(7) A copy of the material used by the QIO in arriving at its finding except for QIO deliberations, as set forth in §476.139 of this part.

§ 1004.50 Meeting with a practitioner or other person.

If the practitioner or other person requests a meeting with the QIO—
(a) The QIO panel that meets with the practitioner or other person must consist of a minimum of 3 physicians;
(b) No physician member of the QIO panel may be in direct economic competition with the practitioner or other person being considered for sanction;
(c) The QIO must ensure that no physician member of the QIO panel has a substantial bias for or against the practitioner or other person being considered for sanction;
(d) At least one member of the QIO panel meeting with the practitioner or other person should practice in a similar area, e.g., urban or rural, and at least one member of the panel must be in the same specialty (both requirements could be met by a single individual);
(e) If the practitioner or other person has an attorney present, that attorney will be permitted to make opening and closing remarks, ask clarifying questions and assist the practitioner or other person in presenting the testimony of expert witnesses who may appear on the practitioner’s or other person behalf;
(f) The physician who recommends to the QIO that a practitioner or other person be sanctioned may not vote on that recommendation at the meeting;
(g) The QIO may allow the practitioner or other person 5 working days after the meeting to provide the QIO additional relevant information that may affect its finding; and
(h) A verbatim record must be made of the meeting and must be made available to the practitioner or other person promptly.

§ 1004.60 QIO finding of a violation.

(a) On the basis of any additional information received, the QIO will affirm or modify its finding. If the QIO affirms its finding, it may suggest in writing a method for correcting the situation and a time period for corrective action. This CAP could correspond with, or be a continuation of, a prior CAP or be a new proposal based on additional information received by the QIO. If the finding has been resolved to the QIO’s satisfaction, the QIO may modify its initial finding or recommendation or close the case.
(b) The QIO must give written notice to the practitioner or other person of any action it takes as a result of the additional information received, as specified in §1004.70.
(c) At least one member of the QIO participating in the process which resulted in a recommendation to the OIG that a practitioner or other person be sanctioned should practice in a similar geographic area, e.g., urban or rural, and at least one member of the panel must be in the same medical specialty. Both requirements can be met by a single individual. In addition, no one at the QIO who is a participant in such a finding may be in direct economic competition with, or have a substantial bias for or against, that practitioner or other person being recommended for sanction.

§ 1004.70 QIO action on final finding of a violation.

If the finding is not resolved to the QIO’s satisfaction as specified in §1004.60(a), the QIO must—
(a) Submit its report and recommendation to the OIG;
(b) Send the affected practitioner or other person a concurrent final notice, with a copy of all the material that is being forwarded to the OIG, advising that—
(1) The QIO recommendation has been submitted to the OIG;
(2) The practitioner or other person has 30 days from receipt of this final notice to submit any additional written material or documentary evidence to the OIG at its headquarters location. The date of receipt is presumed to be 5 days after the date on the notice, unless there is a reasonable showing to the contrary; and
(3) Due to the 120-day statutory requirement specified in §1004.100(e), the period for submitting additional information will not be extended and any material received by the OIG after the
