§ 480.120 Information subject to disclosure.

Subject to the procedures for disclosure and notice of disclosure specified in §§ 480.104 and 480.105, the QIO must disclose—

(a) Nonconfidential information to any person upon request, including—

(1) The norms, criteria, and standards it uses for initial screening of cases, and for other review activities;

(2) Winning technical proposals for contracts from the Department, and winning technical proposals for subcontracts under those contracts (except for proprietary or business information);

(3) Copies of documents describing administrative procedures, agreed to between the QIO and institutions or between a QIO and the Medicare intermediary or Medicare carrier;

(4) Routine reports submitted by the QIO to CMS to the extent that they do not contain confidential information.

(b) Aggregated statistical information that does not implicitly or explicitly identify individual patients, practitioners, or reviewers, to Federal or State health planning agencies (including Health Systems Agencies and State Health Planning and Development Agencies) in carrying out their health care planning and related activities.

§ 480.121 Optional disclosure of non-confidential information.

A QIO may, on its own initiative, subject to the notification requirements in § 480.105, furnish the information available under § 480.120 to any person, agency, or organization.

§ 480.130 Disclosure to the Department.

Except as limited by § 480.139(a) and 480.140 of this subpart, QIOs must disclose all information requested by the Department to it in the manner and form required.

§ 480.131 Access to medical records for the monitoring of QIOs.

CMS or any person, organization or agency authorized by the Department or Federal statute to monitor a QIO will have access to medical records maintained by institutions or health care practitioners on Medicare patients. The monitor can require copies of the records.

§ 480.132 Disclosure of information about patients.

(a) General requirements for disclosure. Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, a QIO must—

(1) Disclose patient identified information in its possession to the identified patient or the patient’s representative if—

(i) The patient or the patient’s representative requests the information in writing;

(ii) The request by a patient’s representative includes the designation, by the patient, of the representative; and
(iii) All other patient and practitioner identifiers have been removed.

(2) Seek the advice of the attending practitioner that treated the patient regarding the appropriateness of direct disclosure to the patient 15 days before the QIO provides the requested information. If the attending practitioner states that the released information could harm the patient, the QIO must act in accordance with paragraph (c)(2) of this section. The QIO must make disclosure to the patient or patient's representative within 30 calendar days of receipt of the request.

(b) Exceptions.

(1) If the request is in connection with an initial denial determination under section 1154(a)(3) of the Act, the QIO—

(i) Need not seek the advice of the practitioner that treated the patient regarding the appropriateness of direct disclosure to the patient; and

(ii) Must provide only the information used to support that determination in accordance with the procedures for disclosure of information relating to determinations under §473.24.

(2) A QIO must disclose information regarding QIO deliberations only as specified in §480.139(a).

(3) A QIO must disclose quality review study information only as specified in §480.140.

(c) Manner of disclosure.

(1) The QIO must disclose the patient information directly to the patient unless knowledge of the information could harm the patient.

(2) If knowledge of the information could harm the patient, the QIO must disclose the information to the patient's designated representative.

(3) If the patient is mentally, physically or legally unable to designate a representative, the QIO must disclose the information to a person whom the QIO determines is responsible for the patient. The QIO must first attempt to make that determination based on other reliable information.

§480.133 Disclosure of information about practitioners, reviewers and institutions.

(a) General requirements for disclosure. Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, the following provisions are required of the QIO.

(1) Disclosure to the identified individual or institution. A QIO must disclose, to particular practitioners, reviewers and institutions, information about themselves, upon request, and may disclose it to them without a request.

(2) Disclosure to others. (i) A QIO must disclose to an institution, upon request, information on a practitioner to the extent that the information displays practice or performance patterns of the practitioner in that institution.

(ii) In accordance with section 1160 of the Act, a QIO must disclose information that displays practice or performance patterns of a practitioner or institution in accordance with the procedures for disclosures specified in §§480.137 and 480.138 to—

(A) Federal and State agencies that are responsible for the investigation of fraud and abuse of the Medicare or Medicaid programs, and

(B) Federal and State agencies that are responsible for licensing and certification of practitioners and providers.

(iii) A QIO may disclose to any person, agency, or organization information on a particular practitioner or reviewer at the written request of or with the written consent of that practitioner or reviewer. The recipient of the information has the same redisclosure rights and responsibilities as the requesting or consenting practitioner or reviewer as provided under this Subpart B.

(b) Exceptions. (1) If the request is in connection with an initial denial determination or a change resulting from a diagnostic related group (DRG) coding validation under Part 466 of this subchapter, the QIO must provide only the
