(b) Where a determination of the Administration is revised under paragraph (a) of this section, the notice of revision shall inform the parties of their right to a hearing as provided in §410.678.

(c)(1) Where an Administrative Law Judge or the Appeals Council proposes to revise a decision under paragraph (a) of this section and the revision would be based on evidence theretofore not included in the record on which the decision proposed to be revised was based, the parties shall be given notice of the proposal of the Administrative Law Judge or the Appeals Council, as the case may be, to revise such decision, and unless hearing is waived, a hearing with respect to such proposed revision shall be granted as provided in this subpart F.

(2) If a revised decision is appropriate, such decision shall be rendered by the Administrative Law Judge or the Appeals Council, as the case may be, on the basis of the entire record, including the additional evidence. If the decision is revised by an Administrative Law Judge, any party thereto may request review by the Appeals Council (§§410.660 and 410.661) or the Appeals Council may review the decision on its own motion (§410.662).

§410.677 Effect of revised determination.

The revision of a determination or decision shall be final and binding upon all parties thereto unless a party authorized to do so (see §410.676) files a written request for a hearing with respect to a revised determination in accordance with §410.678 or a revised decision is reviewed by the Appeals Council as provided in this subpart F, or such revised determination or decision is further revised in accordance with §410.672.

§410.678 Time and place of requesting hearing on revised determination.

The request for hearing shall be made in writing and filed at an office of the Social Security Administration, or with a presiding officer, or the Appeals Council, within 60 days after the date of receipt of notice of the revised determination. Upon the filing of such a request, a hearing with respect to such revision shall be held (see §§410.631 through 410.653) and a decision made in accordance with the provisions of §410.654. For purposes of this section, the date of receipt of notice of the revised determination shall be presumed to be 5 days after the date of such notice, unless there is a reasonable showing to the contrary.

[41 FR 47918, Nov. 1, 1976]

§410.679 Finality of findings with respect to other claims for benefits based on the disability or death of a miner.

Findings of fact made in a determination or decision in a claim by one party for benefits may be revised in determining or deciding another claim for benefits based on the disability or death of the same miner, even though such findings may not be revised in the former claim because of the provisions of §410.672.

§410.680 Imposition of reductions.

The imposition of reductions constitutes an initial determination with respect to each month for which a reduction is imposed. A finding that a reduction is not to be imposed is an initial determination for each month with respect to which the circumstances upon which such finding was based remain unchanged. The suspension of benefits, pending a determination as to the applicability of a reduction equivalent to the amount of a deduction because of excess earnings under section 203(b) of the Social Security Act shall not, however, constitute an initial determination (see §410.615(a)).

§410.681 Change of ruling or legal precedent.

Good cause shall be deemed not to exist where the sole basis for reopening the determination or decision is a change of legal interpretation or administrative ruling upon which such determination or decision was made.

§410.682 General applicability.

The provisions of §§410.672, 410.673, and 410.679 to 410.681, inclusive, shall be applicable notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in this subpart F.
