§ 67.50–20

District. When required, it will be determined in accordance with § 67.01–20.

§ 67.50–20 Seventh Coast Guard District.

(a) Description. See §3.35–1 of this chapter.

(b) Line of demarcation. There is no line of demarcation prescribed for this District. When required, it will be determined in accordance with §67.01–20.

§ 67.50–25 Eighth Coast Guard District.

(a) Description. See §3.40–1 of this chapter.

(b) Lines of demarcation. The two lines of demarcation described in this section are for administrative purposes to distinguish between the areas in which structures shall be subject to Class ‘’A’’, ‘’B’’ or ‘’C’’ requirements. The primary line of demarcation delimits the areas to the seaward of which Class ‘’A’’ requirements are imposed. The secondary line of demarcation delimits the areas to the shorward of which Class ‘’C’’ requirements are imposed. In those areas where no secondary line of demarcation is prescribed, the structures shorward of the primary line of demarcation are considered to be Class ‘’C’’ structures. Class ‘’B’’ requirements are imposed on the structures in the areas between the two lines of demarcation.

The spoil banks should be examined at frequent intervals in order that the changing conditions may be kept under control. As markers are no longer required due to settling of banks, the Coast Guard will authorize their removal upon application.

(2) All openings in such submerged spoil shall be marked by daybeacons on each side of the openings. When spoil is located on each side of a channel or pipeline, each bank will be considered separately. The daybeacons shall be equipped with arrows designating the safe water through the opening. These daybeacons may also be used as channel markers for the dredged channels providing they are also equipped with arrows designating the spoil bank openings.

(3) When spoil banks constituting an obstruction to navigation abut an established traveled waterway, the outbound spoil bank markers shall be equipped with quick flashing lights described in Subpart 67.30 of this part, except that the color shall be in accordance with the provisions of Subpart 62.25 of Part 62 of this subchapter.
