Peace Corps

§ 308.4 Disclosure of records.

The agency will not disclose any personal information from systems of records it maintains to any individual other than the individual to whom the record pertains, or to another agency, without the express written consent of the individual to whom the record pertains, or his or her agent or attorney, except in the following instances:

(a) To officers or employees of the Peace Corps having a need for such record in the official performance of their duties.

(b) When required under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552).

(c) For routine uses as published in the Federal Register.

(d) To the Bureau of the Census for uses pursuant to title 13.

(e) To an individual or agency having a proper need for such record for statistical research provided that such record is transmitted in a form which is not individually identifiable and that an appropriate written statement is obtained from the person to whom the record is transmitted stating the purpose for the request and a certification under oath that the records will be used only for statistical purposes.
