§ 21.254 Supportive services.
(a) General. Supportive services which may be provided during a period or program of employment services include a broad range of medical treatment, care and services, supplies, license and other fees, special services, including services to the blind and deaf, transportation assistance, services to the veteran’s family, and other appropriate services, subject to the limitations provided in VA regulations governing the provisions of these services under Chapter 31.

(b) Exclusions. The following benefits may not be provided to the veteran by VA during a period or program of employment services:
(1) Subsistence allowance, or payment of an allowance at the educational assistance rate paid under Chapter 30 for similar training;
(2) Education and training services, other than brief courses, such as review courses necessary for licensure;
(3) Revolving Fund Loan; and
(4) Work-study allowance.

§ 21.256 Incentives for employers.
(a) General. VA may make payments to employers to enable a veteran who has been rehabilitated to employability to begin and maintain employability or to provide on-job training. The purpose of such payment is to facilitate the placement of veterans who are generally qualified for employment but may lack some specific training or work experience which the employer requires or who are difficult to place due to their disability. The specific conditions which must be met before this option may be considered are contained in paragraphs (b) through (d) of this section.

(b) Requirements for payments to employers. Payments may be made to employers to provide on-job training or to begin and maintain employment if all of the following conditions are met:
(1) The veteran is in need of an on-job training situation or is generally qualified for employment but such on-job training situation or employment opportunity is not otherwise available despite repeated and intensive efforts on the part of VA and the veteran to secure such opportunities. These conditions are also considered to be met when:
(1) There are few employers within commuting distance of the veteran’s home who can provide a training or employment opportunity consistent with the veteran’s plan; and
