§ 2530.10 Under what circumstances may an individual transfer an education award?

An individual may transfer an education award if—
(a) The individual enrolled in an approved AmeriCorps State and National position or approved Silver Scholar position on or after October 1, 2009;
(b) The individual was age 55 or older on the day the individual commenced the term of service in an approved AmeriCorps State and National position or in approved Silver Scholar position;
(c) The individual successfully completed a term of service in an approved AmeriCorps State and National position or an approved Silver Scholar position;
(d) The award the individual is requesting to transfer has not expired, consistent with the period of availability set forth in §2526.40(a);
(e) The individual designated to receive the transferred award is the transferring individual’s child, grandchild, or foster child; and
(f) The individual designated to receive the transferred award is a citizen, national, or lawful permanent resident alien of the United States.

§ 2530.20 For what purposes may a transferred award be used?

A transferred award may be used by a designated individual to repay qualified student loans or to pay current educational expenses at an institution of higher education, as described in §2528.10.

§ 2530.30 What steps are necessary to transfer an education award?

(a) Request for Transfer. Before transferring an award to a designated individual, the Corporation must receive a request from the transferring individual, including—
(1) The individual’s written authorization to transfer the award, the year in which the award was earned, and the specific amount of the award to be transferred;
(2) Identifying information for the individual designated to receive the transferred award;
(3) A certification that the transferring individual meets the requirements of paragraphs (a) through (c) of §2530.10; and
(4) A certification that the designated individual is the child, grandchild, or foster child of the transferring individual.

(b) Notification to Designated Individual. Upon receipt of a request including all required information listed in paragraph (a) of this section, the Corporation will contact the designated individual to notify the individual of the proposed transfer, confirm the individual’s identity, and give the individual the opportunity to accept or reject the transferred award.

(c) Acceptance by Designated Individual. To accept an award, a designated individual must certify that the designated individual is the child,
§ 2530.40 Is there a limit on the number of individuals one may designate to receive a transferred award?

(a) General Limitation. For each award an individual earns as a result of successfully completing a single term of service, an individual may transfer all or part of the award to a single designated individual. An individual may not transfer a single award attributable to successful completion of a single term of service to more than one designated individual.

(b) Re-transfer. If a designated individual rejects a transferred award in full, or the Corporation otherwise determines that a transfer was revoked for good cause in accordance with §2530.80(c), the transferring individual may designate another individual to receive the transferred award.

§ 2530.50 Is there a limit on the amount of transferred awards a designated individual may receive?

Consistent with §2526.50, no individual may receive more than an amount equal to the value of two full-time education awards. If the sum of the value of the requested transfer plus the aggregate value of education awards a designated individual has previously received would exceed the aggregate value of two full-time education awards, as determined pursuant to §2526.50(b), the designated individual will be deemed to have rejected that portion of the award that would result in the excess. If a designated individual has already received the aggregate value of two full-time education awards, the individual may not receive a transferred education award, and the designated individual will be deemed to have rejected the award in full.

§ 2530.60 What is the impact of transferring or receiving a transferred education award on an individual’s eligibility to receive additional education awards?

(a) Impact on Transferring Individual. Pursuant to §2526.50, an award is considered to be received at the time it becomes available for an individual’s use. Transferring all or part of an award does not reduce the aggregate value of education awards the transferring individual is considered to have received.

(b) Impact on Designated Individual. For the purposes of determining the value of the transferred education award under §2526.50, a designated individual will be considered to have received a value equal to the amount accepted divided by the amount of a full-time award in the year the transferring individual’s position was approved.

(c) Result of revocation on award value. If the transferring individual revokes, in whole or in part, a transfer, the value of the education award considered to have been received by the designated individual for purposes of §2526.50 will be reduced accordingly.

§ 2530.70 Is a designated individual required to accept a transferred education award?

(a) General Rule. A designated individual is not required to accept a transferred education award, and may reject an award in whole or in part.

(b) Result of rejection in full. If the designated individual rejects a transferred award in whole, the amount is credited to the transferring individual’s account in the National Service Trust, and may be transferred to another individual, or may be used by the transferring individual for any of the purposes listed in §2528.10, consistent with the original time period of availability set forth in §2526.40(a).

(c) Result of rejection in part. If the designated individual rejects a transferred award in part, the rejected portion is credited to the transferring individual’s account in the National Service Trust.
