§ 301–10.200  What types of Government vehicles may my agency authorize me to use?

You may be authorized to use:
(a) A Government automobile in accordance with § 301–10.220;
(b) A Government aircraft in accordance with §§ 301–10.260 through 301–10.262 of this part; and
(c) Other type of Government vehicle in accordance with any Government-issued rules governing its use.

§ 301–10.201  For what purposes may I use a Government vehicle other than a Government aircraft?

Only for official purposes which include transportation:
(a) Between places of official business;
(b) Between such places and places of temporary lodging when public transportation is unavailable or its use is impractical;
(c) Between either paragraph (a) or (b) of this section and restaurants, drug stores, barber shops, places of worship, cleaning establishments, and similar places necessary for the sustenance, comfort, or health of the employee to foster the continued efficient performance of Government business; or
(d) As otherwise authorized by your agency under 31 U.S.C. 1344.

§ 301–10.202  What is my liability for unauthorized use of a Government vehicle?

You are responsible for any additional cost resulting from unauthorized use of a Government vehicle and you may be subject to administrative and/or criminal liability for misuse of Government property.

§ 301–10.220  What requirements must I meet to operate a Government automobile for official travel?

You must possess a valid State, District of Columbia, or territorial motor vehicle operator’s license and have a travel authorization specifically authorizing the use of a Government-furnished automobile.

§ 301–10.260  May I use a Government aircraft for travel?

You may use Government aircraft for travel only if you have authorization from an executive agency under the rules specified in this part (except with regard to travel under § 301–70.808 and § 301–70.910). Because the taxpayers should pay no more than necessary for your transportation, generally you may travel on Government aircraft only when a Government aircraft is the most cost-effective mode of travel.

§ 301–10.261  When may I use a Government aircraft for travel?

You may use Government aircraft—
(a) For official travel only when—
(1) No scheduled commercial airline service is reasonably available (i.e., able to meet your departure and/or arrival requirements within a 24-hour period, unless you demonstrate that extraordinary circumstances require a shorter period) to fulfill your agency’s travel requirement; or
(2) The cost of using a Government aircraft is less than the cost of the city-pair fare for scheduled commercial airline service or the cost of the lowest available full coach fare if a city-pair fare is not available to you. The cost of non-productive or lost work time while in travel status and certain other costs should be considered when comparing the cost of using a Government aircraft in lieu of scheduled commercial airline service. Additional information on costs included in this cost comparison may be found in the “U.S. Government Aircraft Cost Accounting Guide,” available from the General Services Administration, Office of Government-wide Policy, MTA, 1800 F Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20405.
(b) For required-use travel only when you are required to use Government aircraft for bona fide communications (e.g., 24-hour secure communications) or security reasons (e.g., highly unusual circumstances that present a
