§ 405.927 Initial determinations subject to the reopenings process.
Minor errors or omissions in an initial determination must be corrected only through the contractor’s reopenings process under § 405.980(a)(3).

§ 405.928 Effect of the initial determination.
(a) An initial determination described in § 405.924(a) is binding unless it is revised or reconsidered in accordance with 20 CFR 404.907, or revised as a result of a reopening in accordance with 20 CFR 404.988.
(b) An initial determination described in § 405.924(b) is binding upon all parties to the initial determination unless—
(1) A redetermination is completed in accordance with § 405.940 through § 405.958; or
(2) The initial determination is revised as a result of a reopening in accordance with § 405.980.

§ 405.940 Right to a redetermination.
A person or entity that may be a party to a redetermination in accordance with § 405.906(b) and that is dissatisfied with an initial determination may request a redetermination by a contractor in accordance with § 405.940 through § 405.958, regardless of the amount in controversy.

§ 405.942 Time frame for filing a request for a redetermination.
(a) Time frame for filing a request. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, any request for redetermination must be filed within 120 calendar days from the date a party receives the notice of the initial determination.
(1) For purposes of this section, the date of receipt of the initial determination will be presumed to be 5 calendar days after the date of the notice of initial determination, unless there is evidence to the contrary.
(2) The request is considered as filed on the date it is received by the contractor.
(b) Extending the time frame for filing a request. General rule. If the 120 calendar day period in which to file a request for a redetermination has expired and a party shows good cause, the contractor may extend the time frame for filing a request for redetermination.
(1) How to request an extension. A party may file a request for an extension of time for filing a request for a redetermination with the contractor. The party should include any evidence supporting the request for extension. The request for redetermination extension must—
(i) Be in writing;
(ii) State why the request for redetermination was not filed within the required time frame;
(iii) Meet the requirements of § 405.944.
(2) How the contractor determines if good cause exists. In determining if a party has good cause for missing a deadline to request a redetermination, the contractor considers—
(i) The circumstances that kept the party from making the request on time;
(ii) If the contractor’s action(s) misled the party; and
(iii) If the party had or has any physical, mental, educational, or linguistic limitations, including any lack of facility with the English language, that prevented the party from filing a timely request or from understanding or knowing about the need to file a timely request.
(3) Examples of good cause. Examples of circumstances when good cause may be found to exist include, but are not limited to, the following situations:

(i) The party was prevented by serious illness from contacting the contractor in person, in writing, or through a friend, relative, or other person; or

(ii) The party had a death or serious illness in his or her immediate family; or

(iii) Important records of the party were destroyed or damaged by fire or other accidental cause; or

(iv) The contractor gave the party incorrect or incomplete information about when and how to request a redetermination; or

(v) The party did not receive notice of the determination or decision; or

(vi) The party sent the request to a Government agency in good faith within the time limit, and the request did not reach the appropriate contractor until after the time period to file a request expired.

§ 405.944 Place and method of filing a request for a redetermination.

(a) Filing location. The request for redetermination must be filed with the contractor indicated on the notice of initial determination.

(b) Content of redetermination request. The request for redetermination must be in writing and should be made on a standard CMS form. A written request that is not made on a standard CMS form is accepted if it contains the same required elements as follows:

(1) The beneficiary’s name;

(2) The Medicare health insurance claim number;

(3) Specific service(s) and/or item(s) for which the redetermination is being requested and the specific date(s) of the service;

(4) The name and signature of the party or the representative of the party.

(c) Requests for redetermination by more than one party. If more than one party timely files a request for redetermination on the same claim before a redetermination is made on the first timely filed request, the contractor must consolidate the separate requests into one proceeding and issue one redetermination.

§ 405.946 Evidence to be submitted with the redetermination request.

(a) Evidence submitted with the request. When filing the request for redetermination, a party must explain why it disagrees with the contractor’s determination and should include any evidence that the party believes should be considered by the contractor in making its redetermination.

(b) Evidence submitted after the request. When a party submits additional evidence after filing the request for redetermination, the contractor’s 60 calendar day decision-making time frame is automatically extended for up to 14 calendar days for each submission.

[70 FR 11472, Mar. 8, 2005, as amended at 70 FR 37702, June 30, 2005; 74 FR 65333, Dec. 9, 2009]

§ 405.948 Conduct of a redetermination.

A redetermination consists of an independent review of an initial determination. In conducting a redetermination, the contractor reviews the evidence and findings upon which the initial determination was based, and any additional evidence the parties submit or the contractor obtains on its own. An individual who was not involved in making the initial determination must make a redetermination. The contractor may raise and develop new issues that are relevant to the claims in the particular case.

§ 405.950 Time frame for making a redetermination.

(a) General rule. The contractor mails, or otherwise transmits, written notice of the redetermination or dismissal to the parties to the redetermination at their last known addresses within 60 calendar days of the date the contractor receives a timely filed request for redetermination.

(b) Exceptions. (1) If a contractor grants an appellant’s request for an extension of the 120 calendar day filing deadline made in accordance with §405.942(b), the 60 calendar day decision-making time frame begins on the date the contractor receives the late-filed request for redetermination, or
