administrative law judge no longer needs it.

(c) Limitations on the power of the administrative law judge. The administrative law judge may not issue an order of contempt, award costs to any party, or impose any sanction not specified in this subpart. If the administrative law judge imposes any sanction not specified in this subpart, a party may file an interlocutory appeal of right pursuant to §406.173(c). This section does not preclude an administrative law judge from issuing an order that bars a person from a specific proceeding based on a finding of obstreperous or disruptive behavior in that specific proceeding.

(d) Disqualification. The administrative law judge may disqualify himself or herself at any time. A party may file a motion, pursuant to §406.141(f)(8), requesting that an administrative law judge be disqualified from the proceeding.

§406.113 Filing documents with the Docket Management System (DMS) and sending documents to the administrative law judge and Assistant Chief Counsel for Litigation.

(a) The Federal Docket Management System (FDMS). (1) Documents filed in a civil penalty adjudication are kept in the Federal Docket Management System (FDMS), except for documents that contain confidential information in accordance with 406.117. The FDMS is an electronic docket. Documents that are filed are scanned into the electronic docket and an index is made of all documents that have been filed so that any person may view the index and documents as provided in paragraph (f) of this section.

(b) Method of filing. A person filing a document must mail or personally deliver the signed original and one copy of each document to the FDMS at the U.S. Department of Transportation, Docket Operations, West Building Ground Floor, Room W12–140, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, DC 20590. A person must serve a copy of each document on each party in accordance with 406.115.

(c) Date of filing. The date of filing is the date of personal delivery, or if mailed, the mailing date shown on any § 406.115 Serving documents on other parties.

(a) Service required. A person must serve on each other party at the time of filing a copy of any document filed with the Federal Docket Management System. Service on a party’s attorney or representative of record is adequate service on the party.

(b) Method of service. A person must serve documents by personal delivery or by mail.

d) Certificate of service. A person may attach a certificate of service to a document filed with the FDMS. Any certificate of service must include a statement, dated and signed by the individual filing the document, that the document was served on each party, the method of service, and the date of service.
