tax liability: $24,578.50
(C) Taxable income minus net passive income: $63,471.50
(D) Regular tax liability for taxable income of $86,050.00: $23,918.50
(E) Regular tax liability allocable to passive activities: $660.00

(iii) Under paragraph (a) of this section, B's passive activity credit for 1988 is the amount by which B's credits that are subject to section 469 for 1988 ($8,000) exceed B's regular tax liability allocable to passive activities for 1988 ($660.00). Accordingly, B's passive activity credit for 1988 is $7,340.

Example 4. (i) The facts are the same as in Example 3 except that, in 1988, B also has additional deductions of $100,000 from a trade or business activity in which B materially participates for 1988. Thus, B has a taxable loss for 1988 of $11,950, determined as follows:

Rehabilitation credit from the passive activity deduction: $8,000.

(ii) For 1988, the amount by which B's passive activity gross income exceeds B's passive activity deductions (B's net passive income) is $86,050. Under paragraph (d) of this section, B's regular tax liability allocable to passive activities for 1988 is $8,000. Accordingly, B's passive activity credit for 1988 is $8,000.

(b) Definitions. The following definitions apply for purposes of this section—

(1) Trade or business activities. Trade or business activities are activities, other than rental activities or activities that are treated under §1.469–1T(e)(3) as incidental to an activity of holding property for investment, that—

(i) Involve the conduct of a trade or business (within the meaning of section 162);

(ii) Are conducted in anticipation of the commencement of a trade or business; or

(iii) Involve research or experimental expenditures that are deductible under section 174 (or would be deductible if the taxpayer adopted the method described in section 174(a)).

(2) Rental activities. Rental activities are activities that constitute rental activities within the meaning of §1.469–1T(e)(3).

(c) General rules for grouping activities—(1) Appropriate economic unit. One or more trade or business activities or rental activities may be treated as a single activity if the activities constitute an appropriate economic unit for the measurement of gain or loss for purposes of section 469.

(2) Facts and circumstances test. Except as otherwise provided in this section, whether activities constitute an appropriate economic unit and, therefore, may be treated as a single activity depends upon all the relevant facts...
