§ 611.49 What are a grantee’s responsibilities for implementing the scholarship requirements before awarding a scholarship?

Before awarding scholarship assistance with funds provided under this part to any student attending a teacher preparation program, a grantee must—

(a) Ensure that the student understands the terms and conditions that the Secretary has determined must be included in the scholarship agreement;

(b) Have the student and the institution awarding the scholarship execute a scholarship agreement that contains these terms and conditions; and

(c) Establish policies for—

(1) The withdrawal of scholarship support for any student who does not remain in good academic standing; and

(2) A current home address and telephone number, and a current work address and work telephone number.
