§ 21.8074 Computing the period for vocational training program participation.

(a) Computing the participation period. To compute the number of months and days of an eligible child’s participation in a vocational training program:

(i) Count the number of actual months and days of the child’s: (i) Pursuit of vocational education or training; (ii) Receipt of extended evaluation-type services and training, or services and training to enable the child to prepare for vocational training or employment, if a veteran in a 38 U.S.C. chapter 31 program would have received a subsistence allowance while receiving the same type of services and training; and (iii) Receipt of employment and post-employment services (any period of employment or post-employment services is considered full-time program pursuit).

(ii) Do not count: (i) The initial evaluation period; (ii) Any period before the child enters a vocational training program under this subpart; (iii) Days of authorized leave; and (iv) Other periods during which the child does not pursue training, such as periods between terms.

(b) Convert part-time training periods to full-time equivalents.

(c) Total the months and days under paragraphs (a)(1) and (a)(3) of this section. This sum is the period of the child’s participation in the program.
