provision of legal assistance in the service area until the completion of a competitive bidding process within a reasonable period of time.

§ 1634.9 Selection criteria.
(a) The criteria to be used to select among qualified applicants shall include the following:
(1) Whether the applicant has a full understanding of the basic legal needs of the eligible clients in the area to be served;
(2) The quality, feasibility and cost-effectiveness of the applicant’s legal services delivery and delivery approach in relation to the Corporation’s Performance Criteria and the American Bar Association’s Standards for Providers of Civil Legal Services to the Poor, as evidenced by, among other things, the applicant’s experience with the delivery of the type of legal assistance contemplated under the proposal;
(3) Whether the applicant’s governing or policy body meets or will meet all applicable requirements of the LSC Act, regulations, guidelines, instructions and any other requirements of law in accordance with a time schedule set out by the Corporation;
(4) The applicant’s capacity to comply with all other applicable provisions of the LSC Act, rules, regulations, guidelines and instructions, as well as with ethical requirements and any other requirements imposed by law. Evidence of the applicant’s capacity to comply with this criterion may include, among other things, the applicant’s experience with the delivery of legal services in the State and its willingness to coordinate with the various components as appropriate to assure the availability of a full range of legal assistance, including:
(i) its capacity to cooperate with State and local bar associations, private attorneys and pro bono programs to increase the involvement of private attorneys in the delivery of legal assistance and the availability of pro bono legal services to eligible clients; and
(ii) its knowledge of and willingness to cooperate with other legal services providers, community groups, public interest organizations and human services providers in the service area;
(7) The applicant’s capacity to develop and increase non-Corporation resources;
(8) The applicant’s capacity to ensure continuity in client services and representation of eligible clients with pending matters; and
(9) The applicant does not have known or potential conflicts of interest, institutional or otherwise, with the client community and demonstrates a capacity to protect against such conflicts.
(b) In selecting recipients of awards for grants or contracts under this part, the Corporation shall not grant any preference to current or previous recipients of funds from the Corporation.

§ 1634.10 Transition provisions.
(a) When the competitive bidding process results in the award of a grant or contract to an applicant, other than the current recipient, to serve the area currently served by that recipient, the Corporation—
(1) may provide, if the law permits, continued funding to the current recipient, for a period of time and at a level to be determined by the Corporation after consultation with the recipient, to ensure the prompt and orderly completion of or withdrawal from pending cases or matters or the transfer of such cases or matters to the new recipient or to other appropriate legal service providers in a manner consistent with the rules of ethics or professional responsibility for the jurisdiction in which those services are being provided; and
(2) shall ensure, after consultation with the recipient, the appropriate disposition of real and personal property purchased by the current recipient in whole or in part with Corporation funds consistent with the Corporation’s policies.
