Environmental Protection Agency § 35.6710

(5) Unit acquisition date and cost; and
(6) Percentage of EPA’s interest; and
(7) Location, use and condition (by site, activity, and operable unit, as applicable) and the date this information was recorded; and
(8) Ultimate disposition data, including the sales price or the method used to determine the price, or the method used to determine the value of EPA’s interest for which the recipient compensates EPA in accordance with §§35.6340, 35.6345, and 35.6350.

(d) Procurement records—(1) General. The recipient must maintain records which support the following items, and must make them available to the public:
(i) The reasons for rejecting any or all bids; and
(ii) The justification for a procurement made on a noncompetitively negotiated basis.
(2) Procurements in excess of the simplified acquisition threshold. The recipient’s records and files for procurements in excess of the simplified acquisition threshold must include the following information, in addition to the information required in paragraph (d)(1) of this section:
(i) The basis for contractor selection;
(ii) A written justification for selecting the procurement method;
(iii) A written justification for use of any specification which does not provide for maximum free and open competition;
(iv) A written justification for the choice of contract type; and
(v) The basis for award cost or price, including a copy of the cost or price analysis made in accordance with §35.6585 and documentation of negotiations.

(e) Other records. The recipient must maintain records which support the following items:
(1) Time and attendance records and supporting documentation;
(2) Documentation of compliance with statutes and regulations that apply to the project; and
(3) The number of site-specific technical hours spent to complete each pre-remedial product.

§ 35.6705 Records retention.

(a) Applicability. This requirement applies to all financial and programmatic records, supporting documents, statistical records, and other records which are required to be maintained by the terms, program regulations, or the Cooperative Agreement, or are otherwise reasonably considered as pertinent to program regulations or the Cooperative Agreement.

(b) Length of retention period. The recipient must maintain all records for 10 years following submission of the final Financial Status Report unless otherwise directed by the EPA award official, and must obtain written approval from the EPA award official before destroying any records. If any litigation, claim, negotiation, audit, cost recovery, or other action involving the records has been started before the expiration of the ten-year period, the records must be retained until completion of the action and resolution of all issues which arise from it, or until the end of the regular ten-year period, whichever is later.

(c) Substitution of an unalterable electronic format. An unalterable electronic format, acceptable to EPA, may be substituted for the original records. The copying of any unalterable electronic format must be performed in accordance with the technical regulations concerning Federal Government records (36 CFR parts 1220 through 1234) and EPA records management requirements.

(d) Starting date of retention period. The recipient must comply with the requirements regarding the starting dates for records retention described in 40 CFR 31.42(c)(1) and (2).

§ 35.6710 Records access.

(a) Recipient requirements. The recipient must comply with the requirements regarding records access described in 40 CFR 31.42(e).

(b) Availability of records. The recipient must, with the exception of certain policy, deliberative, and enforcement documents which may be held confidential, ensure that all files are available to the public.

(c) Contractor requirements. The recipient must require its contractor to
