§ 892.203 When will my premium conversion begin?

If you are newly employed or newly eligible for FEHB in a covered Executive Branch agency (as described in paragraph (a)), you may enroll in the premium conversion plan beginning on the first day of the following month after the date your employment becomes effective, or after the date your eligibility becomes effective, whichever comes first. If you are currently employed in an Executive Branch agency (as described in paragraph (a)) and your pay is issued by an agency of the Executive Branch of the Federal government, you may enroll in the premium conversion plan beginning on the first day of the following month after the date you enroll in the FEHB Program, or after the date your eligibility becomes effective, whichever comes first.
§ 892.204
How do I waive participation in premium conversion before the benefit first becomes effective?
You must file a waiver form by the date set by your employing office, but not later than the day before the effective date of coverage. The waiver form is available from your employing office.

§ 892.205
May I waive participation in premium conversion after the initial implementation?
Yes, but the opportunity to waive premium conversion is limited. You may waive premium conversion:
(a) During the annual FEHB open season. The effective date of the waiver will be the first day of the first pay period that begins in the following calendar year;
(b) At the same time as you sign up for FEHB when first hired or hired as a reemployed annuitant. Employees who leave Federal service and are rehired after a three-day break in service or in a different calendar year also may waive;
(c) In conjunction with a change in FEHB enrollment, on account of and consistent with a qualifying life event (see §892.101); or
(d) When you have a qualifying life event and the waiver is on account of and consistent with that qualifying life event (even if you do not change your FEHB enrollment). You have 60 days after the qualifying life event to file a waiver with your employer. The waiver is effective on the first day of the pay period following the date your employer receives the waiver.

§ 892.206
Can I cancel my waiver and participate in premium conversion?
Yes, you may cancel a waiver and participate in premium conversion if:
(a) You have a qualifying life event; the change in FEHB coverage is consistent with the qualifying life event; and you complete an election form to participate in premium conversion within 60 days after the qualifying life event; or
(b) You cancel your waiver during an open season, including an extended open season authorized by OPM.

§ 892.207
Can I make changes to my FEHB enrollment while I am participating in premium conversion?
(a) Subject to the exceptions described in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, you can make changes to your FEHB enrollment for the same reasons and with the same effective dates listed in §890.301 of this chapter.
(b) However, if you are participating in premium conversion there are two exceptions: you must have a qualifying life event to change from self and family enrollment to self only enrollment or to drop FEHB coverage entirely. (See §892.209 and §892.210.) Your change in enrollment must be consistent with and correspond to your qualifying life event as described in §892.101. These limitations apply only to changes you may wish to make outside open season.
(c) If you are subject to a court or administrative order as discussed in §890.301(g)(3) of this chapter, your employing agency can limit a change to your enrollment as long as the court or administrative order is still in effect and you have at least one child identified in the order who is still eligible under the FEHB Program, unless you provide documentation to your agency that you have other coverage for your child or children. See also §892.208 and §892.209.

§ 892.208
Can I change my enrollment from self and family to self only at any time?
If you are participating in premium conversion you may change your FEHB enrollment from self and family to self only under either of the following circumstances:
(a) During the annual open season. A change to self only made during the annual open season takes effect on the 1st day of the first pay period that begins in the next year.
(b) Within 60 days after you have a qualifying life event. A change to self only made because of a qualifying life event...
