PART 1—ORGANIZATION AND DELEGATION OF POWERS AND DUTIES

Subpart A—General
Sec.
1.1 Purpose.
1.2 Definitions.
1.3 Organization of the Department.
1.4 General responsibilities.

Subpart B—Office of the Secretary
1.21 Purpose.
1.22 Structure.
1.23 Spheres of primary responsibility.
1.24 Authority.
1.25 Relationships.
1.26 Secretarial succession.

Subpart C—Delegations
1.41 Purpose.
1.42 Exercise of authority.
1.43 General limitations and reservations.
1.44 Reservation of authority.
1.45 Delegations to all Administrators.
1.46 Delegations to the Administrator of the Research and Innovative Technology Administration.
1.47 Delegations to the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administrator.
1.48 Delegations to Federal Railroad Administrator.
1.50 Delegations to Federal Transit Administrator.
1.51 Delegations to Saint Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation Administrator.
1.52 Delegations to the Director of the Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration.
1.53 Delegations to all Secretarial Officers.
1.54 Delegations to Deputy Secretary.
1.55 Delegations to the Assistant Secretary for Transportation Policy.
1.56 Delegations to the Assistant Secretary for Aviation and International Affairs.
1.56a Delegations to the Assistant Secretary for Aviation and International Affairs.
1.57 Delegations to General Counsel.
1.57a Delegations to Deputy General Counsel.
1.57b Delegations to the Assistant General Counsel for Operations.
1.58 Delegations to Assistant Secretary for Budget and Programs.
1.59 Delegations to Assistant Secretary for Administration.
1.59a Redelegations by the Assistant Secretary for Administration.
1.60 Delegations to the Inspector General.
1.61 Delegations to Assistant Secretary for Governmental Affairs.
1.62 Delegations to the Director of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization.
1.63 Delegations to Assistant to the Secretary and Director of Public Affairs.
1.64 Delegations to the Director, Transportation Administrative Service Center.
1.65 Authority to classify information.
1.66 Delegations to Maritime Administrator.
1.67 Delegations to Maritime Subsidy Board.
1.68 Delegations to the Under Secretary of Transportation for Security for the Transportation Security Administration.
1.69 Delegations to the Director of Intelligence, Security, and Emergency Response.
1.70 Delegations to the Director of the Departmental Office of Civil Rights.
1.71 [Reserved]
1.72 Delegations to the Chief Information Officer.
1.73 Delegation to the Administrator of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration.
1.74 Delegations to the Under Secretary for Transportation Policy.

APPENDIX A TO PART 1—DELEGATIONS AND REDELEGATIONS BY SECRETARIAL OFFICERS

SOURCE: Amdt. 1–113, 40 FR 33901, Sept. 24, 1975, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart A—General
§ 1.1 Purpose.
This part describes the organization of the Department of Transportation and provides for the performance of duties imposed upon, and the exercise of powers vested in, the Secretary of Transportation by law.
(74 FR 36982, June 5, 2009)

§ 1.2 Definitions.
As used in this part, Administrator includes:
(a) The Federal Aviation Administrator.
§ 1.3 Organization of the Department.

(a) The Secretary of Transportation is the head of the Department.

(b) The Department is comprised of the Office of the Secretary and the following operating elements, the heads of which report directly to the Secretary:

(1) The Federal Aviation Administration, headed by the Administrator.

(2) The Federal Highway Administration, headed by the Administrator.

(3) The Federal Railroad Administration, headed by the Administrator.

(4) The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, headed by the Administrator.

(5) The Federal Transit Administration, headed by the Administrator.

(6) The St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation, headed by the Administrator.

(7) The Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration, headed by the Administrator.

(8) The Maritime Administration, headed by the Administrator and including within it the Maritime Subsidy Board composed of the Maritime Administrator, the Deputy Maritime Administrator, and the Chief Counsel of the Maritime Administration.

(9) The Research and Innovative Technology Administration, headed by the Administrator.

(10) The Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration, headed by the Administrator.

(11) The Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration, headed by the Administrator.

§ 1.4 General responsibilities.

(a) Office of the Secretary. Provides for:

(1) Leadership in formulating and executing well-balanced national and international transportation objectives, policies, and programs;

(2) Stimulating and promoting research and development in all modes and types of transportation, with special emphasis on transportation safety;

(3) Coordinating the various transportation programs of the Federal Government;

(4) Encouraging maximum private development of transportation services;

(5) Responsive, timely, and effective liaison with Congress, and public and private organizations on transportation matters;

(6) Innovative approaches to urban transportation and environmental enhancement programs; and

(7) Effective management of the Department as a whole.

(b) The Federal Aviation Administration. Is responsible for:

(1) Promulgating and enforcing regulations on all safety matters relating to the manufacture, operation, and maintenance of aircraft;

(2) Registering aircraft and recording rights in aircraft;

(3) Developing, modifying, testing, and evaluating systems, procedures, facilities, and devices needed for the safe and efficient navigation and traffic control of aircraft;

(4) Locating, constructing or installing, maintaining, and operating Federal aids to air navigation, wherever necessary;