Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA

§ 56.38  Retention authorities.

A grader may use retention tags or other devices and methods as approved...
§ 56.39 Quality assurance inspector required.

The official identification with the grademark of any product as provided in §§56.35 to 56.41, inclusive, shall be done only under the supervision of a grader or quality assurance inspector. The grader or quality assurance inspector shall have supervision over the use and handling of all material bearing any official identification.

§ 56.40 Grading requirements of shell eggs identified with grademarks.

(a) Shell eggs to be identified with the grademarks illustrated in §56.36 must be individually graded by a grader or by authorized personnel pursuant to §56.11 and thereafter check graded by a grader.

(b) Shell eggs not graded in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section may be officially graded on a sample basis and the shipping containers may be identified with grademarks which contain the words “Sample Graded” and which are approved by the Administrator.

(c) In order to be officially identified with a USDA consumer grademark, shell eggs shall:

1. Be eggs of current production;

2. Not possess any undesirable odors or flavors; and

3. Not have previously been shipped for retail sale.

§ 56.41 Check grading officially identified product.

Officially identified shell eggs packed or received in an official plant may be subject to final check grading prior to their shipment. Such product found not to be in compliance with the assigned official grade shall be placed under a retention tag until it is regraded to comply with the grade assigned or until the official identification is removed.

§§ 56.42–56.43 [Reserved]

FEES AND CHARGES

§ 56.45 Payment of fees and charges.

(a) Fees and charges for any grading service shall be paid by the interested party making the application for such grading service, in accordance with the applicable provisions of this section and §§56.46 to 56.54, both inclusive; and, if so required by the grader, such fees and charges shall be paid in advance.

(b) Fees and charges for any grading service shall, unless otherwise required pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, be paid by check, draft, or money order payable to the Agricultural Marketing Service and remitted promptly to the AMS.

(c) Fees and charges for any grading service under a cooperative agreement with any State or person shall be paid in accordance with the terms of such cooperative agreement.
