(2) Date duty, if any, was paid; and
(3) Number of the entry.

(c) Aircraft not entered as imported article—(1) Treatment as other than an imported article. A commercial aircraft covered by this section which has not been entered as an imported article may travel from airport to airport in the U.S. without payment of duty. Each commercial aircraft shall proceed under a permit on Customs Form 7507 or 7509, as provided in §122.54. Treatment of the aircraft as other than an imported article shall continue for so long as the aircraft:
(i) Is used only for commercial purposes between the U.S. and foreign areas; and
(ii) Will leave the U.S. for a foreign destination in commercial use or carrying neither passengers nor cargo.
(2) Treatment as an imported article. Any aircraft covered by this section which was not entered as an imported article shall make entry if it:
(i) Is withdrawn from commercial use between the U.S. and foreign areas; or
(ii) Is used in the U.S. in a way not reasonably related to efficient commercial use of the aircraft between the U.S. and foreign areas.
(3) Aircraft damage and duty payment—(i) Substantial damage to commercial aircraft. If an accident causes substantial damage to a commercial aircraft, no entry or duty payment is required for any part of the wreckage.
(ii) Less than substantial damage and export. If an accident does not cause substantial damage to a commercial aircraft, salvageable parts of the wrecked aircraft may be exported. In this circumstance, the aircraft, as a whole or in part, is not considered to be withdrawn from commercial use and is not subject to entry or duty as imported merchandise.
(iii) Less than substantial damage and no export. If an accident does not cause substantial damage to a commercial aircraft and the wrecked aircraft or any salvageable part of it is not exported, then:
(A) Entry is required to be made for the damaged aircraft or any salvageable part of it; and
(B) A duty payment, if applicable, based on the condition of the aircraft following the accident, is required.

Aircraft are not required to clear if the Secretary of Commerce issues a permit allowing departure without clearance.

(c) Department of State. Aircraft not covered by Export Administration Regulations are subject to the Department of State export licensing authority as set out in 22 CFR parts 121 and 123. Such aircraft may depart from the U.S. only with the proper Department of State license.

§ 122.63 Scheduled airlines.

The aircraft commander or agent shall request clearance or permission to depart for aircraft of scheduled airlines covered by this subpart.

Aircraft may clear at each airport where merchandise and/or passengers are taken on board for transport outside of the U.S. The clearance applies only to the merchandise and passengers boarding at each place. Clearance shall be requested at the Customs port of entry (regardless of whether it is an international airport) nearest to the place where merchandise and/or passengers are taken on board.
