§ 42.713 Exception; reasonable factors other than age.
(a) A recipient may take an action, otherwise prohibited by §42.710(a), that affects age groups differently, if such differentiation is based upon reasonable factors other than age.
(b) This exception does not apply to the use of an explicit age distinction, but to conduct that has the effect of differentiating among age groups. This exception applies when the factor (other than age) upon which the recipient’s action is based bears a direct and substantial relationship to the normal operation of or achievement of a statutory objective of the program or activity.

§ 42.714 Special benefits.
If a recipient operating a program or activity provides special benefits to the elderly or to children, such use of age distinctions shall be presumed to be necessary to the normal operation of the program or activity, notwithstanding the provisions of §42.712.

§ 42.715 Burden of proof regarding exceptions.
The burden of proving that an age distinction or other action falls within the exceptions described in §42.712 and §42.713 is on the recipient. This allocation of the burden of proof applies in proceedings by the Department to enforce the Act.
