§ 97.12 Special grant or subgrant conditions for “high-risk” grantees.

(a) A grantee or subgrantee may be considered “high risk” if an awarding agency determines that a grantee or subgrantee:
   (1) Has a history of unsatisfactory performance,
   (2) Is not financially stable,
   (3) Has a management system which does not meet the management standards set forth in this part, or
   (4) Has not conformed to terms and conditions of previous awards, or
   (5) Is otherwise not responsible; and if the awarding agency determines that an award will be made, special conditions and/or restrictions shall correspond to the high risk condition and shall be included in the award.

(b) Special conditions or restrictions may include:
   (1) Payment on a reimbursement basis;
   (2) Withholding authority to proceed to the next phase until receipt of evidence of acceptable performance within a given funding period;
   (3) Requiring additional, more detailed financial reports;
   (4) Additional project monitoring;
   (5) Requiring the grantee or subgrantee to obtain technical or management assistance; or
   (6) Establishing additional prior approvals.

(c) If an awarding agency decides to impose such conditions, the awarding official will notify the grantee or subgrantee as early as possible, in writing, of:

   (1) The nature of the special conditions/restrictions;
   (2) The reason(s) for imposing them;
   (3) The corrective actions which must be taken before they will be removed and the time allowed for completing the corrective actions and
   (4) The method of requesting reconsideration of the conditions/restrictions imposed.

Subpart C—Post-Award Requirements

§ 97.20 Standards for financial management systems.

(a) A State must expand and account for grant funds in accordance with State laws and procedures for expending and accounting for its own funds. Fiscal control and accounting procedures of the State, as well as its subgrantees and cost-type contractors, must be sufficient to—
   (1) Permit preparation of reports required by this part and the statutes authorizing the grant, and
   (2) Permit the tracing of funds to a level of expenditures adequate to establish that such funds have not been used in violation of the restrictions and prohibitions of applicable statutes.

(b) The financial management systems of other grantees and subgrantees must meet the following standards:
   (1) Financial reporting. Accurate, current, and complete disclosure of the financial results of financially assisted activities must be made in accordance with the financial reporting requirements of the grant or subgrant.
   (2) Accounting records. Grantees and subgrantees must maintain records which adequately identify the source and application of funds provided for financially-assisted activities. These records must contain information pertaining to grant or subgrant awards and authorizations, obligations, unobligated balances, assets, liabilities, outlays or expenditures, and income.
   (3) Internal control. Effective control and accountability must be maintained for all grant and subgrant cash, real and personal property, and other assets. Grantees and subgrantees must adequately safeguard all such property
