§ 1100.30 Where may the fellowship project be conducted?

(a) A fellow is encouraged to carry out all, or a portion of, the fellowship project at the Institute. At a minimum, a fellow is required to attend quarterly meetings at the National Institute for Literacy in Washington, D.C. and submit progress reports.

(b) A fellow may conduct research, teaching, training, or other fellowship activities at a location, institutions, or agency of the fellow's choice, provided the activities will directly support the fellowship project and further the objectives of the fellowship.

(c) A fellowship recipient should return a prorated portion of the stipend and any unused subsistence allowance and travel funds at the time and in the manner required by the Director.

Subpart D—What Conditions Must Be Met by a Fellow?

§ 1100.35 What are the procedures for payment of a fellowship award through the fellow's employer?

(a) If the Director pays a fellowship award through the fellow's employer, the employer shall submit a payment schedule to the Director for approval.

(b) The employer shall pay the stipend, subsistence allowance, materials allowance, and travel funds according to the payment schedule approved by the Director. If the fellow does not complete the fellowship, the employer shall return to the Director any portion of the stipend and any unused subsistence allowance and travel funds not yet paid by the employer to the fellow.
