§ 725.217 Determination of dependency; surviving divorced spouse.

An individual who is the miner’s surviving divorced spouse (see §725.216) shall be determined to have been dependent on the miner if, for the month before the month in which the miner died:

(a) The individual was receiving at least one-half of his or her support from the miner (see §725.233(g)); or

(b) The individual was receiving substantial contributions from the miner pursuant to a written agreement (see §725.233(c) and (f)); or

(c) A court order required the miner to furnish substantial contributions to the individual’s support (see §725.233(c) and (e)).

§ 725.218 Conditions of entitlement; child.

(a) An individual is entitled to benefits where he or she meets the required standards of relationship and dependency under this subpart (see §725.220 and §725.221) and is the child of a deceased miner who:

1. Was receiving benefits under section 415 or part C of title IV of the Act as a result of a claim filed prior to January 1, 1982, or

2. Is determined as a result of a claim filed prior to January 1, 1982, to have been totally disabled due to pneumoconiosis. A surviving dependent child of a miner whose claim is filed on or after January 1, 1982, must establish that the miner’s death was due to pneumoconiosis in order to establish entitlement to benefits, except where entitlement is established under §718.306 of this subchapter on a claim filed prior to June 30, 1982.

(b) A child is not entitled to benefits for any month for which a miner, or the surviving spouse or surviving divorced spouse of a miner, establishes entitlement to benefits.

§ 725.219 Duration of entitlement; child.

(a) An individual is entitled to benefits as a child for each month beginning with the first month in which all of the conditions of entitlement prescribed in §725.218 are satisfied.

(b) The last month for which such individual is entitled to such benefits is the month before the month in which any one of the following events first occurs:

1. The child dies;

2. The child marries;

3. The child attains age 18; and

   (i) Is not a student (as defined in §725.209(b)) during any part of the month in which the child attains age 18; and

   (ii) Is not under a disability (as defined in §725.209(a)(2)(ii)) at that time;

4. If the child’s entitlement beyond age 18 is based on his or her status as a student, the earlier of:

   (i) The first month during no part of which the child is a student; or

   (ii) The month in which the child attains age 23 and is not under a disability (as defined in §725.209(a)(2)(ii)) at that time;

5. If the child’s entitlement beyond age 18 is based on disability, the first month in no part of which such individual is under a disability.

(c) A child whose entitlement to benefits terminated with the month before the month in which the child attained age 18, or later, may thereafter (provided such individual is not married) again become entitled to such benefits upon filing application for such reentitlement, beginning with the first month after termination of benefits in which such individual is a student and has not attained the age of 23.

(d) A child whose entitlement to benefits has been terminated pursuant to §725.219(b)(2) may thereafter again become entitled to such benefits upon filing application for such reentitlement, beginning with the first month after the marriage ends and such individual meets the requirements of §725.218. The individual shall not be required to reestablish the miner’s entitlement to benefits (§725.218(a)(1)) or the miner’s death due to pneumoconiosis (§725.212(a)(2)).
