§ 537.403 Termination and acquisition of an interest in blocked property.

(a) Whenever a transaction licensed or authorized by or pursuant to this part results in the transfer of property (including any property interest) away from a person, such property shall no longer be deemed to be property blocked pursuant to §537.201(a), unless there exists in the property another interest that is blocked pursuant to §537.201(a) or any other part of this chapter, the transfer of which has not been effected pursuant to license or other authorization.

(b) Unless otherwise specifically provided in a license or authorization issued pursuant to this part, if property (including any property interest) is transferred or attempted to be transferred to a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to §537.201(a), such property shall be deemed to be property in which that person has an interest and therefore blocked.

§ 537.404 Transactions incidental to a licensed transaction authorized.

(a) Any transaction ordinarily incident to a licensed transaction and necessary to give effect thereto is also authorized, except:

(1) A transaction, not explicitly authorized within the terms of the license, by or with a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to §537.201(a), except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section; or

(2) A transaction, not explicitly authorized within the terms of the license, involving a debit to a blocked account or a transfer of blocked property, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Transactions licensed pursuant to subpart E of this part and those transactions falling within the scope of paragraph (a) of this section are authorized even though they may involve transfers to or from an account of a financial institution whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to §537.201(a), provided that the account is not on the books of a financial institution that is a U.S. person.

§ 537.405 Provision of services.

(a) Except as provided in §537.210, the prohibitions on transactions involving blocked property contained in §537.201 apply to services performed in the United States or by U.S. persons, wherever located, including by an overseas branch of an entity located in the United States:

(1) On behalf of or for the benefit of a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to §537.201(a); or

(2) With respect to property interests subject to §537.201.

(b) Example: U.S. persons may not, except as authorized by or pursuant to this part, provide legal, accounting, financial, brokering, freight forwarding, transportation, public relations, or other services to a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to §537.201(a).

NOTE TO §537.405: See §§537.507 and 537.508 on licensing policy with regard to the provision of certain legal or medical services, respectively.

§ 537.406 Offshore transactions.

The prohibitions in §537.201 on transactions involving blocked property apply to transactions by any U.S. person in a location outside the United States with respect to property that the U.S. person knows, or has reason to know, is held in the name of a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to §537.201(a) or in which the U.S. person knows, or has reason to know, a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to §537.201(a) has or has had an interest since the effective date.

§ 537.407 Payments from blocked accounts to satisfy obligations prohibited.

Pursuant to §537.201, no debits may be made to a blocked account to pay obligations to U.S. persons or other persons, except as authorized by or pursuant to this part.
