§ 541.50 Release from a control unit.

(a) Only the Executive Panel may release an inmate from a control unit. The following factors are considered in the evaluation of an inmate’s readiness for release from a control unit:

1. Relationship with other inmates and staff members, which demonstrates that the inmate is able to function in a less restrictive environment without posing a threat to others or to the orderly operation of the institution;

2. Involvement in work and recreational activities and assignments;

3. Adherence to institution guidelines and Bureau of Prisons rules and policy;

4. Personal grooming and cleanliness; and

5. Quarters sanitation.

(b) An inmate released from a control unit may be returned:

1. To the institution from which the inmate was originally transferred;

2. To another federal or non-federal institution; or

3. Into the general population of the institution which has a control unit.
