Office of the Secretary of the Treasury

§ 0.211 Soliciting, selling and canvassing.
Employees shall not solicit, make collections, canvass for the sale of any article, or distribute literature or advertising in any space occupied by the Department without appropriate authority.

§ 0.212 Influencing legislation or petitioning Congress.
(a) Employees shall not use Government time, money, or property to petition a Member of Congress to favor or oppose any legislation. This prohibition does not apply to the official handling, through the proper channels, of matters relating to legislation in which the Department of the Treasury has an interest.
(b) Employees, individually or collectively, may petition Congress or Members of Congress or furnish information to either House of Congress when not using Government time, money or property (5 U.S.C. 7211).

§ 0.213 General conduct prejudicial to the Government.
Employees shall not engage in criminal, infamous, dishonest, or notoriously disgraceful conduct, or any other conduct prejudicial to the Government.

§ 0.214 Nondiscrimination.
(a) Employees shall not discriminate against or harass any other employee, applicant for employment or person dealing with the Department on official business on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, or disability. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination and is prohibited by this section.
(b) An employee who engages in discriminatory conduct may be disciplined under these rules. However, this section does not create any enforceable legal rights in any person.

§ 0.215 Possession of weapons and explosives.
(a) Employees shall not possess firearms, explosives, or other dangerous or deadly weapons, either openly or concealed, while on Government property or official duty.
(b) The prohibition in paragraph (a) of this section does not apply to employees who are required to possess weapons or explosives in the performance of their official duties.

§ 0.216 Privacy Act.
Employees involved in the design, development, operation, or maintenance of any system of records or in maintaining records subject to the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552a), shall comply with the conduct regulations delineated in 31 CFR 1.28(b).

§ 0.217 Personal financial interests.
(a) Employees may hold the following financial interests without violating 18 U.S.C. 208(a):
(1) The stocks or bonds of a publicly traded corporation with a value of $1000 or less; and
(2) The stocks or bonds in the investment portfolio of a diversified mutual fund in which an employee has invested.
(b) The Department has found that the financial interests listed in paragraph (a) of this section are too remote and inconsequential to affect the integrity of an employee’s service.

Subpart C—Special Government Employees

§ 0.301 Applicability of subpart B.
The rules of conduct contained in subpart B of this part apply to special Government employees employed with the Treasury Department. The regulations contained in § 0.201 of subpart B, concerning political activity, apply to special Government employees only on the days that they serve the Department. Treasury bureaus are responsible for informing special Government employees employed with them of the applicability of bureau specific statutes or regulations.
